Demonstration In Canning Meats Held This Week

Miss Sallie Hill and Roy Snider of College Station, meat specialists, were here this week working with the local County Agent, L. E. Sumner, in demonstrating how to can and cure meats. They held one day in Eldorado, one day at Forrest Runge ranch and one day at Bailey Ranch.

A SPECIAL NOTICE

To each of my customers who owe me, whatever the amount of the account, please turn in a payment on same, and oblige.

Eldorado Wins Two Games Sunday

The Eldorado Independent Baseball club played a double header Sunday afternoon. They defeated the Sherwood Club 4 to 3 in a ten inning game. The extra inning had to be played to decide the game.

When this game was over they defeated a team from San Angelo 14 to 0. This was rather a one sided game. The home team seems to be playing good ball this season.

Notice

The Schleicher County Commissioners Court will consider the purchasing of 20 tons of coal at the regular meeting in June, being the 13th day of June. The court will reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Eastland Oil Co., Joe Tisdale No. 1 Active Again

The Eastland Oil Co. and others, Joe Tisdale No. 1, about eight miles northeast of Eldorado, is at work again fishing for tools in the hole, lost over a month ago. The hole had reached a depth of 5,410 feet when they lost a string of tools about April 6. Then later lost a string of fishing tools. It is good to see these oil tests back at active work again. The Tisdale well was drilling in June when they lost the tools. They had encountered some gas before losing the tools.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Martin and family were among the ranch people that transacted business in the city Saturday.

West Texas To Celebrate At Camp Allison, June 28-29

PLANS BARBECUE, POLITICAL RALLY, DANCES ARE BEING MADE

West Texas will celebrate at Camp Allison, under the shade of the giant pecans along the North Llano for two whole days June 28 and 29, according to plans now being worked out.

A program promising entertainment for everyone, and including ball games, a free barbecue on the 29th, dances both nights, swimming, boating, political speeches and band music is being planned.

Alfred Schwiening is in charge of arrangements for the celebration, and is getting ready for a capacity crowd. Plans have been made to feed all who come on the final day, with carefully barbecued beef, mutton, and chevon, with all of the necessary accessories.

Final arrangements are yet to be completed. Ball games will be matched for the two afternoons, and a good orchestra will be booked for the two dances. Cold drink stands, food stands and novelty concessions will be operated.

Music during the final day will be furnished by the Sonora high school orchestra, directed by Henri Rogers. The Junction band will be invited to play during the time, also.

Sonora business houses will close for the final day, and virtually every man, woman and child in Sutton county is expected to attend the get-together.

Political speakers will include all candidates for county office who care to address the crowds of voters, as well as a number of candidates for district and state offices.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to the solicitation and advice of many friends, I have decided to change my candidacy from that of County Clerk to County Judge and County Superintendent.

My qualifications for this office, due to my legal education, are even better than for the former office.

I hereby solicit the support of the Schleicher County voters in the July 23rd primary.

Johnnie Reynolds Dies From Injuries

Johnnie Reynolds died Friday morning at a San Angelo Hospital while being administered antethetic for an operation. His horse fell with him Monday while roping a steer to doctor. Annual Banquet Of Lions Most Enjoyable Occasion

The Eldorado Lions Club held its annual banquet Thursday night, entertaining their wives and friends.

The meeting was held in the basement of the First Baptist Church and a room was prepared for the guest to register as they came in, and much amusement was had as they tried to write their names with a rubber pencil. After all had registered, they were invited into the dining room where each guest had a plate with his name on it. After being placed, a cap for each guest was furnished which had to be worn throughout the entertainment. Then the fun started and for two hours a dinner consisting of three courses was served mingled throughout with all kinds of jokes for laughter was pulled. For instance, our friend, John Rae, who had just as soon joke as to eat, was enjoying his cocktail when his glass and plate began to act queer and move about. After it jumped up and down for a while Mr. Rae tried to quiet it, but the darn thing just kept up its fun for some time. Then there was our good natured Frank Bradley, his glass filled with sparkling water had several holes in it when he tried to drink it missed his mouth. Things to peep in that left smut on your eye was passed and all who peeped had smutty eyebrows. Then came our friend Jarvis for his trouble. After he had eaten most of his cocktail he discovered a huge fly in it, which looked rather disgusting but turned out well for a good laugh. The quartet consisting of F. M. Bradley, J. H. Jarvis, W. T. Whitten and Sam Loyd was entertainment and well rendered. Misses Vivian Reagan and Lucile McWhorter rendered some excellent music and readings.

