Thoughts

OF A COUNTRY EDITOR

BY JOHN C. GREGG

ACKNOWLEDGE LETTER

We wish to acknowledge a letter from Mr. Guy Epps of Rockport, Texas, in response to the column carried under this head last week. We would publish the letter, but it is too long and would require more space than we can afford at the present time.

Mr. Epps apparently was shooting at your editor for my thoughts about Governor Allan Shivers, whose name I did not mention, and at anyone else who does not intend to vote for General Eisenhower.

In way of information to Mr. Epps and others who favor the actions of our governor and Senator-elect Price Daniels, they have both lost a lot of prestige in this part of Texas, mostly among the rural areas. Regardless of how they stand on the presidential issue, they were both elected as Democrats and if they are not going to support the Democratic nominees, they should be very quiet about it. No doubt they will serve in the capacities they have been elected to as Democrats, but I would venture a guess that both their political futures have not been benefited by the stand they are taking.

Most of the citizens of this area who have expressed opinions to this writer seem to think Governor Shivers is not the friend to the little, or small income, farmer that he would like to indicate. Also a lot of the Farm-to-Market road talk put out in his campaign for re-election may not have been exactly false but it sure was misleading and another of his campaign issue was the increase of $5.00 in the Old-Age Assistance that came in October which, as best as I can determine, Governor Shivers did not have one thing to do with. Apparently he also used a personal grudge to hold up contracts for the Drought Relief Hay that is now being shipped to numerous parts of Texas.

The primary issue on which Governor Shivers and Price Daniels are fighting the Democratic Party over is the Tide Lands Issue. We admit that

Auto Accident Near County Line Saturday Night

Three persons were injured and a total of $1,850 damage was estimated in a car-pick up accident Saturday at 6:30 just east of the Coleman-Brown county line. Sheriff Ray Masters of Brownwood, investigating the accident, said a 1951 Ford pick-up driven by James Stephens of Eastland was hit by a 1950 Mercury, driven by Fred S. Kyle of Ft. Worth.

According to Masters, Kyle made a U-turn in the highway, hitting the Stephens vehicle and causing it to overturn two or three times.

Mrs. Stephens received a broken leg and broken pelvis and cuts; their 15-year-old daughter, Barbara Ann, suffered lacerations and head injuries. Mr. Stephens received bruises on the back and ribs.

Charges of driving while intoxicated and assault with a motor vehicle were filed by Masters against Kyle. Kyle posted $2,000 bond on each count. He was not injured.

Damage to the pick-up was estimated at $1,500 and the Mercury at $350.

Methodist Training School Acclaimed A Big Success

The recent Church School Workers Training School sponsored by the First Methodist Church has been acclaimed a success by its directors. The school attracted some fifty church school teachers of Methodist Churches in this county.

The school was held in the basement of the First Baptist Church because of the remodeling project in the Methodist building.

Mrs. John Hambright of Talpa spent several days at the week end with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Jones. Sunday visitors in the Jones home were, Joe Denton and Kirk Berger of Brownwood.

David Pinkerton, a student at Tarleton State College, visited several days at the week end, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Pinkerton.

Noted Children's Worker To Be In Rising Star Soon

Miss Mary Alice Jones, noted child training expert and a member of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church, Nashville, Tennessee, will be at the First Methodist Church, Rising Star, Thursday, October 30, from two until 5:30 p. m. Miss Jones is meeting with church school workers of children's classes in this area and this meeting will be her third of that week in Central Texas.

Miss Jones has written a number of best selling children's works including the series, "Tell Me About God", "Tell Me About the Bible", "Tell Me About Jesus" and "Tell Me About Prayer."

Among ladies who are expected to attend from here are, Mrs. O. A. Etheredge, Mrs. Jack Payne, Miss Elsie Lee Harper, and Mrs. Blanche Grantham.

Capacity Crowd Sees Lions Negro Minstrel

A capacity crowd attended the Santa Anna Lions Club Negro Minstrel at the high school auditorium Tuesday night. Exact amount of proceeds has not been determined, but apparently the Lions Club will make a fair sum of money from the returns that have come in by Wednesday morning.

