SEVEN CENTS

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

It is difficult to taste affection if you have previously sipped from a cup of bitterness and hate.

Pure silence is a segment of empty broken free of its mooring and left drifting on the gulf of tranquility.

Laziness is an estate left by ancestors who worked hard and long hours to make life easier for their descendants.

An old range rider who leaves his spurs on his boots when he pulls them off, says his slumber is bothered by "horse trouble." He says he is awakened by a Charlie Horse and no sooner gets asleep than he is best by Night Mares.

Another way to keep your friends is to ask no favors of them, and not to be available when they would ask favors of you.

The government is now going to mail by fast freight after the franchise away from passenger trains. It might try motor freight, by the big trucks which outrun a good passenger car, except on the grades.

Try smiling when you greet the first three friends you meet tomorrow, and discover what a beautiful and sublime world has been provided for your enjoyment.

If you remember when you heated a brick and wrapped it in a blanket to keep your feet warm in the buggy, chances are you no longer fear the dentist. You hand him your teeth and relax in his chair until he has finished.

Stanley Pharmacy Enters 23rd Year

This week end Bob Stanley Pharmacy will be entering 23 years continuous operation in Matador. This week the firm is observing its 22nd anniversary with a Rexall 1c sale which starts Monday and continues through October.

The father-son partnership firm carries on the traditions and prices which have made it "One of the Largest and Finest Pharmacies in West Texas."

R. M. (Bob) Stanley established the store 22 years ago when he purchased the City Drug Store from G. S. Craven. The name was later changed to Stanley Pharmacy, and afterwards changed to Bob Stanley Pharmacy. His son, James, became a partner in the store after graduation from a pharmacy school in Weatherford, Okla.

The Rexall 1c and Anniversary Sale will continue through October, it was announced this week.

A feature now advertised in the page advertisement in this week's issue of the Tribune, is a Bevel Vitamin Sale which offers valuable prizes in a guessing contest.

A large colored photo in the store shows a gallon of pills and capsules. Persons over 18 are eligible to register a guess as to the number of pills and capsules in the photograph. There is no obligation to make a purchase, to register a guess.

Winner will receive a Wilson "fun-n-play" kit, which includes athletic items bearing the famous Wilson name.

The guessing contest slogan by Bevel is "A full measure of family pleasure for a full measure of Family Health."

MATADORS DROP 1ST CONFERENCE

On a wet and slippery field Friday night the Matador Matadors lost their first 1967 conference play to the Turkey Turks, 24-0.

In the first period a Turkey fumble on the first play of the game was recovered by Ronnie Welling. The Matadors took over possession, but were stalled short of a first down and forced to punt. Turkey then took over and scored on a 80-yard pass play to make the score 6-0.

During the second stanza downpour of rain made the going slippery, but the Turks came out with six more points, making the half-time score 12-0.

Heavy rain continued to fall during the third quarter. Matador's quarterback Ronnie Welling then ran 60 yards to the Turk's ten, only to have it called back. The Turks then added six points to the scoreboard.

Even with the rain still pouring, the Turks managed another touchdown to add six more points to their scoring.

Two Men Injured; Two Mules Killed In Car Accident

Two Dickens County residents, Jerry Clements and Doyle Cagle, both of the Duncan Flat Community, were injured about 11:30 Sunday night, when the car in which they were riding went out of control in east Matador.

The car, headed east on US Highway 70, went out of control when it struck sand in the street at the curve near the Dixie Dog Drive-In Cafe.

The car plowed on east and struck two mules staked to an old truck. One of the mules was knocked 60 feet according to investigating Highway Patrolmen F. E. and Marvin Johnson of Paducah.

The injured men were taken to the Crosbyton Hospital in a Seigler ambulance where Clements, who was driving, was treated and released. Cagle was more seriously injured with seven stitches taken in his lip and 40 stitches taken in lacerations on his face. The two mules belonged to Noble Burks. One was killed instantly and the other injured until it was necessary to destroy it.

Local officers said charges of speeding had been filed against Clements, whose 1966 Chevy II was almost totally wrecked.

All Voters Must Register Under New Regulation

A change in the law necessitates that all must register in order to vote in any election in 1968. So says sheriff J. D. Spray who pointed out that last day of registration is January 31, 1968. Voters must register at the office of sheriff, tax assessor-collector.

