MRS. TOM HENDERSON UNDERGOES OPERATION.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Tom Henderson was operated on at Dallas for cancer and is doing good at last report. Her many friends here wish for her a complete recovery.

BUYING BAD HORSES FOR FAIR RODEO.

The Schleicher County Fair Association have been buying some 'out-law' horses this week and the worst they are the better they like them. The Rodeo for The Schleicher County Fair promises to be one of the best yet seen in West Texas.

TO DANCE THREE NIGHTS DURING THE FAIR.

John Gay reports that the dancing for Fair will begin on the night of September 22 and run three nights. Music to be furnished by the "Rainbow Five" orchestra of Del Rio, will furnish the music.

ELECTION CALLED FOR WATER SYSTEM

The City officials upon petition from the people of the city have ordered an election to vote bonds to buy the present water works at appraised figures of $8,897.00 and put in an up to date system. The bond issue is for $40,000 and the election is called for October 19th.

JOE WILLIAMS STARTS NEW IMPROVEMENTS.

Joe Williams, owner of Williams Man's Shop, started some new improvements on his Tailoring business. He is erecting a new addition to his building, and expects to put in a ten suit capacity Dry Cleaner. The Williams Man's Shop is already one of the most up-to-date in this section of Texas, and with the latest improvements being added this shop will be as good as the best.

Mr and Mrs. A. G. Crabb and daughter, Miss Vernei and Mr. W. T. Bailey, of Cross Plains, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Crabb of our city, the last week end.

FAIR PREMIUMS LIST OUT. SECURE ONE AND HAVE ENTRY READY.

The Schleicher County Fair Premium list is out for distribution and it is a good one, get one have your exhibit ready for the Big Fair, it will held complete the Fair whether you are successful or not.

In remarking the Fair list this week, the exhibit for honey was left out accidentally, but a small premium is to be offered for the best Honey that will be exhibited, and probably other things that have been omitted will have small premiums, those who are getting up these lists are not old seasoned hand at the job and have probably overlooked other items, so if you have something worth exhibiting bring it along and get the blue ribbon in case there is no money offered.

Mrs. J. R. Page returned last week from Silsbee, Texas, and was showing some pictures she had of the fine crops raised by Arthur Gore, whom she visited while at Silsbee.

FOOTBALL TEAM TO HAVE SOME NEW SUITS.

Luther Barber, Coach of the High School Football Team, was soliciting funds Tuesday, to secure some new suits for the High School Team, the team has been short on suits, and it is a nice thing for the town to furnish the equipment, as some boys may want to play who do not have the money to buy the suits.

Coach Barber reports that the boys are developing some real talent and expect to have a game during the Fair.

ELDORADO BOYS TRY FOR FOOTBALL AT SCHREINER.

From Schreiner in title.

Robert Isaacs and Clyde Graves, former local football stars, arrived Tuesday for the opening of the Schreiner Mountaineer training camp. Isaacs is trying for a position as half back, Graves, and Coach Gilstrap reports that he is well pleased with the results of the first two workouts.

There are 46 boys in the try-out and it appears that the two El Dorado boys are the two lightest, but The Success hopes that they will over come this handy-cap by their big way of doing things.

J. D. EATON & SONS TO PUT IN LIGHT PLANT.

At a meeting of the City Council Saturday, J. D. Eaton & Sons of Sonora, were granted the right to install and operate an electric light plant.

The Ordinance granting this privilege is published elsewhere in this issue of The Success.

Some of the work the Farmall does

Under average soil conditions the Farmall will plow from 7 to 10 acres a day. Twenty acres a day can be bedded up with two middle breakers and a Farmall. When equipped with mower attachment will cut 20 to 25 acres a day. The Farmall and tractor binder can cut 30 to 35 acres of grain a day. The Farmall does unusually satisfactory work on the belt because the speed of its powerful engine is controlled by a throttle governor. Come in and let us demonstrate this tractor to you.

BANK NOTICE

We take this method of advising our customers and friends and patrons that beginning next Monday the 20th this bank will not be open for business until eight o'clock and our doors will be locked at four in the afternoon. In explanation we have to say that we have found we cannot give you the service you are entitled to as long as we stay open at all hours of the day as has been our custom. We can serve you better if we have a few hours for our book work outside of the hours for public work. Our entire business must be balanced each day. You demand that and have a right to do so. We absolutely cannot do this and wait on customers at the same time. It is our intention to give you the best service possible and with that in view we have decided on the course of having regular hours as all good banking houses have. Please help us to help you by attending to your banking between the hours of eight and four.

