Tigers Storm Over Tornadoes

Don't forget to vote Tuesday! This election could be an extremely important one for Texas, with constitutional amendments on the ballot, the governor's office up for grabs, and a senate post on the line.

This area also has some important offices on the ballot, with a heated campaign going for county judge and state representative.

Take the time and vote...
If you didn't come to the Halloween carnival at the McLean gymnasium Saturday night, you missed a treat. The place was packed, and most booths reported that they made a good profit on their sales.

One of the best money-makers is always the fire department's dunking booth! The kids love to throw baseballs at their teachers and watch them hit the water.

I am not very well known for my physical bravery anyway since I am one of those white-knuckled flyers, and I hate carnival rides, but I will always remember my turn on the dunking board a few years ago as the most terrifying experience of my life. The firemen kept telling me it was all in good fun, but I still was petrified.

If I wore a hat, I would certainly take it off to the brave people who rode the board Saturday night.

Don't you think a twenty-year-old is a little too old to be throwing watermelons as a Halloween prank????

Isn't it a shame that it always takes a crisis to make us realize how much we appreciate the people around us? A very special member of my family is critically ill in Baylor University Medical Complex this week, and I don't think I realized how special he is to me until I got the call that he had had a heart attack.

Thirty years ago he was my big sister's boyfriend, and I was the brat who tagged along behind them when they wanted to be alone. He patiently taught me to ride the bicycle that my big brother bought for me, and chauffeured me to Brownie meetings and school activities.

In the intervening years, since their marriage, he has been the rock that each one of the family has depended on when trouble hit. There is not enough room in this paper to tell you the times he has come to my rescue with everything from money to good advice.

He really is one of those rare people that you can say is a good man. I solicit your prayers for his full recovery.

Each week when I sit down to write this column, I decide that this week the column will be light and happy, but somehow it doesn't happen. I really am not a gloomy person, regardless of how this column sounds.

In the first place, I have lived through four teenagers (one is still not through her teens!), and any parent who has lived through that can tell you that if you survive, you are so overjoyed that nothing really bothers you again....

Everybody goof, and I do more than my share. Saturday night at the Halloween carnival I took several pictures of the crowd and the booths. Monday night I spent quite a bit of time taking pictures at the Coronation. Imagine my sur-

Billy Joe Skipper's 41-yard touchdown scamper with a recovered fumble ignited the McLean Tigers to their second victory of the season Friday afternoon over winless Texline, 26-0.

Coach Bill Coward's Tigers paced by two Rex Morris scores, piled up a 20-6 lead midway through the final quarter, enough to overcome mistakes and Texline heroics and hold on for the district win. After the Tornadoes had narrowed the gap to a dangerously close six points, McLean was able to march down the field and end the ballgame inside Texline's five yard line.

McLean, playing without the injured David Tolleson and Bill Hambricht, improved its season record to 2-5 and its district mark to 1-2. Three of the losses were by margins of five, eight, and five points. Texline dropped to 0-7 and 0-4.

The Tigers will travel to Miami Friday for a 7:30 p.m. skirmish with the Warriors. Texline will host Booker, a team which surprised Groom 18-12 last week.

Steve Ellison's extra point gave McLean a 7-6 halftime lead at Duncan Field Friday. Greg Caldwell had scored for Texline in the second quarter on a 34-yard pass from Charles Jones. The Tornadoes tried for a two-point conversion on a fake kick in which the center lined up to the right of the rest of the line, but the ruse failed.

Morris gave McLean a seemingly comfortable lead in the second half with scoring jaunts of eight and six yards. Ellison converted to make the score 14-6 in the third quarter, but he missed on the next try, leaving the score 20-6.

The Tigers finished their point production with a well-executed 30-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Eck to James Matheny. Matheny's waltz into the end zone was followed by another unsuccessful PAT attempt.

The Tornadoes made fans wonder if the Tigers would break their five-game losing streak as they scored twice in the final stanza. Jones' nine-yard touchdown run and his successful two-point conversion narrowed the margin to 26-14. He then eluded Tiger tacklers after catching a pass from Caldwell on a fake punt and hit paydirt from 51 yards out to create the final margin. A run for two points failed. Texline's rally included a successful onside kickoff.

Texline ended the day ahead of the Tigers in yardage, but the fact that the Tornados gained only one first down in the initial half was more representative of the game.

The Tigers appeared for a split second to be on the way to an even earlier big lead when, in the first half, Eck just missed intercepting an errant pitchout. The McLean standout had clear sailing to the end zone.

Morris and Eck each intercepted a pass for McLean. McLean is scoring an average of 15.3 points per contest, compared to its opponents' 24.9.

Wheeler, the state's No. 1 Class B team, continues to lead the district, crushing Follett 49-18 Friday for its 25th consecutive victory.

Because its lights are not easily visible in the daylight, the scoreboard was not used during the game.

The Pride of the Tigers marching band provided its usual top-notch performance at halftime.

Hospital Lease Debated

Employee Retirement Affected

Leasing the McLean Hospital to American Medical International will affect the retirement of the current employees of the hospital, according to Barbara Trew, administrative assistant at McLean.

"Anytime you have a change in employers, someone's going to suffer," she said.

According to information given hospital employees at a meeting with Robert May and Robert Brown of the Texas County and District Retirement Systems Wednesday in Pampa, employees have three choices if the hospital is leased.

The employee could take a refund of what he has paid in plus the interest, he can leave his money for five years and draw interest and then withdraw his funds, or if the county takes the hospital back in five years or if the employee goes to work for the county within five years, the retiree's benefits would not be affected.

There are three categories of employees at the two hospitals. Two hundred-thirty-one have not worked for the hospital at least 12 years, and so are not "vested".

Sixteen employees have 12 years or are 60 or older and are eligible for immediate retirement.

Brown recommended that these people consider immediate retirement so that their "death benefits" will stay in effect. Death benefits for the county employees means that if the employee dies, his spouse is eligible to continue to receive pension checks.

Thirty-three employees have 12 years of service but are under age 60.

Mrs. Trew said that people who have already retired from the county hospitals will not have any change in their monthly retirement checks.

Bazaar Set For Saturday

The annual fall bazaar of the First United Methodist Church of McLean is set for Saturday from 1 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the church.

A fall festival luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. with everyone invited to attend.

The bazaar will feature a white elephant sale with trash and treasure collectibles, a country kitchen featuring home-made cakes, pies, bread, jelly, pickles and cookies, and a craft sale.

Money from the bazaar is used by the church for various charitable activities.

Hospitals Can't Be Closed, Public Told

A standing-room only crowd filled the Gray County Courtroom Monday for the second of two required public hearings concerning the lease of the county's hospitals. Commissioners answered several questions concerning the proposed lease of the two hospitals. County Judge Don Hinton told the group that American Medical International (AMI) can not close the hospitals during the time of their lease because state law mandates that a county hospital cannot be closed unless another replaces it.

In response to another questioner, Hinton said that AMI would be committed to running the hospitals for at least five years if the lease is signed.

H. D. Foltik, central region vice-president of AMI, said that the corporation would be willing to wait until January 1 for a referendum on the leasing issue to go before the public, but that the proposal could not be extended beyond that date.

Foltik explained that negotiations have been going on since January 1978 and the company could not have an "open-ended" commitment.

Hinton asked for a show of hands of people who would be in favor of a bond issue for the hospitals.

