Mantooth Assaulted In Robbery Attempt

California has given the world another Charles Manson. This time the radical leader was named Rev. Jimmie Jones, and apparently he was responsible for the deaths of several hundred people in a suicide pact and five others in an assassination in a remote country in South America.

Why does the lush, beautiful state of California seem to spawn and nurture these weirdos? Can you imagine Vermont or New Hampshire having such a group of fanatics as the Peoples Temple?

Perhaps it is unfair to blame California, but after all Texas has been analyzed and studied for fifteen years because of Lee Harvey Oswald (even though Oswald had only lived in the state a few months!)

The whole country seems to be in a state of shock about the Guyana deaths, but I'm terrified to wonder how many more such groups are growing in California? How many thousands of disillusioned, sick youngsters are listening to budding Mansons or neophyte Joneses?

We've been lulled into contentment by material prosperity and have chosen to forget the turbulence and violence of the Sixties. All those radicals who burned flags and rioted are still around... somewhere.

Maybe we should tell our congressmen we would like to have the FBI unchained and allowed to go back to investigating dissidents who would steal our children and warp their minds with drugs and treasonous ideas masked as "religion."

All we ex-Oklies and true blue Sooner fans are happy this week. Oklahoma and Nebraska will have a rematch this time in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Eve. BOOMER-SOONER, BOOMER-SOONER, BOOMER-SOONER.

A special apology to the Tiger Basketball team is in order. A few weeks ago we had a story about the beginning of girls' basketball in McLean but through an oversight (and just plain stupidity!) we failed to mention the boys! Sorry, Tigers!

The boys had only one practice session between football and basketball season, but See DISTAFF, Page 2

Odele Mantooth, 68, owner of Mantooth Chevron in McLean, received deep cuts on his throat, face, and hands in an apparent robbery attempt Thanksgiving day about 2:45 p.m.

Two men in their early twenties purchased gasoline from Mantooth, and paid with a twenty dollar bill. As he was returning their change, one of the men allegedly hit him in the back of the head with a can of gasoline treatment.

The two men, who were driving an old green sedan, apparently became frightened and left. No money was taken.

Police officials have not apprehended the men.

Mantooth has operated the station for 33 years, and has had one previous robbery attempt about five years ago. Mantooth said the station had been burglarized several times, but this was the first time he had been on duty when someone attempted a robbery.

Mantooth said that he had just opened the station, about 2:30 when the two men came in. Following the assault, he called the McLean hospital. Clifford McDonald, a member of the McLean Fire Department and Ambulance Service, was at the hospital, and answered the call immediately.

McDonald alerted law enforcement officials about the robbery.

At press time, Mantooth was still in the McLean Hospital in satisfactory condition.

Queens Win Classic At Plainview

The Wayland Flying Queens won their own Queens Classic in Plainview last weekend for the third straight year, overcoming upset-minded Valdosta State 81-70 in the finals.

The Wayland women started off the championship basketball game Saturday by allowing the fast-breaking Georgians to take a 12-0 lead. But the Queens' shooting eventually warmed up, and they ate away at the lead.

Sheri Haynes' basket shortly before halftime put WBC in front for the first time, 35-34. The half ended with Wayland up by 37-36.

Led by the shooting of 6-3 center Jill Rankin of Phillips and the quickness of Haynes, a McLean High School graduate, the Queens took control midway through the second half and coasted to the 11-point win.

Rankin ended the night with 39 points, while Haynes was second high with 15.

The former Tigrette hit seven of 10 from the field and one of three from the free throw line. Two consecutive driving layups in the second half by Haynes began the Queens' surge to an insurmountable lead over the Lady Blazers.

Coach Dean Weese did less substituting than usual against Valdosta, with starter Haynes playing most of the game.

Wayland opened the tournament with an 89-76 conquest of USC on Thanksgiving Day in which Rankin led with 25 points. Haynes totaled 10 points against the Trojans.

