Eldorado Rodeo Draws Large Crowd

Events Full of Old Time Enthusiasm

The Eldorado Rodeo that was staged last Thursday under the supervision of The Eldorado Lions Club was one of the best ever staged in Eldorado, and drew a crowd of some 3,000 people from over West Texas. The gates were opened early in the morning and people began to come and by ten o'clock a large crowd was milling on the grounds and went into the Grandstand to witness the first event of the day, a baseball game between the Mose Simms team of Abilene and the Merton club. Buck Bailey was in the box for the Abilene club and pitched a good game, if he is not a baseball pitcher, winning the game 7 to 3.

The Management then announced that dinner would be served free and the work of feeding the multitude began at 11:30 and the crowd passed through the exhibit hall where they received plates loaded with barbecue, bread and pickles, then they passed out of the hall where they were served drinks of their choice and stew and beans at the pit. In all, about 80 goats and sheep and some beef were served the crowd, and by 1:30 the people had all been fed, although those working at the tables knew that they had had an hour of strenuous work, but food was left.

The afternoon program was begun at 2:00 o'clock and from then until 5:30 there was just one thrill after another, until the program ended.

Bronc riders of note participated in this event and the Don McCormick outlaws showed their stuff. Louis Cravy of the Chisos Mountains south of Alpine, and A. C. Wike of San Angelo tied for first money, and John Downs of Abilene was third. The McCormick outlaws have made several towns in this section this spring and some of the riders are getting acquainted. In Cravy mount, this is the third time in four draws that he has drawn Yellow Fever for the exhibition and he is a tough one. He once had this horse in his mount on the Marvin Hall ranch near San Angelo.

Racing Events

The first race was a three-eighth mile race with six entries. First was won by "Round the World" owned by Buddy Henderson; second by "Ticky Jim" owned by Billy Stewardson; third was won by "Rim Rock" owned by Sam Roberts.

The second race, which was 3-16 mile, also had six entries. First in this race was "Hill Top" owned by K. C. Wallace; second was "Fortuna", owned by Williams of Wall; third was "Jack Spratt", owned by Capt. H. W. Reick of Roosevelt.

The third race, for 1-4 mile, had seven entries. First in this race was "Red Bird" owned by Guy Bodine; second was "Blue Bonnet" owned by Morris Whit ten and third was "Juanita" owned by Billy Stewardson.

Fourth race for 3-8 mile dash free for all, with four entries was lead by "Black Bear" owned by Sam Roberts; Colleen Moore of the K. C. Wallace stable was second being several feet behind Black Bear and Fortuna owned by Williams of Wall, finished third.

The Shetland Pony race was won by Gene Koy first, Pancho Bradley second and Gerald Nicks third.

The race track was favored with 21 race horses besides the shetland pony race.

There were 19 entries in the calf roping in which the sensational time of 17.2 seconds was made by Allen Holder, master roper of Rankin. Holder was fined 10 seconds for striking the barrier as he came out of the alley, there was some argument but the decision stood. His time was entered 27.2.

Calf Roping Winner

Winners in the calf roping were Bill Eaton of Jal. N. M., 19.2 seconds; Howard Westfall

Lions Club Lunched Wednesday

The Eldorado Lions Club lunched Wednesday at the Elco Hotel in regular luncheon. The Barbecue Committee reported that the Barbecue was successful in every way and more especially on the financial lines.

In the absence of President Lion Holt, and Vice-president Lion Jarvis, the meeting was presided over by W. N. Ramsay, and the various committees reporting.

The Boy Scout committee reported that the work on the Scout Hut was progressing nicely and probably would be finished this week or early next week.

