Albert B. Fall To Prison In New Mexico

Albert B. Fall, former cabinet member under the Harding Administration has been confined in the State Penitentiary at Santa Fe, New Mexico, for accepting a $100,000.00 bribe while he was a cabinet member. The term he is to serve is one year and a day, and pays a fine of $100,000. The sad part of the story is not the punishment awarded the former cabinet member, but is the fact that our Statesmen are becoming entangled in things unbecoming men who have been trusted to high positions, in other words Senator Fall sold his birthright for a mess of pottage. When honor leaves our Great men, men who have been honored with high offices, yield to temptation and accept graft and bribe money, the nation is coming to a sad plight. Americans are full filling the scriptures as written by Paul to Timothy, Tim. 6-10.

Melvin Lee Clark, Dead

Melvin Lee Clark 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark, died Friday morning in a San Angelo hospital, where he had been taken with appendicitis. We understand the appendix had burst before he reached San Angelo.

James Albert Thomas 57, of San Angelo, former School Superintendent here, and District Attorney for the San Angelo District, died at his home in San Angelo last Thursday night. Mr. Thomas was well known throughout West Texas and had a large practice. He leaves his wife and a daughter to mourn his going.

Mrs. May Roach Dies

Mrs. May Roach 42, of Mertzon, wife of Matt Roach, died in a San Angelo hospital last Friday morning. Mrs. Roach was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Clark, who owns a ranch 18 miles northwest of Eldorado and was well known here. She is survived by her husband and a son and a daughter. Funeral services were held at Mertzon.

Matt Roach is a brother of our townsman Ambrose Roach.

CARD OF THANKS

To our friends and neighbors in Eldorado and others who came from a distance we want to express our deep appreciation and sincere thanks for your deeds of kindness, expressions of sympathy and words of comfort during the recent illness and following the death of our husband and father. His going has left a vacant place in our hearts and home that can never be filled, but while we sorrow deeply in his going our hearts are full of gratitude to the many of you who came to help us and to make the burden easier to bear.

When sorrows come to your lives may the Heavenly Father soften and temper with the love and sympathy of true friends as He has done for us in this our time of sorrow.

Don McCormick Predicts 7,000 Bales Of Cotton For Schleicher County 1931

The best crops in many a year are in prospect in Schleicher County and good yields of maize and hedges are already assured, Don McCormick, tax assessor and ranchman from Eldorado said here yesterday at the Naylor Hotel.

Mr. McCormick said good rains had fallen over the county, that lambs are fat and ranges are doing extremely well. The cotton crop will make a good yield with a few additional showers, he said.

The county will set a cotton record this year, according to estimates which place the prospects at 7,000 bales, putting the county well up in the cotton reporting counties from West Texas. Schleicher was once included among "all others" in the government report. This year it will merit mention in its own right.—San Angelo Standard-Times.

If Don's guesser is as correct as his watch, that 7,000 bales is the same as in the bagging and ties.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Freund were in from the ranch Saturday shopping and meeting friends.

Thomason Makes Plea For Peace

Congressman Says Europe Must Reduce Armament Expenditures

FORT STOCKTON, July 16.—R. E. Thomason, congressman from the 16th district, who has just returned from an extended trip to Europe spoke to the Fort Stockton Lions club here yesterday.

Thomason blamed the World War for the depression gripping the world today and said that unless the nations of Europe quit spending 70 per cent of their income to prepare for another war the world is doomed.

In his visit to Europe Thomason says he learned the lesson of cooperation and friendship, and he hopes this lesson will enable him to better serve the American Congress when it meets in December.

"America can no longer live alone," Thomason said. "We must meet the situation thrust upon us. America is the leader today and must take a definite and lasting peace. I am not a pacifist. I believe in preparedness. We must fraternize with the leaders of the world and counsel with them and thereby not only advise but seek this peace."

"After seeking the trenches in France, the battle fields and the 70,000 graves of our boys in Europe I must say that I will stand for any reasonable demands the ex-service men make. They can hardly ask too much of America. I know they will not ask too much, therefore I pledged my hearty support to any movement sponsored by the ex-service men of the World War."

