All have passed out at the meeting of the Gray County chapter to be held the last of the month. Above completed CPR for the first time was sponsored by High General Hospital and directed by Frank Phillips.

The course was supported by the American Heart Association. It was given for the first time by Phillips College. The course was held in the Lovett Memorial Library Auditorium at the recent meeting of the Gray County Chapter of the American Heart Association.

Dr. C. F. Sparger, instructor at Frank Phillips College in Cardiopulmonary resuscitation gave a lecture on the indications for the use of pacemakers.

It was discussed that pacemakers are mandatory in certain cases in which the pulse is very slow or in cases in which the patient tends to have certain arrhythmias. A slide presentation was also given as to the technique of the insertion of a pacemaker. A pacemaker was passed around to the audience for their view-

Special election on amendments slated

Two proposed amendments to the State Constitution will be offered to voters of Texas in a special election on Tuesday, April 22, at the Legion Hall. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

One amendment revises and raises the ceiling on state contributions to state and local retirement systems, including teacher retirement; and the other is a new proposal for increasing the salaries of members of the Texas Legislature.

Amendment No. 1 has two major purposes: (1) to consolidate nearly all constitutional provisions relating to state and local retirement systems in one section of the Constitution; and (2) to lift the ceiling on state contributions to state systems from the existing maximum of 6 percent of the aggregate compensation paid to individuals to a maximum of 10 percent.

The amendment continues in effect the public retirement and benefit programs and systems already established under the Constitution laws, authorizes the Legislature to create other systems and programs, and requires funding and fiduciary standards necessary to maintain such systems and programs on a sound actuarial basis. The "sound actuarial requirement" is intended to place a high level of fiscal responsibility on legislative and administrative bodies concerned with the creation, funding and management of public retirement systems of Texas, and is an entirely new provision.

The amendment provides that the amount to be contributed by persons participating in either Employees Retirement or Teachers Retirement systems shall be established by the legislature at not less than 6 percent of current compensation, and the amount contributed by the state may not be less than 6 percent (the present ceiling) or more than 10 percent of the aggregate compensation paid to individuals. In an emergency, as determined by the governor, the legislature would be authorized to appropriate additional sums as may be actually determined to be required to fund benefits under the law.

Amendment No. 2 would increase the salary of members of the Legislature from the present $4,800 per year to $7,200 per year; and the per diem allowance (for the first 120 days of a regular session and 30 days of a special session) from $12, as now provided, to $30 per day for each day during regular and special sessions.

It also removes a ceiling on mileage allowances for Members of the legislature, now set at $2.50 for every 25 miles, to entitle members of each house to mileage at the same rate as prescribed by law for employees of the State of Texas.

The proposed pay raise amendment is the seventh submitted by members of the Legislature since the present salary scale was adopted in 1960. Six have been rejected by voters.

The various pay raise amendments were submitted, and rejected, in 1965, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1972 and 1973. The 1970 proposal was to let a commission set legislative salaries...the others proposed pay raises in varying amounts.

The proposed amendment, if approved, would increase the annual pay of legislators from the present maximum of $5,240 (salary and per diem) in regular session years to $10,800...and in off-years, from $4,800 to $7,200, plus the $30 per diem without limit on special sessions.

The change in mileage allowance would increase the travel allowance for legislators from the present ten cents per mile to the current 16 cents per mile allowed state employees.

An air cushion vehicle which skims over the water at speeds up to 60 miles per hour now makes the trip between San Diego and Tijuana, Mexico, in 15 minutes.

House of Rep. Pass Area Tournament New Constitution Held In McLean

"A new constitution for Texas as passed the Texas House of Representatives and is now being sent to the voters," State Representative Phil Cates said this week at the Capitol.

