BEAUTIFICATION PROGRAM

Over one hundred dollars in prizes and cash will be awarded to Santa Anna citizens in the city-wide beautification contest that was started in the early spring. The contest is due to end with the October meeting of the Mountain City Garden Club. This contest is being sponsored by the Garden Club and the Community Chamber of Commerce.

Even though we have had a record breaking heat wave and a continued drought for the past several months, we can be thankful that we have plenty of water and it is cheap enough that everyone can use all they want of it. This should be incentive enough for everyone to try to make their homes a more pleasant place in which to live. Everyone enjoys a beautiful yard, with flowers and green grass. It takes a lot of water to have these things and it also takes a good bit of work, but after it is done, you are proud of it.

It is just over a month before the prizes will be awarded. The judges in each contest have been making regular checks throughout the summer, and the prizes will be announced soon.

Seven prizes will be awarded for the best kept lawn with $10.00 in cash being the first prize; seven prizes will be awarded for the lawn showing the greatest improvement with $10.00 being the first prize; and four prizes will be awarded for the best kept vacant lot in the residential district, with $10.00 being the first prize. Lawn sprinkler, garden hose, yard tools, and various other items go to make up the other prizes.

From now until the end of the contest is the opportune time for each home maker to really put the finishing touches to their summer's work.

JIM DANIELL HAS GARAGE FIRE

Jim Daniell stated early this week that he decided last week to burn the dead weeds and brush around his garage and after thinking he had them burned off, he put out the remaining fire and did not think much more about it until a neighbor told him his garage was on fire. Approximately $200 damage was the result. Then he received our last week's paper and read the article urging citizens to be careful with fire and fire hazards. Jim said that he was intending to remove the fire hazards, but was just a little careless in letting some of the fire get by him.

As hot and dry as things are now, a fire could get out of control in very short order. We urge every citizen to be on the lookout for fire hazards and remove them where possible. Dry weeds and dry brush can catch fire and before you know it, can destroy a lot of valuable property. Be sure all trash fires are out before they are left and do not burn trash late in the evening or at night.

In the South Ward Craig polled 73 votes to 71 for Mrs. Durham. Culver polled 96 votes and Bell 37 of the 144 votes cast. Dies polled 140 in the South Ward.

Legion To Help Buy Television Sets For Deaf

The State American Legion is in the process of attempting to raise money to purchase television sets to put in the Texas State School for Deaf and they have requested each Legion Post to help. A quota has been set for each post in the state for $1.00 for each Legion member, making the quota for the Santa Anna Post $83.00.

At the Monday night meeting of the local Legion, the group present discussed ways and means of raising the money and decided it would be on a voluntary donation basis. The money is needed to be raised by October 1.

The local Legion post meets each 2nd and 4th Monday nights in the home, the former Ranger. Home in the park east of town. They plan to have some kind of refreshments to serve at each Legion meeting in the future.

Little League Ball Game Friday At Ward School

The Little League Baseball team will play their first regular scheduled game Friday afternoon at 5:30 p. m. on the play ground of the Ward School. There is a possibility of their having one more game before their summer's practice is over. There will be no charge for the game between the local boys and a Brownwood team. Everyone is urged to pay their respects to the boys and their leaders by attending the game.

John Hardy Blue has been the principal leader of the Little League boys through the summer. He will return to the University of Texas about the middle of September and this will end the boys' season for this year.

Through the summer months John Hardy has been coaching about 24 of the younger boys of the town in the principles of hard ball. Jim Harris has also been active in the work with these boys. They have been practicing each evening on the play ground of the elementary school.

These boys have requested the News to publicly express their appreciation to John Hardy for the time he has spent with them this summer. He has made the summer very interesting for these boys and they realize it has been worthwhile to them. The parents of the boys and other citizens also owe John Hardy a vote of thanks and appreciation for what he has done for the boys through the summer.

It is hoped, and plans are being made by the Lions Club, that this program can be continued next summer. Plans are being made for a lighted field to be completed and a regular schedule will be worked out.

Dove Season Opens Monday

Mourning Dove season in the North Zone of Texas, including Coleman County, will open Monday, September 1 at 12 o'clock noon. Open season will continue through October 10th. Shooting hours will be from 12 noon until sunset each day.

