Some of the most rabid Dallas Cowboy fans in the state may live right here in McLean! Just ask Eva Peabody, Lavern Carter, Grace Windom, Jewel Meacham, A.G. Kesterson, Juanita Griffith, Lawrence Watson, and several others anything you want to know about Tom Landry's team, and you'll get a quick answer.

In fact, if you want a real treat, do a little eavesdropping and sneak up and listen to Miss Eva and Lavern watching the Pokes on television. They could give the high school girls lessons on how to cheerlead.

Football fans may be more fickle than the fictitious Southern belle flirt, Tom Landry is the best coach, Dorsett the best back, White the best quarterback, and the Dallas cheerleaders the most beautiful...as long as the team is winning. When they start losing, we all begin looking for a scapegoat and our great Cowboys become the "Clowns."

That's all part of the fun of watching professional football though. I enjoy listening to women who've certainly never played football, must less taken any courses in how to coach, yelling at an expert like Tom Landry, and wishing they could tell him how to coach.

I hope all of us remember that while it is fun to criticize the professional players and coaches, that the "fun" should not be carried over to Friday night high school football.

At those games, we are not watching professional athletes who are drawing six figure salaries, or observing coaches who are multi-millionaires with computers helping make every decision.

We are watching our own home town kids who are, without exception, playing their hearts out, and we are watching coaches who must be as concerned about the health, welfare, and character of their young players as they are about winning.

Football season...there's just nothing quite like it!

Who says the good guys don't win? This story, which has made the rounds from the Arkansas Press Association to the Texas Press Association newsletter, proves that nice guys do finish first. "An insurance company in West Germany conducted a study which suggests that husbands who kiss their wives before leaving for work in the morning live five years longer than the average male. And, they are richer, too (with 20 percent to 25 percent higher incomes). They also lose only half as much time through illness and have fewer accidents. So start kissing your wife (or someone's) every morning, guys!"

Frequently, my mouth gets me in big trouble. I have this peculiar sensation that my mouth has become a separate entity and is acting on its own. See DISTAFF, Page 2.

Tigers Fall To Irish In Season Opener

The enthusiastic McLean Tigers, ready to meet Shamrock Friday night, were apparently charmed by the luck of the Irish as they lost 27-7 in the season opener.

McLean was not without hope as the Tigers, with their improved defense, held their ground in the first quarter, allowing minimal gains by the Irishmen.

Terry Todd kicked off for McLean to begin action Friday night. Shamrock's receiver Greg Williams carried the ball to the 12, for 1st and 10 for Shamrock. On the second play of the game an offside penalty against McLean moved Shamrock to 1st and 5. A run by Shamrock's Jesse Salinas, stopped short by the Tigers, resulted in a fumble. When the pile was unscrambled, it was McLean's ball at the Shamrock 30-yard-line.

But Shamrock was determined to hold the eager Tigers, and a hand-off to James Matheny left McLean two yards short of a first down.

Shamrock's luck had yet to gain any momentum, as they too were unable to move and were forced to punt. Terry Todd received at the McLean 37. At 1st and 10 Todd took the ball up a well-cleared middle to the Shamrock 48 for another first down. Unable to hold on, McLean punted to the Shamrock 23.

As Shamrock was again unable to collect enough yardage, the ball was punted to McLean where it fell dead at the McLean 43. With less than three minutes left in the first quarter, McLean's Dusty Sanders carried the ball in an exciting 27-yard run up the sideline to Shamrock's 30. On 4th and 4 Terry Todd carried the ball and most of the Shamrock line to 14 yard line. Dusty Sanders, ably recovering from a busted play, swept around left end to come up with another 1st down, at the five, as the whistle sounded to end the first quarter.

At the beginning of the second period as Shamrock tried to stop the Tigers from gaining the goal line, the McLean line put Terry Todd into the touchdown and Bill Hambright's extra point kick brought the score to 7-0.

McLean's excitement at scoring on the Irishmen became overzealous and they saw most of the second quarter studded with penalties against the Tigers.

As Billy Jo Skipper pulled the Shamrock kick off receiver down at the 37, McLean was penalized for offside on the kick, moving Shamrock to the 48 yard line of McLean. Another offside against McLean moved the ball to the 44, and 1st and 5 for Shamrock. A holding penalty against the Irishmen brought the ball back, making it Shamrock's 2nd and 18. On the next play Tigers Tim Smith, James Matheny, and Timmy Killham collaborated to bring down Jesse Salinas at the Shamrock 35, forcing the Irish to punt. The ball was dead at the McLean 32.

