

1946 Summer School Plans Are Announced

Big Days Forecast For All-College Rodeo

Tickets are on sale for Block and Bridle's rodeo performances, Friday, April 12 at 7:00 p. m. and Saturday April 13 at 2:00 p. m. at Lubbock Fair grounds; the dawn chug wagon breakfast and street dance, Friday morning at 6 o'clock in Aggie Grove; and the all-college Western dance, Saturday night at 9 p. m. in the gymnasium, according to John B. Wheeler, head of the ticket committee for the club's "Round-Up Days."

The student council is sponsoring student participation in "Round-Up Days" and has appointed Tom Douglass to serve as sheriff. He has stipulated the law as follows: "All persons on the campus (this includes faculty members, too) shall wear western attire Friday and Saturday April 12 and 13 or be subject to fine and punishment."

Sheriff Douglass has named ten deputies, who are: Gus Gailiger, Clyde Black, Lee Weatherford, Fred Cannon, Tom Pirtle, Joe Snodgrass, Red Miller, Joe Horne, Red Lawrence, and James Evans.

Sponsor Contest

Twelve women's organizations have selected a sponsor to represent them in the contest, the winner of which will be Rodeo Queen of 1946. Each entry will ride in the parade and in both performances of the rodeo.

Rodeo

"Deadline for entries in any of the contests will be April 8," says Ed Boaz, who is signing-up entries. A fee of $2 is being charged for riding and $4 for roping. Prizes are being donated by local merchants. Winners will be announced at the Western dance, Saturday night.

Contests include bronc riding both with and without saddles, bull riding, calf and ribbon roping, and a mad scramble. Boaz will be at the voting booth on the first floor of the Agriculture building each morning to accept entries.

At first the Toreador went to press, the following had entered contests: Tommy Taylor of Olton, bare back and saddle bronc riding, bull riding and mad scramble; John Murray of San Antonio, bare back riding, bull riding and mad scramble; Clinton Ritter of Lawton, calf roping and bull riding; Clay Jackson of Sweetwater, bull riding; Bob Magee of San Angelo, bare back bronc riding; Richard Hollingsworth of Houston, bare back bronc and bull riding; George Dean of Hamlin, bull riding; Roy Boone of Seymour, bare back and saddle bronc riding; Bob Mendenhall of Iowa Park, bare back and bull riding; John Martin of Lubbock, calf roping and ribbon roping.

Special features of the rodeos will be a match roping contest between Troy Fort who won the roping contest at the Levelland rodeo in March and James Kenney, winner of the contest at the 1946 Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth. Mary King will ride a bull as a special attraction. The Tech Matador band will play at the second performance of the Rodeo Saturday afternoon, under the direction of D. O. Wiley.

Student tickets to the rodeo are being sold by members of Block and Bridle for $1.00 each. General admission tickets are on sale for $1.50 by club members and at the cigar stands in the lobbies of the Hilton and Lubbock hotels and at Hop Halsey's drug store at 1219 Broadway.

Dawn Breakfast

"Round-Up Days will begin with a dawn chug wagon breakfast at 6 o'clock in the morning, April 12, in Aggie Grove. Jim "Big Foot" Humphreys and Joe "Texas-Slim" Meador will be in charge of the food served, it was decided at the last meeting to the club. Delbert Devin is to manage the Chuck

Root Named To Administrative Post Monday

Appointment of Trent C. Root, head of the department of accounting and finance, as administrative assistant to the president of Texas Technological college was announced Monday by Dr. W. M. Whyburn, president.

Root was nominated for the position by Dr. Whyburn at a meeting of the board in Fort Worth Saturday, and accepted the post on Dr. Whyburn's return to Lubbock Sunday.

Root, 45, who returned to the college faculty last fall after serving in the U. S. Army Air Forces more than three years, will continue to serve his professorship in the Commerce division in addition to his new duties.

Widely Known As Speaker
A graduate of Meridian college, Baylor and Harvard universities, Root has been a member of the Tech faculty since 1932. He holds a master of business administration degree from Harvard.

Root, one of the most popular men on the faculty, is in demand as a public speaker and has made numerous appearances at various meetings and sections throughout the state the past ten years. He has appeared on the program of the Southwest Social Science association; appeared twice on the program of the New Mexico Government and Business conference and has done special research work at the University of Colorado and the Federal Reserve bank of Dallas. He has published articles in leading financial publications.

Average Student Spends $500 Here Each Semester

Do you realize that you, the average student, are spending approximately $500 a semester? This fact came from a survey of the freshman students in Bus. 131 on the cost of the first semester. If these figures are true, then students are spending twice the amount they were ten years ago according to records handed in by students.

The average, from the estimated cost, was near $504. One student is living on $221 while, going to the other extreme, another student says he cannot get by on less than $1,075. The cost for 50 per cent of the students is between $320 and $580, whereas 80 per cent spend from $320 to $750. One tenth spend less than $317 and one tenth shell out more than $750. The lower 25 per cent estimate $320 and less whereas the top 25 per cent say $750 and more.

Does the G. I. Bill of Rights provide more spending money than Dad did before the war or has the cost of living risen to twice the amount of past years? At any rate if the cost continues to rise as it has for the past ten years what will you have to pay to send your son or daughter to college? It is no wonder scientists predict men will be bald-headed in the future.