The luncheon was prepared by the ladies of the First Methodist Church and met with the approval of the entire Club. The tables being beautifully decorated; with six young ladies to wait on the tables.

The luncheon was entirely a home affair gotten up by the Lions Club for real entertainment, and you only have to ask those that were present to know that the occasion was a grand success. At the conclusion of the fun program the outgoing president made an appreciated talk complimenting his past officers for their splendid cooperation in the past and introducing the incoming officers for the new year.

Station A Defeats Station B In Tuesday's Game

The Editor attended the baseball game between Station A and Station B of the Humble pipe line, Tuesday at Station A. Quite a large crowd attended the game and witnessed the walloping that A gave B. The game ended with Station A the victors, the score being 7 to 10, with Station A not using the last half of the 9th.

After the ball game supper was spread at the school house and a table loaded with everything good to eat, was needing relief and a bunch of rooters and visitors were ready to unload the table. One only has to be present at one of the Station gatherings to feel the generosity that prevails among them and for visitors.

Miller - Armstrong

Mr. Hollis Miller, formerly of the West Texas Lumber Company, of our city, but now of San Angelo, and Miss Frances Armstrong, of Brady, were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Brady, Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

The bride is well known here having taught school here for the past three terms. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Armstrong, of Brady, and has a host of friends at home and in Eldorado that wish her well.

Mr. Miller is an excellent young man of sterling character well known and well liked in our city. At present he is with the Board of Merchants Trade at San Angelo.

The many friends of the contracting parties of our city join in extending congratulations and best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were here Wednesday, came back for the remainder of their household goods. They were accompanied by their son Fred, who has just finished his freshman year at Texas Tech. Fred is one of our 1931 graduates and has made good in his college work. Snow Cone says Fred and his mother will have charge of their business at Sheffield. The Success wishes them well.

J. Tom Williams was in from the ranch Saturday on business.

JUNE 10, 1932

The time has arrived when it is not even safe to bootleg in an airplane. One captured in San Angelo last week, and one in San Antonio this week. Every thing that flies high has to come down somewhere and sometime, even to high flying politicians.

Subscribe for The Success at $1.00 from now until July 1, 1933

On July 1, this year, we will mail every family and others in the county a copy of The Success. It will be the closing issue of our 26 years in business. We trust our business people will at least have a nice advertisement for this special issue. If you want to reach all the people, place an ad in this special edition. We bought the Eldorado paper July 1, 1906, and we are contemplating a little extra July 1, 1932.

Two young Garner-for-President boosters from Port Isabel, Texas, have saddled a mule and started for Chicago to attend the Democratic Convention. They take it time-about, in riding. They are positive they will reach the Convention City by the date set for the convention. They carry a large display card on the side of the mule, "Garner for President."

If Congress had never met this year the budget would have probably been balanced in saying, but the painful thing is over this week and the work has been done whether you like it or not.

Governor Sterling has lost most of his private fortune, during the first two years of his office. He evidently did not graft much off of the State or he would not have lost his private fortune. But it is like the Governor said, "Others men have lost theirs."

And now comes John D. Rockefeller Jr., out against prohibition. That's nothing, we have better men than Rockefeller in Schleicher County that have been that way all the time. Why worry about what John D. thinks. Carrie Nations said in the past, "the nations must abolish liquor," and Carrie won her point. Rockefeller is just another one of those New Yorkers, who, when they want another million, just advance oil one cent per gallon. There may be some doubt as to his views on prohibition, but no one will doubt the fact that he raises his oil when in need.

