MOODY RETURNS CAMPAIGN GIFTS.

He Says He is Informed, However, Were Transmitted to Him.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 20.—Attorney General Dan Moody has returned the contributions that came through Lee Satterwhite and R. L. Bobbitt, candidates for the state legislature, he stated in a statement attached to his expense account filed with the secretary of state Friday.

Moody's statement read that he was "creditably informed and believes that these contributions were merely transmitted through these persons and were in fact made by Marshall Hicks and A. B. Martin of Plainview.

In a sworn statement of expenses in his first gubernatorial campaign, Moody stated that he had received contributions of $250 each from Satterwhite, Speaker of the House, and Bobbitt, member of the legislature, both of whom are candidates for re-election. The election laws prohibit the acceptance of contributions by one candidate from another.

Expense accounts for the runoff primary filed today showed Mr. Moody received $668 in contributions and disbursed $408; Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson expended $103 and received $114 in contributions.—Standard.

Schleicher county expects to strut her stuff this fall, it has announced the dates for her third annual Fair, and expects to have one of the best exhibits ever shown in West Texas, and after we show it at home we are going to take it over to San Angelo, so let those who have good farm products get them in shape for this exhibit.

NIG CALCOTE RELEASED ON $250.00 BOND.

Nig Calcote was arrested Saturday night for making home brew, by Sheriff Luedecke and Deputy Sheriff Joe Jackson, he was released on $250.00 to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Schleicher County has held two Fairs previous to this one but this is going to be the big event, the new grounds and new exhibit hall, together with the other new improvements, is going to add much to the advantages and comfort of all who exhibit things and attend the fair. Come to Schleichers third and largest Annual Fair.

We are thankful for the good old farmer, he produces the thing we eat and most of the things we wear, in fact he feeds the world, and just about as well thought of as a newspaper editor.

Don't knock, we have been told that knockers are a mortgage on the home town, and somebody will have to pay your mortgage off.

NEW FAIR GROUNDS TO BE USED, PLENTY OF ENTERTAINMENT.

The Schleicher County Fair will be staged September 23 and 24, the new Fair Grounds will be ready by that date, big preparations are being made to entertain the people and put on good exhibits, to be successful every citizen should lend their help and have something to show and exhibit.

The Fair Directors met Friday night and set the date, they have gone to quite a good deal of expense to get the new ground and equip them, but they are rapidly being completed. It is up to us all to see that Schleicher shows what she has and the best of it, do not lay down on the deal for we have the goods.

Prof. A. B. Tysor and family returned Sunday from Burlington North Carolina, where they have been to spend the summer vacation. They are back preparatory to open the school September 6th.

Mr and Mrs. Felix Susen were shopping and visiting in the city Saturday.

STAR

Running-in-oil

You will find in the new running-in-oil STAR the many features you have always wanted in a windmill—one oiling a year—your choice of Timken Tapered Roller Bearings or "NO-OIL-EM" Bearings—two gears, two pinions and two pitmans—direct center lift to pump rod—crosshead, guides and pitmans bearings flooded with oil—a scientifically designed wheel with angle steel arms and braces and ball-bearing turn table.

The fans of this new Star are curved to give great efficiency in an 8 to 10 mile an hour wind. Plunger pump in crank case floods crosshead, guides and pitman bearings with oil, and tight cover keeps out dirt, rain or snow.

One filling of crank case with oil each year will save many trips up the tower. May be fitted on any tower.

The new STAR is the last word in Windmill construction. Come in and let us show you this mill. You will want to know about it whether you are needing a new mill right now, and we want you to know what a really fine windmill we have in this new Star.

He has been nominated as a candidate for the American Youth Award established by the directors of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, held in Philadelphia from June 1 to December 1 in celebration of 150 years of American Independence. Under the plan of the American Youth Award and the American Teacher Award, each state will select a boy and a girl and a woman teacher who best represent American ideals, and they will be given trips to Philadelphia and to Washington, where they will receive medals from President Coolidge.

