Temple foundation — the area inside the massive concrete footer where FLDS members reportedly intend to erect a temple, has been filled in with crushed rock. Nearby, native limestone is being quarried and cut into smooth stone blocks in presumably in preparation for construction of the temple.

Utah judge ratchets up pressure on Warren Jeffs

Utah District Judge Stephen L. Henroid wants to hear from Warren Jeffs, self-proclaimed prophet and leader of the Fundamentalist Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. A civil lawsuit against Jeffs is pending in Judge Henroid's court and so far, attorneys for the plaintiff, Brent Jeffs, have been unable to serve the elusive Mr. Jeffs with a summons ordering his appearance.

So, the judge has ordered the publication of notices in four newspapers, including The Eldorado Success (see notice on Page 6), instructing Warren Jeffs to respond to the lawsuit.

On July 29 of this year, Jeffs' 21-year-old nephew, Brent Jeffs, filed a lawsuit in Judge Henroid's court in which he accused his uncle of repeatedly sodomizing him beginning when he was 5 years old. The lawsuit also alleges that the FLDS church and much of its leadership were complicit in covering up the sexual abuse.

Listed as co-defendants in the case were Warren Jeffs' brothers Blaine Balmforth Jeffs and Leslie Balmforth Jeffs. Also, named in the lawsuit was the FLDS church and the United Effort Plan Trust, a trust fund originally intended to benefit FLDS church members but which many observers now believe serves as little more than a slush fund for Warren Jeffs and his lieutenants.

Since the date of the lawsuit, Private Investigator Sam Brower of Cedar City, Utah has been successful in serving both of Warren Jeffs' brothers. Brower even traveled to Eldorado in August where he managed to serve papers to one of Warren Jeffs' subordinates, Merrill Jessop, at the YFZ Ranch gate.

Also, lawyers who routinely represent Jeffs, the FLDS and the United Effort Plan Trust, including Rodney Parker of Salt Lake City, have been served with copies of the summons. But, thus far, Warren Jeffs is nowhere to be found.

The judge's new order means that copies of the summons will be published here in Eldorado as well as in St. George, Utah, Cortez, Colorado and Creston, British Columbia in Canada. Following publication in all four cities, Jeffs will have twenty days to respond or risk having a default judgement entered against him.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch

Here in Eldorado, work continues at the YFZ Ranch despite recent rains. Aerial photos reveal that crushed rock has been used to fill the area inside the concrete footer where observers believe a FLDS temple will be erected.

Work also continues at the rock quarry on the ranch and carries on through the night with powerful lights illuminating the area. One builder contacted for comment by The Success speculated that rock is being quarried at night in order to lessen the chance that complaints about excessive dust will be filed with state environmental authorities.

Leadership change

Documents filed with the Texas Secretary of State's office in August reveal that Raymond Jessop is now listed as the agent for YFZ Land, LLC, the company that owns the YFZ Ranch. David Allred, the man who fronted the purchase of the YFZ Ranch on behalf of the FLDS, is still listed as an officer in the company. So is Raymond Jessop's father, Merrill Jessop, along with Leroy Steed. Missing from the list of officers is Ernest Jessop, known to locals as "Ernie," who oversaw much of the early construction at the YFZ Ranch. Many FLDS observers believe "Ernie" Jessop was excommunicated by Warren Jeffs.

Also, Leroy J. Steed has formed a corporation known as RS Supply, Incorporated. The principal office for RS Supply is listed as 2420 County Road 300, Eldorado, Texas. That's the same address as the YFZ Ranch.

The Eldorado Success invites Warren Jeffs and other leaders in the FLDS church to comment the allegations levied by Brent Jeffs, or any other aspect of the story surrounding the FLDS and the YFZ Ranch.

Eagles place six players on 2-2A All-District football team

With the elimination of Mason last Saturday from the 2A State Playoffs, the All-District Team for District 2-2A was announced and the Eldorado Eagles placed six players on the squad in seven different positions.