S. M. Fellers Finds Large Balloon Thurs.

Mr. S. M. Fellers found a large balloon in his field 3 miles west of Trickham last Thursday morning. The balloon was red and had a white paper kite attached to it. Also with the balloon was a small battery about the size of a cigarette lighter and a small light bulb. The find is apparently a weather balloon from the air base at San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Biggs of Ft. Worth came on Friday of last week for a week end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bartlett. On Monday, Mr. Bartlett and Mrs. Biggs took Mrs. Bartlett to a hospital in Temple for further observation and examination.

M. L. Guthrie, Sr., is able to be out and around again, after quite a siege of pneumonia at his home.

Mountaineers Lose to Dublin Hosts to Eastland Friday

The Dublin Lions took advantage of three breaks and therefore outscored the Santa Anna Mountaineers 3 touchdowns in the second conference game for both teams last Friday night at Mountaineers Stadium. Had it not been for the hard luck, the Mountaineers would no doubt have been on top end of the score when the game was over. Early in the first period the Mountaineers fumbled on the Dublin 2-yard line that cost them a score; midway in the second period the Lions intercepted a Santa Anna pass and went all the way to pay dirt; and early in the fourth period the Lions recovered a Mountaineer fumble on the Santa Anna 3-yard line which set-up another score for Dublin. The final score was Dublin 33, Santa Anna 13.

This week the Mountaineers will play hosts to the Eastland Mavericks, another team that is playing their first year in Class A football. In the past the Mavericks have been in Class AA, the same as Dublin, and they are going to be another big hurdle for the Mountaineers. Although they have a 2-3 record, their three losses have been to powerful Class AA teams. Eastland first lost to Class AA, then to Coleman 40-0 and to powerful Red-ger 0-47, all Class AA teams. In district competition they won over Rising Star 7-0 and last week took Cross Plains 12-7. So far as district competition is concerned, at the present they are rated with Dublin and DeLeon, all three having won 2 district games and lost none.

Game time for the Santa Anna-Eastland game is 7:30 on the local field.

DISTRICT BRIEFS

Dublin remained the only undefeated team in District 7-A by defeating the Mountaineers 33-13 Friday night; Eastland overpowered Cross Plains 12-7 in a rough game with halfback J. D. Hanson scoring in the second and third quarters on running plays; the favored DeLeon Bearcats continued their winning ways by blanking the Bangs Dragons 28-0; and the Rising Star Wildcats slipped one over on the Wylie Bulldogs by beating them 20-14 in the upset of the week.

All the district teams will be engaged in district play this week end with Bangs going to Rising Star; Cross Plains traveling to Dublin; Wylie going to DeLeon; and Eastland coming to Santa Anna. The Wylie-DeLeon game is considered the top game of the district this week.

DUBLIN GAME STATISTICS

Santa Anna made 14 first downs to 9 for Dublin; the Mountaineers gained 226 yards rushing and lost 15 yards, while Dublin made 302 yards rushing and lost 4; the Mountaineers attempted 10 passes, completed 3 for 127 yards and Dublin attempted 4 passes and none were completed; the Mountaineers had one pass intercepted; the Mountaineers fumbled four times and recovered one of their own fumbles and one Lion fumble, Dublin fumbled one time

County Votes To Buy Road Right-of-Ways

New County Judge

WALTER K. BOYD

Walter K. Boyd, county judge-elect, was appointed by the Commissioners Court to serve out the unexpired term of Ira Gallaway at a special meeting of the court Thursday morning. Boyd was elected County Judge in the July Primary without opposition and was to have taken office January 1. For the past several years, Boyd has been working as an Attorney-at-law in Coleman.

Gallaway resigned his position as county judge effective Wednesday, October 15, to accept a position with a firm in Houston. He was an unsuccessful candidate for Representative from the 21st District in the July primary.

Bobra Garrett Wins First Letter Writing Contest On Ike

Bobra Garrett, senior in Santa Anna High School, was the winner in the first week's contest sponsored by the Coleman County Eisenhower Committee, on the subject, Why I Would Like To Vote For Ike, and was awarded a check for $5.00 this week. Her excellent letter contained about 200 words, and will be read over the KSTA radio station by Bobra about November 1st.