Rankin swished the net for 42 in the second game Friday against the Lady Lions of Southeastern Louisiana to break the Flying Queens' single-game scoring record. Haynes contributed eight points as Wayland prevailed 94-79.

Rankin was named the recipient of the Claude Hutcherson Memorial Award as the tourney's most valuable player.

Dallas South Oak Cliff, the defending Class AAAA state champion, edged Class A Hale Center 55-51 in the finals of the high school division. The Golden Bears from Big D had lost to Class B Nazareth in last year's finals.

Bridgett Phillips of SOC received the high school Hutcherson award, beating out Debra Rankin of Phillips, who poured in 51 points against Silverton.

The order of finish in the college division was: 1-Wayland, 2-Valdosta State, 3-Missouri, 4-Southeastern Louisiana, 5-Long Beach State, 6-USC, 7-Houston, 8-Texas Tech.

The high school girls finished in the following order: 1-Dallas SOC, 2-Hale Center, 3-Slaton, 4-Nazareth, 5-Canyon, 6-Waco Midway, 7-Phillips, 8-Silverton.

The Flying Queens, whose season record is 4-0, will host the University of Kansas Friday night and Kansas

Smitherman Attends Meet

Tony Smitherman, Chairman of the Gray County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service Committee, was among forty elected delegates representing 235 county ASCS offices who met with staff members and officials of the Texas State ASCS office. The Texas State ASCS office administers the State's Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP). Delegates and officials discussed changes in the 1979 program.

State and county ACP programs will be based on the national practices although additional practices may be developed at the local level to meet specific pollution or conservation problems. ACP assistance is not used to carry out measures and practices

Mustangs Win Bi-District Game

The Wheeler Mustangs took the second step toward repeating their Class B state football championship last Friday as they ran over, around, and through the Valley Patriots for a 43-6 bi-district victory at Memphis.

The District 1-B titlists extended their 1978 record to 10-0 and claimed their 29th consecutive win, the longest victory streak in Texas. Valley, the District 2-B champion, ended its season with a 9-1-1 ledger.

Wheeler rolled up 347 yards rushing against the Patriots, with Marvin Grimes accounting for 120.

Tigerettes Win Opener, Tigers Lose To Shamrock

McLean High School cagers began a busy schedule of basketball games with three games Nov. 21 in the local gym against Shamrock, and two games in Lakeview Monday night.

The varsity girls won easily over a slow-shooting Shamrock team for the only win for the local team.

Shamrock's girls played closely with the home team in the first quarter, ending that period of play with the score tied 6-6, but the Tigerettes pulled away in the second quarter, and went into the dressing room at half-time leading 20-10. Coach Vester Joiner substituted freely in the second half, and the local squad won 35-19. Tigrette Joy Rhine was high scorer with eight points.

The Tigers, with one practice under their belts following football season, fared worse against a tall Shamrock team, losing 54-31. The Tigers were cold on the basket in the first half, scoring only nine points, but came back in second half to score 22 points.

High point men for the Tigers were Tom Eck and Randy Suggs with eight points each. Chuck Pierce scored seven.

In the junior varsity girls' game against Shamrock, the Tigerettes scored only nine points, with freshman Tammy Killham scoring eight. The local girls lost

20-9. At Lakeview Monday night the McLean teams dropped both games. See TIGERS, Page 2

Two Trucks Involved In Wrecks

Heavy fog and slick roads contributed to two accidents in the McLean area last week.

Nov. 22 a truck-tractor semi-trailer, driven by Kenneth Lookabaugh of Athens overturned 11 miles east of Groom on the Clarendon cutoff. The cattle truck, which was traveling north on Texas 70, failed to negotiate a turn, and landed on its side. Nine head of cattle were killed. The remaining 52 head were taken to Moody Farms. Lookabaugh was slightly injured, and was admitted to Groom Hospital. The accident occurred around 4:30 a.m.