On first down, Matheny brought the ball to the McLean 37, and Terry Todd on the next play fought his way through the middle to advance the ball to the 45. McLean's hopes for a continued march to the goal line were shattered when a long pass from Dusty Sanders was intercepted by an eager Irishman. Sanders himself tackled the interceptor at the McLean 35.

After some hard yardage gained by the Irishmen, another McLean offside penalty brought the Shamrock green to a 2nd and 3 near the Tiger goal. Using this bit of Irish luck, Shamrock went on to score their first touchdown of the night, which with the extra point, brought the tally to 7-7, with little more than three minutes left in the half.

The next two minutes saw a seesaw battle on the field until Shamrock finally gained the advantage with two runs that gained them a total of 24 yards, bringing them to the McLean 37. Shamrock gained only three yards on the next play as Brock Crockett brought down the pass receiver at the 33, leaving Shamrock at 3rd and 6 with only a minute left. Shamrock used the time to their advantage however, scoring another six points on a 33-yard run by Carl Bennett. With the extra point, the score was Shamrock 14, McLean 7, remaining there until the clock signaled the end of the first half.

At the beginning of the second half, Terry Todd return-

Council Passes Animal Control Ordinance, Discusses City Officer

The McLean City Council approved an emergency ordinance dealing with stray animals in the city limits at its regular monthly meeting in City Hall Sept. 9. The ordinance, number 201, repeals ordinance #133 which concerned dogs and cats in the city, and sets new guidelines for the city. The ordinance provides that it is unlawful for any owner of any dog or cat to allow the animal to be at large within the corporate limits of the City, and that any city employee while on duty can seize and impound, subject to certain provisions of the ordinance, those dogs and cats which are off the property of the owner, not on a leash, at heel beside a person, or within a vehicle being driven.

The ordinance also states that all animals over the age of six months within the city limits must be vaccinated with anti-rabies vaccine every 12 months. Dogs and cats picked up by city employees will be impounded and must be reclaimed within 72 hours or the animal will be destroyed. The ordinance provides for a fine of up to $200 for violation of the ordinance.

Since the large number of stray animals in the city was considered a menace to public health, the council suspended the rule requiring that ordinances be read twice, and declared that the ordinance would take effect 10 days after its publication.

In other business, the council discussed obstructions at several intersections in the city, and discussed ways of removing the obstructions.

The 1980-81 budget was reviewed, but was tabled for approval later.

The council postponed reading ordinance #202 until later. The ordinance concerns a rate increase for Sammons Communications, the television cable concession in McLean.

The council also discussed sending a letter in the next utility bills asking residents to give their opinion on the need for a city law officer. "The City is financially strapped," Mayor Sam Haynes said, "but several citizens have indicated that they think we need a city policeman. By sending out the letters we can ask residents if they want a city policeman and how much they would be willing to have added to their monthly city bill to pay the salary for one."

The opinion poll would not be binding on city officials, but would give the officials some idea of the feelings of the people, Haynes said.

Attending the session were mayor Haynes; councilmembers Boyd Meador, Ruth Magee, Dale Glass, Miro Pakan, and George Terry; and city secretary Stella Lee and city superintendent Bob Glenn.

Steve Myers Burned In Accident

Steve Myers, 23, of McLean received first, second, and third degree burns Sept. 11 when a paraffin pit he was lighting exploded. Myers, an employee of Gulf Oil Company, was working on the East Morse Unit on the Haynes ranch north of McLean when the accident occurred.

According to Pete Blanda of the Pampa Field Office of the company, Myers and another employee were treating a well with hot water and had drained the paraffin into a small pit, standard procedure in the treatment of a well. Myers climbed into the pit to start the fire, but the paraffin exploded. Blanda said that it was a damp morning, and that there was a possibility that gas had accumulated from the well.

Myers was taken to High Plains Hospital in Amarillo where he had surgery Friday.

According to members of his family, he was saved from even more serious burns because he was wearing glasses and an undershirt which protected his chest. He received the most damage to his right hand.

Myers will probably be a patient at the hospital for a few weeks, family members said.

He is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Z.A. Myers of McLean. He is married to the former Becky Leeder. They have two children.