NYLON HOSE, WHITE SHIRTS . . .

Senior Carnival Features Raffle, Boxing Match

Nylon hose and white shirts will be raffled as the main event of the Tech carnival, sponsored by the senior class. The carnival will be held on the first two floors of the Administration building tomorrow night at 7:30 p. m.

The raffle, sponsored by Lubbock merchants, will include such hard to get items as sheets, pillow cases, ties, shoes, bathing suits, white blouses, wool blanket, perfume, steak dinners, kleenex, identification bracelet, 10" record album, fountain pen and pencil set, meal tickets, 11"x14" oil portrait, picture frames, book-ends, billfolds, trade certificates, shaves and haircuts. Raffle tickets, on sale by members of the senior class, are 25 cents.

An outstanding attraction of the carnival is a prize fight featuring "Bloody" Billingsley, who stands 3 ft. 1 in. and "Shorty" Sneed, 6 ft. 10 in.

There will be a photography booth where 4x5 portraits are made for 25 cents, and a recording booth for making either singing or speaking 8 inch records for 25 cents. Other concessions are bingo, penny pitching, ball tossing, mice machines, weight guessing booths, fish pond, fortune tellers, "Nickel-a-dance" room, kissing booths, a cake walk, and a dart board. All these concessions are 5 cents and 9 cents. Several departments in the various divisions are sponsoring booths where examples of student achievement will be displayed. There will be booths for the sale of popcorn, soda pop, ice cream, candy, snow cones, and hot dogs.

The main entrance will be the north door of the Administration building, and admission is 9 cents. The general public is invited to the carnival, and members of the senior class will conduct tours through the building. Proceeds from the carnival will go for a senior gift to the college.

William Kapell On Artists Bill

William Kapell, gifted young American pianist, was presented by the Tech Artist Course Thursday, April 4 at the Lubbock High school auditorium.

Included in Kapell's program were three sonatas by D. Scarlatti, "Fantasia and Fuge in G Minor" by Johann Sebastian Bach, and Chopin's "Sonata in B Minor, Op. 58" consisting of four movements. Also on Kapell's program were selections from Dmitri Shostakovich, the "composer-laureate" of the Soviet Union, Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in E flat major," and three familiar selections from Debussy. The last number on Kapell's program was "Mephisto Waltz" by Franz Liszt. Kapell has recorded this selection and the six miniature compositions of Dmitri Shostakovich for Victor records.

Courses Will Meet Veterans Demands

Wallace Makes Statement To Vets Now Enrolled

SUMMER SCHOOL courses at Tech this summer will be offered to meet the demands of veterans, regular college students, who desire to make up work or get additional credit hours, entering freshmen and teachers who wish advanced work, according to Dr. Ernest Wallace, summer school executive.

Red Cross Unit To Be Started On Tech Campus

Tech War Veterans association, working in conjunction with Forum, senior women's service organization, is promoting the establishment of a college Red Cross Unit to work with the Lubbock county chapter.

There will be a meeting Monday, April 8, at 8 o'clock in the Aggie auditorium for all Techsians interested in belonging to the campus unit. Membership fees may be paid at that time. If the one dollar yearly membership contribution to the American Red Cross has already been given then there will be no further charges.

Mrs. J. H. Stiles, director of the Lubbock county chapter, will explain the need for a college unit in Lubbock and the services which such a branch may render in cooperation with the Lubbock chapter. Directory of the various activity groups in the local chapter will briefly detail the plan and operation of functioning committees and study courses.

Program of activities for the college organization will include a standard course in Red Cross home nursing, first aid, staff assistance corps, and a canteen corps. Summer activity will include a course in water safety. Other services will be in the motors corps, arts and skill corps, and nutrition. Finance, public information and fund raising committees are also services which the campus branch will execute.

The organization of this college group has been approved by the local Red Cross county chapter and the social activities committee at Tech. Those on the TWVA committee are: Jim Humphreys, Rabbit Pardue, and Charles Arnold; and those on the Forum committee: Aubrey Melton, Mary Frances Barnard, and Jane Watson.

Three File For Yell Leader Jobs

Doris Cornelius, junior HE student from Floydada, Dan Young, junior commerce student of Lubbock, and Alan Nelson, sophomore engineering student from Lubbock have filed application for the position of yell leader, according to Jack "Spider" Dillon, president of the Double T association. Other applications are expected, but they had not been filed at the time the Toreador went to press.

The applicants performed at the spring scrimmage of the Red Raiders last night; however candidates who did not file application before the scrimmage will not be disqualified. The deadline date set for receiving applications by the Double T association, which must approve all candidates, is April 20. Applications should be turned in to Jack "Spider" Dillon, 2406 Main.

Requirements for yell leader candidates are a C average and that they must have at least 60 college hours. Applicants must be approved by the Double T association before they are submitted for election by the student body.

Dormitory Contracts Awarded By Board

Construction of four new dormitories costing $4,001,145 and housing 1,400 students, and a $300,000 stadium seating approximately 15,000 persons was approved by the board of directors of Texas Technological college in sessions in Fort Worth Saturday.