The Sheriff of New York was thrown out of office for having oodles of money he could not account for. Now it has developed that Mayor Walker has a bulging out bank account, made hundreds of thousands dollars without even having an investment, and he too will likely have to be ousted. Then comes our Democratic leader, John J. Rasco, a wart we let the Republicans dump off on us, facing accusations that are most shameful. Yet some people want to elect a President dictated by those fellows.

The Success would like to see a good road to Station A. A road bed should be designated as a public road and some work done on it to make it an all weather road. It would not take a great deal of work to make a good road from the Eldorado-Ozona road to the Station. Station A is quite an asset to Eldorado and Schleicher County, and our Commissioners Court should secure a public road to the Station and to the Old Spanish Trail, that leads to Ozona, as it now is we have no road to Ozona only by Sonora. Station A and that portion of Schleicher county is entitled to a public road.

FAITH

Now Faith is the substance of things hoped for the evidence of things not seen. Heb. 11-1.

Tis the sunset of life gives us mystical lore
 And coming events cast their shadows before.

As I approach the sunset of life, I become increasingly thankful for the anchorage of faith and for that sharpening of foresight, which is its legitimate heritage. Without faith the individual is like a boat adrift on the open sea, without compass or rudder. He is at the mercy of every bagrant breeze. There is no shore in sight, no bottom he can touch and no ceiling he can reach. As a consequence he drifts about aimlessly, until a sudden storm engulfs his frail bark. He never knew from the port he started, never had an objective port in view. He simply drifted the plaything of chance until he ends finally drawn down into the whirlpool of death.

The man of faith knows whence he came and whither he is going for God has told him and he believes God.

We hear much about the achievements of science and this scribe is grateful for all that science has discovered. I believe that every advance of sciences thins the wall that lies between the material and the spiritual, and someday, we hope science will break through to the truth. But for the present she has gotten nowhere, so far as the ultimate is concerned. Every now and then she will come out with a claim to have achieved absolute truth in some realm of knowledge only to have her whole house of cards collapsed by the discovery of some new fact. In the meanwhile, the man of faith, has gone to God for his philosophy of life, so never has he revise his plans. He came from God and his eternal home. He is on his way back to God and that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. And nothing is left to chance. He has a compass that never varies and a Pilot that knows the course perfectly.

In the meantime, between what God has revealed to us of destiny and the progress science has made, there is still a great gulf un-crossable from the human side, a vast unexplored wilderness that no man can hope to find his way through without divine guidance.

The soul of the man of faith is a compass that feels the magnetic attraction of heaven, as the needle feels the attraction of the north pole. If he relies on his compass he cannot go astray.

Tho from out this bourne of time and place
 I may have drifted far
 I hope to meet my pilot face to face

When I have crossed the bar.

TURKEY PROFIT IN McCULLOCH IS $4.70 AVERAGE PER HEN

BRADY, June 4.—An average revenue of $4.70 per hen was realized by a group of McCulloch county turkey raisers on the sale of turkey eggs during the past three months.

A total of 21,310 turkey eggs were shipped by these breeders through the Brady Cooperative Poultry Association under the direction of County Agent J. D. Prewit. Shipments were made to various parts of Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Iowa, New Mexico, Kentucky and other states. The highest net average revenue per hen was made by Tom Bradley, Fife farmer, who had a flock of 30 laying hens. This flock netted its owner $181.56 or $6.05 per hen on 1105 eggs. In addition to the eggs sold, Bradley retained 200 eggs for setting purposes.

The largest individual shipper in the local association was August Kothman of Mason county who sold 3,100 eggs at $478.21.

The total amount of eggs sold by the Brady turkey growers was $3,831.51. These eggs were produced by 800 hens.

The association intends to keep 4,000 hens next year for commercial egg production, Prewit states, since they were unable to supply the demand this year. They had requests for several hundred thousand eggs.

TO BORROWERS From The Federal Land Bank Of Houston

Do not be misled by suggestions of securing extension of payments if it is at all possible to pay when due. Thereby lies danger and a great hazard of losing your land and home. Accumulated installments, interest and taxes make it more difficult to pay and increase the probability of losing your home.

