SATANISM AND RITUAL ABUSE

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third part in a series of articles on Satanism. With the rumors of Satanic Worship in Motley County and the surrounding counties, we have had many people requesting more information on this subject. We feel this is a very important issue at this time and hope these articles will enlighten the public to the reality of Satanic worship. Information in these articles are from Mike Warnke's books and articles. Mike Warnke is a former Satanic Priest and now has a Ministry for the Lord. Because of the graphic explanations, some of this information has been edited.

Modern Satanism takes on many forms. Some Satanists belong to an organized group, such as The Church of Satanic Brotherhood or LaVey's Church of Satan. These are among the more well-known, but there are many other groups that maintain various levels of secrecy. Other Satanists might be called "self-styled"; many teenagers who get involved fall into this category. A self-styled Satanist is one who more or less makes up his own version of Satanism, usually drawing inspiration from such varied sources as THE SATANIC BIBLE, other witchcraft or occult books, movies, song lyrics, or original ideas. Their activities, particularly the rituals they perform, may have several factors in common with the more organized Satanists, although their beliefs may vary significantly.
Satanism has been receiving an increased amount of media attention all over the United States as an apparent motive for criminal activity, ranging from vandalism and animal mutilation to kidnapping, child abuse, and murder. The cases in the news are isolated, but there are indications that these are only the proverbial tip of the iceberg. Victims of occult child abuse tend to tell the same kinds of stories; of being forced to drink blood and eat flesh, of being molested by adults, and sometimes masked or robed, as part of a kind of ceremony. Present at the scene or in the children's descriptions are common satanic symbols such as the inverted pentagram, the upside-down cross, and the like. Many of these child abuse cases are not provable, due to factors such as the age of the child, their inability to understand what has taken place, and often the reluctance of adults, both parents and investigators, to consider the possibility of such a horrendous thing.
Probably the vast majority of Satanists neither condone or participate in such acts of violence; in THE SATANIC BIBLE, LaVey insists that a "true" Satanist would not do such a thing. However, for some, their version of Satanism provides a motive. There are several reasons why that presumably small percentage of Satanists engage in child abuse or murder. These are as follows:
1. Many who practice magic believe that the power to work it comes from an emotional release. Acts like these provide that in abundance.
2. A Satanist might be trying to destroy the "innocence" of a child.
3. A Satanist might be attempting to pervert or warp the child's moral awareness.
Also, the same things that might be a victim of occult-related child abuse are basically the same as in any other abuse situation, with some additions. In some cases, the abusers have dressed up as policemen, clowns, Mr. Rogers, or even Ronald McDonald. This greatly confused the children and terrified them even more than usual, since these represented the basic authority figures that their parents had taught them to rely on. This extra dimension of fear and distrust may be sign of "ritual abuse". Children who have been to rituals may re-enact them in play times and even say things like "long live Satan" or "I hate God". These signs and others like them may mean nothing except that the children may have watched a horror movie or television; but it may be their attempt to work out and understand what has happened to them. In either case, symptoms like these should be taken seriously.

Signs of Satanic Worship Seen in Spur

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article was taken from the LUBBOCK AVALANCHE JOURNAL, September 21, 1989.
SPUR - Crude satanic messages on the walls of an abandoned building in Spur prompted school superintendent Curt Parsons to warn parents attending a

Monday night parent-teacher meeting that local people were "dabbling in satanic worship."
Parsons said Wednesdays and Fridays are recognized as satanic holidays and that something might happen on these two days.
However, Spur Police Chief Woody Woodward said that no incidents had been reported by late Wednesday.

"The way it looks is we've got about a half-dozen 16 to 20-year olds playing around with it," he said. "It's not anything new. We've apparently got more people taking it more seriously now."
Parsons said that because of concern about kidnappings, "We had teachers re-educate student on how kids should deal with strangers."

Motley County Matadors Sting The Hornets

by Memori Assiter
The Motley County Matadors zoomed by the Aspermont Hornets last Friday night to win the game 42-20. The Matadors rushed and passed a total of 402 yards, while the Hornets only had 284 total yards.
Walter Linson began the scoring by running 39 yards into the end zone and Clay Ewing added an extra point with his successful kick.
Linson still couldn't be stopped in the 2nd quarter and scored the only two touchdowns in that quarter. One of Ewing's extra point attempts was successful.
Going into half time, the score was 20-7. The Hornets scored the only touchdowns in the 3rd quarter, but the Matadors were not backing down.
The fourth quarter was full of excitement as Chris Campbell ran 29 yards for a touchdown and David Alexander ran the ball in for a two point conversion. Ewing racked up more points for the Matadors by sprinting 10 yards into the end-zone and adding a successful extra point kick. The last touchdown for the Matadors was a 32 yard pass thrown by Alexander to Campbell.

