MATADOR, MOTLEY COUNTY, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1954 PRICE SEVEN CENTS

Candidates Make Final Bid As Voters Sharpen Pencils

Weather Continues High Mercury Days Plans Complete In 7 Balloting Places

ELECTION Saturday is not expected to relieve the prolonged heat wave which has claimed over 250 lives and engulfed half of the nation. The "sidewalk weather bureau" here says the heat and drought may continue another week or into August. The US Weather Bureau is not so optimistic.

City Water Superintendent Lee Burns who reads the instruments and keep the records for the government here says Matador has had only two days under 100 degrees in the past 16 days. The highest was 106 on July 13. Here are the readings and dates beginning with July 6-100, 7-103, 8-101, 9-99, 10-102, 11-102, 12-101, 13-106, 14-105, 15-100, 16-99, 17-101, 18-102, 19-102, 20-100 and July 21, 100.

No rain has fallen here for 57 days (since May 26) except slightly more than a trace of .03-inch.

Matador's water supply continues to appear adequate, Mr. Burns said. Daily consumption is in the neighborhood of 400,000 gallons for the past ten days. Mayor W. L. McWilliams said no restriction appears needed.

While suffering from the extreme heat, farmers say cotton can continue to hold its own for another ten days or two weeks. Feed, on the other hand, is suffering greatly and unless rain is received in the immediate future the county faces an extremely short crop.

Drouth Widespread.

The drouth is widespread and agricultural leaders in some northern and north central states say the corn crop is a total failure. Relief is being asked in many states.

Radio news reports last night said eight had died in Texas from the heat since the beginning of the hot weather. The nation's toll is in the neighborhood of 250.

HEAT in the weather and politics has set new records during the past week, but politics will cool off after tomorrow. Saturday is the voter's day and he is prepared with sharpened pencil to do his balloting in the first Democratic primary.

County Democratic Chairman W. L. McWilliams said last night that all election supplies have been delivered and that the seven Motley county polling places are checking final arrangements.

Mr. McWilliams expects a large vote. He estimates the county's total voting strength at about 1,200. A total of 992 poll tax receipts and exemptions have been issued (which includes "unders"). The "overs" are estimated at between 200 and 250. In 1952 election total poll taxes and exemptions issued were 1,285 (almost 300 more than 1954). Polls will open Saturday at 8:00 AM and close at 7:00 PM.

SAMPLE BALLOT

In this issue the Tribune is publishing a sample ballot, a duplicate of the ballot to be used Saturday. Readers are asked to study the ballot carefully and practice marking it. Law forbids bringing the marked ballot to the polls.

Election judges are as follows: Northfield, Delmont Hays; Floomot, Sam Ross; Whiteflat, T. M. Dixon; Roaring Springs, Homer Kingery; Union Corner, W. D. Morris; Matador (north), Ned Shanks and Matador (south), D. Payne. County and District Clerk Pat Sheridan said a total of 75 absentee applications had been issued as compared with 90 in 1952.

Only One Runoff

Motley county is expected to have only one runoff race and that for the office of County Commissioner in precinct two (Whiteflat and Floomot). Candidates in this race are J. E. Monk (re-election), A. L. (Jack) Spray, Bennie Keltz, L. B. Turner and Clovis Murphy. Observers were of the opinion that it is hardly probable any of the candidates will be nominated by a clear majority.

County candidates had slowed their pace some yesterday with election only two days away. The big show is being staged in the governor's race between Governor Allan Shivers, seeking a third term, and former Judge Ralph Yarborough who is running for the office the third time.

Through radio, television, newspaper advertising, placards and the personal work of supporters, the two candidates are at each other "hammer and tongs". Both sides are claiming victory—the voter will speak Saturday.

Vocational Ag Boys At State Meeting

Vocational Agriculture boys from Motley County schools this week are attending the State F. F. A. convention in San Antonio.