Senior Terrell Boysaw was named 1st Team All-District Wide Receiver. Junior Jorge Bustos claimed two spots on the 2nd Team as wide receiver and punter. Senior Simon Duran was named to the 2nd Team as a kicker. Andy Mejia, a junior, was picked as 2nd Team running back and sophomore Marcus Hinojosa was named to the 2nd Team offensive line. Tony Garcia, a senior, was named Special Teams Player of the Year.

Fifteen Eagles received honorable mentions including: senior cornerback Rigo Arispe; senior cornerback Eric Garcia; senior wide receiver Jared Grubbs; junior quarterback Frank Edmiston; senior defensive end Kolby Dombroski; junior linebacker Nestor Hernandez; senior quarterback Ryan Cathey; senior cornerback Tico Robles; senior offensive lineman Joey Hernandez; senior offensive lineman Manuel Arispe; junior defensive tackle Joel Esparza; junior offensive lineman Diego Barrera; senior offensive lineman Will Griffin; and junior offensive lineman and defensive end Frank Wipff.

UIL re-alignment failed to move the Eagles down to conference 1A this year as many Eagles fans had hoped and the team struggled through a disappointing 2004 season finishing 4-6 in a tough 8-team district.

The Eagles opened the season with impressive wins on 1-A Christoval, Menard and Forsan, but found the going much tougher in district. They managed their first district win in the 7th week of the season with a 20-6 win over Junction. One of the Eagles best outings against a district foe came in the final week of the season when they came within two points of the playoff-bound Wall Hawks 20-18.

Sonora, Wall and Mason represented District 2-2A in the state playoffs. Sonora lost to Crane 14-0 in the Bi-District round and Wall bowed out the following week with a 14-0 loss to Colorado City the Area round. The District 2-2A champion Mason Punchers went two games deeper into the playoffs before falling 27-20 to Holliday in the Regional semi-final game last Saturday evening in Sweetwater.

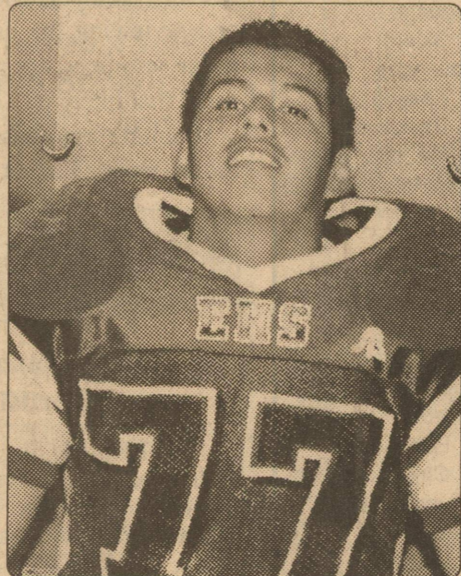

Head Coach Gary Grubbs told the Success that he was proud of all his players this year and was especially pleased with this year's crop of seniors. He noted that Eldorado was by far the smallest school in the district this year and credited his players with giving their all during the season.

Administrator: post office box to be repaired, says hospital mail is safe

Hospital Administrator Sharon Dietz told The Success this week that Schleicher County Medical Center's box will soon be repaired by the U.S. Post Office. In the meantime, the mail is being held inside the post office.

Dietz said she wanted to reassure SCMC customers and patients that steps have been taken to safeguard the hospital's mail in order to protect patient confidentiality and to ensure that no payments will be stolen or misplaced.

The post office box became an issue last week when it was reported at the hospital board meeting that the hospital's postal box did not lock and that the hospital would have to pay for repairs to the box.

"The post office has agreed to repair the box and will get it back in service as soon as possible," Ms. Dietz told the Success.

"Our primary concern was for the security of our patients' medical information, as well as any payments on account that were coming through the box," Ms. Dietz continued. "I'm happy the post office has agreed to take care of this matter."