Eight persons raised their hands. Most of the crowd raised their hands when they were asked if they were in favor of leasing the hospitals.

team 18-0. Brock Crockett scored 14 of McLean's points, beginning with a 20-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The eighth grader made it 8-0 with a two-point conversion. On the Cubs' first possession after the intermission, Crockett again crossed the goal, this time on a 15-yard dash behind the blocking of

John Jones. Jones, also an eighth grader, ran the ball in to raise the score to 16-0. McLean's final two points See CLUBS, Page 2 came following an exceptional 7-yard punt by Billy Bybee. After a Skellytown player fielded the kick, Andy Eck tackled him on the one-yard line. About five Cub defenders trapped the ball carrier in the end zone on the next play to increase the McLean margin to the final 18-0.

Coach Jack Dorsett said the Cubs' defense played better at Skellytown than it has all year. The hosts were limited to only one first down.
Dorsett said everyone on the McLean squad played about half of the game and that all "did real well." Receiving mention for their play both on offense and on defense were Lance Gabel, Frank Todd, Michael Reynolds, Scott Stubbs, and Randall Lynn.

Candidates Reveal Expenditures

Foster Whaley, Democrat, and Bill Hale, Republican, candidates for state representative in the 66th Legislative District received more than $20,000 in contributions through Sept. 28, according to sworn statements filed by the candidates with Steven C. Oaks, Texas secretary of state.
Hale, the Republican candidate from Floydada, reported that he received $16,094.66 between Sept. 10, 1977 and Sept. 28, 1978. Hale also reported total expenditures of $13,689.70 for that period.
Whaley, the Democratic candidate from Pampa, reported receiving $8,021.54 between April 28 and Sept. 28. Whaley reported expenditures of $4,458.34 for that period.

Kelly Moore Places In Childress Rodeo

Kelly Moore, McLean High School senior rodeo Club member, placed fourth in barrel racing and sixth in pole bending at the Childress Rodeo last weekend.
McLean High's other rodeo standouts, David Tollison, is out of competition because of a broken leg suffered in the McLean-boaker football game last week. In standing released by the Tri-State High School Rodeo Association last week, Tollison was second in steer wrestling, fourth in ribbon roping, and sixth for all-around cowboy.
Miss Moore was ranked seventh in barrels, eighth in pole bending, and fifth in all-around.
McLean's boys team is ranked seventh in the association and the girls' team is ranked fifth. Students from the tri-state area will compete in a championship rodeo next spring to determine final placement in the Tri-State Association.

"Summer Is I-Cumen In" is the earliest known piece of harmonized secular vocal music. It was written down, and probably composed, by John of Fornsete, an English monk, in the year 1240.

EDITORIAL

Don't you think it would be a good idea to publish the names of the "youngsters" responsible for property damage on Halloween night? Most of the "Youngsters" are old enough to drive cars, and some of them are old enough to be out of high school, so why do we excuse them?
They are old enough to know better, to understand that when they damage someone's property (even if it's city property) that somebody has to pay for the damage, and someone has to clean up the mess.
Each year organizations sponsor activities to help keep the kids off the street on Halloween night, but it has not seemed to help. And this year, young vandals let's call them what they are! extended the Halloween "fun" to include Saturday, Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday night.

Well, after all "kids will be kids", and "what does a little innocent fun hurt?" if you really believe that, next year, put up a sign on your property that says "Kids will be kids! Have your fun and do your damage to this house."
I doubt that we will see very many signs like that in McLean.

Pranksters Damage Property

Pranksters were out in force to celebrate Halloween over the weekend, littering city streets with watermelons and doing some property damage.
A neon sign at the Trail Inn Motel was bombarded with watermelons, Sunday night about 9 p.m., causing extensive damage to the sign. Mrs. Nancy Galbreath, owner of the motel, said she heard the noise and saw the neon tube burning into the wood of the sign. She disconnected the sign preventing more damage.
Some homeowners reported watermelons thrown into their garages and driveways.

Hightower To Tour McLean

U. S. Representative Jack Hightower will be in McLean tomorrow (Friday) to attend a luncheon with the city council at Ruth Magee's home. Hightower will tour the new government apartments and the nursing home, and will be at the senior citizen's building at 2:30 p.m. to meet with the public.
The first American song was reputedly "My Days Have Been So Wondrous Free" written in 1759. The ditty was composed by Francis Hopkinson, a Declaration of Independence signer and a friend of George Washington.

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Elise Early Libber

Elise waerenskjoeld (1815-1895) marched to her own drummer and left her mark on both Norway and Texas. The daughter of a Norwegian Lutheran pastor, Elise was a woman's advocate when such activity was unheard of in Norway. She married and divorced the inventor of the bomb-tipped harpoon which revolutionized the whaling industry. If the shock of a divorce was not enough, she resumed her maiden name. Against all standards of propriety for Norwegian women, she organized and operated a handicraft school for girls. In 1846 Elise began editing, a forbidden task for a woman, the "Norge Og Amerika", a periodical which informed Norwegians of the conditions in the new world. Apparently inspired by the information she received from John Reiersen, founder of the first Norwegian settlement in Texas, she immigrated in 1847 to Van Zandt County.

Elise married Wilhelm waerenskjoeld and eagerly took on the rugged life of a pioneer farm wife. She wrote letters to Norway, telling of the life and opportunities in Texas. Her letters are credited with encouraging many Norwegians who were "gathering crumbs from the table of the aristocracy" to immigrate to Texas. They have been compiled by the Norwegian-American Historical Association into a book called, "The Lady With The Pen". Warmed by her letters, all the newcomers, upon their arrival, went directly to the waerenskjoeld home and stayed a few days or weeks. The Civil War, drought, and grasshopper invasions added to the family's financial burdens. To supplement the income, Elise taught school, sold books, magazine subscriptions, and garden seeds. She spoke out against slavery and called for temperance. After her husband was murdered in 1866, she raised their three sons alone.

The Texas Historical Commission has placed two OFFICIAL TEXAS HISTORICAL MARKERS in honor of this courageous woman on the Courthouse Square and in Howard Cemetery at Hamilton.

Gray County 4-H NEWS By Layton Barton & Marilyn Tate

The annual Gray County 4-H Awards Banquet will be held Saturday, November 4, 1978 at 7:30 p.m. at the McLean Country Club in McLean.

The banquet will be held to honor 4-H'ers who have completed a 4-H project this year and those who have won awards during the past year in various project areas.

The meat, bread, and drinks will be furnished by the 4-H council. Each family should bring a covered dish. All 4-H members and their families are urged to attend. All 4-H members with show barrows on feed should contact the extension office as soon as possible so we can be checking on them. If you have a barrow on feed let us know where he is located, the breed, and where he came from.

The Gray County Food Show will be held Sunday, November 19 at the Courthouse Annex beginning at 1:30 p.m. Further information will be sent out soon.

For further information about 4-H in Gray County, call 669-1429.

Firewood Type Most Important

With winter weather just around the corner, homeowners will soon be making preparations for sitting by a glowing fireplace, but these dreams of a warm fire and a cozy fireplace may go up in smoke if the wrong type of wood is purchased, cautions a forestry specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Since firewood purchases are not covered by consumer protection laws, it is the responsibility of the buyer to shop and choose the right type of wood," points out Dr. Mike Waterscheidt. "Price comparisons may be difficult since firewood may be sold by the standard cord, the face cord or the truck load," he adds.

