Secretary Of School Board Gives Some Figures

Public schools for the past three years have been faced with increased responsibilities and decreased resources. The responsibilities are shown by the unusually rapid increase in school enrollment due to the depression. In practically every community, hundreds of young men and women are continuing their training in the public schools and preparing themselves for the opportunities which will open before them when more prosperous times return.

While the schools are thus being given a task, larger, more difficult and in many ways more important than ever before, the financial resources which should enable them to do this work are being actually reduced.

Education has carried its share of the reduction of expenses in Public expenditures. Such reduction cannot continue indefinitely if the schools are to perform their important functions with reasonable success.

The statements has been made that schools are costing too much; Statistics show that Public Schools have never absorbed as much as 4% of the national income. Statistics also show that the people of America spend five times as much for passenger automobiles than is spent for Public Schools. In 1928, the people of the United States spent $2.61 for candy, chewing gum, theatres, and other luxuries for every $1.00 spent for schools. The amount spent for tobacco alone was very little less than the amount spent for schools.

We must all come to the realization that expenditures for schools are an investment, an investment that the returns can not be measured in dollars and cents.

Like other good investments wisely expended school money constitutes no reduction of the national income. The 2-1-3 billion dollars spent for education is also 2-1-4 billion dollars in national income. It is spent again, and usually immediately for goods and services by those to whom it is paid. Furthermore economic, social and political ef-

Seven To One For Drys In Precinct Four

In Saturday's election in Precinct four, the voters of that precinct that went to the polls were almost unanimous against the sale of 3.2 Beer in that precinct. The precinct has two voting boxes and the Vermont box voted 12 dry votes and one wet. The Alexander box voted nine dry and two wet. The drys winning with 22 to 3, or a margin of 7 to 1 for the drys. This makes two precincts in Schleicher County dry by vote of the people, the other two have never voted on it.

SEVENTEEN CARS OF CATTLE SHIPPED TUES.

The Figure Three Ranch shipped 310 cows and 520 heifer calves to the Big Canyon Ranch in Terrell County Tuesday and Wednesday and 485 steer calves to Ballinger where they have grass for them. The figure 3 ranch is the Old Russell ranch in this county. These cattle were loaded out Tuesday and Wednesday.

facts of education are acknowledged by men of wide vision and public spirit. Ignorance never made a good workman, a good neighbor, a good citizen, or a good parent.

Human assets are of far more importance than natural resources and deserve more care and thought in their conservation. A single generation of neglect may impair National Progress for many generations in the future. In order to avoid this impairment in National Progress, we must keep our educational facilities in first class condition.

Total cost per child enrolled in the schools of the United States by years.

1928	102.00
1929	103.00
1930	103.00
1931	101.00
1932	92.00

This school by average daily attendance:

1927	$120.00
1928	113.00
1929	96.00
1930	85.00
1931	82.00
1932	63.00

The cost per pupil in this school has been reduced 47 1/2 per cent in the past six years.

The reason for this reduction is accounted for in two ways.

1. Increase in attendance without very much additional expense. Attendance has increased 42 per cent in the past six years.

2. School budget has been reduced 25 per cent in the last six years.

School has always been able to pay salaries when due, which is something that about 85 per cent of the schools in the U. S. have not been able to do.