Commissioners meet Monday agree to hire new courthouse custodian

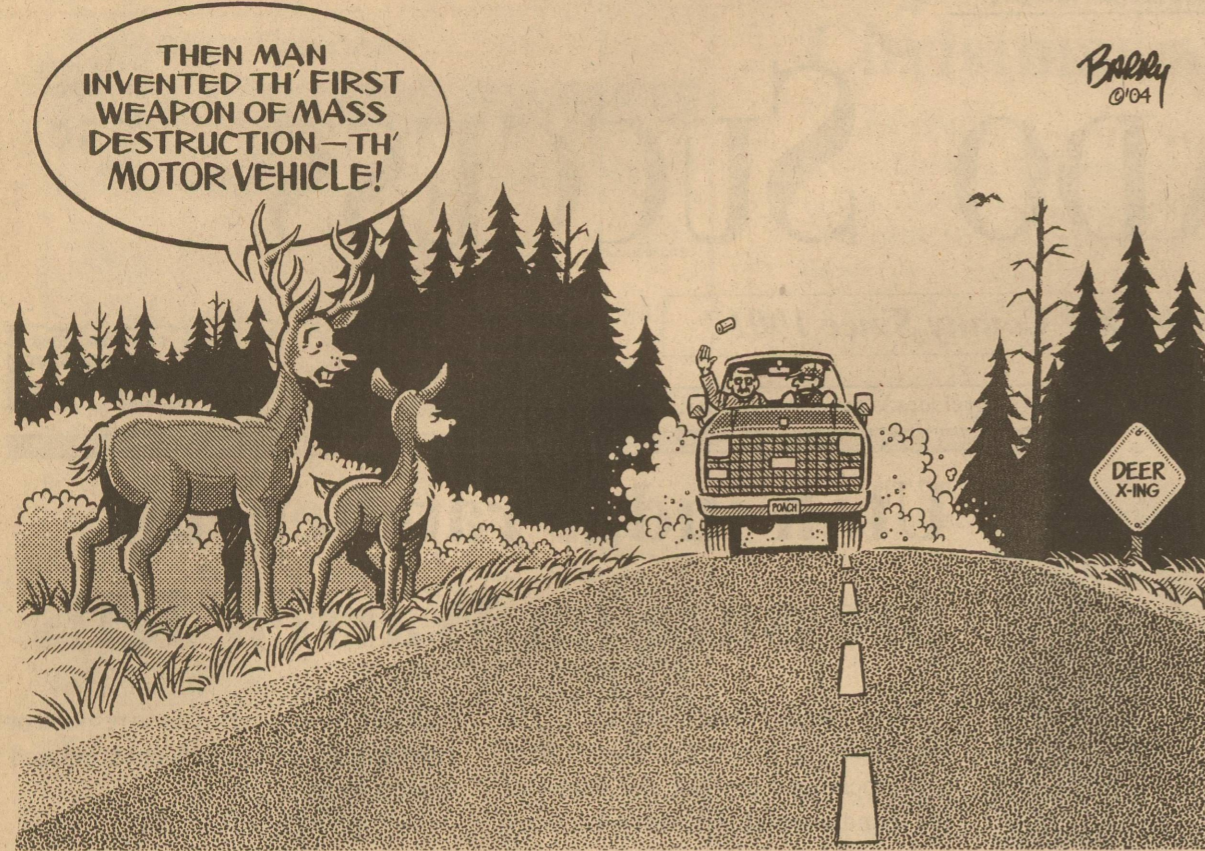

Schleicher County Commissioners met Monday, November 29, 2004, in a specially called meeting and voted to hire Yolanda Adame as the courthouse custodian. Ms. Adame is a long-time employee of Schleicher County ISD.

Before making the decision the commissioners entered into executive for a discussion of 12 applicants. The men interviewed each of the applicants at an earlier meeting.

