TOP OF THE DIVIDE

by Thomas Giovannitti

As of the day I write this article the Atlanta Braves, tomahawk chop and all, are first in the National League west pennant race. If you are not a baseball fan then the rest of this article might not interest you. We fans know that the Braves deserve one more shot to win a World Series and bring the first ever championship to Atlanta.

Okay, Jane Fonda will get more air time than she deserves but that can't be helped. What is neat is that Atlanta came from about 10 games out at the all star break and are one game ahead of the San Francisco Giants. As a former easterner who always felt betrayed by the moves of the Giants and the Dodgers it is poetic justice that a team from a mid sized city should top the big market teams.

Besides, the Braves play or real grass in a real stadium without a roof. They also have pitching and pitching is what makes champions. Even their loss in the World Series last year to the Toronto Blue Jays was due more to playing in one of those domes than any real difference in skill. (We should not feel too badly about the champion of America's pastime being in Canada. The players are almost from the United States and the rest are from the Caribbean. Remember the Canadians had to endure for years U.S. ice hockey teams winning the Stanley cup.)

Now the Braves are two and a half games in front of the Giants and they are playing the best baseball of the season. This could be the year of the Braves, and that should make Jane, Ted, and Hank Aaron happy.

A Tribute To Delia Pina

Editor's Note: The following letter was written to Delia Pina from Pat Johnson for her retirement party.

It is with mixed emotions that I write these words about Nurse and friend Delia Pina. I am happy for her in her retirement for I know that she has spent many, many years in a stressful job dealing with the sick and unfortunate. I know that she must have grown weary at times of the human suffering and the demands of patients. I know that she has had to endure and adapt to many changes throughout the years. I am glad for her that she is at last free to rest and relax.

But I am also saddened, because I know that God only made one Delia Pina and that when she leaves there will be a void left at Schleicher County Medical Center that will never be filled.

To me and those that knew her best, Delia Pina was much more than just an office nurse. Her influence and impact on the people of Schleicher and Sutton Counties can never be appreciated by looking only at what she has done. Much more important is what she stands for and the example she has presented to the people in a constant, unwavering manner throughout thirty-plus years of public service.

Delia Pina stands for all people. She stands for integrity, humility, and fairness for all regardless of social standing, race, or economic status. There are times when those of us who are less magnanimous tend to be critical of many patients who seem to bring many of their troubles on themselves. But Delia has the gift of a deeper understanding and acceptance of the human condition. I can honestly say that in my five year association with Delia Pina I never heard her say an unkind or derogatory word about another human being.

Delia Pina loves the people of Schleicher and Sutton Counties and she is a virtual walking storehouse of personal information about most of the residents here. Through thirty years of service she has acquired a depth and breadth of understanding about her patients that cannot be replaced. She has watched the unfolding of many, many lives in this region and this knowledge has allowed for her to provide medical care with patience, kindness and wisdom.

Finally, Delia Pina truly loves Schleicher County Medical Center; the clinic, the hospital, and especially the nursing home. Delia is the unofficial historian of this institution. She has been here through good times and bad and has carefully chronicled the history of this place. It is most unlikely that a replacement for her will ever be found.

As we all travel through life, we encounter thousands and thousands of teachers, friends, acquaintances and co-workers. Most of us however, have in our minds only a very few individuals that stand out as being truly exceptional. For me this list includes a high school Chemistry teacher, a college pre-medical advisor, a classmate in a foreign medical college, a brilliant lecturer in medical school, an attending Family Practice doctor during my residency program, and Delia Pina. I will never forget her example of humility, respect for all human beings, and selfless devotion to patients and medicine. I wish for her a very long and happy retirement and may God send us another hundred just like her!