Tigers Will Face Silverton In Homecoming Game

The McLean Tigers, who lost their opener to the Shamrock Irish and their one-man show by speedy Carl Bennett last week, will meet the Silverton Owls at Duncan Field for the annual Homecoming game Friday night. Game time is 8 p.m., with the coronation of the homecoming queen scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

A Homecoming bonfire is set for Thursday night (tonight) at dark on the vacant lot next to the track field.

The Silverton Owls have a 1-1 record for the season, as they lost their season opener to Claude, but blanked Ralls last week 14-0.

Fullback Gary Juarez scored a touchdown and kicked two conversions to help Silverton beat Ralls in non-district football action. Mark Patton scored Silverton's other TD when he returned a pass interception 25 yards in the second period. Silverton is picked last in district 2-A competition by the Top O Texas Football magazine, but Mark Patton, 165 lb. senior halfback from Silverton was picked on the defensive honor roll by the magazine.

JV Tigers Downed By Bobcats

McLean High School's junior varsity Tigers travelled to Childress Thursday night for their season opener and lost to the host team 22 to 0.

According to Coach Jack Dorsett, the Childress team scored four times on quick plays. "Their quickness is what beat us. We played even with them except for four plays, but our kids were just worn out,"

Dorsett said. "They have been going strong for two weeks now without a rest."

The JV team will play restricted schedule this year. The schedule will be played as follows: Sept. 18 - Childress here at 7 p.m.; Sept. 25 - Panhandle there at 6:30 p.m.; Oct. 16 - Wellington here at 7:30 p.m.; and Oct. 30 - Panhandle here at 7:30 p.m.

Killers Get New Trials

She was a nice lady, according to her employees. She managed the pizza place, and treated everyone kindly. She had a good life...quiet, normal, nothing unusual, until the day that David Grijalva and his wife came into the restaurant. A few horrible minutes later she was dead of stab wounds. She had been beaten severely and her assailant had shoved her head into a dough mixing machine.

She probably didn't know the 19-year-old Borger woman who was eagerly awaiting the birth of her first child. That woman saw her husband off to work one morning, and began planning her day. She too, led a quiet, normal life...until Samuel Christopher Hawkins broke into her house...and raped and killed her.

Hawkins, who earned the monicker "The Travelling Rapist", also took the life of 12-year-old Rhonda DeAnn Keys, and raped several women, including a Hereford housewife whom he beat and stabbed 19 times in the face, before he was caught.

These women really had very little in common, except that they were just regular people who became the victims of two madmen...two madmen whose death sentences were overturned last week by a judge who was more concerned with technicalities than he was with guilt or innocence.

No one seems to doubt the fact that both men are guilty of crimes so heinous that decent people shake just hearing the details of what these monsters did. Why, then, would a judge order new trials for them?

How crazy and pointless has our system of justice become when these two would be given new trials, costing the taxpayers several thousand dollars, just because of a minor point of law?

Who protected the rights of women who died in horrible, brutal ways? Who is protecting the husbands, the children they left who will never forget the horror of those deaths? How can those loved ones swallow their rage at the justice system that gives homicidal maniacs every consideration, while trampling on the feelings of the victims and their families?

The biggest political question in our minds should not be inflation or taxes. It should be the reform of a system of justice that has bogged down in protecting the criminal and ignoring the victim.

Is there a politician anywhere tough enough to address this problem?

instead of being directed by my brain.

Some verbal goofs have been heart-rending, like when my temper takes over, and the mouth says hurtful, cruel things it shouldn't have, and other times the goofs have caused just a little contretemps.

For example, the students that I taught when I first came to McLean in 1964 are grown adults, in their thirties, with responsible positions. And some of them just don't want to be called by the same names that were "cute" when they were in high school.

Last summer, Joe Sherrod brought a group of youngsters from a church in Tulsa to the ranch for a picnic. He was the adult sponsor of the group, and I know that when you work with teenagers you have to maintain a certain amount of reserve...or they will get the best of you.

Well, of course, when the piled off the bus, my mouth yelled out a loud "Hi, Joe Billy!"

I noticed the horrified look on Joe's face, and the gleeful look on the faces of his charges. He very quickly came over, and very quietly said "Hey, these kids have never heard my full name...just call me Joe, please!"

The damage had already been done, of course. I soon heard the kids chanting: "Joe Billy, Joe Billy!"

I'm sure that if Joe were not so polite, he could have wrung my neck. At least I cautioned some of his cousins who were present, and demanded that they not use his other nickname from childhood days.

