Schleicher County RC&D Council Update

The Schleicher County Resource Conservation and Development Council met on Monday, October 4th at 5:00 p.m. in the Eagle Dairy Mart.

The Council is working with Elton Shamblen, a student Advanced Marketing Management at Angelo State University, to unfold economic opportunities for Eldorado and Schleicher County. questionnaire is developed for Schleicher County residents to get their opinions on economic opportunities. The questionnaire will be mailed out at the end of October. The RC&D Council is asking that all residents return the questionnaire within two

Some of the ideas being discussed are: the Eldorado Woolen Mill, Game Harvest Festival, Eldorado Working Ranch, etc.

The Schleicher County

RC&D Council is an important step towards growth in Schleicher County. The council includes city and county officials, members of civic organizations, church leaders and private business owners. Some of the issues this board is trying to overcome are a declining tax base, business mortality, an aging population and general economic decline. The issues are a symptom of the general population decline in rural areas and the gravitation of their population to metropolitan

"One of the current major issues we are facing is the effect of the Wool Act," commented David Hill. "This has put into perspective just how vulnerable our economy."

The RC&D Council meets on the first Monday of each month at the Eagle Dairy Mart at 6:30 p.m.

The blind, although probably an improvement, still has its problems - not the least of which is dusting. Dusting blinds must be been every maids worst nightmare. Even the old wide metal type were very difficult to dust. Washing blinds often proved more ineffective since the strings, after drying out, would not run through the pulleys as well. (One side of the blind always ends up lower than the other side.)

The newer vinyl blinds are less likely to get as dirty, but they fade easily and the strings still get sticky, so the blind

Sales Tax Rebates For September

Bible Study Course Offered

State Comptroller John Sharp today sent a total of $117.4 million in September sales tax rebates to 937 Texas cities and 109 counties, a 4.7 percent increase over the payments of one year ago.

Another $162 million in rebates went to mass transit authorities in the state's six largest cities and to two city transit departments.

Texas cities received $105.7 million for their monthly sales tax payments, up 4.7 percent from the $100.9 million they received last September. Counties received $11.7 million in September rebates, a 4.8 percent increase over the September 1992 rebates of $11.1 million.

"Total employment in Texas has increased by 1.7 percent over the past year. The service sector continues to lead all other industries, by adding over 49,000 jobs since last year," Sharp said.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while, Please do not grieve and shed wild tears And hug your sorrow to you through the years, But start out bravely with a gallant smile; And for my sake and in my name Live on and do all things the same, Feed not your loneliness on empty days, But fill each waking hour in useful ways, Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; And never, never be afraid to die, For I am waiting for you in the sky!