The Lions voted a card of thanks to the public for its splendid co-operation in making the day a grand success and voted to publish it in The Success this week.

of Fort Stockton, 23.3 seconds; Andrew Bode, 24 seconds; Homer Wood, Mertz, 24 seconds. Only four of the 19 entries failed to catch their heifer calves, and those who were beating the customary dollar that against the men catching lost like bulls in a bear market or the public in any sort of market. The time for the other boys follows: Curtis McElroy of Toyah, 28.6; Pecos Pete Meador; J. C. Crosby, 31.6; Elmer Jones, Midland, missed; Sam Mather 37.8; Jack Sellers Del Rio, missed; Bill Nix, Rankin, 46; Tom Taylor, Cline, 30; S. S. Shanklin, Rock Springs, no time; Less Smith, Comstock, no time; Allen Holder, Rankin, 27.2; John Brown, Rocksprings, 25.6; O. L. McNealy, Rocksprings, missed.

One of the prettiest working horses in the group of 55 that pranced in the infield in front of the grandstand, was that of Howard Westfall of Fort Stockton. This horse came up to the calf fast, then slowed its pace to that of the catch and aided its rider in every way.

John Brown of Rocksprings took the bell calf roping. S. S. Shanklin won the wild cow milking in 28.8 seconds. Elmer Jones of Midland was second in 30; Tom Taylor of Cline, third, in 31.4.

Henry Speck Wins Match
Henry Speck and Jess Koy in their private roping duel for a purse of $50, kept the crowd entertained for a good 30 or 40 minutes and brought the realization to many that after youth has departed the will may be there but the skill of the man of 20 is lacking in those of 40, more especially if there is a slight waistline bulge and a graining of the scales when they weigh.

Mr. Speck, riding a dark horse to match his sombre shirt and trousers, won with 137.8 seconds against 151.8 seconds for Mr. Koy.

Mr. Koy opened the contest, caught his calf and when he got out to tie it, it moved away; he got after him again and it ran through the fence. That calf did not count for they had a rule that any calf going through the fence would not be included. His second calf split a palming from the race track and broke out. Mr. Koy's hat blew off this time and he tried the rest of them bareheaded. The third calf yielded to persuasion in one minute, 8.6 seconds. Later he marked up times of 42.6 and 40.4 seconds. Mr. Koy had been the favorite, he had the fastest horse, and tied faster than Mr. Speck.

Mr. Speck ran his first calf to the safety of the race track; his second succumbed as the timekeepers scored 35.2; his third went in 1 minute, five seconds; the fourth crashed the fence to liberty; his fifth went under in 38.6 seconds. After the win, Mr. Speck rode in front of the grandstand to the cheers of the thousands. Mr. Koy had been the favorite betting. There were also cheers for Mr. Koy. The winner of the match, Mr. Koy said, prior to the event, planned to challenge Judge

A. K. Bailey To Attend Old Settlers Reunion

About thirty three years ago, Mr. A. K. Bailey came to Schleicher County from San Saba, along with many other citizens of this county, and filed on some school land in the Old Vermont Pasture. He still owns that ranch but at the present lives in Eldorado. He is now 83 years old and believes he is old enough to attend the Old Settlers Reunion in his old home County, San Saba, and is making plans to attend when the time approaches. He was down town Monday and told us confidentially that if Buckner's Fairweather Friends did not interfere he would get off. Mr. Bailey enjoys listening to Amos and Andy over the radio and gets the Fair Weather Friends saying from Andy. Buckner, a son of Mr. Bailey who is here from Washington State University for the vacation, has promised to take his father to the Old Settlers Reunion, and we believe the trip will be made.

Mr. Bailey lived in San Saba in the days of its wildest career and can tell many interesting things that happened while a citizen and officer of that county. He has had the pleasure of having most of his children visit him this year and enjoys attending a baseball game in which his two sons, T. J. and Buik, plays.

In case he gets off to San Saba, we are asking the "Uncle" Billy Smith of the San Saba News keep him on the path of Righteousness while in the Old Home Town. If possible, we will make him leave his Old Six-Shooter at home.

Montgomery of Ozona to a roping duel.

The bronc riding and roping has several of West Texas favorite stars to participate in the days events. All who attended expressed praise for the days program and the nice manner in which it was handled.