I was thinking of that incident the other day when I walked into a real estate office in Pampa and recognized a woman that I knew when she was my student many years ago as Eva Rose Morgan (the Eva was pronounced with a short "e").

Just as we began talking, someone in the office addressed her as "Eva (long 'e') Hawley. I knew of course that she was married, but when I realized she had dropped the "Rose" from her name, and changed the pronunciation, I started concentrating very hard to keep from making a mistake.

It was only minutes, however, before the mouth took over, and I called her "Eva Rose."

She squealed delightedly, and turned to the man sitting behind her in the office. "See," she said, "that's my real name. I told you people always called me that!"

She went on to tell me how much she missed being called by her "real" name, and that she had simplified the pronunciation of her name for business reasons.

So, now I'm confused...do I use the new name, old name, nickname, or what?

Never mind...the mouth won't remember what you say anyway.

ed the kick-off with a run from the 10 to the McLean 37, but the Tigers were unable to hold the advantage and punted to Shamrock. The ball was dead at the Shamrock 35. Shamrock then advanced the ball to the 41 where the carrier was stopped by Bill Skipper and Tim Smith. McLean managed to maintain control over the Irish advance, forcing them again to punt. Terry Todd covered the ball on a dangerous two yard line, and the Tigers, themselves stopped by a strong Irish defense were forced on fourth down to punt to the Irish, who returned the kick from the 45 to the goal line for their third touchdown of the night. The extra point was kicked, and brought the Irishman score up to 21 points only five minutes into the second half.

The remainder of the third quarter saw little advantage on either side, although a Shamrock illegal motion penalty saw a Irish punt replayed near the end of the quarter.

Fourth quarter action began with McLean 3rd at the McLean 13 but unable to keep the ball. Shamrock took the ball and gained some yardage, but the quarterback was sacked by Billy Kincannon and Theron Stubbs, and Shamrock was called for illegal procedure leaving it 2nd and 10 for the green and white.

Shamrock was again stopped for no gain, this time by James Matheny and Tim Smith, but the Irish then completed a pass to the 32 for the 1st down, the receiver brought down by Bobby Sprinkles. In the next play Shamrock tried a pitch-out to Salinas, who was hit by Dusty Sanders. A penalty against Shamrock's backfield in motion, paced the Irishmen back to 1st and 15. Theron Stubbs then hit the quarterback on the line in the next play, leaving the Irish 2nd and 14 to go. Shamrock's Bennett took the ball for a four-yard gain. Bennett, with 4th and 4 left, carried the ball from the 20-yard line into the end zone for another Irish touchdown, leaving the score at 27-7. The extra point attempt was no good.

After a Shamrock kickoff Terry Todd took the ball on the 20 and returned it to the 42, but the Tigers were unable to make any headway before the final whistle.

Students Registering Now For ACT Tests

Don Van Pelt, McLean school counselor, announced this week that students who want to take the test portion of the ACT Assessment on the first 1980-81 national test date, October 18, must have their registration materials completed and mailed before the September 19 deadline. The full 1980-81 schedule of test dates and deadlines is as follows: test, Oct. 18, deadline, Sept. 19; test, December 13, deadline, Nov. 14; test, Feb. 14, deadline, Jan. 16; test March 28, deadline, Feb. 27; and test, June 13, deadline, May 15.

The basic student fee for using the ACT Assessment is $8.50. Students will take about three hours to complete the four exams (English, math, social studies, and natural sciences) that make up the ACT test section.

Information reports resulting from the tests are sent to the students and their high school counselors, as well as to those colleges and other institutions specifically designated by the students.

Student drivers learn to save fuel

COLLEGE STATION — Many Texas high school driver education students are learning to improve their gas mileage 15 to 20 percent as an addition to traditional driving instruction.

Former Teachers Have Reunion

Four women who began teaching in McLean in September 1930 met last week in the home of Aline McCarty in Lubbock to celebrate 50 years of friendship. They were Elizabeth Kennedy, who taught high school English; Aline McCarty, who taught high school math; Cressie Turner and Vera Powers, who taught in the elementary school. The women first boarded in the Evan Sitter home and later rented Mother Batson's house and lived there. Elizabeth Kennedy married Edward F. Kennedy, now deceased, and had a daughter and a son. Before retiring in 1973, she taught high school English for 38 years. She had taught five years in Esteline Elementary school. She now lives in Boulder, Colo. Aline McCarty never married. She taught in Pampa after leaving McLean and then taught in Lubbock until her retirement. Cressie Turner married Lonnie Hood and lived in Claude where they reared a son and daughter. Mr. Hood died and Mrs. Hood taught in Claude and in Pampa until her retirement. She now resides in Pampa. Vera Powers taught in McLean until her marriage to the late Roger Powers. She helped her husband in managing the McLean Drug until they moved to Lubbock, where he worked as a pharmacist until his death. She now lives in Wichita Falls. The women spent the week together and reminisced about the years they spent in McLean. They taught under superintendents G.C. Boswell, C.A. Cryer, and John Harding.