Thomason had visited Marfa where he discussed with the citizens of Marfa the possibility of retaining Fort D. A. Russell there. He was accompanied by Mrs. Thomason. San Angelo Morning Times.

Sunday Morning Another Fine Rain For Schleicher County

It began raining Sunday morning about day light and Schleicher county was again wet. The rain was fine on everything but cotton; the cotton has enough rain.

Hinyard - Renken

The wedding of Miss Evelyn Hinyard and Howard C. Renken was solemnized last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hinyard, 205 La Salle Drive, with the Rev. Fred Little performing the single ring ceremony.

An improvised altar of palms, ferns and pink asters was arranged in the west end of the living room around which tall baskets of asters had been placed. Approximately 40 guests stood opposite the altar, these including friends of the couple and relatives of the bride.

Before the entrance of the minister, Mrs. W. H. Conkling sang "At Dawning" (Cadmus) with Miss Eloy Friend at the piano. Miss Friend was at the piano when the party entered, playing the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin. When the Rev. Mr. Little took his place, the bridegroom with Jim Neal Hinyard of Austin, brother of the bride as his best man, entered and took his place at the altar.

Miss Elizabeth Hinyard attended her sister as the maid of honor. She wore an evening dress of powder blue taffeta fashioned in the prevailing mode. She carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds.

The bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage to Mr. Renken. She wore a chiffon dress of a pale peach color, her shoes harmonizing. Her bouquet was formed of Joanna Hill rosebuds.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. Miss Louise Hinyard out the wedding cake after the first piece had been cut by her sister, Miss Lucy Lee Williams, Miss Daon Gordon and Mrs. J. M. Hinyard presided at the punch bowl.

Immediately after Mr. and Mrs. Renken left by automobile for Denton, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. Renken's mother, Mrs. Mary C. Renken, lives in Denver. They will remain there for two weeks before returning to El Paso where they will be at home at 1103 North Oregon.

Mrs. Renken was graduated from the Eldorado High School, later attending C. I. A. in Denton. She received her bachelor of business administration degree from the college in 1922 and for the last six years has been teaching in the El Paso High School.

Mr. Renken is a chemist in the El Paso smelter, a branch of the American Smelting and Refining Company. He received his degree in chemical engineering from the Colorado School of Mines. He was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity and of Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity.

W. R. Nicks Shows No Increase When Deepened

Last Saturday the J. D. Wesner, W. R. Nicks No. 1 well was deepened 22 feet and showed no material gain in its production, and the oil sand which oil was found on May 25, has been penetrated and was some 26 feet thick. There was no work on the well Monday and Tuesday, awaiting a new drilling line which came out Wednesday. The new line will be put on and the hole will be underreamed below the 8 1-4 inch casing. The pipe will then be cemented and water cut off, well will then be carried to the 5,000 foot mark unless production is found sooner. The present oil showing in W. R. Nicks is estimated at 13 or 20 barrels per day. The showing in the Whitten well at this depth was very little, and the sand in the Whitten well at this depth was very shallow. This structure in the Nicks well is about 185 feet higher than Whitten well. The promoters seem to think that 500 feet deeper, or to the second strike in the Whitten well, and where it headed for three days, will be sure to bring production in W. R. Nicks No. 1. Barring bad luck, this structure should be reached within 60 days at the outside.

Mr. Wesner and the Poor Boy Oil are selling enough acreage to carry carry the well on, and so far have managed to sell enough to keep the work going.

They appreciate the cooperation of the people who buy from them and are confident of bringing in a producer before they reach the 5,000 foot depth.

BROTHERS IN RANCH DEAL

R. F. Halbert Sells Sutton Part of Holdings to B. M. Halbert

R. F. Halbert, San Angelo rancher and financier, this week sold an undivided half interest in his 18-section Sutton county ranch to his brother, B. M. Halbert, Sr., Sonora rancher and breeder of Angora goats. The ranch starts about six miles south and west of Sonora and continues for seven miles. It has an acreage total of 11,928.1. Present mineral leases were not involved in the sale, the consideration of which was not announced.—Standard.