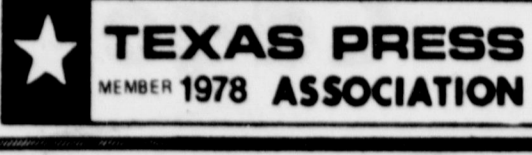

On Nov. 25 at 4:15 a.m. another truck-tractor semi-trailer was involved in an accident, this time 12 miles east of Groom, near a highway construction site. William S. Wolfe, of Bethany, Okla., was unable to control his vehicle on the wet road, jackknifing the truck. Wolfe was not injured in the accident. The truck sustained little damage.

Library Services Threatened

Members of the Texas Public Library System may have to reduce or eliminate some services if the recommendation of the Texas State Legislative Budget Board is approved by the Texas Legislature, according to Mrs. Martha Parker, librarian of Lovett Memorial Library in McLean. The Legislative Budget Board met on Oct. 20 and recommended no increase in state funding levels for library systems for next year; in fact, they recommended a decrease in state funding to compensate for an anticipated increase in federal funding. Persons concerned about keeping the system concept of cooperation among libraries a going and growing program need to contact Foster Whaley, state representative-elect; Bob Price, state senator; or Bill Hobby, lieutenant governor. Mrs. Parker, said that the proposed decrease in state funds could seriously affect the local library. "I hope all of our patrons will take the time to write to one of the state officials and urge them to ignore the recommendations of the legislative board," she said.

Cubs, Cubettes Begin 1978 Season

The McLean Junior High Cubs and Cubettes began their basketball season Monday night in McLean with three games against Shamrock. The home team won one game and lost two.

In girls' action, the junior high varsity beat Shamrock in a close game, 26-24. McLean was ahead by 10 points at half time, but the local eagles cooled off in the second half and Shamrock built up a five-point lead. With seven seconds left in the game, McLean was behind one point, when Shamrock fouled, Maria Eck sunk the first basket on a one and one try, but missed the second bucket, tying the game 24-24. Margaret Horn took the rebound and sunk a field goal with just seconds left in the game for the winning goal.

High point girl for Coach

Jack Dorsett's girls was Eva Anderson with 8 points on three for seven field goal attempts and two for two free throws.

Other scorers were Stacie Smith with six points; Margaret Horn with five points; Maria Eck with five points; and Teresa Woods with two points.

In boys' action, a tall, quick Shamrock team coached by John Bond quickly put Joe Riley's boys in the hole with an insurmountable first quarter lead. David Reid for McLean scored six out of 14 points. Shamrock ended the game with 39 points on the score board.

In junior varsity girls' action, the local team was badly outscored by Shamrock, 27-7. Jana Harris was high point for McLean with three points.

TIPS FOR WOOD FLOOR CARE
Wood floors need special care to retain their natural beauty. For patches of dirt that cannot be removed by dry mopping or rubber burns from friction between rubber footwear and the floor, rub the spot lightly with fine steel wool moistened with turpentine or paint thinner. Always work in the same direction as the wood grain when using steel wool.

For stained or very dirty wood floors, apply a heavy layer of liquid, solvent-based wax to a small area. Allow it to soak for five minutes, then rub the spot thoroughly with No. 00 steel wool. Then, wipe dry to remove all dirt. Repeat this process if necessary.

THANKSGIVING LEFTOVERS
Any type of cooked poultry can be frozen with good results. Cooked poultry and broth should be frozen as quickly as possible after cooking. Poultry takes up less freezer space if the bones are removed. It keeps best if it is removed from the bones and packed solidly to eliminate as much air as possible. When freezing leftover stuffed poultry, remove the stuffing. Package in freezer containers, seal, label and freeze immediately.

Storage of cooked poultry varies according to how it is packaged. Slices or pieces, covered with broth or gravy will keep up to 6 months. Slices or pieces, not covered with broth or gravy will keep 1 month. Cooked poultry dishes will keep up to 2-6 months.