Orville Harris, Ag teacher at Roaring Springs, accompanied Bob Stafford to the convention city, where the latter will receive the Lone Star Farmer degree in ceremonies tonight. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Stafford of Roaring Springs.

Dynamite Blast Increases Heat Jitters

A BLAST of dynamite shook Matador about 9 p. m. Friday. With the citizenry suffering heat jitters, listening to radio details of the Geneva troubles and mention of the atom bomb anniversary, it was not exactly the kind of a thing calculated to quiet nerves. Residents rushed out of their homes throughout town. Some looked for planes overhead and others felt certain their water-heaters had exploded. Almost everyone thought the explosion was near their home.

It was two pounds of dynamite tied in a tree and exploded by Ed Jameson and associates, southeast of the city limits. They wanted to get rid of the dangerous material and decided on the tree method. It made a loud, earth-shaking noise. "Didn't even destroy the tree," Jameson declared.

Scouts Well-fed on Camping Trip

Fortified through the experience with boys of their own, Scoutmasters Algie Groves and Freddie Welling recognized food as the number one objective on a camping trip. They were prepared for the week's camping trip in the New Mexico mountains with a group of Scouts from Matador Troop 60.

Food was good and plentiful. The Scouts, hiking, hunting, fishing and climbing mountains, provided appetites equal to the Scoutmasters' previous arrangements. Breakfast usually consisted of bacon, eggs, cereal, milk toast or hot cakes and hot chocolate, with coffee for the night. Even for the Saturday night meal when camp was made in the rain, the culinary department came through with beef, peas, green beans and new potatoes, carrot strips and butter-scotch pudding, with Coolade and hot chocolate.

Precinct Meetings Scheduled

Saturday is the time for all good Democrats to again come to the aid of the party by attending the Democratic precinct conventions to be held in the District Court room here at 3 P. M. A precinct convention will also be held in other county communities according to plans.

"This convention," Democratic Chairman W. L. McWilliams declared, "is to elect delegates to the county convention which will be held here on Saturday, July 31st. They will in turn elect delegates to the state convention which follows."

The state convention will name the officials of the State Democratic Committee, which will direct the policies of the party during the next four years.

All voters are qualified and urged to attend the Saturday precinct conventions.

"LITTLE LEAGUE" GROUP ENTHUSED

"Little League" boys (hard ball baseball league was launched Monday night with much enthusiasm according to Commander Billy Wason of the VFW, sponsoring organization.

Wason said about 27 boys reported but that more were expected to be attracted by the league's activity. The Matador Lions directors in meeting Monday morning voted to sponsor a team. Other organizations have indicated they will sponsor teams.

The VFW lighted field has been cleaned and placed in shape for "Little League" games. The boys have done most of the work themselves, Wason said. Actual play started following the Monday night organization and the number of spectators is expected to increase as the season advances. Games are scheduled for tonight.

County HD Clubs Plan Encampment

Home Demonstration club women of Motley county have completed plans for an over-night encampment at Roaring Springs picnic grounds and swimming pool next month. Dates set for Thursday night and Friday morning, August 5-6.

Dickens County Home Demonstration club women have been invited to join them for the encampment.

In making the announcement, Mrs. Fred Bourland, Council chairman for Motley county, stated that all women in the county interested in home demonstration work, are invited. Each woman attending will bring her picnic supper for Thursday night. Program for the evening will include stunts, skits and games prepared by each club. Food for the Friday morning breakfast to be served at 6:00 o'clock, will be furnished by each club for its members as planned. Devotional service will be held after the breakfast hour, after which the encampment will adjourn.

TWO FLOMOT MEN INJURED AS FIRE DAMAGES TRACTOR

Two Flomot men, George McAlavey and a Latin-American farm hand, suffered severe burns recently when fire originated in a tractor on the Ralph Stapleton farm.

The Latin-American worked furiously to get McAlavey away from the burning tractor and extinguish his flaming clothing. In the process he suffered burns more serious than the man he was attempting to rescue. McAlavey was brought to Matador for medical treatment by Malcolm Turner, who was working in his field adjoining the Latin-American would not accompany them.