BARBECUE

The T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Church had a chevron barbecue on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilton's ranch home on Friday evening July 10. An abundance of barbecue, cake, salad and red beans was served.

The members of the class invited their husbands and children and most of them attended and are ready for us to have another barbecue. The class appreciated Mrs. Wilton asking us to have the barbecue on their ranch as it is an ideal place for a picnic.

After supper some games including wolf over the river and jumping rope were enjoyed by both young and old. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ratliff and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Alexander, Johnnie Joab Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilton, Maxine and Billie; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gibson and W. B.; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Craig; Mrs. L. M. Hoover and Mary; Mrs. L. T. THE SUCCESS
 JULY, 24, 1931.

Water mellow time is here, some large ones are coming in from Mason and San Antonio and we presume that the Schlecter county fruit of the vine will soon be on the market.

The Merry Madcaps Players, a troupe of 20 characters, are making our city this week, showing under their large waterproof tent, which is the best seated show that has come our way, and from the applause they receive their splendid program is taking well with their audiences. They will be in our city until Saturday night, if you like such entertainment, The Merry Madcaps will please you. Their program are well selected, full of pep and the actors show real life in carrying out their part of the entertainment.

While rambling around town this week, we found, Knight and Miller at the West Texas Lumber Co. in an extraordinary good humor. Just waiting for some fellow to come in to figure out a new house bill. They are prepared to figure a complete bill for any size house from The Local West Texas Lumber Co. They are pleasant chaps to figure with, and realize there is a depression on and are willing to share their profits with you.

O. F. Priest, who operates the Eldorado Cash Grocery and the Sonora Cash Grocery, and a real believer in printers ink and a constant user of same, is kept very busy looking after his two businesses. He's here and there and its hard to tell when he's here and when he's there, but so far he has never missed an issue of The Success, or been tardy with his copy. And if a newspaper man appreciates anything its the constant advertiser and a man who can act pleased when he is or not. However we believe he is easy to please. We believe in flowers for the living therefore we hand him this small "Daisy."

Rev. S. L. Batchelor, who was to have been here Sunday to hold the third Quarterly Conference at Rudd, phoned in Sunday morning that he was in a ditch near Kerrville, and he would not meet his appointment. The scripture says if the ox is in the ditch on Sunday, to pull him out, but it appears in this case the Presiding Elder could not get out of the ditch.

This proves beyond all question that three of our editorial guests were ably and amply taken care of. However, there was another editorial visitor, A. T. Wright, publisher of the Eldorado Success. A. T. was badly handicapped by being paired with his brother, A. D. Wright of Brady, and since we observed neither at either the barbecue or the races, we presume A. D. and brother A. T. occupied reserved seats at the best knot holes in the South race track fence. — Brady Standard.

We must retract, after we returned from Brady, we published to the world that, that huge crowd was the soberest crowd we ever witnessed, and now comes the Standard Editor, claiming he did not see us in the Brady Grandstand, so we have decided that there must have been one man there that was full of something besides barbecue. We have proof of our being in the Grandstand, our own county Judge saw us there, and he came from Fife, McCulloch county, now if that isn't proof enough, just what will it take. Another thing it was not A. D. that was our handicap. It was our wives.

"THIS AND THAT"

By J. J. J. J.

Now that the legislature is in extraordinary session the people can expect something extraordinary to happen. As everybody knows, the session was called to save the oil industry from something or somebody. But many other bills will be introduced to correct or control things that don't fit into the modern scheme of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

We have an idea that something should be done about old age at this extraordinary effort of our lawmakers to control and regulate. Old age has been going on for a long time now, and, as Mark Twain would say, no body's doing anything about it. We are against it, Nothing is accomplished by old age; it leaves man with

CLUB YOUNGSTERS FIND GOOD FEED MARKET

Big Spring, July 15.—A return of $23.31 per ton for home grown milo, and $15 per ton for home grown hegari was obtained last season by the 4-H club boys and one girl in Howard county who fed 20 fine locally bred Hereford calves for 168 days. Labor was figured in at 20 cents per hour and cottonseed meal at actual purchase cost.

