Former 'Marauder' In Revival at Assembly of God

The current guerrilla warfare being carried on in Vietnam has brought back memories—some good and some bad—to Evangelist James Black, who is conducting special services at Assembly of God Church, 4th and Main in McLean.

Rev. Black, of Whittier, Calif., spent many months in Southeast Asia during World War II as one of the original members of the famed combat unit known as Merrill's Marauders. The Marauders were formed by Brig. Gen. Frank Merrill to fight behind the Japanese lines in Southeast Asia.

Only a small band of the original 2,700 hand-picked volunteers returned alive from the steaming jungles of Burma and China. Even Black was one of the few who did, although he was seriously wounded.

During this evangelistic campaign, Rev. Black will weave into his preaching many of the exciting and miraculous experiences he and the young soldiers shared on the battlefields and jungles of Southeast Asia.

Services are being held every night at 7:30 from Thursday, Aug. 4, through Sunday, Aug. 14. An all-out drive is being made for Sunday School at 9:45 Sunday morning.

Interested students are advised to contact the financial assistance officer at the school of their choice. Applicants must be accepted for enrollment and have two recommendations.

"OPPORTUNITY PLAN" TO AID STATE COLLEGE STUDENTS

A $10,000,000 state bond sale has launched a new "opportunity plan" designed to bring college education within the financial reach of all qualified Texas youth.

"Never again will students of this state be denied higher education because of lack of funds," commented John E. Gray of Beaumont, chairman of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System. Initial bond sale was awarded to a Chicago bank.

Action by the coordinating board set in motion the loan plan approved by Texas voters as a Constitutional amendment last year. Amendment authorized a total of $85,000,000 in bonds to provide funds for students unable to continue education beyond high school without financial assistance. Initial $10,000,000 sale is believed to be more than adequate to carry the program through the first year.

Celling on available loans is $1,000 a year for undergraduates and $1,500 for graduates. Although a six per cent interest rate is authorized, the U. S. government will pay all interest while a student is in school—and half of it afterward for borrowers eligible for federal interest subsidy.

A borrower's family income must be less than $14,000. Loans are limited to the difference between available resources and reasonable expenses. Money will be available on the 1965 fall semester.

Interested students are advised to contact the financial assistance officer at the school of their choice. Applicants must be accepted for enrollment and have two recommendations.

Attorney General Rules—Trailers used to convey horses to and from rodeos are not exempt as farm trailers and must be licensed under state law.

Farm Gas Credit To Be Made on Income Tax Return

Farmers and ranchers will not file a claim for refund of federal tax on gasoline used on their farm or ranch as they have done in past year, according to Ronald Gooch, Donley County agent. Instead the refund of federal tax on gasoline used on or after July 1, 1965, must be claimed as a credit on the annual income tax return.

This credit will first be taken on the return for the first full tax year beginning June 30, 1965. If the return is filed on a calendar year basis, the credit for gasoline tax refund taken on their 1965 return will include the tax on gasoline used in the period from July 1, 1965, through Dec. 31, 1965.

The refund is claimed as a credit in a manner similar to the credit for tax withheld on wages, Gooch said.

Sellers of GI Homes Should Get Release

Veterans who sell their GI homes and permit the buyer to assume their GI loan, remain liable in case of subsequent foreclosure unless they obtain a release of liability.

This can be obtained upon request to VA, if VA approves the buyer as a good credit risk, Jack Coler, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office in Waco, said.

A release from liability, however, does not restore the veteran's eligibility for another GI loan.

This can be restored only when the VA is no longer liable to the lender on the guaranty, and if the veteran:

(a) is forced to sell his home through no fault of his own, for reasons of health, employment, etc.;

(b) has his property taken by a government agency for public use, or destroyed by a natural hazard; or

(c) is in military service and must dispose of his home because of military transfer.

Further information may be obtained at VA offices located at 1400 North Valley Mills Drive, Waco, Texas; 2208 Main, Dallas, Texas; and 1612-20 19th Street, Lubbock, Texas.

TAX SAM SEZ:

What are the requirements for filing an estate tax return?

This question bothers many taxpayers, but the rules are fairly simple. Your administrator will have to file an estate tax return if the fair market value of your estate is $60,000 or more on the date of your death. However, if there is a surviving spouse and the estate is community property, you do not have to file unless the estate exceeds $120,000, since 50% of the community property belongs to the surviving spouse. Getting the correct evaluation on your estate is important since this evaluation affects all future tax transactions on the property.

