Thoughts

OF A COUNTRY EDITOR

BY JOHN C. GREGG

EVERYONE SHOULD VOTE NOVEMBER 4TH

Tuesday, November 4, will be one of the most important days in the history of the United States. It will be a day when every citizen of the United States has the opportunity to express his personal opinion as to whom they want to lead the country for the next four years. It will be the day when the President of the United States is elected.

The two principal candidates are Dwight D. Eisenhower, seeking the office as a Republican and Adlai Stevenson, seeking the office as a Democrat. At the present time both of these men are traveling over the country "slinging all the mud" at the other one that they can think of. Also Harry S. Truman, present President of the United States is touring the nation doing the same thing.

Personally, I would rather see candidates for high office, or for that matter any office, conduct their campaigns on a level much higher than our present day candidates are doing. Naturally, a candidate for the presidency is going to have his background gone into and ripped apart from the day he was born to as far in the future as the opposition thinks they can see, and I believe it proper that the people of the nation should know the background of each candidate. But, when both candidates go to stretching the truths, to the point of almost lying, I believe they have gone too far.

We know our country is in a peculiar shape at the present time. It would seem that it is in a deplorable condition after twenty years of Democratic domination. But, look at the condition it was in when the Democrats took over after four years under Herbert Hoover.

Mr. Eisenhower is a very new man in politics and if he would steer clear of Senator Robert Taft and Herbert Hoover, who are apparently going to be the big guns if he is elected, might be a good president for the United States. But these two men are apparently now telling him what to do and when to do it. It is highly possible that had the Republican Party wanted Mr. Taft to be their leader, they

City Rejects Gas Rate Increase

At a meeting of the City Council last week, the members rejected a rate increase in the price of natural gas used in the City of Santa Anna. The rate was proposed about August 5 by the president of the Coleman Gas Co., Scott Bower, and the city was asked to study the proposal for 60 days and give the company their answer.

According to Dick Bass, City Manager, the city council does not feel the gas company is entitled to any such rate as requested, which in an overall summary would amount to about 40% increase. They are doing all in their power to keep the rate at or near the same as it is at present.

On Tuesday, October 21, part of the members of the City Council, the City Attorney, John Harris and Dick Bass will meet with the State Railroad Commission to show cause to them why the rate should not be granted. A group from Coleman will also be present at this meeting for the same purpose in Coleman.

Mountaineers Meet Dublin Friday; Game Time Is 7:30

The top game in District 7-A competition will be played on the local field Friday night, October 17, beginning at 7:30, when the Dublin Lions and the Santa Anna Mountaineers tangle for top position. Dublin is sporting an undefeated record, and the Mountaineers have lost only their opening game to Junction. For a season record Dublin has won over a powerful Hamilton eleven 15-6; they won over a weak Goldthwaite eleven 44-0 and topped Class AA Brady 40-20 in non-district competition. Last week they barely edged over the Wylie Bulldogs 21-20. The Mountaineers lost to Junction 12-19; won over Brownwood "B" 29-0; won over Early 19-6 in non-conference competition. Last week they trounced the Bangs Dragons 32-19 in their conference opener. Paper statistics give the Mountaineers a slight edge over Dublin as the result of the Wylie-Bangs game. Wylie barely managed to edge by Bangs 24-19 and Santa Anna won easily over Bangs 32-19. Dublin barely managed to edge last Wylie 21-20, so on paper Santa Anna could be considered a one-touchdown favorite, but will be the underdog in the guessing games. However, we are picking the Mountaineers to win by at least one TD.

JIMMY REGION INJURED

Jimmy Region, a very valuable defensive end, was injured last Friday night in the Bangs game, and according to reports, he will not be able to play any more this year. The injury, a knee fracture, is not considered serious and Jimmy is in school and not using crutches, but the doctor has advised that he would not be ready to play anymore ball this year. Jimmy will be missed considerably by his team buddies and by the Mountaineer fans.