The Authority of the Silent Scriptures

Full respect for God's word demands more than many are willing to give. We must study, perceive and accept the authority of God's silence. He does not have to say "thou shalt not" in order to prohibit a thing. Failure to recognize or accept this principle has been one of the fundamental underlying causes of religious differences. Those of those who went before us recognized the importance of this principle. It is evident that whatever God has not commanded has not been instituted by express commands of Scripture, and what is not wanted nor observed nor does he want to be served with, nor will he have his word set aside nor made to the pleasure of men." This was written by Dirk Philips in the 16th Century in his book "Vindication." That there is such a principle is clearly stated in 1 Cor. 14:35 where Paul writes that "ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written." We see it applied: Acts 15:1 we read of certain brethren who taught circumcision as a Christian doctrine and insisted on its observance. The apostles and elders wrote the brethren concerning this practice, "We have heard that certain men who went out from us have troubled you with words, saying that ye must be circumcised, and that ye must keep the law of Moses." They proceeded to repudiate the actions of certain men. Even though circumcision had been commanded under the Old Covenant, it could not be imposed upon the church since no commandment concerning it had been given. And again, while explaining the need for the Melchizedek priesthood of Christ, the Hebrews says, "For the priesthood being changed, there is also of necessity a change also of the law. For he of these things are said belongeth to another tribe, which no man hath given attendance at the altar. It is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah; which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priests" (Heb. 7:12-14). Because of a lack of respect for the authority of the silence of God's word, men have introduced infant baptism, sprinkling for baptism, counting beads, burning incense, instrumental music, and hundreds of other things that God did not specifically forbid into worship. The concept that "I can do anything God does not forbid" in Christian worship lets in an avalanche that few are willing to accept. Man has the same authority for using wine and bourbon in the Lord's Supper (may it never be) as he does for infant baptism, sprinkling for baptism, instrumental music, etc.: no authority at all for anything else. Read carefully Lev. 10:1-3 where Nadab and Abihu died for the law of silence. God had not specifically forbidden the use of their fire by a positive command. Howbeit it was forbidden since he had specified that they were not to use the fire from the perpetual fire on the great altar before the tabernacle for incense. It is sad that so few understand and/or recognize the authority of the silence of the scriptures today. The writing by inspiration tells us: "...his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the KNOWLEDGE of him that hath called us to glory and virtue;" (2 Peter 1:3). Where does the authority of man and HIS doctrines? "But in vain they do teach me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (Matt. 15:9)

For Tasty Dieting Try Red Snapper

For many people with bulging waistlines, unappealing diets may be put off until tomorrow. Low-calorie, high-protein seafood fixed with a flair could provide a solution for such wavering will power.

Although seafood is an excellent diet food, it is equally suited for gourmet appetite. One of the preferred tin fishes from the Texas Gulf is the brilliant red snapper, which can be featured in many recipes. Because of its firm texture and delicate flavor, a wide variety of cooking methods and seasonings may be used.

The following recipe uses onion and bell pepper to bring out the fine flavor of this fish.

Market Report

Beef is "defying" the rising grocery price index, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt reported this week.

Consumers are finding now that many cuts--once considered "budget strainers" -- are in fact, more economical.

Across-the-board beef features include chuck roasts and steaks, ground beef, rib and round steaks and liver.

In poultry departments, some markets have special prices on fryer parts and whole birds, while egg prices are steady or slightly lower than last week.

Potatoes are quite plentiful, in many markets they cost less than half off last year's prices.

Cabbage, carrots and cooking greens are other economically priced vegetables, along with celery, broccoli and rutabagas.

Onion prices, however, are up a bit--due partly to a late crop in the Texas Valley area.

At fruit counters, grapefruit supplies are dwindling with prices edging upward. Steady prices appear on oranges, bananas, apples and pears, while strawberries and pineapples are more plentiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Estes of Pampa announce the birth of a son born April 13th in Highland General Hospital, weighing 3 pound 10 ounces.

His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Estes of McLean and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Henley of Pampa. His great-grandmother is Pearl Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Williams of Denver, Colorado are the proud parents of a baby girl, born April 11, weighing 7 1/2 pounds. She was named Erica Adrienne.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Tindall of Phillips, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams of McLean.

AUSTIN — Texans are going to get to vote on a new constitution this year after all.

Final legislative agreement on the article-by-article revision proposal will send it to the polls November 4 for a showdown decision by voters.

A major campaign is shaping up for the document, and several efforts can be expected against individual sections.

At least, the revision is shorter, simpler and better organized than the present patched-up constitution. It would give the governor needed fiscal controls, appointive power and agency reorganization authority.

The proposed unified court system is not without some strong criticism, as well as backing. The finance article requires uniform standards and procedures for tax appraisal and countywide appraisals.

Counties, through the new local government article, would be able to change their governmental structure and adopt ordinances. Environmental protection would be mandated along with access to comprehensive health care and equal education.

