Artist Kenneth Wyatt to show work at First State Bank in Matador

Artist, Kenneth Wyatt

Artist, Kenneth Wyatt, of Tulia will be at the First State Bank in Matador on Monday, March 26, 9:00 a.m. - 10:00 a.m. His art work will be on display all day, 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. Mr. Wyatt was born in Wichita Falls and pastored his first church at the age of 14. He is an ordained Methodist minister and is presently an Artist, Speaker and Author. He has had many accomplishments in his life, including being the first president of the Texas Cowboy Artist Association. He is the owner of the Y-8 Bronze Foundry and the Y-8 Publishing Company in Tulia. He is primarily a Western Artist working in Oil, Watercolor, Pencil, Pastel, Charcoal and Sculpture. He produces his work for the public in original form, prints, Christmas cards, greeting cards, note cards, limited edition prints, limited edition, bronze sculpture and through his books as an author and poet. He is currently painting the Twelve Apostles for the Methodist Church in Tulia.

The following story about Mr. Wyatt was taken from an article printed in the Amarillo Sunday News-Globe.

Amid kachina dolls, cowhide, rough-beam rafters, western landscape paintings and an antique piano, portraits of Jesus and The Apostles occupy one wall of artist Kenneth Wyatt's sprawling, ranch-style home. Wyatt's interest in the Bible stems from decades of being a disciple of the Lord, himself, as a Methodist minister. Already a well-known artist, the Tulia painter and sculptor gained national recognition when he was commissioned to paint "Offer Them Christ" to commend 200 years of Methodism in the United States.

Wyatt's artistic interest in The Apostles sprang from humble beginnings.

"About three years ago my wife, Fedra, asked me to do a drawing of Peter for a retreat study," the artist said. "Since she asked me six months in advance, I said sure.....I promise anything if it's six months away," Wyatt added, smiling.

"The night before she was to leave for the seminar, I still hadn't done the drawing and I saw her going through old magazines cutting out pictures of Peter, needless to say, I stayed up all night to draw Peter and it was a hit at the seminar. It certainly wasn't a masterpiece and it's not part of the current collection, but it was done with feeling."

Wyatt spotted the Apostle Thomas in a cafe.

"He was a trucker from Hart and his wife convinced him to sit for me one afternoon as a model," Wyatt said.

After he painted Thomas, the artist loaned the work to St. Thomas Catholic Hospital in Nashville, Tenn. There, officials from the Foundation for Evangelism saw the portrait and the project to complete the series was born.

The 14-painting collection is the 12 Apostles, Jesus and Paul.

"I was originally going to leave Judas out, but my daughter said to me 'don't try to improve on Jesus's list,'" noted Wyatt, who painted Judas going into the dark and the only Apostle portrayed without hands.

IT'S YOUR TURN TO GET RICH!

DON'T LET THIS OPPORTUNITY PASS YOU BY.

Can you picture yourself making at least $5000 dollars a week, every week? If you can, I urge you to read this article, it could be worth thousands of dollars to you!

My name is Mark Preston. I am 32 years old and a self made millionaire. A few years ago I discovered a money making method that changed my life forever. This is not just another "get rich quick scheme." This is a unique new system that is in demand everywhere, yet few people even know it exists.

Anyone can do it. Trust me. If you want to make money, this system is for you. When I first started this money making program, I was flat broke and at least $10,000 dollars in debt. My family thought I was crazy and said I should be out looking for a "real job." That did not stop me. I was determined to make it with this fantastic money making plan I had discovered.

I started at home on the kitchen table with no capital. Within a year I was taking in over $20,000 A WEEK... MORE THAN A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR. You heard me right, OVER A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR! I went from driving an old beat up Pick-Up to a Brand New Lincoln Continental. I paid for it in cash. I bought a new home in a prestigious neighborhood, a waterfront summer cottage, and a Townhouse in Florida. I do not mean to brag, but these are my results using this amazing money making system. Do not envy me, join me!

THE SECRET REVEALED

I knew then I had discovered a revolutionary new money making program that would continue to make me thousands of dollars a day. It seemed so easy. I asked myself why everybody wasn't rich? Then it dawned on me that not everyone knew about this secret method of making money. You do not need special training or even a college education for this money making system to work for you.

Once you have learned how to use it, your money worries will be over for life. You will have financial security and peace of mind. This money making system is perfectly legal and amazingly simple. It has nothing to do with real estate, the stock market, or gambling of any kind.

