Christoval Gym May Be Finished By End Of Week

CHRISTOVAL, Jan. 2.—Remodeling of the large structure formerly the Main Tabernacle on the Christoval Baptist Encampment grounds here probably will be completed by the week-end. The building, now a combination gymnasium and dance hall, may be opened to the latter diversion Saturday night.

Two basketball games already have been played in the gymnasium and another is scheduled for Tuesday night, the Christoval Bats, independent team, meeting the Veribest Independents.

Floored with hardwood throughout, boxed in by pavilion convertible walls and equipped with a new high, white ceiling, the gymnasium, which has housed more than 2,000 people at one time, will be one of the largest and finest in West Texas, it is intended by Monte Thorpe, proprietor of the resort. Lewis Deats has been in charge of the remodeling.

Why Support Your Schools?

Education is needed now more than ever before.

There was a time not long ago when the people could run away from depressions, which seem to have a habit of coming along every few years. Here in the United States, when work became scarce and times became hard the people could move westward where there was always cheap land to be had. Here in a new country a poor man could make a good living at home and be considered an equal to any of his neighbors. Thus people moved westward away from depressions.

That time is now past. There is no cheap land in the West any longer and there is little advantage to be gained from moving from one place to another just to avoid hard times. The only sure safeguard against hard times now is EDUCATION—more education and better education than ever before. This does not mean merely attendance in school but it means education in learning to think, in learning to work, and in learning the moral values that make up the worthwhile life.

"A fundamental objective of education is to enable the individual to do more work, better work, and more effective work. It is significant that the United States leads the world in out put per man and income per capita."

Thorpe (Pete) Parker, one of Eldorado's erst while youths, is seeking higher learning in the Texas Tech College, after two years experience in the school of hard knocks in Parker & Son Grocery.

THE TIME FOR SUMMING UP

Three years of depression have ended and we can begin to sum up.

Hard times have brought ill winds—but they have also brought some healthful breezes.

Businesses and individuals have been forced to "write down" fictitious valuations and standards. This has naturally caused a great deal of hardship and a long black list of bankruptcies. But real readjustments had to occur to put a sound foundation under family and business life.

Those who expanded and operated on the principle that that which goes up need never come down, and that boom prosperity would continue unabated forever, had to be deflated.

The individual has found that it is possible to live happily and comfortably on a pre-war basis. He has found that the arbiter of wages is what the dollar will (Continued on last page)

East Texas Oil Field Resumes Flowing Sunday

LONGVIEW, Texas, Jan. 2.—The flow of oil from the East Texas field, ranked as the greatest pool in the world, was resumed at 7 a. m. Sunday under a new proration order issued by the Texas Railroad Commission. The 9,500 producers operating in the field were allowed to pump twenty-eight barrels daily per well. The total output of the field was limited by the commission order to 290,000 barrels daily.

Railroad Commission employees in the field were agreeably surprised to find that the order had met with the approval of a majority of the independent operators, who consider the new plan fair.

These independents were said by Railroad Commission employees to be grateful to be relieved of the acreage plan of proration, which has never been popular in East Texas.

The acreage plan of proration, it was said, had been responsible for much of the dissatisfaction on the part of operators on tracts of less than five acres.

GOOD SCHOOLS IN BAD TIMES

When trouble comes we turn to fundamentals. Home becomes dearer. Neighbors and friends mean more. We understand better the mission of the church. We appreciate the services of the school. If schools are a blessing in good times, they are imperatively necessary in bad times. They safeguard the health of the child; they fortify the home; they give hope and encouragement to citizens who are the victims of misfortune but who can take satisfaction that their children are cared for. The schools are working together in the education of our children. When times are hard to make that education better—to take more seriously our common task of preparing the young for life.

Times which suggest retrenchment call for increased safeguards for schools. Next to food clothing, and shelter, they stand between us and chaos. Let us pre-serve and improve our schools. Let us keep the children first.