Contract for construction of the dormitories were awarded by the board to T. C. Bateson Construction company of Dallas, general contractor, for a firm bid of $2,400,000; plumbing, heating and ventilating to Farwell and company, also of Dallas, for $557,467, and electrical work to Embury Electric company of Austin, $113,678.

After a Lubbock Chamber of Commerce stadium fund committee, with Spencer A. Wells, former Tech board member as spokesman, had appeared before the board and announced that Lubbock's $150,000 of the stadium fund had been subscribed, the board commended the Lubbock group for diligent work and at the close of the six-hour board session, announced that the directors had provided the $500,000 needed to complete the fund for the stadium. In a board meeting in Lubbock last December, Dr. Clifford B. Jones had agreed to purchase $100,000 in interest-bearing bonds which eventually will go to Tech as an outright gift.

Subject To Board's Approval
Details of construction of the stadium were placed under direction of directors of the Texas Tech foundation, subject to final approval of the college board.

Letting of contracts for dormitories occupied the attention of the directors throughout most of the day's session after it was revealed that the projects were to cost approximately $800,000 more than original estimates. Directors and newspapermen were puzzled as bids were opened and references made to "with or without escalators."

For several minutes, even members of the board thought that some provision had been made for installation of escalators in the new buildings, but the college architect, Wyatt C. Hedrick, revealed that the "escalator" clause in the bids meant estimated coverage of increased costs in material and labor. Final bids were accepted without the escalator clause.

Financing Awarded
Five bids were received on the general contract for the dormitories, six for plumbing and heating, and nine for electrical work. Top bid for the general contract on the dormitories was $2,640,766 by A. Farnell Blair Construction company of Dallas.

figures will be announced later.

Veterans Are Heard

Completion of the dormitories was tentatively set for Sept. 1, 1947 but all contracts are contingent upon the government's release of critical materials and approval of the projects, it was said.

Of the total cost, $229,000 was set aside for interest on bonds during construction; $210,000 for architect's fees and $500 for furnishings and equipment.

After hearing three veterans now attending Tech, Troy Davidson, president of the Tech Veterans association, Tom Douglas and John Wright, in an executive session, the board called newspapermen back into the room and announced that "the president had been authorized

Take It Easy—

The next month on Tech campus will be about the busiest in several years for a great number of students. That is, it will be filled with extra-curricular activities the likes of which the campus hasn't seen since pre-war days.

To start things off, the seniors are sponsoring a carnival, then a rodeo is scheduled for next week. And then there is the all-important varsity show. In between will be various picnics, outings, and socials of the various departmental clubs and service organizations. The social clubs will hold spring dances. The TWVA is sponsoring a big dance.

All these activities are wonderful for rounding out a college education. They add the needed experiences and learning that books would never give up. However, the purpose of these socials, dances, rodeo, and so forth, is not to monopolize the time of students. A Techsian is supposed to take a full course of school work, and devote only his free time to extra-curricular activities. In the past, as now and in the future, quite a few students will forget their studies in favor of something else. They will have the idea that this extra-curricular goings-on is more important than the MWF class that is requiring a term there, and consequently, neglect the prime purpose of college—in plain words—"book larnin'."

Techsians should remember their lectures in freshman orientation. They should remember that unless they are making a passing grade in at least nine hours they are not eligible for any campus extra-curricular activities. Of course departmental clubs would not come under this heading, nor would other activities that are connected with their courses of study.

A good thing to remember when thinking of these activities that will require a lot of time is whether or not the time spent will be needed to keep the term's grades up to par, and if not, will the activity mean more to the student than lowering of that grade.

Take it easy on those activities. If you can spare the time and effort and still keep up the grades, well and good, if not—slow down a little and think it over. College degrees are not awarded on varsity shows and rodeos—however, they surely add to a college education. A happy medium is right again.

2 . . . Another BY COUNT MEOUT

TOM MILLER has been seen with a certain campus lovely lately, and there is speculation among a few inmates of Sneed Hall as to this occurrence — could it be the beginning of one of those twosomes?

NELL WILLIAMSON receives our nomination for one of the cutest girls on the campus. She is such a lot of fun, too.

JOAN NISLAR and FREDDY BROWN have been seen making all the rounds recently. These two are so very cute and so perfectly suited to each other.

SUE STOKCARD and JOHNNIE GILMER are two of the jolliest girls in school. You can find them entertaining one and all over on the avenue most any morning.

The boys in Sneed Hall had a hill-billy jam session in their lounge one day last week and from reports that have come our way, it was a "howling" success, although certain music lovers fled to quieter retreats.

BETSY BAILL is one of the Count's special favorites. Her sense of humor and ready laugh is really sumpin'—always has a smile for everybody.

FRANCES CLONINGER and MARY FRANCES BARNARD were seen in town together this week, and nominate these two as a cute study in a brunette and a blonde.

Why does JOE ANN BAILEY go to the library most every night of the week? We don't believe that the reason is to study.

The April Fool edition of "El Cuspidor" was received with great joy by Techsians everywhere. The sparkling wit and subtle satire brought smiles to the faces of many.