The contest has two more weeks to run, is open to any student of any school in the county, and entries should be mailed to Box 951, Coleman. Letters must have the name of the student, his age and school, and have 200 words or less. All first place letters will be read over the KSTA station, and prizes of $3 and $2 for second and third places will be given each week.

Passing Of A Pioneer

Citizens of Santa Anna should pause to pay tribute to one of our earliest pioneers, who reached the age of 92, Mrs. Frank M. Brooks, a resident of Brown County for 62 years. Margaret Amanda Nix of Honey Grove was married to F. M. Brooks at Palusky, on Feb. 2, 1881.

Their 71st wedding anniversary was observed in May of this year.

A few years were spent near Santa Anna before making their home in Brown County.

Mrs. Brooks passed away at her home in Bangs on October 9th. She is survived by her husband, aged 94, two daughters, six sons, one brother, sixteen grandchildren, and 22 great-grandchildren.

Her father-in-law, W. C. Brooks, was Santa Anna's first post master, and the first person whose body was laid to rest in our cemetery.

Visitors with R. S. Stearns and Mrs. Gifford recently have been Mrs. Lee Vaughan and Nan and Mrs. Jack Laughlin of Brownwood and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Stearns of Brady.

Earl Hardy, County Commissioner of Precinct 2, took a very definite stand for County farm-to-market roads in a meeting of the County Commissioners Court last Thursday morning. The meeting had been called to give Robert Milligan, District Highway Engineer, an answer to his proposal that the county purchase new right-of-ways for two proposed new roads. Milligan had previously requested the court to purchase right-of-ways for the rebuilding of the Coleman-Valera highway and to build a completely new road from Santa Anna to the new road at Valera. He had given the court until October 16 to give him an answer.

After Milligan had explained in short terms to the new county judge, Walter K. Boyd, what he wanted, Commissioner Hardy made a motion that the court pass a special 15c property tax levy on the $100 valuation for the specific purpose of purchasing right-of-ways and building right-of-way fences. This motion was seconded by Monroe Forehand, Commissioner of Precinct 3. When put to a vote Hardy and Forehand voted for and Kay Anderson, Commissioner of Precinct 1 and Pete Sneed, Commissioner of Precinct 4, voted against. The tie vote was voted off by the county judge voting against.

After considerable discussion Hardy made another motion "To secure both right-of-ways" and it died for lack of a second. The final motion, made by Hardy, and approved unanimously by the court was "That the Commissioners Court purchase the right-of-way for the Valera-Coleman road immediately and the right-of-way on the Santa Anna-Valera road as finances would permit."

In explaining the proposal to the new County Judge, Milligan said the State Highway Department had approved $660,000 for road construction in Coleman County, which included a road from just east of Valera to one mile east of Santa Anna and a new road from Valera to Coleman. He then requested the court to purchase these right-of-ways, stating that the construction on one right-of-way did not depend upon the purchase of both right-of-ways and they could be acted upon separately or together, but he wanted both right-of-ways.

He said Coleman County was responsible for the loss of $210,000 that could have been spent in District 23 this year because they would not purchase needed right-of-ways. Milligan stated that he did not intend to lose this $660,000 and that he would use every legitimate means at his command to secure these right-of-ways.

Farm-to-market road money is allotted on the basis of two-thirds of the funds from the Federal State-Aid program and one-third from the Colson-Brisco State Bill. Milligan said he had no control over the Colson-Brisco money but that he could recommend where the Federal State-Aid money was spent, but that his recommendation might not be accepted at higher levels. He also said that he would recommend that the farm-to-market money he had control over not be spent in Coleman County unless the right-of-ways were purchased. Milligan stated it is the policy of the Highway Department not to build farm-to-market roads in counties where right-of-ways have been refused.

According to Earl Hardy, if these farm-to-market roads were cut out, it would take more than three times as long to get the needed roads in the county, and he was definitely in favor of the right-of-way purchase. He could not see losing these farm-to-market roads because the county would not buy right-of-ways requested by the State Highway Department.

