EWES SELL
The Sunday Morning Times reported the sale of 7,000 yearling ewes out of the shearing pen, to Los Angeles buyers at $5.00 per head. The men also bought several thousand cattle, prices not quoted.

SAN ANGELO BOOSTERS IN ELDORADO

The San Angelo Boosters were here Monday advertising the Fat Stock Show that is to be held there beginning March 4th, in which many Counties over this section of Texas, will compete in their 4-H Club work. Schleicher County will be represented and have some good stock up there.

The local club will show here Saturday at the Court House and then move on to San Angelo from there.

W. J. WARREN FOR COMMISSIONER

W. J. Warren makes his announcement for commissioner of precinct 4, subject to the election of the July primary. He has been in Schleicher county some 15 years and says he will fill the office in fairness and justice to all, as near as he knows how if elected.

McCULLOCH COUNTY REMAINS IN DRY COLUMNS

McCulloch county voted Saturday to remain dry, out of 19 precincts in the county only three voted wet. Brady has had several tests on the violation of the dry laws and some of the citizens seem determined to sell beer regardless of the majority.

The vote in Saturday's election was 1,088 drys to 870 wets, a much larger majority than last year, which shows the dry sentiment is growing in McCulloch County.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the assistance given us the night of the fire and since. Your acts of kindness will ever be remembered. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bearce. Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Berry.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Gunn were in from the ranch Saturday, Mr. Gunn reports that he has his corn planted and also has 25 acres of maize planted. This is about the first maize we have seen planted in February and we are going to watch it in its growth and maturity.

Mr. E. W. Brooks received a telegram from Senator Connally that his appointment as postmaster of Eldorado had been confirmed by the Senate on February 22nd. Mr. Brooks does not know yet just when his papers will arrive and the office transferred to him.

Wool Company Builds

The Eldorado Wool Company let a contract Friday for the erection of a new wool warehouse with storage capacity to take care of one million pounds of wool. The plant also embodies offices, supply rooms, and display space designed so as to show wool to the best advantage. The building will be of approximate dimensions of 100 feet by 125 feet, frame and sheet metal construction.

Plans and specifications were drawn by John G. Becker, Architect and Engineer of San Angelo, and the work will be supervised by him.

Will O'Connell, contractor of San Angelo was low bidder and received the contract award. Under the contract, work is to start by March 1st, and the job to be completed in 24 working days, and it is anticipated that the plant will be ready for occupancy by April 1st.

In addition to the successful bidder, other contracts submitting proposals were H. H. Myers of San Angelo and Suggs Construction Company of Abilene. The letting was also attended by several material dealers.

Two Tests Plugged In 1933

No. 1 Tisdale was in the center of section 29, block M, G. H. & S. A. Ry. Co. survey. It was the second test in Schleicher county to be abandoned within a month, Phillips and J. D. Wesner having plugged their No. 1 W. R. Nicks at 6,630 feet when tools could not be recovered. No. 1 Nicks was in section 77, block LL, T. C. Ry. Co. survey, 1 1/4 miles northeast of Eldorado.

Brinkleys Radio Station Suppressed

Down on the silvery Rio Grande just 120 miles from our city, at Del Rio and across the river in Villa Acuña, is the large Brinkley Radio Station. This station has been closed by order of the Mexican Government. Just recently Congressman R. E. Thompson of El Paso introduced a bill to make it a violation of law to broadcast from remote control from this side of the Rio Grande. The bill was taken as a direct action against the Brinkley Radio Station. However the action taken to silence the station was from the Mexican Government.

Brinkley had been put off the air in Kansas by the United States Government. He built one of the strongest Radio Stations in the world in Old Mexico and moved his hospital to Del Rio, Texas and made his broadcast from this side of the river. Now the Mexican Government has silenced his station.

Brinkley was making a city note out of Del Rio. Men and women from all over the United States and Canada were coming to him for treatment, but the dictator said he must be silenced. Consequently he is off the air, his good talks, his good programs, will probably reach you no more.

FORMER ELDORADOAN DIES AT WACO

A message was received Wednesday morning from Waco that Mrs. Albertine Forster, wife of Dr. Forster who lives near Waco, died about four o'clock Wednesday morning following an operation. Mrs. Forster will be remembered here as Miss Albertine Kent, daughter of Mrs. A. E. Kent of our city. She was about 32 years of age and the mother of three girls, all small.