With sincerest regards,
 Pat Johnson

Way-Off Broadway Players To Present Melodrama

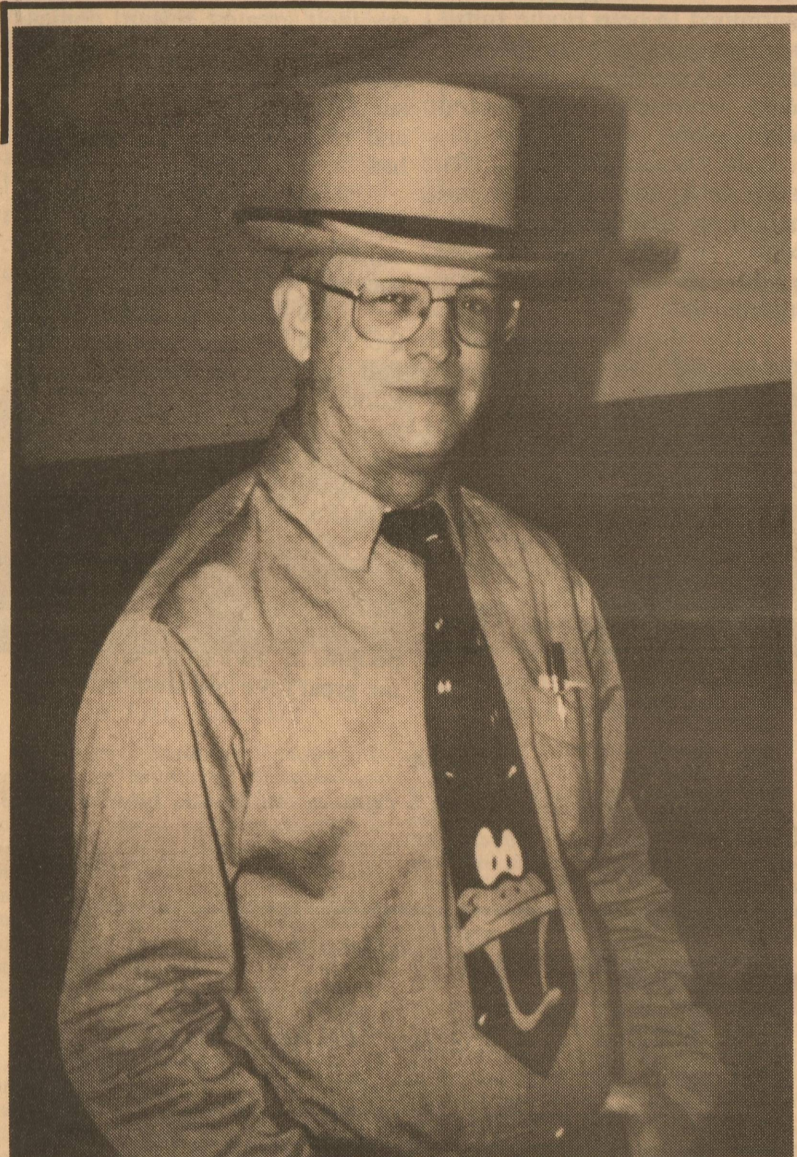

by Debbie Griffin

The melodrama, which will be performed by the Way Off Broadway Players, is The Ballad of Gopher Gap. It will debut during the Old Main Street Days held in October. The cast is colorful and diverse and offers fun and surprises for all.

The wonderful thing about this play is that the audience must participate. After all, that is what a melodrama is all about . . . Audience Participation. You must BOO when the villain arrives on the scene and cheer and whistle when the hero and heroine arrive on the scene. Popcorn will be available to throw at the characters of your choice. This proves to be great fun for all, the audience, the actors and actresses, the director . . . etc.

So come one, come all and have some family fun! Watch the newspaper for information on performance dates and purchasing tickets.

Ken Newman, Eldorado High School Principal, is pictured above on "Hat Day" at the High School. During Homecoming week, each day is given a different theme. The days for this year were: Monday-Hat Day, Tuesday-Want to be Day, Wednesday-Wild West Day, Thursday-Hippie Day, and Friday-Green & Eagle Day.

Hardy/Hesseltine Wed

Katie & Gerald Hesseltine II

Katie Hardy of Leander and Gerald Hesseltine II of Refugio were united in marriage on Saturday, July 17, 1993 at New Hope First Baptist Church in Cedar Park, Texas. Rev. James Sullivan performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Jim Hardy of Eldorado and Frankie Hardy of Leander. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hesseltine of Refugio.

The bride's mother was escorted to her seat by her nephew, Jeff Blaylock and the groom escorted his mother.