In the discussion, Hardy stated that he had discussed the situation with a large number of the citizens, both rural and in Santa Anna, and all had favored buying the right-of-way rather than to lose the farm-to-market roads. Apparently, as Hardy sees the situation, the detriment the proposed Santa Anna-Valera road would cause anyone would be greatly offset by the increased farm-to-market roads the county would receive.

Hardy brought up a discussion concerning the repairing or rebuilding of the Rockwood-Santa Anna road, but Milligan would not engage in conversation concerning the matter. It apparently had earlier been discussed, but to what proportions, it would be impossible to say. There is some possibility that the road will receive some repair work in the next year or two.

A late report from County Judge Boyd indicates the motion was accepted by Mr. Milligan and that he will meet with the Commissioners Court Thursday morning at 10:00 o'clock to map out the 1953 farm-to-market road program.

Work is expected to start immediately on securing right-of-ways on the Coleman-Valera project and actual construction will most likely get underway early next year.

Lions Den

A light attendance was present for the weekly meeting of the local Lions Club Tuesday. The primary business was to complete arrangements for the Negro Minstrel to be held that night and the appointment of committees for selling candy and tickets.

Lions Hardy Blue and J. L. Boggus are to have charge of the program next week. Lions Barnes and Bass were to have the program the past week, but a mixup on dates caused them not to arrange for one.

The club was dismissed early by the president, Tom Stewardson.

Mrs. C. D. Bruce was in San Angelo Wednesday and addressed the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Cactus Hotel. On Thursday she spoke at the same place to the League of Women Voters.

A son, Dwight Odell, was born in the Coleman Hospital on Oct. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Eppler of the Shield community. The boy weighed 8 pounds and 9 ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Eppler, also of the Shield community.

Mrs. J. F. Goen returned home last week from a visit of nearly two weeks with her son, Johnnie Goen and family, at Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Burcham of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dahlberg and daughter, Musha of Brady, Mrs. Lois McNeil of Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Elgean Harris of Santa Anna were week end visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millford Harris and Bill Jack.

Halloween Safety Urged By AAA

Austin — Dress as a ghost, not as a witch on Halloween, the Texas Division of the American Automobile Association advised youngsters today in connection with the AAA's hints for Halloween safety. "If you wish to hide your identity, disguise yourself from your friends, not the driver," Paul R. Kulp, Texas Division manager said. "Dressing as a ghost will increase your safety as a pedestrian because a driver can distinguish persons wearing or carrying something white sooner."

Wearing white after dark is a basic safety measure, but it is

Oil Activities IN COLEMAN COUNTY

Horace E. White, et al. Brownwood, staked a Coleman County wildcat three miles west of Glen Cove as No. 1 M. W. Sealy Estate. Slated for 3,800 feet with rotary to test the Strawn section, it will be located 914 feet from the west and 330 feet from the south lines of Wm. Shepherd Survey 318.

Warren D. Sorrells, Fort Worth No. 1 Sealey-Smith, Section 53, GH&H Survey, is reported completing in the Coker Field, four miles northeast of Novice in Coleman County.

Operator ran casing to 3,540 feet, total depth.

A drillstem test was taken in the Gray Sand at 3,438-68 feet. Operator reported gas surfaced in two minutes and oil flowed in 51 minutes. Recovery was 810 feet of oil and no water. Flowing pressure was 1,135 pounds.

Second test was taken at 3,469-86 feet in the Gray. Gas surfaced in two minutes and oil flowed in 34 minutes. Recovery was 600 feet of oil and no water. Flowing pressure was 375 pounds. Shutin pressure was 1,135 pounds.

Operator said there was saturated sand in the Gardner at 3,280-3,302 feet and in the Morris Sand at 2,961-92 feet.

Sorrells Oil Co. owns one-half interest and George Gregson, et al, of Los Angeles the other half. The 720 acre lease was recently purchased from Seattle, Wash., parties, a company official said.

The Bay Petroleum Corp. apparently has a Gardner Sand gas well at No. 1 Bennie Mays Smith, Section 3, San Augustine University Survey 519, wildcat one mile south of Goldsboro.

