AROUND TOWN

What happened to spring? For the past week, we've experienced summer type weather, with temperatures soaring to the low 90's for several days.

Businessmen and residents are installing air conditioners to prepare for the warm days ahead.

Noticed a number of rose bushes at various homes are beginning to bloom. It's always worth a ride around town just to see the roses in bloom.

Several McLean businesses have moved to new locations and a new appliance store has been opened.

Corinne's Style Shop is now opened for business at its new location west of the bank.

The building, formerly a doctor's office, has been completely remodeled and features carpeting throughout the shop, new fixtures and more space than the former place of business.

Corinne invites the public to come by and see the new store.

The Greyhound Drug Store has moved to its new location, next door to Futrell Chevrolet.

It has been remodeled and also has more space than the old location provided.

Odis Calcoate has opened up an appliance store next door to Parsons Drug.

The store will feature Hotpoint appliances—refrigerators, stoves, freezers, dishwashers, etc.

Odis Electric has been open for business for several weeks now. They are holding their grand opening Thursday of this week. Drop by and visit Mr. and Mrs. Calcoate and their new store.

Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the McLean High School senior class will head for Dallas for an end-of-school trip. Main attraction on the agenda for the trip will be an all day visit to Six Flags Over Texas. They will return home some time Sunday morning.

Accompanying the class on the trip will be their senior sponsors, Mrs. Jon Ann Dwyer and Herb Germer; also Mr. and Mrs. Bob Green and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Fry.

The Starlight Room at the Coronado Inn in Pampa was the scene Friday night of the annual junior-senior banquet.

Sponsored by the junior class, the theme of the banquet was Moonlight and Roses.

Arthur Dwyer, junior class president, was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Featured on the program was the senior toast of thanks by Doyle McCurley, senior class president; song by Gayle Fry; will and prophecy by Calvin Van Huss and Mike Simpson; dance number by Donna Glass; song and farewell to seniors by the junior class.

Helping the class with arrangements for the banquet were Mrs. Shari Porter and Bob Schneider, junior class sponsors.

Following the banquet, a prom was held for the two classes.

New Store to Have Grand Opening

Odis Electric will have a grand opening Saturday, May 21, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Everyone is invited to come in and register for free door prizes and a free Hotpoint trip for two people to the Grand Bahamas.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk was back in the news when he expressed confidence that South Viet Nam's Premier Nguyen Cao Ky would not delay elections in that country or stand in the way of the transfer of power to a civilian government.

Heald Church Becomes 'South Sea Island' for a Night

A large straw hat brim-full of graduation wishes and many gifts were presented to the lovely queen and handsome king.

A salad supper was served from a table covered with a beautiful cloth of many shades of blue and green, representing waves of the waters of the South Seas, with a centerpiece of tropical fruit, nuts and vegetables.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hutson, Mary, Larry and Bobby of Conway; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gray, Terry and Randy of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Clements and Todd of Pampa; Paula Marchbank of Shamrock; Kevin Lankford of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Ott Davis, Jana and Rhonda; Ruby, Lea and Guy Bidwell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. O. ## Livestock Survey Cards to Be Given Postmaster Frank Simpson reminds rural patrons of the McLean Post Office to be on the lookout for June livestock survey cards. Next week, mail carriers will leave survey cards in a sample of boxes along their routes.

"USDA uses livestock and poultry estimates on replies to this survey," Simpson explains. "It is important for everyone who gets a card to fill it out and return it to the carrier. This way, USDA gets a representative sample of the area's livestock and poultry holdings."

Carriers assisting with the survey include J. M. Hathaway, Rt. 1. Survey cards will be forwarded to Cary D. Palmer, state agricultural statistician, in Austin. After adding and analyzing these cards, USDA statisticians are able to estimate the state's milk production, calf and pig crops, lamb and wool crops, and the number of hens and pullets.

Information from this survey will guide livestock and poultry producers in making important business decisions, Simpson concluded.

IS GOD DEAD?

By CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS

I am sure there are many of you who have been shocked and astounded by recent references in magazines and newspapers to the "God Is Dead" controversy raging in theological circles. I know that I have been shocked, angered, and dismayed by the implications of the statements and by the question "Is God Dead?"

God has spoken to man through the ages. The Old and New Testaments of the Bible have related specific instances of His word to us and have recorded His word for eternity. However, as we know, the Bible has been only one of the instruments utilized by our God in revealing Himself to us. He speaks to us every hour and day of our lives through the wondrous beauty and magnificence of nature, the miracle of human birth, and the innumerable unknowns of which man is aware but incapable of understanding.

Man has always worshipped God. He has chosen many different ways of doing so, but his faith has always been secure and history will attest to the fact that throughout all generations man has given strong obedience and personal sacrifice to assure God of his abiding faith and love. As examples of this devotion one can point to the building of great cathedrals and shrines, the composition of the world's greatest music, and the writing of our best-known and most worthy literature. Certainly it would not be difficult for any of us to compile an unending list of similar deeds and actions.

But then came the man of the twentieth century. God had endowed this man with more knowledge and skill than any before him. This man did wonderful things with God's earth and his achievements went far beyond anything his forefathers could have imagined in their wildest dreams. However, this man became self-centered and egotistical and saw himself as a very clever and wise creature possessing all powers and abilities. Twentieth century man became in his own mind the creator of all he surveyed. He thought of himself as being completely independent from all outside forces. And thus it happened that in this process he forgot the truth. He hid from any obligations other than those which served his own well being. He had forgotten God. He had lost his faith in God. And in return for this abandonment of faith, his society became for him a shameful and guilt-ridden spectacle.

Of course, this twentieth century man is not every man. There are many who do acknowledge Him. There are many of us who wish to destroy Him, and destroy Him we can. The first step is the acknowledgement that He does exist among us. The next is for us who do know our God and have faith in His Divine Providence to put ourselves to the task of showing our faith and demonstrating our faith as militantly as this new twentieth century man has denied his faith. This will take much endurance and sacrifice but it must be done if man, as created by our Heavenly Father is to survive.

No, God is not dead. Only the twentieth century man's faith in Him is dead. God is alive. He lives for us. His love is unending and He will never forsake us as many have forsaken Him. He is a forgiving God and will take back into His flock all who are willing to return.

It is now our duty to bring into our lives a dedication never before known in the history of man so that God may know that man once again lives for Him.

Hazards of 'Suntan' Are Pointed Out By Dermatologist

One dermatologist (skin specialist) has predicted that suntanning some day will no longer be a "status symbol" and that people will quit basking their outer hides to a golden brown each summer. The dermatologists have long known of the hazards of suntanning, such as premature aging of the skin and various freckles and blemishes.

But your doctor also knows that, whatever the future brings, some Americans today still are suntanners, and thus the American Medical Association suggests that if you must tan, do it without burning.

Gradual tanning with a minimum of discomfort is possible for most people. Gradual exposure to the sun is the safest and simplest method of acquiring an attractive tan. As a general rule, begin with 15 minutes exposure the first day, and increase the time by a few minutes a day. The time of day is important, with the midday period, when the sun is directly overhead, being the hottest for burning purposes.

Continued tanning brings gradual changes in the blood vessels of the exposed surfaces. The connective tissue of the skin degenerates, causing wrinkles and a coarsening of texture. The "V" of the neck becomes permanently reddened and freckle-like dark spots appear on the skin. These spots can sometimes be the start of skin cancer.

Sun bleaches the hair, too, and over a period of time the sun-bleached hair becomes brittle and unmanageable. However, the damaged hair will eventually grow out.

The physical benefits of tanning are almost nil. The only beneficial effect of sunlight, other than the psychological lift of sporting a good tan, is the formation of vitamin D, and the American diet already provides an ample supply.

TAX SAM SEZ:

Keeping good records has been our theme for quite a few years. We want to repeat that taxpayers need good records. Unfortunately most taxpayers don't keep good records, and sometimes this costs them in extra income taxes. A good record book and a little time and effort is worthwhile for most of us.

