Little Zoey, owned by Jason Arguello, receives a vaccination from Jared Tisdale while Dr. Daniel Holt of Sierra Animal Clinic holds the dog. The Howard County Humane Society and Sierra Animal Clinic held a vaccination clinic Saturday as a fund-raiser for the United Way of Big Spring and Howard County. The annual event drew a large crowd to the Humane Society to take advantage the low-cost vaccination shots. The Humane Society is one of the area agencies that receives funds from the local United Way. A portion of the funds are used to help area residents who are older than 65 and meet the low-income requirement to help pay for certain pet expenses. At left, Khole and Barney are brought in by their owners Joe and Debbie Thompson to take advantage of Saturday's clinic.

Cake bakers needed for fund-raiser

Herald Staff Report

Calling all bakers:

Healthy Woman - a Scenic Mountain Medical Center Resource - is hosting a Breast Cancer Awareness event Oct. 23 in the Senior Circle Room. This will be a two-part event including an informational session and a live cake auction.

Healthy Woman is looking for any and all bakers who would like to donate a cake to this cause. The theme is Breast Cancer Awareness and all funds raised will be donated to the Howard/ Glasscock Relay For Life.

The schedule for this event will be as follows:

11:30 a.m. — Lunch n Learn, featuring Director of Radiology Sims Kendall.

Also on hand will be Mammographer Ginger Silva. Information from the American Cancer Society will be available. All cakes for the auction will be displayed during the lunch event. There will be a donation jar by each cake. The cake with the most "votes" — votes can be made by donation — will receive a prize. 5:30 p.m. — Live Cake Auction. All cakes will be "Breast Cancer Awareness" themed. This will include cakes, cupcakes and cookies. Informational tables will be set up during this time, including local resources, statistics and support groups.

If you would like to donate a cake for the auction, contact Amanda Duforat at 268-4699 for more details.

Gasoline prices take 2.7-cent dip in Texas

Domestic abuse a very real problem

Herald Staff Report

Domestic violence isn't limited to incidents in hotel elevators and the talking points of national pundits.

As a reminder of how close to home domestic violence is. officials with Victim Services set up a display of six life-size silhouettes at the Howard County Courthouse representing real area women who lost their lives because of domesticate abuse. The display will stay up through October, which is designated National Domestic Violence Awareness month.

In 2013, Victim Services of Big Spring served 306 clients, victims of violent acts ranging from physical and sexual abuse to survivors of a homicide victim. Victim Services covers six counties -Howard, Martin, Glasscock,

Mitchell, Borden and Dawson — providing assistance to all crime victims to help in their recovery and assist them throughout the medical, legal and criminal justice process. Of the above statistic, the majority of those victims lived in Howard County, officials

Obituaries

Joe May

Joe May passed away peacefully in his sleep on Friday, Oct. 3, 2014, at the age of 74.

He was loved by many, whether they knew him as Joe, Papa Joe, Merlin, M.J., Bro, PaPa, or Dad. As he did not like formal occasions; he never wanted a typical service. Friends of Joe's are invited to join the family from 4 to 6 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 7 at Myers & Smith to laugh, reminisce and celebrate a life well lived.

Joe spent more than 30 years working in the West Texas oilfields for Texaco.

After retirement he was known as an international traveler, a voracious reader and a doting grand-

Joe's story began on Feb. 3, 1940, on a farm in Cooke County, Texas, just outside of Gainesville. His mother walked to the nearest mercantile to weigh him and his twin sister Joyce, recording them as approximately five pounds each. At the age of 6, the family loaded their belongings and drove to Hobbs, N.M., where Joe began his education.

After graduating high school, Joe moved to Houston to live with his older brother, Don. He enrolled at The University of Houston, and to make ends meet he sold shoes at the downtown Foley's department store.

He returned to Hobbs and married Edna Maness, and they had two children, Jolene and Scott. After their marriage ended, Joe moved to Midland, began his career with Texaco, and met the love of his life, Lorna Lou Pate. He and Lorna married in 1969, later moved to Lamesa, and began a family, welcoming Jeffrey and Jennifer.