Upon returning to open session they voted to hire Ms. Adame with Commissioners Johnny Mayo, Kirk Griffin and Matt Brown voting in favor and Commissioner Bill Clark abstaining.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

The commissioners' next scheduled meeting is slated for Monday, December 13, 2004 at 9:00 a.m. in the commissioners courtroom on the first floor of the Schleicher County Courthouse.

So, you thought your job was tough

Author Unknown
Twas the night before Christmas and Santa's a wreck...
How to live in a world that's politically correct?

His workers no longer would answer to "Elves."
"Vertically Challenged" they were calling themselves.

And labor conditions at the north pole Were alleged by the union to stifle the soul.

Four reindeer had vanished, without much propriety,
Released to the wilds by the Humane Society.

And equal employment had made it quite clear
That Santa had better not use just reindeer.

So Dancer and Donner, Comet and Cupid,
Were replaced with 4 pigs, and you know that looked stupid!

The runners had been removed from his sleigh:
The ruts were termed dangerous by the E.P.A.

And people had started to call for the cops
When they heard sled noises on their roof-tops.

Second-hand smoke from his pipe had his workers quite frightened.
His fur-trimmed red suit was called "Unenlightened."

And to show you the strangeness of life's ebbs and flows,
Rudolf was suing over unauthorized use of his nose

And had gone on Geraldo, in front of the nation,
Demanding millions in over-due compensation.

So, half of the reindeer were gone; and his wife,
Who suddenly said she'd enough of this life,

Joined a self-help group, packed, and left in a whiz,
Demanding from now on her title was Ms.

And as for the gifts, why, he'd never had a notion
That making a choice could cause so much commotion.

Nothing of leather, nothing of fur,
Which meant nothing for him. And nothing for her.

Nothing that might be construed to polute,
Nothing to aim. Nothing to shoot.

Nothing that clamored or made lots of noise,
Nothing for just girls. Or just for the boys.

Nothing that claimed to be gender specific,
Nothing that's war-like or non-pacific.

No candy or sweets...they were bad for the tooth.
Nothing that seemed to embellish a truth.

And fairy tales, while not yet forbidden,
Were like Ken and Barbie, better off hidden.

For they raised the hackles of those psychological
Who claimed the only good gift was one ecological.

No baseball, no football...someone could get hurt;
Besides, playing sports exposed kids to dirt.

Dolls were said to be sexist, and should be passe;
And Nintendo would rot your entire brain away.

So Santa just stood there, disheveled, perplexed;
He just could not figure out what to do next.

He tried to be merry, tried to be gay,
But you've got to be careful with that word today.

His sack was quite empty, limp to the ground;
Nothing fully acceptable was to be found.

Something special was needed, a gift that he might Give to all without angering the left or the right.

A gift that would satisfy, with no indecision,
Each group of people, every religion;

Every ethnicity, every hue,
Everyone, everywhere...even you.

So here is that gift, its price beyond worth...
"May you and your loved ones enjoy peace on earth."

Some verse from the Rio Grande

I met one of the most interesting and talented couples I've ever interviewed near Brownsville. Jose and Rosa Perez are both ex-teachers who have turned their attention to preserving classic Mexican music. They spend hours each week producing a thirty minute radio program for a public radio station. They don't get paid for doing the program. They just do it because they think it is important.

by Tumbleweed
Smith

They live on a resaca (a canal-type body of water found only in the valley) near Olmito. Their house reflects their interests. It is filled with books, art and a music studio where they produce their program. They both sing and play guitar. They also have an enormous collection of recorded Mexican music.

They recently have become involved in a writers group that meets on a regular basis in San Benito. Writers voluntarily read their works before the group, then listen to a discussion of it. The group recently produced a CD of their work. Each piece of writing is introduced with some music appropriate to the words.

Jose wrote a poem about sounds he hears around his house during a single day.

"Before dawn, the sounds begin, little chirps and whistles and the far cry of tires on the distant highway. Across the resaca the chachalacas continue their traveling teetop serenade as they seek the perfect mate. I walk out to greet the day, listening to the faint flutter of nighthawk wings as they chase another mosquito.