We certainly hate to see a boy injured while engaging in some of the sports during his school years. However, boys are going to receive injuries regardless of whether they engage in sports or not and we are glad that Jimmy's injury is not serious and that he is able to attend school and go ahead with his education.

CAPTAINS ELECTED

During the first games of the season several of the boys have been acting as captains for one game. Monday afternoon the team elected permanent captains for the remainder of the season. Gary Patterson, starting center and a senior and Melvin Pollock starting fullback and a senior, were elected as permanent captains for the remainder of the year.

Education Cost On The Increase

Austin — Inflation has hit colleges and universities like everybody else, University of Texas Chancellor James P. Hart told ex-students attending the University's second Alumni Business Conference.

"Even if we made no additions to or improvements in our program, still everything we do costs more than it did even two years ago," he pointed out.

Soon higher education institutions will be flooded with young men and women born during the 1940's, and all signs indicate a greater college and university enrollment than ever before, Hart added.

"Unless we are to deny these young men and women the same opportunities that preceding generations have been given, we are going to have to expand our educational facilities," he said. "It all adds up to the conclusion that we are going to have to ask and keep asking for more money for higher education."

The Main University, exclusive of extramural divisions, estimates its costs during each year of the next biennium at somewhat less than $9 million, Hart reported. Of this sum, about 87 per cent is expected to come from state general revenue appropriations, about 11 per cent from student fees, and only 2 per cent from federal appropriations, including veterans' fees.

Hart pointed out the University's tuition fee, set by State law, is $25 per semester, or $50 for each long session for each resident student.

Bed Room Suites, Living Room Suites, Dinette Suites, Couches, 2 small Tricycles, 2 platform rockers, Odd Chairs $1.00 each, lots of Used Heaters, Used Half Springs, McHorse Furniture, Coleman, Texas.

Mrs. James Lamb of Odessa and her son, Jimmy, from Austin, where he is a student at the University of Texas, were week end visitors with her mother, Mrs. Fred Turner.

R. L. Kirkbride took his mother, Mrs. Gertrude Beavers, back to Hillsboro, Tuesday morning, after she had visited with him here through the week end.

OCT-12-18 THIS IS OIL PROGRESS WEEK

Progress 1952

Texans have a natural interest in the oil industry, which is so important in our State, and in the progress made since Oil Progress Week was last observed.

Here are a few quick facts:

New Wells — During the twelve months ending August 31, 1952, the Texas oil industry drilled 17,000 new wells, at a cost of over $700 million. Most of the heavy expense of drilling these new wells was paid from earnings plowed back into the development of the State's oil resources.

Transportation — The total mileage of Texas' trunk pipe lines for oil and finished products is over 29,000. This low-cost transportation system is a major factor in the maintenance of the low prices you pay for petroleum products.

Production — Production has reached a record level. Texas currently is producing about 46 per cent of all the crude oil produced in the U. S. In the year ending August 31, Texas production totaled about 1,013 million barrels. There are now 133,800 producing oil wells in Texas.

Reserves — Proved oil reserves in Texas of 18 billion barrels represented 57 per cent of the U. S. total at the beginning of 1952. During 1951, the last year for which figures are available, proved reserves increased two billion barrels. These are developed oil reserves and the figure is important: developed reserves supply our needs currently and provide reserve capacity that is immediately available when we need it.

Refining — The Texas refineries will have a big year. They now employ, in round numbers, 46,000 Texans, and process about 28% of all the oil refined in the U. S. The daily refining capacity of all Texas refineries exceeds 2,000,000 barrels. A program to expand and improve these facilities has been general throughout the industry.

Taxes — The Texas oil industry continues to be the largest tax-payer in the State. Through the year ending August 31, gross production taxes alone on Texas oil and natural gas amounted to more than $137 million; in addition, the industry pays large amounts in other taxes.