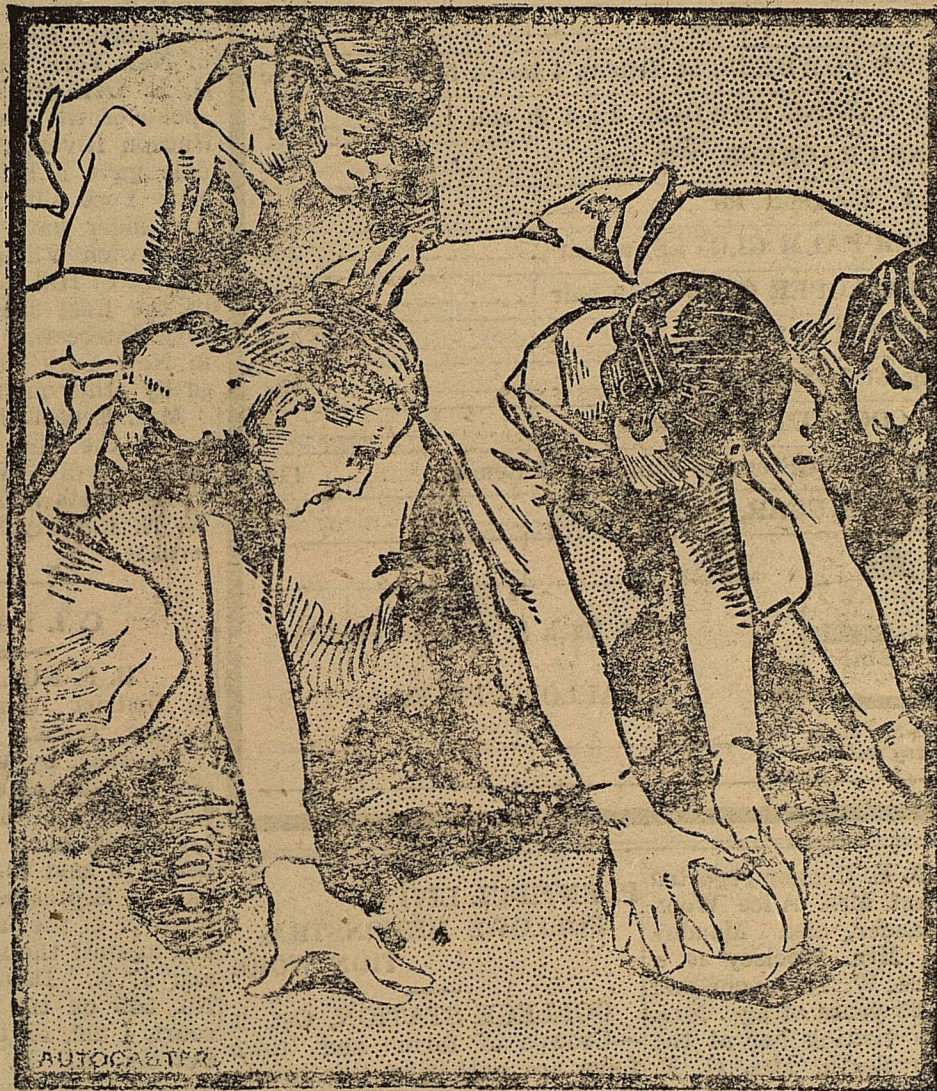

Has always been able to meet its bonds when due. Many other schools have defaulted in payment of their bonds.

We have a school system here that we have a right to be proud of and the only way for us to keep it that way is for every citizen of this community to give their support.

ROCKSPRINGS HERE SATURDAY

The strong Rocksprings High School Team will be here Saturday October 27th to play the local high school football team at 3 P. M. To date this season, Rocksprings has defeated Sonora and Menard and has tied Junction. Last season the Rock-springs team was the only one to defeat the Eagles in a conference game and they were thus the winners of the western part of this district in football playing the championship off with the Fredericksburg team. It is expected that the game Saturday will be one of the hardest played in Eldorado for a long time. If the Eagles can defeat Rocksprings then they still have a chance at winning the district championship but if they lose this game they lose the opportunity. The Eagles are determined to win. Come and root for them. Anybody can criticize them when they lose, but the real sport is for them, win or lose, if they play the game.

Eagles Lose To Ozona In Close Conference Game

The Eldorado Eagles lost their first game on the home field in three years when they dropped Saturday's conference game by a score of 12-7. The Eagles were in the lead during most of the game, after scoring a touchdown and extra-point in the second quarter. Late in the last quarter, however, the superior weight of the Ozona team made another touchdown for Ozona possible—but only after Eldorado had held them four downs on the one-yard line.

First Quarter

The first quarter of the game was purely an Ozona affair, Eldorado not being able to check their running plays very effectively. Eldorado kicked off to Ozona, who was unable to make yardage and punted on fourth down. The punt was partly blocked by an Eagle and Eldorado covered the ball in the scramble.

Eldorado passed for a 10-yard gain, Hext to Isaacs. The Eagles fumbled on second down and Ozona recovered. Ozona kicked on first down, Eagles were unable to make yardage and punted out. Ozona then began a rapid march down the field, making three successive first downs in six plays. Ozona passed for a twenty-yard gain, placing the ball in their scoring zone, as the first quarter ended.

Second Quarter

Ozona rammed the ball over the goal line after one failure. The extra-point kick failed by inches.

