Garner Not To Have Patronage Say In This District

A news dispatch sent out from Washington Tuesday said that patronage question involving this district had been settled peacefully and that John Garner would not have the say, it would be done by the Congressman as of before. There are three districts in Texas this year that have been built out of other districts in making the redistricting laws, one of which includes Schleicher County. Under the agreement reached Tuesday it will leave the naming of the post master of the new District to the present Congressman, who will serve as congressman of the district until the district elects one and he qualifies.

Garner Writes Farley

Garner sent this letter to Farley: "Hon. James A. Farley, the Postmaster General, Washington, DC.

"Dear Jim: "Congressmen Patman, Kleberg and Thomason, a committee representing the Texas delegation, are in my office at this moment. They are very much worried about the proposal that I pass on qualifications of postmasters in the new districts in Texas and, to be frank with you, Jim, I am worried about it myself because of friction that might arise between the Texas members in congress and myself.

"For more than a decade, I have tried to congeal, and have succeeded, in having as solid a delegation from Texas as there is in the union. I am anxious for that state of affairs to continue; therefore I want to ask you if you won't relieve me of the burden of saying anything about the qualifications of any postmaster anywhere in Texas. "Thanking you for your many courtesies, I am,

"Truly your friend,
(Signed) "John N. Garner."

WANTED.— 500 Good, Solid Mouth, Bred Ewes. Worth the price.

Beneficial Rains Cover Schleicher County

The best general rain of several months visited West Texas Wednesday, beginning in the early morning and continued throughout the day and amounting to an inch or more. The rain according to reports received extended over most of this portion of West Texas. Small grain and range condition has been greatly benefited and ranchmen and farmers are wearing the old time smiles and dreaming of a prosperous 1934. The rain will insure early grass this spring and will give the farmers winter pasturage from their small grain. In fact it insures a greater prosperity for our immediate portion of Texas. Schleicher County, from reports gathered was entirely covered with this rain, which is the first to cover the entire county in several months. Thursday morning as this is being written it was still favorable for further damp weather.

SHEPPARD MAKES HIS ANNUAL DRY TALK IN SENATE

Washington, Jan. 16.—White haired Senator Morris Sheppard, "father of prohibition," arose in the Senate today, just as he has done annually for fourteen years since adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment, and predicted the United States soon would return to prohibition.

Debate on the St. Lawrence waterway treaty was halted for the Texas Democrat to speak. He charged that "repealing temporarily the Eighteenth Amendment, the American people demonstrated that at times propaganda is more powerful than principle in this Republic."

"Mr. President" he began. "The Senator from Texas," said Vice President Garner.

The soft-voiced Texan began. "On today, another anniversary of the Eighteenth Amendment, I rise to say that it will inevitably return. The repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment was equivalent to the placing of dynamite on our highways and in our streets and factories."

"You say that with prohibition we had the bootlegger and the speakeasy. Without prohibition we have the bootlegger, saloon."

Sheppard said it was "astonishing that the American people under the influence of the most deceptive propaganda the world has ever known, voted to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment in the face of the fact that every alternative method for the regulation and control of the liquor industry and traffic had been tried in various States before the advent of Nation-wide prohibition and found wanting."

Sheppard directed a long attack upon "the cocktail brigade" and said wet forces "had capitalized on the depression."

TO THE CITIZENS OF SCHLEICHER COUNTY

I, John H. Leudseke, announce as a candidate for the Sheriff and Tax Collectors Office, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in July.

In making my announcement I have done so with a knowledge of the duties and obligations of a sheriff, as county officer, and with an understanding that these duties and obligations will be increased during the next term, as the office of Tax assessor will come under the sheriff's work.

I feel confident that I am qualified, and capable of performing the duties of this office efficiently, and it is my primary motive, and utmost desire, to give the people the benefit of a just and impartial administration, if elected, I will make a determined effort to co-operate with the citizens of the county in what is right. I realize that it is the people to whom the office belongs, and to them the officer owes his services.

I have been a resident of Schleicher County 27 years, and know most of the people over the county, however, I intend to see all the voters if possible, in earnestly soliciting their votes.

JANUARY 31st, LAST DAY FOR SIGNING 1934 COTTON CONTRACTS

Cotton contracts are being signed up as fast as the farmers come in said Mr. Snell Wednesday. The Committeemen and Miss Margarette Bradley and County Agent Snell are in the office at all times, or some of them are to assist the farmers in making and signing contracts. Mr. Snell says they have plenty of contracts on hand at this time.