"Yellow hues of the rising sun fall on the cooing dove as fishtails splashing echo from the resaca waters. I watch and listen. The rebellious mocking bird defends with a chatter the bush with bright red chilis, as the daring kiscadee steals yet one more fiery morsel. And the green flashes of hummers skip over the knarled wild olive.

"Shimmering heat of a noonday sun blends with the cicada's drone, soothing the racket of grackles fighting over the last seed. I hear woodpeckers working their wood and larks calling as they flutter across the ground.

"Evening breeze rustles the leaves as a kingfisher screeches and dives, slapping the surface, flying out with a flurry of wings. The sound of life holds me in its arms. As the resaca sighs, I feel its breath.

"Soothing dark arrives with night. Crickets, moths and pale moonlight. The owls and paorakes send calls to balmy air; soft, soulful serenades as I drift into sleep.

"An ebony pod falls."

Legislature to consider state tax system, legalized gambling

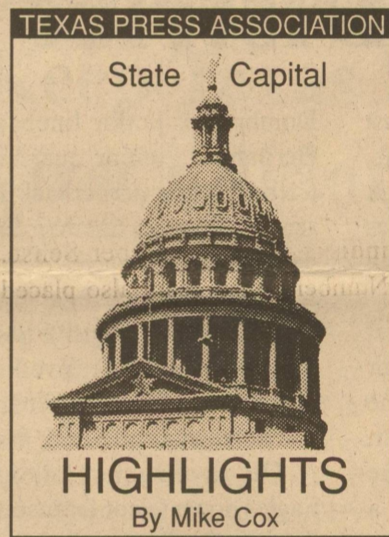

AUSTIN — When the Legislature convenes Jan. 11, its agenda will be the legislative equivalent of a heavily-laden Thanksgiving plate. But the lawmaking process, unlike turkey and dressing and all the trimmings, is almost guaranteed to give some people heartburn.

The House Research Organization released a report last week on topics likely to come up during the 79th Legislature.

As the introduction understates, "The Texas Legislature will consider a variety of issues when it convenes..." Topping the pile, of course, will be revising the school finance system and considering measures aimed at property-tax relief.

"In addition," the report continues, "revising the state tax system, including business taxation and the possible expansion of legalized gambling, reforming the system of workers' compensation insurance, and reviewing the distribution of water resources are among the issues" that likely will dominate.

Behind every consideration will be the state's budget and the revenue stream it relies on. The report notes: "While the fiscal outlook at the beginning of 2005 is expected to be better than that which confronted the state two years ago, budgetary concerns remain."

enue stream it relies on. The report notes: "While the fiscal outlook at the beginning of 2005 is expected to be better than that which confronted the state two years ago, budgetary concerns remain."

Heflin decides to fight...

His Capitol office space has been reassigned and he'll no longer be chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, but Rep. Talmadge Heflin (R-Houston) has submitted the necessary paperwork to the House to contest his election defeat.

Meanwhile, Democratic challenger Hubert Vo has been certified as the winner by 32 votes.

Once a committee appointed by the speaker issues its report, Heflin's legislative colleagues could take up the matter in a proceeding somewhat like a trial. After hearing evidence, they can either seat Vo as a new member or return Heflin. Another option would be requiring the governor to call a new election.

Heflin earlier requested a recount in the tight race that appears to have ended his 21-year legislative career. Two other candidates for House also had filed recount requests with the Secretary of State — Eric Opiela (R-Karnes City), who lost to Democrat Yvonne Gonzalez Toureilles of Alice by 835 votes and Kelly White, an Austin Democrat who fell 147 votes short of defeating incumbent Todd Baxter (R-Austin.)

The Kinkster's New Year's resolution...

Kinky Friedman this January is expected to toss his black cowboy hat into the 2006 gubernatorial election ring. The Kerrville mystery novelist, singer and cigar-smoking Clown Prince to both former President Bill Clinton and President George W. Bush has been threatening for more than a year to run as an independent candidate.