Top of the Gardner was picked at 3,800 feet. A drillstem test was taken at 3,797-3,817 feet. Tool was open 90 minutes. Gas surfaced in seven minutes, and was estimated at 200,000 cubic feet per day.

Recovery was 62 feet of gas cut mud. Pressures failed.

Operator then cored the section at 3,817-27 feet, recovering three feet of porous gas sand, three and one-half feet of tight sand and no shows and two and one-half feet of oil sand. No drillstem test was taken of that section.

Top of the Gray Sand was picked at 3,930 feet. A drillstem test was taken at 3,933-42 feet. Tool was open two and one-half hours. Gas surfaced in one hour and 15 minutes and recovery was 780 feet of salty gas cut mud. Shutin pressure was 1,300 pounds in 20 minutes and flowing pressure was 400 pounds. Pipe was run to 3,941 feet.

Two wildcats were staked in Coleman County.

A&M Oil Co., Corsicana, spotted No. 1 J. W. Brown Estate as a 3,600-foot project three miles east of Talpa, 330 feet from the north and west lines of Subdivision 5, W. W. Bomer Survey 303.

J. H. Blackwell, Coleman, will drill No. 1-D A. I. Edwards as a 2,800 foot wildcat six miles southwest of Coleman. Location is 900 feet from the south and 2,800 feet from the east lines of J. H. Barkley Survey.

Andrew M. Howsley, et al, No. 3-A C. C. Duncan is to be a Glen Cove Jennings Field try one mile south of Glen Cove, 330 feet from the north and east lines of Section 23, BS&F Survey. Proposed depth is 3,750 feet.

Sid Katz, San Antonio staked No. 2 L. E. Hintner as a Naylor Jennings Field project seven miles south of Glen Cove, 2,250 feet from the east and 1,410 feet from the north lines of Section 65, BBB&C Survey. Proposed depth is 3,800 feet.

Location for a 2,000-foot rotary wildcat has been staked one mile south of Santa Anna. It is G. W. McCoy of Coleman No. 1 James H. Dixon, et al. Drillsite is 1,650 feet from the east and 990 feet from the south lines of Section 68, Wm. Doran Survey 666. It is on a 146.1 acre lease.

Dumman Gardner Field, four and one-half miles east of Goldsboro, gained a new well with the completion of Tri-M Production Co. of Midland No. 6-G Mary L. Dumman, Section 35, TENO Survey. Daily potential was 192 barrels

Social Security Representatives In Coleman Tuesday

A representative of the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration, will be in Coleman at the Department of Public Welfare at 1:00 p. m. on Tuesday, October 28.

Recent changes in the Social Security law have special importance for minor children of men who died in military service after September 16, 1947, stated Ralph T. Fisher, manager.

Until the new law was passed service in World War II could count toward social security payments but service after the end of World War II did not. The new law extends the social security credits to cover military or naval service after the end of the war, so that now service at any time from September 16, 1940, to December 31, 1953, may count toward benefits.

Children are not the only dependents who may get monthly payments, — widows over 65, and widows under 65 with minor children in their care may also be entitled to them. Dependent parents may be eligible if the serviceman is not survived by a widow or child.

Social security credits for military service after the end of World War II are used in figuring monthly benefits beginning in September 1952. They do not count toward lump-sum death payments where death occurred before September 1952.

Fisher suggests that some member of the family inquire at the social security office about the social security account of every deceased veteran or serviceman who had military service after July 1947 and is survived by a widow, child, or dependent parent.

Mrs. Jack Laughlin visited Mrs. Glenn Haynes on Friday evening.

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 7
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 119: 105-112

Test of Faith

Lesson for October 26, 1952

EVERY one who has carefully studied the "Sermon on the Mount" as we find it in Matthew, has run into a peculiar feature of it. The first two chapters (Matt. 5 and 6) move right along in logical fashion, one thought leading into the next, to a climax at the end of chapter 6. But chapter 7 seems to launch out in all directions. The sentences or topics do not follow a single thread of thought. The chapter is very hard to outline. There are various explanations of this. One is that in this chapter we have what might be called the discussion period or forum following the sermon. The various short paragraphs may be explained as being answers Jesus gave to questions which are not recorded. However that may be, we may select verses 12, and 15-27, and see how they answer four very natural questions which Jesus' teaching (especially in Matt. 5 and 6) would raise.