Voters will decide earlier on two constitutional changes — on April 22. On the ballot then are recommended "emergency" improvements in state employees' and school teachers' retirement programs and a $600 a month pay scale and expense account increases for legislators.

MONEY RUNNING OUT

State revenues, rapidly shrinking in spite of a once-fat $1 billion "surplus," will be far short of needs for real school finance reform, two government officials maintain.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Legislative Budget Board chairman, predicted about $450 million to $500 million will be available after the general state budget is approved. LBB Director Tom Keel estimated the main budget "leftover" at $472.8 million. That's nearly $300 million below the most modest pricetag of major education finance bills backed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

Hobby said the teachers will get a pay raise — less than they are asking — but many other provisions of the Briscoe and Texas State Teachers Association bills cannot be financed.

PRIMARY DELAYED

Presidential preference primary legislation went to conference committee with initial Senate instruction to retain a self-destruct feature which would make the legislation effective for 1976 only.

Sponsors are still trying to get rid of the mandate so they can make the primary a permanent election procedure, unless repealed, as is the case with most laws.

WATERWAYS BILL PASSED

The Senate designated Texas Highway Department as state sponsor for a joint state-federal effort to maintain 426 miles of Gulf Intracoastal waterways.

The Department will cooperate by providing spoil disposal areas along the 426 mile main channel from the Sabine River to Brownsville.

COURTS SPEAK

The State Supreme Court will review a Laredo case which Atty. Gen. John Hill claims may have major consequences for enforcement of deceptive trade practices court orders.

The High Court will also hear arguments May 14 in Exxon's appeal from a damage verdict following suicide of an Abilene truck driver who was injured earlier in a refinery accident.

WAKE UP CHRISTIANS

There is no doubt but what this is the end of time of trouble just before the return of Christ to catch away His Bride.

Read Matthew 25:1-13. We have the parable of the 10 virgins--5 wise and 5 foolish. The five wise had oil in their lamps which represents part of the church filled with the Holy Spirit which oil represents. Foolish virgins went to sleep and failed to get their oil supply so their lamps were going out when the Bridegroom came so they were not permitted to go in to the wedding. This tells us that not all that are good church members and try to do right and think they are ready to make heaven and go up with Jesus will not make it unless they are Baptised with the Holy Ghost as Jesus told His disciples when He left to Tarry until they were filled with the Holy Ghost and fire. They did in Acts 2.

God have mercy on the ministers who let the churches sleep or while they are so busy with social activities of the church they can't have old time prayer meetings like they use to have.

Pastors afraid to preach against sin in the church for it would cost them their nice paying job--many would quit and demand a preacher to suit. Poor hungry souls go to church and so often it is so cold spiritually they go away and don't come back. This is why many stay away from church. Now some large organizations will ordain homosexuals. God have mercy. Many say day of miracles is over. God don't heal anymore. Well it is for them but not for those who believe the Bible. Gods word don't change. I have seen people healed of about everything when Drs. gave up and they turned to God with all their heart.

Mark 16: These signs shall follow them that believe; in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover.

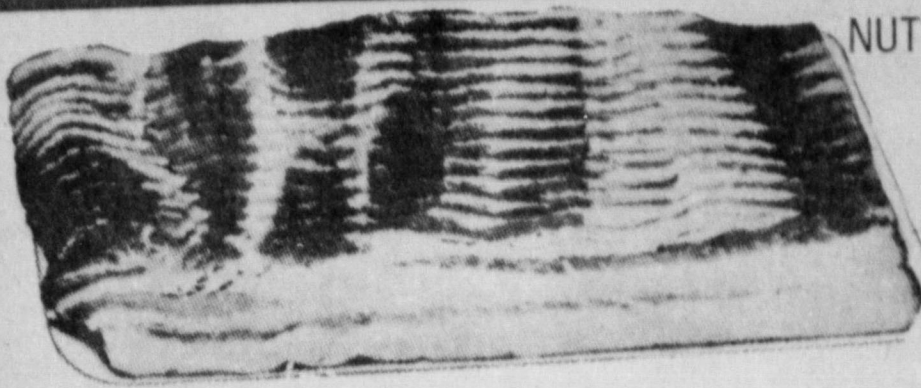

James 5:14-15. Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

And the prayer of faith shall save the sick and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins they shall be forgiven him.