Eldorado received the kick-off and punted on third down. Ozona kicked on second down. Eldorado made her yardage in two downs. Hext ran over tackle for 10 yards, placing the ball on Ozona's forty-yard line. A pass from Hext to Kerr netted about 30 yards, placing the ball on the two-yard line. Isaacs carried the ball over on the first play, after a time-out called by Ozona. Isaacs kicked the extra point from placement. The first half ended a few seconds later.

Third Quarter

After the kick-off following the half, Eldorado and Ozona engaged in a punting duel. This duel was ended and won by Eldorado when Junior Isaacs got off a beautiful kick which netted 60 yards. Ozona made 10 yards on a fake play through the center of the Eagle line. Ozona failed to make yardage and kicked, Hext returning 20 yards. Eldorado managed to gain five yards in two downs as the third quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

Eldorado failed to make yardage and punted out. Ozona passed for a 40-yard gain. This pass was hit by one or two Eldorado men and as many Ozona players, and there was some question about Ozona being off-side, but the gain was allowed. This particular play was responsible for Ozona getting into the scoring zone. Thereafter Ozona marched steadily down the field until they were practically on Eldorado's goal line. The Eagles then made a determined stand and held the heavy Ozona team for four downs. Eldorado then punted out from behind their goal line, Ozona returning to their 30-yard line. Ozona then made two first downs in rapid succession, and rammed the ball over the line for their second and winning touchdown. The game ended, Eldorado 7, Ozona 12.

OCTOBER 27TH, 1933.

This is our week for Football alibies. We lost that game to Ozona, in the last two minutes, mostly because we thought we had it won.

Gosh darn! We are proud of those subscriptions that have been pouring in the past two or three weeks. We need the money to buy that winter fuel and keep beans in the bag.

What Eldorado needs is a Trades Day at least once a month. Many of our people have something they could exchange with each other and both parties be benefited. What says you let's have one.

Well the Post Office seekers will have to make a trip to San Angelo Saturday and tell Uncle Sam just how much they know. October 28th has been set for this occasion at the Federal Building in San Angelo. Some 10 or 15 is seeking the appointment. If we understand it, one of the three highest grades will be considered.

The time is approaching for recognition of Russia, and many comments are being expressed. The American Legion has come out strong against recognition. Russia repudiated her debts to the American government and for the past 15 years has not had any recognition from this government.

Eldorado should be proud of her school. Had you attended the meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association last Friday night and learned of the good work and the same time the saving per pupil made during the past six years, you would feel better toward the school tax you are called on to pay. We are using a prepared speech Mr. Baker made at the Parent-Teacher Association Meeting last Friday night. It contains some facts that each taxpayer and patron of our school should know. read it before you lay The Success down.

Sheriff O. E. Conner reported Tuesday that Mrs. Alice Woolsey, of Leander, died Monday afternoon. Mrs. Woolsey is a sister of Mrs. W. T. Conner and was about 65 years of age. Mrs. Conner was visiting her at the time of her death. Mrs. O. E. Conner and Mrs. J. L. Neill left Tuesday morning to attend the funeral which was held Tuesday afternoon at Leander, Texas. Mrs. W. T. Conner has been visiting her sister some three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams were visiting and shopping in the city Saturday and attending the ball game.

The big boys from Washington have been down enjoying Texas hospitalities this week, and from news reports they really have been entertained. They say the Fair at Dallas, the Races at Arlington Downs, and just what they saw down on Jack Garners ranch has not all been reported, but we presume Will Rogers will tell it all when he gets back to Radio Land.

PLENTIFUL LIVING FOLLOWS DEMONSTRATION WORK

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 9.—Crowds of farm and town folks are gathering this month on farms in more than 1,000 Texas communities to see for themselves how farm families have won for themselves health and plentiful living by following the 4-H pantry demonstration of the Extension Service at Texas A and M College. Known as achievement days these gatherings serve as rallying points for the further spread of living at home methods outlined by county farm and home demonstration agents, says Miss Mildred Horton, state home demonstration agent.

Farm home canning in Texas this year should exceed last year's record, estimated to have been at least 100,000,000 containers in all of Texas, according to Miss Horton. She points out that Texas is said to use more than half of all the tin cans sold for home canning purposes in the United States, in addition to large numbers of glass jars.