B. E. Moore, John Williams and H. W. Finley are the County committeemen of this cotton program.

Hugh McAngus, and Marvin McDonald have been selected as community committeemen. These men are at your service anytime you need them. It will be necessary to sign these contracts before January 31st, as the time expires at that time.

JAN. 19, 1934

You can try and side step the prohibition issue in 1934 election, but you will never get it out of the way, it will be the largest and most outstanding issue to be discussed in the coming election. You will have to tell the voters why you voted wet or dry as the case may be, and they are not going to put up with a pussy-foot answer, you just as well make a clean cut statement at the beginning if you are going to seek state or National office.

King Cotton has rallied back to 11c per pound since the New Year has come with its promising better times. If this Southern commodity meets its associate, wool, in its advance, then Texas should smile out loud at the benefits derived from the New Deal of Roosevelt.

When cotton and wool reach a paying basis, then all Texas can smile at the same time.

Some of our candidates for governor are seeking the office upon a repeal of state prohibition laws, they evidently believe the repeal idea is ruling in Texas. Texas will undoubtedly have a man large enough to run for governor who knows something better than repeal. The people of Texas need less liquor, and she needs men who believe in less liquor and who probably have them in the race.

President Grau San Martin of Cuba, has resigned after four months of turmoil and disorder. Carlos Hevia a graduate from the U. S. Naval Academy has accepted the leadership of the Island. He is probably being sacrificed for something hoped for.

Uncle Sam's six Navy seaplanes made a safe flight in formation from San Francisco to Honolulu, a distance of 2,400 miles, this is another record flight.

And now Insult has no place to go, it seems no one wants to offer refuge to such a man, he can't come home and the neighbors wont care for him. The wages of sin are death.

DOWN ON THE FARM IN 1934

The farmer is justified in looking forward with optimism as the new year opens.

The last report of prices show that substantial advances have been made in the prices received for basic agricultural products. Strikes and turbulence which recently marked many farm areas have abated. There is reason to believe that the farmer is realizing that you cannot transform economic law with a piece of legislation, no matter how well conceived and administered.

During 1934, and in the years to follow, the influence of the farm cooperative will grow steadily stronger. Unbiased authorities agree to that. The farm cooperatives have been extraordinarily successful in the face of extraordinary depression. Without cooperatives prices would have been lower and markets more chaotic. They have acted in the capacity of educators among their members, the general public, and government officials. They have been untiring in their work, and unswerving in their efforts to better the farmer's lot and render service to consumers.

This year they will grow stronger still. They will enlist more members, be more thoroughly appreciated and understood. And, unless all indicators are wrong, they are on the verge of a period of great achievement that will revolutionize conditions down on the farm.

J. A. Montgomery, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elder, came out from San Angelo Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Christian. Mr. Montgomery spoke at the Methodist Church Sunday Morning and Sunday night, in the absence of Rev. W. H. Marshall. Mrs. W. H. Marshall was called elsewhere Sunday.

Kenneth is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fowler of this city, is a graduate of the McCamey high school and a student of both Texas A&M College and the University of Texas. He is looking after the ranch interest of his father who is Sheriff of Upton county.

The happy couple will make their home at the ranch north of this city and will be at home on January 18th. — Rankin Journal.

Opportunity Still Knocks

The United States Building and Loan League forecasts there will be an upturn in real estate values early in 1934, and that when the building wave starts the small one-family home will lead the way.

Improved employment, at better wages, among millions of workers, is opening up a construction field that has been dormant for years. In addition, various plans are now under way to loosen mortgage money, and reduce the burden of carrying charges. Estimates place the American home shortage at around 1,500,000 and the public's desire for better and more modern housing has never been keener.

At the moment, it is still possible to beat the game of rising costs. Material values have risen, but, with the single exception of lumber, advances have not been startling. The quantity of brick and tile which cost $1,000 then, would command $1,060 now. And the amount of cement $1,000 would

USEFUL WORK FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

One of the requirements of the Civil Works Administration is that its funds shall be used for payrolls only. No part of them may be given to buying materials and supplies. The result is that in many communities with C. W. A. allotments, it is becoming increasingly difficult to find productive employment for the workers, particularly as the majority of cities and towns are without money with which to purchase materials that would make possible building and construction activities.