The family moved to Big Spring in 1978, settling into a home where he lived the remainder of his life. He was an attentive, involved father, participating in many activities with his children and leading the family on interesting vacations. His unique sense of humor and his delight in making others laugh earned him a diverse group of friends and admirers. Joe had a tender place in his heart for the elderly, a special connection with those in his kids' generation, and a kinship with the very

Joe and Lorna spent much of their retirement traveling throughout Texas and the Pacific North-

They also enjoyed taking cruises together, exploring many international ports. During these later years, their relationship surpassed the roles of husband and wife and their love and fondness grew deeper than ever.

He often commented on how lucky he was to spend 45 years with "the most beautiful and intelligent woman in the world."

More than anything, Joe and Lorna treasured the years they were able to grandparent together.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents, JM and Olie Belle May, brothers Kenneth, Carroll and Don May, and sister Joyce May.

Survivors include wife Lorna, daughters Jennifer May of Big Spring and Jolene and husband Erich Kleinsteuber of Midland, and sons Jeffrey May and wife Jennifer of Arlington, and Scott Byron and wife Christy May of Buffalo, N.Y., "Grands" Alex May and Madison Lamb of Arlington, Michael and wife Bobbie Bostick of Midland, Jonathan and wife Amanda Bostick of Hobbs, Chad and wife Kathy Kleinsteuber of Midland, Kerri and husband Ross Owings of Midland. Great-grandchildren include Maci, Jonathan, and Troy Bostick; Jacob, Makenzie, and Andrew Kleinsteuber; Kennedy and Ryan Owings. Joe is also survived by his cherished brother Weldon and wife Phyllis of Plano, beloved sister Marvelene Appleton of Hobbs, and numerous neices and nephews, all of whom brought smiles and laughter throughout his life.

Pete 'J. W.' Sanderson

Pete "J. W." Sanderson, 79 of Big Spring, went to be with his Lord and Savior Friday Oct. 3, 2014, at his residence.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 7, 2014, at the First Baptist Church of Big Spring, with his grandson, Jeremy Knight, officiating. Interment will follow at Trinity Memorial Park in Big Spring.

The family will receive friends Monday, Oct. 6 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home.

Pete was born Feb. 23, 1935, in Ackerly, Texas, to E.O. and Gladys Sanderson. He was born a twin. He graduated from Big Spring High School in 1953. He then joined the United States Army, serving two years in Germany from April 1954 to1956.

Pete married Billie Ann Turner Jan. 4, 1958, and she preceded him in death Nov. 5,1996. They had two daughters.

Pete was a faithful member and deacon serving his Lord at East Fourth Baptist, Hillcrest Baptist and Living Water throughout his life. He worked as a car salesman in Big Spring for more than 40 years, retiring from Bob Brock Ford in 2002 after 34 years of service. May 28,1999, he married Peggy Sue Crabtree in Big Spring, Pete had many passions in life. If you knew Pete, you had seen something he had built by hand, heard a fishing or hunting story, enjoyed him singing and playing his guitar or drove a car he sold you. Everyone witnessed his love for his family, friends and his Savior.

Pete, Pedro, Paw-Paw, and Tall Boy, he was known by all!

The many things Pete did for himself are now gone as is he, but the blessings he did for others will forever remain his legacy.

He was survived by his wife, Peggy Sanderson; two daughters and sons-in-law, Mitzi and Alan Knight and Vicki and Gene Hector, all of Big Spring; one son and daughter-in-law, Pete and Heather Crabtree of Big Spring; eight grandchildren, Lacey and Ben Blaine of Big Spring, Jeremy Knight of Fort Worth, Kaitlyn and Adrian Grant, and Mckinna Hector, all of Big Spring, Alex Crabtree of San Angelo, Zachary Crabtree and Cameron Crabtree, all of Big Spring, and Desiree and Jayme Farmer of Midland; six great-grandchildren, Brynli Blaine, Branson Blaine all of Big Spring, and Demi, Jaylan, Dayli, Jeigher Farmer, all of Midland.

In addition to his first wife, Pete was preceded in death by his parents, E.O. and Gladys Sanderson, his twin brother, Red Sanderson and older brother, J.O. Sanderson.

Grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

The family suggests memorials to Susan G. Komen for the Cure at ww5.komen.org or the Wounded Warrior Project at www.woundedwarriorproject.org.

