STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

Now, with the long, tension-tied holiday weekend behind, the state is taking a look at what's ahead for the 1967 Legislative session.

Among other things, Gov. John Connally wants a new, tough code of traffic laws—something like the uniform traffic code. He wants money for more highway patrolmen, the present force of 725 being about one-third the number needed.

He also wants stringent penalties for convictions of driving while intoxicated, speeding and reckless driving—and a one-year license suspension "without opportunity for redemption" on second offense.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr says the 1967 Legislature may want to take another look at the 1965 law change in college building appropriations.

As it now stands, seven state colleges will receive less revenue from the new 10-cent per $100 ad valorem tax allocation for college construction than they did under the old five-cent rate.

These are Texas A & I, Texas Southern, Texas Woman's University, East Texas State, Sam Houston, West Texas State and Sul Ross. None can start new buildings in the next two years with what's now allocated to them.

STATE WATER POLLUTION
Control Board approved a committee of the Cattle Feeders Division, Texas and Southwest Cattle Raisers Association, which plans to ask the 1967 Legislature for a feed lot licensing law, tying in with water pollution control.

Committee members are Grady Shepard, Hale Center; James W. Witherspoon, Hereford; Alfred Negley, San Antonio; Fred Wulff, Brady; and Jack Carruthers, Friona.

Hereford Feeds Lots, Inc., with which Witherspoon is associated, just received the first Water Pollution Control Board permit for disposal of wastes from cattle feed lot. It provides that the company retain waste runoff waters from all rainfalls of two inches or less in a day, and lots must provide for dewatering retention facilities between rainfalls by spray irrigation.

OTHER POLLUTION PLANS—
Pollution-Multiple Use Legislative Study Committee, headed by Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo, will hold public hearings in early fall to check into salt water disposal problems in oil and gas fields—and pollution problems resulting from feed lot operations, plus septic tank problems that could lead to water pollution.

LIVESTOCK WORLD HIGHLIGHTS—Animal health in Texas comes to the front ranks in agricultural-livestock concern nowadays.

Screwworm eradication workers at the sterile fly plant in Mission stepped up eradication efforts in the Brooks-Goliad-Beeville area where six cases were reported last week, and in the stretch from Culberson County to Eddy, N. M., where 12 cases were confirmed.

Dr. B. B. Vail Jr. told the Animal Health Commission that they need more reports from ranchers.

Dr. S. B. Walker of the Commission and Dr. S. C. Gartman of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Animal Health Division asked livestock producers also to report promptly any signs of sore mouth condition or blister-like sores on udders or above hooves of animals to combat a recent outbreak of vesicular stomatitis.

In similar farm reports, State Agriculture Comm. John C. White announced an emergency quarantine on movement of some fruits and vegetables from Cameron County—to prevent spread of the Mediterranean Fruit Fly.

Dr. Walter recommended a more flexible program for accepting petitions for Type II control for brucellosis—now done only from counties next to test counties after a break from the "contiguous county" requirement has been tested. He said it worked hardships on area veterinarians.

STUDENT BONDS TOP RATED
—Learning that two top national investor services rate Texas College Student Loan Bonds, authorized by voters last fall, as "triple A" investments (highest rating possible), the Coordinating Board for Texas College and University System decided to sell $10,000,000 of the $85,000,000 authorized bonds at its July 18 meeting.

Institutional agreements now are being prepared by the board so loans will be available to students in September.

HEAD START WATCH—Regional OEO Director Bill Crook of Austin cautioned Head Start administrators that they will be under "continuous review" by his Austin office, "to remedy any program deficiencies that might be identified by on-site evaluations."

Crook said so far not one single bad audit, case of misappropriation or mishandling of funds has been produced by the Texas program. He says he is very interested in keeping that good record.

OEO has contracted with the Texas Education Foundation, private corporation administering Camp Gary Job Corps Center for men, for $3,200,000 to develop and operate a Job Corps center for women at McKinney. First 100 women students are scheduled to enroll at McKinney in March, 1967.

SHORT SPORTS—Weldon Watson has resigned as executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department. Texas Industrial Commission reports record 327 new plants were located in the state last year and prospects for '67 look even better. Texas Highway Department officials say it cost the state 3.4 cents of every dollar spent on highway maintenance to clean up after vandals and litterbugs last year (some $1,526,582). Wm. L. Ferguson of Henderson is new Texas Liquor Control Board assistant administrator. Texas Aeronautics Commission will hold hearings July 14 on proposed community air service between Houston and Laredo via Alice by a new firm called Houston Commuter Airlines. State Land Comm. Jerry Sadler said sealed bids for oil and gas leases on state-owned property will be accepted by School Land Board on Aug. 2. Attorney General Carr ruled that beer sales are illegal in four precincts of Cooke County, since State Constitutional Amendment allowing wet precincts in dry counties was passed in 1935 after the local-option elections.