Figured on the basis of $20 per ton for milo, $12 per ton for hegari and $31 per ton for cottonseed meal, a price which J. V. Bush, county agent, says few farmers have been able to get, the average feed cost per animal amounted to $25.54 and the average cost of gain 7-1-2 cents per pound. The calves of 9 cents per pound at the Field Day Program at the U. S. Experiment Station in May they represented a total outlay of $61.44 per head. The average price received was $67.20 giving a net profit of $6.31 per animal. Average daily gains of 2.17 pounds per calf were made throughout the period. The average consumption of feed was 1,253 pounds ground milo, 1,455 pound ground hegari and 326.7 pounds cottonseed meal.

nothing but a head full of memories and advice to give the young. It should be stopped.

There might be obstacles to overcome but it would be a nobler experiment than the one President Hoover termed a "noble experiment." We've put the damper on everything else by simply making it unlawful, and if we can do that surely we can stop old age.

Our only fear lies in the fact that an investigation would be necessary before a law could be passed making it a crime to get old, and it would have to extend too far back, making the expense too great. Investigation is the first rule of political procedure and the lawmakers wouldn't even think of passing a law without first making a thorough investigation. They have always done it before.

But there wouldn't be an all powerful lobby to fight. About the only possible lobby that we know of would be the undertakers and they would probably assume the attitude of "Go on, big boy, we'll get you in the long run," and let it go at that.

Old age now might be all right if it was regulated. No set rule is followed in getting old. Some people get old at 30; some are just beginning to age at 130. There are too many ways a man can get old. He can get up too early or get up too late and get old. He can work too hard or he cannot work hard enough. "Staying up with a friend" makes some people old, but makes others rich and young.

It's a complicated situation, but if our legislators can untangle such things as overproduction and underconsumption, and that sort of stuff, they can do something about the age old problem of old age.

MUST DO MORE THAN TALK

In the first quarter of 1931, the railroads employed 359,161 less persons than they employed, on the average, during the first quarters of 1925-1929. These workers, according to a spokesman for the industry, were largely deprived of their jobs because of regulatory policies which have directly and indirectly prevented railroads from adjusting themselves rapidly to changing business and economic conditions.

The present railroad crisis cannot be charged entirely to the general depression. All during the past decade railroad freight business has grown at a slower rate than ever before, and passenger business has constantly decreased. Competitive transportation agencies not governed by the same paralyzing restrictions as the railroad—oil pipe lines, buses, freight trucks and government-subsidized waterways—have taken a vast volume of business that because of the more favorable conditions under which they are permitted to operate, once went to the railroads. And, on top of it all, taxes have been increased while railroads have been held down until tax payments absorbed one-third of the railroads' net earnings in the first four months of 1931.

Here is a situation worthy of consideration. Railroad workers and stockholders are entitled to a fair deal. The government is spending millions of dollars in an effort to overcome unemployment—and at the same time persisting in a policy that has caused several hundred thousand men in a single industry to be thrown out of work. So long as government-favored competition is permitted to exist, we will not be able to do much but talk about "bringing back railroad prosperity."

POWER ON THE FARM

The National Electric Light Assn. recently made what may be considered the first attempt to arrive at a national estimate of use of electricity on American farms.

The survey showed that on December 31, 1930, 644,421 farms were receiving service. During the year they purchased 1,779,947,000 kilowatt hours of electric energy—three times the amount sold for railroad electrification. The total revenue from this service was $46,187,600.

Of special interest is the fact that the average farm used 5 per cent more power in 1930 than in 1929, but paid a total bill 4 per cent smaller. As in the case of domestic service, increased use of power is accompanied by lower rates.

The future progress of farm electrification will, to a large extent, represent the future progress of agriculture.

THE PEOPLE'S PROBLEM

No other industry has wider distribution of ownership than the railroads.

Renewed railroad prosperity would mean renewed general prosperity. One-fourth to one-third of the reserve fund of life insurance companies and about 15 per cent of deposits in savings bank are invested in railroad securities. There are about two million individual owners of railroad bonds and stocks. Endowed schools, colleges and hospitals are commonly dependent for part of their income on funds invested in the railroads.

There are hundreds of thousands of railroad employees, and hundreds of thousands more who are indirectly employed by the railroad through the industry's vast purchases of materials of all kinds.

