Vets Meet Cancelled

Confederates Not To Meet At Christoval

Because of lack of funds the annual reunion of the fifth division, Mountain Remnants Brigade of Confederate Veterans, scheduled at Christoval for July 27, 28 and 29, has been canceled. This decision was reached at a meeting Saturday night of members of Daughters of the Confederacy and of Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Frank Van Horn, chairman of the reunion for the last 11 years presided at the meeting. Mr. Van Horn said he was disappointed at not being able to have the reunion this year. The reunion was planned as usual for next year.

Recently the program committee and directors of the Christoval Baptist Encampment called off the annual religious gathering which was to be held August 8 to 16.

G. W. BROWN CONVICTED IN DEER CASE

G. W. Brown of Menard, who was charged with shooting a deer out of season was tried here Wednesday and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. His fine being $10.00 and cost of court. The complaint was filed by C. H. Jenneigs game warden for this county. Other witnesses were Cecil Waiston, sheriff of Menard and Louis Bruton of Menard. They were witnesses for the defense. Others charged for the same offense are C. J. Ware, and H. H. White, who have agreed to the same court trial as to their guilt, the case has been appealed to the County Court, H. R. Morrell of Brady was here attending the trial. The three men charged in this case will likely have other charges filed, as they were hunting in a game reserve, mutilating the sex of the deer and hunting at night with a spot light.

HOOVER CUTS HIS OWN PAY 20 PER CENT

WASHINGTON, July 18.—For the first time in history, a President of the United States Friday ordered his own pay cut, arranging to send back to the Treasury $15,000 of his $75,000 annual stipend.

No one else could cut it for him. The Constitution itself preventing, but Congress, in the national economy act, which prescribed pay reductions for almost everyone else in the Government service, gave specific sanction to President Hoover's voluntary return of any amount.

Cabinet Salaries Cut
In taking his own cut, President Hoover also sliced the pay of his Cabinet officers by 15 per cent, or about $2,500 a year.

Mr. Hoover had told his friends during the battle on Capitol Hill over pay cuts for Government workers that he would be glad if necessary to turn back his entire salary and become literally a dollar a year man.

As his aids announced Friday, however, he ruled for himself the maximum reduction, 20 per cent, given under the economy bill, which draws the bulk of its savings from compulsory furloughs to Federal workers. These payless vacations approximate general pay cuts of 8 1-3 per cent.

In a statement issued at the White House it was pointed out that the reduction in the sal-

Texans Applaud Garner Speech En Route Home

(San Angelo Morning-Times)
DALLAS, July 18.—John Nance Garner's sharp thrusts at President Hoover for what the speaker of the House called "legislation for a select clientele" brought forth cries of "pour it on" from an enthusiastic Texas crowd which greeted the speaker and his wife at the train here today, as they proceeded to their home at Uvalde.

Garner spoke from an improvised platform in the railroad station, his remarks being broadcast over station WFAA. "This is the first time in more than 20 years I have made an electioneering speech," he began, "and the first time in that interval I have addressed an audience outside the House of Representatives. Either the people of my district have a lot of confidence in me or I fooled them so well in my first campaign more than 20 years ago that they have sent me back every term since then."

He said, however, he expected to make more speeches in the next three months.

"I want to convince every honest man and woman in the United States that the power of government should be taken away from those who administer it for the benefit of a privileged few," he shouted. "I want to convince them that power should be placed in the hands of the party of which I am a member, the Democratic party, to be administered for the benefit of the American people as a whole."

He recounted the stormy scenes in Congress during the last several weeks, when the president twice vetoed bills the speaker advocated, first placing executive disapproval on the measure which would have placed $100,000,000 at the disposal of the president for individual relief.

"I trusted the president enough to be willing to leave the distribution of that money to his judgement," he said, "but he called it a 'pork barrel measure.' Then because I demanded Corporation make public its use of $2,000,000,000 of the people's property, he said in effect, 'No, that is for the benefit of my select clientele and the people must not know what is done with it.' We passed that measure any way. I noticed by the morning newspapers he says he will study it a few days and 'probably will sign.' He means he wants to have a few days in which to find out what Wall Street and J. P. Morgan think he should do about it," the speaker shouted, as the crowd responded with a roar of "rebel yells."

aries of Mr. Hoover's official family also were considerably higher than the furlough provision.