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

On How to Lose Your Inheritance

"It is so hard for me to get along on what John left me," complained Mrs. Norris to Aunt Emmy. "Junior wants to get a job, but I always wanted him to go to college—"

"Yes, yes, I know," interrupted Aunt Emmy, "but what about this mining stock?"

"I'm coming to that. You see I thought I could invest some of those bonds John left, they yield such a tiny income, in something that would bring real money. I needed more money, so when the telephone rang that day and a man, he had the nicest voice, said he had been referred to me by a friend and wanted to talk over some gilt-edged investments, I told him to come right up.

"His name was Mr. Stanhope. He was so nice. He told me all about the big money people are making in platinum mines. Platinum jewelry is so fashionable now. He said he could let me have some stock in a wonderful mine, and that the company would buy the stock back if I ever wanted my money."

"Have you a statement signed by one of the officers of the mining company to the effect that the company will repurchase your stock?" asked Aunt Emmy.

"Why no—"

"Well, you will have trouble getting your money back. A company cannot be compelled to buy its own stock back."

"Oh, I don't know. Anyhow, I got out my bonds and showed them to him—"

"What, you keep your bonds in the house instead of at the bank!" exclaimed Aunt Emmy.

"Why, yes, but in a box that locks—"

A car load of cedar posts is now in the yard at the Cash Service Station. Good ones too and cheap, come in and price them. Adv.

and Mr. Stanhope said that he was surprised that a woman with the good business judgment I had should be getting such a small income as those bonds paid—scarcely anything. He said that I should make my money work harder for me. He knew I must have good business judgment, he said, because I brought my children up so beautifully. He offered to take the bonds and change them for his stock.

"Oh, Lord!" exclaimed Aunt Emmy, "did he give you a receipt?"

"Why, of course, he was the nicest man. But Junior said after he left that he didn't like him. He said he looked slick. Boys are so funny. Well, I got the platinum stock but Mr. Barnes at the bank says it's no good. He must be mistaken. But I want my bonds back so I came to you for help. And you're always so lucky about your investments."

"Not lucky, just sensible," corrected Aunt Emmy. "Why, oh why, don't you consult your banker, who understands finance before you risk your money? This is not your first loss. Remember that piece of land you bought that was under water?"

"That was different," said Mrs. Norris blushing, "and anyway, Mr. Stanhope is honest, I can tell that."

"If he were honest, he would not have promised you the things he promised. Reputable houses don't send out representatives who make promises about repurchase of stock. Why don't you phone your Mr. Stanhope?"

"I did, but he's out of town. I've written, too, but I suppose I shall have to wait until he gets back. It's been several weeks now, so he should be back soon."

Just then the evening paper came. Aunt Emmy glanced at it, then read it attentively. Her expression grew serious. She handed the paper to Mrs. Norris. On the front page was an account of a financial scandal. The house that sold Mrs. Norris her mining stock was involved and the men who ran the business had been indicted for fraud.—A. E. Aymes.

Get Yourself a Brand New Liver

How Dodson's Liver Tone Makes You Feel the Old Liver is Born Again

Just off the slant of Old Piedmont where it rolls away into the foot-hills of South Georgia, Bud Evans makes a good stand of cotton. A year ago he was too sick to even follow a plow. His right side seemed hard, felt as if his liver had turned to stone; belched gas all the time; couldn't hold up his head for the pain; colic just turned him inside out. You couldn't imagine anyone sicker than Bud Evans. It just happened that an egg buyer dropped in on him one day and says: "What you need, Bud, is a dose of Dodson's Liver Tone—your liver is baked and full up so it doesn't work." And so Bud got a bottle at the town drug store for a few cents. The very first night it loosened up so much sour bile and fermenting food that the swelling went down, his whole system righted itself and he was a new man entirely before noon.

There is no question but that Dodson's Liver Tone will do more for bilious people than anything else ever known. It works easily and smoothly, without gripe or distress, and cleans out all the sour bile and sickening stuff that gives you headache, nausea, vomiting, bilious fever and all the other "distresses" due to obstinate constipation. Get one bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, and if it doesn't make you feel like you had traded your old, worn-out liver for a new one full of pep, go to the druggist and he will refund the price.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Commandments About Men.
 JUNIOR TOPIC—How to Serve Men.
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Loving and Helping Others.
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Ideal Human Relationships.