The farm accident occurred July 13. The tractor was badly damaged.

Dr. Traweck Leaves On Caribbean Trip

Dr. A. C. Traweck, Sr., left Plainview by plane today for Houston where he will be joined by his daughter, Dr. Mary Rosenstein, to begin a Caribbean cruise and vacation in Havana.

They will travel to New Orleans by rail, continuing the remainder of the trip by boat. It is his first vacation in several years and Dr. Traweck said he expects to be away about two weeks.

Referendum Will Decide Wheat Quotas

County wheat-growers will go to the polls twice this week-end. Tomorrow (Friday) they will decide for or against marketing quotas for the 1955 crop. Saturday they will help decide Democratic nominees for the November election.

The wheat referendum, according to Delmont Hays of Northfield, chairman of the Motley County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee will determine whether or not the quota program now in effect will continue for next year's crop. Two-thirds of those who vote must approve quotas before they can be put into operation.

Hays urges every eligible wheat grower in the county to vote. A producer is eligible to vote if he will have more than 15 acres of wheat on his farm for harvest in 1955. In other words he can vote if he would be affected directly by quotas, which apply only to farms with more than 15 acres of wheat.

Five Polling Places

Designated polling places in the Friday wheat referendum are: Floomot, John Deere store; Whiteflat, Dixon grocery; Northfield, Lane grocery; Matador, ASC office and Roaring Springs, Braselton Implement Co. Polls open at 8 AM and close at 7 PM.

If quotas are approved there will be marketing penalties on "excess" wheat (produced outside the acreage allotment), aside the level at which the price will be supported has not been determined. Price supports will be available to those who comply, at such levels as may be authorized. If quotas are not approved there will be no quotas or marketing penalties and price support for those who stay within their allotments will be at 50 percent of parity.

Meeting Scheduled At Roaring Springs

Roaring Springs School Board will meet in regular session, Tuesday night, July 27, at 8:15. At that time a public hearing at which time a public hearing will be held on the 1954-55 school budget.

Lions Hear Report on Convention

Enthusiastic with the magnitude and magnificence of Lions International New York convention from which he returned last week, Boss Lion Randall Whitworth, Tuesday made the Matador club's principal address in a detailed report. Mrs. Whitworth, who accompanied her husband on the trip, presented a colorful description of sights she witnessed in New York.

President Whitworth said he attended all sessions held in Madison Square Garden. He said registration showed 40,000 Lion delegates and their families attended what was acclaimed the greatest meeting of the service club organization.

He said Lions International now has 11,000 clubs in 58 countries, with a total membership of over half a million. Key members alone (eight different grades) now total 136,504. About half of the Matador Lions are key members. Reports at the convention showed that activities of Lions reported to International for the past fiscal year totalled 160,000. Lions International was organized in 1917 at Dallas, Texas by Melvin Jones.

Texas is now second in membership and was second in registration at the New York City July 7-10 convention. Approximately 15,000 marched in the parade (during rain) which required 4 1/2 hours to pass the reviewing stand. The Lions marched 33 blocks down 5th Avenue.

Announcements Made

Announcements made at the Tuesday luncheon (served by Floomot high school girls) included the club's aid in sponsoring an emergency polio drive starting August 16; sponsorship of an annual variety show in the late fall and Ladies night program in cooperation with PTA at the beginning of the school term.

Visitors introduced included: Mrs. Jack Norman, Dewey Rattan, Gerald Yeates and Lion John Becton.

Tipton, and in the home of a sister, Mrs. Douglas Meador. Conditions of Mr. Tipton, who is a patient in Stanley Hospital, remains about the same, with slight improvement noted at intervals.

COME TO CHURCH SUNDAY

TRAIL DUST

By DOUGLAS MEADOR

Drizzling their beds beneath the stars, acquired an intimacy with nature that often produced impressive sermons. They lived close to the grass upon which an eagle and lightning preached and the silent prairie at night was open to meditation. The breeze drifted softly in the chapel of dawn.