"The important thing about the 4-H pantry way of getting a food supply is no so much the large supply of canned food put on pantry shelves as it is the selection of that supply to give a healthful diet," Miss Horton declares. "A random collection of canned stuff may avert starvation yet bring ill health in its wake. The close relation of diet to health is well known. When storing food for the unproductive months it is just as easy to plan the supply to get the necessary amounts of each type of food needed for healthful living. That is what the 4-H pantry demonstration has done. It is to spread this useful information of how to plan and get a balanced food supply that the achievement days are held," she concludes.

Francis Chieseman, forman of the Campbell ranch was a business visitor in the city Saturday and while here made The Success office an appreciated visit, adding beans to the Editor's pot.

J. W. Owens is putting his Brick Chili on the market this week. The chili is made in Eldorado and is guaranteed to please and Mr. Owens said it could be found at the Eldorado Merchants. And if you desire to help an Eldorado industry ask for Owens Chili.

COURTESY TO VISITORS

Celeste Tisdale
Did you ever put yourself in the place of a visitor who is visiting in your school? Have you ever had the feeling of being "left out" by the boys and girls in the school you are visiting? If you have never had this feeling, put yourself in the place of the visiting football team. Imagine how you would feel if you were criticized, snubbed and many times not even spoken to. It is hard to keep from giving one's opinion of visitors, but remember, when you have beaten them in some sport or other contest, don't "rub it in," but speak of it lightly.

When you are a visitor, treat that school's property as you would wish Eldorado's property treated. They may have a chance of returning the "abuses."

Treat your visitors like you expect them to treat you. Remember that you may be treated as you treat your visitors and I would certainly hate to be treated like I have seen some visitors treated.

FIVE LAST-YEAR GRADUATES RECEIVE SHORT-HAND CERTIFICATES

Due to some delay in the clerical department of the Gregg Publishing Company, five shorthand certificates that should have been received early last summer did not arrive until this fall. Members of the shorthand class of the 1932-33 school year who qualified for the certificates by making a grade of 85 on the International Qualifying Test were: Frances Mills, Lillie Belle Kent, Nell Campbell, Evelyn Anderson and Thelma Taylor.

These certificates are known as "Complete Theory Certificates" and certify that the student whose name is engraved thereon has passed the official Gregg Writer examination, which is a comprehensive test over all the principles of Gregg shorthand. The cards are signed by John Robert Gregg, the author of the Gregg shorthand system.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Mary Lee Davis
The students of Eldorado High School are learning to sing. Miss Zimmerman had charge of the assembly program last Wednesday morning. The Choral Club sang several songs and then the entire high school sang several pieces such as "Polly Wolly Doodle." Miss Zimmerman teaches singing in the grammar grades and has charge of the high school choral club.

Each Wednesday morning we have assembly and always like to have visitors attend these programs.

THE SOPHOMORES

Felix Susan
The Sophomores have been very busy for the first six weeks. Some of them are not making as good grades as they should. Most of them are studying English, Spanish, Biology and Algebra. Others are taking Texas History in the place of Biology or Spanish.

In English they are studying literature, and have read quite a bit of fiction, but are studying poetry at the present. There are so many pupils in the Spanish Class that they were divided into two classes. Each class is doing much notebook work.

Most of the students who are taking Biology like it very well. The History and Algebra Classes are both doing good work.

EX-STUDENTS OF E. H. S.

RECEIVE DEGREES

By Cleone Morgan
There were five ex-students of E. H. S. who received degrees from Sul Ross State Teachers College during the past year. This is a good showing for Eldorado. Those who received the sheepskin were: Roscoe Parker, an ex-student of E. H. S., is living in Alpine and has recently married.

Vesta May, an ex-student of E. H. S. is also still in Alpine. Leonard May received his B. S. degree and is in Alpine. Laura Tisdale has done four years work at Sul Ross in home economics. She received a B. S. degree.

Vera Wae was a speech major. She received her B. S. degree after three years of work. She is at her home in Eldorado at the present.

MANY PUPILS ATTEND PASSION PLAY

Numerous Eldorado pupils from both the high school and elementary grades attended the Passion Play in San Angelo on October 19th and 20th. Among those who attended from high school were: R. L. Sample, Jr., Edgar Sample, Zona Clare Koy, Mary Jess Koy, L. E. Frazier, Frank Bradley, Minnie Belle Sheeh, Elizabeth Stanford, Ollie Ruth Currie, Inez Marshall, Wenona Enochs, Margaret Powers and others.