Common sense suggests that in bad times we sacrifice first the less important things.—National Education Journal.

The United States Chamber of Commerce has asked the National Government to make one billion dollar reduction in Governmental expense for the coming year.

Schleicher County Produces Many Fine Sheep.

Passing from the cotton harvesting season of Schleicher county we next look forward to the sheep industry for a money crop.

Schleicher County for the past several years has captured many first prizes at the Fat Stock Shows over the state from lambs being fed from this county, which is evidence that the Sheep industry in this county has been made one of the chief aims of our stockmen. George Williams, J. F. Runge, Thomson Bros., Jess Koy, John Rae and Tom Henderson have all been instrumental in forwarding the sheep industry here, and from these flocks come some of our best exhibits.

The present winter looks most favorable for a good lamb crop this spring and a heavy wool crop, with strong indications for better prices for lambs and wool.

Many lambs are on feed in our county, which will soon be put on the market, and will bring financial returns to this county. Among our largest feeders is J. A. Whitten, who has a large flock on feed, which will likely be marketed before early spring.

Schleicher county with its splendid diversified way of production always has an income for some of our people and the sheepman has his day as the crowd passes along.

JANUARY 6, 1933

From every nook and corner, comes the good cheer that 1933 is here with its better days. Everyone knows that times will gradually get better and consequently they are recovering. The Success does not believe we will have a big rush in business but as the sap rises and flows into the living vegetation, after the chilly winter months have passed, so will the channels of industry rise and flow again. 1932 was no doubt the lowest notch of the depression and everything will begin to rise from the bottomless pits to take its rightful place, and serve its purpose among the earth's needs. So mote it be.

The Eldorado School opened Monday with practically 100 per cent attendance. The flu epidemic having largely passed away.

Our little city starts off the new year with a possible bright future for 1933. According to W. F. Meador, local oil enthusiastic, the Joe Tisdale well will begin operating again this week. The W. R. Nicks is already making new hole and the activity of these two test which will probably be finished during 1933, will enliven the oil industry here, and many believe that production will be here in 1933.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

By Lorena Drummond

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 2.—"Egypt is a place of glamor, of decaying grandeur, of dirt and sand, and the majestic Nile," declared Pedro Naniagian, native of Cairo, Egypt, traveler in France, Turkey, Greece and Russia of his home land. Naniagian won a scholarship to The University of Texas by competitive examinations, through the Armenian Students' Relief Association, and is now attending school here. Foreigners, Americans, English, and French, have taken their own civilization into Egypt with them, and are, individually, greatly respected by the natives, according to Mr. Naniagian.

"But most of the natives despise the English rule to which they are subjected, although they do admit that it has in some ways raised their standards of living and spread education," Mr. Naniagian said. "The English have also brought about the passage of a law that will probably prove beneficial. The law is that no man may marry more women than he can support. This is, of course, no limit on the wealthy class native, who draws great sums of money from his feudal estates, and who as a pasha controls the destinies of those who hold land under him."

* * * * * GARDEN OF EXPERIENCE * * * * *

By F. G. Clark

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life; Rom. 6:23.

God ever stands ready to hand down good, pure, and needed gifts to His children on earth, but we, His children are not often ready to receive them. Usually, its only after we have made a hopeless muddle of His gifts, and have suffered unbearable torment, because of it, that as a last resort we turn again to God.

When we receive a gift from God, we humans proceed to defile, and besmear it by introducing into it our human notions and passions. And as time passes, it loses more and more of its heavenly character, and more and more of secular human is mixed with it, until it wholely of the earth, earthy. It is then that what was God's gracious, becomes a curse, we have transformed the spiritual gift which giveth life, into a letter gift, which killeth. Then all that we have left of the living gift is the name and form, the spirit having departed. The history of Israel, as recorded in the old Testament, exemplifies this fact constantly. They received their government from God—a theocracy. It came down from God to Moses, on the mount. But the Israelites proceeded to defile it. They turned aside to copy after the secular nations around them. Idol worship, with its attendant evils, crept into their worship of the spiritual God, and soon they found themselves conquered and enslaved. They would endure this for a time, but at last in their despair, they would turn again to the worship of the true God, who never failed to deliver them. This has been the history of all human institutions. Handed down from above, to meet man's great need, we have never failed to defile them, until they turned into a curse.