Dr. Foreman

Bible in a Nutshell

Some one might ask: "Can't you make your teaching simpler and plainer? Could you put the whole thing in a nutshell?" So Jesus gives the Golden Rule (7:12), a single sentence that has embarrassed theologian and plain Christian alike. Jesus offers this as a kind of summary of the Bible, for in his time the Bible he had (our "Old Testament") was customarily called "The Law and the Prophets." This bothers the theologian because it always scandalizes a scholar to have everything put into one sentence, and besides, theologians are accustomed to finding as great deal more in the Old Testament than the Golden Rule. It bothers the common everyday Christian because when he looks at this sentence, he knows how right Mark Twain was: "It's not what I don't understand in the Bible that disturbs me; it's what I do understand."

How Can You Tell?

Another question: How do we know you are teaching the truth? How can we tell you from a false prophet? Jesus gives a simple answer: You can tell a tree from its fruits. People who criticize Christianity should keep this point in mind. There is a great deal in "Christianendom" which is not good. But Christendom is not Christianity. Not even the church is Christianity. Anything in the church that ought not to be there, we must set down against the account of the church, not against Christ. If the church is weak and sinful it is because and so far as she has failed to follow Jesus, not because she has followed him. The fruits of Christ, of his heart, his spirit, his teachings—these are good fruit. And if any one is disposed to doubt that, let him fairly answer this question: Where would you rather live, in a community in which the citizens were strangely like Jesus, or one in which they were just the opposite?

Is Not Faith Enough?

Another question: Isn't a single act of faith enough? If I believe what I ought to believe, and if I honor Christ as Lord, isn't that enough to make me a Christian? Jesus offers a test of faith, as if in answer to some such question. It isn't just believing; it isn't paying honor to the name of Christ; it isn't preaching in his name, it is not even performing miracles. The question that will be asked at the Day of Judgment is: Did you do the will of God?

Will It Work?

One more question: Your teaching sounds interesting and is idealistic and all that, but is it meant for this world? Will it work? Jesus quite emphatically claims for his teachings an absolutely practical value. They are not for some Never-never Land, they are not for some other time, some other life. They are not some radical upside-down topsy-turvy mess of peculiar notions. They are the bedrock of a life that will endure through storms. Do you want to find out whether these teachings and ideals of Jesus will work? He invites one and all to build their house of life upon them. He does not promise at any time that those who live by his teachings will be free from trouble, sorrow, opposition, tragedy. Storms come to all houses alike. What he does promise is that the life built here shall not fall.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN DIVORCE AND ANNULMENT EXPLAINED

Notices of the filing of suits for divorce appear daily in our newspapers. Something has gone wrong with the marriage, and one of the spouses is asking the court to end the marriage by granting a divorce.

Occasionally, however, we read that someone is suing for an annulment of their marriage. The average reader may be inclined to say, "What is the difference?" Obviously the marriage is terminated if the court grants the petition, whether for divorce or annulment.

In case of a divorce, the plaintiff (the person asking for an end to the marriage, whether the husband or wife) recognizes that the two parties involved were validly married and that there is an existing valid marriage.

The plaintiff alleges, though, that the other spouse has been guilty of some act which the law says constitutes a ground for divorce. If the divorce is granted, a marriage that actually exists is terminated legally by the court.

In effect, the court tells the couple that they were validly and legally married at one time, but no longer are.

ANNULMENT DIFFERS
In the case of an annulment, however, the plaintiff alleges that there never was a valid marriage in the first place because of some impediment of the parties or because of some fraud in its inception.

In this case the court must determine whether there was a valid marriage. If the court agrees with the plaintiff, the decree says in effect that the couple never was legally and validly married, and is not now.

Such a decree of annulment establishes for the public record the fact that the marriage was and is invalid according to law.