Vocalists were Eva Jo Sessom, the bride's aunt, and Debbie Joy and Sherry Belk, all of Eldorado. Selections included "Forever Is As Far As I Go" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an off-the-shoulder white satin gown which was decorated with white satin roses and seed pearls at the shoulder. The fitted bodice flowed into a full skirt with a long train, both accented with beaded appliques. Her bouquet was of white, yellow and pink roses.

Lindy Hardy and Jamie Hardy, sisters of the bride, were maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively, and Mitzi Sessom, her cousin was flower girl.

They wore tea-length pastel dresses with chiffon bows in back and carried long-stemmed pink and yellow roses.

Gerald Hesseltine served his son as best man. Bob Shipley of Abilene was groomsman and Travis Martino of Sugarland, the groom's nephew, was ringbearer. Ushers were Jay Blaylock and Jeff Blaylock of Midland and Micah McKinney of Kerrville. Betsy Blaylock of Midland was candlelighter.

A reception followed in the education building. The bride's traditional cake was topped with a bride and groom

Bodie Gilstrap - A True Aggie

by Rene Calcote

In the summer of 1989, Eldorado's Bodie Gilstrap, a 16-year-old ranch boy, was much like any other teen-ager.

His father, Jimmy "Hymie" Gilstrap worked on a ranch in Schleicher County where Bodie ranched lived with his father and mother, Carolyn Gilstrap. Bodie liked riding, roping and ranch work.

He was a fun-loving, popular boy who liked people, school and sports.

Bodie worked hard, too. During summer months he did "day work" for neighboring ranches, and was frequently in the fields before sunrise.

But on the morning of July 29, 1989, Bodie fell asleep while driving to work. He was thrown from his pickup and it rolled over him. He was unable to move.

The younger Gilstrap was transported by ambulance to Shannon Medical Center in San Angelo where he was diagnosed as having broken vertebra and a damaged spinal cord.

Bodie, paralyzed from the neck down, became dependent on a ventilator. He spent two weeks at Shannon, before being transported to Dallas Rehab Institute.

He spent eight months at Dallas Rehab receiving therapy. During this period he was able to continue his high school education. He took two high school courses and maintained a high B average.

On March 30, 1990,

Bodie was well enough to return to his home in Eldorado. One or both of his parents had been with him since the accident. They were glad to come home.

Eldorado High School teachers, students and lots of friends helped Bodie finish his high school education at EHS. He graduated 19th in a class of 41 students, but he felt a lifelong dream of attending Texas A&M University was impossible.

But one teacher at EHS, Maureen Hodges, was determined to help Bodie fulfill his dream, so with the help of other teachers, they called Texas A&M University and started making plans.

In the summer of 1991 Bodie took an ACT test and applied to A&M. That fall he began correspondence courses to complete freshman entrance requirements.

His dream finally came true when he was admitted to the university for the first summer session of 1992.

Bodie returned the fall of 1992 and took 10 hours, earning an overall GPA of 3.25. He is returning this month with a major in agricultural economics only four hours short of a sophomore classification.

Special Services at A&M coordinates 11 classmate attendants to help Bodie 24 hours a day. He currently lives in a dorm with their help.

These attendants help Bodie maintain a regular schedule of rest and exercise, and care for his personal needs, such as helping him eat and bathe.

They also help him with his studies in and out of the classroom by turning book pages, taking class notes and tape recording lectures.

Attendants are supplemented by the Texas Rehabilitation Center but they say their greatest reward comes from being able to help someone like Bodie who shows such courage and endurance, and is so thankful for what he has.

Bodie travels in a Sip and Puff wheelchair operated by mouth. He also rides in a specially-made van.

He is also the recipient of the Will Rogers Scholarship, Pell Grant and Texas Public Education Fund.

Bodie stated, "I go to campus activities, ball games and classes. I consider myself to be a true 'Aggie.'"

"I would like to thank everyone who made it possible for me to go to A&M. I especially want to thank the people of Eldorado who gave me great love and support."

Surely if the United States have a right to make war, they have a right to prevent it.

Super S Announces "Apples For The Students" Program Underway

Super S Foods Stores, which currently operates 48 supermarkets throughout Central and South Texas, announced a major new program on Wednesday, September 8th. This program is designed to contribute an estimated quarter of a million dollars in free computers and equipment to local schools.

John Dieterle, President, said schools would be able to exchange Super S gold register tapes for a large variety of APPLE computer equipment and a wide range of audio visual equipment.