The catholic church was such a gift, but its growing coarser and coarser, until men turned from its heartless tyranny to follow Luther in the reformation. The gift that we call the church had to be sent back to God for purification. This accounts for our modern denominations.

Each one was born out of desire of man to get back to the fountain of Truth, and once more experience the regenerative power of the Spirit. The Methodist is an example; The church of England, from which it broke away, had become almost unbelievably corrupt. All semblance of Godliness had departed from it. It refused to go back to God for purification, and there was nothing for Godly men to do but to leave it and go back to God. Hence, the great revival, led by Whitfield and the Wesleys. Our modern churches can only escape a like fate by returning often to God in revival. So with the individual. The world defiles him, but God purifies him. Let us be sure to visit God often, in the closet with the door closed.

REGULATION OF MOTOR TRUCKS FROM THE STANDPOINT OF TRAFFIC AND PRESERVATION OF HIGHWAYS IN TEXAS

L. G. Phares
 Chief, Texas Highway Patrol

Two of the most important phases of present truck laws in Texas are protection of private users of the highways and preservation of the highways for the use of the public. The provisions of the laws in Texas covering these subjects are essentially as follows:

Six limits on trucks are: Height, 12 feet 6 inches; width 96 inches; length, 35 feet; length of truck and trailer, 45 feet, except where a 14,000 pound load is permitted as explained below, in which case an overall length of 55 feet is permitted. Loads must not extend over the side more than 3 inches beyond the fenders on the right side. For loads extending beyond the truck bed or body, warning flags must be attached to the end of the load in the daytime and a red light at the back of the load at night.

Weight Limits
 The weight of truck loads is is found in the oil fields.

Safety Measures
 Every truck more than 70 inches wide must carry two clearance lamps on the extreme left side of the vehicle, the front light being white and the rear light being yellow or red. Adequate reflectors that have been approved by the State Highway Department may be substituted for the clearance light, if desired. Ordinary headlights and tail lights must also be provided and kept lighted at night whether the truck is moving or not.

Two separate means of applying brakes in such a way as to bring the truck to a stop in 45 feet, under normal condition, when traveling at a speed of 20 miles per hour must be provided and kept in good working order at all times. Brakes must be tested daily.

Suitable horns are required. Sirens and unduly loud warning signals are prohibited. Reflectors or rear-view mirrors are also necessary. Violation of any of these safety measures subject the offender to a fine of from $200 to $1000 for each offense and imprisonment from 60 days to 6 months or both such fine and imprisonment.

limited to 7,000 pounds between two common carrier loading points is passed in the course of the trip. The load must not exceed a weight of more than 600 pounds per inch width of tire on any wheel. Affidavits as to the weight of the truck must be presented when the truck is registered. The weight shown by the affidavit is written on the license receipt and the receipt, or copy thereof, must be carried at all times while the vehicle is on the highway.

In case a State Highway Patrolman suspects a truck of being overloaded, he may weigh the vehicle or require it to be driven to the nearest scales if such scales are within two miles and if the load is overweight, the patrolman may require the driver to unload immediately such portion of the load as may be necessary to decrease the gross weight to the proper limit.

Only one trailer is permitted by law and it must come within the overall length of 45 feet for both truck and trailer. Special permits for the use of oversize equipment in hauling articles weighing more than 7,000 pounds which cannot reasonably be dismantled for hauling may be granted if the truck owner posts a bond to pay for damage to the highway.

How Cardui Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is not done well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting full value from the food you eat.

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be neglected.