FINDING FUEL

Within the next few years, we may find there's no fuel like an old fuel—especially when it's used in a new way.

The old fuel is coal of which we have a plentiful supply, and the new way to use it is to turn it into a liquid that can be treated like increasingly scarce petroleum.

OIL MADE FROM COAL may be the fuel of the future.

Experts have long predicted that someday the demand for liquid fuels for autos, planes, trains, ships and other uses will be greater than supplies of petroleum. Our nation will need new technological options to meet this, and coal liquefaction is one of them—it's been called an insurance policy to protect this nation's future.

coal liquefaction plant is being built to help develop the engineering techniques we need.

The plant will be capable of processing 250 tons of coal a day, turning every 23 pounds of that into a gallon of oil. If the pilot is successful, we may someday have commercial-sized plants that can liquefy 20,000 tons a day.

Deer, Turkey Seasons End Dec. 3

Forecasting the deer and turkey populations for the 1978 hunting season is like trying to forecast the weather -- it keeps changing each week.
 Comments from Texas Parks and Wildlife Department personnel stationed across Texas indicate deer and turkey populations are ranging from poor to good. The deer situation has improved in the Panhandle and South Plains regions over what it was earlier in the year, but the rains came too late in the year to help antler development. These late rains have helped to mature the browse conditions for deer and the herds should go into winter with ample food supplies.
 In the Texas Panhandle, the 16-day whitetail season is Nov. 18-Dec. 3 with a bag limit of one deer, buck or antlerless (antlerless by permit only).
 The mule deer season in the Panhandle is open for the same period from Nov. 18-Dec. 3 with a two mule deer, limit one buck or antlerless (antlerless by permit) bag restriction.
 In most of the remainder of the regulatory counties including the South Plains (Lubbock), the rolling plains (Wichita Falls) and the edge of the Edwards Plateau, the white-tailed deer season is Nov. 18-Jan. 1. The bag limit in most of these areas is three deer, no more than two bucks, antlerless by permit.
 The white-tailed deer season will be CLOSED in these northwest Texas counties: Andrews, Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Dallam, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Gaines, Hale, Hartley, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Oldham, Parmer, Terry, and Yoakum.
 The mule deer season will be CLOSED in these northwest Texas counties: Andrews, Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Collingsworth, Dawson, Castro, Lamb, Hale, Lubbock, Hockley, Terry, Lynn, Gaines, Martin, Hansford, Lipscomb, Wheeler, Parmer, Yoakum.
 Shooting hours for both deer and turkey are 30 minutes before sunrise to 30 minutes after sunset.
 The regulations governing white-tailed and mule deer were created to enable the P&WD to manage both species more closely by being able to modify seasons and bag limits. Studies have shown that the mule deer season should not be as long as white-tailed deer season. Mule deer at-

LOOSE MARBLES

BY LISA PATMAN

I must have misunderstood my instructions for the Thanksgiving holidays. I thought someone told me "Stuff yourself, Turkey". Unfortunately, I learned the correct instructions too late, and as a result my body measurements are now reaching alarming proportions. I have always rationalized my overeating at my folks' house by saying that Mom would be hurt if I didn't show great enthusiasm at her dinner table. This is not true. Mom would be delighted if I were slim and trim like the rest of the family.

For quite some time I have outweighed my entire family. I'm afraid if I took an actual count of all the aunts, uncles, cousins, and assorted relatives, I would find myself eligible for the Guinness Book of World Records, under "Woman Who Outweighs All The Rest Of Her Family." I can see it now... Lisa Patman is the only woman known to outweigh more than 475 family members. This tally includes several men over six feet tall, and many large elderly women who have let their figures go to rot. The far-sighted Mrs. Patman has purchased a large piano box in which to be buried, and in her will has left her entire wardrobe to Ripley's Believe It Or Not, to be used either as an exhibit or as the exhibition tent. Mrs. Patman's body is currently insured under a group policy.

