Does it pay to worm cattle?
This is a question often debated by cattlemen, professional agricultural workers and beef cattle specialists from our agricultural colleges.

Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian, said in a meeting we held at Pampa about two years ago, it did not pay. Since this time a newer worming compound
has been developed that showed it did pay in Louisiana and other eastern states. We thought it would prove interesting and educational to run a demonstration test using this compound.

Last fall we drenched 58 head
of lightweight steers on the Fred Vanderburg farm south of Pampa.
These were weighed as well as a similar group that had not been drenched with the worming compound. An identifying mark was placed on the ones wormed.

Last Tuesday we separated these calves and re-weighed each group.
The calves that had not been wormed gained 163 pounds. Actually,
we cannot conclude that worming
the calves was detrimental to them
since they gained 13 pounds less.
There could have been this much difference just due to chance. However, I believe we can conclude that the worming of the cattle was of no benefit. This demonstration was set up to determine if there was a benefit.

Since it cost around 75 cents to $1 per head, plus the trouble of drying this, the matter is of importance to cattlemen.
These cattle came from the Fort Worth area. Results of this demonstration do not prove it would not pay to worm cattle coming from other areas. In a feed lot demonstration at Moody Farms last summer there was strong evidence it did pay to worm cattle coming from Mississippi and deep east Texas.

I do believe the results of the Vanderburg test are significant.
Charles Jackson, county agent in Wheeler County, had a demonstrator, Clarence Zybick, to run a very interesting demonstration in Wheeler County last year. Using a sorghum-hybrid, Mr. Zybick produced 4,037 pounds of beef on 15 acres of dryland. There were 30 steers involved in the test. The daily gain average was two pounds from July to November. Forty pounds of nitrogen was applied.

We think many farmers are missing an excellent bet in not utilizing the hybrid sudan-sorghum
crosses in their grazing programs.
Dixon Hubbard, beef cattle specialist, reported that one irrigated producer got 888 pounds of gain on this forage plant. This compared to only 268 pounds of gain on coastal bermuda.

Annual Red Cross Drive Now On

By RUTH KIRK, Representative

March is the month for the American Red Cross fund campaign. This year the McLean Lions Club is sponsoring the drive.

The money collected from our home town is used for the people who are connected with McLean
—servicemen, veterans and their families.

The national organization of the Red Cross receives 43.18% of the fund, to be used for national purposes. From the national organization, the military receives 38%;
the blood program receives 32%;
disaster areas receive 22%, and the remaining 8% is used for communications, special nursing services, first aid classes and salaries of the full time workers.
Most of the workers for the Red Cross are strictly volunteers and receive no salary—they work for the satisfaction of being able to lend a helping hand wherever and whenever needed. This is their “pay-check”—a “thank you” for a job well done.

The American Red Cross has a definite purpose but many people are not familiar with the exact service it was established to perform. It was organized to handle the needs of the military personnel, veterans and their families.

Assistance to service personnel and their families wherever stationed is a responsibility of the Red Cross under charter from the U. S. Congress. The charter obligations are transferred into a variety of health, welfare, recreation, and morale services for the armed forces. Red Cross field directors are stationed around the globe with land-based U. S. troops.
U. S. troop increases in Viet Nam place an added burden on all phases of the worldwide services
to the armed forces program.

The following is a “rundown”
on the amount in the treasury for the exclusive use of the people of McLean.

Balance from contributions for years prior to 1965, $862.49.
Contributions for 1965, $100.34.
Total, $772.83.
Assistance given in 1955, $200.26.
Present balance for McLean,
$572.57.

Please note that there was twice as much money spent as was donated in 1965.

Since January 1966, the American Red Cross has assisted one family with food and helped provide them
a place to live—aided five others who needed food and gasoline—and is now helping a veteran to receive an increase in his pension.

I will do my best to serve Mc-Lean in any way possible. Remember—you, the people of Mc-Lean, are our Red Cross, so please give as generously as you can.

4-H'ers KEEP UP WITH ZOOMING POULTRY INDUSTRY

Consumption of poultry products is expected to take another jump this year as pork and beef production declines, according to statements made at the recent Junior Poultry and Egg Fact Finding Conference at Kansas City, Mo.