Arrangements are under the direction of Nalley-Pickle & Welch Funeral Home & Crematory of Big Spring. Online condolences may be made at: www. npwelch.com

Student quits high school after threat arrest

LONGVIEW, Texas (AP) — A Longview-area high school student arrested last week on charges of making a terrorist threat against his high school has voluntarily and permanently left the East Texas school. Attorney David Moore tells the Longview News-

Journal (http://bit.ly/1pGDaYp) that 17-year-old Christopher Andrew Jones regrets comments he made on an online gaming site, didn't intend his remarks to be communicated as threats and didn't intend to commit violence.

The FBI was notified by an informant of the threats made in a chat room.

Jones was a senior and National Honor Society member at Longview's Pine Tree High School. He was arrested while leaving home and headed for

New highway design accommodates endangered spider

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A San Antonio highway project stalled for two years after discovery of an endangered spider is about to start moving forward again with a new design.

An underpass originally planned is being replaced with an overpass to accommodate the spider known as the Braken Bat Cave meshweaver.

The San Antonio Express-News reports the price tag for the overpass will balloon to $44 million, nearly three times the original cost.

The eyeless spider is about the size of a dime. It was placed on the endangered list in 2000.

It was feared the original underpass would threaten cave habitats of the spider. Overpasses require less excavation but cost more.

A Texas Department of Transportation district engineer says work on the project on San Antonio's west side could begin next spring.

Police: Suspects try to rob officer in Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston police are searching for two people who they say tried to rob and shoot an off-duty police officer outside of an Olive Garden

A department spokesman tells KPRC-TV that one of the suspects fired five to eight shots at the officer on Saturday night in southwest Houston. Police say the officer was parked and in his car when two people approached him and demanded his wallet. They say the officer refused and the suspect started shooting. The officer wasn't injured. It's unclear if he was

Hotel group sued by U.S. for racial discrimination

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — A hotel chain broke the law by subjecting minority employees in New Mexico, Texas and South Carolina to a hostile work environment and firing those who complained, a federal agency said.

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission announced Friday that it had filed suit against four Whitten Inn hotels and is seeking back pay, lost benefits and damages for workers. According to federal officials, employees endured racial slurs and derogatory comments. The agency said several workers were let go as retaliation for complaining.

The lawsuit was filed in U.S. District Court in New Mexico.

"Discriminatory policies and conduct have no place in a state as culturally rich as New Mexico or in any employment setting," said EEOC attorney Christina Vigil, who is litigating the lawsuit. Businessman Larry Whitten created a firestorm in 2009 when workers at his Taos hotel in northern New Mexico say they were forbidden to speak Spanish and told to change their Spanish first A receptionist at the Taos inn said Sunday that

Whitten was no longer the owner. Representatives at an Abilene, Texas, Whitten Inn declined to comment when reached by telephone. The Virginian-born Whitten had been known for turning around more than 20 hotels in Texas. Oklahoma, Florida and South Carolina before moving with his wife to Taos from Abilene. He purchased the Paragon Inn for $2 million and turned it into the Whitten Inn. He told The Associated Press at the time that he asked staff to speak English only in his presence because he didn't understand Spanish. He also said it was routine practice at his hotels to change employees' first names if they are working the front desk phones or deal directly with guests and they have hard to pronounce names. Some employees were fired because they were hostile to him and insubordinate, Whitten said.

Spanish language and culture have a long history in Taos, a liberal enclave at the base of the Sangre de Cristo mountains.

Lizard's fate in middle of Texas oil boom

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A petition seeking to protect a little-known lizard that makes its home in large portions of an area leading the way in the new Texas oil boom remains in limbo. An environmental group has asked the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to list the spot-tailed earless lizard as an endangered or threatened species, the San Antonio Express-News reported.

The rare lizard's likely habitat includes large swaths of the Eagle Ford Shale formations, the prolific oil and gas field in South Texas.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service in 2011 said there was substantial information that listing the spot-tailed earless lizard as endangered or threatened might be warranted. It's the first step in what can be a yearslong process to list a species, but it doesn't mean the lizard will ultimately receive any

Lady Steers take District 2-4A lead with win

By TOMMY WELLS

Sports Editor

The Big Spring High School Lady Steers went into Saturday afternoon's showdown with the Levelland Loboettes looking to make a statement in the District 2-4A race.