Payne Bailey, one of the Schleicher County men who was to take part in the cow milking, received a broken leg when he jumped from his horse in practicing, and the horse on which Judd Brannon was riding fell and Mr. Brannon was mashed under the horse, not serious but made him pretty sore after the day was passed.

Judges for the Events
Judges for the Bronc riding were Louis Jones of Christoval, Sheriff O. E. Conner and Judd Brannon.

Judges for the races were J. W. Lawhon Jr., Ed Willoughby, and J. E. Hill. The starter for the races was Ed Ratliff, with Ray Willoughby serving as foul judge. John Highsmith was the man with the whistle to start the events emerging from the chute. Shorty Pointer and R. J. Page served as pick-up men. Cecil McClatchey on the long-eared-pony was the official announcer. Time keepers were O. B. Page and M. M. Stokes. Mr. Stokes was from Sonora. Judge F. M. Bradley was the racing director.

Other Amusements
On the grounds for the day in other amusements were Hobby Horse riding for the children; all kinds of Carnival attractions consisting of gave of chance, the Parent Teachers Association sold pies, in fact the day was well spent by all who chanced to be here.

At the Rock Filling Station in the evening those who wanted to dance had the pleasure of dancing to the splendid music from the V. Lloyd Hanson Orchestra, beginning at 9:30 and running until after midnight. The entire days program was under the management of the Eldorado Lions Club, who is headed by R. D. Helt, President, J. H. Jarvis, Vice-president and W. N. Ramsay, Secretary. The Lions guaranteed the expenses of the program, and only made a very small admission of 25c and 50c for the days program, including the big free dinner.

Senator Sheppard To Speak At San Angelo August 18th

The Prohibition forces of Texas are sponsoring a speaking campaign through out Texas during the remainder of the time between now and August 26th, and it is now given out that Senator Morris Sheppard will speak in San Angelo on Friday night August 18th. Senator Sheppard is the Author of the 18th amendment and a forceable speaker and it will do you good to hear him in this subject. SOME 18 OR 20 BUSINESSMEN OF Eldorado were called together Monday night by Mayor Davis and by an almost unanimous vote decided to do their best to co-operate with the NRA plans to the best of their ability, in restoring the country back to normalcy. By some means the Editor missed being there, but we are heartily in favor of doing our part in helping to co-operate as long as we can conscientiously do so. In other words we are not going to drink beer to help pay the deficit, but we will co-operate with our fellow townsmen and the government in working on restricted hours as far as we can possibly do so and we can go as far as any one. In another column will be found a list of business firms that have agreed to the closing hours as requested by the government. Some will put on extra help, most all have sufficient labor for their business. Some filling stations will add additional help and put on additional men, practically all business houses will open from 7:00 A. M. to 6:00 P. M. each week day and some later on Saturday. The country as a whole is asked to co-operate in the movement.

AUGUST 4, 1933.

The Government has at last come to our aid, and told us to shorten our working hours to eight a day, but did not send us any money to buy golf balls with. They promised all their money to the farmers.

There are always seven fat years and then seven lean years. We must now be in the seven lean years.

The girl who shot and killed the boy that squeezed and kissed her must evidently believe in reform.

A death sentence has been given in Kansas City for kidnapping. Every town has its best days, some time.

If we understand it the government wants your co-operation on these working hours. Don't work one man 18 hours, give the other fellow a job. Our job is to keep our wife in a good humor these hard times. Does anyone else want the job?

A headline in the Daily press said, "Governors Office Cleaned Out". But after reading the story to the end, we found that Jim was still in there.

In walking down main street Monday we saw this sign on the windshield of a prominent business man's car, "We do our part" and on the back seat we saw a golf bag with seven instruments to work with.

Commissioner Cecil Meador was in from the ranch Monday and decided the editor has been talking about him, as he missed his last week's Success. Mr. Meador has a nice job trying to get a wider road bed from his neighbors.