"Our program's operation is simple," Mr. Dieterle announced, "schools merely have to save Super S gold register tapes dated from the commencement of the program on Wednesday, September 8, 1993, until its completion March 15, 1994. The tapes value can be accumulated toward a goal 'purchasing' a set piece of computer equipment or audio visual learning tools."

For example, Mr. Dieterle said, "$150,000 worth of Super S tapes could buy a Macintosh Color Classic 4/80, while $95,000 in tapes could buy a Macintosh Classic computer. Tapes can also be exchanged for software, printers, disk drives and other APPLE equipment.

"There is no cost to the school whatsoever," Mr. Dieterle emphasized. "once the tapes are turned in to us, we redeem them in four to six weeks and present the equipment to the school. We even arrange for a local distributor to install it and give those operating it an orientation. Of course, this is all brand new equipment which is fully covered by the manufacturer's regular warranty."

Ed Kreusel has been named "APPLES for the Students" Coordinator and will maintain an office at Super S headquarters in San Antonio. He will be responsible for total coordination of the seven month program. Ed can be reached at 1-800-460-0905

"APPLES for the Students" was designed to address the growing need for more computer equipment in our primary and secondary schools," Mr. Dieterle said. "It will help promote computer literacy among students who will be graduating into increasingly computerized workplaces and college environments. And it will also provide schools with the latest audio visual equipment for teaching our youth."

Any school can join the program by registering with the "APPLES for the Students"

Coordinator or by contacting their local Super S Foods Manager. Complete program details will then be sent to them at the school.

"This exciting program," Mr. Dieterle said, "is an excellent example of a business/educational partnership. Super S Foods Stores serve the community and we can think of no better way to reinvest our funds into our communities than by helping to further the education of our young people."

This innovative program also allows financially restricted school systems the opportunity to acquire valuable computer equipment at absolutely no cost to them. Super S estimates that it will distribute close to a quarter of a million dollars in APPLE computer equipment before the program ends in March 1994.

Mr. Dieterle said "APPLE computers were specifically chosen for the program because a recent analysis of area schools indicated that the majority of them utilized APPLE computer equipment for education purposes within their systems."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 23 proposes a constitutional amendment providing that any person accused of a violent or sexual offense committed while under the supervision of a criminal justice agency of this state or a political subdivision of this state for a prior felony may, after a hearing and evidence substantially showing the guilt of the accused, be denied bail pending trial. If the accused is not, however, accorded a trial within 60 days from the time of his incarceration upon the accusation or indictment, the order denying bail shall be set aside unless a continuance is obtained upon the request of the accused. In the amendment, the term "violent offense" means murder, aggravated assault (if a deadly weapon was used or exhibited during the commission of the assault), aggravated kidnapping, or aggravated robbery. The term "sexual offense" means aggravated sexual assault, sexual assault, or indecency with a child.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment permitting the denial of bail to certain persons charged with certain violent or sexual offenses committed while under the supervision of a criminal justice agency of the state or a political subdivision of the state."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 13 proposes a constitutional amendment that amends article VII, section 17(a), of the Texas Constitution to provide that, of the $100 million currently appropriated by that section for the use of public institutions of higher education during each fiscal year, those institutions may also utilize this money to pay for acquiring, constructing, or equipping or for major repair or rehabilitation of buildings, facilities, other permanent improvements, or capital equipment used jointly for educational and general activities and for auxiliary enterprises to the extent of their use for educational and general activities. For the five-year period beginning on September 1, 2000, and for each five-year period thereafter, the legislature, during a regular session that is nearest, but preceding, a five-year period may, by a two-thirds vote of the membership of each house, increase the amount of the $100 million constitutional appropriation for the five-year period. The amendment also reflects name changes that have been made to some of the institutions of higher education for which such funding is available. The amendment adds the Texas State Technical College System to those institutions eligible to receive such funding, but limits its allocation of the annual appropriation to 2.2 percent of the total appropriation each fiscal year. The amendment also provides that each governing board authorized to participate in the distribution of money under article III, section 17, may also issue bonds and notes for the purposes of refunding bonds or notes issued under that section or prior law for the purposes of acquiring capital equipment, library books and library materials, paying for acquiring, constructing, or equipping or for major repair or rehabilitation of buildings, facilities, other permanent improvements, or capital equipment used jointly for educational and general activities and for auxiliary enterprises to the extent of their use for educational and general activities. The amendment deletes language in article III, section 17, which authorizes the legislature to designate a single agency to issue such bonds or notes in lieu of the governing bodies, and to transfer to that agency the authority to collect and pledge money to the payment of such bonds and notes as directed by the governing body of each eligible institution. Funds appropriated under article III, section 17, may not be used for the purpose of constructing, equipping, repairing, or rehabilitating buildings or other permanent improvements that are to be used only for student housing, intercollegiate athletics, or auxiliary enterprises.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing up to a total of $100 million in bonds and notes to be issued or sold to finance the Texas agricultural fund for providing financial assistance to develop, increase, improve, or expand the production, processing, marketing, or export of crops or products grown or produced primarily in this state by agricultural businesses domiciled in the state."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 45 proposes a constitutional amendment that adds a new subsection (e) to article III, section 49-h, of the Texas Constitution. The new subsection provides that, in addition to the amounts authorized by subsections (a) ($500 million), (c) ($400 million), and (d) ($1.1 billion) of section 49-h, the legislature may authorize the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds and may use the proceeds of the bonds for acquiring, constructing, or equipping new corrections institutions, including youth corrections institutions, and mental health and mental retardation institutions and for major repair or renovation of existing facilities of those corrections and mental health and mental retardation facilities. The amendment also provides that the provisions of subsection (a) of section 49-h, relating to the review and approval of bonds, and the provisions of subsection (b) of section 49-h, relating to the status of the bonds as a general obligation of the state and to the manner in which the principal and interest on the bonds are paid, apply to bonds authorized by this amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of up to $1 billion in general obligation bonds payable from the general revenues of the state for projects relating to facilities of corrections and mental health and mental retardation institutions."