HUMBLE

TEXAS OPERATIONS
Twelve Months Ending August 31, 1952

Wells Drilled	891
Average Production, in barrels daily	330,100
Employees in Texas, August 31	17,775
Baytown Refinery: Average crude runs to stills, barrels daily	249,310
Humble Pipe Line Co. operates 5,825 miles of trunk lines for oil and finished products, which had transported a daily average of 722,600 barrels in the year ending August 31.

In brief, the Texas oil industry during the past year continued to do its part in meeting the demand for oil. It has expanded pipelines to provide low-cost transportation. It has improved facilities for making more and better petroleum products for your use. Today, two gallons of gasoline do work that required three gallons in 1925; and the gasoline costs no more than it did then.

Local Farmers
Protecting Land
With Terraces

A number of the farmers in the Santa Anna area are protecting their land by building terraces. According to a representative of the L. & C. Terracing Co., who is now working in this part of the county, terraces in this part of the state seem to be about as valuable to the farmer from the standpoint of holding the water and letting it soak into the ground as is normally considered for keeping the land from washing away.

Ross Jenkins and Carl Templeton, owners of the L. & C. Terracing Co., have been in this business for more than 20 years. Jenkins is a graduate of Texas

A & M and served 14 years as a county agent. Templeton was with the engineering section of Travis County for many years and is familiar with what is demanded in good terraces. They have four tractors, two Hancock belt type terracers and five whirlwind terracers. They do a complete job of filling and building with full cooperation from the FMA and SCS. At present they are staying with Mrs. J. R. Gipson in Santa Anna.

Recent farmers who have used their services are: Ozro Eubank, Hosh Bros., Ben Yarborough, Viola Page Mayes, John Hickman, L. E. Storey, Rex Garrett, Curtis Collins, Frank Crum and C. V. Schrimacher.

The company has also built terraces around Burkett, Valera and Coleman.

Lone Star Jersey Cow Gains Natl. Laurels

Texas is the Lone Star State but her stars are many. One which has a particular splendor at this time is Orland Signal Vol. Sable, an eight-year-old cow in the Victory Jersey Farm herd owned by J. Chester Elliff, Tulla.

This cow has just been announced by The American Jersey Cattle Club as the national 305-day butterfat champion of the Jersey breed on her Register of Merit production record of 16,130 pounds milk containing 1,052 pounds butterfat. Although much of her record was made during an extended drought, she was able to capture the production title from an Oregon Jersey, Missionary Noble Alice, that had held the title since 1943.

The new title holder set quite an enviable record in 1949 when she produced 19,497 pounds milk containing 1,223 pounds butterfat in 365 days. Her recent record brought her lifetime production to well over 42 tons of milk. Her lifetime butterfat production is the equivalent of 6,353 pounds of butter.

Sable was bred by Orland Jersey Farm, Tulla, Texas. She has been in the Victory Jersey Farm herd since 1947 and has an official type classification of Very Good.

Kulp says a sharp upsurge in interest to Mexico, Canada and Alaska has been noted by AAA travel counselors.

"New and better highways, improved facilities for accommodating visitors and the old American urge to push on to distant horizons account for the travel rise," Kulp says. "Mexico now is spending more money on road construction than any other item in its national budget, making it possible for motorists to explore new regions of scenic and historic interest south of the border."

The AAA official says that AAA figures for the first six months of the year showed an increase in travel routings issued to Three-A members of 47 per cent to Western Canada, 41 per cent to Alaska and 33 per cent to Mexico. These still do not represent heavy volumes, as compared with travel to more traditional resort regions within the United States, but the totals are rising steadily.

The story, "Munity on the Bounty" is based on actual fact.

One of the prettiest yards in this vicinity can be seen at the Bud Simmons home, corner of Ave. C and S. 3rd St. Tall zinnias with giant blooms in a profusion of color, lantana salvia, dahlias and prunes' feather, form a wide border of color on the north side of the house. From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Our Town Wouldn't Take a "Back Seat"

Well, the "battle of the buses" has been settled! Our town is again friendly with Balesville.

Everything started when buses began going through our town with a big sign on them saying SHOP IN BALESVILLE. The bus line is owned in Balesville and operates over here on a franchise.