4-H GIRLS ENJOYS DALLAS FAIR

Lois Whitley, E. H. S. student re-entered school last Monday after attending the Dallas State Fair for ten days. She was awarded the trip in 4-H club work under Miss Mabel Howell, County Demonstration Agent. The Lions Club helped to defray a part of her expenses. Such a trip should be educational and enjoyable to the fullest extent. We are proud that one of our students could have such an opportunity and hope to have her write about it later.
Lois wrote two or three cards to the high school students and teachers while she was in Dallas. We judge from these reports that she had a very busy time in the city.

THE GAME LAST SATURDAY

By Harold Susan
Eldorado lost to Ozona in their second conference game last Saturday afternoon, 12 and 7, when Ozona put over a touch down in the last 2 minutes. On a short pass after being held for 3 downs on plunges, Ozona scored first in the second quarter on a plunge through the line but failed to kick the goal. Then Eldorado took the ball on passes and cut-backs mixed with line plays and put over a touchdown just before the ball ended. The Ozona team just had too much weight and power, being 15 pounds to the man heavier than we were, but still probably would have never made their last touchdown except for 2 long passes that bounced into 2 or 3 boys' hands. This game leaves Junction in undisputed lead of this section with Ozona, Eldorado, Rocksprings and Menard tied for second with a win and a loss apiece and Sonora last with 2 losses. We play Rocksprings here Saturday and if we can win it and the game with Junction and Menard we can still be in the playoff for this section.

THIRD GRADE WINS PARENTS' ATTENDANCE PRIZE

The third grade won the attendance prize at the Parent-Teachers Association meeting on Thursday night, October 19, by having 25 parents present. The enrollment of the room is now 37. The next largest percentage of parents present was won by the 11th grade, which had 8 parents. The enrollment of this grade is 14. A special committee of the P. T. A. is to decide upon the prize which is to be awarded.

JONES LAW!

October 23rd, 1933.
To The Eldorado Success, Eldorado, Texas.

Dear Readers: This little play is based entirely on what actually did happen but of course the names used are fictitious,—except that of "Jones" which has to be used due to the historic connection with the story and the possible reference at a later date.

The scene is laid at Mayer No. 2 School house on April 1st, 1933, during the holding of a school trustee election. The Dear Old Lady has just placed her ballot in the box and she approaches the Presiding Judge of the election with her fist raised:

Dear Old Lady: "What do you mean by not allowing those Mexicans to vote?"

Judge: "According to the law their poll-taxes were not paid legally, and if they vote they will have to swear that they gave written authority to some one else to buy their poll-tax receipts for them."

Dear Old Lady: "According to law? What law?"
Judge: "According to this law." (Placing his hand on State pamphlets on Election Law and School Law.)

Dear Old Lady: "What Law is that? JONES LAW?"
Judge: "Well, these books belong to Jones but they were not written by him."

D. O. L.: "Of course he didn't write them: he is not capable of doing that! But why didn't you let those Mexicans vote? If they have no right to vote then I have no right to vote, for Mr. Myhusband paid my poll tax for me too!"

Judge: "But Mrs. 'D. O. L.' I did not know that no one challenged your right to vote!"
D. O. L.: "But those Mexicans have as much right to vote as I have and—bla—bla—"

Jones: (Clerk of the election. Thinking he might help to explain.) "But, Mrs. 'D. O. L.' the Mexicans may vote if they will swear that they gave written authority to Mr. Myhusband to get their poll-tax receipts for them."
D. O. L.: "Woof! Bang! (Or words to that effect). They don't have to swear. They have as much right to vote as I have."

Judge: (Rising from his chair, and still quite as dignified as a Presiding Judge should be,—but also quite firm.) "Mrs. 'D. O. L.' will you please hush up."

D. O. L.: "But, Judge, look here, those Mexicans have as much right to vote as—"

Judge: "Will you please hush up! If you do not I will swear out a complaint against you. Please leave the room."

D. O. L.: (Leaving, but still "hush up"): "I'll see about this. I'll have the County Judge and the Sheriff come down here and get this thing straightened out—bla—bla—woof! (Exit the Dear Old Lady)."