DAVID HACKE is so proud of that swell pictorial feature of his hometown, Tomball, that the April issue of Coronet carries. Well, who wouldn't be proud?

What has happened to that most famous of couples, LUCILLE BURNS and ARTHUR SHAHAN? A little birdie informed us that this twosome will soon be, if not already, a thing of the past.

BOBBY SIMPSON, KENNETH WILBY, and JAMES WILBY are three of the most likable boys in Sneed. They are roommates, and hail from the same town, but each is in a different division. You should hear the arguments as to which division is the best.

BILL ROSSER has been helping a good with his satire lately. Well, that's one way to make good with that certain someone.

The mid-semester reports have quite a few Techsians worrying, but as the amusing KENNETH WOODS put it, "It's too late now to do anything about them." How sadly true.

Who is BETTY NANCE's admirer in Sneed Hall? From what we hear, he is really "gone" on her. JOE CRUMP, to our notion, is the typical Tech freshman. He is rather confused at certain happenings, but gets along fine and has quite a number of friends. And gets to class always on time — a sure indication of his newness!

MAIDY CLAIBORNE is just right for the lead in the varsity Show, for she is a girl with looks, personality, and is friendly to everyone. Her new boy friend is BOB PIRTLE.

Tech's newest triangle is that which concerns the blonde cover girl, YVONNE SCOTT, EUSTACE MELTON, and TOM PIRTLE. The question: Which boy does Scottie like the most?

Sigma Gamma's Initiate Members

Alpha Beta Chapter of Sigma Gamma Epsilon initiated six new members Tuesday night. Those becoming members were: Ted Alexander, Frank Visher, Maxey Pinson, Arthur Martin, Jesse George, Jr., and Charles Jones. President Lee Terry presided at the ceremony.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon is a national geological fraternity. This is the first time it has been active on Tech's Campus since 1943. Also attending the initiation was Dr. M. A. Stainbrook, sponsor, and Dr. Leroy T. Patton, head of the Geology and Petroleum Engineering department.

THE WATER TOWER

26 March, 1946

The Editor, The TOREADOR, Lubbock, Texas.

Dear Mr. Editor:

"Former Student" sure did hit the nail on the head on the subject of the water tower. If it were the wish of the Administrators that the water tower be seen by many people, they will surely get their wish, for no more than fifty-thousand people a day will have to put up with it and like it.

As one whose blood-pressure soars every time he walks across the Campus and is reminded of the fact the tower could have been placed just a few feet to the north and the Library would have hidden this wretched sight, I feel that this time the Administration has gone entirely too far. By this act they have shown utter disregard of the present student body and past graduating classes. I speak of the defacing of the Double-T Neon sign a gift of a past graduating class, and TECH's pride. What is the point of each senior class giving a gift to the College if it is to be treated so contemptuously by the Administration. One is not even aware that such a sign now exists—he only sees the water tower.

"Former Student" speaks of the "Campus Planning Committee." Where it is and who is on it, I have yet to find out. I fear that it is one of those mythical groups, like the "Housing Committee," to whom the Administration is so adept at passing the buck.

Yes, we have the water tower and within reason it won't be moved. The Double-T is ruined, so why not make the best of the two and place the Double-T on top of the water tower? In this table-smooth land it would be the object of view for many miles and might compensate some for the water tower's present location. Also, it has been suggested "make the thing revolve like the horse atop the Magnolia building in Dallas." It is the least the school can do out of respect for the students of the class whose gift is the pride of every TECH student.

Sincerely,
John F. Wright

BOTTLE SCARS

By LEON HALE
Toreador Staff Writer

The scene: lounge of a college girls' dormitory. Enter Gullible John, a simple character who was born in a pair of rose-colored bifocals and believes that even a West Texas duster has a silver lining. At present he is bursting with the spirit of the spring, as he trips gaily into the dorm and buzzes his girl friend, Mercenary Millie. While waiting for Mercenary to appear, he gets his kicks reciting seasonal poetry to the girl on the switch board.

Gullible John (recites with head held high and arms outstretched in a symbolic gesture):
Oh, what is so rare as a day in June?
A drink on the house in a Scotch saloon.
(Girl on switch board pulls telephone from wall and whams him thoroughly on the bezer, darn near killing him. Enter Mercenary Millie, whose fondest dreams are of harsh, on rye and sirloins well done. She trips flat-footedly down the stairs, sees Gullible John on the deck, and shrieks in distress.)

Mercenary: You Jade; What did you do that for? Now who will buy my dinner?
Gullible John (regains consciousness and moans): Mercenary, I am dying. I am happy that my last sight was of your angelic face.

Mercenary: Get up and let's go eat.
G. J.: Mercenary dear, let us not think of worldly things. It is Spring. Let us roam the fields and taste the sweetness of Spring's breath and capture the spirit to which April has given birth; Mercenary (snarling): When do we eat?

G. J. (shouts in ecstacy): Let us wander on the slopes of yonder hills and hear the busy drone of bees and harken to the whispering of the verdant leaves whose lips have been unsealed by the coming of the Spring;
Mercenary (yawning): I'm hungry. G. J. (tears of passion streaming down his face): Or shall we walk the banks of bubbling brooks whose waters wash the Winter's cloak from round their pulsing brinks and watch the gentle thrushes build the nests to house their tender young?