Special registration forms are provided. There is no charge. It is possible to register by mail with special application form.

The regulation also makes it possible for one to act as an agent for a registrar under the following provisions: "The husband, wife, mother, father, son, or daughter of a person entitled to register may act as agent for such person in applying for registration, without the necessity of written authorization therefor, may sign for applicant when application is by mail, and may receive the registration certificate."

However, none of the above may act as agent unless he is a qualified elector (voter) of the county. No person other than those mentioned in this subsection may act as agent for a person applying for registration.

Every one offering to vote, regardless of age, must have a Voter Registration Receipt.

Dr. Frank C. Traweck, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Traweck Jr., of Matador, was promoted to the rank of major in the Army Dental Corps in a surprise ceremony held at Fort Lewis, Washington, September 1. Major Traweck received his leaves from Colonel Herbert Gullickson, Post Dental Surgeon.

Major Traweck is a 1956 graduate of Matador High School. He attended TCU for three years and received his DDS from the University of Texas Dental Branch in June, 1963.

He entered the Army as a Captain in July, 1963 and was stationed in Berlin and Würzburg, Germany, for three years before returning to Fort Lewis, Wash., in September, 1966.

City Buffalo Is Delivered

Matador City Park has a live buffalo, and the young animal is creating much interest, especially among children. The 610-pound buffalo bull was delivered Monday afternoon.

Former sheriff John Stotts and Mayor Freddie Welling brought the animal here from Childress. The city had prepared a special compound with shelter and water for the buffalo. The cow buffalo, which Matador was to have received, died at Childress, after eating a large amount of beans or peas, which had been given her.

The Tribune, prompted by a suggestion from Floyd Hardin, feels that Matador's buffalo should have a name and will sponsor a contest for children under 12. The newspaper will pay $5 cash for the name selected. Closing date for the contest will be midnight November 11. Members of the city council will select the name from those submitted to the Tribune, either by mail or in person.

Game Night to be Sponsored by Club

It was further announced that the club will present an "Outstanding Citizen" award for community service.

The public is invited. An admission of $1.00 will be charged, to defray expenses of the entertainment, and to finance club projects.

Total sale for the club, with members acting as salesmen, was $556, according to Lions Secretary Forrest Campbell. The Roaring Springs Lions Club sold about $250 worth of merchandise, according to Boss Lion Dick Carpenter. All products sold by the Lions are made by blind people.

SEVENTY-FIVE years ago a little band of pioneers met in the Whiteflat Community and organized the Motley County Singing Convention. One of the organizers and first presidents was the late W. J. Whitworth, father of J. R. (Randall) Whitworth, above, current president. There are no living charter members of the Singing Convention, oldest active organization in the county, which will meet Sunday, Oct. 15 in the American Legion Building for its second meeting of the year. (Meetings are held in June and October.) Other officers are Walter Craft, Roaring Springs, Vice-President, and Mrs. Harold Campbell, Secretary-Treasurer.

Hurricane Relief Truck Gets Goods

A giant 33-ft. trailer-truck driven by the owner, Jack Pigg of Flomot, left Matador late Wednesday, laden with relief supplies for victims of Hurricane Beulah and floods in South Texas and northern Mexico.

The supplies will be taken to Otho Brands Warehouse in McAllen, for distribution.

Already well-filled with contributions from Flomot, Fairmount community, Silverton, and a Spanish Mission in Floydada, the collection here filled the space remaining in the trailer.

Sponsored by Baptist churches in the state, the drive for supplies here became a county-wide and inter-denominational project as the Commissioner's Court and civic organizations joined forces to aid.

The Homemakers Club at Flomot ironed, sorted and classified articles which were collected at Lee's Feed Store in that community. The Fairmount women sewed buttons on clothing collected there, and the Flomot Lions Club assisted in various ways.

About eight volunteers here aided in loading the huge truck with merchandise from the basement of First Baptist Church, local collection center, which also included donations from the Northfield and Roaring Springs communities.

Items collected were many and varied, ranging from food and bedding, to bassinets and clothing of all kinds.