Remembering the hydrant in my yard one night recently after had fallen over it and removed a piece of rolled hide from my back, I admitted secretly the inadequacy of my vocabulary. With some reluctance I accepted the now bleeding evidence that most of my troubles are permanently located and cannot pursue that there is usually plenty of room around them.

Surely I have entered the estate of the parochial and fatuous with a marked revulsion at the sight of a mother attempting to hold a baby and a cigarette at the same time. I condone either as a separate project but together they conflict with my evaluation of propriety.

Once without food for over a day, tramping the streets of Los Angeles, I made an impressive observation. The brilliantly lighted windows of diamonds and other rare jewels lost their attraction as compared with restaurant windows which disclosed people in the alluring process of eating. Before our needs are satisfied our interests must subscribe to them.

Cultivating friendship is not difficult if the field has been properly prepared by the deep plows of compassion.

Many people use prayer with about the same frequency they grab a fire extinguisher after the advent of an emergency.

Science is still in its infancy until it perfects a nostrum to reverse in the alluring process of love malnutrition.

Religion is like a windmill. The source of its power is invisible but so evident the consciousness accepts it with a blessing of confidence.

It requires a little time to be courteous—about half as much as is needed to excuse an act of discourtesy.

Any faulty production is an act of sabotage against the general progress of civilization.

Fishing is about the most pleasant and inconspicuous method of loafing I have ever experienced.

BANK TO OBSERVE LEGAL HOLIDAY

First State Bank here will observe primary election day, Saturday, July 24, as a legal holiday, officials announced this week.

Patrons are asked to make banking arrangements in advance to preclude the possibility of inconvenience.

RETURN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Willett returned home Wednesday from San Marcos, where they spent the past several months with her mother, Mrs. T. G. Harris.

TEACHERS INDUCED TO RESUME FIELD OF FORMER PROFESSION

Recent state legislation, inducing teachers minimum pay of $402, has caused many former teachers to return to the field of teaching.

Richard E. Morley and Herbert W. Seigal, teachers, and directors of the Texas Teacher Placement Agency, 102 Adrian Drive, San Antonio, see other developments in the teaching field.

"The recent Supreme Court decision doing away with segregated schools is going to make it increasingly difficult for some teachers to be placed," said Seigal.

Meanwhile, placement of teachers is moving fast. Administrators, realizing the need for good teachers for next fall are sending the agency lists of their teacher vacancies.

"We've had requests from teachers who want jobs and superintendents who want teachers from all over Texas," Morley stated.

Board for reasons of its own, because Labor Board representatives questioned employees prior to voting, allowed union representatives to question voters publicly at polling places and for various other acts of misconduct and illegal procedure on the part of Labor Board representatives conducting the election.

The Court ruled that the NLRB had prevented the Company from presenting facts of evidence in behalf of its employees according to law. The election in question was conducted in December, 1951 by the Ft. Worth Regional Labor Board at the request of the union (IBEW) for the purpose of determining union representation of the 213 employees in WTU's Production Department (Power Plants).

Render Null And Void

The effect of the Court order is to render null and void the Board's certification of the union as a bargaining agent for plant employees.

In May of this year, a Company official said, 76% of the employees in the Company's Production Department, petitioned for decertification of the union as their bargaining agent. The petition, rejected by the Labor Board's Regional Director in Ft. Worth, was appealed to the National Board in Washington.

There the employees' appeal was again rejected without investigation by the Board stating the petition was untimely in view of this case pending before the New Orleans Court.

In censoring the Labor Board for the arbitrary manner in which its agents and representatives conducted the election and subsequent investigation, the Court said, "The Board and all of its hearing agents should understand they are not representatives or partisans of either side in holding an election or hearings in which representatives of employees is sought."