COWBOY DRIVE IN

High School To Hear Drug Program

Jeanne Roper, probation officer for the 31st judicial district, has made arrangements for the Community Education Program to be at McLean High School, Sept. 26 at 1 p.m. The program consists of three prisoners from the Texas Department of Corrections, in Huntsville, and their guards. Each of the prisoners will talk to the audience and will answer questions, giving the audience a chance to hear answers, first hand, from those who have been jailed because of involvement in drugs. The public is invited to this program. Mrs. Roper said, because she feels that it will be enlightening to all who hear it. This is the first time this program has been in the Texas Panhandle. Through the Community Education Program, inmates have delivered their message to young people all over the state in an effort to stem drug abuse and juvenile crime. "Operation Kick-It" was established through the Governor's Criminal Justice Council in May, 1970. A panel of three to five inmates was formed to travel throughout Texas to tell their life stories in an effort to educate, warn and inform the public, specifically teenagers, about the dangers and consequences involved in the illicit use of drugs. In 1971, a second panel was formed in order to meet the demand of bookings, so great was the public acceptance of this program. The format was further expanded in 1975, and the program's name was changed to the Community Education Program. The program format, originally designed as a formal assembly presentation, has been expanded to include small group or "rap" sessions. The "rap" sessions are generally in the form of question and answer. These informal sessions have added a credibility factor of the presentation at the one-to-one level that has proven very valuable in communicating with young people. Also available are audio visual aids, in the form of a 35 mm slide presentation and a 16 mm movie, which are used to give the program great visual impact. Panel members are chosen from the inmate population of the Ferguson Unit, which houses male first offenders between the ages of 17 and 21; the average age of those chosen is 19. Inmates wanting to participate submit an application; an intensive series of interviews by the CEP staff, the unit Warden and the Bureau of Classification follows before specific inmates are chosen. Once accepted into the program, an inmate is on a probationary status until he proves himself.

Gone Fishin'

People didn't use to talk much about diets. During the last 20 or 30 years, it has become THE SUBJECT. Weight Watchers, Eaters Anonymous, TOPS--Take Off Pounds Sensibly, All Vegetable Diet, Nine Eggs-A-Day. Stillman with eight glasses of water a day, Nothing But Fruit For Two Weeks diet...always searching for an easy way to lose weight.

These are all fine diets for the person who needs to lose five to 10 pounds once a year or so. That takes care of maybe two people in Milwaukee who are unconscious with their jaws wired. The rest of us are usually at the 25 mile/pound limit swimming on our way well out to sea. What about us?

If you need to lose 25 pounds or more and keep it off for more than three or four months, you are looking at six months of dieting. Not easy. I know very few people who have managed to do this. Most diets, with the possible exception of Weight Watchers are too limited for the long haul of losing that many pounds.

I am not an expert on dieting. Neither is anybody else, but here are a few things which help me.

1. Forget will power. Nobody's got enough of it. You have got to look in the mirror and really hate yourself for being fat. A good beginning. That's the easy part. The rest is not. Over the long haul, diet pills are not a good answer (personal opinion...does not apply to everyone). If you are ready to diet there are some mild pills you can buy over the counter which help. Ask your doctor if you can take them.

2. Eat regular meals, not a piece of toast at breakfast and then nothing until supper. I am a compulsive eater and on my diet I plan it so that I can eat something every hour. Do count calories. Don't start out with 800 or 900. Try 1200. See if you can lose with that much. Keep a notebook in the kitchen, record every bite. If you eat half a cookie write it down. Get a regular calorie book and one which gives the calorie count by food brand name. This covers the waterfront.

3. Take only half the amount of food onto your plate that you would normally dish out. Take small bites and SLOW DOWN. Your stomach is dumb. If you eat slowly, it will think it is full.