The Things We Say

By Ruby Shannon

Recently the principal of our school came by my classroom door. "We're having visitors tomorrow," he said. "Better put up a little eye-wash." What he really meant was that I should put new material on my bulletin board.

The word "eye" occurs in many idiomatic phrases. An "eye-opener" is anything that makes us wake up when we have been familiar with a situation but unaware of its consequences.

"In the twinkling of an eye" means immediately. "The mind's eye" is our mental view of something. When a boy "casts sheep's eyes" it means he has flirted with his girl and then looked down when somebody caught him.

"To eye with longing" means to covet; "to keep an eye on" somebody means that we don't quite trust him; but "my eye" is just an expression of astonishment.

And when we "get an eye-ful" it means that we saw something we were not supposed to have seen, and the less said about that the better.

By FOSTER WHALEY

The Gray County 4-H boys' grass drill has been very busy the past few days. Eben Warner seeded several acres of native grass. The state highway department seeded over 80 acres of right-of-way in the Lefors vicinity. Gordon Taylor, maintenance supervisor, does an excellent job of getting stands of native grass. George Philpott of Miami has seeded about 25 acres on his farm in the Laketon vicinity. Wiley Reynolds seeded about 9 acres of native grass on his irrigated farm just north of Pampa.

Several farmers and ranchers have received new shipments of cattle from the Fort Worth area. A double deck load of 130 head of good and choice 300 pound heifers went to H. H. Keahy a little over a month ago. Since then Earl Smith, new tenant on the Roy Tinsley farm, has received 65 head of the same type cattle. J. D. Skagg has received 135 head Thurman Webster, Lefors, has received 130 head double deck load. Others that plan to purchase light weight stockers are H. H. Waters, Pampa; Jack Stephens, Groom; Jay Henderson, Pampa; Ralph McLaughlin, Laketon; Abe Lewis, Pampa, and Marvin Webster, Pampa. These fellows have been purchasing 300 pound light weight good and choice heifer calves.

Most people that are used to running native calves are surprised at the quality of these cattle. Shrink from purchased weight has been as little as 4 per cent on these cattle delivered to the Pampa vicinity.

Prospective buyers of stocker calves should pay special note to the extremely wide price range between heifers and steers. It is as much as $5 per cwt. Although there is a long list of reasons why steers might be more desirable to run, there is one better reason for choosing heifers if the price difference gets too wide. The heifers will make more money. Unless the slaughter cattle market makes a decisive change the roll back on a 32-cent steer is going to be drastic this fall.

Remember, too, the closer you get an animal to choice grade in the feed lot the narrower the margin becomes between heifers and steers. Starting from a 300 pound animal when the price range is the widest, each stage from stocker to feeder to finished animal, the price spread narrows.

Many times farmers and ranchers pay too much for the advantage of a slightly increased gaining ability, efficiency in feed lot, and definite assurance that the steer won't get piggy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Meacham visited in Lefors Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill McBee and Mr. and Mrs. Billy McBee.

Mrs. W. E. Kennedy attended graduation exercises for her granddaughter, Margie Kennedy, at Vega Monday night.

County Agent Says Irrigation Water Should Be Analyzed

It's not good business to guess at the quality of irrigation water. Rather than be in doubt as to harmful effects of the water on future soil productivity, County Agent Foster Whaley suggests having the water evaluated by a chemical analysis. The ideal time to collect samples is during the highest period of water use.

The need for a chemical analysis is particularly important in areas where new wells are being drilled or old ones are deeper than average for the area. If wells extend into the red bed formation, there is a greater possibility of dangerous salt levels in the water.

Soils vary widely in their ability to tolerate salt without being harmed and some crops are more tolerant than others. Clays, where the water intake rate is already slow, can be made even less porous by a water high in sodium. Obtaining stands can become a problem on the lighter soils due to sodium accumulation that "seals" or crusts the surface, the county agent said.

Water samples may be submitted to the Soil Testing Laboratory at Texas A & M University, College Station. Samples must be accompanied by the complete information sheet which is available from the offices of local county agents. The present testing fee per sample is $5.