In the beginning the system had many enemies. It is fundamentally sound, and its service provides great economies and cash saving to the borrowers. It has resisted attacks from without, and only its members can destroy it by failure to support it. The low price level of all agricultural products at this time has very materially limited the profits from the farm with corresponding decrease in value of farms, but farm values have shrunk less in the last two years than most stocks and bonds and other forms of investments. Hold on to your lands and homes. It will cost you more to reacquire them. Such chapters of depression and economic distress are not new. The older people have seen them before. By the verdict of universal history, "This too will pass," and when we reach rising ground we will be wiser and stronger than before.

These are times that measure men, that test the purpose and ability of farmers to sustain their own economic cooperative Federal Land Bank system, which has proved its great value to agriculture in comparison with any and all other systems of financing the acquisition of farm homes. When crops and prices are average to fair, it is easy to pay the 3-1-4 per cent semiannually on the amount of the loan, and thus pay principal and interest, as against the average 8 and 10 per cent annually in interest alone on farm loan indebtedness, before the Federal Land Bank set the pace in low interest loans.

The system is cooperative. The stock of each member of an association is security not only for his loan, but also for all the loans in the association. The association endorses and is liable for all loans made through it. If a member fails to pay, it increases the financial burden of the other members. This mutual teamwork is the explanation of the saving of more than $5,000,000 per annum, which is equivalent to a large dividend on your association stock, and is the reason for low interest and long maturities. We have rendered a total service to Texas farmers of $212,000,000 to 69,000 borrowers—net loans on books today $156,000,000 to 58,000 borrowers. If the system fails for lack of support by its beneficiaries, there will return the old system of 8 and 10 per cent five-year loans.

When loans have broken down and borrowers have quit, then the associations and the bank have no option but to foreclose. The bank and associations now own 566 farms. Ask your secretary-treasurer if your association owns a farm, and assist in selling to one who will carry on. Town and city dwellers who have not accumulated substantial reserve are in as great or greater distress at this time than the farmers. They constitute a majority of those who are purchasing our foreclosed farms. Up to two years ago when the great body of borrowers were meeting their payments promptly, liberal dividends were paid to associations. But in this period of stress, sound administration requires the building up of strong reserves to offset losses.

We confidently expect Texas farmers will continue to meet their payments and thus maintain the creditable record of the past.

TOM F. HUNTER OPPOSES STATE HIGHWAY ROAD BOND ISSUE

"A recent check-up in Uvalde County shows that the highway department has in its employ there 258 workmen and 106 bosses," states Tom F. Hunter, candidate for Governor of Texas, who speaks at San Angelo, June 4, in the Courthouse, at 8:00 o'clock P. M.

Mr. Hunter was speaking of the waste to be found in the highway department of the state where it takes 60 cents of the state funds to get 40 cents into the road beds of Texas. He said that out of an expenditure of more than $80,000,000 in the past two years, more than $40,000,000 of that sum did not actually get into the roads of this state.

"I am unalterably opposed to a state highway road bond issue," he said. "When you take from the hands of the people the right to say when they shall or shall not be bonded, and place that authority in official Austin, you commit your state to bankruptcy and your posterity to servitude. It is not fair to tax real estate, either farm or city, for the construction and maintenance of roads. One cent of the present gasoline tax, if used for that purpose, would be sufficient to retire the road bonds of every county in Texas."

The West Texas Utilities Company strives constantly to provide electric service more economically. That's one reason why your electricity is so inexpensive today.

There is another reason. With the rate schedule arranged so that the unit price is less with each additional use, our customers have reduced their own average rates by applying electricity to more and more of their household tasks.

This working arrangement between customer and company makes electric service constantly more useful and constantly lower in cost. As you make fuller use of the service, your rate is always going down.

W. T. C. C. SPONSORING BUDGET INSTITUTE ON PUBLIC EXPENDITURES

Lubbock Meeting Plans Announced By Hawk After Parley

Plans for a Budget-Making Institute, to be held in Lubbock during the last week of this month, were announced here yesterday by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce through its president, Wilbur C. Hawk.