Take Cardui to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength from the food you eat—to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up with the help of Cardui.

Quality and Service

Trucks of less than 6,000 pounds gross weight may operate at not to exceed 40 miles per hour. Trucks having a gross weight of more than 6,000 pounds are restricted to 25 miles per hour on the highways and 18 miles per hour in municipalities.

There are many other safety and protective measures including parking of motor vehicles on the main traveled portion of the highway. This is especially true in the country where there are hills. There are some instances where it becomes necessary for one to stop a motor vehicle where the shoulders of the road are not wide enough to clear the pavement. In parking your vehicle under these conditions, you should never stop on top of a hill. Of course, to the average motorist it would appear that this was the safest place for them to stop as they could see the traffic coming from both directions. However, ing each other and it becomes necessary for them to pass opposite the parked car one of them would be compelled to be on the wrong side of the road and neither would be visible to the other. Many accidents are caused from parking your automobile or truck on the top of a hill.

In rounding blind curves the utmost care should be used in keeping to the right as many accidents are caused from cutting corners or blind curves.

BRACE YOURSELF— IT'S COMING

Thelma Taylor
 Mr. Holt made several announcements to the High School pupils Monday morning, Jan. 2. If you will all get your brains to working you will all know what the first thing he said was. It was Mid-Term Exams of course. Every year about this time this term, the word exams sends a thrill of fear to the hearts of the E. H. S. students. According to Mr. Holt, there will be plenty of work to do this week and next week in order to keep up with the work and study for exams also.

Another announcement which was made was in reference to the Interscholastic League work. Mr. Holt says that a few of the pupils have already volunteered to take part in this work, which is an extraordinary thing in E. H. S.

The Eldorado High School was returned to the Southern Association List again this year without any comment which is in itself a great honor for our school. If there is any comment it is usually not a favorable one.

We quote Mr. Holt as saying that the students in this school and the teachers should all make resolutions to make 1933 a better year and a more successful one. To do this we must do our best and keep up with our work.

Harold Isaacs
 The Spanish Club met in regular session Tuesday January third. Margaret Sheen made a good talk on "La Lequeda de la Painsetta." This was followed by a discussion "El Doce de diciembre" by Willie Ruth Johnson.

The members of the club then played the Spanish Christmas of "La Pinata." The "pinata" is a far or doll suspended from the ceiling filled with candies and nuts. A student is blindfolded and given three chances to break the "pinata" with a stick. Finally one succeeds and the candy falls to the floor where there is a mad rush to see who can get the most. Spanish "gossip" was played after which the club was adjourned.

The Girls We Leave Behind
 You think the girls will love you
 When you come to E. H. S.
 But their love begins to wane,
 When you are far away from them.

They will write you for a while
 And then they will let you be.
 Yes, they will do you that way
 For they have done the same to me.

 We love them and we leave them
 When we come to E. H. S.
 And we know that it will grieve them
 But our ambition we cannot stem.

So the gang goes on without us
 And the girls we leave behind,
 Though we think they will not fail us,
 They prove to be that kind.

Although the interclass games are usually very slow this game was fast, the Juniors starting with a fash. They scored 3 points in the first second. They were contented with the 3 points for the half. The Seniors piled up 8 points in the first half and 8 in the last half. The game was slowed up somewhat because the field was wet.

—E.—H.—S.— REPORT OF WORK OF ENGLISH I CLASS

Louise Boyer
 The English I Class is now studying "Representative Short Stories" by Keary. The class enjoys these fairy and love stories. Miss Allen understands this kind of stories well and explains them very clearly.

We have finished studying "Julius Caesar" and "Lady of the Lake." Of course we enjoyed them.

—E.—H.—S.— GENERAL SCIENCE

The Science Class has a debate every Thursday, and the Thursday before school turned out for the holidays. Inez Marshall and Gussie Nolen debated against Louise Boyer and Cecil Moore on the subject "That the government should never cease to exercise control over the drug sent from one state to another." The affirmative won.