House Joint Resolution 37 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the county commissioners court of a county to call an election to abolish the office of county surveyor. The office of county surveyor is abolished if a majority of voters of the county voting in the election approve the measure. If the office of county surveyor is abolished, the maps, field notes, and other records of the county surveyor are transferred to the county officer or employee designated by the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to permit the voters of a county to decide, at an election called by the commissioners court, whether to abolish the office of county surveyor in the county."

PROPOSITION NO. 16 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 44 proposes an amendment to article III, section 49-(b) of the Texas Constitution, which currently limits the principal amount of bonds outstanding at one time for the Texas agricultural fund to $25 million and for the rural microenterprise development fund to $5 million. The amendment would raise the principal amount limit for the Texas agricultural fund to $100 million. The amendment would also make the principal amount limit for each fund apply to the total principal amounts of both bonds and notes issued or sold rather than just the principal amounts of bonds outstanding at one time.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing up to a total of $100 million in bonds and notes to be issued or sold to finance the Texas agricultural fund for providing financial assistance to develop, increase, improve, or expand the production, processing, marketing, or export of crops or products grown or produced primarily in this state by agricultural businesses domiciled in the state."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 19 proposes an amendment to article VIII, section 13 of the Texas Constitution that would modify the provisions for the redemption of real property sold at a tax sale. The amendment deletes current language in article VIII, section 13 that allows the legislature to provide for the sale of property without trial to pay for delinquent taxes. It also states that the deed to the new owner vests a good and perfect title subject only to redemption as set out in this amendment or impeachment for fraud. Language is added limiting application of the current two-year redemption period to former owners of residence homesteads and land designated for agricultural use sold for unpaid taxes. When property is sold as the result of a suit to enforce collection of unpaid taxes, the amendment would allow the legislature to limit redemption to property used as a residence homestead or designated for agricultural use at the time the suit was filed. The amendment creates a second type of redemption for former owners of real property when property is neither a residence homestead, nor designated for agricultural use. These owners would have a six-month period in which to redeem their property by paying the amount of money paid for the property, including the Tax Deed Recording Fee, all taxes, penalties, interest, and costs paid plus an amount not exceeding 25 percent of the aggregate total. The amendment applies to redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed is filed on or after January 1, 1994. For redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed was filed before January 1, 1994, the former law is applicable and remains in effect.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing issuance of $750 million in general obligation bonds to augment the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund and to fund the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioners court of McLennan County to call an election to abolish the office of county surveyor. The office of county surveyor will be abolished if a majority of the qualified voters of McLennan County voting on the question favor the abolition. If the office of county surveyor is abolished, the amendment requires the maps, field notes, and other records in the custody of the county surveyor to be transferred to the county clerk of McLennan County. After abolition, the amendment also grants the commissioners court of McLennan County the authority to employ or contract with a qualified person to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the county surveyor if the office had not been abolished.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment repealing certain restrictions on the ability of corporations to raise capital."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 57 proposes a constitutional amendment that repeals article XII, section 6, of the Texas Constitution, which currently provides that no corporation shall issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and that all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment abolishing the office of county surveyor in Jackson County."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would abolish the office of county surveyor in Jackson County.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment abolishing the office of county surveyor in Jackson County."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of sheriffs. Currently, the constitution authorizes the legislature to prescribe the duties, perquisites, and fees of office, but not the qualifications for the office of sheriff.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of sheriffs."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 49 proposes a constitutional amendment that would prohibit a state personal income tax without voter approval and would dedicate the proceeds of any income tax, if enacted, to property tax relief and education. The amendment provides that a general law enacted by the legislature that imposes a tax on the net incomes of natural persons, including a person's share of partnership and unincorporated association income, must provide that the portion of the law imposing the tax not take effect until approved by a majority of the registered voters voting in a statewide referendum held on the question of imposing the tax. The referendum must specify the rate of the tax that will apply to taxable income.