The Court also pointed out that the Labor Board is endowed with all three great powers of government, Legislative (making rules for procedure) Judicial (deciding the vital and important issues arising between employer and employee as well as between either of these and the union) and Executive (initiating proceedings for enforcement of its decrees).

WTU WINS OVER LABOR BOARD IN UNFAIR ELECTION

Abilene, July 12—The United States Court of Appeals in New Orleans, Friday, sustained the West Texas Utilities and its employees in their contention that the National Labor Relations Board had unfairly conducted a union election and had illegally prevented the Company from presenting evidence on behalf of its employees.

The NLRB's petition for enforcement of its order directing the WTU Co. to bargain with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers was denied by the Court which held the election to be illegal for the following reasons: 45 employee ballots which could have affected the outcome of the election were arbitrarily cast out by the Labor

FLOYDADA, TEXAS

Keep Texas Free!

VERY OFTEN in American political campaigns, the clash of personalities of candidates obscures the basic issue involved. Fortunately, the current campaign for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination in Texas is not one of these.

As always, this year's campaign features a number of minor issues, some of which have been blown up to assume an importance far greater than actually can be attached to them. But under the welter of claims and counter-claims, charges and counter-charges, there is just one important issue upon which the electorate shall rule, that issue is:

Shall the Democratic Party in Texas continue to exert conservative influence on the National Democratic Party's present control; or shall that conservative influence be stifled and the party organization in this State be delivered to the Northern and Eastern wing?

The two principal candidates, Gov. Allan Shivers and former District Judge Ralph Yarborough, have taken firm and unmistakable stands on this issue. Governor Shivers champions those Texas Democrats who would keep the party in this State free of foreign control and dictation. Judge Yarborough would have Texas Democrats "loyal" to all National Party dictates, even when those dictates are against the best interests of Texas and Texans. The choice between the two is as plain as the stands of the two men.

THE MAN who wins the Democratic nomination next Saturday will head the State Democratic organization until January of 1957. This will include leadership of the Texas delegation to the National Democratic convention in 1956, when once again the party will choose its candidates for President and Vice-President and write the platform upon which they will go before the people two years from this coming November. How the individual votes next Saturday will, therefore, reflect his preference as to whether the Texas Democratic Party will be run by, of and for Texas and Texans; or whether it will become a tool of the National Party leadership, dominated by Northern and Eastern extremists whose ideas of government are far different from those of the majority of Texans.

Thus, the Shivers-Yarborough contest is not primarily important as a clash of individual candidates, or personalities. But it is of tremendous, even paramount, importance as a clash of ideologies — of completely divergent philosophies of government.

Those who wish to keep political freedom in Texas, and thus avoid dictation from afar, will vote to re-elect Mr. Shivers, whose record as Governor, incidentally, is one of the best of our times.

Rev. G. W. Fulfer Tells Experiences As Navy Chaplain

Relating his experiences as Navy Chaplain, Lt. (jg) Geo. W. Fulfer of East Greenwich, R. I. was program speaker at regular monthly meeting of Baptist Brotherhood and Women's Missionary Union, held Tuesday night at the church.

The program was held in the church auditorium, following covered-dish supper in the basement and brief business session held separately by the two organizations.

Chaplain Fulfer has been on leave from Quonset Point, R. I. where he is serving with Fleet Aircraft Service Squadron 2 at the U. S. Naval Air Station. During World War II, he served in the Army Air Force aboard B-24 bombers, as gunner. It was after his return from overseas that he entered the ministry. Later, after enlisting in the Navy, he was based in the Pacific and saw service during the Korean conflict.

Drawing from his wealth of experiences in service, Chaplain Fulfer delivered a forceful and enlightening message to his listeners. He cited God's customary method of punishing His children, from Biblical times, and pointed out that should Russia, or the Communists, destroy America, it would be permitted as God's punishment for the corrupt condition into which this nation has slipped morally.

Family Together
Chaplain Fulfer is the son of Mrs. Velma Fulfer. He was accompanied here by his wife, and joined by his brothers and sisters and their families, all of whom were present at the Tuesday night meeting.