Note by Strangers Found in Cemetery

A NOTE written and signed by strangers, dated September 23, and found on a tractor in East Mound Cemetery, highly complimented the appearance of Matador's burial grounds.

The note reads as follows: "I don't know who is the caretaker of this lovely cemetery, but I would like to express my thanks."

"My husband and I travel quite a lot and we visit cemeteries often to help determine how old a settlement is and etc. This is certainly one of the loveliest we've visited."

During rainy seasons in the summer, when the growth of weeds and grass are too much to cope with, extra help is employed.

Both the county and city heavy equipment is used when needed in grading and draining problems.

The excellent care which Mrs. Jackson has provided for East Mound Cemetery is well known in this area, where frequent visits are made by residents who have loved ones buried there.

The note left by a stranger who noticed the excellent appearance of East Mound, is unusual and is testimony to the general appreciation of local residents, to Mrs. Jackson for her dedicated work.

Mavericks Edged Out by Crowell

by Larry Bostick
The Matador Mavericks lost a heart breaker 26-22 to the Crowell high team Oct. 3 at Crowell making this their first loss this year.
After watching Crowell slap up several touchdowns, the Mavericks learned that scoring was a good idea and so it was. Bill Barnhill, again graider at the helm, returned a kick-off following one of Crowell's touchdown passes for six points. Try for extras was good, putting the Mavericks back in the ball game 18 to 5 at the end of the first quarter.
In the second stanza Crowell once again tossed a bomb to stretch their lead, but the Mavericks were determined to keep their foot in the door no matter how hard it was slammed. Kenneth Marshall on a power sweep around right end eluded tacklers to romp for 46 yards and six points. Johnny Thompson ran the extras making the score Crowell 26, Matador 16.
The third period of the hard hitting game was a silent one as neither club managed to add six points to their side.
In the final quarter Kenneth Mar-

Six Weeks Results Shown to Parents

by Billie Stockton
The haggard students you see walking through the halls as you visit Matador High School this week are the results of the first six weeks tests this year.
They now have to face their parents after all the teachers have shown them the incriminating tests and told them what their young geniuses have been doing since school started in August. Their only consolation is that school is turning out at 1:30 Wednesday and Thursday.
Each parent is invited to come to school and observe the scholars of Matador High School soaking in all the knowledge their teachers are pouring out.

Mrs. Bennie Keltz is the teachers' aid to the first, second and third grades. She does the odd jobs that the teachers do not have time for since they are busy working with the students.
Her duties vary from helping students individually to running off papers and cutting out felt letters.
Mrs. Keltz attends school each day and stays the full hours of a regular teacher.

The first graders are learning to print numerals and letters and to draw pictures on the new green boards furnished to each student by the school. The boards are the size of a sheet of paper, but they are much more durable than paper, since the chalk markings can be quickly erased, leaving a clean space in which the students can mark again.
—MSB—
The second grade has two new students. They are Mary Zarate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Zarate, and Ricky Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McElroy from Post. Mary has formerly attended school at Matador, but this is Ricky's first time to attend school here.
These two new students make the total number of twenty-nine students in the second grade.

The sixth graders have been making hair hygrometers. These weather instruments are constructed with some tape, a straw, a wooden board, some strings of hair, some straight pins, a penny a small bead, and some airplane glue.
These instruments are for measuring the relative humidity.

Exercise for All Given at HD Club

"Exercises for All" was the program given by Helena Mokray, Matador County Home Demonstration Agent, when the Whiteflat Home Demonstration Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. Bob Martin.

Members participated in a series of exercises for reducing, relaxing and recreation.

Research was quoted by Miss Mokray, that indicates that the lack of activity can result in the bones becoming weak and susceptible to fracture as well as poor circulation.

She gave as guidelines for health the following: 1. Stand on your feet for a total of two hours daily, it strengthens the bones. 2. Raise your heartbeat for one or two minutes daily until you can feel it beat in your chest, the heart is a muscle that must be exercised.

3. Burn up some of those calories every day by exercise, such as walking, sports, or housework. Avoid becoming overweight by not letting it be put on so gradually it is not noticed. 4. Keep up your muscle tone by lifting something moderately heavy just once a day.