A standard cord is 8 feet long, 4 feet wide and 4 feet high, or 128 cubic feet. On the other hand, a face cord measures 8 by 4 feet on the face of the stack, with the wood cut into smaller pieces. The face cord measures about 1/3 to 1/2 of a standard cord.

"The best way to compare prices is to calculate the cubic feet of wood. Measure the stack and multiply the length by the width and by the height," suggests the forestry specialist.

Following this advice will also keep the unwary buyer from making a mistake out of what appears to be a bargain. Cubic feet measurements should also be checked on truck loads of firewood.

After the truck is unloaded and the wood stacked, multiply the length, width and height of the stack in feet and divide by 128 to obtain the portion of a cord you have. For example, 6 feet x 2 feet x 4 feet = 48 cubic feet; 48 divided by 128 = .38 or about 1/3 of a standard cord. A good rule of thumb is that a standard 1/2-ton pickup without heavy-duty springs can carry about 1/3 cord.

"Certain types of firewood also burn better than others," says Waterscheidt. "Live oak, hickory, white oak, post oak, red oak and pecan are excellent, long-burning woods with a high heat output. However, pine and cedar are softwoods that make excellent kindling but produce only short-burning fires."

A combination of softwood for kindling, hardwood for heat, and fruit or nut wood for aroma will make shopping around worthwhile, contends the forestry specialist. "Always choose dry, light-weight wood over green wood," says Waterscheidt. "Drier wood can give up to 20 percent more heat and is much easier to kindle than moist green wood."

Additional information about various types of firewood is provided in a publication, "Buying and Using Fireplace Wood," available at any county Extension office.

Preparing For Widowhood Job For Both Spouses

Preparing for widowhood is a job for both spouses, says a family resource management specialist.

Start by "minding your own business" -- seriously and completely, advises Lillian Chenoweth.

Mrs. Chenoweth is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

"Minding your own business" means understanding every aspect of family finances of money matters, she explains.

It is extremely important for both husband and wife to understand the family money situation, she adds.

For women, it is especially important, since three of every four women outlive their husbands by an average of eight years.

Almost 13 percent of the nation's population is widows, who are an average age of 56 and the life-expectancy gap between men and women is steadily widening, Mrs. Chenoweth says.

QUESTIONS TO ANSWER Time spent in answering the following questions may be the best investment a couple can make:

What assets are available? In whose name are they listed? These include savings, investments, salary, pensions, insurance and social security.

When, where and how can any benefits in the spouse's name be obtained?

Where are financial records and documents kept?

What are the expenses to plan for in daily living, in case of widowhood?

Does the status of any asset change upon a spouse's death, illness, unemployment or divorce?

Some sources may begin, end or continue at different points in time.

Joys of the Job

Most Americans are content with their jobs, with the greatest satisfaction among white collar workers between the ages of 25 and 44, according to a study by the Conference Board.

The survey of 5,000 U.S. families found 59 per cent are "satisfied" with their jobs and 28 per cent are "very satisfied."

FOR COUNTY JUDGE Kennedy

This is the most important political contest we have this fall. The race is not for the Presidency, the U. S. Senate or the U. S. Congress. It doesn't involve many thousands of voters or millions of dollars in campaign expenditures. It does involve honest, dignified and capable administration of local government and an outstanding candidate. This race is for Gray County Judge and the candidate is Carl Kennedy.

Carl Kennedy was born and raised in Pampa; was president of the student body in high school, fullback for the Harvesters and a member of the National Honor Society.

Carl Kennedy graduated from Texas Tech. with a degree in Business Administration, was president of the senior class and is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Carl Kennedy served in the U. S. Air Force and as Captain received the very important experience as Purchasing Officer.

Carl Kennedy has had extensive experience in business and industry as well as administration and has a first hand working knowledge of ranching and farming.

Carl Kennedy married Patricia Reynolds in 1959 and they have 5 children and he is chairman of the board of the Bible Church of Pampa.

When we say this contest is the most important we face we do not diminish the vital choices we will make for national or state offices, but we have to solve our problems at home before we can make any headway in Austin or Washington.

Over the past years Gray County has been fortunate to have many qualified local office holders, representing both major parties. We are able to continue this tradition by having a fine man as a candidate for Gray County Judge.

We have the opportunity to vote FOR rather than AGAINST this Nov. 7th.

"I want to take this opportunity to tell you that I am sincere in my objective to seek the office and serve as Gray County Judge.

"The knowledge I have gained working in business, industry, and agriculture during the past 23 years assure me that I can fulfill the Administrative responsibilities of the County Judge.

My involvement with family and church, business and social associations provide the confidence that I can properly carry out the Judicial responsibilities of the office."

Ag Tax Practitioners Meet Scheduled

Tax practitioners over the state have an opportunity to "bone up" on the latest information regarding income taxes at a series of 31 workshops planned by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.

practitioners who do extensive farm tax work, points out Dr. Richard Trimble, Extension economist. However, a great deal of the material covered will be common to all tax returns, with special emphasis on new developments and problem areas.

Because enrollment is limited, preregistration is necessary, notes Trimble. County Extension agents have details on the workshops and the names of workshop coordinators to contact for preregistration.

Begin Exercise Slowly, Expert Warns

Exercise - but take some precautions before beginning any program. Recently people have become interested in a variety of exercises including jogging, racquet ball, tennis, swimming, and many more, to promote physical fitness, points out Carla Shearer, a health education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System.

Exercise - but take some precautions before beginning any program. During vigorous activity, blood goes to the arms and legs. Muscle movement helps the blood return to the heart.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Going of Pampa are the parents of a girl Haley Nicole, born Sept. 18 at Highland General Hospital in Pampa. She weighed 6 lbs. 6 1/2 oz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Holland of Pampa are the parents of a girl, born Oct. 30. She was named Lorie LeAndra. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Foshee of McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Holland of Sweetwater, Okla. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. O.R. Blankenship of McLean and Mrs. Dorothy Johnson of Sweetwater.

Everyone needs exercise on a regular basis; however, they should exercise some precautions when entering into any program, the specialist advises.

1) Don't try to do too much too soon. It's advisable to get a medical check-up before starting a program of vigorous physical activity.

2) Don't push yourself too far. Stop exercising immediately if you experience extreme fatigue, tightness or pain in the chest, abnormal shortness of breath, light-headedness or nausea.

3) The key to physical fitness is regular daily exercise - not just on weekends. "Now-and-then" exercise will not help to build and maintain physical fitness.

4) After exercising, allow the body time to cool down.

4) If it is impossible to do daily exercising, exercise at least three to four days a week - alternating rest days and exercise days.

Texas Monthly Poll Shows Democrats Leading In State Political Races

The first TEXAS MONTHLY POLL, 1,000 telephone interviews of registered voters conducted between Sept. 29 and Oct. 7, reveals that the Democratic Party candidates were leading in each of the five survey attitudes on a wide range of topics and current events. It will be distributed to newspapers and radio and television stations throughout the state and nation.

The most surprising result of the first TEXAS MONTHLY POLL is in the hotly contested race for U.S. Senator. In that race Congressman Bob Krueger (D-News Braunfeld) holds a slight statewide lead -- 42.7 to 38.9 percent -- over the incumbent, Republican Senator John Tower. The POLL also asked voters to indicate which candidates they preferred in the race for Railroad Commissioner, Attorney General, Lieutenant Governor, and Governor.