Ewing made the PAT to bring the game to a close.
Coach Moore stated, "Although the defense gave up three touchdowns, most of the game, they showed continued improvement. Jarret Jameson and Cary Franks at defensive ends, Walter Linson and Matt Washington at lineback, and Jimmy Cummings in the defensive secondary, all contributed stand-out defensive plays during the game."
The Matadors will play the Claude Mustangs, there, this Friday at 8:00 p.m. Everyone is invited to come and support the Matadors.

Lions Hear Drug Awareness Program

Frank Price was named Lion of the Year during the Annual Ladies Night Out, Teacher Appreciation Banquet. Wives of the Lions and Motley County School faculty and spouses were served a delicious meal prepared by Syd Pipkin and her Home Economics classes.
Boss Lion, Billy Donaldson welcomed the Lions and guests before Superintendent Ron Cummings introduced the School Board members and employees of the Rolling Plains Special Education Department. Principal Don Ewing introduced faculty members, aides and secretaries and their spouses, K-12.
Boss Lion introduced Paige Williams, Lions Queen, 1989-90.
A very entertaining musical program preceded the special guest speaker, R. David Frieriks. The music program was introduced as Billy Denison and Kathy Shorter (Jack and Glass) sang 'Just You And I' by Crystal Gale and Eddie Rabbit. Carol Ewing and Kathy Shorter (The Duds) sang 'Rocking With The Rhythm of the Rain' and 'Grandpa', by the Judds. Gerald Pipkin (Joe Fingers Carr) performed Ragtime and Boogie-Woogie on the piano. Billy Donaldson, as 'Elvis' crooned, 'Love Me Tender'. Kathy did Patsy Cline's 'Crazy' followed by 'The Gang', (Donaldson and Jesse Turner, guitars and Pipkin, piano, accompanied Denison, Ewing and Shorter) doing, 'I Can't Help It If I'm Still In Love With You'.

Dave Frieriks, a U.S. Secret Service Agent and District 2-T2 Lions Drug Awareness Program Chairman, spoke on the drug problem now being 'small town USA's' problem, too. It is not just 'city stuff' anymore.
Frieriks stated, "the drug awareness is to teach that the drug problem is not just teenagers, it is alcohol abuse and prescription drug abuse by adults, as well as illegal drug use. It happens to everyone, the good, the bad and the ugly. One of the saddest problems are babies born as drug addicts." "It only takes 4 seconds to become a crack or cocaine addict and this is currently the fastest spreading problem."
The way to stop the drug problem is to stop the demand by educating the younger generation. Frieriks also stated, "Hollywood used to be the biggest informants on the 'fun' of drugs and now they are trying to teach the dangers of drugs."
October 27 is Drug Free Day. Frieriks says "we want to encourage everyone to buy a Red Ribbon and tie it on your arm, your car, mailbox or anywhere else it will be seen."
"Let's all help to have a Drug Free West Texas", were his closing words.
The music group closed the Banquet by singing, "Goodnight Sweetheart."

Bill Sarpalius' Aid Visits Matador

The mobile office of Bill Sarpalius was in Matador Tuesday, September 19 with Aaron Alejandro, District Coordinator of Wichita Falls, in the courthouse to greet people and answer any questions during the casual meeting.
Alejandro mentioned several issues important to Sarpalius in this session of the legislature which will come to a close soon.

One statement made was, "what is happening to America, you can burn the American flag but not your own trash?" Alejandro is especially interested in the agriculture programs and problems and stated they were already re-working the last farm bill that had a lot of 'bugs' in it.
When session is over, Sarpalius will be coming around to visit in the District more often.

Senior Citizens Report

by Iris Blevins

The bus made all of its regular runs last week and we are happy it will stay together for awhile. We are so thankful for the bus. So many of us are not up to driving in large towns of heavy traffic, and we do a lot of visiting, going and coming which makes a very pleasant day.