Windy Taylor was all for putting up barricades—he kept calling up the police and the bus company. Finally Judge Cunningham invited the Balesville Chamber of Commerce to meet with ours at Andy's Garden Tavern.

Over a good meal and glass of beer we all reached a compromise without any trouble. Those signs now read SHOP HERE IN TOWN. Everyone's happy.

From where I sit, it shows how problems disappear once both sides get together and try to work things out. Naturally we're all a little different. Some like soda pop, for instance, and some like beer. So what? We all have to ride along through life together. Why not make it a pleasant trip?

Sincerity

Lesson for October 19, 1952

SOME say an insincere person isn't what he seems to be. That is not quite true. An insincere person is what he seems to be, only not all the way through. He is what he seems to be, on Sundays, or part of the time, or when he's feeling just right; or perhaps he is what he seems to be, but only on the surface. The rest of the time, or underneath that surface, he is something quite different. Everybody likes sincere people, nobody wants to have much to do with the insincere.

Dr. Foreman

Getting Down to Cases

Jesus, of course, demanded sincerity. "Jesus would rather be denied by a true man than confessed by a liar." He did not use the word "sincere" or "sincerity," but (as was his habit) he came down to cases. He first shows that a generous giver, and a praying man, may be insincere. When is generosity sincere? When is a man all-the-way generous and when is he only top-layer generous? Jesus suggests that it isn't what we give, but why we give, that points up a test for sincerity. It is very doubtful whether Jesus meant to say that any one ever hired a trumpeter to toot for him when he dropped some money into the collection plate or wrote a check for the Red Cross. What he means to say is that when a man gives with the hope that his gift will attract attention and produce applause, he is not really generous. He doesn't have the recipient's interests at heart; he is thinking only, "How well people will think of me!" Or again, that odd saying, "Do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing" suggests that sometimes you are generous in order to please your favorite audience: You, you are generous in order to feel self-satisfied, your right hand (so to speak) brags about your left. The sincerely generous person is the only truly generous one; and the only sincerely generous person is the one who wants to give, not to be complimented, even by himself.

What Is Sincere Prayer?

Another concrete case that Jesus takes up is prayer. There is a story that once a minister was told after service: "Doctor, that was the most eloquent prayer ever delivered to a Boston audience." Jesus would say that a prayer delivered to an audience—Boston, Bombay or Barber Junction, no matter where—isn't a prayer, it's just a way of showing off. A certain professor of English used to quote famous authors in his public prayers: "As Shakespeare has said, O Lord . . . Thou rememberest what the poet Browning hath said . . ." Now there's no use quoting poetry to the Lord; that is suited to a speech, not to a prayer. Of course Jesus did not mean that we are never to pray in the presence of others. He himself prayed in public on various occasions. Leading others in prayer is a rare gift and should be cultivated. But while prayer, sincere prayer, can be with others and for others, it should never be to others. Some preachers "beat the congregation over their heads with a prayer" as the saying is. Some deacons have been known to put long and dull prayer-meeting talks into the form of a prayer. One elder well-versed in Scripture used to go through the whole story of the Bible, in outline, every time he was called on for a prayer.

Sincerity in Devotion

Jesus points out where sincerity is most important of all: in our devotion to God. We cannot serve God and Mammon. God does not want part-time devotion. By serving God, Jesus means living by God's side, under God's orders. Serving Mammon means more than simply serving money—most Mammon-worshippers would deny that they "serve" money. It means living your life not as God would have you but in order to "get ahead," to make money, to stand well with people who have money. Serving God means living as Jesus lived, for others; serving Mammon means trying to be served by as many persons as possible. Success, in Mammon's terms, is measured in terms of how many people work for you; success in God's terms, is measured in terms of how much you have helped others. Sincere devotion to God must be devotion all life through.