"The President has received the unanimous request from members of the Cabinet," the statement said, "that they should be subjected to the maximum reduction of salaries possible under the economy bill."

This word was given out while the chief executive was sitting in the semi-weekly meeting with his eleven Cabinet advisers.

Vice President Curtis, the first to leave, put on his glasses to read the first line of the statement handed him by news-

Governor Sterling Endorses Tax-Reduction

Strong and unqualified endorsement of its tax reduction program has been received by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from Governor Ross S. Sterling. In his letter to officials of the organization the governor says:

"Please allow me to congratulate you and, as Governor of this state thank you for the unselfish, effective and badly-needed work you are doing to bring about reduction in public expenditure, and ultimately through such a program, a reduction in the burden of taxation."

"On numerous occasions I have come in contact with the work of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the various local committees relative to the reduction of public expenditure. At the Sweet water convention, I was impressed with the constructiveness of your plans, and the two institute meetings recently held, I believe, will contribute much to more economical government in the State of Texas. Frankly, I am impressed with your program because it is based upon interesting the citizens of Texas in the methods, the procedures and the expenditures of government rather than in politics."

"I approve heartily your three major objectives, namely, budget making, administrative reorganization of the state, and home rule for counties. Nothing would give me more pleasure as Governor of the State than to see during my administration a complete reorganization of the state administrative and judicial functions. There is no doubt that we have let grow up in our state a vast number of separate boards, bureaus, etc. many of which can be consolidated and eliminated, but which cannot be done unless the organic law of the state is changed. A thorough going reorganization of the state administrative and judicial functions should save the tax payers several millions annually while at the same time improve our administrative machinery. In my opinion, even greater savings to the tax payers can be brought about by some sort of a home rule measure for counties, permitting counties to have more latitude in deciding for themselves the officers to be elected, salaries to be paid, consolidation of city and county government, etc."

"These progressive and beneficial changes, of course, cannot be brought about unless there is a public sentiment for them sufficient to change the organic law of the state. It is for this reason that I commend the work of the West Texas committees and pledge myself to assist in every way possible to develop a public sentiment sufficiently strong to make effective this constructive program."

Commenting on the Governor's letter Wilbur C. Hawk, President of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce said:

"It is gratifying to know that the state's chief executive appreciates the fact that our organization is endeavoring to get right down to brass tacks in the matter of state, school, county and municipal taxes. By lending 100 per cent co-operation, as he has offered, it looks like our program should go thru overwhelmingly. I am delighted at the Governor's attitude, and feel that his support means a huge stride forward toward real economy."

Leaman's Department Store Robbed Wednesday Morning

Two young men giving their names as T. W. Clark and Jimmie Watson, of San Angelo, Texas, entered the Leaman's Department Store early Wednesday morning, or about 4:30 o'clock, and took ten dollars from the cash register and about $95.00 worth of dry goods.

They entered the building by prying open the front door and then opened the back door from the inside and loaded the goods at the back and left town going toward Sonora.

They were seen in the act by Jessie Ray and E. A. Ballard. Mr. Ray working in the Duncan Cafe first discovered the boys and then Mr. Ballard who runs a small lunch counter was returning from home about four A. M. when he discovered them, the two phoned the officers and Mr. Leaman and they were soon on the roads after them. Deputy Sheriff Graves caught them at the Vermont Filing Station and brought them back and have them in jail. The boys claimed they had been to Del Rio and had won the goods by gambling, but they were soon identified by Mr. Leaman as his goods, and the money was all in small change that had been left in the cash register for the early morning business. The boys were driving a Chevrolet Roadster, a yellow color with green running gear and No. K-18*417, license plate, a San Angelo number.

As soon as the theft was reported to Sheriff Conner he and his deputy and J. R. Conner all took different roads and fell in pursuit, and soon had the boys in jail.

Later—Watson has since given his name as Wallace Bailey.

HOOVER TO LEARN OF HIS NOMINATION AUGUST 8TH

President Hoover has set August 8th to learn of his being nominated to lead the Republican party in the next general election. Roosevelt had a wiser suggestion to the Democrats. He said, "I was listening in and heard the big demonstration and I will be there tomorrow and accept the job," and is already well over the big to do.