The bus had 9 people riding last Thursday and they all reported a good day. Norabell met her 9:00 doctor's appointment as scheduled.

Norabell opened the doors to our building at 2:00 p.m. Friday for our game and fellowship evening. Nine of us attended. We had a table of 84 and a table of 42 and a lot of goodies to nibble on while visiting.

Mrs. Ruth Baker has made a trip to California to attend the funeral of a brother. Ruth, we are all very sorry. We are happy that you had a good flight and we welcome you home.

We will have our regular fourth Tuesday luncheon this week and we are looking for a good crowd. So why don't you join us for a good lunch and an evening of fun and fellowship, also a game of 84, 42 and dominoes. We are very glad to report that Lucille and J.W. Pritchett are home from a stay in the Methodist Hospital and they both are doing better. They can have company, so drop by for a little visit.

COOL FALL WEATHER MEANS TIME TO START A WALKING PROGRAM

A chill is in the air, and it's time for Americans to get outside and enjoy the fall weather. Soon the colors of autumn will decorate the streets as the trees begin to shed their leaves. There couldn't be a better time to start a walking program.

Walking has become an increasingly popular way to exercise - and for good reason. It can help you improve the efficiency of your heart and lungs, relieve stress, promote weight loss and enhance muscle tone, according to Cyndi Gauld, director of The Centre for Cardiac Rehabilitation and fitness at Methodist Hospital, here are some tips for starting a good walking program:

DEFINE YOUR GOALS: Getting started is the hardest part of any exercise program. Start with a firm commitment. Then set realistic goals and stick with them.

BUY GOOD SHOES: Good shoes are essential to walking. Major shoe companies now offer shoes specifically designed for walking. A good shoe will have substantial arch support, a wide "toe box", a firm heel, a well-cushioned heel and midsole and a durable outersole with good traction.

DRESS RIGHT: Let the weather dictate your attire. On a warm day, wear light-weight, loose-fitting clothing made of fabrics that breathe. When it's cool and windy, a windbreaker can protect you against excessive loss of body heat. In cold weather, wear layers of clothing. This provides added insulation, and you can shed layers if you get too warm. Protect your head, ears and hands. Socks should be thick and absorbent to keep your feet dry and prevent blisters. If you walk at night along a road, walk facing traffic and wear light-colored clothing trimmed with reflective fabric or tape.

STRETCH BEFORE AND AFTER: A safe, effective workout consists of five basic steps: warm-up, flexibility exercises, main activity, cool-down and post-exercise flexibility stretches. Stretch for at least five minutes prior to your workout. After each workout, cool down by walking slowly. Then complete your workout with five more minutes of stretching.

START SLOWLY: Begin by walking 15 to 20 minutes at a comfortable pace. Gradually increase your time and pace. You should be able to carry on a normal conversation while walking. Remember that the frequency of walking is more important than the pace.

OTHER TIPS: Drink plenty of water, exercise at the same time each day so that it becomes a habit and check with your doctor regularly to ensure maximum benefit from your walking program.

If you experience such symptoms as chest discomfort, extreme shortness of breath or weakness, you should discontinue walking and consult your doctor.

Self-Esteem Built In School Years

Young people spend about half of their time with classroom friends before they leave home. Much of their self-esteem is built during those years, according to a counselor with the Edcouch-Elsa school system in the Rio Grande Valley.

Ruden Rendon talked with students of the Edcouch-Elsa Middle School at a recent day-long retreat about peer pressure and how to react "when someone calls you chicken."

The retreat, conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, was held at Delta Lake near Monte Alto.

Motivational speakers filled the morning's agenda, and concurrent sessions, such as Rendon's, were held that afternoon.

Rendon told the group that many problems with school and at home begin as a result of peer pressure. Often when a young person fails to follow the crowd, the rest call him or her "chicken."

He suggested several things to remember if young people find themselves folding under peer pressure. They were:

- * Everyone doesn't have to love you. Your decisions don't have to be based on the approval of peers.
- * It's all right to make mistakes. Learn from your mistakes.
- * You can change.
- * You can be flexible.
- * Other people are capable. Don't keep your problems to yourself.

- * You can cope when things go wrong.
- * You are capable.
- * Other people are o.k. and you are o.k.