In the Railroad Commissioner race, indecision was a significant finding with over 45 percent of those surveyed preferring neither Democrat John Poerner, 46, nor his Republican opponent Jim Lacy. Nevertheless, three-term state representative Poerner, who was appointed to the Commission earlier this year, leads 54-year-old Midland oilman Lacy by 36.5 to 18.2 percent statewide.

In the race for Lieutenant Governor, incumbent Bill Hobby, 46, enjoys a decisive 59.8 to 14.4 percent lead over his Republican challenger, 43-year-old Dallas commodities broker Gaylord Marshall. A significant 34.4 percent of those surveyed expressed no preference for either candidate.

The campaign for Attorney General pits two Houston lawyers, Democrat Mark White and Republican Jim Baker, against each other. White, 38-year-old former Texas Secretary of State, fought an uphill battle last spring to win the Democratic nomination from former Texas House Speaker of State, fought an uphill battle last spring to win the Democratic nomination from former Texas House Speaker Price Daniel, Jr. He currently leads Baker, a 48-year-old great-grandson of the founder of Houston's prestigious Baker & Botts law firm, by a wide 38.6 to 22.5 percent margin. A sizeable 38.9 percent of those polled were undecided.

In one of the costliest and hottest contested races of the campaign year, Democratic nominee Bob Krueger, 43, has gained a slight statewide lead over incumbent Republican John Tower in his bid for the U.S. Senate seat. Tower, 53, who was the first Republican Senator elected from Texas since 1870 when he won a special election in 1961, faces his first serious challenge for re-election this year from the two-term U.S. Representative from New Braunfels.

The POLL shows Krueger leading Tower by a 42.7 to 38.9 percent edge, with a critical 17.3 percent reported undecided. About 1.1 percent of the voters questioned expressed support for Raza Unida candidate Luis Diaz de Leon. Both Tower and Krueger are waging extensive media campaigns in October making this race too close to call.

In the race for Governor of Texas Democrat John Hill, 55, holds a solid lead over Republican contender Bill Clements. Texas Attorney General Hill won the Democratic nomination from incumbent Governor Dolph Briscoe without a runoff in a lively primary battle last spring. He now enjoys a 44.8 to 33.7 percent margin over 61-year-old Dallas oil drilling executive and former Deputy Secretary of Defense Clements. Of those surveyed, however, 21 percent say they have not decided on either candidate.

The TEXAS MONTHLY POLL indicates which candidates are leading in each race as of the time the POLL was conducted -- Sept. 29 through Oct. 7 -- and does not predict the outcome of the elections. In each race the undecided vote can play a significant role in the final outcome on Nov. 7. Campaign spending will accelerate rapidly in October and voters may be swayed from their original positions. This year's campaign are projected to be the most costly in Texas history.

LOOSE MARBLES

BY LISA PATMAN

Some of you may have noticed that football season has begun. I think the actual date of the first game of the season, television-wise, was July 5, after a long rest of two days, since last season wasn't over until July 3. At least that is the way it seems to me.

Those of you who read The McLean News regularly may have begun to recognize the different writing styles that each writer has developed around here. If you have, you may also have noticed that I never write football stories. There is a reason for this. Written in large type in my contract is a clause that says if, for any reason, I write a football story, my employment will be terminated immediately.

This all came about when I was still a new and inexperienced press person. The News staff was sitting around discussing the latest televised game when I mentioned something about "an odd call by the hindcatcher when the quarterback made a basket in the fourth inning."

There was a long silence in which you could have heard a pin drop (somehow there are a lot of long silences around me), and everyone ran to the file in which we keep the employment contracts. Then they made me write 500 times, "I will not speak of sports" and forced me to sign my name in a size that would out-Hancock John Hancock.

I have found a loophole in the contract, though. I can write anything I want in this column, and since I am the mother of a young griddier, and the friend of several others, and since I have been subjected to countless tutoring hours of football via the tube as my hubby became a football zombie, I am going to give you a blow-by-blow description of the last game I attended. Here goes:

Well, first we sang the national anthem, then we listened to some school songs, then the team ran out on the field. None of them tripped. The coaches wore the nastiest gold and black costumes. The game began by somebody kicking the ball. Several of the players grabbed other players and knocked them down. I'll bet their mothers were mad when they came home with dirt all over those nice uniforms. I'll bet even prosoaking won't get that out.

Several other things happened. A really cute girl in the most daring outfit came into the stand, some small children stepped on my toes, and the concession stand ran out of popcorn. Then it was half-time and the band marched around, the twirlers twirled, and the

and the team returned from the house where the team goes during half-time, (I think they get to nap and drink soda pop during the time the band is performing. That might be where all the popcorn went.)

Somebody kicked that poor football again, several over-emotional fans -- had fits and called the officials by names which, if said by their children, would have prompted a thorough mouth-washing, and the players continued to get their suits filthy. The game ended and we all went home.

Now that I have finally written a football story, I am rather excited about it, as I know you all are. If I get enough letters, I think the editor might change her mind and put me in charge of all the games. Of course, I would elaborate more. Perhaps I could find the name of the designer of that beautiful outfit the cute girl wore, and I could describe it to you in more detail. So keep those cards and letters coming in folks -- See you at the next game.

Club Activities

Baptist women met at the church for Bible study with Margaret Chapman bringing a lesson from 1 Peter.

Melba Jordan, hostess, served refreshments to Mrs. Chapman, Chick Woods, Susie Trout Stevens, Juanita Smith, Ruth Bible, Evelyn Hunt, Safronia Pettit, Stella Gibson, and Annie Reeves.

Mrs. Bea Lester was hostess for the Mary Martha Sunday School class of First Baptist Church at a social held in her home Oct. 21 at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Essie Howard offered opening prayer.

Mrs. Loree Barker, President, presided over the meeting and took care of the class business. Mrs. Verna Huggins brought the devotional on something to think about.

Mrs. Lucille Cullison was in charge of the Halloween and fun games. Prizes were given to the winners.

Refreshments were served to Loree Barker, Margaret Chapman, Louise Dickinson, Verna Huggins, Nora Moore, Clara Maude Hupp, Gladys Smith, Essie Howard, Levie Smith, Lucille Cullison, Lilly Mae Williams, Evelyn Hunt, Jessie Watson, and Bea Lester, hostess.

The next meeting will be a Thanksgiving dinner to be held in the Baptist church fellowship hall in November.

In the Kitchen

By Linda Haynes

Party season is approaching with Thanksgiving, and Christmas just around the corner. If you are planning to entertain during the holidays, you might try some of these appetizers for a different look on your party table.

GARLIC CHEESE ROLL
1 lb. Cheddar cheese, shredded and softened
1/8 tsp. hot sauce
3 dash. hot sauce
1 Tablespoon onion juice
1 Tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
2 T. mayonaisse
1/2 tsp. dry mustard
2 T. chili powder
2 T. paprika

Combine ingredients except chili powder and paprika; blend with an electric mixer. Shape into rolls with a diameter of a silver dollar.

Roll logs in chili powder and paprika. Wrap in waxed paper and refrigerate at least 24 hours before serving. This keeps several weeks.