According to the Ozona Stock man, Ed Ratliff of our city, was the chief factor in the Ozona Ball Club, defeating the Abilene Gassers last Wednesday. Ratliff and Duncan have the credit for winning the game on their good batting.

Ed Ratliff is an all-round good ball player, but he must have out done even his best in that match. He is a nice batter, nice short stop and a nice pitcher.

The Co-operator, a semi-monthly magazine, published by the Lone Star Wool-Mohair Co-operative Association, at San Angelo, for the sheep and cattle industry, was received this week at The Success Office. It is published twice each month and will cost you 75 cents per year if you want it. Everyone knows it takes Co-operation these days to get by.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Elder of Arlington were in Eldorado Monday visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Elder has been at Christoval for several weeks and Mr. Elder came after her. THE STATE RIGHTS APPEAL

In this section those who lead the fight against retention of the 18th Amendment base their appeal on the doctrine of State Rights. This old doctrine makes a strong appeal to people in the south and has done so ever since the days of the war between the states. It is supposed to be a Democratic party doctrine and since the south has been pretty solidly Democratic and has been almost as solidly dry the wets consider this their best approach to prohibition repeal.

As we approach the day of balloting only one month in the future we will do well to inquire if the wets are sincere. In seeking an answer there are certain facts we must frankly face. If the doctrine is a good doctrine why apply it to liquor traffic and nothing else? Why not apply it to narcotics generally? Why have the Federal Government come in to regulate the oil business? Never before in our history has the Federal Government taken such control of our industries as now. It is reported that this very week farmers will be plowing up their cotton on orders from Washington. The very men who tearfully refer to the Constitution as a sacred document into which fanatic prohibitionists grafted a "Police Measure" are the men who within recent months helped disregard many basic principles of the Constitution. That they can keep their faces straight, while they talk about the Constitution shows remarkable self-control. Of course on the ground that we face an emergency. That is precisely why Federal prohibition was enacted. States, counties and municipalities tried to control a traffic that is always lawless and found it impossible so to meet an emergency they made prohibition national. Today with good roads and rapid transportation enforcement difficulties have been multiplied a thousandfold.

Here is another fact we must not overlook. The men who are talking about State Rights declare they are not pleading for liquor but for the right of the state to control it. You will find they are the same men who are working for the adoption of the beer measure and for the immediate ordering of county and precinct local option elections. They are unwilling to wait until the State votes but insist that on August 26th Texas counties and precincts vote and vote wet. If they are not after liquor, what are they after? —South Western Advocate.

WHAT I OWE TO ELDORADO

I. As a Citizen: Every one who expects to be counted as a citizen of a community or town should have some idea of what it takes to make a worthwhile community or place in which a person could live in peace and happiness and build a home that he could be proud of. And after deciding on the principle, make up his mind to furnish his part or share of the things necessary to making the community such a place. Now, I do not know that we all will agree on the things that should go in to making a first class place to live. In the first place, I think for a community to be ideal, the citizenship should be honest. If each one is perfectly honest, then his neighbor need have no fear for his own, whether it be worldly possessions or reputation, for he will know that nothing will be taken or said by an honest person to harm or hurt him nor his. So, I owe it to the community to be honest.

I. A Good Citizen Should be Willing

A good citizen should be willing to make the best contributions in his power of all things that go into the making of an ideal community.

1. Best thoughts.—Give some thought to the needs and possibilities of our community. Not just think of Self and Self interest. But remember there are others to be considered. One would not think of just himself and forget the rest of his family. So let us count ourselves as a community family and think for the good of all.

2. Friendliness — There is nothing that help to build a community that will draw people like friendliness. How unwelcome we feel when we meet some one who will hardly look toward us and who will barely grunt. We almost feel as if we had fever. Why not wear a smile and speak friendly. It cost no more and will bring good returns.

3. Clean living — No one has a right to live unclean lives among those who are trying to build a community for the protection of you and yours.