The Institute will be conducted for the benefit of public expenditure committees in all towns affiliated with the organization.

"We have the organization machinery set up to accomplish great results in public expenditure reductions and the object of this institute is to put the machinery in motion effectively," Mr. Hawk said.

Necessity Stressed

As president of the organization, Mr. Hawk outlined recently the year's policy, stressing the necessity for cuts in public expenditures and other objectives.

Public expenditure committees already have been formed in 82 of the 117 towns affiliated with the organization.

"The Institute will give these committees definite information on making city, school and county budgets," Mr. Hawk said. "Every detail connected with budget-making will be explained thoroughly and after the institute each committee will be able to actually do a budget-making job."

Bandein, Hopkins Here

The Institute announcement followed a conference here of the president with D. A. Bandein of Stamford, general manager of the organization, and his assistant, Maury Hopkins.

At the conference, Mr. Hawk outlined the committee work for the coming year. The president announced creation of 18 committees and assignment of 45 objectives.

With reference to the public expenditure work, Mr. Hawk, in addressing the executive board and directors, said:

"Our problem is one of giving to our committees already created definite and specific assistance in the work of preparing and adopting the local budgets and in addition, to getting every one of our 117 affiliated towns to create these committees.

"At the close of my year, I hope to have on file copy or every city, county and school budget made in accordance with a definite form and adopted by the properly constituted authorities after a thorough review and public hearing before taxpayers."

The public expenditure committee objectives are divided by the president as follows:

"To sponsor and urge in all affiliated communities the creation of a public expenditure committee, dedicated to preparation of local governmental budgets and affiliated with the central committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in working on state and federal problems.

Plan State Organization

"It shall be the duty of the central committee to outline to the local committees a definite budget procedure and give to the local committees every possible staff and clerical assistance in preparation of data for local budgets and it is recommended that the central committee conduct an institute on budget making to which each local committee may send its secretary.

"To develop a state-wide organization on the reduction of public expenditures.

"To memorialize the Texas Legislature and the United States Congress to reduce public expenditures rather than impose new taxes.

Back Home Rule Plan

"Work to secure more economical form of county government as may be provided for in the enactment of a home rule measure for county government.

"Work for reorganization of the state administrative machinery providing same will save at least a million and a half dollars annually.

"Work for the reorganization of the judiciary providing same will save $500,000 annually.

"To sponsor more orderly auditing and tax collection procedure."

Other Aims Given

Besides the reduction of public expenditures, three other chief aims were outlined again in the president's recommendations to committees.

These other principal objectives are beautification, industrial development and breeder-feeder work.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce expects to announce rules soon for an inter-community beautification contest, it was explained after the conference.

Advertise Texas Meat

Award to the winning town in the beautification contest will be made at the organization's annual convention.

The livestock committee is urged by the president to publicize Sun-Grown Texas Meat, trademark developed by the organization.

Recommendations to the industrial committee include employment of a woman organizer whose services will be available in all towns to organize women behind the "Buy-at-home" movement and to stage Manufacturer's Show in each town.

Bill Douglas is at home this week from Ft. Sam Houston, visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Douglas.

GUEST DAY PROGRAM WELL ATTENDED

The Guest Day Program which was given Wednesday June 8, by the Womans Missionary Society, at the Methodist Church, was well attended and enjoyed by all. Mrs. J. D. McWhorter gave the welcome address followed by an impressive talk by the president, Mrs. W. E. Cloud. Several musical numbers were rendered. Refreshments, consisting of Ice Cream and Cake, were served to a number of fifty, including members and guests.

Several new members were enlisted in the society.

Paul Goodyear, formerly with the Leaman's Store, was visiting and meeting friends here Thursday.

D. L. Kimball and wife were shopping and visiting in the city Wednesday from Station A.

Miss Estelle Johnson is home from Waco, where she has been attending Baylor University. She will spend the summer in Eldorado.
