W. J. BRYAN DEAD.

Williams Jennings Bryan, the man who defended the Christian religion and the Bible, was found dead in his room at Dayton, Tenn., Sunday afternoon, he attended church Sunday morning, ate a hearty lunch and went to his room for a rest, which proved to be his eternal rest, for he was found dead at 4:30, he went to Dayton to help prosecute Scopes for teaching evolution in the schools of Tenn., which was against the laws of that state, he put the enemy to flight, and died on the battlefield for the teachings of Good Book, he will live on through the ages, while those who opposed him will be forgotten to the memory of man.

Bryan is probably the greatest reformer the United States has produced.

The body of Mr. Bryan will be placed in Arlington Cemetery among other heroes and States men of his country.

MASONIC GRAND OFFICERS VISITS EL DORADO.

Saturday El Dorado was alive with members of the Masonic order, the local lodge had as their guest Quinn Williams, grandmaster of the Grand Lodge of Texas, Wilbur Keith of Dallas, and Judge Hiram F. Lively. The party reached here at noon and were served with a chevon barbecue. Several visitors from Christoval and Sonora were here. The Grand officers participated in the burial services of F. S. Miller, Sr Saturday afternoon, and Saturday night went to Sonora. The Grand officers are visiting many lodges in Texas.

F. S. MILLER SR.

Felix S. Miller Sr., was born at Austin, Travis County, Texas, November 6, 1867, and died at his home near El Dorado, July 25, 1925, aged 57 years 8 months and 19 days.

Mr. Miller was married to Mary Annie Ramey at Austin, and to this union six children were born four girls and two boys, all of which survive him, Mrs. Ward Parks, El Dorado, Texas, Mrs. W. W. Jarrett of Santa Paula, Calif., Miss Gladys Miller, of Longview, Texas, Miss Betty Miller, of Washington, D. C.; Aubrey and Felix Miller, of El Dorado. All the children except Miss Betty were present at the funeral. Two brothers J. L. and W. D. Miller and one sister Mrs. E. M. Tumey all of Austin were here, one sister Mrs. J. H. Robbins, of Austin, could not attend. Eleven grandchildren also survive him.

Mr. Miller came to El Dorado 16 years ago and for a number of years was engaged in the Meat Market business here, but for the past few years he has resided on his farm just east of town.

Mr. Miller was too free hearted for his own financial good, he had rather give than to receive, no one ask for alms and was refused, if it was in his power to grant it. He believed in the principals of the great fraternal order to which he belonged that it was wrong to rob a brother to the value of one cent and that we may live respected and die regretted.

Mr. Miller never united with any church but believed in the principals of Methodist Church. Brother Young, pastor of the Methodist of Church conducted the services at the home, after which the Masons took charge of the body and laid it to rest in the El Dorado Cemetery under the honors of that order at 4 p. m. Saturday afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the good people of Bailey Ranch and El Dorado for the many courtesies shown during the death and burial of our brother, G. W. Parks, and especially for the nice dinner prepared and brought to the home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brooks.

FERGUSON TAX RATE

HIGHEST IN HISTORY.

The daily papers of Tuesday, this week, carried report of the state tax rate for 1925, as fixed by the automatic board Monday. The rate is set at 77 cents, being 2 cents higher than last year. This is also said to be the highest tax rate ever levied in Texas.

This is strange in the face of the repeated promises of James E. Ferguson to the people that if his wife were elected the taxes would be lowered.—San Saba News.

As usual the same old story of tax reduction has developed into the highest tax rate in the history of the State.

We believe in science and in evolution in some degrees, but we don't believe that man came from lower animal life, and we also believe that such rot should be prohibited from the schools textbooks, if there are those who want their children to be reared in this manner they should have the privilege but it should be done in private schools, the same might be said of the mandatory Bible reading, until the time come when the Christian people quit disputing among themselves over the non-essentials.

Mr. W. T. Conner, one of our stockfarmers, was in town Wednesday exhibiting some fine grapes that he raised on his place in the edge of El Dorado, the grapes are very large and grow in large clusters, and from the description given by the ten spies sent into the land of Canaan in the days of Moses, we imagine these grapes are of the same variety and size. Mr. Conner has his farming done, but raises the grapes, strawberries, onions, honey, and has for sideline agency for tomb stones made from the famous Llano Granite, and also sells fruit tree of the best varieties.

WHAT IS A BUSINESS.