Don't Go To Strangers

Shelby

By VERN SANFORD

Play it safe—while at play! As careful as you may be you're going to run into a dangerous situation sometime during your adventures into the great outdoors.

It can happen when you're walking, sitting, lying down, boating, skiing, fishing, swimming, shooting, hunting—or merely observing.

Fact of the matter is danger lurks everywhere—in indoors, outdoors, at home or abroad.

Too often people are caught unprepared when the surprise incident happens.

How do you prepare yourself for the unexpected? That's mighty hard to do unless you are anticipating trouble. But there are a few precautions you can take, and a few items you can carry with you, that will minimize the danger.

For instance, if you're headed for an area where snakes may reside—stick a snake bite kit in your pocket, tackle box, or gun case. We carry one in the trousers pocket every time we hunt or fish. In addition, there's one in the fishing tackle box, and the ammo box or the gun case.

We've had only three encounters with snakes, but one was enough to impress this angler with the importance of being prepared.

Once a rattler wraps itself around your arm you'll not forget this little precaution.

However, we suggest you don't wait until something happens to form the habit of carrying along a snake bite kit. They're small, not much larger than a medium-sized pocket knife, and their weight is nil.

If you are going boating—then good life preservers are a must.

We used to think it foolish to wear a life jacket while fishing with the old buddy in a safe boat well equipped with flotation.

But not after the little 14 ft. fiberglass rig hit a submerged boulder and knocked both of us overboard—and one of us unconscious.

It's a peculiar sensation to awaken 10 or 12 feet under water and not know which direction is up. Teaches you one thing, though—that a life jacket or ski belt can be a man's best friend.

One doesn't stay away from life jackets after an experience like that. In fact, he seeks them out, and is even mighty careful about his choice.

Let others chide you if they like, call you sissy or "fraidy-cat"—you just wear that jacket anyway. At least you won't end up in the briny deep.

Nowadays you can buy a cigarette-pack-size inflatable pair of water wings; or an inflatable shirt. They'll keep you afloat providing you're conscious enough to squeeze the pack or pull the release cord on the shirt when the accident happens.

But with a good life preserver already on, you're as close to 100 per cent safe as you can get and still be in the water.

Storms create big problems. You'll be surprised how suddenly a storm can get into high gear. If your motor conks out, or the boat springs a leak during a storm, you're in real trouble, even on a relatively small lake—not to mention a Texas-size one.

That's when you need to call on flares. Most people think of flares in terms of big boats and the Atlantic or Pacific waterways—or maybe the Gulf of Mexico. But they're mighty, mighty handy on lakes—when the helping hand of a friend is needed.

Genrus makes a compact "Life-saver" kit that resembles the tear gas pen that women are beginning to carry in their purses. Works on the same principle but is a little more potent. It will eject the flare some 350 feet into the air and can be seen as far as 60 miles away.

If you've been stranded on the lake in a sinking boat, or with a burned out motor, or the boat afire, or even with a broken shear pin, it's a helpless feeling—even if a storm isn't brewing.

Too many times boats will pass

Advice Given on Doctor Bill Insurance

"Some older people enrolled for doctor bill insurance under medicare may be having difficulty paying the $9 quarterly premium," Traivs C. Briggs, social security district manager in Amarillo, said recently.

Briggs advises that these people pay $3 or $6 amounts covering 1 or 2 month premiums, but should make a payment as soon as possible. "Older people who are receiving monthly social security or railroad retirement checks have the $3 monthly premium deducted from their benefit checks. Others received premium notices last month requesting them to mail in a quarterly payment of $9. Payments may be made by check or money order mailed to the Social Security Payment Center in the envelope enclosed with the premium notice."

Briggs said that some people confuse hospital insurance and doctor bill insurance under medicare. He emphasized that the two are separate and distinct. He said that premium payments are for doctor bill insurance and only people who have signed up for it are eligible. "On the other hand, almost everyone 65 and older is eligible for hospital benefits in a participating hospital. In a real emergency, benefits can be provided in many hospitals that do not participate in medicare."

Put one in your tackle box—along with that snake bite kit. All of which reminds us of the importance of having some type of noise-making equipment handy. You can buy all kinds of horns for your boat. The squeeze bulb type lasts the shortest—since rubber deteriorates quickly on the water and in the hot sun. Those that are air or gas powered are better. But eventually they play out. The electrical type—the storage battery operated—lasts longer. And of course the best is the hand-operated siren. It seems to always work.