4. Vote right — I have no right to vote for that, that might bring sorrow or hurt to my neighbor. Even if I should feel that it would be better for me and would bring more and easier money to me. If I see a possibility of it hurting someone else, I must not vote for it.

5. To sum up all — If I would be a helpful citizen I must cooperate in every way with the best people in making this community harmonious, and when I can't, then I will move before I will ask anything at their hands.

III. As a Christian and Church Member

As a Christian and Church member I have no right to wear the name Christian and retain membership in one of the Churches of this community and not live up to the standards of Christianity as taught in the Bible, as best I can. And, if I hold membership in the Church it is my solemn duty to attend her services and sanction her programs and contribute to support and cooperate to the fullest of my ability in all of her activities.

All of this I know I owe to Eldorado and expect to be true to these principles as long as I am permitted to live among you people.

And, as I have been asked to come here with my family all of whom are desent and respectful, I think I have a right to expect and ask something in return. Especially of the Baptist of this town. As it is my one purpose to help this church to carry forward the program of the Lord Jesus Christ. I believe I have a perfect right to expect those who hold membership to give themselves to the task of cooperating with us in carrying on in a worthy way. I am seeking no glory of my own and care nothing of praise for myself, but asking all for Christ. A membership of 250 and 95

EXPRESSION OF THANKS FROM THE LIONS CLUB

The Eldorado Lions Club wishes to express to the public its thanks for the splendid co-operation in every way that it took to make the Lions Barbecue the grand success that it was, and special thanks are extended to the following Donners to the barbecue and dinner. Then there were several men outside of the Lions Club that rendered splendid co-operation, in service, J. F. Isaacs, T. P. Robinson, J. B. Sammons, Roy Andrews and perhaps others that the Club would like to make special mention and it overlooked in this we also express thanks for any service that caused the day to be successful. Especially does the Club express thanks to Sheritt Conner for the work that he and his special men did toward handling the large crowd in such a nice manner. A crowd of this size with as little disturbance as was had need commendation for the quiet behavior and courteous manner in which they held themselves throughout the day.

The days program, after all expenses paid, cleared over $350.00 which goes to the Lions Club, and which will be spent in their work of public enterprises. No one receiving any money as individuals. The Lions club does not claim all honors as the good citizenship of this community made the day the success and the Lions were only sponsoring and trying to advise and do the part needed to entertain the visitors.

Nagging Pains

are WARNING SIGNALS

TEMPORARY pain relief remedies may save you much suffering at the moment, but putting a mask over a warning signal does not clear up the condition it was telling you to avoid.

When periodic pains, due to a weak, run-down condition, distress you, treatment for the cause of the trouble should be started without delay.

Take Careful to build up against the nagging symptoms of ordinary worry ailments. It has been in use for over 50 years. So many women praise CARDUI, it must be good to have the widespread use that it has today. Sold at drug stores.

J. H. RATLIFF, PIONEER TEXAN, DIES ON MONDAY

Jesse Hassell Ratliff, 83, who had lived in West Texas 68 years, and in Ector County for 28 years, died in his home here at 4:40 Monday afternoon after an illness of some six months. Although ill for the past six months, Mr. Ratliff had been confined to his bed for only a month immediately preceding his death.

One of the longest funeral corteges in the history of the town followed the hearse to the local cemetery from the family home. The funeral services were conducted at the cemetery by the Rev. C. H. Hatfield of the First Methodist Church. Mr. Ratliff had been a member of the Methodist Church for forty years.

Pall bearers were Paul Slator, Glenn Allen, Roy Smith, T. H. Measures, Lona O'Neal and Joe F. Ruehs.