Mercenary: They have a special on pork chops at Schultz's.
G. J.: Come with me and tread the path of Spring;
Mercenary: Come with me and chow down.
(They chow down.)
Mercenary (smacks her jaws and orders dinner): I'll have everything on the front cover of the menu to begin with.

G. J. (rattles his pennies and orders): I'll have a large glass of water, two paper napkins, and salt and pepper on the side.
Mercenary: Ain't you hungry, Gullible?
G. J.: No, it is Spring. Doesn't Spring just do something to you, Mercenary?

Mercenary (spits an olive pit in Gullible's eye and daintily pops three pork chops into her jaw): Yeah, I get hay fever, poison ivy, and a good appetite.
G. J. (horried): Mercenary; Don't eat that. That's the pork chop plate!

Mercenary (nonchalantly): Well, don't be such a hog. Let me have a little salt and pepper on it. (Gullible John watches, fascinated, as Mercenary goes through three menus, plus dessert of sow belly and ham hock. He finally lures her from the restaurant by dangling a side of bacon before her nose.)

G. J. (carefully guiding Mercenary past a pop corn stand): Don't these Spring nights enthrall you? Just smell the freshness of the atmosphere;
Mercenary (drooling): Smells like fresh bread.
G. J. (steering her around the bakery): Look at that moon. The very essence of romance.
Mercenary (wiping her mouth): Looks like limburger cheese.

G. J.: Shall we see a movie? How about Spring Song at the Bijou?
Mercenary: How about Sirloin on the Hoof at the Ritz?

G. J.: We don't want to see the ham actor in that show;
Mercenary (crossly): But I like Hams;

G. J.: Mercenary, there is something I want to say to you. Spring has opened my heart. Mercenary, I love you.

Mercenary: Look; There's a new restaurant opening on the avenue; G. J. (passionately): Mercenary, when I'm with you the world is serene.

Mercenary: I wonder if they'll have specials on pork chops at that new restaurant?
G. J.: Mercenary, will you marry me?

Mercenary: Let's eat first.
G. J. (happily): Then you will! Oh, Mercenary, may I kiss you?
Mercenary: Yeah, but mind you don't wipe any pork chop grease off my chin. It smells good.

(Curtain falls as the two lovers embrace, and Mercenary pulls a pork chop from her stocking, sits down on the curb and gnaws away contentedly.)

Baking powder, when thrown on a small blaze, will decompose, producing carbon dioxide, and the acid salts will fuse and coat the burning materials and extinguish the fire.

Life With the Exes

Max Gray, Jr., of Seminole, former Tech student, is in the Navy by a flip of the coin. He went into service through the draft with two buddies. At the induction center the young men found a single navy vacancy. A flip of the coin gave the place to Gray.

Mrs. Lucile Blackstock Shinn, Tech graduate, is a candidate for county superintendent of schools in Terry county. She has taught in schools of Brownfield, Gomez, and Plainview and at Tech. She is a teacher in Meadow.

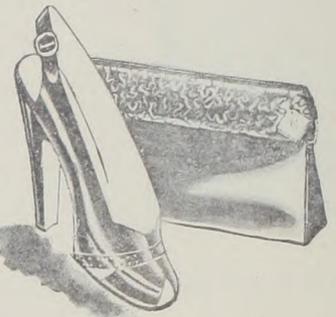

Capt. Robert C. Jordan of Abilene, 1941 Tech graduate, is on terminal leave from the Army after four years service. He will be released as a major in the reserve.

Robert O'Connor, Tech graduate recently was joined in Dallas by his British bride, Rose, and daughter, Susan, who docked at New York.

James E. Allen, Tech graduate, has been discharged as a Navy lieutenant and is continuing graduate work at the University of California. He served 34 months in the Navy.

Local Cagers To Hold Additional Spring Practice

At the close of spring football training at Texas Tech, the future Red Raider basketball team will be called out for more spring work, it was announced Monday by Burl Huffman, Tech cage mentor.

None of the 1945-46 Red Raiders squad will be lost through graduation and Huffman will have all lettermen and others back, as well as a select group of freshmen if the selective service does not step in to take its toll of athletes.

Reporting for spring training will be lettermen Jay Kerr, Odessa; Gene Hardey, Hugoton, Kan.; Tiley Snead, Idalou; Ardis Barton, Springlake; Allen Close, Vernon; Athol Craver, Elkhart, Kan.; Garland Head, Clovis, N. M.; and Roland Nabors, Lubbock. Squadmen on hand will be Clayton Roberts, Portales, N. M.; Tom Levay, Pochantas, Va.; Bob Lofland, Lubbock; and Willard Sutton, Waco.

Close, Head, Nabors, Roberts, Levay, Lofland and Sutton are returned servicemen. Kerr, Hardey, Snead and Kelley are in deferred classifications of the draft but their status may change. Barton and Craver expect draft calls in the summer.

Spring football practice at Tech officially came to a close last night as the Red and White teams of the squad battled it out in a scrimmage game under the lights, which drew hundreds of fans. The contest was sponsored by the Matarador club to show just how far Coach Dell Morgan and his aides progressed in drilling the freshmen, 1946 lettermen and returned veterans.