Game laws require that shot-guns must not be larger than 10 gauge and each gun must be permanently plugged to three shell capacity. A hunter is not allowed more than 10 birds a day and 10 in his possession.

In previous years the season was opened at sunrise and shooting hours were from that time until sunset. However, this year it is unlawful to shoot doves before 12 o'clock noon. Most other laws governing the season are the same as last year.

Local Hospital Undergoing Building Program; Opening May Be In October

Dr. Charles M. Henner, who recently purchased the Santa Anna Hospital and has moved here to establish his practice, is now in the process of making the hospital one of the most modern and convenient in Central Texas. Plans are to open the hospital as soon as possible, with the opening set for about the first of October. All modern medical conveniences are being added to the hospital.

Physiotherapy will also be practiced in the hospital and will be under the direction of Mrs. Allan Lancaster.

Plans are to make the hospital a 35-bed modern hospital, with facilities to care for every kind of patient. The south porches on the second and third floors are being enclosed and will be made into a convalescent ward for old persons who need hospital care. The operating room will be moved to its former location on the third floor and other departments on the third floor will remain the same as they have been.

The outside appearance of the hospital is receiving the most changes. The long stair-way on the south front will be removed and the second floor entrance closed in. The former drive-way is also being closed in and will be the X-ray room on the west end and the east end will be one of the most modern emergency rooms in Texas. The emergency room will contain two emergency operating tables and will have direct connection with the X-ray room and will be easily accessible to the main operating room. The waiting lobby will also be extended to the south front of the building.

Some of the other changes being made in the hospital are: the laboratory room has been doubled in size and so has the regular office space. The most modern X-ray made today is already in operation.

Dr. Henner's wife, who graduated from the Harris Memorial Hospital School of Nursing Sunday night, will join him at the hospital in the near future.

The hospital will be an open staff hospital.

Vets Urged To Have Copies Made Of Discharge

Veterans Administration today advised all veterans to have photostatic or certified copies made of their original discharge or separation papers for use in applying for veterans benefits.

Veterans with service since June 27, 1950 — the start of the Korean conflict — should have these copies made immediately if they plan to attend school under the Korean GI Bill this fall.

Post-Korea veterans can avoid delay in receiving their education and training benefits if they have their report of separation (Form DD 214) papers, which are acceptable to VA, copied before the original is sent to the Armed Services for mustering-out payments. Mustering-out payments are handled by the individual services and not by VA.

For most VA administered benefits, photostatic or certified copies of discharge or separation papers are acceptable. One exception is the VA-guaranteed GI loans.

Veterans applying for Certificates of Eligibility for GI loans must present their original discharge or separation papers which will be endorsed and returned to the veterans.

VA also asked veterans to make sure that in submitting photostatic or certified copies of discharge or separation papers that they submit copies of both sides of the document and not just the front.

Veterans who have been released to the Reserves since June 27, 1950, should submit their report of separation or certificate of service, since they do not get discharge papers.

Fort Worth — Heavy receipts again featured livestock marketing at Fort Worth and other points around the market circle. Prices of cows and bulls on Monday were 50 cents and spots $1 lower, and grass steers and yearlings suffered a similar decline.

Values were uneven however, with prices steady on good and choice fed cattle, and steady on good and choice fat calves. The medium and lower grade calves eased off 50 cents or more per hundred. High grade stocker cattle and calves ruled steady but the plainer quality was weak to lower.

The Monday reports from 12 major markets showed the biggest cattle run of the season, over 127,000 head, 28,000 above a week earlier and 54,000 ahead of a year ago on the same day.

Hogs topped at Fort Worth at $21.50, around 25c lower. Sows were steady at $15 to $18.

Sheep and lambs were steady, except some of the lightweight feeder lambs recovered some of last week's losses.

A few good and choice fed steers and yearlings brought $26 to $32, a package weighing 904-pounds from H. M. Erwin, Ladonia, at $32. Common, plain and medium kinds drew $15 to $25. Fat cows drew $15.50 to $18, odds higher, canners and cutters got $9 to $15.50. Bulls sold at $14 to $22.50.

Good and choice fat calves $25 to $28, plain and medium sorts $15 to $24, culls $12 to $15.