If you can't afford a horn get one of these squeeze balls that have a built in piercing whistle. They're cheap and can be replaced often without great expense.

Mainly what you want is something with which you can attract attention. Of course you can always resort to the old standby—a man's shirt or a woman's petticoat—waved in the breeze. If there's a storm coming there will be plenty of breeze.

Whatever the weather—be careful! Mr. and Mrs. Luther Petty visited in Vernon last week with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Petty.

Sec. 3. If any other Amendment to Sections 2 or 4 of Article VI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, being for a different purpose, is adopted at an earlier election or at the same election, the adoption of this Amendment shall not be construed as nullifying any change made by such other Amendment.

VA Hospitals Admit Recently Discharged If Malaria Suspects

Veterans hospitals throughout the nation have been directed to admit any recently-discharged veteran without waiting for an eligibility determination if the man thinks he may be suffering from malaria.

Dr. C. L. Womack, director of the VA Hospital in Amarillo, advised such veterans who have been home for 100 days or less to be on the alert for any symptoms of this disease. He said the medical departments of the Armed Forces have found an increase of malaria in personnel returning to the U. S. from duty in Southeast Asia.

A large number of these cases are a type of malaria known as falciparum, Dr. Womack said. This particular form of malaria does not present the usual symptoms of chills and fever. The symptoms may be so mild that they may readily be missed.

Prior to return to this country, military personnel are given medication to help prevent the disease. They are instructed to report to a doctor if they become ill and to let him know that malaria should be considered.

If malaria is diagnosed, treatment will begin immediately at the nearest VA or military hospital, Dr. Womack said.

DIET AND ACNE

One of the points that is always stressed for medical students is that where there are many varieties of treatment for any condition, it is a reasonable supposition that none of them is highly successful. If one were, the others would be forgotten.

So it goes with acne, the plague of youth.

This "skin" disease, so distressingly common in adolescent boys and somewhat less so in girls, is not really a skin disease. It is a general condition manifesting itself most annoyingly in the skin eruption. It is essentially a by-product of the changes inherent in moving into manhood or along the way to womanhood.

Glands Active
At this time, the glands of internal secretion are especially active in guiding the maturing of the body and the establishment of the adult pattern of sexuality. Among other glands stimulated are those of the skin, especially the oil or sebaceous glands.

There is no need to describe acne. Everyone knows what it looks like and how it acts. The question is, what to do about it? The usual answer, "You'll out-grow it" is met with the scornful rejoinder, "Yeah, but I've got a date this Saturday night!" And who can blame the guy or the gal!

Among other forms of treatment has been an effort, or many efforts, to control acne through diet. Usually the result is that a good diet is little or no help, but an unbalanced diet makes matters worse. Suspected foods are the fatty ones, the fried ones, the chocolate ones and the sweet ones. But take out these foods from the adolescent diet, and what have you got? You've got revolution!

Distorted Report
A recent report attributing acne to milk was based on young people who drank up to four quarts of milk a day, to the detriment of the well-balanced diet which they should have had. Their acne was blamed on the milk. It should have been blamed on the quarts! No one recommends such excessive use of one food.

I like the advice given in the Diet Manual of the Nutrition Department, the Presbyterian Hospital, New York City, which says in effect that the best diet for persons with skin disorders is one which is nutritionally adequate, in which the four basic food groups are represented: Meat, eggs, fish, poultry, milk and dairy products, fruits and vegetables, and whole-grain or enriched cereal products. No single food or group predominates in all allergic disorders, and a good diet accomplishes more than hit-or-miss elimination of specific foods.

As to the rest of the treatment, let your doctor decide. And don't pick the pimples!

Nurse Training Act Aids Area Students

Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing, Amarillo, was one of the first nursing schools to receive funds to cover the cost of a nursing education program under the Federal Nurse Training Act of 1964. Since 1964, when the school received full approval—39 students have received partial or full funds to cover the cost of their education. Provisions of the loan cover the two semesters of college and five semesters of nursing. The maximum that a student may receive in any academic year is $1,000. Loan fund money may be used for college or nursing tuition, living expense, child care and personal expense while pursuing a full-time course of study.

Loans are repayable in equal or graduated periodic installments, with the right of the borrower to accelerate payment over a 10-year period beginning one year after the student has completed her full-time course of study. Both the unpaid balance of the loan and its accrued interest are cancelled in the event of death or permanent disability of the borrower.

