MATTHEWS-BOOTHE.

Sunday morning Mr. Hensel Matthews and Miss Delta Boothe were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, at the beautiful home of the bride's just west of town, the Rev. J. C. Young, pastor of the Methodist Church officiating.

The groom is one of our prominent and worthy ranchmen and is well and favorably known by all. He ranches south of El Dorado about 12 miles where he is engaged in raising fine stock and farming.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boothe, who own a beautiful stockfarm just west of town about three miles. She has been reared here and graduated from our school some two years ago, and attended McMurray College after finishing here, she is held in the highest esteem and has a host of friends.

The happy young couple left immediately after the ceremony for Austin on their bridal tour. The Success with a host of friends wish these young people the very best of life, with a continuous happiness in our midst.

BAPTIST MEETING IN PROGRESS.

Bro. Ray, the local Baptist Pastor is holding a revival meeting this week under a large tent near the Baptist Church, it will continue through next week. He has a good singer leading the song service and the music will do you good as well as the preaching.

F. Ramsel was in from the ranch Monday buying supplies and transacting business.

BAPTIST OPEN CHRISTOVAL CAMP.

It is the time of year when many of our people are planning to get away from their labor for a season of rest recreation. We know of no place that offers better opportunities for a profitable vacation than does Christoval. Christoval is located 27 miles north of El Dorado. The highway between El Dorado and Christoval is paved. The little town of Christoval is in a beautiful irrigated valley on the South Concho River. It is in the midst of a mammoth grove of gigantic oak and pecan trees. A dam across the river at this point forms a lake some three miles long where the advantages for swimming, boating, fishing and camping are unexcelled. Under his delightful environment, you may meet your friends; you will meet new people; and make new friends. Addresses will be made daily by the denomination's most capable leaders and teachers; messages of inspiration that will send you home spiritually refreshed and better able to cope with the problems of life.

A notable feature of the Encampment will be the attention given to recreation and sports. Y. P. Kuhn, Athletic Director of Simmons University, assisted by two other college athletes will give their time each afternoon to instructing in swimming, life saving and speed swimming. They will also give many demonstrations in life saving methods. A water carnival of more than ordinary interest will be staged also. Tents cots and all other camping equipment may be rented for a nominal charge. There is an abundance of cold, clear pure spring water for drinking purposes. Stands are operated on the grounds where wholesome food supplies may be purchased.

All these things appeal to our social and physical natures, but the one supreme hope of the Baptists is that the people will hear Rev. Charles Forbes Taylor as he brings an Evangelistic message each evening. Rev. Taylor is a preacher of world renown. Although he is only 27 years of age, he has preached in practically every state in the Union and held meetings in every principle city in the land, and only recently returned from London where he scored a sensational success. As an Encampment speaker, he is a winner. He is an entertainer, a singer and a preacher and excels in all three. The Encampment will be from July 16th to 25th inclusive.

A "Correct" Likeness of Washington

This heroic statue of the commander-in-chief of the first armies of the United States was made for the city of Portland, Oregon, though not yet delivered there by the artist. The western municipality has loaned it to the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 and continuing until December 1, to celebrate 150 years of American Independence. At the foot of the sculpture is shown Pompeo Coppini, the sculptor. Dr. Henry Waldo Poe, of Portland, declares the face to be the most correct likeness of Washington ever modeled.

White as Cotton Face Now Ruddy

Says Mrs. Wolcott—All the Terrible Aches, Pains and Sour Bile Sicknes Gone

Like many other folks thereabouts, Mrs. Wolcott was a picture of misery. She says: "I was ghastly white as cotton, all thinned out, bilious all the time, terrible headaches, bones creaked as if they would snap apart, ached all over, could hardly walk or lift an arm; had been taking calomel steadily, and it made me so deathly sick I was completely discouraged. Then one day my cousin who lives near the state line came on a visit and she had a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic. My! what a change. It gave me new courage. We sent to town for two bottles, and since then my face is filled out, with a ruddy glow. Gained over twenty pounds and am the picture of health. Whenever I feel bilious or constipated I take a dose of Dodson's Liver Tonic and it works just fine."

This wonderful liver tonic is sold by all druggists and is absolutely guaranteed to start your liver without making you sick. Get a bottle today, and when you feel sick, bilious, sluggish, constipated, with dull headache, Dodson's Liver Tonic will put you to rights every time. Try it today.

Eat Less and Live Longer, Says Lawyer

By W. W. O'BRIEN

(Noted Criminal Lawyer of Chicago.) Business and professional men working under high nervous pressure do not live as long as men whose pursuits keep them out of doors and active. Examine the records of longevity and you will find that on the average the longest-lived men are soldiers, sailors and farmers, all avocations which tend to keep a man at his physical best.

Man, in general, rolls down the hill of life fastest when his figure is rotund. "Leanness and longevity" is a good axiom for business men to remember. If office workers would eat a little less, they would add years to their lives.