—E.—H.—S.— WHERE HIGH SCHOOL

TEACHERS SPENT THE VACATION

Most of the teachers spent their Christmas holidays out of town. Most of them visiting their homes.

Miss Turney went to San Angelo, Miss Meyer spent her vacation in Stamford, Mr. Kelley went to Plainview; Miss Allen went to Graham, Mr. Williamson went to Eastland, Mr. Smith went to Buda, and Mr. Holt spent his vacation in Eldorado. They all reported a good Christmas.

—E.—H.—S.— E. H. S. AGAIN PLACED ON SOUTHERN ASS'N LIST

Charles Ratliff
 A few days ago Mr. Holt received a letter from Mr. A. M. Blackman of Austin containing the information that Eldorado High School has been placed on the Southern Association List of accredited high schools. We are quoting the letter below:
 Dear M. Holt:
 I take pleasure in notifying you that at the recent meeting of the southern association in New Orleans your school was returned to the list without any unfavorable comment.

Very sincerely yours,
 A. M. Blackman,
 Chairman Texas Com.

—E.—H.—S.— WHERE E. H. S. STUDENTS SPENT HOLIDAYS

Mary Dell Williams
 Hollys Alexander visited with his parents who live near Fort Stockton.

Frances Mills spent part of the vacation near Bronte.

Loleete Andrews motored to Brady and spent a few days.

Thelma Taylor visited a week in San Angelo.

Ollie Ruth Newlin spent Christmas Day in Menard.

Harold Isaacs tells us he spent the holidays in San Angelo, Eldorado and Sonora.

J. R. Conner and Hassell Ratliff spent part of the holidays in San Angelo.

—E.—H.—S.— MID-TERM, JAN. 18, 19, 20

Fae Belle Enochs
 Mr. Holt announced Monday morning that the Mid-Term examinations would be postponed a week, and would be held Jan. 18, 19, and 20. This is a great advantage to the pupils as they will have a week longer to study for exams. The pupils will have a half a day for each subject. The examination schedule will be posted in a few days.

—E.—H.—S.— PERSONALS

Mr. Albert Williams and his honorable friend Fred Williams spent their holidays in Eldorado with Mr. and Mrs. George Williams. Albert brought his sisters and brothers to school Monday in the old Ford, which brought back many happy memories to our minds.

Mr. Conn Isaacs who has been in Dallas for about two months has had a slight touch of the flu but he is now feeling fine again. You can't keep Conn still no matter what is the matter.

James Williamson is attending the Amarillo Junior College at Amarillo. He worked during the holidays and spent his time there.

Luther Parker reports that he is doing well in his work at San Antonio and is enjoying himself to the limit.

Miss Grace Ratliff, one of those dignified Seniors of 1931-32, visited the Senior English Class the Monday that school let out for the holidays. We were pleased to have her so that we could show how much the Seniors of this year have improved over those of last year.

Misses Lena and Lelia Parker were at home during the holidays. Where you saw Lena, you saw Lelia and Grace, that everlasting trio.

—E.—H.—S.— NEW YEAR RESOLUTION

Hollys Alexander
 Now that 1933 has arrived everyone should make a few new resolutions. Resolutions can be new plans. All of the farmers and ranchers are making new plans for the coming year. The High School students should do the same. Every student could do better in his school work this year than he did in 1932. Some students have already made resolutions this year. Some of the students have volunteered to take part in the league work this year.

The students can resolve to get off the failing list, to get on the highest 20 per cent list.

The school should resolve to do better in the Interscholastic League than they have ever done before.

The Fish have resolved to become Sophomores because they are tired of being called Stimes.

The Sophomores have resolved to be Juniors so they will be more grown up.

The Juniors have resolved to become Seniors so they will be dignified.

The Seniors have all resolved not have to go to school any more.

—E.—H.—S.— REVIEW OF 1932 IN E. H. S.