4. GET UP FROM THE TABLE IMMEDIATELY WHEN YOU ARE THROUGH EATING. Your stomach is dumb about this too. If you get up and go do something else--it will think it is through and full.

5. If you absolutely hate to exercise (and I absolutely hate it) turn on your favorite TV show really loud and do some exercises...don't think about them. You can do enough in 10 minutes daily to firm up your muscles.

6. I read somewhere and this helps too, that you should not diet with the memory of how you used to look. It doesn't help. Get a picture in your mind of how you'd like to look in six months from now...maybe in a pretty dress, a pair of well fitting levis or a bikini...whatever helps.

7. After three or four weeks it is always easy to fall back into the same old eating patterns. A surprising thing is that after you diet three or four months, your eating patterns will really change, and you won't eat half as much as you used to. You will be aware.

8. The one thing that stops most people from dieting is not getting to eat the things they really like. I like peanut butter. I eat peanut butter sandwiches for breakfast. The difference now is that I eat one tablespoon on one piece of bread instead of the nice gloppy one I used to eat. If you are used to eating four candy bars at a time... FINE. Buy one candy bar and cut it into four pieces.

9. You should have one day a week to look forward to when you will say I am going to eat any and all I want on that day. DO IT! Lean into it, enjoy it and don't feel GUILTY. The nice thing about dieting is you wake up everyday of your life with a clean sheet of paper in that kitchen tablet. A new chance each day.

Call this diet plan the HANG LOOSE AND EAT EVERYTHING YOU WANT DAILY AND STILL LOSE WEIGHT. It works.

Texas Group Puts State On 'Lazy Eye' Alert

The Texas Society to Prevent Blindness is putting Texas on a "Lazy Eye Alert" this fall, the importance of which is highlighted by the new state law that requires a vision test for every child entering school, says the Society's president, Clymer L. Wright, Jr.

"The purpose of the new law is to find the one youngster in 20 who has an eye problem that needs to be treated early in life," Wright said. "However many children, especially those with amblyopia or 'lazy eye', have a condition that can be best corrected in the preschool years, often when the child is as young as three or four. That is why Prevent Blindness, even though busy certifying personnel in over 300 school and health agencies to screen under the new law, is also sponsoring open 'Lazy Eye Alert' screenings during September and October through its volunteer preschool vision screening units around the state.

"Vision screening of preschoolers is a year-round program for TSPB," Wright pointed out. "Over 40,000 youngsters were screened by the Society last year alone. The 'Lazy Eye Alert' has been added as a special project to draw attention to children's eye care needs and to increase the number of children reached by the program.

"The Texas Health Department says that 20,000 children enter school each year with vision problems. Two percent of those probably have 'lazy eye' the chief target of all childhood screening programs. Without early treatment of this problem a child can suffer permanent vision loss or even blindness in the lazy eye by the age of 6, and age when many children are just starting school."

The basic screening test for both the Society's and the state's program involves "reading" a chart with the letter E turned in different directions. To children who haven't yet learned alphabet recognition, the "E" is a game in which they point in the direction they see the "legs" of the letter pointing.

"A companion project to the TSPB screening programs is its Home Eye Test for Preschoolers," Wright added. "This is a free do-it-yourself kit that allows parents whose children are not able to take advantage of an organized vision screening to play the "E" game with their children at home. The Society recommends that children who fail the "E" test should be taken for a professional eye examination."

For information about the "Lazy Eye Alert" or for a free copy of the Home Eye Test, write Prevent Blindness, P.O. Box 2020, Houston 77001.

LIBRARY NOTES

Texas History Movies
Text: O.O. Mitchell, Jr.
Cartoons by Jack Patton

This very unusual edition of Texas History will be certainly enjoyed and of value to all who read it, whether Junior High history students or avid Texas buffs.

The collection of cartoons by Jack Patton supplemented by short blocks of text by O.O. Mitchell, Jr., brings alive all the important happenings in the battle of the many patriots attempting to bring independence and finally statehood to Texas.

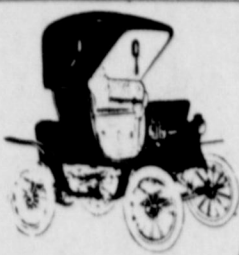

The many incidents in Texas History covered in this book will be brought alive to the reader by the excellent cartoons, and the text is accurate and informative in portraying incidents as they actually happened, not glossed up for immediate approval by the reader.

Stories about Sam Houston.