Overfeeding is as dangerous to adults as underfeeding is to children. Foods difficult to digest, or which overstimulate, should be avoided by persons whose work does not require any particular amount of physical exercise. Yet thousands of business men eat as much as or more than men who do manual labor. And, inevitably, nature rebels and sickness results.

Many of the country's foremost executives eat but two meals a day, breakfast and dinner in the evening. They seek to keep the organs of the body from becoming clogged. Thousands of other business men confine themselves at noontime to custards, puddings, soups and other sustaining dishes made with milk, or evaporated milk, which is milk in its most sterile form, from which 60 per cent of the water has been removed by evaporation. Such a diet is light and readily assimilated.

There is no more necessary lesson to be learned by the brain worker than how to keep well and healthy by proper attention to food habits.

ISRAEL ENSLAVED IN EGYPT

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 1:1-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord will not cast off His people.—Ps. 94:14.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Wicked King Is Cruel to God's People.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Israelites Become Slaves.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Israel Oppressed by a Despotic King.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Modern Forms of Oppression.

I. The Increase of the Chosen Seed (vv. 1-7).
 This miraculous increase seems only to have begun after the death of Joseph and the passing of his generation. After this Israel quickly grew into a nation. This amazing increase "is expressed as is usual in Hebrew by a climax of verbs: where fruitful is taken from the vegetable world in the multiple to several hundred-fold; increased (spawned—swarmed) is borrowed from the finny tribes in which the rate of increase rises to many myriads; multiply is a general word referring to number; and waxed exceedingly mighty is a similar phrase alluding to the strength which numbers confer, composed of verb and adverb repeated and therefore well adapted to complete the climax."—Murphy. This increase can only be accounted for by admitting the hand of the Almighty to be in it.

II. A New Dynasty Appears (vv. 8-10).
 Joseph's elevation as prime minister in Egypt was during the reign of the Hyksos kings. Being of Semitic origin, they were not hostile to the Hebrews, but when "there arose up a new king which knew not Joseph" (v. 8) their troubles began. This affords a striking illustration of God's providence in history. His purposes include the means to carry them out. The amazing growth of the Israelites excited the envy and fear of the king (vv. 9-10). Fear was twofold—

1. In case of war they might join the enemy and fight against them.
 2. Lest they should remove from the land, thus cutting off a vital source of revenue and also exposing to danger the eastern border of the land.

III. Measures to Check the Growth of Israel (vv. 11-22).

These measures with their outcome expose the folly of world wisdom (I Cor. 3:19). If they could have eliminated God from the affairs of men their policy would have been a good one, but it proved to be altogether vain. The greatest mistake a man can ever make is to leave God out of his calculations. God had promised that His people should become mighty in power as well as great in numbers.

1. Placed under cruel taskmasters (vv. 11-14).

The first measure he adopted was to put Israel into cruel bondage by afflicting them with heavy burdens. Cruel taskmasters were placed over them, who forced them to labor in building treasure cities and all manner of service in the field. They exacted of them hard service, but this measure was ineffectual for "the more they afflicted them the more they multiplied and grew." This rapid growth resulted in more intense burdens being heaped upon them. The Egyptians meant this for evil to the Israelites, but God blessed it to their good. It was part of His plan for them (Gen. 15:13, 14). Indeed, the righteous may expect such treatment of the world (II Tim. 1:12; Heb. 12:6). Prosperity and adversity constitute God's teaching and discipline. While their burdens were heavy and their sufferings very intense, they had the consolation that it would not last forever. The presence of Joseph's dead body was a guaranty that they would one day be delivered. Though the Christian's burden may be heavy and his sufferings keen, he has the guaranty that they shall not last always.

2. The authorized murder of the male infants by the midwives (vv. 15-21).

This measure also miscarried as the midwives feared God and chose to obey Him. Because they refused to destroy God's people He gave them homes and children and the joys thereof.

3. The drowning of the male children in the river (v. 22).

The king having heretofore been baffled, he now gave the heartless command to cast the male infants into the river. This mandate seems to have been given shortly before Moses was born. This plan likewise failed, and the very child who ultimately upset Pharaoh's throne, was sheltered and nurtured in his own palace.

The Values That Abide

We acquire, discard and cherish; and the things that we retain are those which can endure the light of the presence of God. And these are the things which are eternal.—Isaac Edwardson.

Suffered
 weak, nervous

"I WAS in a very weakened, run-down condition, surely in need of a tonic and build-up," says Mrs. J. R. Wrenn, of Anna, Texas. "I was so weak I had to go to bed, and kept getting weaker."

"I suffered with my back so much. I was very nervous, couldn't rest good at night. I couldn't eat anything—I just wasn't hungry."
 "I had read so much of Cardui, I thought best to use it. I took seven or eight bottles, and by the time I had taken them I was stronger than I had been in several years. I can highly recommend Cardui."

Thousands of other women have found that the tonic effects of the purely vegetable ingredients of Cardui were just what they needed to help restore their appetites, to help bring them easily and naturally back to normal health and strength. Its action has been found to be of great benefit in many common female ailments.