Born in Jackson, Mississippi, June 21, 1850, Jesse Hassell Ratliff came to West Texas in 1865, at the age of 15, to settle in Coleman. He lived at Coleman until 1905, when he and his family moved to Ector County.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. J. H. Ratliff of Odessa, and twelve children of his two marriages, as well as a sister and brother. The children include Ed Ratliff of Eldorado, Texas; Mrs. E. M. Snodgrass and Mrs. Fount Armstrong of Midland; Mrs. Seth Pike and Mrs. Steve Baker of Big Spring; Fred, Jim and Sam Ratliff of Garden City; Mrs. T. C. Love of Carlsbad, New Mexico; Mrs. Geo. Webb of El Paso; Hugh and Dan Ratliff of Odessa, and a stepson, S. D. Granger, of Carlsbad, New Mexico. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. Emma Carson, of Coleman and a brother, S. P. Ratliff, of San Angelo.

The above clipping came from the Odessa New-Times of Ector County. The character of this sketch is the father of our townsman Ed Ratliff. Mr. Ratliff visited his father just before his death and on his return home told us that it was only a short while until the aged father would pass on, but when one can live to such a ripe old age filled with the blessings of life made so by the presence of God in his life, it is only a happy ending.

Later, delightful refreshments of ice cream and cake were served which was enjoyed by all.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. F. Ramsel. The afternoon will again be spent in quilting and piecing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jarvis are on their vacation this week. They went to Houston and will go from there to Florida and perhaps on into Virginia.

W. H. McClatchey was in from the ranch Monday and reported that he and his family were going Tuesday to Brown County to a family reunion.

Bad Taste in Mouth, Sour Stomach

For quick relief from constipation troubles, such as are mentioned below, get a 25-cent package of Theford's BLACK-DRAUGHT and begin taking it today.

"I have suffered a great deal from biliousness and constipation," writes Mrs. D. C. Jones, of Waterloo, Ala. "When I get bilious I have a bad taste in my mouth, have sour stomach, my color is bad, and I get dizzy and feel awfully bad. I have headache constantly. When I take Black-Draught it relieves me and I feel like a new person. I don't think there is a better medicine than Black-Draught."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a tablet for children.

THE MAIN TENET OF SAFETY

Safety on the highways is principally an attitude of mind.

Better cars and roads won't attain it. Indeed, they tend toward the opposite result. It has long been the experience that when a stretch of poor roads is converted into a broad, straight smooth highway the number of accidents increases—because motorists overestimate the safety factor. They lose the sense of caution that a poor road naturally creates—and the death and injury rate booms.

The same thing is true of automobiles. The manufacturers give us cars with better brakes, surer steering, more perfectly balanced bodies—and we abuse them to the point where the automobile accident rate breaks all records.

The "safety attitude" isn't a particularly difficult one to develop. It is simply to drive as we'd like the car approaching other us to drive. Don't cut corners, nor pass on curves or hills, nor drive on the wrong side of the road, nor fight for the right-of-way, nor drive so fast you can't stop in the assured clear distance ahead. Almost every accident, minor or severe, occurs because someone violates these simple rules.

Possibly a better phrase for safe driving would be "courteous driving." Discourtesy on the highway is always the friend of accidents. If you'll make up your mind to drive the way you think the other fellow should drive, the accident rate will be due for a severe beating in the future.—Independent Industrial Review.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Arrott of Orient, Texas, and two children, and Mrs. N. C. Hudgens and daughter, Hazel, were guests of the editor and tribe Monday night and Tuesday. Mr. Arrott was here looking for some sheep to buy.

THE OTHER HALF

Many automobile drivers who think they know all about the right-of-way law understand only the half of it. In answer to the question, "Who has the right-of-way?" the average driver would quickly reply, "The man on the right." The answer is partially correct but isn't complete.

The best statutes on the subject say: "The car on the right has the right-of-way provided it enters the intersection first, but if the car on the left happens to be first into the intersection, the car on the right must yield."

Maxwell Halsey, Traffic Engineer of the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, says the best way to eliminate confusion on this point is for all cars to slow down when approaching intersections. "In this way drivers will be able to gauge each other's distance and obey the law with greater convenience."