Actually, I am operating under a severe handicap. Both my parents are the neatest people one could ever find. Even though they are now retired they still are extremely busy. I had hoped that my folks would become inactive, flabby, wrinkled, and messy after retirement, but they have continued, the traitors, to look about twenty years younger than they actually are.

I have seen them arrive for a visit, after a non-stop car trip of 400 hours, and step out of the car looking better than I do when I get fixed up. Wrinkles avoid their clothes like the plague, as does dirt.

They are in good shape—another mark against them in my book. They never gain weight, never smell bad, are rarely tired, and have never tripped over anything in their lives. Imagine their shame when they realized they were the parents of a large degenerate blob. I mean, I don't even have to get into a car for my clothes to wrinkle. They become a tangled mess when I put them on. I'm one of those people whose buttons pop off, straps break, and slips show. You can tell what I've had for lunch by looking at the stains on my blouse. I trip over gusts of wind.

Actually my parents are very tolerant of me. Dad hardly ever says "Hello, Lardo" anymore, and Mom has managed to control her shudder when she sees me. For my part, I have succeeded in hiding them from most of my acquaintances. I have done this not because I am ashamed of them, but because of a remark one of my friends made after meeting my folks.

My folks arrived for a visit, having completed their morning chores -- taking a load of trash to the dump, fertilizing the yard, saving the life of a hit-and-run victim, slicing onions for a church dinner. They were, as always, neat, clean, and smelled of roses. They visited with us, being charming, polite, and interesting. As they were driving off, my friend turned to me and, with wonder in her voice, said, "When, exactly, were you adopted?"

How can a person fight odds like that?

VA GRANTS FOR HOUSING INCREASED

An increase from $17,500 to $25,000 as the maximum guaranty for Veterans Administration home loans is one of several important features of the "Veterans Housing Benefit Act of 1978," according to Jack Coker, Director of the Waco VA Regional Office. The legislation, which was signed on October 18, by President Carter, also permits certain severely disabled veterans to obtain a VA grant of up to $30,000 to buy or adapt a residence to meet their special needs, Coker said. VA grants for these so-called "wheelchair homes" were formerly limited to $25,000. Coker pointed out that the new bill should be of special benefit to an estimated 188,000 Vietnam Era veterans because it reduces the length of active duty service required for eligibility for VA home, condominium or mobile home loan guaranty benefits.

Shamrock Hospital Accepting Applications For School

The Shamrock General Hospital has announced that applications to the Licensed Vocational Nursing School will be accepted through December 22, 1978. Applicants will be considered for the next class which begins on February 19, 1979. Prospective students are requested to contact Mrs. Paula Parker, R.N., at Shamrock General Hospital, Shamrock, Texas 806-266-2114.

Students that are accepted into the LVN program may apply for student grants and student loans through the Clarendon College Financial Aid Office. All persons interested in a rewarding, professional career of helping others are urged to contact Mrs. Parker before December 22nd.

"Truly absurd is the man who never changes." Auguste Barthelmy

The Licensed Vocational Nursing Program at the Shamrock General Hospital will soon have a change in the college sponsorship of the school. Frank Phillips College has been in charge of the administration and supervision of the school in recent years, however due to other commitments has requested that Clarendon College assume the job of sponsoring the post-secondary institution. Officials from Clarendon College, Frank Phillips College, and the Shamrock General Hospital Board met recently to make preparation for the transition.

Dr. Rob Riley, Dean of Instruction at Clarendon College stated, "Clarendon College is looking forward to assuming the administration and supervision of the LVN school at the Shamrock General Hospital. We do not anticipate any problems with this transition and we want to assure the residents of Shamrock and the surrounding area that we intend for the school to continue in its present organizational structure and to graduate the best possible Licensed Vocational Nurses to help meet the health needs in the area. The State Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners and the Texas Education Agency has been notified of the change of sponsorship which becomes effective February 17, 1979. Mrs. Paula Parker, R.N., will continue to be the LVN instructor at Shamrock General Hospital.