The Alamo, San Jacinto, and many others important to all Texans are aptly covered in this edition and are certainly enhanced by the humorous but factual illustrations which grace its pages.

We heartily recommend this book as invaluable to Texas History students, and to anyone who would refresh their memory of the glittering history of our state.

"Texas History Movies" is now available at Lovett Memorial Library.

CAROB-THE CHOCOLATE SUBSTITUTE FOR SOME:

Carob is being used by many individuals as a chocolate or cocoa substitute. The carob bean, also known as the locust seed, St. John's Bread, and as Honeybread, is a pod rich in sugar and a source of protein and some "B" vitamins. It has a flavor very similar to that of chocolate.

Carob is easily substituted for chocolate or cocoa in most recipes. People who are allergic to chocolate or who wish to avoid caffeine, the stimulant that is in chocolate, are interested in its use. It is available in tablet, powder, syrup and wafer forms. Recipes for its use are usually available from the manufacturer.

SPACE - STRETCHING STORAGE IDEAS:

You can make your own new "space-stretching" storage -- in fact, a whole "beehive" of space -- with just a little knowhow, a few simple tools and a few pieces of lumber. Among the most "handy" storage additions are drawer dividers and extra shelves. Drawer dividers are a relatively simple matter--with very rewarding benefits. To make dividers, cut a piece of paper the same size as the bottom of the drawer for a pattern. Mark the spaces required for articles you want to store. With this pattern, measure the length of wood needed, and determine where to place the partitions. Drawers are easier to clean if you make the dividers removable, so, if you want to, make a frame and let the dividers fasten to it. That way, everything will be removable when cleaning time arrives.

Another space - stretching storage idea is the addition of cabinet shelves to existing cabinets. For example, you can make removable shelves for double-deck plat storage. Cabinet shelves are generally 11-1/2 inches deep. Measure your cabinet size before buying lumber--and before cutting it or having it cut. Next, decide what size your shelves will be. If you decide, for instance, to put a shelf above the plates, cut two pieces of shelving 1x11-1/2 x the desired length. Nail the top board to the five-inch pieces. Paint the new shelves to match your cabinets, or cover them with wallpaper, shelfpaper or self-sticking plastic coated paper. If you make the shelving removable, it can move with you and serve the family's storage needs for many years to come.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS GENERAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1980

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 35 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Legislature to permit banks to establish and operate un-manned teller machines within the county or city where the banks are located and to share the use of teller machines on a basis consistent with anti-trust laws, if it finds such operation will serve the convenience of the public. The Legislature has already passed enabling legislation (H.B. 1510) for this proposed amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment requiring a single board of equalization within each county for ad valorem tax purposes."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 18 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the conduct of bingo games by certain specified groups for charitable purposes, subject to the limitations that operation of the games must be approved in local option elections and that all proceeds must be spent in Texas.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 97 proposes a constitutional amendment that would grant the State and the accused the right to an interlocutory appeal from the following trial court rulings in criminal cases: pretrial rulings on the constitutionality of a statute; on a motion to quash, dismiss, or set aside an indictment; and on a motion to suppress evidence.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 86 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Legislature to authorize the Governor to exercise fiscal control over the expenditure of certain appropriated funds, subject to any conditions and limitations provided by law and subject to the ap-

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the Governor who appointed a previously confirmed official to remove that official from office subject to the advice and consent of the Senate; and if the Legislature is not in session, to call a special session of the Senate which may last no longer than 2 days for consideration of the removal.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 121 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize counties with a population of 5000 or less to construct and maintain private roads if they impose a reasonable charge for the work. The Legislature by general law may limit this authority. Revenue received from private road work may be used only for the construction, including right-of-way acquisition, or maintenance of public roads.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing counties with a population of 5000 or less to perform private road work."

PROPOSITION NO. 9 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 54 proposes a constitutional amendment which defines separate property owned by either spouse as all property, both real and personal, of a spouse owned or claimed before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent. Persons about to marry and spouses, without the intent to defraud pre-existing creditors, may by written instrument from time to time partition between themselves all or part of their property. Spouses may exchange a community interest in property owned or to be acquired for a community interest in other community property. The amendment would allow spouses to agree in writing that income or property arising from any separate property is to be separate property rather than as community property as it would be in the absence of an agreement. The amendment proposes that a gift from one spouse to another is presumed to include all income or property deriving from such gift.