The amendment also provides that a general law enacted by the legislature that increases the rate of the tax, or changes the tax in a manner that results in an increase in the combined income tax liability of all persons subject to the tax, may not take effect until approved by a majority of the registered voters voting in a statewide referendum held on the question of increasing the income tax. The referendum must specify the manner in which the proposed law would increase the combined tax liability of all persons subject to the tax. The legislature may repeal, or amend without increasing, a tax approved by the voters without submitting the amendment or the repeal to the voters. If the legislature repeals a tax approved by the voters, the legislature may only reenact the tax without voter approval if the effective date of the reenactment of the tax is within one year of the effective date of the repeal of the tax.

The amendment also provides that, in the first year in which an income tax is imposed, and during the first year of any increase in the tax, not less than two-thirds of all net revenues from the tax shall be used to reduce the rate of ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes levied for the support of primary and secondary education. In subsequent years, not less than two-thirds of all net revenues of the tax shall be used to continue such ad valorem tax relief. The net revenues of the tax remaining after the deduction of money for reduction of ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes shall be used for support of education. The maximum rate at which a school district may impose ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes is reduced by an amount equal to one cent per $100 valuation for each one cent per $100 valuation that the school district's ad valorem maintenance and operation tax is reduced by the minimum amount of money dedicated under the amendment, provided that a school district may subsequently increase the maximum ad valorem maintenance and operation tax rate if the increased maximum rate is approved by a majority of the voters of the school district voting at an election called and held for that purpose. The portions of the amendment relating to dedicating tax revenues to reduce the rate of ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes apply on or after the first January 1 after the date on which an income tax takes effect, except that if the income tax begins to apply on a January 1, the amendment applies to ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes levied on or after that date.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment prohibiting a personal income tax without voter approval and, if an income tax is enacted, dedicating the revenue to education and limiting the rate of local school taxes."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 86 proposes a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature, by general law, to exempt from ad valorem taxation all or part of real and personal property used, constructed, acquired, or installed wholly or partly to meet or exceed rules or regulations adopted by any environmental protection agency of the United States, Texas, or a political subdivision of this state for the prevention, monitoring, control, or reduction of air, water, or land pollution. The amendment applies to real and personal property used as a facility, device, or method for the control of air, water, or land pollution that would otherwise be taxable for the first time on or after January 1, 1994. The amendment does not authorize the exemption from ad valorem taxation of real or personal property that was subject to a tax abatement agreement executed before January 1, 1994.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to promote the reduction of pollution and to encourage the preservation of jobs by authorizing the exemption from ad valorem taxation of real and personal property used for the control of air, water, or land pollution."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 9 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Texas Legislature to provide for the issuance of bonds for the state financing of start-up costs for historically underutilized businesses. The amendment provides that the legislature by law may establish a Texas historically underutilized business capital growth and start-up fund. The money in the fund may be used without further appropriation and only for a program established by the legislature to aid in the start-up costs of a historically underutilized business, as defined by the legislature. To carry out the program, the legislature may issue up to $50 million of general obligation bonds to provide funding. The legislature may require review and approval of the issuance of bonds, the use of the bond proceeds, or of the rules adopted by an agency to govern use of the bond proceeds. Bonds authorized by the amendment constitute a general obligation of the state.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for the issuance of $50 million of general obligation bonds for the recovery and further development of the state's economy and for increasing job opportunities and other benefits for Texas residents through state financing of the start-up costs of historically underutilized businesses."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 3 proposes a constitutional amendment to clear land titles in which the State of Texas relinquishes and releases any claim of sovereign ownership or title to an undivided one-third interest in and to the lands and minerals within the Shelby, Frazier, and McCormick League (now located in Fort Bend and Austin counties) arising out of the interest in that league originally granted under the Mexican Colonization Law of 1823 to John McCormick on or about July 24, 1824, and subsequently voided by the governing body of Austin's Original Colony on or about December 15, 1830. Title to such interest in the lands and minerals is confirmed to the owners of the remaining interests in such lands and minerals.