Among the young delegates attending the 13th annual event
were 4-H Club and FFA members chosen for their top poultry projects.
They held their own clinics,
heard expert poultrymen and toured the vast display of equipment used in the $6 billion poultry industry.

Heisdorf & Nelson Farms,
Inc., of Kirkland, Wash. sponsor for the fifth straight year
of the national 4-H Poultry program, was one of the exhibitors. Representing the worldwide hatcheries was A. L. Carter, assistant manager of the franchise department.

Mr. Carter talked to the young visitors about careers in the industry. Among the challenging fields, he said, are genetics,
nutrition, veterinary science
and teaching.

Successful careers also can be found in advertising, transportation, engineering, marketing and accounting, he added.
He urged farm youth who plan to earn their livelihood off the farm.

Arthur Heisdorf, president,
also has talked to 4-H members
office.

The grand champion barrow of the 1966 Top o' Texas Junior Livestock Show was shown by Randy McCracken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy McCracken of Alanreed. The 210 pound Poland China sold last week for $1.00 per pound.

Support Urged For Hi-Plains Eye Bank

M. M. (Joe) Burroughs, president of the McLean Lions Club, urges the residents of McLean to support the sight restoration work of the Hi-Plains Eye Bank.

One of the chief service efforts of the McLean Lions Club is blind activities. A small per cent of the blind whose blindness is caused by a defective cornea, may be helped to see again by a corneal transplant operation.

Donor eye tissue is provided to eye surgeons for corneal transplant surgery, other types of eye surgery
and research by the Hi-Plains Eye Bank.

Anyone of legal age can arrange to donate his eyes after death to the Hi-Plains Eye Bank by signing a donor during his lifetime. The next of kin may also donate the eyes of the deceased after death.

Age, sex, race or condition of vision have no bearing on donating eyes. All major religious faiths approve the donation of eyes to eye banks.

Anyone in McLean wishing to donate his eyes for sight restoration work may receive a donor
form by writing to the Hi-Plains Eye Bank, 320 Herring Hotel, by phoning DR 3-4004, Amarillo, or by calling Jay Thompson, GR 9-2413,
who has information and forms available, or any member of the McLean Lions Club.

to Sgt. J. W. Wilson, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

some 2,340,000 vehicles registered in Texas to secure the 1966 safety inspection sticker. The period set by law for securing the 1966 sticker ends at midnight, April 15, and there can be no extension of that deadline. The sergeant stated, “Any Texas license plates that does not display the 1966 sticker after April 15 is subject to arrest by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, city police-

Medicare Blanks Available at P. O.

Acting Postmaster Frank Simpson
of McLean announced this week
that application blanks for supplemental Medicare benefits are available at the main window of the McLean Post Office.

The application blanks are being made available as the Social Security Administration seeks to contact 3.1 million senior citizens
before a March 31 deadline imposed by the Medicare law.

President Johnson has proclaimed March as “National Medicare Enrollment Month.” He urged all federal agencies and all citizens to cooperate in enrolling senior citizens in the program.

Initially, some two and one-half million application blanks were distributed to nearly 34,000 main post offices throughout the 50 states.
Additional forms are available as needed.

Through direct mailings and other means, the Social Security Administration has had contact with 16 of the 19.1 million citizens who will be 65 or over on July 1. Of the 16 million who replied, less than one million said they did not want to sign up for the supplemental program.

The supplemental program costs
$3 a month and provides doctor
bill and other benefits. Everyone 65 and over is eligible for the basic hospital benefits under Medicare.

A copy of the application blank
is displayed on the lobby bulletin board of the McLean Post Office.

Senior citizens who reached 65
before 1966 face a two year delay
if they do not sign up by March 31. The application forms are pre-addressed to the Social Security Administration in Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. A. L. Grigsby and Mrs.
Richard Norman, accompanied by Mrs. Jim Morris of Pampa, visited in Lubbock and Midland the first of the week.

SAY "CHE-E-E-S-E"

You don't have to be on a candid camera to say "cheese" and so broaden your smile. It's also a smart thing to say when you want something interesting for a simple menu, easy to prepare, tasty and nutritious.