With this in mind, the National Board of Fire Underwriters has addressed a letter to mayors of a large number of American cities, recommending that relief work of this kind be partly devoted to the removal of fire hazards and the improvement of water distribution systems projects which require much labor and little material.

This is certainly an excellent suggestion. No work can be more beneficial to the public at large than that which safeguards life, health and property none comes more genuinely under the heading of a community duty. In preventing fire and improving facilities for quenching blazes once they break out, C. W. A. funds can be used to the utmost advantage. As a safety measure it is particularly advantageous if city finances permit, to replace old and small water mains and hydrants with new ones, and install additional hydrants in high value districts.

The National Board's suggestion should receive careful consideration. It would protect the nation against fire, while providing useful work for the unemployed.

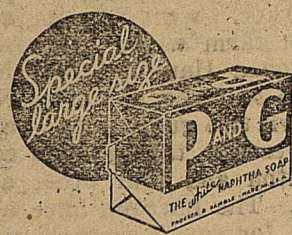

H. M. Freund dropped into town Saturday for his week end buying and the transaction of business.

Henry Speck was a business visitor in the city Tuesday, he said he had not begun to feed his cattle yet, but had separated his cows and calves and would soon begin to feed the calves.

ELDORADO ELIMINATES CHRISTOVAL IN SAN ANGELO TOURNAMENT

In the first game of the season the Eagles defeated Christoval Friday night by 9 to 26. Christoval made only one field goal. Saturday morning the Eagles were defeated by Water Valley 45 to 27. Water Valley later beat Crews, the team that eliminated San Angelo. Saturday night Ozona beat the Eagles 25 to 17 in a hard fought and fast game.

The showing the Eagles made this early, in their first games was encouraging, especially since they played against teams who have had the use of gymnasiums and have played about ten or more games. Gibson was high point man in each game.

Wednesday night the team goes to Mertzon for a game, Friday night to Christoval and Saturday to Ozona where both the second and first team will compete with Ozona Lions.

The boys are a "classy looking" bunch with their new suits with orange and black colors.

LINDBERGH EXHIBIT OPENS TODAY.

New York, Jan. 14.—The Lindbergh exploration exhibit will be opened tomorrow in the American Museum of Natural History.

Consisting of the plane and equipment used by Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh on their recent Atlantic circling flight, the exhibit is in the hall of ocean life.

The airplane is hung from girders strong enough to bear the weight of whale skeletons. The ceiling above is flanked with white clouds and marine birds spot the sky in realistic manner.

Col. H. Sherwood, director of the hall, arranged the exhibit. The plane was purchased by the Lindberghs in 1930. It is the one in which they flew to the Orient. As it hangs in the museum, it is complete in every detail, pontoons and all.

In cases below the plane is the equipment used by the couple, sun helmets, first aid outfits, bedding, gams and ammunition.

One group is emergency landing equipment made up of cans of food, a pistol with signal cartridges, the rubber boat and five canteens with a capacity of eight gallons of water.

Everything that was in the plane when the Lindberghs flew back shortly before Christmas Day from their exploration of transatlantic routes is in the hall.

And would appreciate a nice item from him each week.

MEAT CANNING

Meat cutting and canning has fallen into a full swing during the present month.

Demonstrations were given by the Farm and Home Agents in the following communities this past week: W. H. McClatchey, Cliff club; Raymond Dickens, Reynolds club; R. A. King, Mayor club.

A good variety has been canned such as rolled roasts, plain roasts, swiss steaks, chili, meat loaf, liver paste, stew and soup.

REYNOLDS GIRLS 4-H CLUB

The Reynolds girls 4-H club met at the school house, Jan. 15, with the Home Agent in charge. Organization for the year was completed and the years work was discussed by Miss Howell.

The second meeting of the club in this month will be held by Miss Blanche Newlin, sponsor of the club, at which time receipt files will be made and tested receipts will be exchanged by club members.

REYNOLDS NEWS

The people of the Reynolds community were interested in learning how to cut and can beef. They found that chili blend in the chili makes it better than the chili powder.

Mr. Snell and Miss Howell held a demonstration at the home of Mrs. Raymond Dickens Wednesday of last week. The meeting was postponed Tuesday until Wednesday.

Each member is sure to have added too what they already knew about canning and cutting beef. The day was enjoyed by all.

The club will meet with Mrs. J. F. Fought January 23.

