at the end of the 54th legislative session, when one widely known political figure took the adjournment as the starting signal for the 1956 races. He is former Speaker of the House Reuben Senterfitt, of San Saba.

Senterfitt was the first announced candidate for Governor in 1954. But he withdrew when his father passed away and Governor Allan Shivers announced for re-election. He took no sides in the bitterly contested campaign last year, nor in the presidential campaign of 1952.

Senterfitt's announced intention to run in 1956 set tongues wagging about other possible contenders for the Governorship. Mentioned were Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey of San Augustine; Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd of Gladewater; U. S. Senator Price Daniel of Liberty; Associate Justice of the Texas Supreme Court Will Wilson of Dallas; Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White of Wichita Falls; and State Senators Ottis Lock of Lufkin, Jimmy Phillips of Angleton and Jerry Sadler of Pecos.

Labor publications have said that Ralph Yarborough of Austin will make a third attempt to land the job. He campaigned against Shivers in 1952-54.

Others talked as "possibles" include Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby of Houston, wife of Ex-Governor W. P. Hobby, and present Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; Roy Hofbein, mayor of Houston; Robert B. Anderson of Vernon, U. S. Secretary of Defense; and County Judge Jim Sewell of Corsicana.

Prospects appear strong that State Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr., of Paris will run for lieutenant governor if Ramsey does not seek re-election. Probably in the running for that same office will be Sen. Searcy Bracewell of Houston.

Mentioned frequently as a candidate for Attorney General is House Speaker Jim Lindsey of Texarkana.

Capitol talk continues on the subject that Governor Shivers may step out of office before the end of his present term to accept a high federal appointment. This rumor cropped up again after Shivers' first assistant, Maurice Acers, was appointed by the Governor to serve on the Texas Employment Commission.

Should Shivers resign, Ramsey would become governor automatically. He then would have the inside track in the 1956 campaign.

Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, third-term member of the House emerged as the uncontested prospect for Speaker of the 55th Legislature. When the 54th session adjourned, Representative Carr held signed pledges of support from more than 100 members of the present legislature. No opponent had announced.

Sen. Neville Colson of Navasota, only woman in the Texas Senate, was elected President Pro Tem of the upper chamber for the period between sessions.

This means that she will have an opportunity, under precedent for a day. When this happens, she will become the second woman in Texas history to serve as chief executive.

Texas' first and only elected woman Governor, Miriam A. Ferguson, was honored with a birthday party by a statewide gathering of dignitaries.

Renominated and confirmed for new terms during the closing hours of the 1955 legislature were Adjutant General K. L. Berry, for a third term, and Mark Wentz, fire insurance commissioner, for his first full six-year term.

Session adjournment meant that the new tax law and hundreds of other statutes will go into effect on Sept. 6 or 90 days after adjournment.

Completed as one of the session's final acts was a law bringing 30,000 state employees under Federal Social Security as well as the state retirement system.

Another bill permitted college faculty members to enter Federal Social Security coverage.

Laws correcting and tightening up state regulation of insurance, increasing capital and surplus requirements on insurance companies, and subjecting insurance securities to state regulation, were termed probably the session's top achievements.

And the legislature left behind issues which promise to figure in state politics.

It projected investigations into the future on the scandal-ridden veterans' land program.

It failed to pass the key measure of the administration's water program—the $100,000,000 state aid to local projects.

It left untouched the issue of school desegregation.

The water bond measure was killed by the clock at sine die adjournment, in a bitter House squabble over the tax method to finance it.

But Governor Shivers said the legislature achieved 85% of its task—"a good batting average."

It made notable progress, he said, in such fields as insurance reforms, hospital improvements, public welfare and health, safety, and necessary financing for highways, old age pensions, education and general operations.

"On the whole," said Shivers, "this has been one of the best and most constructive sessions of the legislature in recent history."

It handed him a new tax bill, raising $28,500,000 a year for state operations and $20,500,000 a year for highways.

Both the House and the Senate set up committees to continue the Veterans Land investigations. Investigating committees filed reports. The Senate committee said that Governor Shivers and Attorney General Shepperd, members of the Veterans Land Board, hadn't been too punctual in attending board meetings. But it said evidence showed they had no part in the mishandling of the program.