CRAZY DIP
Mix together:
1 can hominy, drained
1 can cream of celery soup
1/2 lb. velveeta cheese
Picante sauce, to taste

1/2 soup can of milk.
Simmer for ten minutes and let cheese melt. Use for dips with chips or crackers.

SAUSAGE BALLS

This is one of my favorites because it is so easy to make weeks ahead and pull out of the freezer at the last minute.
1/2 lb. HOT bulk sausage
1 C. shredded cheddar cheese
3 C. biscuit mix

Combine; add just a little milk so it will stick together. Roll into balls about the size of a walnut. Bake at 400 degrees til brown. To make ahead, place baked balls on a cookie sheet in the freezer. When balls are frozen, place in a sealed plastic bag, and store in the freezer. When ready to use, place on a cookie sheet in oven for about five minutes, or in a glass dish in the microwave for about 30-45 seconds.

HOT HAMBURGER DIP
1 lb. ground beef
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/8 oz. can tomato sauce
1/2 cup catsup
1 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese
1 minced garlic clove
1 tsp. oregano
1 tsp. sugar
salt and pepper

Saute beef until browned. Add onion and cook until tender. Add everything and stir over low heat until cheese melts. Use as dip.

State Okays New Permit Form

AUSTIN, Tex.--State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday said a new Texas permit application form will lighten paperwork for many taxpayers and should lead to even greater efficiency in the Comptroller's Office.

The re-designed tax permit application replaces three separate forms required of persons or firms before collecting and paying sales taxes, use taxes, or cigarette, cigar and tobacco taxes.

"The simplified form will provide agreeable relief to many taxpayers who are suffering from overdoes of governmental paperwork," Bullock said.

The form was authorized for departmental use this month and an estimated 82,000 persons seeking tax permits are expected to use it during the next 12 months.

The old forms, collectively, contained six pages of instructions and information reporting blocks, calling for more than 60 separate pieces of information--much of it repetitive.

Hightower Says National Energy Act Disappointing

Congressman Jack Hightower said today that passage of the National Energy Act left him with a feeling of frustration and disappointment.

"I believe the bill can only result in more regulations and less production of our energy resources," the Congressman contended.

"Texas and other producing states will find themselves holding the short end of the energy stick, I have opposed it from the day it was presented almost 18 months ago."

Hightower said congressional approval of the bill was assured Friday when efforts to force a separate vote on the natural gas section of the energy package failed by only one vote.

"I am afraid that Texans will have bad memories of Friday, the 13th of October, 1978 for years to come," Hightower said.

The Congressman said the Natural Gas Conference Report, which became the centerpiece of the Administration's energy proposals after a crude oil equalization tax failed early in Congressional deliberations, would produce the most severe negative impact.

"Some other portions of the energy package, such as individual tax credits for conservation measures, had great appeal to a majority of the Congressmen," Hightower said. "That made it obvious our only chance of defeating the natural gas section was to separate it from the more acceptable portions of the package."

Hightower said that when the Administration became aware of efforts to force the separate vote it unleashed a wave of personal visits, telephone calls, memorandums and letters to House members. "I also was urged to support the measure by businessmen who had yielded to direct, personal appeals by the President or his top advisors," Hightower said.

"Games lubricate the body and the mind."

"THE ELECTRIC SAVINGS MACHINE"

SAVING FOR THE FUTURE

Coin banks help teach children how to save for the future. You can save for the future, too, with the electric heat pump. That's why we call it the electric savings machine. This efficient heating/cooling system can deliver as much as two units of heat for every one unit of electricity it uses. But the savings don't stop there. With fuel costs expected to rise during the next two decades, the electric heat pump is a smart investment that will save energy today and in the future.

It's never too soon to start saving with the electric heat pump. Start today before your future gets here. You'll be glad you did.

 sees a deer, when in reality,
 it may be another hunter.

Recent studies by the U.S. military, various universities and clothing industries show that the best defense for a hunter, whether after deer or other game, is to wear outer clothing made from hunter blaze orange.

The hunter, hiker, angler, or trapper who wears clothing of a color that merges into the brush and tree shadows or who is clad in garments of gray or brown is continually giving off deer clues.

These clues such as movement, noise or odor are used by deer hunters as well as the deer to spot or identify an animal or man.

It is apparent from accident reports received and studied by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department hunter safety experts that "hunter judgement" accounts for a large percent of the accidents each year. Of the 36 hunting accidents reported to P&WD since Jan. 1, 1978, 13 have been classified as "hunter judgement" such as victim moved into line of fire; victim covered by shooter swinging on game;

victim out of sight of shooter;
 or victim mistaken for game.

But many shooting accidents occur when experienced hunters who do not drink and are adept at identifying game shoot another hunter or person.

The human mind can be convinced that a deer is standing in the brush if the conditions such as shadows, light, sound or movement

 are inadequate for the hunter to identify the target.

This "early blur" condition can be corrected if the person in question is wearing outer clothing with a luminance factor not less than 40 percent, a dominant wave length between 595 and 605
 nanometers and an excitation purity not less than 85 percent. This recommended color specifies the daylight fluorescent orange or hunter blaze orange which is required on the P&WD wildlife public hunting areas during the deer season and should be on the hunters list of required equipment.

Nature does not produce any object, plant or animal life with these color variations.
 Many hunters have not gone to the hunter blaze orange for fear of scaring the deer away, but tests have shown that deer do not distinguish different colors, only shades of gray.

Most experienced deer
 hunters realize that movement scares deer and, therefore, the majority of the successful deer hunters are stationary or hidden when they bag their deer.

The P&WD suggests that all hunters, experienced and beginners, take a little more time in identifying their target before pulling the trigger, even if it might mean letting a buck deer slip away in the brush.

A member of the British Parliament once told his 13 year old son on his first hunt
 "All the pheasants ever bred won't repay for one man dead," and this remark should apply for all wildlife whether in Texas or other states.

Karon Hunt Initiated Into Honor Organization

WTSU--Karon Hunt, senior elementary education major at West Texas State University from McLean recently was initiated into Kappa Delta Pi, an honor organization in education. Requirements for Kappa Delta Pi include having a 3.5
 overall grade point average and at least three hours of education courses with at least the spring, according to Dr. Thomas D. MacOwan, who has been counselor for the organization since it was founded at WT, said that the average membership is approximately 60 per year.
 Thirty-five students were initiated this fall, but there will be another initiation in the spring, according to Dr.
 MacOwan.
 Kappa Delta Pi was nationally chartered in 1911, and introduced at WTSU in 1960.

Among certain peoples it was grounds for divorce if a man's shadow fell on his mother-in-law.

Unsupported Jogging Censured

"Don't jog without a bra!" This advice for women comes from Miami plastic surgeon Charles B. Radlauer, M.D., who warns of Cooper's Droop years before nature intended.

Cooper's Droop is a condition of sagging bosoms that gets its name from Cooper's ligaments, tissues which hold breasts in place.

Without the support of a bra, these ligaments tend to tear. When that happens, Dr.

Radlauer says, the bloom of young sags prematurely. Gravity pulls down on all the structures of the body, particularly the female bosom, and even non-jogging ladies have problems in this respect.

While bra-less jogging can add to the number of candidates for corrective surgery, it is still not among the most common causes of sagging breasts, according to Dr. Radlauer.