Reared by her widowed mother, she graduated from our school with honors went to College and later taught school, was an exceptionally bright young woman and made a host of friends, where ever she lived. She was a member of the Baptist church and always while a girl at home attended upon the services.

Besides her husband and three daughters she leaves a mother, three brothers, and five sisters to mourn her going.

Dr. Fred R. Baker, best known optical specialist in west Texas, who has been serving local citizens with high class eye-sight service for 25 years will be at Hoover's Drug Store Monday P. M. only, March 5th. He has his new Electric lighted eye testing instrument and a new stock of latest style spectacles, at a price you can afford. Examination Free. (adv)

HEATH ENTERS DISTRICT RACE

Milton Heath of San Angelo was here last week and gave his announcement for District Attorney for the 51st District. Mr. Heath has been in our city before and was here when the local American Legion was organized.

He will go before the Democratic primaries in the counties of Tom Green, Sterling, Coke, Schleicher and Iron. Heath is present chairman of the Tom Green County Red Cross chapter and is president of Community Service. He formerly was commander of the American Legion post here. He comes before the voters with the announcement "I believe that I am well qualified to serve you as your district attorney, and that you can safely entrust to me the protection and security of your families and property, within the jurisdiction of the office. My pledge is that if elected I shall enforce all laws in the way you, citizens and electors have a right to expect your district attorney to enforce the law."

Heath was born in Georgia and reared in Texas, is 42 years old, is married, and has four children. He came to San Angelo with his family in 1927 and have remained because they like the place.

The candidate left the farm at 15 and by working outside school hours earned his way through commercial school, preparatory school and seven years of college and graduate school work. He attended the universities of Oklahoma and Michigan, studied law at Harvard and the University of Texas. In six out of seven years he gained honor roll standing, winning membership in honorary scholastic fraternities of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Delta Phi, arts and law.

Between periods of attending school, he taught for six years, serving as superintendent of a rural consolidated school, as a principal of a small-town high school, and as a teacher in Oak Cliff High School of Dallas and the University of Oklahoma. He enlisted in the army in April of 1917, took infantry training at the first officers' training school and was commissioned a lieutenant August 15, 1917. He was assigned to duty with the military intelligence branch, War College Division, of the general staff corps. He was discharged December 24, 1918.

Heath has been practicing law twelve years. In 1927-28, he was associated with the district attorney of the 51st district, and assisted in the preparation and trial of a number of major felony cases, including the Floyd Newton Burns murder case.

On Saturday evening, February 17th, at 8:00 o'clock, Mr. Charley West and Miss Gegeva Silkwood were united in marriage. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the brides' sister, Mrs. F. W. Carr. Only immediate members of the family were present.

The beautiful ring ceremony was presided over by F. W. Carr, pastor of the local Christian Church.

The Government is having some more noble experience in carrying the air mail. If we are not mistaken they are averaging a wreck a day.

When this issue of The Success reaches you the 4-H Club Fat lambs and calves will be on exhibition at San Angelo.

Runnels County voted Saturday to legalize or approve the sale of 3.2 Beer. Bro. D. M. West went hvae so far to go now to get a glass of Beer, if he wants it.

The Brinkley Station at Del Rio, which has tingled your ears with good talks and programs for the past year has been silenced. Doctor Brinkley, like the Rev. Bob Schuler of California, is too plain spoken for the government officials of our nation and they have closed up his free speaking. We no longer live in a free country, we live under a dictator and as the years go by we are becoming more submissive to the dictatorship.

Well we have passed the second of the 12 months of 1934. February has not been a bad month at all on our stockmen, very little cold weather, just a little dry was all.

And now comes our President and says this bootlegging brother that tried to stop a hand saw with his finger, before disconnecting the power it wouldn't work. The presidents policy turned on more juice, why should he expect them to quit when it has been made convenient and no risk.

We note in the press that 3 boxes in McCulloch county went wet. Judge Bradley says he can guess one that voted wet in one guess.