Is a newspaper the type and press? Is a bank the counters, vault, or even the money? Is a grocery store the canned goods, vegetables, rice, sugar and flour? Decidedly "no." The material parts of a business institution stand stark as a ship's rigging in a calm port without the personality, the service, the good will and reputation behind it.

The goods are like the body, indispensable enough, but the intelligence, the mind or soul, of the business is the management behind it.

Great men have spoken the truth of this. We call to mind such quotations as, "an institution is but the lengthened shadow of one man," and Shakepeare's "the purest treasure mortal times afford is spotless reputation." Elbert Hubbard said, "one great soul in every community could actually redeem the world, to which we are inspired to add that "one corking good, upright, honorable, outspoken, untiring, go-getting fellow in every business could put the kibosh on failure."

When we think of a business we think of the men or women who conduct it; that is, we think of their ability or lack of it to render service to the community through the channel of their chosen business of profession. This is ample proof that a "business" is not alone the machinery, the shelves, the building or the goods. Every business has its intangible values, its soul as its body, its mind as well as its matter—without which it truly "has no business" calling itself a business.—The above ideas are borrowed from Editor McDonald of the Herald, Ontario, Cal.

SQUIBS ON EVOLUTION.

There is so much of the monkey in the best of us, and so much of us in the worst of the monkeys, that it doesn't behoove any of us to make futher monkeys out of the rest of us.

An indecent, disrespectful man beside a decent, self-respecting monkey naturally leads one to inquire whether the monkey has ascended from man.

You can lead a child to a schoolbook but you can't make him study evolution if the fish are biting.

GREEN W. PARKS.

G. W. Parks, prominent ranchman, died suddenly at his home eight miles west of El Dorado, Saturday night of heart failure. He had retired for the night and told his daughter that he was feeling well, but she heard him sneeze and went to his bed to find him unconscious, she phoned for a physician and other help but he had passed away before any help reached them.

Mr. Parks resided on the ranch with his daughter Miss Lena and his son Wilson, his friends are numbered by those who knew him, he joined the church in early life and lived for his God through all his life and was ready for the call.

Mr. Parks was born December 25, 1855, and had almost reached his three score years and ten. He was married to Miss Kate F. Ward, December 24 1878. He moved to Schleicher County about 18 years ago, and has resided at the same place during his stay here. He is survived by five daughters and two sons, 22 grand-children and two half brothers and two half-sisters. His daughters are Mrs. S. L. Stanford, Mrs. E. C. Parker, Mrs. T. F. Green, Mrs. Charlie Munn and Miss Lena, the sons Ward and Wilson, all children live in this county and were present at the funeral.

Two children died in early childhood.

Mr. Parks also survives but could not attend the funeral on account of illness.

Johnson's Undertaking Co. at San Angel came out and prepared the body for burial, Brother Ray, Pastor of Baptist Church, conducted religious services at the home and cemetery. The remains were laid to rest Sunday afternoon in the El Dorado cemetery at 5:30 p m.

Honorary Pall Bearers were; J. R. Brooks, Mertzon; W. R. Arkerson, Liberty Hill; J. A. Thomas, San Angelo; J. A. Whitson, W. H. Parker and Frank Spencer.

Active Pall Bearers were; Ira McDonald, V. O. Copple, C. A. Spencer, W. A. Spencer, H. Munn and P. W. Sewell.

Rev William C. Miller, died at Miles Friday afternoon while he was kneeling in prayer, he was pastor of the Lutheran Church.

The country is full of weather prophets but none of them bring rain.

R. L. LOWE DIES.

R. L. (Bob) Lowe, for many years a resident of this section of Texas, died Monday morning at 806 E. 74th Street, Los Angeles, Calif. About the same time that his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Cochran died in San Angelo, For many years Mr. Lowe was manager of the Door Key ranch, he latter engaged in the Livery Stable business in San Angelo, before the days of the auto, he latter operated the mail line from San Angelo south through El Dorado to Sonora, when the mail was carried on hacks, at the same time he and his wife ran the Hotel in El Dorado and consequently many of our early settlers knew them well, they left here about 1905, and since resided in El Paso and California. If his life was written on the printed page it would furnish interesting reading for those who love thrills of the real western life.

Mr. Lowe was a brother-in-law of Mrs. G. M. Holland of Christoval and Uncle by marriage to S. L. and A. T. Wright of El Dorado. He is survived by his wife and two daughters.

Mr. Mose Bierschwale and family, of Harper, Texas, have moved into our city to make this their home we trust that they will have a prosperous stay in our midst.