Cutting Horses To Compete In NCHA

With nearly $40,000 total money up for grabs, over 100 top cutting horses from across the country will be in Amarillo to compete at the National Cutting Horse Association (NCHA) World Championship Finals. Competition will be held at the Tri-State Fairgrounds Coliseum Nov. 2-4.

Each horse is assessed a $200 entry fee and added with $20,000 prize money, the Finals will be one of the richest cutting events in the history of the NCHA, according to Rusty Tinnin, chairman of the Finals.

The sponsors are The Outfit Club of Amarillo; and Diagnostic Data, Inc. through their Equine Pharmaceutical Division-Thoroughbred Remedy Corporation, each contributing $10,000.

Two divisions will be held at the Finals, the "open" division for any competitor and the "non-pro" division restricted to riders who do not train or show cutting horses for pay, other than premium money.

Competition will begin Nov. 2 at 10 a.m. In the open division, Doc's Playmate owned by Leon Harrel of Helm, California is the current leader, with $26,892.83, followed closely by Sonita's Last owned by Gary Moore, Ponder, Texas, who has earned $25,984.50. These horses will meet the 1977 World Champion Cutting Horse, Penponita owned by Matlock and Carol Rose of Gainesville, Texas. Valued at over $500,000, Penponita will be a top contender although he has been lightly campaigned this year.

Leading in the non-pro division is Dick Gaines, Byers, Texas and his horse Sally Doc. Less than $3,000 separates Gaines' horse and Mary Jo Reno, Simonton, Texas and her horse Lena's Super Cool.

WTSU To Present Dance Recital

"Soaring, Flying, and Swinging", a Pastiche in D Dance, will be staged at West Texas State University beginning at 8 p.m. Nov. 4 in the Northern Recital Hall to benefit the WTSU dance division.

Joining members of the WTSU dance division will be dancers from the Lubbock Civic Ballet and the Lone Star Ballet, with Neil Hess as director and Dr. Ray Ewing, chairman of the Department of Speech at WTSU, in charge.

Coordinators for the event are WTSU Student Activities Council members Jim Holston, D'lyn Black, Karleen Geringer and Sallie Wilson.

"Soaring, Flying & Swinging" is a colorful spectrum of dance showpieces ranging through classical, modern, jazz and musical comedy.

The University dancers will present a jazz piece titled "Mis You," and will join other dancers in later pieces.

The Lone Star Ballet will do "Oh, Wow", a salute to the 50's; "Speak Easy," a roaring 20's romp; "Galaxy," a modern dance piece; and "Concerto," a neo-classical ballet set to Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto #3.

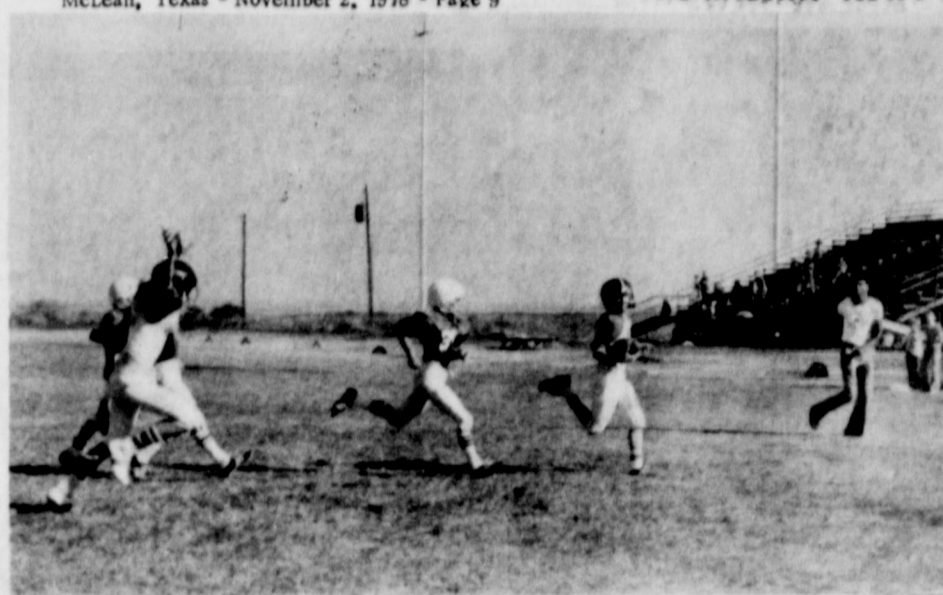

The Lubbock Civic Ballet will perform "Chopinesque," Verdi Pas de Trois and a jazz work titled "Boogie, boogie, boogie."

Lone Star Ballet members participating are Cindy Eslick, Gayle Nobles, Mia Cunningham and Lori Patane.

Dancers from the Lubbock Civic Ballet are Monica Deann Daley, Libby Hayden, Mira Hayden, Debbie Knaff, Brenda Marshall, Mary Maynard and Tamorah Stease.

The first movie that actually told a story was "The Great Train Robbery," made in 1903.

McLean PeeWee Football Team Shows Improvement Against Shamrock In Saturday's Action

McLean's PeeWee football team showed a marked improvement Saturday morning in their game with Shamrock.

McLean had suffered an overwhelming defeat the previous week against the Shamrock PeeWee team in a scrimmage.

In this week's game, the McLean PeeWee team led going into the second half with an 8-6 score. Shawn Studer spotting a clear spot in the Shamrock defense, made the touchdown run early in the second quarter. Although McLean fumbled on the hand-off for the extra point, Martin Gately was able to recover the ball in the end zone for two points.

In the last few minutes before the second quarter ended, Shamrock outmaneuvered McLean to score a six-point run, but McLean stopped the extra point, making the score 8-6 at the half.

The third quarter remained scoreless, and McLean had victory in sight until the last of the fourth quarter when Shamrock was able to elude the McLean gridders to score another touchdown. Their attempt at the extra point was again unsuccessful, making the final score 12-8.

A game pitting the McLean PeeWee team against the Pampa Cardinals is set for tonight (Thursday) at 6 p.m.

4-H AWARDS BANQUET
The annual Gray County 4-H Awards Banquet will be held Saturday, November 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the McLean Country Club. A covered dish supper will be held prior to the awards presentation. Everyone is invited to bring a covered dish and attend this program. 4-H boys and girls from all over the County will receive special awards and year pins. Adult leaders will receive year pins and certificates. Several special awards will be presented. Plan to join us. All 4-H members should plan to attend.

H.D. CLUB PROGRAMS
During November Home Demonstration Clubs are meeting at Southwestern Public Service for Festive Food Demonstrations presented by Mildred Prince, home service advisor for Southwestern Public Service. If you are interested in attending one of these demonstrations contact the County Extension Office for meeting dates and time. Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

CHRISTMAS IN OCTOBER
A special thanks to the Home Demonstration Club Members and Merchants who helped make the Christmas in October program a success. Approximately 300 attended the program held to show Christmas gift ideas to make and give.

ENERGIZE WARDROBE FOR COLD WEATHER
Energize the Family's wardrobe for colder temperatures indoor and out. Winterize by wearing garments that are close fitting at neck, sleeve, waist, leg, and other normal openings. Tight fitting garments are not warm because they reduce circulation as well as comfort.