When the smoke cleared, the Lady Steers' message was clear: the road to the district volleyball championship must come through the Crossroads. Big Spring took sole possession of the district 2-4A lead with a resounding 3-0 victory over Levelland. The two teams had entered the game tied atop the district standings with 2-0 records.

Big Spring, which has won its last four games and has improved to 14-17 for the season, opened the contest by pounding out a tough 25-21 decision in the first game of the best-offive series.

The Lady Steers made even easier work of Levelland in Game 2, taking a 25-19 win.

Big Spring closed out the match with a 25-22 decision in Game 3.

Erin Pollard highlighted the Lady Steers' sweep of the Loboettes. The senior hitter led the team with six blocks, when Then, the 34-year-old quarterback playing with a surgically repaired back made off-balance another throw under pressure in overtime, Dez Bryant's spectacular catch saved the Dallas Cowboys from a late meltdown.

Bryant's jump-ball grab set up Dan Bailey's winning 49-yard field goal, and the Cowboys bounced back from blowing a 10-point lead late in fourth quarter to beat the Houston Texans 20-17 on Sunday.

"Just got to come down with it, come down with it," said Bryant, who had game highs with nine catches and 85 yards. "That's something I always tell Tony. If the ball is in the air, I'm going to try my best to come down with it.' After the Texans scored twice in the last 2:27 of regulation, Bailey's miss from 53 yards on the final play ended a franchise record streak of 30 straight made field goals.

"We had to go down and basically win the game twice," said Romo, who threw for 324 yards with two touchdowns with an interception that took away a scoring chance in the fourth quarter. "You just put your work hat on and go out and execute."

The Cowboys (4-1) won their fourth straight for the first time since 2011 heading into a trip to Super Bowl champion Seattle, their only road game in a stretch of six games.

The Texans (3-2) rallied behind Arian Foster, who had 157 yards rushing and a tying 1-yard score with 41 seconds left in regulation.

Opening lead — queen of hearts. This deal was played in a tournament many years ago by John Moran, California expert. It features an unusual situation where Moran, the declarer, had to hope that a critical finesse would lose, because if it won, the contract could not be made! Furthermore, when the finesse unfortunately succeeded, apparently doing him in, Moran neatly extricated himself by inducing an unsuspecting opponent to solve the unsolvable problem for him. East covered the opening queen-of-hearts lead with the king, and Moran let him hold the trick. He then took the heart return with the ace, led the diamond jack and finessed after West followed low. Had the finesse lost. Moran would have had no trouble scoring 10 tricks regardless of what East returned.

When the diamond jack held, however, the suit became hopelessly blocked. West's king would naturally appear on the next diamond lead, but if Moran won the trick with the ace, he would cut himself off from dummy's remaining diamonds. If instead he permitted the king to hold the trick, West would cash three heart tricks to defeat the contract.

Moran, well known for his imaginative play, decided that his only hope was to enlist West's help. So at trick four he led the nine of hearts! West pounced on this with the ten and, without further thought, cashed the jack of hearts. Moran thereupon discarded his diamond ten, unblocking the suit, and after West took his last heart — the fourth trick for the defense - declarer claimed the rest.

West could have thwarted Moran's plan if he had, for example, returned the king of diamonds at trick five instead of cashing the heart jack. The nine-of-hearts play by South was a gift horse whose teeth should have been very carefully examined.