I. The Fifth Commandment (v. 12).
 1. How this commandment may be broken.

(1) By showing disrespect to parents. Disrespect is shown to parents—

(a) By speaking of them as "the old man" and "the old woman."
 (b) By being ashamed to be seen in their company.

(2) By disobedience.
 (3) By not supporting them in their old age.

2. Promises annexed to this commandment.

(1) "That it may be well with thee" (Eph. 6:3).
 (2) That thou mayest live long upon the earth.

II. The Sixth Commandment (v. 13).
 This is a bulwark thrown around human life. Man was created in God's image. Every attempt to take human life is a thrust at God. This commandment may be broken:

1. By sinful anger (Matt. 5:22).
 2. By hatred (1 Jno. 3:15).
 3. By immoderate recreation.
 4. By employers having unsafe surroundings, thereby causing the death of their employees.

5. By sending children to toil in shops and factories before maturity.
 6. By suicide.
 7. By infanticide.
 8. By wars.

III. The Seventh Commandment (v. 14).
 This is a bulwark thrown around the home. This commandment may be broken:

1. By unclean thoughts, affections, purposes and imaginations (Matt. 5:27, 28; 15:19).
 2. By unchaste conversation.
 3. By wanton looks (Isa. 3:16; II Peter 2:14).
 4. By immodest apparel.
 5. By actual adultery.
 6. By divorce.

IV. The Eighth Commandment (v. 15).
 This commandment strikes at the sin of theft. This commandment may be broken:

1. By taking that which actually belongs to another.
 2. By false weights and measures.
 3. By extortion.
 4. By employers defrauding employees and the employee falling to do honest work or put in full time.
 5. By borrowing and not returning.
 6. By going into debt, knowing that payment is impossible.
 7. By usury.
 8. By graft.
 9. By lying advertisements.
 10. By making assignments to escape payment of debts.
 11. By strong nations oppressing the weaker ones.

V. The Ninth Commandment (v. 16).
 The sin aimed at by this command is a most deadly one—that of lying. This commandment may be broken:

1. By actual open lying.
 2. By perjury—swearing to falsehoods by the name of God.
 3. By slander.
 4. By tale-bearing (Lev. 19:16).
 This is commonly done by repeating a report without investigating its truthfulness.

5. By creating a false impression (Ex. 23:1).
 6. By a breach of promise.
 7. By withholding the truth.
 8. By exaggeration.
 9. By flattery.
 10. By recommending a man for a position of honor and trust who is unfitted for it.

VI. The Tenth Commandment (v. 17).
 This commandment strikes at the desire for that which is unlawful for one to have. The sin does not lie in the desire to possess things, but in the desire to possess that which belongs to another. It is not wrong to have lands and personal property which one may have acquired honestly, but it is wrong to have the lands which belong to another. It is right for a man to have a wife, but it is sinful to have another's wife. This commandment goes back of all the rest. It deals not only with the open violation, but with the inner desires and motives. It strikes at the very purposes of the heart.

Nowhere Else to Go

I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go. My own wisdom and that of all about me seemed insufficient for that day.—Abraham Lincoln.

Cure for Depression

The best cure for depression is to look around and see what is happening to other people. You are not hearing all the misfortunes of the world.

Suffered weak, nervous

"I WAS in a very weakened, run-down condition, surely in need of a tonic and builder," says Mrs. J. R. Wrenn, of Anna, Texas. "I was so weak I had to go to bed, and kept getting weaker."

"I suffered with my back so much. I was very nervous, couldn't rest good at night. I couldn't eat anything—I just wasn't hungry."

"I had read so much of Cardui, I thought best to use it. I took seven or eight bottles, and by the time I had taken them I was stronger than I had been in several years. I can highly recommend Cardui."

Thousands of other women have found that the tonic effects of the purely vegetable ingredients of Cardui were just what they needed to help restore their appetites, to help bring them easily and naturally back to normal health and strength.