Borrowers may cancel up to 50 per cent of their loan for full-time employment as a registered professional nurse in any public or non-private institution or agency. For each complete year of service, the rate of cancellation shall be 10 per cent of the loan.

The Federal Nurse Training Act was enacted by Congress to help alleviate the critical shortage of nurses in the United States.

Students may enroll for the college and nursing courses during the fall or spring semester. For additional information on enrollment contact the director, School of Nursing, Northwest Texas Hospital, P. O. Box 1110, Amarillo, Texas 79105.

How many acres of maize to water with one small well? This is a question that many irrigation farmers have been asking. To answer this question it is important to know how many gallons per minute a given well is producing.

Grain sorghum uses about 0.3 inches per day during the boot and bloom stages. This is the peak use water period for sorghum. This means that sorghums will use a net of three inches every 10 days. To get 80% efficiency, 3.75 inches well will water 85 acres of grain days.

A 600 GPM well on 2,640 feet run on a 24-hour set will water 40 rows or 8.48 acres per set. This will water 85 acres of grain sorghum during the peak use period. A 700 GPM well under the same condition will water 99 acres during the peak use period. An 800 GPM well will water 113 acres during the peak use period. A 900 GPM well will water 127 acres during the peak use period.

Proper timing of irrigation is very important. You should irrigate before 50 to 60 per cent of available soil moisture in the root zone has been used. The critical moisture stages in grain sorghum are boot, bloom and milk-dough.

Does it pay to try to water more maize than your well will take care during the peak use period? An 800 GPM well will water 113 acres every 10 days during the peak use period. You should be able to produce about 6,800 pounds of maize per acre. The yield would be 768,400 on 113 acres. If we increased our acres to 145, an increase of 32 acres, and averaged 5,000 per acre, the total yield would be 725,000 pounds. The 113 acres would out-weigh the 145 acres by 43,400 pounds. Also you would not have the expense of putting in the 32 acres and watering it. The 32 acres could be put in the diverted acre program and summer fallowed for wheat or maize. As a general rule, it does not pay to stretch your well over more land than it will adequately water during the peak use period.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 8, 1966.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 35 proposing an Amendment to Section 6, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas, to authorize state participation in programs financed with funds from private or federal sources and conducted by local level or other private, nonsectarian associations, groups, and nonprofit organizations for establishing and equipping facilities for assisting the blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, for their rehabilitation or restoration, or for providing other services essential for the better care and treatment of the handicapped.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 6, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 6. (a) No appropriation for private or individual purposes shall be made, unless authorized by this Constitution. A regular statement, under oath, and an account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published annually, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

"(b) State agencies charged with the responsibility of providing services to those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped may accept money from private or federal sources, designated by private or federal source as money to be used in and establishing and equipping facilities for assisting those who are blind, crippled, or otherwise physically or mentally handicapped in becoming gainfully employed, in rehabilitating and restoring the handi-

AMA Gives Warning On Hypertension

High blood pressure, more properly called arterial hypertension, is an abnormal state of the circulation that may be a cause as well as a result of arterial disease, says a pamphlet from the American Medical Association called "Your Blood Pressure."

Four of every five cases of persistently increased blood pressure are known as primary or essential hypertension, for which no underlying cause can be identified, says the AMA publication. It often occurs in those with a family history of increased blood pressure. The other one-fifth of the cases are called secondary hypertension, which means that the cause is known to be some defect or disease.

Hypertension requires a lifetime of management. The patient and his doctor, working together, plan a living pattern, supplemented by various medical procedures, that will result in the longest and most useful life that the patient can live, even though the doctor may never know the cause of his patient's hypertension.

In untreated hypertension, the course from onset to death is approximately 20 years. The first two-thirds is without symptoms, and can go undiscovered unless the patient undergoes periodic health examinations, particularly in the middle years. The last one-third of the 20 years is complicated by failure of the heart, the brain or the kidneys, alone or in combination. Once organ failure begins, the average survival of the untreated patient is about six years. Under treatment, a longer and more comfortable life is to be expected.

Men usually present themselves for diagnosis at a more advanced stage of the disease than do women and have a higher incidence of the more severe forms. Hypertension produces a higher incidence of coronary disease in men and of brain complications in women. Women tolerate elevated blood pressure better than men.

Among the two comparable groups, three times as many of those treated than of those not treated were living after five years.