Cheese is made from milk skimmed milk or cream. Most types are made from whey, but some are based on curd. The process is one of enzyme or ferment action; the ferments are derived from various molds or bacteria. The type of cheese is determined by the mold or the bacteria and by the process used.

A Concentrated Food
Cheese is a concentrated protein food, containing up to 36 percent by weight of protein, mainly casein. Thus a three ounce portion of cheese would supply about one ounce of protein, or about 40% of a day's requirement for an adult male (154 pounds) doing average work. The fat in cheese varies from almost none in uncreamed cottage cheese to about 30 percent in the more 'fat' cheeses.

Almost every nation has its favorite cheeses, determined by the kind of milk used, the enzyme, and the conditions of curing. Practically every variety of foreign cheese is paralleled by a similar type made in the United States. Often the domestic is indistinguishable from the import. This is due to the immigration of expert cheese makers from many nations, and the duplication of aging conditions such as constant-temperature caves, where the same procedure can be carried on as in the original setting.

Cottage Cheese Popular
Possibly the cheese in most common use is cottage cheese, because of its mild flavor, less calories, and its adaptability to mixing with cream, chives, pineapple or other flavorings, and its compatibility with fruits for a low-calorie, vitamin and mineral-rich luncheon platter. The Germans call it 'schmierkase' (spreading cheese).

English and American
English cheddar and its American counterpart are popular, too, for toasted sandwiches, Hollandaise dressing, in cream sauce, as a garnish for apple pie, in cold cuts and for topping casseroles of scalloped foods, or just for eating by the hunk as snacks.

Cream cheese is useful as a basis for cheese dips, with one of the 'bleu' varieties such as French Roquefort, Danish or American bleu, English Stilton or Italian Gorgonzola. Other good white cheeses are American brick, Dutch Edam or Gouda, French Brie, Savoia or Neuchâtel, or 'pineapple'.

More Robust Flavors
Somewhat more robust in flavor are the Swiss types, Gruyere or Emmenthal, the French Camembert and the Belgian Limburger, or the American Liederkranz.

A useful cheese for sprinkling over pasta dishes or onion soup or wherever a dash of piquancy is desired, is grated Parmesan. This is best purchased, if possible, in chunks, and grated directly off the piece, but the ready-grated product is good if it is kept closed, refrigerated and not allowed to grow too old.

Brown Cheeses
Brown cheeses are a favorite in Scandinavia; they include goats' milk cheese and the German Muenster. Gourmet varieties of cheese are flavored with sage, spices and wines.

Yes, madam, when in doubt, say che-e-ese—and smile.

New Car Wash At Triangle Station

The Triangle Service Station located on West Highway 66 has put in a new coin-operated car wash.

Now washing the family car is no longer a chore. The work is done by the Jenny 25c Car Wash, a new product of the Homestead Valve Manufacturing Co. of Coraopolis, Pa. The car is driven into the wash area, a quarter is dropped in the slot, an indicator is turned to "wash," and the clean-up is under way.

After about three minutes of washing the car with warm water and a detergent through a non-splash spray gun, the indicator is turned to "rinse" for a fast, two-minute washing away of the suds.

The car is driven to the drying area, where you can dry the chrome and glass with paper chamomile towels. These are purchased at the car wash unit, three for 10c. The unit is ready for operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Lee Mays and sons, operators of the service station where the coin-operated car wash is located, report that they will also be handling boats and motors.

FIGHT POVERTY
PROMOTE PEACE!

Don't disappoint these innocent children. They're depending on you for their next meal, the medical care they require, the clothes they wear. Because of your generosity last year to the Bishops' Overseas Relief Fund, 17,000 children on the peninsula of Malaysia received bread daily; a $150,000 school for homeless girls was built in Hong Kong; a school for the deaf and dumb was established and fully equipped in Ecuador. Once their hunger is satisfied and they are helped to help themselves, these people can begin to attain self-sufficiency and human dignity. Thus, we appeal to your generosity in the 4966 Bishops' Overseas Relief Fund Drive, March 13-20. Send your contribution to: Bishops' Overseas Relief Fund, Empire State Bldg., New York, N. Y. 10001. If you're looking for safety in numbers, try these figures on United States Savings Bonds.