ROWENA TO VISIT ELDORADO SUNDAY

Eldorado will play host to the strong Rowena baseball club Sunday in a league game. Rowena is at the top of the list with no defeats and boasts a very strong team.

Eldorado has lost only one game in the league and that was a forfeit to Barnhart. Both teams will probably put their best on the field. If Eldorado wins it will put them in a tie with Rowena for first place. Barnhart who is still in the perfect percent column will play Lake View and if they lose it will still be a three way tie.

The Eldorado team will place on the field the same club that pounded their way to a 25 to 0 decision over Sherwood last Sunday. This team consists of Buck Bailey, T. J. Bailey, J. Ballew, J. Archer, Ratliff, Olenburg, I s a a c s, Graves, Williams, Haynes, Barber and L. Ballew. These are the men that have been playing for Eldorado this season and all together produce a powerful punch and threaten most any pitcher in the league. This promises to be one of the best games of the season and if you miss this game you will probably miss one of the best games that will be played this year.

Miss Lodice Putman has as her guest this week, Miss Lutie Carter of Mertzton, Texas.

Tom Wilton was in the city from the ranch Wednesday buying supplies and looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stewardson and son, Billy, were here the first of the week visiting and attending to business matters.

 CONGRESS

Congress adjourned for the summer and in some ways this is a relief to the country for while it was in session, no one could guess what it would do next. This uncertainty was a hindrance rather than a help, and better times were retarded in consequence.

Nevertheless we should not blame congress too much. The great majority of its members are honest and above the average in intelligence. But they are hampered by conditions over which they have little control. They are gathered from a vast country of more than three million square miles. Over the vast area 48 states have their places. Each of these states has its paramount interest it expects its congressman to look after. There is one section that depends chiefly upon manufacture, another on farming, and a third upon stockraising. And again there is mining, ect. Naturally the congressman tries to look after the interests of his constituency and in doing so, is apt to differ with a representative from some other section. Each one stands by what appears to him to be the best interests of his district. And rightly so. That is what the people back home elected him for. As each congressman is looking after the interests of his part of the country, it follows that there is a jam of conflicting interests. The best that congress has been able to do up to now is to get together thru committees and effect a compromise by which each part of the nation gets a part of what it wants, and concedes part to the interest of others.

There may come a time when the underlying principle will be discovered, which if enacted into law would bring prosperity to all. But this would forshadow a dictator and we are not ready for that yet. Nevertheless there came a crisis in the affairs of men a master mind must plan and the people execute his will before the danger is overcome; witness: in ancient times, Moses leading his enslaved people to freedom.

Again, the allies were about to lose war in the spring of 1918 and the day was saved by appointing Marshall Foch, generalissimo, and he coordinating all the allied forces brought victory out of disaster.

We need a master mind just now. Not one wielding arbitrary power, but one that we, the common people, thru love and confidence in him, are induced to place our interests in his hands. Then if he proved wise enough and unselfish enough, he will lead us to victory as Foch did the allied armies in the fateful summer of 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Richey, proprietors of the Self-Serve Grocery, returned Monday from a 10 days trip which carried them into New Mexico, then back to El Paso and over into Old Mexico. They then turned down the border land to Del Rio, and again crossed over into Old Mexico. They report a pleasant outing and return with renewed spirits to greet their friends.

F. R. Keele of San Angelo was here the past week and attending services at the Christian Church.

T. J. Bailey and wife of Abilene were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Roach and Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Bailey the first of this week.

How Cardui Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is not done well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting full value from the food you eat.

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be neglected.

Take Cardui to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength from the food you eat—to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up with the help of Cardui.

SURCROPPER SUGAR CORN, A NEW CROP FOR TEXAS

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station announces that Dr. P. C. Mangelsdorf, Corn Breeder for the Station, has succeeded in imparting to several of the best yielding varieties of Texas field corn by breeding work, the sugary qualities of the kernel of the northern grown sweet corn, a poor producer in the South. Carload shipments of green corn are moved in season from several points and the green corn business is becoming an important industry. The consumption of corn can be greatly increased by this addition of the sugary qualities to the kernel, and Texas has a new crop with added money values in this Surcropper sugar corn and other adapted varieties to which the Corn Breeder has imparted the sugary kernel.