C. A. Brown a banker at Alpine, died very suddenly Wednesday morning of acute indigestion. He attended a masonic meeting Tuesday night and introduced the Grand master Mr. Guinn Williams, on his visit there.

MRS. ALICE COCHRAN.

Mrs. Alice Cochran, of San Angelo, died at 10:30 Monday morning at her home, 821 West Avenue E.

She was born in Gaudalupe County July 29, 1854, at Seguin, was a daughter of Major A. B. Moore. She was married to James A. Cochran Nov. 21st, 1892, to this union three sons were born. The husband and oldest son has preceded her in death, the two sons who survive are Boyd and Eugene Cochran who reside in San Angelo.

She was also an Aunt by marriage to S. L. and A. T. Wright of El Dorado.

She came with her husband when first married to Christoval in 1892, where Mr. Cochran was engaged in the stock business, making the trip to Seguin and back in a wagon. For 7 years she lived on South Concho, at C. (from there moved to San Angelo where she resided 26 years. She had five sisters, all of them have preceded her in death.

Mrs. Cochran joined the Presbyterian Church in early childhood and lived for and stood for the best things and was true to the Church. She was laid to rest Tuesday afternoon in Fairmount Cemetery, the Rev. M. S. Epperson conducting the services. The floral offering was beautiful and spoke the true feelings of neighbors and friends.

Poultry raisers from many sections of the state attended the two-day session last week of the Texas Baby Chick Association, at North Texas Agricultural college, Arlington.
 C. A. Schutze of Austin will succeed Harvey E. Deen, resigned, as superintendent of construction projects of the state highway commission, it was announced this week.

More than 300,000 pounds of cucumbers have been pickled in vats at Emory this season. Some of the growers this year received $100 an acre for cucumbers.
 The Galveston city commission has ordered the sale of $75,000 bonds for the construction of an incinerator. The bonds were authorized at an election in May.

Two issues of city of Flatonia bonds, one for $32,500 sewer, and the other for $37,000 waterworks, have been approved by the attorney general's department. Both bear 5 per cent and mature serially.

According to information received in Foakum this week, the leaf worm is making its appearance in several fields in the surrounding territory. Farmers are stocking up with poison and machines and are preparing to wake a war in the insect.

Strict enforcement of "closed waters" in the bays and passes near Galveston was announced by Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner Turner Hubby last week to a group of Galveston commercial fishermen, who, with their attorney, John Darrouzett of Galveston, conferred with him.

Work on the Corpus Christi port project is progressing at a satisfactory rate, and will be completed within the next year, according to Major Julian L. Schley, United States district engineer, who recently inspected the work there. The present contract calls for completing about half of the Aransas Pass channel, and this work is expected to be done within the space of one year.

Wright Morrow, first assistant attorney general, has returned from Washington, where he appeared before the interstate commerce commission and presented a brief opposing the proposed junking of the Brownwood North and South railroad. The company recently made application to the I. C. C. to abandon the line of 17 1/2 miles from Brownwood to May and the state is resisting the application.

Decision of the state board of control ultimately to equip the six state insane hospitals with X-ray devices so that inmates of these institutions may have the benefit of expert and scientific examination, is in line with the board's program for carrying out certain of the provisions of the eleventh biennial act passed at the last session of the legislature, according to R. B. Walthall, member of the board.

Thousands of additional acres of cotton land soon will be opened up in the South Plains area of the Texas Panhandle, centering on Lubbock County and extending westward into New Mexico, the department of agriculture has just announced. The department made public the report of its economists who are studying the advantages and disadvantages of the South Plains for cotton farming.

Construction of a straight-line railroad running west from Fort Worth to Plainview and Lubbock, opening vast territory, is contemplated for the not far distant future by the Burlington system, provided the area to be served continues to develop at the present pace, G. C. Burnham, executive vice president of the Burlington, testified recently in the interstate commerce commission hearing on West Texas railroad applications.

The city of Harlingen, gateway of the Rio Grande Valley, is preparing for extensive municipal improvement to prepare for growth it expects. Six bond issues by the city have been approved by Attorney General Dan Moody for following purposes: Street improvement, $132,000; sewers, $25,000; water works, $25,000; city hall, $14,000; parks, $6000; refunding, $13,000. The bonds are all serial 5 1/2 per cent.