The value of Savings Bonds adds up at a safe, steady rate. When your Bonds are held to maturity, you get back $4 for every $3 that you invest. And that interest is guaranteed.

Furthermore, you don't pay any state or local income tax on E Bond interest. The federal income tax may be deferred until you cash them. When you need the cash, your Bonds convert in a jiffy. But the best part of the Savings Bond quotation doesn't show up on the tables—the pride you can feel that your money is put to work helping to strengthen freedom's cause throughout the world.

It all adds up to the fact that United States Savings Bonds are a mighty hard-working investment. Millions of Americans have found Bonds the star-spangled way to save.

That figures, doesn't it?

LESSONS FROM THE LAST QUILL AND TESTIMONY

by Vani Neff

The aftermath of New York City's transportation strike still rankle. And from it a great many lessons of national importance can be learned.

There are important questions to be answered here. Why do members of any union tolerate irresponsible leadership?

It would seem preposterous to all of us if we turned on a water faucet only to find that the people who maintain our water supply had gone out on strike.

Measured by public opinion, New York City's transportation shut-down did more damage to public morale than the drought, three newspaper strikes and the night of the great electrical black-out combined.

as he wishes. If 14B should be repealed, it would enhance the power of union leaders to force unionism on working men who do not want it.

When Michael Quill, the T.W.U.'s late labor leader, on a national TV interview said that, if the Londoners could take the devastation of a transportation strike...

Even that extreme liberal, Walter Reuther, President of the United Auto Workers, is reported to have said, "Society cannot tolerate strikes that endanger the very survival of society..."

After the strike, again on national TV, the Transportation Union's leader assailed the President of the United States and accused him of having played "cheap politics with the lives and fortunes of the people of the city".

A large crowd heard the declamation contest at the high school auditorium last Friday night.

A large number of contestants were present and it was universally agreed that the standard of the declaimers was higher than at any similar event.

The judges found it a difficult matter to decide the winners, and in several cases the first place was voted three ways.

This contest was held to narrow the contestants down to one person in each class for the county meet to be held at Pampa in April.

In the high school, Emory Crockett won first place for boys and Roland Wingo second.

In the junior class, Billy Wilson won third place. He was the first boy to take his calves to the show.

Perry Everett made the high score in a shoot with the Shamrock Gun Club last Thursday, making a perfect score of 25 hits in 25 shots.

The occasion was to shoot off a tie between McLean and Shamrock, resulting in a victory for McLean with a score of 102 to 100.

Mr. Everett's score was the first perfect score to be made by either club this season.

C. E. Truitt, manager of the Legion Theatre, has moved his family to McLean, and is now living in the new house recently erected by Geo. W. Sitter in the south part of town.

The McLean grade school girls' volleyball teams won games from the Pampa and Alanreed high school teams in recent matches.

Miss Harris, McLean coach, used two complete teams in each match, and it was only when the second team was playing that either the Pampa or Alanreed girls were able to win.

The McLean girls who played were: First team — Floie Holt, Berniece McClellan, Fabrice Gallo-way, Cleo Ledbetter, Opal Thacker, Naomi Hancock; second team — Berniece Combs, Opal Tedder, Gwendolyn Koen, Marie Eudey, Adeline Riddle and Gloria Moon.

SIX FLAGS TO OPEN 1966 SEASON ON APRIL 15

Six Flags Over Texas, the 115-acre theme amusement park located in Arlington, Texas, midway between Dallas and Fort Worth, will open its 1966 season on Friday, April 15 at 2 p.m.

The announcement came from Angus G. Wynne, Jr., president of Great Southwest Corporation, owner/operators of Six Flags, which will be celebrating its fifth anniversary this year.

During the spring season (April 15-May 27), the park will be in operation on Friday afternoons and all day Saturday and Sunday, beginning May 28 and extending throughout the sum-day and reorganized. The new lieutenant is Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, and the patrol leader is Shirley Johnston. They have decided to meet only twice a month, the second and fourth Friday nights.