It does not matter what your financial situation is now. You can start this money making program at home in your spare time with less than $15.00. In a few short weeks you will see the cash start to roll in. Once you put this money making system to work for you, the sky's the limit! You will have cash to spend on whatever you want, whenever you want it. Think of it! Enough cash to finally put an end to economic nightmares forever!

HERE'S PROOF

I am sure you are somewhat skeptical at this point. That just shows you have good business sense. Read what a few people had to say about my money making program.

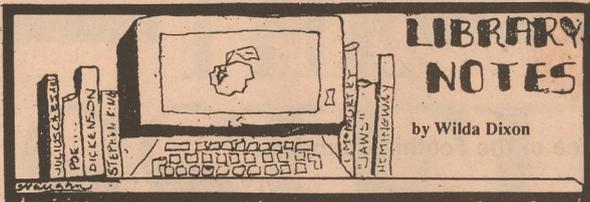

Dear Mark,
 I ordered your program 3 months ago and started using it the day I got it. To say the least I was shocked at the results. Last month I deposited over $11,000 in my bank account. Thank you so much.
 N.C., Stuart, Florida

Dear Mark,
 When I first saw your article I had my doubts. I said to myself I might as well try it, at least I'll be $25.00 ahead with your guarantee. Well, your material changed my life from being flat broke in July to practically a millionaire in December! If I can do it, anyone can.
 J.S., San Diego, CA

Dear Mark,
 Before I ordered your money making method, I was slaving away cutting lawns for $4.00 an hour. At 19 years old my future looked bleak. Last week I made over $14,000 in less than 20 hours of work. I am the envy of all my friends. Thanks for a new life!
 J.B., Loudonville, NY

ITS UP TO YOU

Your life can change now by taking simple action. Order my money making program today and see for yourself. All you have to do is follow the step-by-step procedures I provide you with. It will only take you about an hours reading time to master the program. If you can see yourself being rich, you will be rich! I make it easy for you. Included in my

PEDICULOSIS (Louse infestation)

Lice have been the subject of many jokes, and often an object of fear. We hope with this column to eliminate the fear and misconceptions.

It is a contagious infection of the skin or hair by one or both of the two species of lice capable of infesting humans.

The louse may be discovered in seams of clothing, but not on the body. Or it may be found crawling among body hairs. In the scalp hair the gelatinous nits of the body louse adhere tightly to the hair shaft. Blue-black spots (excreta) may be seen. The presence of public lice may signal other sexually transmitted diseases, so early detection and treatment is extremely vital.

Both species are spread either by close personal contact, shared clothing, bed-clothes, etc. This is why infestations can become epidemic in schools, day care centers, and families. Lice do not jump from one person to another. ANYONE CAN GET THEM. They are not limited to lower socio-economic areas or to people who are not clean.

Treatment involves proper hygiene and the use of prescription shampoo, cream or lotion. Contaminated clothing, bed-linens, towels, hats, and other personal articles should be dry-cleaned, washed in hot water or dried at very high heat to destroy nits and lice. Larger (unwashable) items such as mattresses may be sprayed with OTC R&C Spray, Rid, or A-200.

Complications may be secondary infection with impetigo, boils, lymphadenitis, or a combination of these.

Attracting Birds is Subject of Matador Garden Club Program

February meeting of Matador Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Darsey on Monday, the 26th. Continuing the year's theme of Bird Habitats, a conservation program on "Attracting Birds" was given by Mrs. W.D. Lipscomb, with Mrs. E.D. Lawrence as leader.

Mrs. W.N. Pipkin, president, called the meeting to order and conducted club business after minutes of the January meeting were read by Mrs. Douglas Meador, secretary.

A favorite Abraham Lincoln quotation was given in answer to roll call.

As an introduction to the program,

Mrs. Lawrence presented a review of barn owls from the book, Birds of America, which revealed many interesting facts concerning their habits, other names, and characteristics.

According to the source, the barn owl is known as Monkey Owl, Monkey-faced Owl, Golden Owl and American Barn Owl, and is found in the greater part of the United States (whole of lower California), and Mexico. The eyes of the owls are directed forward so that both look in the same direction, and to look to the side they are obliged to turn the head. "Another little-known fact about barn owls is that they are always hungry. They will eat their own weight in food every night, and more if they can get it. They catch mice, gophers and other ground creatures and for this reason they are considered useful about any farming community," Mrs. Lawrence said. She brought some pictures of white monkey-faced owls which have nested in a barn on their farm east of town. She has offered the club a visit to the location to see the owls, if they are sighted this spring.