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment providing for the clearing of land titles by the release of a state claim in a fractional interest, arising out of the voiding of an interest under a Mexican land grant, to the owners of certain property in Fort Bend and Austin counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 49 proposes a constitutional amendment that would prohibit a state personal income tax without voter approval and would dedicate the proceeds of any income tax, if enacted, to property tax relief and education. The amendment provides that a general law enacted by the legislature that imposes a tax on the net incomes of natural persons, including a person's share of partnership and unincorporated association income, must provide that the portion of the law imposing the tax not take effect until approved by a majority of the registered voters voting in a statewide referendum held on the question of imposing the tax. The referendum must specify the manner in which the proposed law would increase the combined tax liability of all persons subject to the tax. The legislature may repeal, or amend without increasing, a tax approved by the voters without submitting the amendment or the repeal to the voters. If the legislature repeals a tax approved by the voters, the legislature may only reenact the tax without voter approval if the effective date of the reenactment of the tax is within one year of the effective date of the repeal of the tax.

The portions of the amendment relating to dedicating tax revenues to reduce the rate of ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes apply on or after the first January 1 after the date on which an income tax takes effect, except that if the income tax begins to apply on a January 1, the amendment applies to ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes levied on or after that date.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of sheriffs. Currently, the constitution authorizes the legislature to prescribe the duties, perquisites, and fees of office, but not the qualifications for the office of sheriff.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of sheriffs."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 21 proposes a constitutional amendment that would abolish the office of county surveyor in Jackson County. The amendment also provides for the powers, duties, and functions of the county surveyor to be transferred to the county officer designated by the commissioners court.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment abolishing the office of county surveyor in Jackson County."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 57 proposes a constitutional amendment that repeals article XII, section 6, of the Texas Constitution, which currently provides that no corporation shall issue stock or bonds except for money paid, labor done, or property actually received, and that all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment repealing certain restrictions on the ability of corporations to raise capital."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the commissioners court of McLennan County to call an election to abolish the office of county surveyor. The office of county surveyor will be abolished if a majority of the qualified voters of McLennan County voting on the question favor the abolition. If the office of county surveyor is abolished, the amendment requires the maps, field notes, and other records in the custody of the county surveyor to be transferred to the county clerk of McLennan County. After abolition, the amendment also grants the commissioners court of McLennan County the authority to employ or contract with a qualified person to perform any of the functions that would have been performed by the county surveyor if the office had not been abolished.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment abolishing the office of county surveyor in McLennan County."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 19 proposes an amendment to article VIII, section 13 of the Texas Constitution that would modify the provisions for the redemption of real property sold at a tax sale. The amendment deletes current language in article VIII, section 13 that allows the legislature to provide for the sale of property without trial to pay for delinquent taxes. It also states that the deed to the new owner vests a good and perfect title subject only to redemption as set out in this amendment or impeachment for fraud. Language is added limiting application of the current two-year redemption period to former owners of residence homesteads and land designated for agricultural use sold for unpaid taxes. When property is sold as the result of a suit to enforce collection of unpaid taxes, the amendment would allow the legislature to limit redemption to property used as a residence homestead or designated for agricultural use at the time the suit was filed. The amendment creates a second type of redemption for former owners of real property when property is neither a residence homestead, nor designated for agricultural use. These owners would have a six-month period in which to redeem their property by paying the amount of money paid for the property, including the Tax Deed Recording Fee, all taxes, penalties, interest, and costs paid plus an amount not exceeding 25 percent of the aggregate total. The amendment applies to redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed is filed on or after January 1, 1994. For redemption of properties sold at a tax sale for which the purchaser's deed was filed before January 1, 1994, the former law is applicable and remains in effect.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment authorizing issuance of $750 million in general obligation bonds to augment the Veterans' Land Fund and the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund and to fund the Veterans' Housing Assistance Fund II."