Faced with a diminishing supply of helium producing natural gas which caused a decrease in the amount of helium extracted at the Fort Worth plant this month, the bureau of mines of the department of commerce has ordered an immediate survey of the Texas natural gas fields to determine if possible, what the future holds for the production of the non-inflammable buoyant gas used to inflate the naval dirigibles Shenandoah and Los Angeles. R. A. Cappel, chief of the helium division, bureau of mines, has arrived at Fort Worth from Washington to conduct the survey.

An appeal to employers for work of any kind to relieve the acute situation facing thousands of persons in the lrouth-stricken area of Texas, has been issued by E. J. Crocker, labor commissioner. Thousands of requests are being received from bankers and civic organizations in the area for information as to the most likely places for employment for the many persons out of work, Commissioner Crocker said. BRIDGE PARTY.

Misses Evelyn Hinyard and Marie Doty were joint hostess Monday evening entertaining with a delightful bridge party on the lawn, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hinyard.

Five tables were arranged amidst the beautiful lighted setting, where cool evening breezes contributed to merry party. A plate of delicious refreshments was served and a most enjoyable time was had by all.

Assistants to the hostesses were Len, Blain, and Allan. At the hour of departure they were discovered in the kitchen, and those leaving complimented them on their industriousness, but the few remaining have another idea of "what cleaning up the dishes" is; for there were aither sandwiches nor tea left in the kitchen.

Those present were; Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hinyard, Mesdames Joe Williams and Van McCormick and Misses Lula Mae Evans, Gladys Patton, Elizabeth Hinyard, and Messers; Baugh, Bailey, McCormick, Mund, Sammons, and Jackson.

A Guest.

Bro. Ray closed a very successful meeting at Bailey Ranch Sunday morning and he and his family are at Christoval camping this week and enjoying much needed rest.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Schleicher County—Greeting:

You are Hereby Comanded to summon Walter Oliver, whose residence is unknown, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 51st Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 51st Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Schleicher County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Eldorado, Texas, on the third Monday in November A. D. 1925, the same being the 16th day of November A. D. 1925.

then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 6th day of July A. D. 1925 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 329, wherein W. L. McWhorter is Plaintiff, and Walter Oliver, A. Oliver, E. Oliver, W. C. Douglas, Lucile Gillis, Farmers & Mechanics' National Bank of Fort Worth, Texas, and First National Bank of Eldorado, Texas, are Defendants, and said petition alleging the execution and delivery by Walter Oliver of his note for $6,208.70, dated November 18, 1920, payable to the order of J. S. Pelt one year after date with interest from date at the rate of ten per cent per annum, and containing the usual ten per cent attorney's fee clause; that said note before its maturity and for a valuable consideration was endorsed and delivered by said J. S. Pelt to plaintiff who is now the owner and holder of same; that Walter Oliver has failed and refused to pay said note, or any part of same; that on November 18, 1920, in order to secure payment of said note said Walter Oliver executed and delivered to said plaintiff as trustee a deed of trust on all of Survey 23, Block A, Certificate 4-1248, G. C. & F. R. Ry. Co., Abstract 94, containing 640 acres more or less, in Schleicher County, Texas, which trust deed was filed for record with county clerk of Schleicher County, Texas, November 19, 1920, and recorded in Vol. 6, page 341, Deed of Trust Records of Schleicher County; that whatever claims, liens or titles defendants have to said land are inferior and subordinate to plaintiff's lien and he is entitled to have the same foreclosed against all defendants herein.

Plaintiff prays judgement against Walter Oliver for his debt, interest, and attorney's fees, for foreclosure of his deed of trust lien against all defendants, for costs against defendants, and for general relief.

Herein Fail Not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given Under my Hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Eldorado, Texas, this, the 6th day of July A. D. 1925.

So Weak Couldn't Stand

"My wife's health broke down and for years she was just a physical wreck," says Mr. Thomas Gynn, of Gibson, La. "We did everything we knew, yet she seemed to get worse and worse. She was so weak till she couldn't stand, and had to be carried like a baby. It looked like nothing would save her that had been done."

CARDUI

For Female Troubles

"I began looking around. I knew that Cardui was for women. I decided to try it for her as all else had failed. She couldn't eat, she couldn't sleep, and I was desperate. After taking a few doses of Cardui, we were so glad to note that she wanted something to eat, and with each bit of nourishment, and each day's doses of Cardui, she grew stronger and got up out of bed. She is now able to cook and stronger than in a long time."

Cardui has been in successful use for nearly 50 years in the treatment of many common female troubles.