—Curtain—
Comments by writer: Now, folks, I said last time that I would tell you something about trying to take territory away from adjoining districts,—and I will do so later, if O. K. with the editor. But I have given you this one act comedy this time to be sure that none of us forget to hold on to our sense of humor. Without that we would be in bad shape. I'll admit that the joke was on me when "the other side" managed in some way to have the County School Board appoint for a trustee in our district the very one that we voted out in our last school trustee election. I certainly will admit that that was a good joke on me and on the majority in the district and I gladly laugh with you,—while asking for some one on the inside to tell us just how it was done. So do not fail to see some of the other funny things also. Thanks for listening.

Sincerely,
H. Leslie Jones.

GATE RECEIPTS $84.00 FOR OZONA GAME

The gate receipts for the Ozona game last Saturday were above expectations, as a total of $84.00 was realized from the game. Expenses for the game ran heavy—$35.00 to Ozona (same as Eldorado received for game at Ozona last year), $15.00 for officials, $8.40 to Fair Association for use of park.
The balance realized above expenses goes to pay for football equipment already purchased and for sweaters which are awarded to the players each year.

EX-STUDENT VISITS SCHOOL

A welcome visitor to the school last Friday morning was Jack Kerr, one of last year's seniors, who is now attending Daniel Baker College at Brownwood. Jack made a short talk to the high school students and emphasized team work on the football team and in the school. Jack is now making the Freshman team at Daniel Baker College and is playing in the half-back position. His four-year's experience on the Eagles' teams fitted him for college football, no doubt!

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Baugh of Dallas came in Sunday for a visit in Eldorado with relatives and friends.

TEXAS BAPTIST TO HOLD STATE CONVENTION NOVEMBER 7TH

The Baptist General Convention of Texas which will hold its eighty-fifth annual session at Fort Worth beginning November 7th, will this year celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the beginning of Baptist work in Texas. The Convention program will give large space to "Our Century of Progress," and will present the story of the first Baptist organization in Texas. This church was organized in Illinois and moved to Texas as a unit, crossing the Sabine River in November 1833. Dr. J. Howard Williams, General Secretary of the Convention, announces that Texas Baptists will celebrate their "Century of Progress" with a great Mission Offering amounting to $154,000.00. Some $50,000.00 of this fund has already been paid in, and Dr. Williams expressed himself as being very hopeful that Texas Baptists would raise the remaining $85,000.00 within the next two weeks.

During this fall Texas Baptists have held 107 Association meetings all over Texas, with record attendance in almost every instance, demonstrating the progress of the past century. When the first organized group of Baptists came into Texas one hundred years ago, there were less than fifty Baptists in the State. At this time there are more than five hundred thousand white Baptists, and a total of more than a million of all races according to Dr. Williams.

At the Fort Worth meeting, representatives from various mission fields will speak of the work Baptists are doing there, and the Convention will receive reports from the work of Baptists all over the world. More than five thousand visitors are expected to attend the Convention.

PARENT - TEACHER ASSOCIATION MEETS

On Thursday night, October 19, the Eldorado Parent-Teacher Association met in regular meeting at the school auditorium. Mrs. R. D. Holt, first Vice-President, presided. Since the meeting had been designated as Father's night, a special program had been prepared. Rev. Frazier gave the address of welcome to the fathers present. A reading, "The Big Cake Bowl" was given by Helen Stanford. Miss Zimmerman directed group of school children in several interesting and well rendered numbers: "Dramatization of William Tell," by Fourth grade; "Swing Song" by third grade; "Pantomime of Sing a Song of Six Pence" by third grade; Songs by fourth grade.

"School Costs" was the subject of the address of the evening, given by Mr. Leslie Baker, Secretary of the School Board. Mr. Baker showed that the school cost per pupil is lower in Eldorado than in the United States as a whole. He asked for the cooperation of the people of this community in keeping the school at a high standard at a minimum cost.

A beautiful cornet solo was given by Mrs. Smith after the address before the business of the meeting was begun. Mrs. Ida Neill was elected President to succeed Mrs. C. E. Poer, whose resignation had been presented at the September meeting. Mrs. Payne Robinson was elected second Vice-President to fill the vacancy created by Mrs. Neill's election to the Presidency.

A rather large crowd of parents attended the meeting and enjoyed the program and the discussions. The next meeting will be on November 21 at 4:00 in the school auditorium. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. Darrow
Extension Service Editor

Mills county farmers are demanding more aid in terracing from the county agent since farm prices have begun to climb. Records of three farmers are cited to show the reason. One made 4 bushels more corn per acre on terraced land; a second picked 100 pounds more seed cotton per acre on terraced land; and a third found that terraced land produced 6 bushels more oats per acre than unterraced fields.