PROPOSITION NO. 10 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 34 proposes a constitutional amendment that adds a

"Pride Spots Of The Month"

The Chamber Pride Committee has selected the "Pride Spots of the Month" for September.

Shaw's Motel has been chosen as the Business Pride Spot. Located at 13 S. Divide across from the Courthouse Square, Shaw's Motel is always neatly trimmed and offers a big "Welcome" to motorists passing by.

The Residential Pride Spot is the home of Jerroll and Bobbie Sanders located at 705 Lee Avenue. Jerroll's and Bobbie's green thumbs produce many different plants - especially hibiscus - which they lovingly show off to the enjoyment of their lucky neighbors.

The Chamber Pride Committee welcomes recommendations or nominations for the "Pride Spots". If you would like to see a business or residence receive this recognition, please contact either Jo Ann Heffeman or Toni Sudduth.

Dr. Albert Forlano To Speak In San Angelo

Albert J. Forlano, R.Ph., PH.D., Director of Medical Seminars and Consultant Services, of Eldorado, presented a lecture in Victoria, Texas on September 9, 1993. The lecture, "Antioxidants and the Prevention of Cardiovascular Disease," was presented to the Texas Coastal Bend Section of the American Chemical Society. Dr. Forlano holds a doctorate in Biochemistry and Pharmacology from the Ohio State University. He lectures in the area of preventative medicine and disease reduction on a national basis in many large cities including Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Dallas, Los Angeles, Portland, Norfolk and Lake Tahoe.

The meeting in Victoria was attended by chemists, physicians, nurses, and the general public. The program covered the nature of heart disease, risk factors for heart disease, and most importantly, the factors that are involved in the reduction of the risks of heart disease. The reduction of the risks of cataracts and other eye diseases in diabetes was also covered.

The use of antioxidants in the prevention of disease is a modality that has been examined for the last 20 years by some of the world's most prominent physicians and researchers. The evidence is becoming more convincing so that many physicians are now making these recommendations to their patients. The use of these antioxidants may require some change in one's lifestyle and can be instituted by anyone wishing to decrease their risk of diseases such as cancer, strokes, hypertension, brain diseases, the ravages of aging, impaired immune function, and rheumatic disorders, in addition to heart disease.

Dr. Forlano will present the same lecture at the Shannon Southwest Clubhouse at 4141 S. College Hills Boulevard in San Angelo, on Thursday, September 30, 1993 at 7:00 p.m. In addition, a talk about the use of antioxidants in the reduction of risk of cancer and brain diseases will be presented on October 28 at 7:00 p.m. at the same location. The use of antioxidants includes the use of antioxidant supplementation as well as dietary modifications. Other modalities, other than dietary intervention, will also be covered.

While this talk is generally geared for the general public, health professionals would also benefit from the information. Following the presentation, the audience will be given an opportunity to ask the speaker questions.

Davis Reunion Held

by Ruth Davis

Friday night, September 10th, was the beginning of the arrival of Davises for the Labor Day reunion. More arrived Saturday, and enjoyed dove hunting, visiting and lots of food. As usual, the children and young adults enjoyed the swimming tank. Weldon, Winiford and Walter were the only brothers present, as Charles was just out of the hospital from by-pass heart surgery, but is doing well.

The reunion began in the Weldon Davis home in 1986, and has continued each year since that time.