These included Rev. and Mrs. Norris Fulfer and daughters, Devona and Sue of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Fulfer and son, Mike and Miss Chloey Fulfer of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Newbury of May, Texas.

Two Women Leave On Trip To Mexico City

The trip is under the sponsorship of the Methodist church Wesleyan Guild. Mrs. Springer is a representative of the Floydada Methodist Church and Mrs. King is a delegate of the Roaring Springs church.

Meran Chuck Wagon Boss Gives Recipe For Top Barbecue Sauce

(By Pauline Laningham)

...you ever eat any son-of-a-bitch that's slightly altered phrase to be recognized immediately as an old-time cowhand, if barbecue is mentioned.

...could have gotten his recipe from Hugh Vinson, chuck wagon boss for several areas at various times, if you were at the Old Settlers annual here Saturday.

...of-a-gun is what most chuck wagon bosses vary the recipe for. A stew mixture of a sort of barbecue sauce is mixed to go with or as a beef barbecue.

...is no set recipe, it seems. Each wagon boss varies the recipe—but, basically, it is always plenty hot! Many don't even know WHAT it is!

...the best way to prepare barbecue, according to Vinson, is in the following manner: Cut up good beef in plate-size pieces. Cover liberally with seasoned seasoning or sauce; put these cloth sacks or cloth (depending on the amount prepared) then in foil packages and wrap all in clean burlap sacks and tie securely.

...wherehand, deep pits are filled with coals (mesquites), then burlap sacks are dipped in hot fat and completely under the coals, covered with dirt, and left 24 hours.

...the beef prepared here Saturday was put into the pits in 30 pound sacks. Vinson, who directed preparation of the barbecue for the celebration here, was born in 1887, and worked at local FW&D shops here in the started "cowboying" in the first at the Swenson ranch, working in the summer months with the crews, and serving as stand in the winter months. Few things are required, he says, for a good chuck-wagon boss—the best of cook stoves (wood-burners, that is) a good tent, and plenty of chow.

"You don't ever know how many hands will turn up for dinner, so I always fix plenty!" he said.

"Lots of time I guess I have thrown out as much food as I fixed. Sometimes, we fix enough for the regular bunch, and maybe as many as 10 extras ride in."

Chow for cowhands varies little. The basic dishes prepared at the chuck wagon are beef, biscuits, beans, canned tomatoes and coffee, sometimes eggs and bacon, or eggs with steak, and occasionally pork.

"But ranch hands don't usually like pork," the old-timer said "you feed a cowhand pork too long and he starts grunting like a pig."

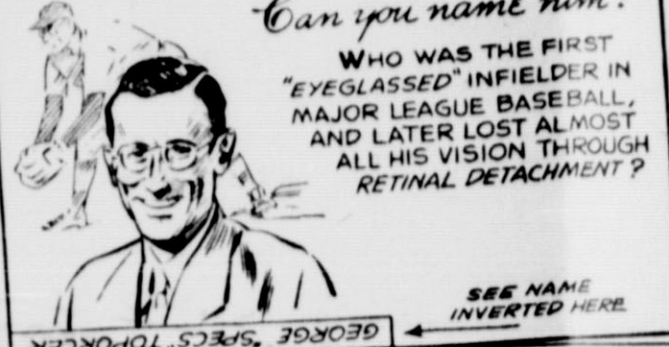

Vinson cooked during 1948-49, for the Pitchfork ranches, west of Guthrie. That is when his boss finally bought him "the biggest stove I ever saw!"

It seems that Vinson kept asking the boss for a good stove—the boss advertised, and delivered the big one. "He told me he got answers wanting to sell him all kinds of new gas ranges! I wouldn't give a good cook stove for all the cook-pits—they are too hot," he said.