Natural fibers-cotton, wool, silk, mohair-polyesters with special comfort finishes, furs, and wood-like fibers such as many acrylics are warmest. Garments worn in lightweight layers that trap insulating air pockets are warmer than one heavy-weight garment. Full length and multiple layers of socks, mittens and gloves, mufflers and scarves and snug hats or caps warm the extremities. Extremities such as feet, hands and the head-especially for those with circulatory problems-may feel cold faster since the body works to keep vital organs warm and may at times sacrifice other areas.

Infants and young children, older adults, the handicapped and those with cardiac and circulatory conditions have greater need when adapting comfortably to cooler temperatures. Infants feel temperature changes more rapidly than adults and rely on adults to dress them properly. Young children need guidance in choosing garments that don't weigh them down too much to hinder posture or active movement or interfere with personal safety. Older adults and the handicapped may not be as active and since body activity warms the body, they may feel cooler and need to dress more warmly.

VELVET NEEDS SOFT TOUCH OF EXTRA CARE
Fall's velvet fashions need a special "soft touch" of extra care. Steam velvets occasionally to keep them looking crisp, fresh and bright-even though they receive regular cleanings. Simply hang velvet garments in the bathroom and run a hot bath. Always allow the garment to dry thoroughly before handling so it will not have fingerprints. If the pile is crushed, simply rub the area lightly with a soft brush or with another piece of velvet. Velvet will last many years when it receives proper care.

For specific sewing instructions for sewing velvet fabrics ask for the Extension publication - Velvet looks All Seven Up! free at the County Extension Office. We have other fact sheets for sewing other fabrics also. All of these are available free.

Gray County Included In Manufacturing Studies

Rural America has gone through many changes in the last quarter century. "Although we can see changes in the county, it's not easy to explain how or why they have occurred," says University of Wisconsin-Madison rural sociologist Gene Summers.

Gray County will be participating in a unique study that will shed more light on changes in Gray County and in other rural counties throughout the United States. The researchers will first focus on manufacturing growth and population changes.

The results should interest local residents who want to learn more about what has happened--and what is happening--in their communities, Summers says.

Gray County is one of 276 randomly selected counties that were nonmetropolitan areas in 1950. Many of these counties are far different today than they were 25 years ago.

The researchers will use census data from past years to "reconstruct" the past. They will also use more detailed information furnished by local firms to determine current conditions.

Manufacturing firms in the county will be asked for information regarding the number of employees, payroll size, type of products they produce and where these products are sold.

He stresses that the information is confidential and identities won't be published.

The project is an international undertaking, part of a joint survey between the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the University of Madrid in Spain.

"Up to now, industries and most of the population in Spain have been concentrated in a few major cities, but that may change in Spain, and researchers there want to know what changes to expect if industries move to rural areas," Summers adds.

The study is conducted under the auspices of the United States-Spanish Joint Committee for Education and Cultural Affairs.

Summers will report the results from the first phase of the five year project in local newspapers this spring.

Texas A&M University Extension Service

Everyone interested in using the M-44 coyote control device should attend a meeting Monday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Extension Meeting Room of the Hutchinson County Courthouse, Stinnett, Texas.

At this training session, all persons present will receive certification from the Texas Department of Agriculture, which will permit the use of the M-44 device and purchase necessary ammunition for its use.

All interested persons are invited and urged to attend as there may not be another meeting in the Texas Panhandle this season for trappers wanting to use the M-44 device.

4-H AWARDS BANQUET
The Annual Gray County 4-H Award Banquet will be held Nov. 4 in the McLean Country Club. The covered dish supper will start at 7:30 p.m., and the awards presentation will follow.

All Gray County 4-H members, parents and leaders are invited to attend. 4-H'ers will receive year pins and other special awards and adult leaders will receive service awards. Also, there will be some special awards presented. All 4-H families should plan to attend.

RAT, MICE CONTROL
With the cooler weather, rats and mice begin to look for more shelter and a warm winter home. Rats and mice have three requirements in order to live around your home or farm--food, water and shelter. If you take away or prevent them from obtaining any one of these three items, then you should eliminate your rat, mice problem.

Sometimes this is difficult to do and you may need to undertake a baiting program. Bait stations, located in barns, garages, grain bins and hog houses should be supplemented by perimeter baiting on the outskirts of these buildings.

Rats can spread diseases, contaminate feed and cause numerous homes in buildings. Rat droppings in animal feed and grain are the most frequent methods of disease transmission.

A continual cleanup campaign combined with rat-proofed buildings should deny rats access to breeding and living areas. Also if they do not have ready access to food or water, they will locate in some other, more favorable area.

CULL OPEN, LATE CALVING COWS

Although the cattle market is strong at the present time, it's wise to "clean up" herds by culling open cows and giving more attention to a controlled breeding program by culling late calving cows.

There's no need to put expensive winter feed into unproductive cows. Culling the cow herd now will also help you plan on hay and feed supplies for the winter months.

Also, pregnancy testing cows this fall may be a more profitable management tool than ever before.

Since it's tough for a cow to produce a calf large enough to pay her feed bill, we know an open cow is surely losing money. In addition, cows calving during the summer months wean calves 30 to 35 pounds lighter than their hard mates which calve at other times. For this reason it's advisable to cull cows which will calve late next year and buy a replacement which will calve late next year and buy a replacement which will calve early.

Your definition of a late calving cow should change every year until your calving season has been reduced to 60 days preferably, and certainly no longer than 90 days.

Removing barren and late calving cows from the herd will increase both the herd's reproductive potential and pounds of calf weaned.

Van Zandt Named Outstanding Agent

Joe Van Zandt of Pampa has been named an "Outstanding County Agent for 1978" by the Texas Plant Food Institute. The award was announced recently at the association's annual convention in San Antonio. Van Zandt was cited for his efforts to help Gray County farmers improve their practices through better fertilization practices.

TPFI is a statewide trade association whose 600-plus members are engaged in the manufacture, distribution or application of commercial fertilizer.

During the past year, Van Zandt wrote 57 news stories, gave 47 radio programs and conducted six short courses and field days that offered agricultural producers an opportunity to obtain information about crop production and fertilization, in addition he carried out 13 soil fertility demonstrations to show Gray County farmers how fertilizers can be used in the area he serves as an Extension Agent.

News from Alanreed

By Lena Carter

Recently Rev. Jimmy Vineyard and Bill Johnston of Oklahoma City left there by plane to Denver, then on to Seattle.

About the time they should have been landing, there was no airport there, but as they landed, cars with red, blinking lights surrounded the plane. They were all asked to deplane, still not knowing they had been sky-jacked to Vancouver, Canada. A woman that made the bomb threat was captured, and they loaded and came back to Seattle. There was no bomb.

Bill Johnston visited the P.M. Gibson's Thursday. Jimmy is the Gibson's son.

Carl Wood of "Plowing Out The Corners" fame attended the Halloween Carnival here Friday night. Rena Belle Anderson of Pampa was also there.

The Campbells had their daughter and her family and niece Cindy Johnson of Amarillo visiting here during the weekend.

Marie McCracken and granddaughter of Clarendon visited here Friday and attended the carnival.

Mitch Phillips, pastor of First Baptist Church, resigned his post here Sunday.

Polly Harrison spent Sunday in Amarillo with the Velt Cummings. Brenda returned with his grandmother for a week's visit.

The Bill Craps had their granddaughter from Lockney visiting Sunday. The Warner Phillips of Pampa visited here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Gilbreath visited in Pampa Saturday and brought their great-grandson home with them for a longer visit.