It is highly important that there be close rapport between the patient and his physician. It is essential that the patient understand his disease, know the need for continued treatment, and be willing to tolerate the occasional undesirable and unpleasant side effects of some of the drugs used. He must look to the long-term good to be obtained.

Cattle raisers entering the Stephen F. Austin colony under the early Mexican Colonization Laws for Texas received a league of land consisting of 4,428 acres.

4-H Dogs Reward Their Masters

Your canine pet can send you on a free trip to Chicago, help pay your way in college, and provide the right time of day, says the National 4-H Service Committee.

There is one requirement, however, and that is membership in the 4-H Dog Care and Training program. Since the program was first offered in 1961 by the Co-operative Extension Service, enrollment has increased from 9,256 to 47,398 in 1965.

The popularity of this program is due in part to the fact that any boy or girl who has a dog can participate. Members learn how to take care of their pets, keep them healthy, and make them better behaved.

To the boy or girl having the best project in the entire state goes a handsome engraved wristwatch. Eighteen high ranking state winners will be named for the Chicago trip as delegates to the 45th National 4-H Club Congress.

The top prizes are $500 national scholarships which will go to the six most outstanding members selected from among the 18 trip winners.

Texas DPS Urges Use of SMV Emblem

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has joined the Texas Farm Bureau in urging operators of "slow-moving vehicles" such as farm tractors, combines and road construction and maintenance equipment to display special luminous "SMV" warning emblems on the rear of the equipment.

Garrison said the emblems, developed as the result of extensive research at the University of Ohio, are available through all county Farm Bureau offices and a number of farm equipment dealers, gins, elevators and warehouses.

He emphasized that the emblem is not designed to replace any other warning devices, such as lighting, which are required by law, but to supplement such devices.

"While this emblem is not required by law in Texas, we feel, as does the Texas Farm Bureau, that it can make an important contribution to the safety of operators of such equipment, as well as other motorists sharing the streets and highways," Garrison said.

"We would like to urge all motorists to familiarize themselves with this warning sign and watch for the bright orange emblem with the red border and the triangle shape which identifies slow-moving vehicles."

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Jack Massey and children of Goldsmith visited in the homes of their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Massey, McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. Mugg Castleberry, Alarced, the past week.

By FOSTER WHALEY
 Last week we assisted Emmett LeFors with the weighing of several bull calves in the performance testing program. These bull calves will be entered in various performance tests by agricultural colleges over the Golden Spread area. Next week we will weigh bulls under the same program for Raymond Darsey, who ranches north of Alanreed.

Recently we have had numerous calls about a vicious looking bug that has been infesting Mimosa trees. They are a rather large insect. The common name is "Leaf Footed Bug." They also feed on mesquite trees. They are a sucking type insect. They can be controlled with Malathion. Repeated spraying every 10 days might be necessary.

Recently we have seen a rather large number of large winged red ants. These are ferocious that have recently swarmed as a result of showers and favorable weather conditions. It would be an excellent idea to saturate any swarms of these pests with a dieltrin spray or dust. Each female has the capability of starting a new hill of ants.

The cotton crop in the McLean vicinity shows more promise than I've witnessed in many years. So far the weather, including the recent rains, has been just right. I found little insect problem. The cotton seems to be fruiting nicely. I predict some above one bale averages per acre on many farms. The all new gin will be very much needed this fall. A three-quarter bale average yield could pump close to one-half million dollars into the Gray County economy.

Place these dates on your calendar—Aug. 16, 6:30 p.m. at the Clarendon Country Club — annual association barbecue of the Rolling Plains Registered Beef Cattle Association.
 The farmers State Bank of Clarendon sponsors this event annually. Flip Breedlove, vice president of the bank, does the barbecuing. You all come.
 Aug. 19, 7:30 p.m. in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn, Pampa, the association banquet of the Top o' Texas Hereford Breeders Association.

The Honorable Lee Herring, vice president of the Grand Prairie State Bank, who is considered one of the most humorous speakers in the state of Texas, will be the speaker. Tickets can be purchased locally from Faris Hess, Clyde Mudge or W. W. Boyd. You all come.

FARM FIRES CAUSE MORE DAMAGE THAN CITY FIRES

When fire occurs on farm or rural property, damage is three to six times greater than in the average city fire, the Texas Safety Association reports. Two-fifths of all damage is to dwellings and their contents, another third to barns and their contents. The remainder of losses is to outbuildings, machinery and equipment, livestock and produce. The economic loss to the nation's farm residents from fire is approximately $193 million a year.