At the Pitchforks, he cooked for 16 regulars, and could always count on extras. During the past few years, he has taken out a wagon during the busy months for the Matador ranch. When he isn't cooking, he lives with his "farmer's daughter" wife on their farm near Dumont. He bought the farm in 1923. —Childress Index

IT MAY BE SO

SHIVERS SAYS: That $425,000 real estate profit was legitimate free enterprise, BUT

THE FACTS ARE: In 1946 Shivers bought for $25,000 an option (right to purchase) some land at $75 per acre, and about 6 months later, after he had been elected Lieutenant Governor and after the option had expired, sold the option for $450,000 paid after he took office as Lieutenant Governor, to a thousand-dollar corporation which unloaded the land, unchanged, at $450 to $585 per acre, and settled out of court suits for fraud by some of the purchasers. WHEN A MAN NEWLY ELECTED LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR SELLS A DEAD HORSE FOR 18 TIMES WHAT HE PAID FOR IT ALIVE, THERE'S A NAME FOR IT, BUT IT ISN'T FREE ENTERPRISE.

SHIVERS SAYS: He alone got the Tidelands for Texas, BUT

THE FACTS ARE: Back in 1934, while Shivers was still in political diapers, Yarborough as Assistant Attorney General wrote an opinion asserting the title of Texas to the Tidelands, on the strength of which the first-Texas leases were issued on those lands and the foundation laid for their eventual recovery, and in 1953 he went to Washington at his own expense to testify for the Tidelands Bill. And if Shivers' Republican friends gave us back our Tidelands, they are taking away our farm program, have raised our interest rates, are starving our R.E.A., and located the Air Academy among the mountain peaks of Colorado instead of in Texas where it belongs—DID WE MAKE SUCH A GOOD TRADE AFTER ALL?

SHIVERS SAYS: There really isn't any insurance mess in Austin, and even if there is, he isn't responsible for it, BUT

THE FACTS ARE: (1) All of the Insurance Commissioners are Shivers appointees. (2) Another insurance company, chartered this year, has just gone busted because $200,000 of its $250,000 capital, approved by Shivers' Insurance Commission, was nothing but hot air. (3) Another busted insurance company paid John Van Cronkhite, Shivers' ex (he says) public relations man, $11,000—FOR WHAT?

SHIVERS SAYS: Without offering any proof, that Yarborough is the candidate of the C. I. O., BUT

THE FACTS ARE: (1) When Shivers ran for and was elected State Senator in 1938 in the District around Beaumont, before he married the Shary millions, he ran with the blessing and support of the C.I.O. (2) In this campaign, when Shivers speaks in West Texas he is against organized labor, but when he speaks down on the Gulf Coast where organized labor is strong, he is for organized labor.

SHIVERS SAYS: He gave you those farm-to-market roads, BUT THE FACTS ARE: You have paid gasoline taxes for years for those roads, and it is high time you got something for your money.

SHIVERS SAYS: He is down on Duval County because they rig elections down there, BUT

THE FACTS ARE: From the 1952 vote in the Governor's Race

County	Shivers	Yarborough
Duval	883 (40%)	2061
Kennedy	77	3 (5%)
Starr	3378	165 (5%)
Webb	6066	272 (5%)
Zapata	398	29 (5%)

SHIVERS IS DOWN ON RIGGED ELECTIONS ONLY WHEN THEY AREN'T RIGGED HIS WAY—OTHER WISE WHY DOESN'T HE SEND HIS STRONG ARM CREW TO KENNEDY, STARR, WEBB AND ZAPATA COUNTIES?

THERE HASN'T BEEN A REAL CHANGE IN ADMINISTRATIONS IN AUSTIN SINCE PAPPY O'DANIEL WAS ELECTED—LET'S WIPE THE SLATE CLEAN AND START OVER AGAIN THIS YEAR.

