GRASSHOPPER SPRAYING Contract for spraying the approximately 16,000 acres of rangeland for grasshoppers in the east central portion of the county went to Tommy Fondron of the Lorenzo Flying Service, Lorenzo. The bid was for about 91/2 cents per acre, much less than we expected. Spraying started Tuesday, June 21. Planes were calibrated and checked out, and weather permitting the job could be completed within a week or 10 days. The chemical is concentrated Malathion and is sprayed in its undiluted form. ### Alanreed Group To Hold Contest for Naming of Park

Alanreed Improvement Association met Friday night, June 17. at the school gym.

Mrs. Mabel Worsham called the meeting to order. Mrs. Iva Cox read the minutes of the last two meetings.

Work on the park was discussed It was decided to work one day a week in the park until all work is completed.

Mrs. Worsham was given the authority to purchase an electric box for the park when the need arises. Mrs. Anita Bruce suggested a contest on naming the local park. The suggestion was approved and a $5 prize will be given to the winner. All citizens of Alanreed are invited to send suggestions to Mrs. Mabel Worsham, Box, 86, Alanreed. Judges will select the final three names, and at the August meeting a vote by the local people will decide the winner. Refreshments were served to all who attended the meeting. The

FASHION SHOWCASE

Focusing a Fashion Eye On Coats and Suits By Jewel

While the shorter-than long coat is in the spotlight and provides one of the best means of balancing knee high skirts for a smart 'total' look, there are plenty of traditionalists around who are not going to give up the idea that the coat should hide the dress, therefore both lenghts are good. Car coats come in every length, and materials come in everything from leather to silk, with the simulated leathers, and nylons, in the lead. Brocade nylons with fur collars, and plaids with red linings are pretty indeed.