MINORS LEGALLY RESPONSIBLE FOR NEGLIGENT ACTS

When a person suffers injury due to some negligent act on the part of a minor, his usual reaction is to seek out the minor's parents to press a claim for damages, leaving them to deal with their offspring in their own way. It may therefore come as a surprise to many to learn that the minor himself may be held legally accountable. It is a well settled principle of law in the State of Texas that a minor, who by his negligent acts injures another, is liable in damages to the injured party.

Upon proper proof being presented to the court, a judgment for the damages inflicted by the minor may be secured in behalf of the injured party. In cases where a minor is thus sued for his negligent acts, it is necessary that the judge appoint a special guardian for the minor, known as a Guardian Ad Litem. The duty of this person is to see that the minor's rights are properly protected, and that he is adequately represented on the trial of the case.

A judgment secured in such cases against the minor is a valid and binding judgment which may be satisfied by levying execution upon any property which the minor may own which is legally subject to execution.

Should the minor have no property upon which execution can be levied, and satisfaction made, then steps should be taken to keep the judgment alive. There are means of keeping such judgments alive for many years. By doing this, and by keeping track of the minor, it is possible to make the judgment follow him until he eventually does acquire property subject to execution. Of course, there are practical considerations in a lawsuit against a minor. The most frequent stumbling block is naturally the situation of a minor having absolutely no property to satisfy any judgment which may be secured.

However, this lack of property in no way affects the right of the injured party to his judgment, which, as mentioned above, may eventually pay off after the minor reaches majority and accumulates enough property to satisfy the judgment.

Now, however uncertain this means of gaining redress for injuries may seem, in many cases it may prove to be the only method of collecting damages. For, when the chips are down, your chances of forcing payment from the parents are usually very slim. From a legal standpoint, there is nothing in the parent-child relationship which automatically renders parents liable for the negligent acts of their children.

In order to be personally liable, the parent must himself be implicated in some way. The rules which apply here are similar to those regulating the liability of an employer for the negligent acts of his employee.

Thus, although the law takes an extremely protective attitude toward minors and their contractual liabilities, allowing them many privileges not accorded mature persons, no substantial distinction is made with regard to liability for negligence.

TEXAS LIVESTOCK IS BIG BUSINESS

The Texas livestock industry, staggered by the 1952 drought, is certain to make a comeback. And with it will return economic stability in all sections of the state.

The livestock trend is shifting back towards the eastern counties, a territory it gradually abandoned in favor of the wide-open western area several generations ago when the grasslands were supplanted by crops. Many ranchmen in the West now realize it is becoming increasingly more practical to till a part of their land rather than to depend upon livestock alone.

But livestock always has, and always will be big business in Texas. In a recent typical year, Texas led all other western states with cash receipts from meat animals of $515,394,000. California, with $303,563,000 ranked second in regional importance.

Meat animals are the biggest factor in Texas livestock economy. In all western states, cash farm income from cattle and calves ranked higher than from sheep, wool, or hogs. The combined sheep-wool-lamb industry followed cattle in receipts but the value of hog marketings exceeds that of sheep alone.

Due credit for recent gains in Texas output of meat animals must be given to the rapid war and postwar rise in price of meat animals and above-average favorable weather for livestock from 1940 to 1950. The last two dry years made considerable inroads on profits, however.

Farsighted farmers and ranchers of Texas have increased their income through better management and care of livestock, effective disease and parasite control, and better feeding. These factors considerably increased calf, lamb and pig crops and reduced losses in the few critical days following birth.

In general, a more effective job of ranching and farming is being done in Texas. According to a recent report by a livestock research committee, the efficiency of breeding stock for all meat animals increased about 16 percent in a period of 25 years. In terms of more total pounds of output, cows and heifers advanced 17 per cent, sheep about 5 percent, and sows and gilts averaged 48 percent in the 25 year period.

The disaster hay buying program initiated in Texas recently by federal and state governments is designed to help stock farmers and ranchers maintain a level of economic stability during the drought. The setback experienced by a drop in prices and high feeding costs will be weathered in time, and Texas will again show the way in the west in high beef production and increased profits for farmers and ranchers.