The Alanreed HDA Club met Oct. 25 in the home of Sue Crisp with 10 members and five visitors present. The roll call was answered by "How I Stretch A Dollar."

A program on superstitions and Halloween facts was presented by Anita Bruce. Several games were also enjoyed. Refreshments were served to Anita Bruce, Lena Carter, Polly Harrison, Onie Gibson, Sherri Long, Nell Keese, Paula Wilson, Ruth and Brenda McLain, Betty and Ramona Finley, Brett Long, Shawn Bruce, Nadine Colard, and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Davis spent several days in Amarillo last week due to the death of daughter Betty's mother-in-law.

Polly Harrison and Lena Carter visited relatives in Pampa Tuesday.

A large crowd attended the Alanreed carnival Friday night at the Alanreed school. Clarence Pierce of McLean won an airport and Lisa Patman of McLean won a black and white television. Diana Cooner of Alanreed won a $25 savings bond donated by the American National Bank in McLean.

SETTING-UP A WORKSHOP

A small spare room, a large closet, or part of the basement, attic, or garage may be the ideal place for you to create a workshop, so you can make repairs and build some household items yourself.

Good ventilation and sufficient lighting are essential for your workshop. Unless the area is beside a big window, you'll need a strong fan and a bright overhead light by your workbench. For close work, you can install an adjustable droplight fixture, or a gooseneck lamp.

Fires often start in workshops due to the presence of flammable materials--oils, paints, and varnishes. Be sure to carefully clean up after using these materials.

JACK HIGHTOWER

An independent Congressman in the tradition of Texas leadership

Jack Hightower promised the voters of the 13th District when they sent him to Congress four years ago that he would represent all of them fairly and honestly. He promised to provide an independent voice in Washington. He promised to work full-time at the job. HE HAS KEPT THOSE PROMISES.

Here is what those who know Jack Hightower's record say about his effectiveness:

"... in two terms Hightower has established himself as a member of the Agriculture Committee and the Government Operations Committee whose voice must be reckoned with in arriving at solutions to two of the nation's most pressing domestic issues -- problems confronting today's farmer, and inflation..."
Amarillo Daily News, May 1, 1978

"... Jack Hightower from Texas is one of the newer class and, in fact, Bob Poague and I like to think he's the kind of refreshing leader of the newer members coming to Washington in a recent session or so, and Jack is a former state senator and has been a tremendously effective lawmaker..."
Congressman Charles Thone of Nebraska

"... Hightower is serious about his business in Washington. He is just as serious about trying to maintain a normal lifestyle in a city where normal is often viewed as abnormal..."
Jim Craig, Houston Post, October 8, 1978

"... I want you to know that we as farmers are truly grateful to have a representative in Washington who does such a fine job of telling our story... thank you for all that you have done for America's farmers..."
Mrs. Georgia Holt, Spearman, Texas

"... I want to express our thanks for your hard work to benefit Texas wheat farmers in the House Committee on agriculture... I know that some of your votes and stands on the issues took real courage for a Democrat, and I want you to know how much I personally appreciate them..."
Winston Wilson, Farmer, Quanah, Texas

"... Hightower has shown a willingness to listen to the needs of his constituents and the ability to legislate on their behalf..."
Amarillo Daily News, May 1, 1978

"... Almost everyone on the Hill knows about Jack Hightower... the Congressman who votes his conscience, represents his district by organic instinct, but is capable of rising above parochial considerations when national interests are at stake. The same qualities that made him an influential state senator for 10 years -- scrupulous honesty and an appetite for hard work -- have served him well in Washington, but these alone do not explain the high regard in which he is held. In a town overpopulated by small people with large egos, it is a relief to find one for whom the reverse is true..."
Texas Monthly, May, 1976

That's the kind of Congressman Jack Hightower has been since he took his oath in January, 1975. It's why he has earned the respect of his colleagues and the confidence of people throughout this district... from both political parties. Jack Hightower, Democrat, has earned another term. Vote November 7.

Most newspapers pick Hill over Clements

"John Hill may be the best candidate for governor in decades. Judging from his record, he should win easily over his Republican opponent, whose chief qualification is money. Unlike his opponent, Hill is not given to outrageous promises, intemperate personal attack or underhanded tactics. He will work hard for the best interests of the state and its people."

— Austin American Statesman

"The more Mr. Clements has explained his blunt viewpoints -- even those views we could agree with -- the more he has raised doubt as to how effective a bulldozer could be in Texas government. Conversely, John Hill has grown in our evaluation as a man who not only is the best state attorney general in recent history, but also is a man with the intelligence, savvy and ability to serve Texas well as governor."

— Abilene Reporter-News

"We believe Hill will bring vitality and leadership to state government. Hill is not an advocate of big government. Nor is he a free spender. He has pledged that no new taxes will be levied if he is elected. His anti-inflation program is the kind of fiscal conservatism Texans can accept gleefully."

— Corpus Christi Caller

ROOM FOR ONE MORE
By Anna Perrott Rose
THE GENTLE HOUSE
By Anna Perrott Rose

These two are being reviewed together because one is a continuation of the other. In "Room For One More" Rose tells of the rearing of three foster children along with three of her own. The story is a heart-warming account of the joys and trials of raising children. Throughout the book, Rose's love of children is evident.

In "The Gentle House" Rose tells the story of her life after her foster children and natural children have grown and left home.

In this book she tells of "Tinchy" a Latvian boy of eleven whose parents are dead, who had been born out of an orphanage in Latvia by the Russians, and who had barely kept alive in one displaced persons camp after another until he was brought to America after the war. He is so emotionally scarred that the foster family with which he first was placed found him impossible to handle. The author took him in and through patience, loving, and understanding, gradually restored him to mental health and happiness.

The books, written in 1950 and 1954, respectively, are fine descriptions of what a loving atmosphere can do for children.

"Room For One More" and "The Gentle House" are available at Lovett Memorial Library.

TOOTH Facts & Fancies

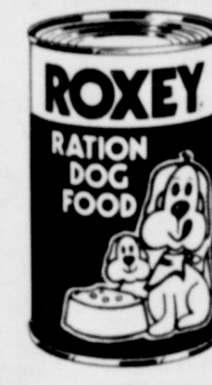

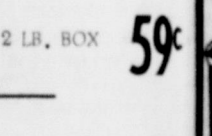

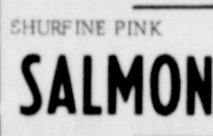

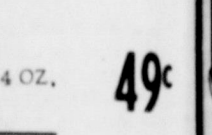

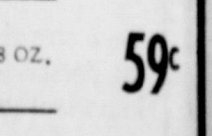

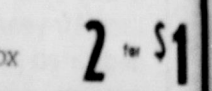

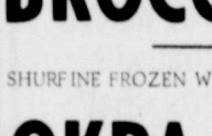

While many people struggle to brush and floss to maintain the health of their teeth because they know they can't grow new ones there actually have been a few cases of people late in life growing a third set of teeth. There was even a report in 1896 of someone growing a fourth set.

According to superstition if you drink from a dirty pool your teeth will fall out. Not only that but anyone finding your teeth will be able to control your every action.

It may set your teeth on edge to know that early Mexican doctors told toothache sufferers to eat an armadillo twice a month.