Tomorrow's Horoscope

Uranus Opposition Aligning

Tomorrow brings Uranus on its closest approach to the Earth in opposition to the Libra sun. Already it seems that relationships need to be carefully regarded. It is dangerous to make assumptions about people or take their reactions for granted. Mindfulness and respect are the best ways to avoid trouble.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). Invite a small crowd. Don't expand! If too many people show up, it will be a lonely event in which no one can really connect. Small groups are the way now through Thursday.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). The way to do it is to forgive yourself and resolve to do better next time. The other noise that goes around in your head is not worthy of your attention.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). It's weird how the tables turn. The tasks that used to bore you will now delight you. You just might smile and laugh until your cheeks hurt. It's likely one person who changes everything.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). The support you need in times of weakness is nothing like the support you need in times of strength. There are many who can help the helpless and few who can be strong for the strong.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). If it's going to be a success, more people have to put time and energy into it. You're strong, and you have a lot to give, but if the thing is going to take off, it's going to take more than VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). If you don't understand why people behave as they do, you're not alone. Everyone is having trouble listening well today. You'll hear more clearly when you do not anticipate what is going to be said.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). The lifestyle changes are happening slowly but surely. The things you don't need or want are dropping away. The new interests are creeping in. And there are friends to accompany these gradual changes, as well.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Metaphorically, you'll make a certain crossing today. Don't be like the young fox who gets her tail wet in the river. Keep yourself high and dry, and you'll be successful.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Is it possible to ignore the people who influence you? Yes. That's just basic parenting. As a rule, children don't listen to their parents, but in the end, they always do.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). To lose yourself in a song or in a piece of artwork is beautiful. Then when later you have to find yourself again and go back to real life, you'll realize why entertainment can be such an addiction.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Something interesting and exceptional is coming your way. The question is: Are you ready? Can you pick out the exceptional from the norm? The feelings in your stomach will help with the matter.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). You look like you're hard at work even when you're not. For this reason, you get paid and respected by outsiders, even while you might need to put a little more time and effort in for the insiders.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (Oct. 6). You don't need to achieve to be happy this year, and yet sometimes you'll achieve as an accidental result of what you did to be happier. November brings a union of like minds, and you could also go into business with a friend. December starts a positive trend in your physical wellness. Changes come fast.

Aquarius and Capricorn people adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 5, 30, > ASTROLOGY 101: WHAT IS CAPRICORN LIKE? Capricorn has a way of supersizing whatever it focuses on. Capricorn energy is the magic ingredient that turns an inkling into a massive enterprise. It's what makes the difference between a dime store curio and a wonder of the world, a minor talent and a superstar, a momentary personal whim and a powerful dream for the future of mankind. Capricorn is the sign of ambition and conscientiousness, hard work and smart moves. It's a winning energy that doesn't shy away from challenge. In fact, the more challenging an endeavor seems the more attractive it is to Capricorn. The sea-goat sees obstacles as gifts to help sharpen his skills and keep him strong and resourceful. Capricorn has a reputation for being all work and no play, but this is simply untrue. To Capricorn, work is play, which is why this sign can pull long hours and slog tirelessly through long-term and large-scale projects. A natural leader, Capricorn keeps the morale of his teammates high by bringing enthusiasm and a can-do attitude to projects. Capricorn has incredible wells of self-discipline. This sign usually ages more slowly than others and typically takes great pride in keeping up their CELEBRITY PROFILES: Grammywinning crooner Bruno Mars, who was born under the sign of art, harmony and lovers, admits to sitting alone and talking to the moon. He even wrote a song about it. Mars was born when the moon was in Leo, the sign of entertainers, and lucky Jupiter was in Aquarius, the sign of dreamers.

Logano wins at Kansas to advance in title race

(AP) — So many drivers studied NASCAR's new championship Chase format and singled out the second round as the one they feared the most. The difficult three-race stretch of Kansas, Charlotte and Talladega will knock four drivers from the field, and none wanted their championship hopes to be dependent on a good day at Talladega. It meant they had to be solid in the opener of the second round at Kansas Speedway, a notorious track for whittling the field of championship contenders. START THINKING NOW ABOUT THIS WINTER!

Kansas lived up to its reputation Sunday as four Chase drivers finished 22nd or worse in a race that was plagued by tire problems for several contenders. The victory went to Joey Logano, who earned an automatic berth into the third round of the Chase for the Sprint Cup championship and can breathe easier the next two races. "This is nice to get this win and get us through to the next round and not have to worry about Talladega," Logano said. That was the harsh reality for six-time and defending NASCAR son, his Hendrick Motorsports teammates, Dale Earnhardt Jr. and Kasey Kahne, and Logano's Team Penske teammate, Brad Keselowski.

Johnson was wrecked early and finished 40th, Earnhardt had a tire problem while leading that caused him to wreck and finish 39th. Keselowski was 36th after his tire problem and Kahne thought a tire issue caused him to hit the wall and finish 22nd.

"It just means we've got to be on our game at Charlotte and Talladega," Johnson said.