Despite all the hullabaloo over Governor Shivers' appearance in California to make the commencement address at the University of Southern California, and threats to boycott the exercises, an overflow crowd of 14,000 attended.

The Texas Legislature had condemned California's "intolerance" and defended the Governor's record.

As the Texas Press Association was about to get underway at Galveston for the annual convention, approximately 200 members of the Horseless Carriage Club of Texas invaded the resort city on their second Texas tour, and momentarily distracted us from our entertainment.

The tour originated in Houston and proceeded to the San Jacinto Battleground and ended in Matador. The antique and show cars were on exhibition in the exhibit hall of Pleasure and on Saturday morning and through the downtown area.

The finest race horses have no attention from their owners these days. These ancient cars are being displayed and "rubbed down" after the trip from Matador.

Rolls Royce Pierce Arrow, Stutz, Maxwell, Kessler, Steamer, Reo and many other makes of automobiles on display and in the parade and their drivers were dressed in costumes popular 40 years ago, or in keeping with the era of their car. Every so often a motor would stop, the driver would climb out and go to the front of the car and start it up again!

An interesting and unusual sight was a huge hearse-like car. Declared to be the only one of its kind ever made, it was designed for the Mexican ruler, and manufactured in Germany in 1909. However, he was not privileged to use it, since he was forced to abdicate before it could be delivered. Described as the "first station wagon", the would accommodate 23 persons, was upholstered in leather, had a windshield designed to wrap-around effect, similar to those on modern cars today. A "land anchor" attached to the rear of the vehicle served as an emergency brake, and was used to prevent the car from sliding backward. This 4-cylinder, horseless carriage boasted 40 HP, and had been driven only 100 miles in its entire 46 years.

Afternoon the Horseless Carriage members staged a show which included driving contests, old time bathing, and a blindfold driving obstacle course. However, we missed all since we were aboard a boat about that time, cruising the Gulf.

Other entertainment of the convention included a tour of the ladies (and as many men as dared to go along) of Thomas Lipton, Inc. plant. Here, we learned how they fill the little bags, and from a very British young man, the art of tasting and mixing the various blends of tea. This was his vocation, and he had been trained as a tea taster. At the conclusion of the tour, we were conducted to the grounds where a garden party was in progress. Both hot and iced tea were served from a beautifully decorated table, where every kind of canape and sweets was served. Topping all this hospitality was the gift presented each person present: a large plastic thermo bag, filled with Lipton products, including three 1-2 lb. boxes of tea (two being tea bags) several packages of Frostee, and several kinds of soup mixes, which we didn't know the tea company manufactured.

Convention program speakers included Delbert Downing, manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce. We were glad of the privilege of again hearing Mr. Downing, who has spoken here at a meeting of the Lions club, and we heard more complimentary comments on his address describing man's quest for security, than on any other talk made, including that of Vice-President Richard Nixon, who spoke at the closing banquet Saturday night.

A post-convention visit to San Jacinto Battleground, and on to Dayton to visit our brother and family, and Mother, who is visiting with them, climaxed our 1-200-mile week-end trip.

panying the award reads as follows:

The enclosed emblem represents the weather service to your community and your Federal Government. You have added to our knowledge by faithfully observing the weather each day. Handle With Care Tractors are like horses—or mules—in more ways than one. They can be pretty tricky if you don't handle them right.

Too many tractor accidents happen because of carelessness. The day grows hot and drowsy, the job grows monotonous—and bingo! Someone forgets to throttle down when making a turn, or something, and there's a bad spill.

Credit Slim Hartman's missus for the fact that there's never been tractor trouble on their place. Midway through every morning and afternoon she brings him snacks. "He'll stay on the alert," she says, "if I get off the tractor for ten minutes. From where I sit, carelessness can cause plenty of harm in off-the-job personal lives, too. For instance, suppose a neighbor offers a glass of beer with supper. You might not share this particular preference with him—but you're careless about protecting his right to choose, your freedom of choice is in danger of being 'plowed under.'"

IT'S PERFORMANCE THAT COUNTS!

"My regular job is piloting a United Air Lines DC-7. On most of my flights we use Phillips 66 Aviation Gasoline. It's high-performance stuff, and one reason it's so good is Di-isopropyl. Phillips has started putting Di-isopropyl in automobile gasoline, too. They call it 'FLITE-FUEL'... and I use it regularly in my car. It gives wonderful performance."