Texas heretofore has developed no extensive canneries or green corn for two reasons: First, she has not heretofore had the quality of corn most acceptable on the market, namely, a sweet-kerneled corn; and, second, the high temperatures in this climate tend to cause a reversion of the sugar into starch, especially during the first twenty-four hours after it has been picked. The first problem has already been overcome by Doctor Mangelsdorf, and a second is an easily surmountable one by the industrial engineer with the up-to-date method of artificial cooling so that there is no serious obstacle to the development of a great sweet corn canning industry in Texas where with our better production yields especially under irrigation, we held a great economic advantage over many of the other sweet corn regions of the United States. Many great sources of wealth, agriculturally and industrially, are as yet undeveloped in Texas, and this is one of the great economic advantages that this State holds if it will only develop fully its resources and opportunities.

A limited amount of seed of the Surcropper sugar variety was distributed this season and a large quantity is being increased under irrigation at the Winter Garder Station with a view of establishing this variety throughout the green corn growing regions of Texas.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. Darrow,
 Extension Service Editor

A total of 17,132 different farm families have been coached in better ways of home making, chiefly making the living at home, in 11 North Texas counties since last December. Home demonstration club women have extended the work or the county home demonstration agent in an attempt to help 85 per cent of the farm population this year. The same plan is working in all parts of Texas.

The Selkirk grace offered by Robert Burns at the request of the Earl of Selkirk nearly 200 years ago might well be adopted by many Texas farm families this year, particularly those having 4-H pantries. Said Burns "Some hae meat, and canna eat, And some wad eat that want it; But we hae meat and we can eat, And sae the Lord be thankit."

A Bosque county farmer treated his seed oats for smut last year for six cents per acre and had no smut. A neighbor didn't and lost 18 per cent of his crop. In days of 10-cents oats this is small talk, but we note it in passing for the days ahead. After all, though, oats look just as good as ever to livestock. A few more bushels in the bin is not amiss, even in our crazy economic world.

The spread in price between improved pecans and natives last year was so great—often 5 to 1 in favor of soft shells—that many farmers say they made more from a few improved pecan trees than from sizable cotton crops. Extension workers report the greatest demand in years for help in budding natives this season. Much of it is to be done this summer on the sprouts of trees top-worked last winter.

The depression is promoting home orchards. One example is found in Rusk county where 130 small orchards including grapes have been started by 4-H club girls. They earned the money to pay for the trees which were set out in early spring.

THE SMALL CITY...

A Pacemaker of Progress

More and more the signs point to the greater importance of the small and medium-sized community.

We are proud of the part electric power is playing in laying the groundwork for this greater progress and prosperity.

Gone is the day when the larger metropolitan center had a monopoly of power supply, the first essential of industrial growth and development.

Widespread networks of transmission lines have given the smaller communities the same high-grade electric service as the larger cities have.

On this firm basis, industries are increasingly recognizing the advantages of location in small communities.

This trend will react most favorably to West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity"—efficiently, dependably and inexpensively served by the West Texas Utilities Company.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Begin Taking Cardui Today If You Suffer Like This Lady Did

"WHEN I was a girl, I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. Maggie Stanfield, of Crandall, Ga. "I was very irregular for twelve months. Nothing did me very much good until my mother began to give me this medicine. Then I got all right, stout and well."

"After I was married, I was in bad health. I began taking Cardui again. I was troubled with my back a lot. Was awfully restless. I could not sleep well. I just weighed 90 pounds when I began taking Cardui. I improved rapidly. Before long I weighed 126 pounds. I felt fine. I was able to do a good day's work."

TEN PER CENT REDUCTION

The Federal Department of Agriculture estimates that the Texas cotton crop acreage is reduced 10 per cent this year. This estimate is as of July 1, 1932. That there was reduction is not surprising—it was generally expected. It is interesting however, to note that the cotton report of The News published April 8 gave the Texas cotton acreage reduction as 9.8 per cent.