Notes From Your County Agricultural Agent

WHEAT VARIETY DEMONSTRATION

We have just gotten our supply of seed wheat for nine different wheat varieties to be used in our wheat variety demonstration. Farmers interested in having a dryland or irrigated variety demonstration this next year should give me a call at 669-7429, or come by the Gray County Extension Office. There are twenty pounds of each variety and we will assist the farmer in planting these.

INSECT SITUATION

Sorghum producers need to keep a watch on their maturing sorghum for headworms. Heavy infestations have been reported in a few locations over the Panhandle area. Early detection is the key and begin checking sorghum soon after flowering. In commercial sorghum, an average of two headworms per head is considered the economic threshold, while in seed production fields an average of one headworm per head is considered the economic threshold.

Parasitism of greenbugs in sorghum has increased dramatically during the last week or two. Check your fields before deciding to spray if you have 20 percent parasitism of greenbugs (mummies). At 20 percent mummies, approximately 60 percent of the aphid population actually has been parasitized.

Beet armyworms are infesting cotton, soybeans and sunflowers over the Panhandle. These beet armyworms have been noticed moving into border areas of seedling wheat.

Any newly emerged wheat is going to need to be watched very closely for several insect pests that are likely to cause trouble this early fall—grasshoppers, greenbugs, fall armyworms, beet armyworms, army cutworms, and others.

"CATTLEX"—COMPUTERIZED MARKETING FOR CATTLEMEN

The day has arrived when a producer can sell a load of feeder cattle without lifting a hand other than telling a machine what he's going to sell.

Car care protects investment

COLLEGE STATION—An automobile has become too valuable an investment to ignore its maintenance needs, says an automotive specialist at the Texas Transportation Institute.

Service station attendants who once spotted danger signs and recommended action are not seeing as many cars today and warning signs that repairs are needed often go unnoticed, says Rick Tonda of the transportation institute at Texas A&M University.

Tonda recommends that a car owner shop around and find an inspection station that does a thorough job.

The rest of the year, the owner who has no automotive skills should either seek expert checks and pay for them or learn to watch for extreme wear and possible failures, Tonda advises.

Loose Marbles

by Lisa Patman

Hallelujah, brothers! A miracle has occurred! Call the bishop, telegram the cardinals, yodel for the Pope, get them all here to claim this miracle so we can all get back to sleep.

I noticed it a few days ago when I reading my Sunday paper. There, in an unobtrusive part of the entertainment section was an ad which screamed "My Feet Were Killing Me...Until I Discovered the Miracle in Germany!"

What visions that headline conjured up in my head. I could picture that poor soul lying in bed trying to get a little shut eye, when all of a sudden his feet began creeping up the sheets until they got to his throat, where they began strangling him.

Or maybe he was working in the kitchen, making himself a little bologna and sauerkraut sandwich, when his homicidal hooves grabbed the butcher knife and began stabbing him. I thought it might even have been that his errant tootsies had been systematically putting arsenic in his knackwurst, thereby slowly poisoning him to death. And then, I figured, an angel appeared and dealt a stern lecture to his naughty appendages, making them see the error of their ways.

I was so excited about the whole thing that I considered calling my friends to tell them about it but, wanting more facts before I broke the news, I decided to read on.

Imagine my surprise when I found out that the miracle concerned a pair of foot supports that the guy put in his shoes to help his feet quit hurting. I was really disappointed.

Sure, the fellow had plenty of proof. There was a letter from a lady who had previously had "terrible" feet until she found these wonderful foot aids, and in two days she not only was free from foot pain, but the pain in her knee had cleared up, and I imagine her dimples had reappeared. There also was a confusing letter, from a man who apparently has six feet, which reads "I wore them in three different pairs of shoes from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., which included two hours at a cocktail party. It's the first cocktail party I have left in years without wishing I could crawl out on my knees." I hate to tell this guy, but there are a lot of people who go to cocktail parties and actually end up crawling out on their knees. If those little old foot supports can get them up on their feet the liquor industry can expect a big boom in sales.

I read on and on, trying to get to the angel part, but I never could find it. All I could find were claims of instant relief for corns, calluses, and bunions, not to mention something called burning nerve ends, and an offer that no one in his right mind could refuse—a chance to share in this glorious miracle—for a small fee.

I don't know what you are going to do, but I think I'll pass up this particular miracle. I know that God works in mysterious ways, but I just can't see Him coming down to bless a pair of foot supports.