5. Stretch the body to avoid becoming tense and irritable.

"The old idea of 'working up an appetite' was challenged by an expert with the comparison of how ranchers have found that livestock will eat more if they are confined to a small corral," Miss Mokray said. "Dr. Morehouse of the University of California states that the quieter you are before eating, the more you will eat."

It was announced that the first of a series of talks on Social Security will be given by O. E. O'Neal from Lubbock on November 2, at the courthouse. It was decided to contact other organizations by letter, to invite them to attend.

The October 29 meeting will be a trip to the candle shop of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morckle of Floydada, for a tour and demonstration. Members will meet at the courthouse at 2:00 p.m. and leave together from there.

Those attending Friday's meeting were Mesdames Wilson Barton, Fred Bonland, Tom Edwards, G. E. Hamilton, Bob Martin, Dewayne Martin and Scott Robbins; and guests Mesdames Keith Patton and Marvin Patton.

COUNTY AGENT PALLMEYER SAYS:

Soybeans are fast approaching maturity and will soon be ready for harvest. The moisture content of the beans should be closely checked before taking the combine to the field, and if the moisture content is below 12%, the beans are fully mature and the pods have not yet begun to shatter.

If the beans are harvested with a higher moisture content, they will likely wrinkle and will deteriorate rapidly in storage. Also, if they are harvested after becoming too dry, serious losses will result from shattering, and are more susceptible to mechanical damage.

Follow the manufacturer's recommendations closely to insure proper operation of the combine. Adjustments are cylinder speed, cutter bar and concaves.

To date not much is known as to the returns that can be expected from soybeans in Matador County. To help advise others, I would appreciate information on yields, both dryland and irrigated.

Matador County Ranchers will be interested in the Ranch Management Conference to be held in the Student Union Building at Texas Tech on Oct. 13th. The conference starts at 8:00 a.m. Theme for the event is "The Ranching Industry—Past, Present and Future."

Highlights of the conference will be discussions on diversified ranching, Matador Land and Cattle Company, vertical integration, future of the cattle industry, livestock marketing and finance, economic outlook, ranching in Australia, chemical brush control, range animal nutrition and forage for beef production.

We are testing some cotton varieties to determine if they are adapted to Matador County, and will give us good yields, staple length and other desirable characteristics. As harvest is starting, you will probably be interested in looking at these tests.

With cotton nearing harvest time, questions on the use of defoliants are increasing. Guides have been mailed to all producers, but as a reminder, I would like to quote this statement from the guide.

"When 60% or more of the bolls are open, it is safe for most defoliants to be applied. Desiccants should be applied when more than 75% of the bolls are open under dryland conditions. Under irrigation, apply desiccants when more than 80% of the bolls are open. Plants are considered suitably mature if the youngest bolls cannot be dented by pressure between the thumb and forefinger, or cannot easily be cut through with a sharp knife."

Disregard of these recommendations and applying defoliants or desiccants too early results in reduced yields, lower micronaire reading and weaker fiber. We all know what a combination of these qualities does to the pocket book.

As a reminder to boys and girls who plan to show calves or hogs in the Matador County Jr. Livestock Show, now is the time to be getting those animals. Most of the good calves will be gone before long, and remember that you must own the animal by Jan. 1, 1968. Show date is Saturday, April 6th, and for this show, hogs will show in the morning and calves in the afternoon.

What happens if you don't cash in your Savings Bonds when they come due?

You pay $37.50 for a Series E Savings Bond and in 7 years it grows to $50.

But what if you don't cash it in? Fact is, it keeps right on growing.

At the current interest rate, when it's 10 years old it will be worth $56.56. At 15 years its value will be $69.46. And at 17 years, $75.40.

There's no trick at all to letting your E Bonds work overtime for you this way. You don't even have to remember to renew them. The Treasury Department does it automatically.

And while your growing Bonds are making you richer, they're helping keep America strong in a world where strength to stand up to the enemies of freedom is imperative.

Buy Bonds where you work or bank and see if you don't feel pretty good about it.

"Savings Bonds... best 'rainy day' insurance I know of"

"Most everyone needs extra cash at one time or another. So the way I see it, it makes good sense to put something away regularly to have this nest egg there when I need it. Then there's that special feeling I get knowing I'm pitching in to help America stay strong... and free. You're looking at a guy who really thinks U.S. Savings Bonds have a lot going for them... and wants to pass on the good word. How about you?"