If Comptroller Carole Keeton Strayhorn and U.S. Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison decide to challenge Gov. Rick Perry in the '06 Republican primary, and if Friedman indeed runs as threatened, the next governor's race promises to be the best political spectacle in years.

Ornament raises money for state...

Here's a shopping idea and a way to help preserve the furnishings and artwork in the Capitol.

The ninth annual Capitol Christmas ornament, an image of the Capitol rotunda, sells for $16. The 24-karat gold ornament is available at the two gift shops in the Capitol complex or via the Internet at www.TexasCapitol-Giftshop.com or by calling 1-888-678-5556. So far, the ornament project has raised $2.6 million for Capitol preservation and education efforts.

TWC helps young adults get a "Reality Check"

AUSTIN – The Texas Workforce Commission's () Labor Market and Career Information Department (LMCI) has developed the "Reality Check Budget Calculator," a brand new no cost Web site designed with young adults in mind. This online budget planner features a multimedia flash player introduction with vivid colors, graphics and messages to give young adults a clear understanding of what it takes to survive on a real-life budget.

Reality Check offers a quick glimpse of a realistic budget scenario. Young people can benefit instantly from the realistic comparison of various careers, salaries and expenses found on the Web site. With Reality Check, the seeds are planted in their minds to start planning for their futures.

"Getting young people to see the link between the lifestyle they desire and the education needed in order to make that happen is the goal of the Reality Check Budget Calculator," said TWC Executive Director Larry Temple. "TWC's Labor Market and Career Information Department is committed to helping young adults make smart career choices through a range of career guidance and mentoring programs designed to help them succeed."

Reality Check offers users three real-life budget scenarios:

- Get a Reality Check: Users make lifestyle choices to determine what standard of living they want to achieve, including monthly expenses such as rent, utilities, car, clothing and more. Reality Check determines the necessary annual income, as well as sample careers matching this salary.

- Future Salary: Users enter a dollar figure of the salary they want to earn and Reality Check offers suggested career fields and education levels needed to meet that salary.

- Career Direct: Users choose a career, and Reality Check estimates a salary depending on the city. The program then lets users pick lifestyle-related expenses and arrive at a balanced budget.

For more information on the "Reality Check Budget Calculator," visit www.texasworkforce.org

Conaway attends Harvard conference for new congressmen

Cambridge, MA – Today, District 11 Congressman-Elect Mike Conaway arrived at the Harvard University Institute of Politics to partake in a bipartisan seminar with other incoming Congressional freshmen from across the country. A three decade long tradition, the issues conference has a long tradition of helping freshman Members of Congress learn more about the issues affecting Congress and find more ways to participate in the legislative process.

"I am excited to be on the Harvard University Campus to participate in this important, bipartisan program, which has helped prepare many new Members of Congress for their first years in Congress," said Conaway, a CPA and small businessman who won the November 2nd General Election with 77% of the vote. "Harvard has a great tradition and has played a large role in shaping the past, present and future leaders of our great Nation. This program will give me the opportunity to continue building relationships on both sides of the aisle, in addition to arming me with the tools to better represent the people of Texas' 11th Congressional District in Washington."

"We are honored to welcome new Members of Congress to Harvard, to emphasize their important role in our nation's government and how they can make an impact in the legislative process," said Institute of Politics Director Philip Sharp, a former Member of Congress from Indiana (1975-1995). "This seminar, a tradition for 30 years, provides new U.S. House Members with the opportunity to meet and learn from academics, incumbent Representatives of both parties, and each other."

The 16th biennial Program for Newly Elected Members of Congress will run from Monday evening, November 29 through Thursday, December 2 at Harvard's Kennedy School of Government. Conaway and other new Members of Congress will participate in a variety of workshops, led by academics and current members of the U.S. House, which provide an important opportunity for new Congressional colleagues to work together across party lines. Topics will include the federal budget and briefings on numerous individual policy matters. Conaway will also join a group of Harvard College students for a discussion on youth political engagement.