The new officers are: Shirley Johnston, patrol leader; Helen Sharp, second patrol leader; Vada Appling, secretary-treasurer; Leta Mae Phillips, reporter.

The girl scouts are starting their work differently this time and hope to be more successful.

Many McLean boys took fat calves to the Amarillo fat stock show last week. Over 200 calves, besides sheep and hogs, were shown. James Lee Rice won first prize in group of five.

In the junior class, Billy Wilson won third place. He was the first boy to take his calves to the show. Every boy sold his calf at auction for a good price.

Mr. Everett made the high score in a shoot with the Shamrock Gun Club last Thursday, making a perfect score of 25 hits in 25 shots.

The occasion was to shoot off a tie between McLean and Shamrock, resulting in a victory for McLean with a score of 102 to 100.

Mr. Everett's score was the first perfect score to be made by either club this season.

Cpl. Joe Cooke received his discharge at El Paso after three years service in the army air corps, 9 months of which was spent in Guam.

Lt. Leo J. McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McDonald of McLean, returned home Sunday for a 22-day terminal leave, after which he will report to Eagle Mountain Lake for his discharge.

Spencer B. Sitter, MMR 3/c, received his discharge from the Navy at Norman, Okla., March 5. He served in the Pacific area for 12 months, being assigned to the USS Collingsworth.

6 Months Ago

Six months until September 5 (Labor Day), Six Flags will be open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Six Flags, which was built at a cost of $10,000,000, has attracted over 6.6 million visitors from all over the United States since opening in 1961.

The Texas Tourist Development Agency now ranks Six Flags Over Texas as the most popular single tourist attraction in the Lone Star State.

Let's Go Fishing! Outdoor Editor, Mercury Outboards

TANGLING WITH TROUT

While bass fishermen reportedly outnumber anglers who seek trout, the cold water products of mountain streams and lakes are a main reason for the annual summer migration to northern areas.

And, say the fishing experts at Mercury outboards, this is the time of year to lay plans for the season's outings and to learn something about the fish that almost always plays an important role in a northern or western vacation.

In general, most families will find either cutthroats, browns, rainbows or brook trout filling their creeks.

These trout follow similar patterns in their habits and are accessible to everyone in the family. They frequent undercut banks, root tangles, shaded pools and feed on rocky bottoms that harbor aquatic insects.

Water temperature is of vital concern. When surface water is between 33 and 50 degrees, they lie in the depths.

The idea for McLean's float was worked out by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Talbert and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Williams. Mrs. Talbert did most of the delicate painting of the signs and buildings.

Sight and Hearing Deficiencies Plague School Children

Bad eyesight plagues one out of every five children in the United States. And one child in every 25 has hearing trouble. Either of these difficulties could interfere with your child's success at school or with his social adjustment, says a new leaflet from the American Medical Association. If you recognize the clues, defective vision is easy to spot. Your child may blink frequently, rub his eyes, squint, frown or balk at doing close work. Hearing troubles, too, show up in habits. Your child may cock his head to one side, misunderstand or ignore instructions, speak too softly or too loudly, or act inattentive and restless—all because he cannot understand the sounds around him. If you are concerned about your child's vision or hearing, check with your family physician. After an examination, he may refer you to a physician who specializes in vision or hearing problems.

An ophthalmologist is a physician who specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of eye disease. He may use drugs, prescribe glasses and perform eye surgery. An ophthalmologist can tell when failing eyesight is related just to the lens system of the eye and when it has been caused by injury, disease or possible poisoning. An otologist is also a medical doctor. He is trained to detect the type and extent of hearing loss and to decide if medical or surgical treatment is needed. The otologist can determine by a variety of tests whether loss of hearing is due to nerve damage or to an interference with the transmission of sound waves to the hearing organ. He may find that a child who is hard of hearing can be helped by something as simple as removing wax from the ears. In more serious conditions, a hearing aid or one of several operations may be recommended by the otologist.

It is highly important to your child's growth and development to be constantly alert to signs of defective vision or hearing, and to seek medical attention promptly.