Farmer Projects In Recreation Show Net Profit

Farmer projects in Motley and Floyd Counties may be able to develop income-producing recreational projects with Farmers Home Administration supervised credit according to Alford A. Harrison, local county supervisor for the federal agency. Harrison said approximately 1,100 farmers and rural groups have borrowed some $65 million to develop rural recreation projects during the past five years.

"Nearly all the farmers who have developed recreation projects with Farmers Home Administration loans showed some profit in 1966," he said. "These farm recreation projects are a supplementary enterprise to the farm business yet they showed an average net profit of $1,287. Those who had been in business three years or more showed an average profit of $2,143."

"Farmers who have a natural recreation area on their farms that they can develop and exploit should analyze their situation thoroughly. If the project is feasible financing may be arranged through my office," Harrison said.

Among the more successful projects that have been financed with Farmers Home Administration loans according to Harrison are golf courses, marinas, hunting projects, camping and picnic areas, vacation farms, swimming pools, and fishing facilities. Youth camps seem to be the most profitable. They showed an average profit of $2,670 in 1966.

Farmers Home Administration uses its farm operating and farm ownership loan program to finance recreation loans. Farmers can obtain a maximum of $35,000 for operating expenses, including the operating costs of farm-based recreation enterprises and $60,000 for a real estate program, including development of land and buildings for recreation purposes.

Loans At 5% Interest
These loans carry a 5% interest rate on the unpaid principal. The repayment period of loans secured by real estate may not exceed 40 years, while that secured by chattels has a 7 year limitation. Such credit is only extended to those who cannot obtain it through normal lending channels at reasonable rates and terms.

Developing a community recreational potential is big business in some areas the county supervisor explained. Whole communities benefit when new recreation areas are created. Business men benefit by the influx of tourists. The community's tax base is increased, providing more money for schools, and other public services.

Farmers Home Administration also makes loans to community groups for financing recreation facilities such as golf courses, swimming pools, tennis courts, lakes and ponds.

Ribbons Received For 4-H Records

The ribbons from the Junior Record Book contest were awarded this week to nine boys and girls from Motley County during their respective 4-H club meetings. They were among the 192 young people from district 3 who had submitted their records last month.

Receiving blue ribbons were Jackie Irwin with her record book on Conservation, and James Irwin with his records entered in the Achievement contest, both of Roaring Springs.

Peggy Marrs of Matador and Lucy Reed and Frances Reed, both of Flomot received blue ribbons on record books on Clothing.

Red ribbons were received by Paula Palmeyer of Matador and Carolyn Sanders of Roaring Springs, in the Home Economics contest.

To encourage the young people to keep records of their projects, a watch is awarded at the County Awards Banquet for the 4-H'er who has scored the highest at the district contest. The winner of this award will be announced at that time. The Awards Banquet will be held November 13.

90th Division To Muster for Golden Bivouac

A group of World War I veterans will mark the Golden Anniversary of the Texas-Oklahoma 90th Division Association, November 1 to 5 at Lake Texoma State Lodge, Kingston, Okla.

Marvin H. Watts, General Chairman of the association says the large volume of reunion registrations already made assures an attendance much larger than ever before.

Oklahoma Governor Dewey Bartlett will be a featured speaker.

More than 50,000 men served in the division, originally activated with only Texas and Oklahoma soldiers. However, it wound up with soldiers from every state.

The group included several from Motley County, and Marvin Patton of Matador is the only known survivor still living in the county. The late Vernie Beauchamp and H. L. Smith, who passed away a month ago, were members of the 90th, among others.

Mrs. John Hamilton visited in Olton recently with her daughter, Miss Jane Hamilton, who teaches home economics in Olton High School.

Rev. and Mrs. John Fitzgerald visited in Galveston last week with their son Bill, a student in medical school. They returned home last Wednesday.

IN APPRECIATION
I would like to thank everyone who remembered me with cards, flowers and visits while I was in the hospital in Lubbock and since my return home. Your thoughtfulness has helped me so much. May the Lord bless each and every one of you.