Another speaker on the afternoon program was Yvonne Ybarra, a 4-H member from Hidalgo County. Ybarra talked with the young people about how to communicate with their parents.

Communication is not only words but also movements and actions, Ybarra said.

When faced with a communications barrier, young people should try and talk with their parents, not just storm out of the room, she said. Additionally, they should try to understand what their parents are talking about.

She encouraged the group to say what they feel and think when talking with parents. If parents ask a question, it should be answered quickly and honestly, she said.

"They're only trying to help you. They really love you," Ybarra said.

"Any problem you have, they can help you."

If young people feel they can't talk to their parents, they should find another trusted adult to help solve problems, she said.

Most of all, young people should keep open the lines of communication with their parents and friends.

"Talk to your parents, they're your friends," Ybarra said.

Educators Workshop Planned At WTU In Canyon

"Beyond the Blackboard: Joining Community and Classroom" will be presented by the Northwest Texas Smithsonian Workshop Consortium on Saturday, September 30, 1989 on the campus of West Texas State University in Canyon.

All public and private school teachers and administrators are invited to participate in method classes that will provide the techniques necessary to encourage learning outside the classroom.

Region XVI will provide 6 hours of A.A.T. (Advanced Academic Training) Credit for teachers in both Region XVI and XVII. C.E.E. (Continuing Education Units) Credit will be available for an additional $3.50 fee as well as IPG (Individual Professional Growth) Credit.

Door prizes will be given away at lunch as well as a drawing at the close of the event.

This one day event will be divided into two main components: a Resource Fair and a series of Teacher Workshops. At the Resource Fair, participating institutions will have space to publicize their programs through exhibits, brochures and demonstrations. The Resource Fair is free and open to the public. The Teacher Workshops will be taught by local education coordinators, museum curators, and educators from the Smithsonian Institution. These workshops are designed to provide teachers with practical hands-on ideas for their classrooms.

Myrna Hillyard, Principal of White-river School and Arizona's National Distinguished Principal of 1984, will present the keynote address "Schools and the Community: Partners in Educational Enrichment".

This event is sponsored by the Smithsonian Institution, Region XVI and XVII Education Service Centers, and over 50 cultural organizations from across the 46 counties of the Texas Panhandle and South Plains.

Gazebo is Site of Autumn Brunch to begin Season for Garden Club

Matador Garden Club began the 1989-90 season September 18 with an autumn brunch at the gazebo on the courthouse lawn and an enthusiastic group of eleven members. After a sumptuous repast, the club was called to order by Mrs. W.N. Pipkin, president, for a business session.

After minutes of the last meeting were read, and committee reports given, Mrs. Edgar Lee, Yearbook Chairman presented yearbooks for the new year and discussed programs and projects. This year's subject will be Bird Habitats.

Emphasis was placed on the club's annual project of placing Christmas decorations in downtown areas and participating in the community activities. Putting poinsettias in the planter boxes, a large wreath on the windmill at Pioneer Memorial Park and strings of lights on the evergreen at the American Legion Building have been ongoing activities for the past eight years.

In presenting the President's Plans and Goals, Mrs. Pipkin introduced and discussed several money-making projects for the club's consideration.

Also announced by Mrs. Lee was that the club received three district awards last year: First for the scrap book; first for the "Living Legacy Tree Planting" competition and third for Yearbook. The tree planting project was the red oak which was planted in commemoration of the Bicentennial planting program to symbolize the living document of the Constitution of the United States. Merchants and individuals contributed in the purchase of the tree, which is now growing on the southwest corner of Stewart and Main streets. The "Trees Across America" project of the National Council of State Garden Clubs will continue through 1991.

Members present for the opening meeting in addition to Mrs. Pipkin and Mrs. Lee were Mesdames J.D. Craven, Ted Elliott, E.D. Lawrence, W.D. Lipscomb, W.B. Wason, Alvin Stearns, Douglas Meador and Robert Darsey; and Rachel Patton.

Wheat Germ Gives Snacks A Nutrition Boost

As we grow older, our calorie needs decrease but the need for most nutrients remains the same. When selected wisely, snacks fill nutritional gaps and keep energy levels high throughout the day.