For the program subject, "Seed and Plants to Attract Birds," Mrs. Lipscomb read from a paper, "Three Little Words - Food, Water and Shelter to Attract Birds." This described the many kinds of feeders on the market, or which can be made. Some birds are seed eaters, some insect eaters, and some prefer berries and fruit. However, most insect and fruit eaters will also eat seeds, according to the paper, which also gave the types of seeds, with the admonition "To avoid wild bird seed germinating, bake seed at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes before putting in feeder, to avoid unwanted weeds to pull in the spring."

Since water is extremely important to birds in winter - to drink as well as bathe, and trees and shrubs create a natural refuge for birds, it is suggested that water be placed near these shelters.

The leader read a report from the Lone Star Gardener, and the yearbook thought: "Life is a trial, mile by mile; Life is hard, yard by yard, but it's a cinch, inch by inch," to conclude the program.

Mrs. Darsey served refreshments in two courses, starting with dips and chips and followed by coconut cake, coffee and hot spiced tea, with side dishes of peanut butter candy, nuts and mints, and gave a door prize, which was won by Mrs. Lipscomb.

Present were Mrs. Edgar Lee, Mrs. J.D. Craven and Mrs. Ted Elliott in addition to Mesdames Pipkin, Lipscomb, Lawrence and Meador.

The appointment of election judge is delayed until after filing deadline March 21.

Jamie Johnson of Ober J. Engineering Co., reported proceedings for construction of the water storage standpipe had been issued.

Warren Chisum, State Representative of District 84, addressed the Council on the proposal from the Legislature to the EPA to hold meetings in rural areas and modify their Title D Regulations concerning landfills. Chisum stated he feels confident this will be modified.

Council went into closed session at this time.

State Rep. Warren Chisum speaks to Roaring Springs club

State Representative, Warren Chisum and Predicta Study Club President, Lee Peacock.

The Predicta Study Club of Roaring Springs hosted a banquet Thursday, March 15 at the Kountry Kitchen Cafe.

Lee Peacock, President, welcomed the members and their spouses and guests after the invocation by Rev. Rory Burge, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Roaring Springs.

LaVoe Thacker introduced their speaker, Warren Chisum, State Representative for District 84. He informed the group of the issue they are working on now in this legislative session, the school funding issue.

Chisum stated this had been a hard issue, but important to each citizen of Texas.

Chisum said they had to plan very carefully what to tax and how to consolidate county taxes. Motley County is already a consolidated school and tax county. The legislature has to come up with funding and settle this issue by May 1, 1990.

Chisum stated he had been very strong on keeping vocational programs and discipline in the school systems.

The State Representative explained new terms and their meanings, and one of the programs to cancel is the unpopular career ladder.

He stated that he would almost guarantee new money would be put into the school funding. Chisum answered a question on money raised by horse racing or lottery. He stated that 25 million dollars had already been spent for horse racing in Texas and not one penny made from a race. He does not believe gambling is the answer for Texas. He feels taxes on cigarettes, alcohol and gas are the best sources of revenue.

To Nancy.....From Mother
 March 26, 1990

by H. Soltwich

Riding motor-scooters, horses or bicycles;
 Playing cowboys and Indians or climbing trees,
 Playing with your little boy cousins;
 Coming in with skinned-up knees.

Giggling into the wee hours of the morning
 With a houseful of little girl friends
 Makes me wonder where the time went
 And praying it won't soon end.

You filled a void in my life
 With such love and activity,
 And I say daily, "Thank you, God
 For this daughter, this miracle You gave to me!"

Many things have been written about daughters
 For whom Mothers are rightly proud,
 But for me there is always one
 That stands out in a crowd-----

And that is because you are mine!
 Happy Birthday, God bless you.

I love you very much, Mother.

For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

Musical Drama "Quilters" to be presented in Childress

"Quilters", a musical drama chronicling the lives of pioneer American women, will be performed in Childress on April 21st. The two-act play will be presented by the touring company of the Amarillo Little Theatre.