"The driver of the car approaching from the right has no justification to suppose that all traffic must stop to permit him to cross. This attitude has produced a high toll of accidents. More than twice as many accidents occur at intersections as between intersections. Last year, 2,430 persons were killed and 184,750 injured in 146,500 accidents resulting from misunderstandings over the right-of-way."

State laws should be clarified in order to coincide with common sense and the free flow of traffic. If this is done, another bad hazard will be eliminated. Meanwhile, motorists, slow down at intersections.—Industrial News Review.

Mrs. Lois Bagley and three children, J. Frank, Aleene and Bud, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hill the past weekend. Mrs. Bagley is a sister of Mrs. Hill.

ELDORADOANS WITNESS ABILENE - SAN ANGELO BASE BALL GAME

Quite a few Eldoradoans went to San Angelo Sunday afternoon to witness the game between San Angelo and the strong Mose Simms Abilene ball team. The game was called at 2:30 with Jack White umpire. The hard hitting team from Abilene was never in danger only in one or two innings in the first game and none in the last. Lefty Hanna pitched for Abilene, assisted by T. J. Bailey in the last inning for the first game and Jake Freeze for San Angelo. The second game was Cross pitched for Abilene and Peoples for San Angelo, both teams did some nice playing with a few errors on each side. No beefing from any of the players, just good old honest ball playing, with the Abilene lads the masters of the situation, with Mose Simms placing and replacing his men at the proper time. It was just a nice little ball game with the Blondy Cross Aggregation on the short end of the score when the game was over.

THINGS THAT ARE CERTAIN

In this realm of life, we are quite unable to foretell events. But certain things may be urged without fear of successful contradiction. Indeed, these things are so clear that we can no longer plead ignorance as an excuse for their neglect. Let me submit to you three simple propositions which I have no time to amplify but which, upon investigation, will, I think, be found to be incontrovertible.

The first is that the problems which have an international bearing cannot be finally and satisfactorily solved until all the nations of the world not only understand and appreciate but actually share each others view points, ideals, and principles. That is to say, the problems which face the world today must be approached with a unity of spirit. Until this is attained, the best we can hope for is quarrel, compromise, and further quarrel.

My second proposition is that our international problems, like all our other problems, to be solved right, must be approached in a religious spirit. This was the contention of the prophets of Israel. It has been the custom of people to stone their prophets for their rebuke and counsel and then, afterward, to acknowledge in contrition that they whom they had crucified were right. Let us set it down as a truth embedded in the very structure of the moral universe that every problem which concerns human life ultimately concerns God.

My third proposition is a logical deduction from my first two. If we need a common spirit and if that spirit must be bathed in religion, it is obvious that we need a universal religion. And we have such a religion in Christianity. We need not argue that other religions are not universal. It would be easy enough to point out their inadequacies, but it is enough now to affirm the acknowledged superiority of the religion of Jesus and to say that it would be poor economy for God to give mankind two or more universal and wholly sufficient religions.

The simple truth of the matter is that Christ is the Savior of the world. And he is the only one the world has ever known who carries with him the promise of triumph. In spite of its difficulties, its discouragements, and its interruptions, the supreme undertaking for in which mankind is engaged, is to lift the Christ up before men. And the chief thing that places upon men the stamp of obligation and that gives them the assurance of success in the building of the Kingdom in the hearts of men, is that Christ is with them and that he is concerned about it. Can He come on us to lift him up before men?

Can you do it with a Sabbath spent away from the church and its services? Can we do it with prayerless lives and prayerless homes? Can we do it with a wet vote and the turning of this country over to the liquor traffic? Can we do it by voting for beer for our boys and girls? Men and women, let us hear the call today to be men and women who will do the right thing, and who will not surrender our honor in this hour when the Christ is calling for your loyalty. Let us remember some day we shall be called upon to stand in the presence of Him who died for us and there give an account of the way we have lived.

Let us stand by bravely until the kingdom of our Lord shall come with great power.