OUR FAVORITE FABLE

Once a fellow was traveling through a big forest when suddenly it began to rain in torrents. For shelter he crawled into a hollow tree. The rain swelled up the sides of the hole until he couldn't get out. It is said that he sat there for a long while thinking of all the mean things that he had ever done. As he pondered his past, and thinking that his judgment day had come, it is said that he began to feel smaller and smaller. After a while he easily crawled out through the hole. Maybe, the sun shrank the sides of the tree back to normal, but it does help bring us down to normal sometimes when we get to pondering our past.

★ That purchase, in the words of Lyndon B. Johnson, "set into motion the greatest thrift program the world has ever known."

★ Since that day in 1941, Americans have bought more than $130,000,000,000 worth of Series E and H Savings Bonds.

★ From those savings have come new homes, college educations, dream vacations, paid-up hospital bills, unexpected life improvements.

★ Americans still own almost $50 billion in Savings Bonds... $50 billion worth of personal security... security from want... from fear... from loss of independence.

★ $50 billion worth of security from loss of freedom in today's troubled world.

★ Join the greatest thrift program in the world. For your future and your family's future. And your country's future.

Alanreed Study Club
Goes on Field Trip

The Alanreed Twentieth Century Study Club went on a field trip Friday, March 11.

The first stop was Claude, where the group visited the tomato nursery.

There are two large buildings. There were corn, beans and tomatoes in one, and just tomatoes in the other. It was a real pretty sight with large red tomatoes among the green ones, all close together. Light came in from the roof, and it is kept at a certain temperature. There were watering facilities and a sawdust-like mixture covered all the ground. It was a pretty sight to see.

The next stop was at the museum in Canyon. The modes of living of the Indians and pioneers of the west, many historical documents and many other things were on display, which is very educational. Also the art display was wonderful. The group ate lunch in Canyon and went to Amarillo on the freeway to Sunset Center and spent the rest of the day shopping.

Making the trip were Mrs. LaRue Hambright, Kinnette, Beth and Billy Frank; Mrs. Marjorie Fish and Jay Dee; Mrs. Laura Goodman, Mrs. Ada Simmons, Mrs. Barbara Hambright and Mrs. Jessie Mae Roland.

Mrs. Frank Hambright and Mrs. Kinnette Hambright and children attended the Clarendon High School senior play Friday night, and visited with relatives.

Frank Reeves of Fort Worth, Texas, left, livestock editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, and Dolph Briscoe, Jr., of Uvalde, Texas, right, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation received distinguished service awards from the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association during the 89th annual convention in Fort Worth, March 8. Making the presentations was Fred Wulff of Brady, TSCRA president, shown here congratulating Mr. Reeves.

QUESTIONS & A

Q—Is there a special protection for a veteran who has been receiving a 100% disability from the VA for almost 20 years, I thought that a law was passed on this matter.

A—The law to which you refer states that after a veteran has had a service-connected disability for 20 years, his disability rating cannot be reduced below the lowest rating that he has held during that 20 year period.

Q—I have read in your column that a veteran can collect a pension from the VA for the time he served in the service if he retires or becomes unable to work. Is this correct?

A—Veterans of WW I, WW II or the Korean conflict who were discharged under other than dishonorable conditions after 90 or more days service, or because of a service-connected disability, who are permanently and totally disabled from reasons not traceable to service may be entitled to a nonservice-connected pension if their income from all sources does not exceed $1800, if single, or $3000 with dependents.

Q—My pension was discontinued when I received an extra large dividend which put me over the ceiling. Does this mean I am no longer able to receive a pension?

A—If this was a one-time payment your pension will only be discontinued for the current year. Next year you will again be eligible, providing your income reverts to the status it was prior to being discontinued.

BACK TALK

Writing this column is the most one-sided conversation I have ever engaged in; however, I know that practically every married man appreciates the condition. It reminds me of the story of the boy who came into the house and asked his dad a question. The dad said he was tired and had a headache and suggested the boy ask his mother. "Naw, dad, I really don't want to know that much about it."

In the last 22 years our Gray County tax evaluations have doubled and the rate of taxation has almost tripled, roughly making our county taxes five times what they were in 1944. One out of every eight working people in the United States is working directly or indirectly for the government. Never in the history of the world has it required so many to govern so few.