So if you are sick Jesus can heal if you call these that believe to pray the prayer of faith. I'll be glad to answer any questions by mail you may write,

Texas wheat farmers are expected to harvest a record 1975 crop, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White predicted.

ty man who died in a Java Sea shipwreck in 1970 are entitled to inherit from his $51,031 insurance-and-unpaid wages estate, the Supreme Court held.

A $10,500 jury award to a Marshall farmer for pollution damage from Atlas Chemical Industries effluent was upheld by the High Court, but a $25,000 exemplary damages award was rejected.

The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a rape conviction of four San Antonio men because their trial was not postponed to accommodate a lawyer-legislator who had been called into special session.

A Hillsboro burglary conviction of two was also reversed since the jury relied on testimony of an accomplice witness.

AG OPINIONS

Where a county tax assessor-collector is required to assume collection of a city's taxes, he must do so without regard to whether the city's ratio of assessment for prior years has been different from the county's, the Attorney General has held.

In another recent opinion, Hill concluded planning and development of state parks and historic sites may be financed from Texas Parks Fund 31 financed by cigarette taxes.

COUNTIES SHIFTED

Seven West Texas counties have been moved from the North-Northwest Territory to the Central Inland Territory, with a reduction of homeowners and extended coverage rates.

Montague, Jack, Young, Wise, Eastland, Brown and Stephens counties asked the realignment for insurance on buildings. Counties said they didn't have hail, tornado and windstorm damage sufficient to require they stay in the high-rate territory.

SHORT SNORTS

Comptroller Bob Bullock reported unemployment payments climbed 25 per cent last month, to a March total of $20.4 million. The Comptroller said tax revenues will decline when unemployment payments exceed $1 million.

Health Maintenance Organization legislation, providing for a new system of pre-paid, fixed-premium medical and health care services, passed the Senate and is expected to pass the House.

Texas Research League said a tax bill may be necessary this year, regardless of Gov. Briscoe's threats to veto one.

The Governor signed into law a bill assigning priority to in-state use of gas produced from state-owned land.

Ollie Tindall is seriously ill in Highland General Hospital in Pampa.

There were 16 deaths per 100,000 workers in 1974, a new all-time low rate with 13-500 work-related fatalities, according to preliminary reports
 issued by the National Safety Council.

Bicycle Safety Rules To Follow

Riding a bicycle is great fun. Kids do it. Adults do it.
 In fact, today there are over 60 million bicycles in use in America. And the "biking rage" isn't expected to slow down anytime soon.

Bike riders, however,
 should be aware that serious accidents do occur. Crashes injuries and even deaths are on the upswing, despite stronger federal regulations
 on the manufacturers for additional safety equipment
 on bikes. In 1974, the Texas Department of Public Safety reported a 25 percent increase in bike-related fatalities in Texas. Statistics reveal over 2,500 persons were injured in bicycle crashes in 1974.

While it has been found that 89 percent of all bicycle auto crashes occur in the daylight hours, most nighttime crashes tend to produce more serious injuries.

The Texas Medical Association points out that riding bicycles is good exercise, but there are some safety measures that need to be remembered whether wheeling around the block or across country. Don't carry passengers, except when a second seat is provided. Never cling to a moving vehicle. Ride as near to the right side of the road as practical. Don't carry packages that would prevent use of the handlebars.
 Note that bikes are required to be equipped with a white headlight and a red light when riding at night. The law also calls for brakes and a reflector.

Parents are urged to teach children to acknowledge yield situations, stop signs,
 and turn signals of automobiles. Other common violations include riding in the middle of the street or too fast for conditions.

Children and adults alike should have fun, but should also remain constantly alert
 while bicycling!

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

Many Texas children who have never had physical examinations are getting them
 through a medical screening program which has extended services to more than 159,000
 children in the past two years.

These preventive health services are being extended to Texas youngsters, ages 0 to 21 years old, who are on "aid for families with dependent children," "aid to blind" and "aid to totally or partially disabled." All are on welfare rolls.

The Department of Public Welfare is responsible for administering the Texas
 Medical Assistance Program
 and consequently has responsibility for implementation of the periodic screening program.
 But because of the State Health Department's activity
 in this field, the Health Department has taken over responsibility for screening through an agreement between the big agencies. The cooperative program is known as "Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis and Treatment" --- EPSDT.