Good and choice stocker and feeder calves and yearlings sold at $25 to $31, a load from L. L. Edwards, Jack County, at 518 pounds at $31, and a load from W. M. and R. E. Shutts, Clay County, averaged 465 pounds at $30. Common, plain and medium sorts sold from $17 to $24. Stocker cows drew $14 to $20. Older stocker steers sold largely at $24.50 down.

Good and choice fat Spring lambs sold for $25 to $28, and medium to good kinds sold for $20 to $25, with culls down from $10 to $15. Stocker and feeder Spring lambs brought $10 to $19. Fat yearlings wethers cashed at $15 to $18, and stocker and feeder kinds drew $10 to $15.

Slaughter ewes sold from $6.50 to $8.50, the canner ewes at the best price at Fort Worth in several weeks. Two-year-old wethers sold at $15 down. Old bucks cashed around $6.50.

The Chief Clerk said the licenses will be available in practically every good sized town in the state, through license deputies, game wardens and county clerks. Approximately 2000 of the 2400 agents are licensed deputies, comprising mainly merchants of various kinds.

The Chief Clerk advised Texans to consult their game wardens or their licensed deputies or county clerks if they are in

Is Your Car Safe To Drive?

The nation's garage men think the number of unsafe cars on the highways is far too high. In a check made on more than one-half million automobiles, it was found that one out of every three vehicles is in need of maintenance attention. Heading the list of ten items checked is brakes. The garage men found that one out of every seven cars is being driven with inadequate brakes. One out of twelve had bad headlights, while one out of fourteen has faulty rear lights and one out of fifteen had steering or exhaust systems in need of service. A simple car check now may keep you from becoming a statistic in a traffic accident report.

C. H. Richards Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

Elder and Mrs. C. H. Richards observed their golden wedding anniversary at their home at 103 N. 5th St., on Sunday afternoon, August 24th. Quite a number of friends called between the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock, to offer their felicitations.

Three of their four children were with them. They were Arnold Richards and wife, Lubbock; their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Butcher of Ackerly; their daughter, Mrs. R. P. Barnard of O'Brien, could not be present, but her son, R. P. Barnard, Jr., and wife and Richard Paul, came. Their daughter, Ellen, of course was present and doing everything to make the occasion a happy one.

The receiving rooms were decorated with huge golden yellow chrysanthemums and gladiolas in the same tones.

Elder Richards and family have lived in Santa Anna for more than 20 years, where they have made many friends. A Primitive Baptist minister for 35 years, he has served the church at Eldorado 28 years of that time, and also serves the Santa Anna church and one in Fort Worth.

Mrs. Richards, the former Miss Mattie Hamrick, was born at Mt. Vernon, Texas, and Bro. Richards was born in Hood Co. They were married near Stephenville on August 24, 1902.

The refreshment table for the occasion was adorned with an arrangement of yellow mums and a large three tiered wedding cake, iced in white, with gold accents, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Golden hued punch and cake squares were served. Ellen Richards was assisted by Mrs. W. E. Vanderford and Mrs. Dessie Patterson in serving.

The honorees received many nice gifts.

Mrs. Richards, for the occasion, was wearing a gold lapel watch, a gift from her husband, also a golden yellow chrysanthemum corsage.

Julia Ann Bailey, Jonie B. Hartman Exchange Vows Sun.

The marriage of Miss Julia Ann Bailey, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Preston Bailey, to Mr. Jonie Barton Hartman took place Sunday morning at nine o'clock in the First Christian Church.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Reba Hartman of Midland and Mr. I. E. Hartman of Santa Anna.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. W. V. Priddy who played "Traumerei" and Lohengrin's "Wedding March". Preceding the ceremony, Miss Martha Priddy sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". The double ring ceremony was read by the Reverend Mr. Ernest H. Wylie.

The church was decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli set against a background of ferns. The bride's only attendant was Miss Gwen Ramey of Stuttgart, Arkansas. Her dress was blue organdy with matching headress and shoes and she wore a corsage of pale pink carnations. R. D. Hartman of Midland served as his brother's best man and Thomas C. Bailey, the bride's brother, was usher.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. Her dress was pink linen lace over taffeta with matching jacket and three-quarter length sleeves; her shoulder length veil was attached to a half-hat of pink lace. For something old the bride wore heirloom pearls belonging to her mother and carried her aunt's wedding handkerchief. A white Bible topped with an arrangement of a white orchid, white carnations and white satin streamers was carried by the bride.