Are railroad problems "the people's problems?"

If you are a day laborer, an investor or savings or a bank president—it's a problem you must help solve.

Saturday was a busy day for Eldorado Merchants, the town was full of people and all seem to be in a buying mood.

The nine constitutional amendments which were submitted by the 42nd Legislature, will not come up before the people until the general election of 1932.

The nine which are to be balloted upon the people are as follows:
 Fixing a $3,000 exemption for homesteads in levy of State ad valorem taxes.

Limiting voting in bond elections to citizens who have rendered property for taxation.

Combining the offices of county tax assessor and county tax collector.

Permitting retired officers of the army, navy and marine corps to hold public office.

Changing the method by which property sold for taxes may be redeemed.

Empowering the legislature to establish 10-year limitations on delinquent tax collections.

Authorizing the legislature to make appropriations for Texas centennial celebration.

Correcting the present regulations upon voting of sea wall bonds by cities and counties so as to allow a two-thirds majority instead of three-fourths.

Restless,

"THERE were days when I felt like I could not get my work done. I would get so nervous and 'trembly' I would have to lie down. I was very restless, and could not sleep at night.

My mother advised me to take Cardui, and I certainly am glad she did. It is the first thing that seemed to give me any strength. I felt better after the first bottle. I kept it up and am now feeling fine."—Mrs. T. R. Gibson, Fort Payne, Ala.

POTENTIAL MARKET SEEN FOR 100,000 BALES OF COTTON

AUSTIN, Tex., July, 20.—Producing 1,434,966 tons of feed and 138,917 tons of fertilizer a year, Texas has a potential market for 47,000 bales additional cotton for sacking these two commodities alone, according to Lowe Simons, recently appointed executive secretary of the Texas division, Association for the Increased Use of Cotton.

These products are largely sacked in burlap bags, made from jute, an imported product. Estimated at three-fourths of a pound of lint cotton to a cotton sack, or fifteen pounds of cotton to a ton of feed or fertilizer, it would take 47,216 bales to furnish the bags for sacking these commodities.

General adoption of the cotton bag, Simons declared, would be a matter of sound economics to the dealer in feed and fertilizer, since obviously every contribution toward reducing the great cotton surplus of the south is a contribution toward the south's prosperity.

The cotton bag, moreover, is of value after it has served its purpose as a container. A variety of uses may be found for the cotton bag around the home as a cloth.

Simons estimates that if feed and fertilizer manufacturers could be persuaded to adopt cotton bags, and cotton bagging were generally substituted for jute as a bale wrapper, Texas would consume more than 100,000 bales of cotton a year in these two fields alone.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. Darrow,
Extension Service Editor

From a three-year old farm fruit plot at Keystone, Frio County, Mrs. A. L. Sharber has sold $75 worth of peaches and plums and has canned and preserved 50 quarts as a part of her home demonstration club work. Mr. and Mrs. Sharber share in all the work connected with this home orchard.

A total of 253 visitors have inspected the living rooms recently improved by Miss Clara Johnson of Cranfills Gap and Mrs. August Enger of Live Oak in Bosque county as demonstrations in home improvement.

Home demonstration club women in the Kelsey club in Upshur county are canning garden stuff in the community club house with community equipment costing about $100. Every fifth can is given the club to be labelled and sold to help pay for building and equipment.

Mrs. S. J. Ross and Mrs. Goodman of Margaret Home Demonstration Club in Foard county are out to beat last year's canning record. Each of them put up more than 1000 cans last season. Mrs. Ross has bought a large retort canner and plans to sell part of her products.

Mixville 4-H club boys in Austin county have planted 75 acres of pure cotton seed with the idea of swinging the whole community to pure seed. They expect to produce enough this year to plant 800 acres.

Hall county farmers terraced and contoured 15,000 acres of land in the season recently ended. Many farmers cooperated actively by laying off lines for neighbors, the county agent states. Shortage of feed made the construction work difficult and in many cases, work stock was grazed on wheat pasture half a day and worked on terracing the other half.

Ed Finigan was in from the ranch Saturday mingling with friends.