Payne Bailey who has been in Scot and White Hospital since July 27, with a broken leg returned home Sunday. He is able to be up and around on crutches but expects to be using his leg before long. Mrs. A. P. Bailey returned Friday from a visit with her son, bringing Mrs. Bailey home with her.

THAT OLD CRAZY BOY SAYS:
A jackass must bray once in a while in order to be heard. If you are troubled about your neighbor talking about you just remember he wants to be heard.

When you hear a person giving the Church and the Christian and the preacher hell, you may know that person has taken in his morals and his ranting is a confession of his self-loathing; a confession that he has failed in his duty. It is the act of a coward to attempt to place your wrong doing upon an institution or a person.

Some people don't quit trading with their grocerman until they get in debt to him, then they quit both the grocerman and the debt at the same time.

If you find that this old world is giving you a hard deal, just stop and ask yourself the question, "What kind of a deal am I giving the world?" Just because you are a cat, is no reason why this old world should be a milk cow.

If you don't know how to spend your Sundays it is good evidence that you wont know how to spend your Monday when you get to Heaven. Did you ever think about that?

THE UNITED HEART

"Unite my heart to fear thy name." Psalm 36:11.

There is not a nobler prayer in the Psalter than this. There is nothing like it in the Bible. "Unite my heart to fear thy name." In this petition the psalmist borrows from no one. So beautiful is it, so original, that it should be set down as one of the great prayers of the scriptures.

The man who wrote it knew the tragedy of a divided heart—a heart torn by rival affections. What civil concord is to a nation, what affectionate agreement is to domestic happiness, what concentration is to the intellect—just that heart unity in the love of God is to one's religious life. There can be no conquering faith unless all the energies of the soul are united and merged in God. Anything less than that is a pitiful subtlety and the source of all major or moral failures.

And yet the divided heart is the most common of all faults among Christian people. We serve God with a part of our being, we consecrate a portion of ourselves to him, but how many really make a serious and persistent attempt to bring every thought and deed into captivity to the mind of Christ? Until the power of God unite our faculties in one purpose, our hearts are like a litter of beasts as one desire contends against another for mastery. Who does not hear a Babel of voices there?

The purpose of religion and the great business of life is to unite every faculty of the soul in God. There is no way out of the difficulties of the heart except by making God supreme and rallying every power around him. Let pleasure and business and culture and philanthropy and religion all converge in him. In one center his life about a little thing, he is a crank. If he dissipates his energies in all things, he loses his soul. God alone is able to unite them all to serve eternally ends. An interests that do not converge in him tear the heart asunder. No prayer more truly sounds the depths of the soul than this, "Unite every power that I have in thee." United in him, submerged in him. We in him and he in us. This is saving faith.

Mrs. R. L. West, of Huntsville, Ala., writes: "I was weak and run-down. I had a pain in my side, and I kept losing weight. I grew nervous over my condition—this was unusual for me, for I am very cheerful when I am well and don't easily get nervous. I knew I ought to take something. My aunt told me I ought to try Cardui, which I did. I began to feel better. I kept it up until I had taken three or four bottles. My side quit hurting and I was soon feeling strong and well."

KEEP 'EM GROWING

Chicks are an expense—until they are grown. How fast they grow—and the profit they pay you after they reach maturity—depend upon how well you feed them during the growing period.

RED CHAIN GROWING MASH is growth insurance, for the present—and profit insurance, for the future. No other feed develops young chicks so surely into such husky, sturdy pullets and cockerels.

Of course it costs a few pennies more than makeshift home mixtures and cheap commercial feeds; but SUPERIOR results will convince you that it pays to keep 'em growing—with RED CHAIN.

RED CHAIN Feeds are SUPERIOR Feeds

HONESTY IN SCHOOL WORK AND IN LIFE

By Alton Page

Does a student always tell the truth when he is getting an excuse blank? If he doesn't he is hurting no one but himself. When a student is caught cheating in a test, there is no use in lying about it. It is dishonest and he knows it. When he is caught, he should tell the truth, and he will make it lighter on himself. When a student is caught and tells the truth, he is appreciated by the teachers more.