CHILDREN PROTECTED
Whether the action takes the form of a divorce or an annulment, the decree will have no effect on the legitimacy of the couples children. Our statutes provide that the children of couples whose marriages have been declared null shall nevertheless be legitimate.

Every divorce petition must set out the name, age, sex and residence of each child under 16 years of age born of the mar-

THE PINNEY WOODS OF TEXAS

Do you want to build 800,000 average five room houses?

There's enough lumber milled in Texas annually to do it.

If a 10-foot wide wooden belt were needed around the equator to hold the earth together, Texas could furnish the material and still have some left over. Or laid end on end, Texas' yearly lumber production would form a continuous span to the moon.

Forestry is often called a way of life in East Texas. It is another one of the major enterprises which adds to the economic well being of the state. Retail sales from lumber cut in the Piney Woods section amounts to more than $100 million each year and it supplies work for 50,000 persons. Some 993 wood-using industry in the state use the home-grown product. The towering pine is the basis of economy in many counties. About 92 percent of Tyler county is in forest land, and in Newton, Polk and Angelina Counties, more than 80 percent of the total area is wooded.

From the Piney Woods section comes 1,300,000,000 board feet of lumber annually which is handled by 555 saw-mills. Also contributing to area economy through wood products are two pulp and paper mills and 17 wood preservation plants. Many smaller manufacturing plants benefit from the industry and numerous FHA families realize a good income from the sale of riage involved. Then, before a divorce may be granted, the trial judge is required by law to inquire into the "surroundings and circumstances" of each such child.

Having considered all the pertinent facts and circumstances, the court in granting a divorce may give the custody and education of the child to either the father or mother. The governing factor here is the judge's belief and findings with regard to the best interests of the child himself.

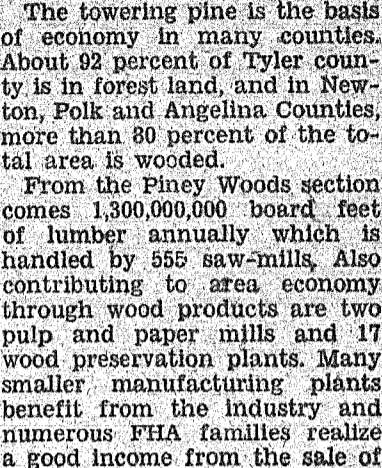

Either parent may be required to make periodical payments for the benefit of the child, and may be punished for contempt of court in event of failure to comply with the support order.

In the past some trouble has been experienced in enforcing support orders against parents who move out of the state, as a person cannot ordinarily be extradited for the purpose of answering a contempt of court charge. However, many states (including Texas) have recently passed laws providing for the reciprocal enforcement of such orders, which is bringing some relief in support cases.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

But have you seen the smokeless broilers on automatic Gas ranges?

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Gregg, Helen and Joe, of San Antonio were week end visitors with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gregg.

EVERYBODY KNOWS that a flame incinerates smoke. That's why only a modern gas range gives you smokeless broiling and keeps kitchens cleaner. Saves time and money too. For finest cooking results on the Gas range you buy, look for the "CP" seal—an unbiased guide to cooking perfection.

Voting For President Is Complicated

When you vote in the November 4th election, you will mark the name of your favorite candidate for president. But your vote is actually registered in favor of the "presidential electors" selected by the party of your choice.

Under our complicated and antiquated system of electing a president, the people themselves are not permitted to vote for the candidates directly. Instead they vote for "presidential electors" who in turn cast their votes for the president and vice president.

After the November election, the electors representing the party which received the most votes, will assemble at the state capitol in Austin. Each state has the same number of electoral votes as it has members of Congress. In the case of Texas there are 22 members of the House of Representatives and two United States Senators, giving Texas a total of 24 votes in the electoral college. At their meeting the presidential electors will cast a unanimous ballot for the candidate of the party they represent. This ballot is then placed in a sealed envelope, and is entrusted to a "messenger" who will carry it to Washington to be opened when the complete vote of all of the states is officially canvassed next January.