The "Quilters" story centers on 83-year old Sarah McKendree Bonham's efforts to complete one more quilt before she dies. This special quilt is a legacy to be passed on to her daughters and the patchwork of quilt blocks tells the story of hardships and joys encountered during Sarah's eight decades. It is a joyous and moving celebration of American womanhood told through the eyes and memories of Sarah and her six daughters.

The play was first produced at the Denver Center Theatre after being adapted from an original audition piece performed by actress Molly Newman. Ms. Newman then went on to develop the play based on her character that "simply sat down in a rocking chair and told a story about making a quilt." The play has since been presented all over the nation and overseas. An off-Broadway production in 1985 earned Tony award nominations for "Quilters".

The touring company of the play has been underwritten by the Junior League of Amarillo and has been on tour throughout the area since the latter part of January. The Childress performance of "Quilters" is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, April 21st, at the Childress Junior High Auditorium. Cost of a ticket is $6.00 and can be purchased by contacting the Childress Chamber of Commerce, 216 Commerce Street, Childress, Texas 79201 or by calling the chamber office at (817) 937-2567.

Fisherman found fulfillment in family, friends, church

EDITOR'S NOTE: This article was taken from the LUBBOCK AVALANCHE-JOURNAL, from the Religion section and written by Beth Pratt, of Floydada, a journalist for the AVALANCHE-JOURNAL. Mr. Parson was the father of Kellie (Mrs. Donnie) Jackson of Matador.

A fisherman was buried this week in Floydada.

For several years Dewie Parson and my father-in-law were among the main contributors for the annual men's fish fry at our church. I remember times when they came home from the lake bursting at the seams with pride over a 30 or 40 pound catfish. I think it was Dewie who helped the folks haul in a catfish weighing more than 60 pounds. We still have pictures of them posing with that one. I know he was there to help them celebrate.

Our youngest son was a frequent visitor to the lake with his grandparents, and that group of fishermen was a part of his extended family. What tales they loved to tell on one another, and what good times they had. At that time, working so hard at play in your retirement did not make much sense to me, but I hope I have grown wiser as well as older.

Although the older folks were retired, Dewie was not. Self-employed, he and his wife, Sue, were among those few people who ordered their priorities to include recreation long before they retired. The wisdom of their choice became even more apparent when emphysema limited his activities these last few years. They worked hard, but they also took time to enjoy life with friends and family.

Taking time to go fishing was an important part of their quality of life long before many of us appreciated the necessity of relaxation. Today, pastors may be reluctant to advise their parishioners to take time off because so many spend all their summer weekends communing with nature rather than teaching a Sunday School class, singing in the choir or sitting in a church pew.

But Dewie and Sue did not forget or neglect their church responsibilities when they arranged their fishing trips. For years they were the guiding spirit behind our church bus ministry. They visited children, inviting them to come to church. Dewie would get up early on Sunday mornings and drive the bus around town to labor camps and other areas where children waited.

Sue worked diligently preparing teaching materials for the children's church each Sunday. They not only gave of their time; they also contributed to the church library, providing audio-visual equipment to use in children's church and Sunday School.

At church "he always said, 'hello,' but he was quiet, and didn't care to draw attention to himself," my son said, remembering Dewie as a happy person with a positive attitude. Dewie was always willing to take people out on the lake, even little people who found it hard to wait for adults to get ready for a boat ride. Children knew they could ask Dewie, and he would always be ready to go.

Had he lived in Galilee some 2,000 years ago, Dewie would have been comfortable with the fishermen who followed Jesus. He could have matched fish stories with the best of them. But instead of trying to send the children away when they crowded around Jesus, he would have been the disciple out trying to round them up to hear the stories his Master told.

After all, that is what he did here as long as he was able.

10 Household Tips to Reduce Waste

The Aseptic Packaging Council, composed of manufacturers of juice boxes, provides educational information on source reduction as a way of preserving our environment.

1. Use products with minimal packaging. For example, juice boxes are designed to use the least amount of packaging possible so there's less waste for disposal or recycling.

2. Find other uses for materials you normally toss in the garbage. Empty bread bags and butter tubs make excellent, reusable containers for school lunches and leftovers.

3. Write on both sides of paper, instead of automatically pulling out a new sheet. Use the back sides of junk mail for your grocery list or children's drawing paper.

4. Reuse materials like wrapping paper and shopping bags. You reduce waste and save money.

5. Repair household goods if possible to help extend their useful life.

6. Find opportunities to say "no thank you". When shopping for a few items at the store, take the sales receipt but leave the bag behind.