The coaches are more than happy with the manner in which most of the candidates rounded into shape and grasp the plays of the T system. Some of the stars of former years appeared to be almost back to pre-war form and indications are some of them will be even better than before they went into uniform, being older and better thinkers than when they left at youngsters.

Coach Morgan expects to mold his fall Red Raider squad from a combination of lettermen, freshmen and ex-servicemen who have not competed in college football to date.

Several potential new stars have loomed in the spring practice and strength apparently is present three and four deep in each position, a situation which has been lacking in the Raider camp for the past three years as Uncle Sam took players right and left.

A few of last year's lettermen seem to like keener competition and are better than before. Others, fans declare, must be benched to make way for the returned servicemen and incoming freshmen stars.

Raider Ex-Servicemen Could Show Grid Combat Ability

Spring training for Texas Tech football aspirants has shown Coach Dell Morgan that he could field a squad of ex-servicemen which give a good account of itself.

The returned veterans have demonstrated they can give-and-take with considerable joy in grid combats and much ability. Here is a squad of 37 which Morgan believes could do right well.

Centers—Red Coats, Odessa, decorated ex-Marine and 1942 letterman; Garland Head, Clovis, N. M., four-year veteran of the paratroops and 1942 letterman; Tuffy Nabors, Lubbock, three-year Army veteran and 1943 letterman; and Bobby Williams, Phillips, 1943 regular, just back from the Army.

Tackles—James Clay, Odessa, 7th Army veteran and '42 freshman letterman; Warren Cudd, Perryton, 240-pound Army veteran and 1941 letterman; V. B. Eubank, Lubbock, 6 foot 4 inch 250-pound Army veteran, Robert Harris, Mason, European veteran; Thomas Lee, Grapevine, 230-pound ex-sailor who lettered at Coffeyville Junior College Temple, 210-pound letterman of last fall, formerly in the Navy.

Guards—Russell Birdwell, Bossier City, La., 1945 letterman and former Great Lakes gridster; Don Orr, Graham, Army, letterman in 1943; Tom Pirtle, Lubbock, 1943 letterman and ex-Army man; Gene Rush, Big Springs, Pacific Marine veteran; Carl Smith, Falls, 1942 letterman and decorated European veteran; and Buck Terrell, Port Neches, Tulaie letterman in 1944 and 1945 as a Navy assignee.

Ends—Ralph Geddies, Dallas, 19-42 letterman and decorated hero of five Marine invasions in the Pacific; William E. Hall, Olton, Navy discharge and all-district guard for Olton in 1943 and 1944; Bill Mathis, Graham, returned Marine who helped invade five Pacific islands; Vernon Ray, Buckeye, 1942 letterman and four-year veteran of Pacific Army service; and J. A. Blackwell, Lubbock, four-year Marine veteran.

Backs—Thayne Amonett, Flomot, four-year Army veteran and letterman of 1940 and 1941; Freddie Brown, Burkburnett, 1943 quarterback who was on Saipan three years; Joe Bob Foster, Lubbock, 1940 squadman who spent four years in the Army, won many decorations and was a Nazi prisoner over eight months; Zas Henderson, Quanah, cavalry veteran of the Pacific; Dwight Hoskins, Amarillo star of 1941-42, decorated Pacific veteran.

Leete Jackson, Lubbock, freshman Tech letterman of 1941, Marine veteran and member of the 1942 Georgia pre-flight eleven; Melvin Johnson, Lubbock, former member of the Eighth Air Force; Dorrell McCurry, former Lubbock high school star and ex-flier; Maxey McKnight, Littlefield, letterman of 1941 and 1942 and returned Pacific veteran; Buster Melton, Merkel, two years in the Navy, letterman at Tech in 1942 and at Tulane in 19-44; Clayton Robert, Portales, N.M., ex-Marine.

Here And There Behind The Scenes Of Varsity Show

By BEA GREEN
Toreador Staff Writer

Sets for Varsity Show have been designated by David Chapman, student design, it was announced at a meeting of the production staff last Tuesday afternoon. . . . Betty Boulter, head of costume designing, reported that she and her committee have designed costumes for all but two numbers and are awaiting a shipment of ordered materials before they start making the items. . . . Maxine Hendersdorf who is in charge of lighting, reports that two flood lights have been spoken for and will be available. Oliver Ramsey will assist her. . . . Louise Ince found it difficult to hold rehearsals and keep up with Clay Woods, her fiancé, who came to see her last weekend. She is directing the acting. . . . Joe Meador, Duncan Ellison and Bea Green in charge of publicity have cooked up a scheme to make the Varsity Show pay off, they say. . . . La Vera Riley is chasing down props for the production. . . . has anyone seen any old campaign placards, pink elephants, boomarangoes or Wilkie buttons? . . . hope that didn't give any of the plot away.