When it is considered that the estimators relied upon in the cotton counties in the case of The News survey had to give their judgement before the crop was entirely in the ground, the results must be looked upon as really remarkable. The News is proud of its crops of observers, who are drawn from the ranks of those most familiar with cotton conditions in their several communities. These men serve out of a desire to furnish reliable information to the farmer and to the trade, rather than out of any expectation of reward. Their co-operation has been able to build up a fact-finding organization dealing with cotton culture in Texas.

The acreage reduction is significant more on account of what is done with the released acres than because of any direct effect upon the total cotton yield. The crop this year will perhaps depend more upon insect activity and weather influences than upon acreage. But the food and feed raised on the "other acres" will do much to fortify the Texas farm against adversity—Dallas News.

Blane Sammons was in from the ranch Monday looking after with cotton conditions in their business.

Wright's Cash Store

I have taken over the J. H. Parsons' stock of Groceries and will for the present handle same as I did when I was formerly in the business, giving employment to my children and thereby help them to earn something for themselves.

I do not expect to do any large business as I will sell strictly for cash, but will appreciate any trade that you might see fit to send or give me. My prices will be in line with any reputable merchant and will be sold at a price you can pay and one that I can make some money.

I will buy your eggs, would also handle some thrashed maize, trade for some corn, or wheat. Don't have any money but could trade you some groceries.

My advertising will not consist of prices on goods or week end specials. My prices will be the same six days a week, and I solicit your business on quality merchandise at live and let live prices. Any merchant will have goods that he will dispose of cheap, so will we, so try us and see.

THIS AND THAT

By Jimminy

Texas Opinion, edited by a paid representative of certain Texas trusts, has given Calhoun headquarters "permission" to print some of the things he has said about Jimmie Allred in connection with the attorney general's race. Not that permission was necessary or that it would have been denied if it were necessary, but because it sounds more important. It always sounds bigger to have something done "by special permission of the copyright owners." It gives a distinct flavor to what ever has gone on before or is about to follow. In this case the flavor is more or less garlicky. It has a bad odor.

Not that is it wrong for a man to think or to say what he thinks. Every man should be given that right. But the man we admire is the one who thinks what is in his heart, not what is or may be in his pocketbook.

In this "special permission" circular, being broadcast over the state by Calhoun forces, the attorney general is accused of everything but discovery of the Einstein theory and writing the state's constitution—which, by the way, is not such a bad piece of paper after all. The chief criticism made against Allred is that he is carrying out a mandate handed him by the people, through constituted authorities, by prosecuting a few monopolistic oil companies for alleged violation of Texas' anti-trust laws. They do not however criticize the legislature for ordering the investigation that led up to filing of the suit, for which purpose $30,000 was appropriated. Nor do they condemn the governor for signing the bill, or for the message he sent to the legislature, which said:

"In this day of combinations of capital and mergers of industries, the anti-trust laws of Texas have become of multiplied importance. Their enforcement must be looked after more scrupulously than at any time before in the history of the state. I compliment any effort of the attorney general in reference to this question. The House of Representatives is worthy of the congratulations of the people of Texas for passing the $30,000 appropriation for the attorney general's department. I hope that the Senate will pass the bill at their earliest convenience. And I pledge to the attorney general the full co-operation of the entire executive department in relation to all activities pertaining to the enforcement of the anti-trust laws."

That in itself would seem to preclude any argument the trusts may have about the people not wanting the laws of this state enforced. The oil companies haven't been found guilty of any wrongdoing, yet they are telling their employes that the attorney general may be right, and to get out and work for Calhoun, on penalty of losing their jobs if he is right.

It's a great game—and to the winner goes the oil.

C. V. TERRELL OF WISE COUNTY Candidate for His Second Full Term as Railroad Commissioner

Mr. Terrell is asking for a second full term on his record, which is in part as follows:

During his term of office, the Commission has turned back into the General Revenue Fund more than $500,000.00.

They have tried more than fifteen thousand cases, with only four reversals, a record unsurpassed by any similar body in the United States.

Mr. Terrell was the first state official to use the half time job plan, thus helping a number of boys and girls through school, who could not have gone otherwise.

He has never indulged in a mud singing campaign, believing that "One can never elevate himself by trying to pull the other fellow down."

When Mr. Terrell was elected to his first full term, which he is now serving, he carried 231 of the 256 counties in this great State, which was a large majority over his two honorable opponents.