Modern Electric Cookery "Seals-In" Vital Health Elements of Foods

In contrast to old-fashioned methods of cookery, the modern Electric Range makes it possible to serve meals of surpassing healthfulness... as well as incomparable flavor.

—And the reason is simple. With electricity foods are cooked in a minimum amount of water, or entirely in their own juices. The heat is concentrated directly on the bottom of the utensil... so the steam rises, condenses on the cool lid, and drops back into the vessel... to be used over and over. Thus, all vital food values remain "sealed-in"!

If you're using an old-fashioned method of cookery, the most valuable elements of your foods are going into the sink... with the water you pour off vegetables and meats!

For Health, for Convenience, and for Economy you should cook the modern electrical way. Prices and terms... right now... allow your purchase to fit into the family budget with ease. Ask for a demonstration of modern Electric Cookery... Today!

Call us for an individual investigation of your use of electric service, to determine the cost of cooking by electricity in your home. You may be surprised to know that there are many cases where electric cookery actually decreases the total of electric and gas bills.

FORD OBSERVER FINDS NRA PROTECTS PUBLIC

Dearborn, Mich. —Six weeks in Washington is sufficient to give anyone a different conception of what is occurring in this Nation than he could have otherwise," says a featured leading editorial in Henry Ford's Dearborn Independent. "Code making is not the haphazard undertaking so many thought it would be when the NRA was passed," the article continues. "Neither is it the intention that the codes now being made an integral part of the law of this Nation are temporary in character. The codes will provide the proper distribution of profit between capital and labor and issue equitable cost to the consumer. President Roosevelt meant what he said when he sponsored the cause of the 'forgotten man'. Real concern is evident in Washington that the rights of the small manufacturer, the small merchant and the agriculturalist be protected, as well as the rights of those engaged in labor. There is every effort also to give to those who operate large business their fair and just share of protection. The real fight that comes up over every code comes when the large interests seek to control the code-making in order to gain special privilege for those favored classes who formerly controlled the Government. It is impossible not to realize how hopeless it is to think of returning to the era that has passed into history. This NRA program that is so much discussed must go over. To permit it to fail means utterable chaos. It means complete collapse of the Nation's financial system and complete disruption of transportation and distribution facilities."

FRANKLIN — Black-eyed peas will find a place every year in the cropping system of J. M. Cadle, Robertson county farmer who planted this crop last summer when he plowed up cotton. As told by V. L. Sandlin, county agent, from 5 acres of peas on rented land the Cadles canned 500 containers, harvested 1,000 pounds for feed and seed, pastured 3 hogs on the patch for 3 weeks, almost exterminated the bermuda grass pest, and improved the soil fertility.

PERRYTON — With $33.04 in cash and $32.11 in the form of poultry and eggs eaten at home to show for his flock of 150 hens last year, C. O. Roach, an Ochiltree county poultry demonstrator concludes that a little money can be made from 100 eggs. The flock averaged 149 eggs per hen for the year on the A and M Big Five ration which cost an average of 4 cents per dozen eggs, not counting skim milk, reports Guy R. Sheets, County agent. After all cost for building upkeep, interest, hatching and raising 450 chicks and maturing 145 for flock replacement was charged to the hens, it was found that they had made an average net profit of 55 cents per hen.

The Big Five ration used consisted of 200 pounds finely ground wheat, 100 pounds ground oats, 100 pounds ground rye, 50 pounds meat meal and all the milk they could drink.

ON TEXAS FARMS By W. H. Darrow, Extension Service Editor

A little lesson in heredity was pointed out the other day by George Kemp, Ballinger dairyman in conversation with the county agent. He exhibited two half sister heifers. One with her second calf sired by the herd bull was giving 40 pounds of milk daily; the other, by the same mother but sired by a scrub that broke in was giving barely enough milk for her calf.

The best turkey Miss Lila Young has been able to get in New York City this season was Texas canned turkey sent her by her mother in Jackson county. It was put up on shares with Mrs. A. E. Wilson of the Friendship Home Demonstration Club.

Reports received by the county agent in Kaufman county from 71 of the 116 boys enrolled in 4-H club work last year show that a total of $332.10 was made by these boys as return on labor and investment in a variety of better farming demonstrations.

From a garden 100X50 feet, Nellie Maude Bonnett, garden demonstrator in the Sandia Girls' 4-H club in Jim Wells County, produced 2263 pounds of vegetables valued at $54.35. The garden cost $8.50 in cash.