Object of the program is to identify physical problems in the children and refer them to physicians and other appropriate sources for such services.

Statistics prove that these children are greatly in need of diagnosis and treatment.

In fact, more than one-third of those screened throughout the State were found to have medical problems--some of them of urgent nature.

During the life of the program 159,310 children have been screened and 58,416--- more than 36 per cent referred for treatment. Biggest problem has been in the field of vision, followed by low hemoglobin (anemia). As you would expect in screening so many children, problems do run the gamut from small to major defects.

EXAMPLE:
 A 2 1/2 year-old boy near Bryan, with the aid of State Health Department Laboratories tests and an examining pediatrician, was found to have epilepsy, anemia and high lead content in the blood.

 The child was briefly hospitalized and placed on medication. The child had been delivered by a midwife two months prematurely and had little or no medical follow-up, including immunizations.

A 16 year-old boy with severe acne of the face, shoulders and back was examined.
 His history revealed that he was very uncooperative, caused problems and refused to participate in any social function at the children's home where he lived. Referred to a skin specialist for successful treatment, which gave the youngster a new outlook on life. On his first interview the boy had told a State Health Department worker, I thought after you reached 14, if you still had pimples nothing could be done.

A 9-year-old girl from Tarrant County was found to have a heart murmur, which led to the discovery of a congenital heart defect. Surgery was performed to correct the problem.

A woman whose husband had recently died of kidney disease had two of her children in the hospital for evaluation of kidney problems. She became frightened and removed them from the hospital and medical care. When the children were brought in for screening, the mother was convinced of the importance of medical care. The children were returned to the hospital and now are on kidney dialysis machines awaiting transplants.

A severe ear infection, with a perforated eardrum and hearing loss, was discovered in a 16-year-old boy. Surgical correction produced good results and a return of normal hearing.

The examples of medical help are endless and include:
 six known cases of open heart surgery and many other cases of rheumatic fever; the removal of a benign tumor from the breast of a 16 year-old girl; a diagnosis of acute glomerulonephritis in a 16
 year-old girl, who has now recovered; emergency surgery with resection of a portion of the sigmoid colon of a 17 year-old boy discovered to have rectal bleeding; and the fitting of a false eye in a child who had lost an eye due to an injury two years before.

The State Health Department screening teams are operating in local health departments and public health regions and also have special contracts with children's programs in Dallas and Galveston County. In addition, 14 mobile teams go into unorganized counties. The mobile units operate in Lubbock, Abilene, Region 3 in far West Texas,
 Region 5 in North Central Texas, Region 6 in Central Texas, Region 7 (three teams)
 in East Texas, Region 8 (two teams) in Southeast Texas, Region 9 in Southwest Texas.

Farm-facts

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

Same Story, Fifth Verse... Lowest in 50 Years... Crops Progressing.

Any way you figure it, agriculture income continues to erode. For the fifth consecutive month, farm prices have shown declines. Parity as of the middle of March is 68. That is down a point from a month ago and down 21 points from a year ago.

But for the first time in many months, the livestock and livestock products index did manage to show a meager one per cent increase over the previous month. But in perspective, it is down 27 per cent from the 1974 level. Contributing to the slight increase were higher prices for hogs, lambs, turkeys, and eggs.

Texas farm prices continue in the doldrums. All categories of livestock, with the exception of sheep, continue well below parity levels. Hogs, for example, in Texas averaged $37.30 per hundred pounds, while parity is $46.40.

Calf prices continue to show the most significant difference. Average calf price in Texas is 21.70 cents per pound; parity is 65.60 cents per pound. Thus, calves are bringing less than a third of the parity figure.

Crops are also in similar difficulties. Cotton in Texas averaged 25 cents per pound; parity is 75.28 cents per pound. Grain sorghum averaged $3.99 per hundredweight. This is down 20 cents from a month ago and compares with a parity price of $4.94. Wheat averaged $3.45 while parity is $4.43.

Turkeys at 37 cents per pound average compare with a 45.2 cents per pound parity. Eggs are more than a dime a dozen below parity. Wool and mohair are also at below parity prices, as is milk.

TEXAS IS FAR and away the nation's leading producer of mohair. But mohair production in the state is now at its lowest level in 50 years.

The Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes that production of mohair in the state in 1974 amounted to 8,400,000 pounds. This is the smallest since 1924. The 1974 production is down 15 per cent below 1973.

The average price for mohair was $1.37 per pound; this is down 50 cents from the 1973 high of $1.87. Total value of the 1974 mohair clip is $11.5 million, which is down 38 per cent from the 1973 value.

The number of goats and kids clipped in 1974 was set at 1,175,000 head, which is a decline of 19 per cent from 1973.

SPRINGTIME throughout the state finds crops making good progress. The winter wheat crop will be harvested in Texas in May. Wheat and oats are making good to excellent progress.

Most livestock have been removed from fields where a grain crop is expected and many fields in the southern half of the state have already headed out.

Cotton planting for the state is ahead of last year's schedule. Some replanting was necessary in the coastal bend and Lower Rio Grande valley as the result of cutworm and wind damage.

Sorghum planting is about on schedule with last year. More than a third of the crop has been seeded.

Corn planting is more than half completed. Some damage has been reported due to high winds, and cutworms.

Entertain For OES

By Gail Terry

Three girls from MHS were asked to entertain for the Eastern Star, Saturday April 12. Becky Henley and Janet Smith sang three songs for the affair. These girls have been active all year performing for various events.

Becky and Janet will be going to the State F. H. A. convention in San Antonio this weekend. Becky will be singing in the state choir and Janet is the alternate.

Connie Cunningham gave a poetry reading which she had used in district contest.

Texas Quail Take Maternal Role In Arizona

A strange fate awaited 26 recently trapped male bobwhites quail when they arrived in Arizona from Texas.

The bobwhites were trapped in Texas near the Big Spring area and sent to Arizona where the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is attempting to reestablish the "masked bobwhite".

What the federal officials needed were some adult birds to watch over newly hatched masked bobwhites but not pose any future interbreeding problems.

Once in Arizona, the Texas quail had their sex organs transplanted to their necks.

According to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game biologist Herb Kothmann, the federal biologists hope that male birds will act as "mothers" for the young chicks.

"Both male and female bobwhites have 'brooding' instincts," said Kothmann, "Male birds were easier to work with and the transplant operation assures that the birds will retain this instinct through the continued production of hormones but drastically reduces the possibilities of crosses between the Texas and Arizona stock."

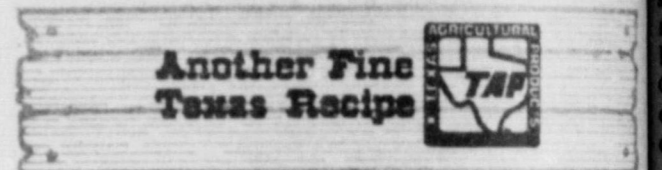

Big Spring is the westernmost range of bobwhite quail in Texas and it is felt that these birds will have a better chance of surviving in the desert environment of Arizona.

Contrary to popular belief, Colonel James Bowie did not invent the bowie knife. His brother Rezin Pleasant Bowie did.

SWEET TREAT--Peanut Marshmallow Log is an easy-to-make candy which combines marshmallows, caramels and chopped peanuts. For additional recipes write Commissioner John C. White, Texas Department of Agriculture, P.O. Box 12847, Austin, Tex. 78711.

PEANUT MARSHMALLOW LOG

2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1/2 of 10-ounce package marshmallows
1 cup confectioners' sugar
1/4 tsp. vanilla extract

1 1/2 cups chopped peanuts
1/2 of 14-ounce package caramels
1 Tbsp. water

Melt 1 Tbsp. butter. Add marshmallows and stir until melted. Beat in enough confectioners' sugar to make mixture of kneadable consistency. Add vanilla and 1/2 cup peanuts. Knead further with more sugar and shape mixture into thin roll, 12 inches long. Press remaining peanuts on wax paper cut into 12 x 4 inch rectangles. Combine caramels with remaining butter and water. When melted, pour caramel over peanuts in a thin even stream, spreading caramel mixture with a knife dipped in hot water. When caramel peanut layer is cool, place marshmallow roll in center. Using wax paper, roll caramel around marshmallow center and seal edges, pressing peanut in carefully. Place in refrigerator long enough to harden, then slice 1/2-inch slices.