U. S. government says more than $3,000,000 is available to Texas this year for half the cost of state and local recreation proposals.

Word has been received from Mrs. R. O. Cunningham, who is visiting her son, Conald Cunningham, and her daughter, Mrs. Oleta Matthews, and families at Ruyalup, Wash. Mrs. Cunningham reports that Mrs. Matthews is at home after a serious operation and is doing fine.

Children's Pictures To Be Taken July 15 By Winston B. Lucas

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publisher of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best production pictures they must all be of uniform size and quality.

An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work will be here Friday, July 15.

Pictures will be taken at the McLean News office from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures the Better

This paper simply wants pictures of all the youngsters, and the more, the better. So the mothers and fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the date, Friday, July 15, and bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad afterwards, if you did, and very sorry if you did not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have fun and both mother and dad and the youngsters, too, will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

Appointments may be had by calling Mrs. R. C. Parker, GR 9-2704.

KING OF THE HILL—Stone lions can't bite, a fact this kitten probably doesn't know anything about. Maybe the kitten knows that the lion has been sitting around doing nothing for a couple of centuries.

A one-car crash near Clarendon Sunday killed three and critically injured a fourth man.

Killed were William Eugene Hendricks, 39, his son, James William, 14, of McLean, and Mason M. Cranford, 31, of Shamrock.

Listed in improved condition at press time, Thursday, in Adair Hospital in Clarendon was Gary Charles Nicholson, 29, of McLean. Nicholson suffered severe abdominal injuries in the crash.

All were passengers in the Hendricks car, which officers said failed to make a curve on Texas Highway 70 five miles south of Clarendon. The car went 200 yards out of control before hitting and up-rooting a tree more than a foot in diameter. The vehicle was torn in half.

Hendricks was a foreman for the K. L. Towle Construction Co. in Shamrock. His son was a student at McLean, having just completed the eighth grade.

Funeral services for the Hendricks father and son were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, Rev. Z. A. Myers, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, officiated, assisted by Rev. Dan Beltz, Baptist pastor.

Beltz was in Hillcrest Cemetery under direction of Lamb Funeral Home. Pallbearers for Hendricks were John McCall, Burt Teel, Jerry Mounce, Alvin Teeples, Burlin Mayfield and Herb Massey. Pallbearers for James were Ora Wayne Barker, Butch Lands, Billy Rose, David Brown, Ronnie Dove and Richard Lewis, all classmates of young Hendricks.

 On the Abe Lewis place just east of Pampa we had an eight variety test plot we drilled in the fall of 1965. Recently we harvested a portion from each of these varieties and delivered the bundles to the Bushland Experiment Station where they were threshed and the yields computed. The results are as follows: Improved Triumph, 52.9 bu.; Sturdy, 45.8 bu.; Scout, 44.1 bu.; Caddo, 43.6 bu.; Tascosa, 41.5 bu.; Kaw, 41.3 bu.; Lancer, 41.3 bu.; and Warrior, 33.8 bu. Triumph is still a very popular variety for both dryland and irrigation.

GRASSHOPPER PROGRAM
 On Wednesday of this week we will check the 16,000 acres sprayed earlier for grasshoppers. We have heard many good reports but also a few where the hoppers were not all killed. Mr. Forrest Preston and I will make an extensive survey by the time you have read this, as to what can be done to correct any bad kills we do not know about at the time of this writing. It is hoped that the project was done cheap enough to have a reserve fund to treat those areas where hoppers might have been left. Until we can visit with Mr. Preston of the plant pest control division, we cannot say.

WEATHER
 The warm weather is just what we need on our cotton. Let's hope it won't last too long, though. Most people have their cotton up to good stands. I believe we are in the best shape on our cotton prospects that we have been in several years. Our range area is still in need of some ground soaking rains. I believe the range area is the driest I've seen it at this time of year in several years.

Many cattle have been placed in area feed lots on the account of dry ranges. It is especially dry on the Canadian River north of Pampa. They also have a heavy population of grasshoppers. Hoppers and dry weather seem to go hand in hand.