In addition to the co-operation asked as to banking hours we courteously suggest that the business houses can assist us and save themselves much time by preparing their own deposit slips. This will save you the time spent at the window while we prepare the slip and will also save time for others who may be waiting in line behind you.

Lesson for September 19

(Temperance Lesson.)

OBEEDIENCE TO LAW

LESSON TEXT—Leviticus 26:1-46.
GOLDEN TEXT—Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Daniel Chooses the Right.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Self-Control of Daniel.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Obey the Law.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Enforcing the Law.

I. Some Fundamental Laws Stated (vv. 1, 2).

1. God alone to be worshiped (v. 1).

God is a Jealous God, therefore He cannot tolerate a rival. There must be no idolatry. God is to have full place in our lives or no place at all.

2. The Sabbath must be observed (v. 2).

The one who has enthroned God in his heart will reverence His Sabbath. The Sabbath was ordained that man might better cherish God in his heart.

3. Reverence for God's sanctuary (v. 2).

The believer needs to frequent the sanctuary of God in order to have his soul refreshed. Respect for God's holy day and the frequency of the sanctuary are inseparably united in those who fear and reverence God.

II. Blessings for Obedience to God's Laws (vv. 3-13).

1. Fruitful seasons (vv. 3-5).

Temporal well-being is secured through obedience to God's government. Godliness is profitable unto all having the promise of the life that now is and that which is to come.

2. Internal security (vv. 6-8).

In addition to the fullness of temporal blessings, God assured them that for obedience to His Word He would grant peace and safety. No robbers were to invade the land to disturb their tranquillity by day or night. No wild beasts would be allowed to devour them.

3. Numerical increase (vv. 9, 10).

Their number would be multiplied according to God's covenant to Abraham and the produce of the land increased to support them.

4. God's abiding presence (vv. 11-13).

The greatest of all God's blessings is His abiding presence. Happy is that nation and people in whose presence God chooses to dwell.

III. Calamities for Disobedience (vv. 14-39).

1. Judgments in general (vv. 14-17).

For disobedience and rejection of God's laws, general calamities would be permitted to come upon them. They include:

(1) Physical diseases. Their health would be taken away and they were to be afflicted with diseases.

(2) Bereavement. Physical disease would take away kindred and friends, thereby causing sorrow of heart, and mourning.

(3) Famine. God would withhold the rain, therefore food supply would be lacking.

(4) Conquest. They would be slain before their enemies.

(5) Oppression and dispersion. God would allow the enemy to overcome and oppress them and ultimately take them out of their own land and scatter them.

2. The specific judgments (vv. 18-19).

Mercies rejected and warnings unheeded must be followed by more severe strokes of wrath. Four series of warnings are pointed out by Kellogg, each conditioned on the supposition that they did not repent as the result of the preceding experiences. Each series is prefaced by the formula, "I will punish you seven times more for your sins" (vv. 18, 21, 24, 28). The thought is that each new display of impotence on Israel's part shall be marked by increasing severity.

(1) The rains will be withheld (vv. 18, 20).

(2) Their children and cattle will be destroyed by wild beasts (v. 22).

(3) This to be followed by war, pestilence and famine (vv. 25, 26).

(4) Increasing terror (vv. 29-32).

If the previous judgments were not heeded then severer ones would follow so that in their distress they would eat the flesh of their sons and daughters and their seed should become waste and their land should desolate that even their enemies would be astonished at it.

5. Scattered among the Gentiles (v. 33).

God would scatter them among the heathen and pursue them with a sword. How awfully this has been fulfilled in the history of that people

Pains disappeared

"SEVERAL years ago I was badly run-down," says Mrs. John Bunch, R. F. D. 3, Columbia, S. C. "I could not do any of my work. I was so weak I could not wash a dish. My back and sides hurt me at times dreadfully. I dragged around until I finally got down in bed."

Then, explains Mrs. Bunch, she happened to read about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and decided to give it a thorough trial, the results of which she describes below:

"It seemed to reach the cause of my trouble at once. I did not take it long before my appetite began to improve. I gained in weight from 114 pounds until now I weigh 125 pounds. I soon was able to be up around the house. I took up my household duties and was delighted with my returning strength."

"I now do all my own work. The pains in my sides and back have disappeared and I feel like a different person."

Cardui has been helping suffering women for nearly 50 years. Sold by all druggists.