The mother of the bride was attired in a charcoal nylon dress with black accessories and her corsage was purple asters. The groom's mother wore a navy sheer dress with matching accessories and a corsage of blue asters.

RECEPTION

A reception in the form of a coffee was held in the home of Miss Kathryn Baxter, with Miss Baxter, great aunt, and Mrs. John D. Davis, aunt of the bride as hostesses. Mrs. H. O. Newman and Mrs. P. B. Snook of Coleman, and Mrs. Norval Wylie assisted the hostesses.

Nancy Wylie was in charge of the bride's book.

The table was laid with a white organdy cloth, centered with a wedding ring, accented by a flower arrangement of white asters. Flat sprays of smilax uniting table appointments, completed the decorations.

The bride used a silver knife decorated with a miniature shower of pink ribbon and lillies of the valley to cut the tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The young couple left on a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in Denton, Texas. For traveling the bride wore a brown and beige orlon suit with brown accessories.

The bride, who is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Bailey of Eldorado and of the

The Statesman

Lesson for August 31, 1952

A POLITICIAN is a man who goes into politics as a man goes into any game—to win. He wants office, wants people to vote for him. Popularity is his stock in trade. A statesman, on the other hand, is not remembered for the number of votes he commanded, nor for the number of times he was elected, nor for the particular titles he held. A statesman's claim to fame is not based on what he did for himself, but on what he did for his country. That is why a "statesman is a dead politician." Some time has to go by, before it can be finally said whether any particular politician's career was good for his country or not.

Dr. Foreman

Achieving Unity

DAVID, King of Israel, has been dead long enough now so that we can with great assurance call him a statesman. We saw a few weeks ago (Aug. 10 and 17) that Saul faced much the same problems that face nations today, but failed to solve them, largely because he was the wrong kind of man. David had the same problems; but he solved them.

We must remember that David's times were a thousand years before Christ, so of course he was no Christian. Nevertheless, looking back at his achievements, history can say, Well done! Here lived a man who had what it took to lead his nation to have and to be what it needed to have and to be at that time.

What Israel needed to become a strong nation were unity and security. At Saul's death these were lacking, and of course that spelled national weakness. The split between Judah and the other tribes had never been healed. David secured the unity of the nation in a dramatic way; he captured the city of Jerusalem which had been in enemy hands for hundreds of years, and made that city, for the first time, the capital of Israel. He built his palace there (Saul's had been at Gibeon.) He brought the ark there (see lesson for Sept. 14), and intended building a temple which would be the central shrine for the entire nation. Through creating this new and centrally located capital, David achieved political, military, religious and sentimental unity all at once.

Some Wars Are Not In Vain

AS FOR national security, there are three kinds of it and David developed all of them. First there is military security. The only way to get it, for David, was to beat down the armies that had been beating the Israelites.

It is a blood-stained story; but still the question is a fair one: If David had lost all the battles he won, what would have become of Israel? They would have gone the way of the Hivites and the Gergashites—if any one knows where that is. A few scraps of pottery, perhaps, some fragments of ruined walls, something for professors of ancient history to dig up and wonder about,—that is what Israel would have come down to, if David's wars had not succeeded.

He wound up his series of wars with this happy situation: Every single nation or tribe that had been giving the Israelites trouble, was either welded into the Israelites kingdom, or made into an ally.

Other Kinds of Security

ANOTHER kind of security is commercial. A nation cut off from trade with its neighbors is doomed to be a poor nation, even perhaps a beggar nation. Out of the mass of proper names in these chapters about David's kingdom, four are especially meaningful: Edom and Tyre and Damascus and Hamath. The three latter were great commercial and transportation centers. Edom, with its border on the Red Sea, gave Israel for the first time a seaport on deep water, with all the possibilities that involved.

The reign of David's successor was to be one of unprecedented prosperity and international good will; but it was

David's statesmanlike policies that made the prosperity possible.

The third kind of security is more internal, and more a matter of the spirit than the sword, more of the mind than of money. It is the national security which can exist only where there is a united and unifying loyalty on the part of the citizens.