7. Use concentrated products or mixes where water is added such as juice concentrates, detergents and fabric softener. Avoid frills and wasteful decorations.

8. Help someone in need and donate unused furniture, appliances, toys and clothing to local charities, rather than putting them out on the curb.

9. Start a backyard composting pit. It's easy to build and turns your coffee grounds, grass, leaves, plant clippings and other organic waste into fertilizer for your garden.

10. Share your source reduction tips with your friends and family. Teach your kids at an early age to practice source reduction.

For more information on source reduction, contact the Aseptic Packaging Council at 1-800-277-8088 or your local waste management officials.

NOTICE OF TARIFF CHANGE TO CENTRANET® SERVICE

GTE Southwest Incorporated gives notice of its proposed tariff changes to CentraNet® service, which is a Central Office-based service that provides PBX-type features to multi-line business customers and is currently being offered in all company wire centers where such facilities exist to provide the service.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas approved a generic tariff for CentraNet® service up to 100 lines in Docket No. 7652. The proposed tariff revision would establish specific rates for CentraNet® service involving 101 to 400 lines. Other proposed revisions involve the rate applicable to changes, additions, or deletions to the data bases and a new rate is proposed for additional trunks.

The names of the three CentraNet® packages have changed from Standard, Premium, and Deluxe to CentraNet® 1000, CentraNet® 2000, and CentraNet® 3000, respectively. Direct Call Pickup has been added to the three CentraNet® packages while Multiple Call Park and Shared Speed Call 30 have been added to CentraNet® 2000, and Speed Call 30 and Call Forward Busy/No Answer Split have been added to CentraNet® 3000. Flexible Night Answer and Automatic Route Selection also have been added as new optional features.

The proposed changes and new service offerings have been assigned Docket No. 9251, and pursuant to Section 43(d) of the Public Utility Regulatory Act will become effective June 23, 1990. Rates for service will be applicable to customers who subscribe to the service as well as existing customers. Therefore, there will be no effect on any other rates of the company. The company's gross annual revenues will increase by approximately $399,600, or less than one percent annually.

The proposed rates are on file with the Public Utility Commission of Texas, and are available for public inspection at the offices of GTE Southwest Incorporated. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission. The deadline to intervene in this docket is 3:00 p.m., April 9, 1990.

A request to intervene, participate, or for further information, should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas, 78757. SEEDS FROM THE SOWER®

Michael A. Guido
Metter, Georgia

They called him "the miracle worker." It was a miracle if he ever worked.

One day a customer noticed his absence and asked, "Is Eddie sick?"

"Nope," answered a boy. "He's not working here anymore."

The customer asked, "Do you have anyone in mind for the vacancy?"

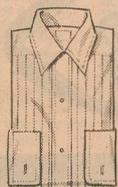

"Nope," said the boy, "he left no vacancy."

Like Eddie, there was a time when Mark was useless. He became a spineless deserter and a stumbling block.

But by the grace of God, the man who failed made good. And of him Paul said, "he's profitable."

When the Lord calls you home to heaven will it be said of you, "He was profitable," or "he left no vacancy!"

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

When, how and why was our vote taken away, because we happen to live in the wrong precinct?

This is stepping back in time, even communism.

When someone runs for anything that involves a position where he or she is a public official AND involves voting, EVERYBODY should vote.

How dare someone take my vote away!

I, too, want a say on who gets elected, and that includes a J.P.

A lot of people didn't know we couldn't vote for this until elections rolled around.

The Justice of the Peace serves the whole community, not just one precinct.

What next? Can't vote for Presidential elections because we don't live in Washington?

Sincerely,
One of the denied voters

To the Editor:

First the stove pipe top hats arrival to the USA and then the bombing of Pearl Harbor, then the first World War on the U.S.A., then after rebuilding the Germans, the second war on the U.S.A. By adult started and now the Germans want their freedom to rebuild for the third war.

First let us not forget the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor. Also the Death March. And now it looks like they are coming in force to the U.S.A. without a sneak attack, but with the money. Good, I say, but let us use their ways and means in this manner, use their monies and what knowledge they have until we think their debt on bombing Pearl Harbor is about paid and the buildings they purchased are taken back plus the factories that reproduce their junk are taken back for rebuilding their country and then escort them out of this great country of ours and start off on an even keel, eye for an eye.