Greater West Texas

Here are eight items which Elbert Reeves will sponsor in his positive and progressive program:

- To introduce legislation creating a school law and recodification committee. This legislation passed the House last session but was killed in the Senate.
- A complete revision of Texas election laws.
- Corrective legislation pertaining to Texas insurance laws.
- Adequate appropriation for maintaining the recently-created commission on alcoholism.
- Maintaining adequate appropriation for the Texas rural road system.
- Fair and impartial treatment for both management and labor.
- Putting into operation a positive and aggressive water program for Texas.
- Since the spotlight of public opinion is the greatest deterrent of wrong-doing, Elbert Reeves proposes an annual financial statement for each school district, junior college district, soil conservation district, road district, municipality, or any agency collecting and spending public funds.

You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong.
You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred.

Injuries included two damaged ankles, one sore toe and a tummy ache. The Scouts were fascinated in watching the work of beavers in the New Mexico mountain area.

A chipmunk became a camp pet, staying with the Scouts throughout the Tres Ritos encampment. The small rodent climbs over the Scouts arms and shoulders and when sleepy, crawl into the nearest pocket. It slept in a special box at night.

The two Scout mothers joined the group with apprehension that they might not be welcome. Their fears were soon allayed. Their first assignment was to prepare hot water that would aid in restoring a sprained ankle to normal condition.

Two Different Political Philosophies

In the Texas campaign for governor two good and honorable men are opposing each other. They are both members of the Baptist church in Austin and it is hardly probable that either has any more evil attached to his past than the average man. Both, however, have done "campaign window-dressing" against the other. Both men are qualified to serve the office but they are not alike.

The actual issue in the election involves two opposite political philosophies. Judge Ralph Yarborough is a liberal and Governor Allan Shivers is a conservative. Neither candidate has any reason to deny his position. Governor Shivers has kept the state's spending within its ability to pay and he is stubborn to the extent that he refuses to be forced into any position by pressure groups.

On the other hand Judge Yarborough is a liberal in his views and in the event of his election, Texas will be under a liberal administration. If the voter feels that Texas should exercise more liberalism in its spending and that the state can more effectively function with more taxes, the choice is simple.

If, however, the voter feels that Texas has made progress under Governor Shivers' administration and that he has exercised enough liberalism during the period he has served the state, then he will support him in Saturday's election.

The Tribune is a small newspaper and its influence is extremely limited. Two years ago it took issue with Shivers when he allowed his name to be cross-filed on the Republican ticket, but it has found no cause to blame the governor with any mistakes of the Republican party.

Governor Shivers wanted the tidelands for the school children of Texas. He, in the opinion of this newspaper, bought them at the cost of making a concession to the Republican party, believing the people of Texas would approve his strategy. His enemies took advantage of the lowering of his guard. They never mention the 32 millions of dollars that Allan Shivers recovered for the school children of Texas. They refer, instead, to his selling the Democratic party to the Republicans. The Democratic party is stronger under Governor Shivers' leadership than ever before. It means something and the opposition knows Texas is no longer a "vest pocket" Democratic vote that is chained to the national party.

Other critics of Allan Shivers point to the third term as some fearful poison that may destroy the sacred cow of tradition. It is significant that if we elect county officers to more than two terms, district judges and attorneys repeatedly, and state and national legislators often for most of their active lives, that we will survive a good governor more than two terms. The people have an investment in an efficient public official.

Heat Causes Loss In Tomato Plants

Epidemic of death among tomato plants reported in this area is caused by the heat, according to County Agent Bill Pallmeyer.

Confronted with the identical problem from many gardeners, Pallmeyer appealed to Extension Service Horticulturist J. T. Hutchison. Hot afternoon sun is the answer.

Part of the reply is as follows: "Close inspection reveals that no insects are found on the dying plants, therefore the only cause for death is the dehydration of the young, sappy plant. Under conditions of high temperatures and high light intensity, it is difficult to get young tomato plants to grow normally. The loss of water through the leaves is greater than the root system can take up. The condition is further complicated when soil temperatures are high.

Suggestion is to place shade or arbor over plants so that it will filter the sunlight and protect the plants. Additional information regarding tomatoes may be obtained at the county agent's office.