Mr. Rayburn, You Forgot To Mention A Few Facts!

You made much in your talk at Brownwood Monday night asserting our memories are short—that we Texans have forgotten the 12 years under Republican administration.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that you were a member of the congress during the last two years Hoover was president, and that your party was in control.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that during that two years you and other members of your party were in control of congress the average price paid for Texas cotton dropped from slightly more than 10 cents per pound to slightly more than six cents.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that in 1939 just before the war scare began sending prices up, and six years after a Democrat became president, the average price paid for cotton in Texas was still only slightly more than eight cents per pound — or two cents per pound less than it was during the last year of a full Republican administration was in control of the government.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that General Eisenhower is in favor of returning Texas' tidelands back to Texas, while your candidate is opposed to state ownership of the tidelands.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that your candidate is in favor of the so-called fair employment practices measure which would send bureaucrats to Texas with authority to tell Texans employing more than a specified number of persons that they must employ a specified percentage from certain races.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that General Eisenhower is opposed to any compulsory so-called fair employment practices bill.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that the Truman administration has spent in seven years 21 billion dollars more than all the preceding administrations from Washington through Roosevelt, and that our taxes now are outrageously high.

You forgot to mention, many things Mr. Rayburn. You called attention to the many honors you have been given in the congress, but you forgot to mention that Texans sent you to Congress, have kept you in Congress, and it is to Texans you owe your success — not to Truman and his ilk.

You forgot to mention, Mr. Rayburn, that it is extremely important for all Texans who put principle and the welfare of Texas above all to

Texans For Ike Welcomes Support From Various Groups

Austin, Texas — Texas Democrats for Eisenhower are welcoming the support of various groups, such as teachers, veterans, and farmers, Claud H. Gilmer, Chairman, announced today. Frank White of Groveton, school superintendent and former legislator who was active on behalf of rural education, accepted the chairmanship of a Texas Public School Committee for Eisenhower. White charged "land-grabbing politicians in Washington want to buy votes in other states with our children's money." He referred to the tidelands, and added: "If we surrender this blood-bought heritage, we will have to answer to future generations for our failure in stewardship. In my opinion, the honorable thing for us to do is vote and work for Eisenhower, a native Texan who stands for the things we stand for." Meanwhile, "Texas Veterans for Eisenhower" formed under the chairmanship of Tom McHale of Dallas. The chairman announced that every effort would be made to contact a million veterans in Texas. "Veterans of all wars are concerned with performance, not promises," McHale said. "They look to Ike Eisenhower as a proven leader. Texas veterans have watched the Truman-Acheson regime turn victory into defeat. They know that the front line soldier is the forgotten man of 1952." Support of farmers and ranchmen was called for by Frank Hamm, Dallas County cattleman and dirt farmer. Hamm blasted the Democratic administration's claims of farm prosperity by stating that more than a third of Texas farmers earn less than $1,000 a year, four out of every ten Texas farmers have to take extra work off the farm to make both ends meet, and 53,410 farmers have been forced to leave their land during the past three years. Hamm said the election of Eisenhower would mean decentralization of control, put it on a level, and give farmers a chance to work out their own salvation without bureaucratic interference from Washington. The Dallas county farmer announced that he will talk on Texas Quality Network stations at 12:30 p. m. next Monday, October 20, when he will give in details his reasons for supporting Eisenhower.

would have nominated him at their Party Convention. It would seem now that the Republicans are working on the younger set of voters who do not remember much of the circumstances under the last Republican President. The Democrats are still working on the older set of voters and attempting to convince the younger voters of the hard times of the Hoover administration. There are a lot of other questions involved in the campaigns also. To us as Texans, the tidelands situation is a very sensitive question and I believe two of the leaders of our state have made it that way, actually more than it should be. The question of high taxation also confronts every tax payer in America.