This, my friends will open the eyes of the World to a Democratic way of life.

Now on the subject of re-unifications. One Germany once again, but with caution, a lot stronger than the last wars, but keep the four powers as the watchdogs on their behavior as Democratic people. They say they want to be, but remember Hitler's Hitler Youth and the Supermen S.S. Troops and The Gestapo that still exists in that country that want that power back as is predicted that they are the supermen and bred as such. Ask the Veterans that fought them. Ask the ones that survived their atrocities and ask the G.I.'s that fought against them and they will tell you their true purpose. Let us not forget that we must remain the watchdogs of Freedom with our allies so we can remain free from people that have nothing but hate against Democracy.

Just look at the world today, people want freedom as America has, but we must be careful that we do not give it to the ones that want to destroy it.

As a Veteran, I saw what Nazi and Jap words meant, lies-lies-lies. As a Vet, I vote to keep our promise to the Free World. We won't let it happen again.

God bless the U.S.A.

A disabled Vet's answer,
John R. Deptula

Workable, affordable crop loss protection in farm law has long held high priority among cotton producers in the drought, hail, wind and freeze-prone Texas High Plains. And producer-ginner Myrl D. Mitchell of Lenorah in Martin County thinks a recently advanced proposal may be a step in the right direction toward that goal.

Mitchell is Board Chairman of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and cotton spokesman on a 21-member commission appointed to explore ways to improve federal crop insurance. After multiple meetings the group, known as the FCIC Commission, met its July deadline last year and made over 20 "final" recommendations, most of which were aimed at more favorable premium-coverage ratios and faster, more equitable claims adjustment.

Meanwhile Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter has said the FCIC should be abandoned in favor of a permanent disaster program. But the protection afforded by provisions of his program have been judged inadequate by both the agriculture industry and by prominent members of Congress.

Now, one Commission member, George Vohs of Colorado has offered another idea - a marriage of improved federal crop insurance and a disaster program.

Essentially Vohs' idea is to mandate in the 1990 farm law insurance coverage up to 75 percent of normal yields with the same 30 percent federal premium assistance now offered up to only 65 percent, then indemnify the other 25 percent of total losses under a catastrophic loss benefit clause. For insurance purposes, producers would have the option to use either current program payment yields or proven actual yields.

These new features obviously would increase producer participation in the insurance program, primary charge of the FCIC Commission from its inception, Mitchell says. And another feature, he adds, would bring about an even greater increase.

To be eligible for the 25 percent catastrophic loss protection, producers would be required to purchase insurance at either the 50, 65 or 75 percent coverage levels. That would obligate producers to participate in the insurance program at one of the three coverage levels or be left with no safety net other than their own resources.

Moreover, the proposal calls for producers not taking insurance to sign a memorandum of understanding to the effect that they are relinquishing any and all federal disaster assistance. Thus, the reasoning goes, the political pressure for Congress to pass ad hoc disaster programs, as it has done four times in the last eight years, would be defused.

Some version of Vohs' proposal may have an ally in House Agriculture Committee Chairman Kika de la Garza, Mitchell notes, recalling that the Chairman reportedly told a National Grain Sorghum Producers meeting he hopes "we will come up with some kind of hybrid" between federal crop insurance and a disaster program.

Bill Stansbury, FCIC economist, is currently preparing a detailed analysis of Vohs' proposal to facilitate consideration at the Commission's next meeting April 4 in Washington.

TEXAS SENATE WEEK IN REVIEW

AUSTIN - The Texas Senate will vote this week on a $1.3 billion education bill aimed at equalizing funding among the state's nearly 1,100 public school districts.

By a vote of 16-0, the Senate Subcommittee on Public Education approved a committee substitute for Senate Bill 31 last Thursday. The bill is sponsored by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby and Senators Carl Parker of Port Arthur and Kent Caperton of Bryan.

The measure, which provides for an additional $1.3 billion in education spending for fiscal 1990-91, would, if passed by the Legislature, increase the state's annual education budget to $6.5 billion.

The Texas Legislature on Monday (March 19) enters the final full week of a special session called by Gov. Bill Clements to come up with a plan to close the gap in financial resources between rich and poor school districts.

The State Supreme Court has ruled the current funding distribution plan unconstitutional and has given lawmakers until May 1 to present a plan to correct the problem.