Chevrolet's special hill-flatteners!

162 HP V8
180 HP V8

See that fine fat mountain yonder? You can iron it out, flat as a flounder... and easy as whistling! Just point one of Chevrolet's special hill-flatteners at it (either the 162-h.p. "Turbo-Fire V8" or the 180-h.p. "Super Turbo-Fire")... and pull the trigger! Barr-r-r-o-o-o-OOM! Mister, you got you a flat mountain!

... At least it feels flat. For here are engines that sing as sweetly as a dynamo... built to pour out a torrent of pure, vibrationless power. Big-bore V8's with the shortest stroke in the industry.

So most of the time they loaf. Even at the speed limit they just dream along, purring out a fraction of their strength.

An engineer can understand why they are so hyper-efficient. But you don't have to be an engineer to know that these are the sweetest running V8's you ever piloted. Just come in and try one out!

Top Attractions Slated For Fair

Galveston, Texas, June 11—The State Fair of Texas will play host to Texas newspaper publishers and their families on the traditional Press Day, which this year will be Saturday, Oct. 8, it was announced here at the annual convention of the Texas Press Association.

A highlight of Press Day will be the Texas-Oklahoma gridiron classic at 2 p. m. in the Cotton Bowl.

Other top attractions of the 1955 exposition will be "The Panama Game", Broadway musical comedy which will be presented in the Auditorium; "Ice Capades of 1956", internationally famed skating spectacle appearing for the first time at the Fair; color television studios and a color TV theater with a giant movie-size screen, and the Pan-American Livestock Exposition featuring 28 breeds of beef and dairy cattle, horses, ponies, sheep, swine and goats.

More than 2,000 newspaper publishers and radio and TV executives with their families are expected to attend Press Day at the Fair this year.

At the press association convention here, the diamond-studded key to the "Texas Treasure Chest" was passed on by the retiring president of the TPA to his successor for the 17th time. The presentation was made by W. R. Beaumier, Lufkin, to Russell Bryant, Italy.

The golden key will be used in 1956, the Fair's 100th anniversary year, to open the chest which was buried beneath a monument to the Fair's founders in 1938. The chest contains historical documents and copies of more than 100 Texas newspapers. The key remains in the possession of the TPA president for safekeeping.

Precaution Urged To Avoid Spread of Summer Diseases

AUSTIN, June 2—The summer season always brings an increase in the incidence of dysentery, diarrhea and enteritis, all of which are major menaces to the lives of small children, annually causing the death or illness of hundreds of Texas youngsters.

Dr. Henry Holle, Commissioner of Health, declares that the chief cause of these intestinal diseases are contaminated milk, water or food; allowing the child to get over heated or exhausted; excessive sugar in the infant's formula and foods that have been improperly refrigerated.

All foods should be clean and fresh and all leftovers should be refrigerated so as to avoid spoilage. The utmost care should be used in preparing the infant's formula which should, of course, be prescribed by a physician and his recommendations as to sanitation precautions and correct refrigeration should be implicitly followed.

The Commissioner of Health warned parents especially of the disease transmission by flies. Children in any home that is not free from flies are in danger of contracting dysentery or other intestinal diseases which may be fatal.

If dysentery or diarrhea symptoms appear in your child, call your doctor immediately. Dr. Holle advises. His treatment of the disease is your best insurance against fatal results, since such diseases are really a very serious threat to the child's life. Do not depend on home remedies for diarrhea or dysentery; consult a competent physician and let him start the safest and best treatment which medical science has available for combating these diseases.

Since society as a whole depends absolutely on the produce of the land for its present and future existence, society as a whole must share in the responsibility and cost of maintaining land in a productive state.—Dr. Hugh H. Bennett.

Soil erosion expresses itself as a deficiency disease of the land which begets deficiency of food, vitality, and higher values for peoples and nations.—Dr. Walter Lowdermilk.

"Let us never forget that the cultivation of the earth is the most important labor of man. Unstable is the future of that country which has lost its taste for agriculture. If there is one lesson in history which is unmistakable, it is that national strength lies very near the soil."—Daniel Webster.

"All the soil conservation science and research in the world isn't going to be of any practical benefit unless it is made available to the farmers and is applied to the land."—Dr. M. L. Nichols.
