The Girl F

There is a type everybody likes, exactly why, but when you meet her you think of no other woman at all. She is like Miss So and so. So and so is the reason you like her. With her, you feel that you know just the sort of a girl he is. She is the girl that is sweet and womanly to look at, listen to and who doesn't strike you as a poor imitation of a vulgar boy. She is the girl who appreciates the fact that she cannot have the choice of everything in the world.

She is the girl who is not "too bright and good" to be able to find joy and pleasures all over the world. She is the girl who, whether it is warm or cold, clear or stormy, finds no fault with the weather. She is the girl who, when you invite her anywhere, compliments you by looking her best. She is the girl who makes this world a pleasant place, because she is so pleasant herself.

She is the girl who has enough not to say the very things that will cause the envy of her friends closet to their bones. And by the way, when you come to think of the girl who makes you like her, and the girl who makes you like her?" - Dallas

In case you see fit to insert it as a news item, I take this means of announcing to the people of the 102nd Representative District that I will not be a candidate for re-election.

I feel that it is my duty to the people to let them know this fact at this early date, inasmuch as it is more or less a custom with the people to give their representatives in the legislature a second term, provided of course, that the representation has been satisfactory, so that the people as a whole may select their candidates with full knowledge of the fact that I will not be in the race.

It is with much regret that I have decided upon this course as I have indeed been proud and sensible of the honor of representing the people of this district and did I consider it necessary, would make almost any personal sacrifice for the people's good, but knowing that there are numbers of honest, intelligent men in the district who are as well, and doubtless many of them better qualified for the position than I am, who are willing to assume a position to make the sacrifice necessary, I do not feel called upon at this time to do so.

In thus announcing my intention not to be a candidate, I want to express to my friends over the district who have always given me their hearty and loyal support, my heartfelt thanks, and to those who opposed me in the last campaign, but have since expressed to me their approbation of my course as their representative and insisted on my again becoming a candidate, my appreciation of these expressions of their confidence.

And to the whole people of this district and we see no reason why we can not have a good year. Mr. Schuessler is a be-

There is a type of girl that everybody likes. Nobody can tell exactly why, but after you have met her you turn away to some other woman and say, "Don't you like Miss So-and-So?" Tom Palmer of Schleicher county, a pioneer cattleman of the Stockman's Paradise, spent the New Year in Sonora. Tom had not been to Sonora for some time and was pleased to see the improvement. He met many old time friends and evidently enjoyed the visit. He had his blooded quarter horse with him but would not enter him against the saddle horses. True as always.—Devil River News.

He had a winning way;
And when he to the country came
To store his empty mind,
He brought along his country heart
And country feelings kind.

He brought his country courage, too,
And country strength and pluck,
And people think, who know him now,
He brought his country luck;
For he began to climb, you see,
The day he came to town,
In spite of all the city folks,
Who tried to keep him down.

His battle cry was, honest worth
And kindly pleasant ways,
And though successful in the end
He had his gloomy days;
And often with a bloody nose
He had to come in sight,
Because he was a country boy
And stood up for the right.

But men began to notice him
Before so very long;
They said he was an honest lad,
And willing, brave and strong;
They saw he could be put to use
In any work or trade,
Because he was the kind of stuff
From which good men are made.

He did his work with willing hands
And with an honest mind,
And though it all was quite polite
And pleasant, just and kind;
And though he had his country ways,
(A source of city mirth)
His name was soon a synonym
For honest sterling worth.

But that was years and years ago.
And John is growing old;
He owns a bank and mansion now,
And has a hoard of gold,
But he has still the sense of right
And old time country ways,
And all the awkward honesty
Of old time country days.

He says that old time country life
Has never lost its charm,
That steadfast country honesty
Has kept him safe from harm;
And that his country awkwardness
And country bent of mind,
Have kept his conscience working
Just as of old.