In addition to increased state school funding, the Senate bill proposes a number of reforms that include financial incentives for innovative programs, more student testing, and state funding of classes for disadvantaged pre-schoolers.

An amendment by Sen. Carlos Truan of Corpus Christi was added to the bill to provide funds over and above the basic allotment to black, Hispanic and poor school districts. The amendment increased the cost of the original Senate bill from some $800 million the first year to the $1.3 billion figure.

The Truan amendment is aimed at ensuring that poorer school districts receive funding equal to richer districts to pay for such programs as bilingual education, free lunch programs, special education and vocational education.

If the bill passes the Senate this week, it will then go to the House where members are now considering a $450 million education spending plan. A compromise between the Senate and House bills will be sought during the session's remaining days.

In other activity last week, William Bennett, President Bush's National Drug Control Policy Director, praised Texas' war on drugs during an address to House and Senate members.

Bennett urged legislation that would suspend driver's and professional licenses of convicted drug offenders; require drug testing of employees of state contractors; and create drug-free zones around schools.

The Senate also unanimously approved a number of Gov. Clements' nominees for vacancies on various state boards and judicial districts.

The Senate convened Monday (March 19) at 11:00 a.m.

Jesus said repent!

I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

Social Security Tips

by Mary Jane Shanes

Chances are you or a family member will contact Social Security in the near future: A young child needs a social security card; someone applies for monthly retirement, disability, or survivor's checks; an older individual wants to discuss the effect of part-time work on his or her benefits.

Visiting any government office can be trying. There may be long waits and forms to complete. Then there's the nuisance of finding a parking spot and possibly another if you forgot something. Here's how to avoid some of these problems:

Use the phone. Most social security business (including applying for benefits) can be handled by phone. Call 1-800-234-SSA (1-800-234-5772).

Time your contracts. The best and least busy times to contact social security are generally early in the morning and later in the afternoon after the first week of the month. There are times, however, that you should get in touch with social security as quickly as possible (such as reporting a change of address, work activity, or other event that may affect benefits).

Find out what you need. If you decide to visit social security, call first to find out what information and proofs you need so you can avoid a second trip. Evidence required for most claims include: Proof of age and social security number for each applicant; most recent W-2 form or tax return; and possibly marriage, divorce, military, or other documents.

If you apply for disability benefits, you will be asked for names, addresses, and phone numbers for doctors, hospitals, etc., that have treated you and dates of treatment. If you need a social security card, be prepared to bring evidence of age, citizenship and identity.

For more information or to file a claim call 1-800-234-SSA.

The program included reports from bank management and directors on 1989 operations and 1990 plans and programs. Harry Edelman, president and chief executive officer of the Federal Agricultural Mortgage Corporation, known as Farmer Mac, updated stockholders on the new secondary market for agricultural financing.

Texas' Sales Tax Rebates up 5 Percent

AUSTIN, Tex. -- State Comptroller Bob Bullock said Friday that sales tax rebates to Texas cities are up almost 5 percent so far this year as compared to last year.

The March rebate checks sent to cities today totaled $69 million, an increase of nearly 13 percent over last March's payments.

"The increase for the first three months of the year is right in line with our forecast of 5 to 6 percent growth in taxable sales for this year," Bullock said.

Houston received $12 million, the state's largest payment and an increase of 15 percent over last March's payment. Dallas received the state's second largest payment of $7.4 million, an increase of 7 percent over last March's payment. San Antonio received $4.1 million and Austin received $3.1 million.

Payments to counties totaled $7.3 million this month, compare to $5.9 million last March. The 23 percent jump over last March's payments is partly due to the increased number of counties collecting sales tax now, Bullock said.

This month's checks include taxes collected on January sales and reported in February by businesses filing monthly tax returns.

Also included with this month's checks were quarterly payments totaling $139 million for the state's six metropolitan transit authorities and one city transit department. The payments to MTAs reflect taxes collected in November, December and January.

Merchants collect the sales taxes and send them to the Comptroller's office with their tax returns. The state keeps its 6 percent share and each month sends cities and counties their portion of the sales tax. All local sales taxes must be approved by local voters and may be used for any legal city or county expenses. Most areas put the money in their General Fund and use it for operations like fire fighting, maintaining roads and law enforcement.

Totals for Motley County are as follows:

Matador: net payment this period, $1,015.03; comparable payment prior year, $940.46; % change, 7.93%; 1990 payments to date, $5,746.87; 1989 payments to date, $6,326.18; % change -9.16%.