John James Haynie has announced that his Varsity Show orchestra is selected and has had one rehearsal. . . . three of the numbers sent off for orchestration are back now and are being whipped into shape by both the singers and musicians. . . . Bunny Pardue was impressed with the publicity the Avianes gave V.S. . . . The Assistant Director (Anita Hale) and Stage manager (Duncan Ellison) enjoy rehearsals immensely — together, of course. . . . BeBo Diltz and Frances Cloninger have been concentrating on a Can-Can number that won't stop. . . . it should be one of the feature attractions of the show. . . . Joanne Crabtree, prompter, has been called in for the first act. . . . or in other words, the cast is supposed to know the lines for it by now. . . .

Third Ladies Night for TWVA was highlighted by a program of Tech talent last Tuesday evening in the Aggie auditorium, at which wives and dates of members were honored. . . . Appearing on the program were Poly Utts, who did an acrobatic dance; Macine McCollum, who gave an imitation of Betty Hutton; Sue Stockard, playing her octarinas; Dorothy and Gretchen Clift who gave a reading set to piano accompaniment; a song by Sue Son; and a song by Mady Claiborne. Jean Nee Smith accompanied Misses Son and Claiborne. . . . Besides the above mentioned there was a specialty number by Tom Jeffers, chef at the Drum bar-b-que Inn, and Charlie Booker, who works at the shine shop on College Avenue. The pair sang and danced.

Absence Rules Changes OKed

Approved absence rules have been changed from two days to one day according to a recent announcement made following a meeting of the Council of Deans.

The rule requiring that a student be absent from at least two days classes before a make-up card would be granted was installed at the first of this semester on a trial basis. Since a number of instances have been found in which the rule is not applicable, it has been changed.

Approved absences are granted in

Dowell Resigns Athletic Post With Red Raiders

Texas Tech officials have announced the resignation of G. C. (Mule) Dowell, assistant to Morley Jennings, director of athletics, which became effective Monday.

Dowell has been appointed sales manager of the Fenner Tubbs company and has assumed his duties with the motor company, his resignation being effective April 1. Dowell's move marks his return to the automobile business in which he has had several years' experience. In 1937 and 1938, he was a representative of General Motors Corporation at Oklahoma City and New Orleans and later was associated with Kuykendall Chevrolet company here.

Dowell was a star football player at Tech from 1932 to 1934 and played with the professional Chicago Cardinals for two seasons, 1935 and 1936. After his automobile business experience, he joined the Tech athletic staff in June, 1939. He entered the Navy in April, 1942, and served 19 1/2 months overseas in the Pacific. He was awarded the Legion of Merit for "courage in action" in the bombing of the escort carrier on which he served and in addition participated in six different engagements. He was discharged from the Navy last November and rejoined the Tech staff on January 1.

ROOT NAMED—

Texas Association of University Accounting Instructors, member of the Southwest Social Science association, member of the board of directors of the Lubbock Rotary club, president of the Methodist Men's club, member of the industrial committee of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the Faculty Advisory committee and sponsor of the Tech War Veterans association.

During the war, he attended officers candidate school at Miami Beach, Fla., and graduated first in his class at the Intelligence school, Harrisburg, Pa. He went overseas to England in December, 1943, where he was promoted to captain and was assigned to XIX Tactical Air command as counter intelligence officer. He was with Gen. Patton's army through France, Luxembourg and Germany.

Appointment of Root to the position fills a place left vacant by the death of Dr. Harry L. Kent, Jan. 7. Dr. Kent had served in the post from 1937 until his death.

Root is married and has a son, T. C. Root, Jr., also a veteran of World War II, and a daughter, Patricia Sue. The family reside at 2828 Twenty-second.

Tech Sharp-Shooters Win From University of Arizona

Tech's rifle team downed the University of Arizona marksmen this week by a score of 1932 to 1835.

Winning Tech riflemen were Audie Lee, Donald Black, Joe Arrington, Willard Brock, and Welborn Willingham.

The rifle team will fire its last scheduled match of the season with Louisiana State university next week.

cases of illness of the student, illness or death in the student's family, approved college trips and selective service obligations or veterans administration trips.

The cards must be returned to the office which granted the writ in one week following the last day of absence.

Congratulations To Mehitable

Bright spot in the lives of West hall residents last week was the blessed event of Mehitable, dorm cat. Mrs. Mehitable gave birth to four kittens, two brindle and two black, last Thursday. Although born blind, as is usual in cases of this sort, the kittens are reported to be getting along fine.

Residents of the dorm have unofficially adopted Mehitable and the offspring, giving the new family the best of care. A full course dinner is set before Mehitable not less than five times a day.

Temporary quarters consisting of an orange crate have been erected in front of West hall and Clinton McPherson, big-bearded veteran has offered to adopt the black kittens. Guardians are needed for the brindle kittens now. Official adoption will be as soon as they are old enough to leave their mother.

Anyone who can offer a happy home for the two little brindle females are requested to get in touch with Mrs. Painter, dormitory social director or almost any resident of that hall.

to extend services of the college to the fullest extent." No mention was made of any protest by the veterans on the housing situation.

Dr. W. M. Whyburn, Tech president, was also authorized by the board to "take necessary canvass among O. I.'s now in Tech and those planning to enroll and let them indicate what courses they desire to take in the approaching summer session so that these courses may be offered within the financial limitations of the college."

"We want to go as far as we can to meet the needs of the veterans," Chairman Chas. C. Thompson of Colorado City, declared in the meeting.