Do you tell the truth all the time? If you do then notice everything around you. The teachers, the pupils, and outsiders. Everyone says, "There is a boy who is very honest." Anyone would like to have that said about them. There are people who did not form a habit telling the truth, and they still do not tell the truth. If you are a cheat in tests, it will not do you any good because you forget it just as soon as you put it down. Anyone who will cheat in a test will cheat in anything else.

Are you a quiet orderly student around your classmates. If you are not it would be a good habit to form because you are disturbing their time and wasting yours. If you form a good habit in school you will use it afterwards.

Some advantages of cultivating honesty in school work are: you get along better with the teachers, you will get along in school work much better. The teachers and pupils admire you more.

If you are a good school citizen you will probably become a good honest adult citizen.

HOW MARGRET HILL MAKES SUCH HIGH GRADES

By Zora C. Koy
Margaret Hill has consistently made the highest grades this year and she continues to lead the 100 pupils in high school. How does she do it? Here's some reasons. She is quiet and pays attention in all her classes. She applies herself and has the ability to think and concentrate.

Margaret never gives up at any thing hard, she goes on and studies it as if it were easy. Margaret prepares all her lessons daily and has all her work up and in on time, and that is the reason Margaret makes such high grades in school.

WHY ELDORADO NEEDS A GYMNASIUM

By Bill Smith
Eldorado High School needs a gymnasium because on the rainy and bad days the basket ball boys cannot practice, they usually miss about two days out of each week of practice. And a school really isn't up to date unless it has a gym. The teams of basket ball has a great advantage over another when one has a gym and the other doesn't. The girls also miss practice and that is a reason why we don't have a good girls team.

The students can take many kinds of physical training in a gym. They and the outsiders can play tennis and volley ball, etc. A gym is the making of a good school of today.

ELDORADO IS ELIMINATED AT DISTRICT CAGE MEET

By Arnold Farrington
The Eldorado basketball boys went to San Angelo Friday, Feb. 23rd and entered the tournament that was being held there on 23rd and 24th. The teams drew for names and Eldorado Water Valley. The Eldorado and Water Valley game was played at one o'clock Friday afternoon. The Eagles played a better game than they had played during the entire basket ball season. They lead Water Valley nearly all of the game from 5 to 8 points but in the 3rd quarter two of our players were disqualified due to fouling, and this brought Water Valley up even with the Eagles at the end of the game. As the teams were an even score of 27 to 27, a 3 minute extra period was given, incidentally Water Valley managed to make a few more baskets than Eldorado making the score 36 to 29 in Water Valley's favor.

The district tournament was won by San Angelo. It is probable that the Eagles would have won the district, had they beaten Water Valley, for the other teams weren't playing

SENIORS MAKE PLANS FOR COMMENCEMENT

By John I. Jones
The last meeting held by the Senior Class, they decided to give a Senior play. Miss Zimmerman will have charge of coaching the seniors. A play has not been selected at the present because it is a little difficult to get a play where the characters are nearly all gents. Also at the meeting the seniors selected their class colors, blue and white and their motto, "In ourselves our future lies". The seniors agreed to have Dr. Guy Davis, President of Daniel Baker College as the commencement speaker. The commencement will be held on May 17. Rev. Leon Frazier has been asked to preach the Senior sermon on the Sunday preceding commencement.

SECOND GRADE PUPIL TELLS FAIRY STORY

One day I ran out to play. I heard a tiny voice say, "Hello, where are you going?" It was a little fairy. "Come up this tree with me." I ran up the tree and found lots of fruit and good things to eat. Just as I started down I fell. So I woke up and found it all a dream. Wallace Lively

CECIL MOORE RECEIVES NEW HONORS

By Junior Isaacs
Judge Bradley surprised the students in assembly very much Wednesday morning when he appeared on the stage and made the announcement that he had a medal to present to an Eldorado High School Boy. The boy to whom he was referring was Cecil Moore. Cecil received this honor by hard work which made him become the county 4-H club champion. This medal is made of Gold, and was strung on a green ribbon. Cecil should be very proud of this beautiful medal and think that his time has been well spent. Judge Bradley made a very interesting speech. He also gave a very well worth while lecture on smoking and how it would do any person great harm.

When the doctor arrived he found one patient in tears, "Cheer up, my good man," he said, "you'll pull through." "It isn't that doctor," groaned Charles, "but just think of all the money I've spent for apples to keep you away."

