STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY ON "BAD LUCK"

"The Brownes are the unluckiest people I ever saw, Auntie," remarked Emma, as she and Aunt Emmy walked by their house. "They were just getting on their feet after James lost so much money in stocks. Maud told me only last week that he was putting his savings in government bonds now. Yesterday his office was robbed and the bonds stolen out of his desk. Five $100 bonds gone. It's the only money they have been able to save since he lost his savings in that radio stock." "That certainly is bad luck, if you call it bad luck," commented Aunt Emmy. "I call it stupidity myself." "Stupidity? why Aunt Emmy, how could James know that thieves would get in his office!" exclaimed Emma. "It doesn't seem stupid to me." "I don't want to be too hard on James, my child, but if he had only used ordinary precautions, he need not have lost what was for him a large amount of money on that radio stock and he surely need not have had those bonds stolen." "Why Auntie, James isn't a mind reader or a fortune teller." "No, of course he isn't. But neither is every successful business man a seer. Luck is ninety per cent common sense. If James had gone to his banker and asked him to look up the radio company whose stock he was thinking of buying, the chances are that he never would have bought it after he got the bank's report. Banks can get the record of any company issuing stock and if the company is not well financed, if it has not been paying dividends, if the officers of the company are not men with clean, honest records, the bank can find that out. The radio company that James invested in made a disgraceful failure a month after he bought his stock. If he had taken the trouble to find out something about it first, doubtless he would have had that money today." "Well, Auntie, that may be true about the stock, but who in the world would anticipate thieves?" "Anybody who reads the papers to-day knows that thieves are pretty active," said Aunt Emmy dryly. "Why ignore them? If James had kept his bonds in a safe place, at a bank, he would have had them yet. James has been careless, if not actually stupid. His bad luck is mostly James himself."—Anne B. Aymes.

Auto Tragedies Increase as Other Travel Is Made Safer

AUTOS STILL CLIMBING HILL OF DEATH

WHILE railroad tragedies and street car accidents in the United States have gradually been diminishing in the last ten years, the annual toll exacted by automobile casualties is steadily mounting, says the Stewart-Warner Safety Council for the prevention of automobile accidents. Railroad accidents have been cut more than one-third, or from 12,520 in 1913 to 8,078 in 1923, the latest government figures available. Street car fatalities also have been cut down one-third or from 3,080 in 1913 to 2,006 ten years later. Automobile deaths, on the other hand, have increased over five-fold. Against the 3,822 deaths in 1913 we have 16,452 in 1923, and the score is growing each year.

Care, more care and still more care, is the solution of this national problem. The pedestrian must be always on the alert and as spry as a kangaroo, if he is to keep out of harm's way, and the driver for his part must never relax his vigilance for a moment.

STAR

Running-in-oil

You will find in the new running-in-oil STAR the many features you have always wanted in a windmill—one oiling a year—your choice of Timken Tapered Roller Bearings or "NO-OIL-EM" Bearings—two gears, two pinions and two pitmans—direct center lift to pump rod—crosshead, guides and pitmans bearings flooded with oil—a scientifically designed wheel with angle steel arms and braces and ball-bearing turn table.

The fans of this new Star are curved to give great efficiency in an 8 to 10 mile an hour wind. Plunger pump in crank case floods crosshead, guides and pitman bearings with oil, and tight cover keeps out dirt, rain or snow.

One filling of crank case with oil each year will save many trips up the tower. May be fitted on any tower.

The new STAR is the last word in Windmill construction. Come in and let us show you this mill. You will want to know about it whether you are needing a new mill right now, and we want you to know what a really fine windmill we have in this new Star.

BUCK BAILEY WILL COACH AT SIMMONS NEXT YEAR.

Miss Mable Roach sends us the following clipping from the Abilene Reporter, concerning our friend Buck Bailey.

"A West Texas cowboy will direct the destinies of the Simmons university football line in 1926. A. B. (Buck) Bailey, well known athlete of Eldorado and son of a West Texas ranchman, has been elected assistance to Coach Victor Payne in football and baseball during the next year, it was announced Saturday by President T. D. Sandefer.

"Concerning him Glenn S. (Pop) Warner, head coach of Leland Stanford university and dean of American football coaches, wrote President Sandefer.

"I have known Mr. Bailey for several years and am well acquainted with his football career as a player and coach. I regard him as one of the very best guards ever developed. He has played at center and tackle also wonderfully well. "Buck" has been playing on the Olympia Athletic club of San Francisco and coaching a high school team and he has proved to be a very fine coach as well as a player.

"As a man he is a gentleman of the best character and habits, fine personality and is very popular with all with whom he comes in contact. I believe he will prove to be very efficient and successful college coach if given the opportunity and I do not hesitate to recommend him.

"Bailey will direct the work of the line football and also will assist Coach Payne in baseball."

Soon Felt Improvement

"The first time I took Cardui I was in an awful bad way," says Mrs. Ora Carlisle, R. F. D. 5, Troup, Texas. "I went fishing one day. A heavy storm came up and I got soaking wet in the rain. I was afflicted with awful smothering spells. I could not get my breath. My mother had some in the house that she was taking, so she immediately began giving it to me. In a few days I got all right. Last fall I got run-down in health. I was weak and puny and I began to suffer. I would get so I could hardly walk. Having taken Cardui before, I sent to the store for a bottle of it. Almost from the first dose I could feel an improvement.

"Cardui has helped me a lot and I am glad to recommend it. I don't feel like the same woman I was last fall. My appetite is good now, and I'm sure it's Cardui that's made it pick up."

D. I. DURHAM FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

To the People of the 51st Judicial District.

After conferring with a number of friends and former supporters, I have decided to again become a candidate for the Democratic Nomination for the office of District Attorney and in making this announcement, I am not unmindful of the obligations and responsibility imposed upon the occupant of this important office, nor of its relation to the security of the life and property of the citizen.

If elected, I pledge you that I will devote my time and energy in a faithful and honest effort to assist those charged with the enforcement of the law in apprehending and bringing to justice the violator of the law, without regard to the character or standing of the offender, or the offense with which he is charged.

I regard public office as an agency of government dedicated to the public service and the promotion of the public welfare, affording the occupant an opportunity to render an efficient public service and thereby do some good in the world.

I appeal for the support and friendship in this venture, of all men and women in the district who believe in the supremacy of the law, and its fair and impartial application and enforcement.

I am, Very Respectfully,
D. I. Durham.