The next time you reach for a snack, add a "nutrition boost" with Kretschmer wheat germ. Stirred into lowfat yogurt, sprinkled over a scoop of your favorite frozen dessert, or tossed with freshly popped popcorn, wheat germ instantly adds a healthy helping of protein, dietary fiber and nine essential vitamins and minerals including B vitamins, vitamin E, potassium, iron and zinc. Crunchy, nutty wheat germ is convenient to keep on hand, too. Covered tightly, it can be stored in the refrigerator for about six months. And versatile wheat germ can be used straight from the jar as a topping and as an ingredient in cooking and baking.

Popcorn and Fruit Nibbler is a make-ahead snack mix which will appeal to snackers of all ages. Original or Honey Crunch wheat germ, air-popped popcorn and sesame seeds give this not-too-sweet snack its crackle and crunch.

Popcorn and Fruit Nibbler

- 1-1/2 qt. air-popped popcorn
- 1 cup Kretschmer Original or Honey Crunch Wheat Germ
- 1/4 cup sesame seeds
- 1/4 cup light corn syrup
- 1/4 cup honey
- 3 tablespoons vegetable oil
- One 6 oz. pkg. diced dried mixed fruit (1-1/3 cups)

Heat oven to 300°F. Line 15x 10-inch baking pan with aluminum foil. Combine all ingredients except dried fruit, mixing lightly, until popcorn is evenly coated. Spread evenly in prepared pan. Bake 35 to 40 minutes, stirring every 10 minutes, or until dark golden brown. Stir in dried fruit; cool completely on wire rack. Break into pieces. Store tightly covered in refrigerator.

TAX PAYMENTS

AUSTIN - State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Monday that sales tax allocation payments to 888 cities statewide totaled $72.5 million this month, an increase of 6.8 percent over payments sent during September 1988.

"This has been a banner year for a lot of local governments that count on sales tax rebates for revenue," Bullock said.

Bullock said that year-to-date allocations to cities have also continued to grow and are 9.4 percent higher than last year's payments through September.

Cities can have a local tax rate of either one or one and one-half percent, Bullock said.

Houston received a check for $12.2 million of 11.7 percent more than last year. Dallas received the second-largest payment, with an allocation of $8.1 million, according to Bullock.

The state's six metropolitan transit authorities and one city transit department received $36 million, an increase of 18 percent. Year-to-date payments are up 14.8 percent over last year's payments through September, Bullock said.

Houston's MTA received a payment of $13.4 million, an increase of 15.5 percent and Dallas' DART was allocated $12.7 million, or 9.4 percent more than last year's check.

In addition, 92 counties received payments of $7 million this month, compared to $6.3 million last year.

September's checks represent taxes collected by monthly filers in July and reported to the comptroller's office by August 21, Bullock said.

Totals for Motley County are as follows:

Matador: net payment this period, $1,449.35; comparable payment prior year, $1,073.25; % change, 35.04%; 1989 payments to date, $16,889.20; 1988 payments to date, $17,978.20; % change, -6.06%.

Social Security Tips For Motley County

Self-employed farmers have been earning social security credits since 1955. Under the law, a farm operator is a person who farms for profit, whether an owner-operator, partner, renter, or share farmer.

Although all members of a farm family may contribute to the operation of the farm, the person principally responsible for the farm operation is considered to be self-employed, and all income realized from the operation of the farm is credited to that person. In some cases, however, where members of a family operate the farm as a partnership, all can earn social security credits based on the farm income. The actual arrangement for social security purposes is determined by the facts in each case.

Farmers with net earnings of at least $400 a year receive social security credit for all net earnings up to $48,000 for 1989; this is the maximum amount of which social security taxes are paid. The tax rate for self-employed persons for 1989 is 15.02 percent; a percent credit makes the effective tax rate 13.02 percent. If a farmer earns wages from a job in addition to self-employment income, the wages are considered first in determining payment of social security taxes. For example, if he or she has wages of $48,000 or more, there would be no tax payable on earnings from self-employment. However, if the total wages are less than the maximum, the farmer is liable for the self-employment social security tax on the difference between the total wages and net earnings, up to the social security maximum.

Farmers with net earnings of $400 or more during a year must submit Form 1040 (U.S. Individual Income Tax Return), Schedule F (Farm Income and Expenses), and Schedule SE (Computation of Social Security Self-Employment Tax) to the Internal Revenue Service.

Additional information about social security and farm work can be obtained from any social security office. Information concerning taxes is available at any Internal Revenue Service Office.