NO CHANCE FOR REPEAL

(Dallas Morning News)

In 1928, Alfred E. Smith, the Democratic standard bearer, repudiated the platform and bolted the party. He ignored the stalwart Democrats and went to a Republican club in Philadelphia and selected John Jacob Raskob as chairman of the national executive committee. His friend John Raskob was quoted as stating he would accept for the purpose of ridding our country of the damnable affliction of prohibition.

About this time another multi-millionaire, Mr. DuPont of war material fame was quoted as saying, "If our Government would repeal the Eighteenth Amendment and establish a liquor system similar to that of Canada, it would not be long until enough revenue could be collected to support the Government; the income tax could be repealed and my family would save $5,000,000 each year." This explains why these multi-millionaires are contributing so many thousands of dollars each year to rid our country of this damnable affliction, in supporting the Association Opposed to the Eighteenth Amendment.

It also explains the source of the propaganda that has flooded our country the last four years. It has changed the Democratic party that took the lead fifteen years ago to banish the legalized liquor traffic to be the liquor party as previously claimed by Smith. It is no wonder that it was written: "The love of money is the root of all evil," when men are willing to debauch a whole Nation to re-establish the greatest evil that has ever afflicted mankind in order to save paying an income tax.

It is no surprise it was also written "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God." The great party that for more than 100 years championed the cause of human rights, by changing leadership from Bryan and Wilson to Smith and Raskob, is now championing the cause of the greatest enemy of mankind. This is now being made manifest every day in Congress as it is doing the will of the liquor forces which have it by the throat. While the starving more than 10,000,000 unemployed are crying for bread they are trying to substitute beer. In order to balance the budget they are willing to unbalance the manhood of our Nation. This great apostasy of the Democratic party was caused by the Association Against the Eighteenth Amendment, culminating at Chicago, where even the Texas delegation violated their instructions and betrayed their trust by voting for repeal. This great change in the policy of the party was wrought by less than 10 per cent of the party participating in the May presidential primary conventions, yet the 100 per cent were commanded to "Vote'er Straight" or be ostracized.

Alcohol is a poison, it kills all things alive, and preserves all things dead. The more a beverage contains the worse it is for the drinker.

Beer as a food product is a great fraud. A German chemist has estimated that it takes 73 gallons of beer to equal in food value one loaf of bread.

It will take a great many barrels to save the hungry millions from starving. Beer by Christmas was a joke. Beer by Easter will be a joker. "Man proposes, but God disposes." To associate the return of beer and the legalized liquor traffic with the coming and resurrection of the Savior of the World is blasphemy. It is also blasphemy to charge that Jesus Christ made intoxicating wine. We are warned to "Look not on the wine when it is red and giveth his color in the cup, for at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder." We are admonished to give strong drink to him if heavy perish, and to him if heavy heart and often infirmities. All this is provided for in the Eighteenth Amendment. It is a slander of the Word of God to charge it approves of intoxicating drinks as a beverage and one will not be held guiltless that does so.

buy. He's come down to earth. These are the "healthful breezes" of depression. The decks have been cleared for action, and the way to recovery is open.

As for the problems of depression, they are still vital and intense. Writing in the Yale Review, Sir Arthur Salter observed that 1933 will be one of the most crucial years in modern history.

The pressing and increasing weight of taxation stifles the capital (industry) of the world, creating unemployment and preventing industrial expansion and the further investment of money.

The budren of armaments, with their drain on national incomes and their constant threat to world peace, grows greater. In every important country the cost of wars, past, present and future, is the major item in the national budget.

The question of foreign trade looms large on the economic horizon. In normal times, foreign sales amount to ten per cent of the gross in this country—and ten per cent is the margin between profit and loss in the average business. Today foreign trade is almost non-existent, due largely to a new and intense spirit of economic nationalism which finds its expression in tariff wars and embargoes. Almost every economist of distinction, here and abroad, stresses the need for revitalizing foreign trade as a factor in the work of recovery. Tied up with this is the problem of silver, which affects the purchasing power of half the world's people. When silver is depressed, as at present, the silver standard countries are unable to buy in the gold standard markets.