Jack McFarior: "That candy in the window makes my mouth water."

John Alexander: "Say! Here's a blotter."

Miss Ford: "Where is Chicago located?"

Fifth Grader: "At the bottom of Lake Michigan."

A high school junior: "Hello, fish, suppose a man married his first wife's step-sister's aunt, what relation is he to her?"

Fish: "First wife—stop-aunt—er let me see oh! I don't know."

W. B.: "Mother, may I go out with the other boys and look at the comet?"

Mrs. Gibson: "Yes, you may go, but don't go too close."

Man is peculiar in that he can get a good hearty laugh out of pictures in an old family album and then look in a mirror without as much as a grin.

MAKING AMERICAN CHEESE

Mrs. J. F. Kinser, President of Bailey Ranch Home Demonstration Club has been helping her club members and also neighbors make use of the excess amount of milk by making American cheese. Mrs. Kinser uses the following procedure for making the cheese:

Use morning's whole milk of best quality. Nights milk may be used but it should be kept cold. Heat slowly to 86 degrees fahrenheit. Add 1/2 cheese color tablet dissolved in water for each 5 gallons of milk. Stir well and then add 1/2 tablet of rennet, dissolved in water for each 5 gallons of milk. Mix in thoroughly. Allow milk to stand undisturbed until firm curd has formed. Cut curd into 1/2 inch cubes and then allow curd to stand 10 minutes to get firm and expel some of the whey before heating.

Heat slowly (2 degrees for each 5 minutes) until 100 degrees temperature has been reached. Stir constantly while heating. Let curd stay in whey at as near 100 degrees as possible, until curd becomes quite firm and rubbery, which generally requires from 35 to 40 minutes.

Drain off the whey and stir curd to prevent matting. This should be continued until curd is quite dry. Salt to taste and allow salt to thoroughly dissolve and then put into press.

By the above process, a firm curd is obtained and considerable pressure is needed to make a smooth cheese. At least 50 lbs. should be applied.

Cheese should be kept in the press from 8 to 12 hours; then taken out and placed on a shelf in a cool, clean place and allowed to dry on the outside. It will generally take from 3 to 4 days for the cheese to become dry on the surface. (Turn cheese each day while drying) When cheese is dry on outside dip in hot to prevent further drying and to keep down development of molds; place the cheese in a cool place to ripen from four to six weeks.

SMALLPOX

Smallpox is one of the most easily caught diseases. Very often the victims do not remember ever having seen a person who had the disease. Many cases are caught on trains or in crowded street cars. It usually develops about the twelfth day after infection. Chills, fever, headache, and vomiting are the usual beginning symptoms. Firm red pimples appear on face and hands and then show on other parts of the body. If anyone in your home develops these symptoms, keep him away from other members of the family and the neighbors and call a doctor immediately.

It is one hundred thirty-six since Jenner discovered how to prevent smallpox. Yet more than 25,000 cases of the disease were reported in forty-three states of the United States during 1931. These cases are the prices paid for our failure to make vaccination universal. States which regularly enforce vaccination laws only in times of epidemics pay the price.

Vaccination is your protection against smallpox. It prevents this terrible disease. Every child should be vaccinated before he is one year old and again in early school days. The protection given by a successful vaccination last about seven years.

Even if you have been vaccinated once if it was more than seven years ago, you should go to a doctor or a clinic for re-vaccination to be sure that you are safe. Every epidemic of smallpox proves that a recent vaccination is a complete protection.

The doctor to apply vaccine, slightly pricks the skin or makes a single scratch on the arm or leg, preferably the arm. The vaccine is prepared under the careful control of the United States government and is protected in glass tubes until it reaches your skin. In a few days if the vaccination takes, spot becomes red and swollen. This spot must be protected from dirt and should not be touched. Usually no bandage is necessary, and a shield should never be worn. If it becomes too inflamed, you should see the doctor. It is a good plan to visit the doctor one week after he has vaccinated you, though he may wish to see you before that. A vaccination which is kept clean causes little trouble.

Even if you have a sore arm for a few days, it is much better than having smallpox. It is not better to have one scar, instead of many.