Speaking of higher yields per acre, county agents are often criticised for their efficiency in boosting yields. The criticism seldom comes from the farmers who have made the high yields. Reason: high yields usually go with high profits.

A West Texas farm management study by Texas Agricultural Experiment Station shows that the high profit farms in 1932 were farms with high yielding acres.

Everything in many a Hidalgo county farm home was damaged by the hurricane except the 4-H pantry products, says the home demonstration agent. Full of products properly canned and well stored, these pantries became centers of food distribution to unfortunate neighbors after the storm.

It cost $2.90 to plant and brine 60 gallons of pickles, according to Mrs. T. A. Moseley who has the rank of "pickle demonstrator" among home demonstration club folks in Delta county. She packs pickles for profits.

T. C. Meador, Commissioner of Precinct Four, made The Success office an appreciated visit Friday and renewed his subscription to the old home town paper for another year.

SAYS 3.2 ABOUT ONLY PERSONAL LIBERTY LEFT

DALLAS.—And now in this chaotic, palpitating age my long time friend, George Cotton Robinson, is charged with being a dry! Fifty years ago when I was peddling pills and publishing the Gatesville Advance, George was the head works of the Belton Journal. Two years later I campaigned Bell County for county prohibition. George was wet. In 1887 I campaigned Bell County for State prohibition, and debated with Lawyer Scales and Nat Q. Henderson. During that campaign George was wet. George belongs to that select company of wets who believe any regulatory methods of dealing with the liquor traffic are an impingement on personal liberty. He believes that liquor should be free—that everybody who wants to make it and everybody who wants to sell it should be free to make and sell without let or hindrance of any kind. Though wet, he never drinks.

I deplore the agonies through which George must now be passing. He is a disciple of Jefferson whose thesis was the government which governs least governs best. With NRA, with the recognition of Soviet Russia at hand, with Communism rampant at home and abroad, with the President now inching up to the censorship of personal salaries paid by companies and corporations, with perhaps the most rigid dictatorship in the world, I know that George is in pain. Notwithstanding I have always fought him, I love and respect him. All his concepts of democracy except his wetness have gone blooey, and the end is not in sight. The only thing not now covered by a code is the size and thickness of diapers Dallas. J. B. Cranfill.

We have at last been convinced that our friend Francis J. Wood is a good fisherman. He and Marion Wade went to Devil's River the first of the week and when they returned, Francis brought the Editor and tribe a nice portion of a large catfish, which has thoroughly convinced us that he knows his fishing tackle and bait. And the fish mingled with the beans that has been poured into our sack this week. We are good for another week's run anyway, thanks.

Miss Pansie Keele was here Wednesday from San Angelo and renewed her subscription to The Success and the one going to her sister Mrs. Betty Gregg at Littlefield, Texas, for which she has our thanks.

FARM COOPERATIVES RENDER PUBLIC SERVICE

The most apparent reason for the existence of a farm cooperative is to sell, as profitably as possible, the products of its members.

But the co-ops have another vitally important function—and one on which the accent has been placed in late months. That function is to act as the farmer's representative in formulating and advocating social and economic policies. The new farm bill, for example, was tremendously influenced by cooperative leaders, who were consulted by government officials when it was written. The progressive cooperatives have and are seeking the stabilization of international exchange, and the promotion of international trade. They were among the earliest advocates of monetary reform, which is one of the most burning subjects of the moment. The good cooperative is, as a result, much more than a dealer in produce. That is something every farmer, whether or not he is a cooperative member now, should realize and appreciate.—Industrial News Review.

BAPTIST W. M. S. MEETS

The Woman's Missionary Society, East side circle, of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. George Williams, Monday Oct. 23 at 2:30 P. M. with 15 members present. The meeting was called to order by the circle chairman, Mrs. Cooper.

Mrs. L. M. Hoover led the devotional with scripture reading II Timothy, 2:1-15 verse. The principal thought of the devotional was pleasing God's interest of man in his service and the more we studied his words the more we wanted to study and seek out his righteousness.

A call was made for donations for Buckner's Orphans Home. Quite a few garments were turned in. Also a box was prepared to send to the old ministers relief. Our box to be sent to Brother Bullock and family of San Angelo. He at one time was pastor of our church here.

The roll was called and responded to with scripture verse. Refreshments were served by Mrs. George Anderson and hostess.