So far as I am concerned, I would like to see the Federal Government leave our tidelands alone, because they actually do belong to the people of Texas. The problem of high taxation is a question that has a lot of angles and it is certain that under either the Democrats or the Republicans, the small income bracket of citizens is not going to realize any difference for some years to come. It would be impossible for one or the other candidate to get into office and immediately cut out a lot of the spending they are now doing.

If Mr. Eisenhower were to be elected as President and the trends of the nation followed the trends when Mr. Hoover was elected, so far as this writer can see, we would still have a lot of high taxation and for the life of me, I cannot see where money to operate on would come from.

We urge each of the voters to give some very serious consideration to these two conditions during the next few weeks. Do not be misled by some person or organization who is attempting to mislead you. Look at the situation from your point of view, study which one would actually be a benefit to you, in the position you are now in, and vote your choice.

improving their edifice preparatory to their Homecoming Celebration, November 2. New carpeting for the sanctuary has been ordered and will be installed within the next two weeks, and new mahogany doors will go on the entrance ways. The basement of the church has been repainted and will be remodeled in the near future. Several of the Sunday School rooms will be undergoing repair and remodeling before the project is completed.

Spearheading the project has been the pastor, Rev. Jack Payne, assisted by O. A. Ethredge, Lay Leader and Bill Griffin, in charge of floor improvements in the sanctuary. Mrs. Ben Yarborough, Mrs. Thomas Hays and Miss Ruby Harper were in charge of the installation of the stained glass windows.

New Scout Office To Open In Abilene With Open House

The Chisholm Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, will open their new Scout Office to the public at an open house Sunday, October 19, 3-5 p. m. All boys, parents and public invited.

Located at 3325 South 11th Street, Abilene on a beautiful wooded lot, National and Regional Boy Scouts officials who have visited the office say it is one of the finest in the United States.

Besides a regular business office there, there is also a large assembly room which will accommodate 100 people for training courses, board meetings etc. A small kitchen is available at one end of the large room so meals can be prepared when needed.

The building is constructed of haydite block, faced on the outside with slim red Roman brick. Inside, the haydite block is left exposed and painted. Asphalt tile flooring is over entire building. New steel furnishings have been purchased for the business office and assembly hall.

The building was designed by James D. Tittle, architect with the architectural and engineering firm of Tucker and Lindberg.

Albert McAlister, member of the Executive Board of the Council was the contractor. Harry Dobbyn, Nib Shaw and Paul McCarty was the building committee responsible for this outstanding project and urge all to come and visit the new building.

Junior Mountaineers To Play Blankett Here Thursday Night

The Junior Mountaineers of the Santa Anna Ward School will play the junior team from Blankett on the Mountaineer field Thursday night. The Santa Anna boys have played these boys once before and beat them 28-14.

This will give the Mountaineer boosters an opportunity to see what the future football team will look like. You are urged to support these boys the same as the older boys.

Usual Hazards Harass Ducks

Austin — The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission said the usual reports on botulism affecting waterfowl have been received.

He added that the drought possibly will increase the toll when the main movement of ducks and geese occurs this fall.

"Waterfowl encounter routine hazards each spring and fall", explained the Executive Secretary. "Pollution of waters where they stop to feed and rest is one of the more common dangers. This risk primarily centers around water areas polluted by nature, although there are man-caused perils."

"Botulism caused by natural causes usually is more prevalent during a dry fall such as the present. Then the decaying vegetation poison shallow waters which recede to subnormal levels."

One of the first reports on stricken ducks in Texas came from Amarillo in the Panhandle. Three small lakes near Groom about 45 miles east of Amarillo were affected. One covered about 100 acres. The others were smaller.

Scores of sick and dying ducks were reported on the lakes. Efforts to scare away the birds were only partly successful.

The Executive Secretary said there is not much that can be done in such cases. One way is to raise the water level to dilute the poisonous substance.

lineup. Two boys, Tom Bailey and James Singleton have decided to turn their suits in and not play football anymore. Both boys are members of the Senior Class. Jimmy Region suffered injuries last week and will be out of the line-up for the remainder of the season and Boyd French suffered injuries during the first game of the season and Coach Behrens said he would not be likely to play anymore this season.