IRS simplifies tax deposit rules for small businesses

WASHINGTON – The Internal Revenue Service today announced it will increase the minimum threshold for Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA) deposits, a move that will reduce burden for more than 4 million small businesses.

Under the new rules effective January 1, 2005, employers are required to make a quarterly deposit for unemployment taxes if the accumulated tax exceeds $500. The current threshold is $100.

"The IRS is committed to reducing burden on taxpayers whenever we can," said IRS Commissioner Mark W. Everson. "The new rules will help cut paperwork for millions of small businesses. The IRS Office of Taxpayer Burden is continually reviewing what other steps we might take that will save money and time for businesses."

The maximum amount the IRS collects from employers per employee is $56 per year, if the employer timely made state unemployment tax payments. The current $100 threshold requires most employers with two or more employees to make at least one federal tax deposit per year. Raising the requirement to $500 will reduce burden for employers with eight employees or less by eliminating their requirement to make up to four FUTA tax deposits yearly.

The $100 minimum deposit threshold was established in 1970.

Ima Bruce, SCISD Food Service Director, needs your help with updating where Eldorado's young men and women are stationed in the military. This bulletin board is kept in the cafeteria as a reminder to the school children and school personnel. Please take a photo of your loved one to the cafeteria or to music teacher Joella Parker, in Elementary and it will be added to the board.

The Polygamists are Coming!

Eldorado is being invaded by polygamists from Colorado City, Texas "outsiders" unfamiliar with what they do and how they do it are aggressively seeking information about the group. And they should...

The public needs to know how the one-man dictatorship developed and how maniacal Warren Jeffs rules today. He and his lieutenants are highly skilled and articulate business men who have mastered the art of deception and therefore pose a threat to any community they inhabit.

Colorado City historian Benjamin Bistline's first deeply documented book, The Polygamists: A History of Colorado City, Arizona was written to present the truth of the beginnings of the group and its original religious doctrine. Over the years, the doctrine "rewritten" by religious leaders to support their claim of God's ap-man tyrannical dictatorship.

For "outsiders" to whom Colorado City and the first book with deep offer you a simplified,

People across America are asking how it is that girls as young as thirteen can be forced to marry, and not even to young men but old men; and how it is that women are treated as chattel and belong not to themselves or their husbands, but to the Priesthood; and how it is that wives and children can suddenly be reassigned to a "more obedient" man; and how it is that teenage boys are cast out so older men can have more wives.

And finally, how is it that tax dollars of American citizens are not only supporting many large polygamist families, but helping their communities expand.

Polygamy abuses in America remain in the public eye thanks to Oprah, CNN, ABC Primetime, A&E Television and other media sources, including newspapers The Salt Lake Tribune, The Spectrum of St. George, Utah, The Phoenix New Times, The Arizona Republic, and the Deseret Morning News. With polygamists setting up an enclave in Texas, The Eldorado Success, San Antonio Express-News, Fort Worth Star Telegram, The Dallas Morning News, and others are working to make their citizens aware.

Keep Texas Beautiful First Edition Ornament

AUSTIN — Want to cross names off your shopping list and help keep Texas beautiful at the same time? Keep Texas Beautiful, Inc. (KTB) announced the sale of its first edition ornament, featuring the organization's official seal. Proceeds will fund KTB's statewide network of more than 340 affiliates who focus on litter prevention, waste minimization, and community beautification programs.

This project was spearheaded by KTB Past President Donna Albus, of West Texas Rehab in Abilene. KTB enlisted the expertise of Nelda Laney, who has designed ornaments for numerous Texas organizations and causes over the years. The ornament's design is modeled after KTB's official seal which includes images of the state of Texas and a bluebonnet. "The seal of KTB helps bring our past and present together," Albus said. "We hope the ornament will inspire Texans to take pride in our great state and appreciate its beautiful environment."