Other Action Taken

"I certainly think we ought to give the boys everything we can so that they can get out of school and get to work as soon as possible," John Collier, Fort Worth member, added.

The board approved a charge of $17.50 tuition for each six weeks of the summer session.

Approval of increases in the salaries of Athletic Director Morley Jennings and Head Football Coach Del Morgan to equal 10 per cent of the net football receipts not to exceed $7,500, and a minimum of $3,200, but in no case to exceed five per cent of the net grid receipts plus the minimum of $5,200. Three-year contracts were approved for both men.

Equipment Bid Approved

Approval of out-of-state travel expense for Drs. A. W. Young, Mina Lamb, and Prof. Ray C. Mowery and President Whyburn during summer months. Out-of-state travel for Dr. Whyburn was authorized to include necessary trips for employment of additional faculty members.

Approval of a bid of $48,920 by Breeze and company of Newark, N. J., for equipment for the library.

Approval of expenditure of $3,874.50 for repair and installation of new clocks in campus buildings.

The board also approved erection of a Quonset hut-type building near the Textile engineering building for storage of cotton and cotton research equipment, cost to be paid by the cotton research funds.

Official authorization was given by the board to the housing authority of Lubbock to take over housing facilities at Lubbock Army Air field for veterans. Tech had previously applied for and received authorization on the project and today's action was simply a transfer of this authority to the city agency.

To Confer Degree

Chairman Thompson also announced after close of the session that the board had voted to confer an honorary doctor of laws degree upon Tom Clark, U. S. attorney general. The degree probably will be awarded this June.

Accompanying Wells as he made his report on the stadium drive to the board were Earl Collins, Parker Prouty and Morley Jennings.

Officials believed that if materials are available work on the $300,000 concrete stadium can be started immediately with the hope of finishing construction in time for some of the 1946 games.

Attending the session were Chairman Thompson of Colorado City, Collier and Mark McGee, both of Fort Worth, Kyle Spiller of Jacksboro, Pat Mayes of Paris, and O. E. Ratliff of Lubbock, Dr. Whyburn and Board Secretary W. T. Gaston of Lubbock.

Next meeting of the board will be in Lubbock on June 3, Thompson announced.

wagon at the breakfast and on the campus when it will sell coffee and doughnuts to students between the hours of 7:30 and 12:00, both mornings of the Western days.

"Women sponsors will serve on the chuck wagon during their off-hours," says Roy Boone, rodeo manager. There will be a street dance between the hours of 6 and 8 for students attending the breakfast wishing to dance. Bea Green has been placed in charge of preparations for the street dance. A nickleodian will furnish the music.

Parade

R. V. Kelley has made arrangements for the rodeo parade to the fair grounds through downtown Lubbock, Friday afternoon at 5:30 p. m. "Anyone wishing to participate in the parade is invited to do so," he says. "Put on your cowboy clothes, bring your horse, or car, and fall in line."

The group will assemble in front of the gym at 5 o'clock and march around the circle, down Broadway to the arena. "There will be grand entry parades at the opening of each show," says Kelley.

Cowboy Band

A western string band under the direction of Ben Lowe will be in the parade as well as at the breakfast and Western dance. They are planning advertising trips to towns surrounding Lubbock, to publicize the rodeo and sell tickets, according to Boone, manager of rodeo.

Western Dance

Phillip Kilgman's orchestra will play for the all-college Western dance in the gym, Saturday evening, April 13 between the hours of 9 and 12. Western attire will be the motif according to Edwin Dawson, president of Block and Briddle, who is in charge of preparations for the dance.

Rodeo Queen will be announced and presented at this time. She will receive special awards. Winners in the rodeo contests will be recognized and prizes given. "Tickets will be sold at the door for $1.00 couple and $1.50 stag," says Boone.

English Fraternity Initiates New Members March 26

Four new members were initiated into Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, in a candle light service in the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Gates, Tuesday evening, March 26. Those initiated were Imogene Bagwell, Dorothy Clift, James Merriam, and Marie Hale. Mary Lou Rawlings, La Vera Riley, and Lou Nell Findley. The next meeting on April 26 will be a creative writing meeting.

Pre-Laws Plan Annual Spring Party Monday

Plans were made for the annual spring Pre-Law-International Relations club party at the meeting Monday evening. Members present voted for a semi-formal dinner dance at the Social Center at 7:30 o'clock on April 29.

Rodrick Shaw was selected to serve as toastmaster by the program committee. Members may bring dates who are not members of the club, it was decided. Special invitations have been extended to members of Pi Sigma Alpha, national honorary government fraternnity, and Drs. and Mesdames J. W. Davis and L. C. Riethmeyer. Joann Forbes was tried for felony, charged with stealing Dr. Davis's typewriter, by prosecuting attorney Sam Brown. Her attorney was Stanley Beck. Brown called Robert Pardue, Patti Hall, Jack Burdant to the stand as witnesses. Beck called for the testimonies of Robert Cole, Bea Green and Forbes. Judge Darrell Carpenter presided. Members present served as the jury, which found the defendant not guilty.

The most-used letters of the English alphabet are e, t, a, o, i, n, and s.