Roaring Springs: net payment this period, $2,643.81; comparable payment prior year, $964.19; % change, 174.20%; 1990 payments to date, $6,797.03; 1989 payments to date, $3,708.93; % change, 83.26%.

County total: net payment this period, $3,658.84; comparable payment this year, $1,904.65; % change, 92.10%; 1990 payments to date, $12,543.90; 1989 payments to date, $10,035.11; % change, 25.00%.

Kenneth Wyatt

"I didn't want him in the traditional role of holding the money bag, but I wanted to show his soul in darkness for betraying his friend, Jesus, because betrayal is the complete reversal of love."

From the trucker who posed as Thomas, the other portraits have all been drawn from live models. Wyatt found his subject for Paul in Plainview and discovered Matthew on the Sesquicentennial wagon train that stopped in Amarillo two years ago.

Other models are from such places as Florida, Ohio, New Orleans, El Paso, Amarillo and Canyon.

Wyatt's most difficult subject to talk into a sitting was the man who finally gave in and posed for Jesus. He did so, however, on the condition that his name not be disclosed.

Some apostles were more demanding than others to get the exact effect Wyatt desired. "Andrew took a full week to get what I wanted and I had to change Philip," he said.

Each portrait is the culmination of extensive research conducted by the artist. With his clergy background and training, Wyatt knew many of the sources to tap for information on the Apostles' ages, appearances and personalities.

Some of his investigation took him to Episcopalian and Catholic libraries and clergy.

"I wanted to get to the legends, too," Wyatt said. "For instance, legend says that Bartholomew always wore a white robe with a purple stripe that never got dirty."

The portraits have inspired the artist to consider another similar project - 14 paintings of women from the Bible.

"I'm really anxious to start finding the models for this group," he said, adding that the one impediment will be the amount of time involved to complete the task."

"And I've got to find Jezebel - after all, I painted Judas."

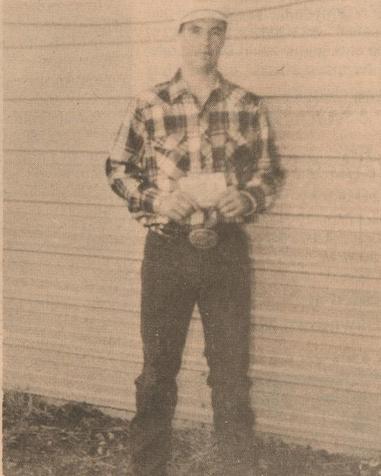

Bradley Jameson showed the Grand Champion Hog.

Reserve Champion Hog was showed by Lacey Parks.

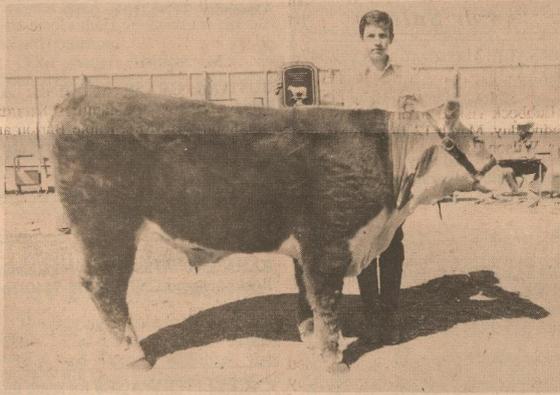

Darryn Perryman won Grand Champion and Reserve Champion in the Lamb division. Cathy Perryman assisted in showing her brother's sheep.

Billy Lefevre received the Showmanship award, showing hogs.

Showmanship Award was won by Christi Pierce and shown with Reserve Champion Lamb is Darryn Perryman.

Josh Palmer won 1st in the Hereford Class. He also received the Rate-of-Gain award with his Hereford Steer.

Thank you for cooperating!

They had just become engaged, and she promised, "I'll be with you, dear, to share your troubles."

"But, darling," he protested, "I don't have any."

"You will," she prophesied.

Everyone will. Look at David. One day his troubles came in the form of Goliath. He didn't look upon the giant as an obstacle of defeat but as an opportunity for victory.

One little stone, in one little sling, hurled by one little fellow, felled a giant. The secret? The Lord.

Facing a giant? The battle is the Lord's. He's all-powerful. What's impossible with you is possible with Him. Turn everything over to Him and you'll triumph.