The picture at home is undoubtedly more encouraging than the world picture. We have the finest industrial organism in existence—we have the factories and the machines and the farms that are adequate to our needs. Our utilities, our railroads, our oil companies, our insurance institutions, are the harbingers of American progress. They represent honest national assets, as against the fictitious assets we counted on in the boom days. Because the machinery of distribution has slowed, it does not mean that the machinery of production is lacking or faulty.

Our greatest single problem is unemployment. Ten million of our working population is at present out of a job, and its buying has come to a stop. Much of this unemployment is temporary—part of it is the result of machine displacement of labor. Today the foremost industrialists are working toward plans to shorten the working day and the working week, and to provide some means of unemployment insurance that will assure the able and willing worker a livelihood in bad times as well as good. It is difficult to believe that their efforts will end in failure. The weight of taxation, which forces retrenchment, is preventing the employment of many of those now seeking jobs.

This is America at the opening of 1933—a vast and incalculably rich land, which is gradually emerging from depression and entering a new era. It is still a land of promise, as it was in the days of the Argonauts. It has lost nothing that it really possessed. Its earth is still fruitful, its mines are still filled with metals, its factories are ready to make the necessities and luxuries its people want. Its people are courageous, and they still have faith. Its leaders retain those vital store the legalized liquor traffic that is the most corrupting influence of Government ever known to mankind, have cried so long for "Beer" they have awakened the great sleeping giant—the army of the living God, who is now buckling on its armor and the Eighteenth Amendment will never be repealed. I know of no greater truth than in the words of one of the great ambassadors of God, Dr. George W. Truett, when he said: "There is nothing politically right, that is morally wrong."

May the God of the Universe lead our great Nation along the highway of holiness, and not permit the devil to direct us in the way that leadeth to destruction. P. L. A. JEFFERS.

CLYDA PRUITT MAKES A'S AT BAYLOR

Gordon Williamson
Mr. Holt received a letter from Baylor College at Belton, Texas containing the grades of Clyda Pruitt, a graduate of E. H. S. in 1932. She made the following grades in Baylor College during the fall term of 1932-33:

Education 101—A-
History 101—A-
Spanish 201—A-
Phys. Ed. Ercused.

In addition of giving Clyda's grades, the letter also gave the purpose of Baylor College in sending them. To quote from the letter:

"We were sure that you would want this information so that you might check up on the work which is being done by graduates of your school. It is our desire to keep all superintendents informed as to these grades and hope that you will cooperate with us in getting students, especially freshmen, to do the highest possible type of work." Clyda was one of the best student in Eldorado High School last year, ranking second to Bernice Bricker in the Senior Class. We are very glad to hear that Clyda is succeeding in College as well as she did in high school.

A call meeting of the P. T. A. was held in the School Auditorium at 4 P. M. for the purpose of electing a president and to make arrangements for raising money for the association.

Mrs. R. D. Holt was nominated for president and was elected by a unanimous vote.

A motion was made and duly carried that the Finance Committee be instructed to make plans for raising money and to report these plans at the next regular meeting which will be January 17.

The new president took the chair and made a short talk on P. T. A. work and ask for the support and cooperation of the P. T. A.

Mr. Holt reports that the stove for the bath house had been installed an expressed the boys appreciation for this help from the P. T. A.

The Treasurer made a report on the finances of the organization which was accepted. The business at hand being over we adjourned.

qualities—intelligence and vision. America will pull out of the depression—and, from the lessons that depression has taught, it may find a means of preventing both extreme rises and extreme drops in the economic and social cycle, and of creating genuine, permanent and sound prosperity.

Let the people curb the tax bill and the first great step will be taken toward industrial recovery and employment.