DISTRICT BRIEFS

This week will see all eight of the District 7-A teams playing a conference schedule. In the top game of the week Dublin will journey to Santa Anna; DeLeon goes to Bangs; Cross Plains goes to Eastland; and Wylie goes to Rising Star.

Dublin, the only undefeated team in the district, managed to edge over the Wylie Bulldogs last Thursday night 21-20 to remove the Bulldogs from the unbeaten list and maintain top position in the district. At present Dublin is favored to win the district title by the syndicates who figure these things out.

Other games in the district saw DeLeon walloping the Cross Plains Buffaloes 59-6; The Mountaineers won over Bangs 32-19; and Gorman, playing without the assistance of their coach who was ill, lambasted the Rising Star Wildcats 58-20 in a non-conference tilt.

BANGS GAME STATISTICS

Santa Anna made 7 first downs and Bangs made 8; the Mountaineers gained 163 yards rushing and lost 4; Bangs gained 211 yards rushing and lost 32; Santa Anna attempted 8 passes and completed 4 for 101 yards and had 1 intercepted; Bangs attempted 17 passes and completed 2 for 30 yards and had 2 intercepted; Santa Anna fumbled 7 times and lost the ball on all 7 of them; Bangs fumbled 2 times and lost the ball once and made 1 TD on their fumble; Santa Anna kicked 1 time for 28 yards, Bangs kicked 8 times, had 2 blocked and made 138 yards on the other two kicks. The Mountaineers scored 1 TD. This is a direct result of a blocked kick.

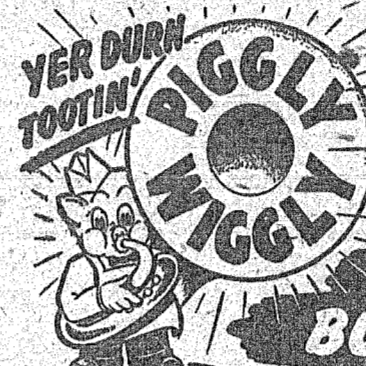

Early in the game Bangs attempted to kick and lost 22 yards on the play. On the next play from scrimmage, Charles Scarborough took the ball and went 22 yards for the first Santa Anna TD. Melvin Pollock missed the extra point. Later in the same period Bangs recovered a Mountaineer fumble on their 35 yard line and started a drive for their first score which came early in the second period, with Johnnie Pierce going over from the 11 yard line. Ronnie Hallford kicked the extra point and Bangs took a 7-6 lead. After Bangs recovered another Santa Anna fumble they kicked out of bounds on their 21 yard line. Five plays later Pollock went over for the second Mountaineer TD, after Dean Bass connected with a pass to Jay Steward for 51 yards, setting up the TD. In the next series of downs Bangs attempted a pass and Charles McClellan intercepted it and returned it 21 yards before being overtaken from behind. Bass passed to Pollock for 19 yards and then Pollock went over for the third TD. Bass kicked both extra points, making the half end 20-7 for Santa Anna.

No scores were made in the third period but Bangs recovered a Mountaineer fumble on the Bangs 35 yard line and started another drive that ended on the Mountaineer 2, where Bangs fumbled and Randall Grooms recovered it for a Bangs TD early in the fourth period. The Mountaineers took the kickoff on their 28 yard line and Pollock went over from the 5 yard line five plays later. In the following series of downs Bangs attempted to kick and Aubrey Goodwin blocked the kick and Bill Jack Harris picked the ball up on the Bangs 23 yard line and went over the goal untouched for the final Mountaineer TD. Bangs making a desperate attempt to score again started passing. In the following downs they recovered another Mountaineer fumble and after working their way down to the 6-inch line, Dub Jenning carried the ball over for their final TD. Bangs made an on-side kick for the kick-off and the Mountaineers fumbled and gave them the ball again. A series of 5 passes put them on the 29 yard line and a ground play put Bangs on the 13 yard line as the game ended.