David had the rare gift which a politician uses for selfish ends, a statesman for the good of his country; the ability to make friends out of potential enemies.

DEED OF TRUST SECURES REAL ESTATE NOTE

In most cases the seller wants the cash when the buyer buys the house. Then the problem to the buyer is, how to raise the money? The answer is, borrow it. Regulation X of the Federal Government requires the buyer to have a certain amount of his own money on hand for payment on the house, if it is not older than a certain age. However, even to houses not under Regulation X, the buyer should have some cash of his own.

One item common to all loans is the promissory note. In this note, the borrower promises to re-pay to the lender the amount of money borrowed. Of course, the borrower agrees to pay the lender some interest for the use of the money.

The rate of interest can be as high as 10% and still be legal in Texas, but most lenders today charge about one-half of that rate. The rate of interest is usually lowest on those loans that are insured by an instrumentality of the Federal Government, such as Federal Housing Administration (F H A) and veterans Administration (V A).

A note usually provides for the sum of money being re-paid to lender in installments—monthly installments probably being the most common. This portion of the note is very important to the borrower as he does not want the installments to exceed the amount he can afford to pay.

On the other hand, the borrower does not usually want the installments to be too small. Small installments mean that the principal is re-paid very slowly and, therefore, over the life of the loan, the borrower pays more interest.

In regard to re-payment, if the note contains a provision enabling the borrower to pay the loan in part or in full prior to the maturity of the note, ("payment privilege") then the borrower can use his extra cash to reduce his indebtedness. Also, a liberal prepayment privilege may be very useful to a borrower if and when he desires to sell his house.

In order for the lender to have something to fall back on in case the borrower does not fulfill his promise to re-pay the money,

THE BATTLE FOR COTTON

Down in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, an all-out war is being waged against a dread enemy—the Pink Bollworm.

The battlefield isn't confined to the southern tip of Texas, however. It encompasses 189 counties, extending from Val Verde in the Big Bend to Orange County on the Louisiana Border.

The spoils of this war is cotton—the King of Texas Agriculture. The weapons are strict regulatory measures and practical insect control methods. And the battle has attracted the attention of economists as well as farmers all over the state, who realize that if the insect wins—then cotton can no longer be grown profitably in Texas.

Perhaps the first major victory will be won in the Rio Grande Valley Aug. 31, when cotton stalks in the four southern-most Texas Counties will be turned underground. This action will help destroy the winter breeding place of the Pink Bollworm. Three weeks later, 12 counties farther north will follow suit, as will the remaining 45 counties in subsequent weeks. By Oct. 20, all counties under planting and plow-up controls of the Texas Department of Agriculture will have done their bit to reduce the Pink Bollworm population.

The next step will be up to nature. With adequate moisture during the winter, the cotton debris will rot—and victory will be nearer—but not complete.

Due to the comparatively mild and dry winter last year, and to delayed plow-ups brought on by an acute shortage of labor, the Pink Bollworm build-up was astonishing. Actual counts in four counties showed thousands more "Pinkies" than in most borrowers are required to place a mortgage on the house and lot they are buying. In Texas, the mortgage instrument used is a "Deed of Trust" a complicated instrument.

In its essentials, it is a conveyance of the real estate by the borrower to a third party ("Trustee") for the benefit of and as security for the lender. If the borrower defaults in the payment of the note or defaults in the performance of certain promises made in the Deed of Trust, then the Trustee is authorized to sell the property and apply the proceeds to the satisfaction of the borrower's debt to the lender.

A free pamphlet containing useful information on legal problems involved in buying a home has been prepared by Texas lawyers. To obtain a copy, merely print your name and address on a postcard and mail to State Bar of Texas, Austin 15, Texas.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

1951. Representative sample bushels of gin trash from Cameron County had a count of 15,000 worms per bushel as compared to only 151 (correct) last year; Hidalgo had 3,000 as compared to 103; Willacy, 7,000 as compared to 13, and Starr, 6,000 as compared to 169.

The government of Mexico is combatting the Pink Bollworm with similar measures. With the co-operation of every farmer in the infested areas and over the rest of the state, we can look forward to crops comparatively free of the destructive insect.