Giving an account of the factors that led to his success as the champion cotton raiser in Washington county last year, Melvin Loesch, 4-H club boy said: "Good seed, proper preparation of land and proper tillage is the main thing. If you do that much God Almighty will help you do the rest, but He won't do it all for you, you have to do your part."

A total of 2433 Dallas county farm women, not members of home demonstration clubs, were given help last year in living at home, making clothing and beautifying their homes through the efforts of the Dallas County Home Demonstration Council.

GUTHRIE — All except five farmers in King county will plant an improved strain of certified Mebane cotton this season as a part of an effort by R. L. White, county agent, to get the entire county on one variety of excellent cotton. One farmer plans to grow a block of registered seed for supplying local demand for seed next year.

Cotton Carry-over To Be Cut Down (O. B. Martin, Director, College Station, Texas.)

College Station Jan. 15—The big idea behind the 1934-35 Government cotton plan is to wipe out the 11,600,000 bale carry-over without curtailing the cotton farmer's purchasing power and without shifting production from cotton to other farm commodities in an equally bad plight explains G. E. Adams, special agent in cotton, Texas A and M College Extension Service.

"The carry-over is to be cut down to a 3 or 4 million-bale normal by reducing American acreage 40%, and the cotton farmer is to be protected from decreased income while he does this by paying him the money collected from a 4 cent per pound processing tax on the domestically used cotton in the United States. The Government expects to collect about $130,000,000 in cotton processing taxes, of which about 95 million may be paid to cooperating farmers in the form of land rentals and the remainder in the form of 'parity' payments. It amounts to guaranteeing the farmer pre-war buying power for the 40% of his cotton domestically consumed.

"If cotton farmers were to take these retired cotton acres for producing food for sale it would make trouble in other farming lines which are at temporarily over-produced. Furthermore, if cotton farmers were to increase their cultivated acres at a time when the nation has too many acres in cultivation, the national farm situation would be made worse.

"That is why", explains Mr. Adams, "that cotton farmers who sign cotton contracts must agree not to use rented acres in any way that may lead directly or indirectly to throwing more farm commodities on the cash market. They must also agree not to increase their acreages of corn, wheat, rice or tobacco, nor their numbers of dairy cattle and hogs.

"Through the new cotton contract the Government undertakes to continue the restoration of the fortunes of cotton farmers, but in return asks that the farmer cooperate in the New Deal by refraining from unfair competition with already harassed corn wheat and hog and rice and dairy farmers," he adds.

REBUILDING FARMING AND FARM HOMES

A loan of $1,000,000 recently made to the Penderlea Homesteads Corporation by the Federal Subsistence Homesteads Corporation will be used in establishing a subsistence homestead community in Pender County, N. C. The project is intended to provide low-cost homes for 300 to 400 families selected from the ranks of farmers, many of whom have been attempting to eke out an existence on isolated submarginal farm land, and who are on relief rolls. The purpose of this agricultural experiment is to demonstrate: (a) the possibilities of diversified subsistence farming in contrast with single crop and cash farming, (b) the economic and social value of community steelments as against isolated farm settlements, (c) the possibilities of a much higher standard of living on small North Carolina farm where the soil is productive, rather than on an isolated submarginal farm. The tract of land on which this experiment will be carried out consists of 4,500 acres. It is expected that small industries will be developed in this area, thus making it possible for the homesteaders to earn their living from both farming and industry.

MISCELLANEOUS

In this day of vast expenditures in government we are informed by the NRA that the taxpayers will not have to pay a cent of the salaries of the federal representatives who sit on code authorities of the various industries. About 200 code authorities have been established and it is estimated that there will be 800 or more when all the industries have been organized. One to three government representatives for each code would create a big payroll, the salaries of which will come from sums paid by each codified industry into the Federal Treasury, which in effect, is a special excise tax on each industry.

The industries will have nothing to say with respect to the selection or pay of the representatives set to watch public interests on the industrial boards. These representatives will thus be responsible to the Government only.

Exclusive of those being paid from emergency funds, the federal workers now total over 588,035, which is near the peak of 597,482, reached at the end of July, 1921. The total employees in Washington November 30th was 73,131, and 514,904 in the field. Estimating the population of the United States at 120,000,000, this figure shows one federal employee to about 205 people, an average cost to each person of $6.50.

The number of temporary employees in Washington as of November 30 was 7,301. There was a total increase of about 800.

The temporary workers in the field totaled about 55,000.