Under this complicated system it is possible for a presidential candidate to be elected by the presidential electors who did not actually receive a plurality of the popular vote. If there should be a tie vote in the electoral college, then the House of Representatives will elect the next president and vice president.

There was a nice crowd at the school building on Saturday night for the 42 party. They will play again Saturday night. Games start at seven and end at nine o'clock.

All the pews were filled and some chairs used at the Buffalo Third Sunday Singing. There was some very good singing.

Everyone enjoyed Mr. Cullen Perry's address given at eleven o'clock Sunday at the Methodist Church.

The MYF accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Garland Powell and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Curry went to a youth meeting at Brownwood on Monday night.

The Blue Bonnet Club met at Mrs. John Lauder's home on Wednesday to quilt a quilt for the Old Folk's Home in Coleman. Present were Meses Lloyd Price, J. D. Williamson, Garland Powell, A. K. Grimes, Willie Lobstein, Dodson, Rube Lobstein, Ulmer Brannon, S. D. Wilson and E. D. Bouchillon.

After the Old Folks' quilt was finished a number of the ladies went home with Mrs. S. D. Wilson to help her finish a quilt that she had up.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Aschenbeck of Cameron visited Wednesday through Saturday with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Aschenbeck. The Aschenbecks also had Mrs. Aschenbeck's mother and brother, Mrs. G. W. Bland and Ernest of Santa Anna as Sunday dinner guests.

Mrs. W. C. Casey visited in the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. D. Bouchillon over the week end.

State Fair Of Texas Sets New Records

The State Fair of Texas shattered its own attendance record and set a new national record for annual fairs for the tenth straight time as its most successful exposition in history ended Sunday, October 19.

James H. Stewart, executive vice president and general manager, said a total of 2,387,140 visitors attended the fair during its 16-day run. This exceeded by 67,011 the number who attended the 1951 fair and was more than twice that for any other fair in America this year. The fair's biggest day was Sunday, Oct. 12, when 281,228 attended.

The fair has set a new attendance record each year since 1939; no fairs were held during the war years, 1942-45.

The giant exposition ended on a solemn religious note, with a Cotton Bowl religious festival Sunday night, dedicated to the late Dan. D. Rogers, who helped plan and organize the festival and who died suddenly three days before.

Rabies On Upsurge In Two Texas Areas

Two widely separated areas in Texas face an upsurge in rabies between now and June, State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox predicts. The disease could easily spread to other vulnerable areas.

One focus is in Travis, Bastrop, Fayette, and Hays Counties in Central Texas. The other is in Panola, Shelby, San Augustine Counties in East Texas. Individual instances of mad foxes have been occurring in both these sections throughout the year.

Blanco, Comal, Guadalupe, and Gonzales Counties are directly in the path of the southwestern spread of the Central Texas focus. In East Texas, the trend is east and southeast, threatening Sabine, Jasper, and Newton Counties, Dr. Cox reports.

"The first case of fox rabies in any county is an indication that work needs to be started immediately on control," Dr. Cox said. "You know you're in for trouble."

Fox rabies is six times more prevalent in winter months than in summer, Cox indicated. He added that every fox killed now will save trouble later.

He made the prediction of increased rabies incidence despite the fact that rabies-suspect animals heads autopsied at the health department Bureau of Laboratories in September were fewer than at any time since May.

Dr. Cox said wildlife rabies in most affected areas kills off wildlife to a point where rabies cannot maintain itself. It thus dies out and does not re-appear until the population builds itself up again.

Skunk rabies is prevalent in three separate areas of the state, the health officer said. But the disease is "20 times" more serious in fox than in skunk, he said.

Fort Worth — Most heartening news to livestock producers in weeks was the rally of cow prices at Ft. Worth late last week and which carried over into Monday's trade. Cows sold Monday $1 to $2 above the low time last week. There was a better feel to the trade, though stocker demand remained very dull, and some signs of improving stocker demand at northern points were encouraging.

Lighter runs of sheep around the market circle set off a little rally in the sheep yards at Ft. Worth Monday. Some lambs and some ewes sold 50 cents higher.

Hogs opened the week with a 25 cents higher to 25 cents lower market to top at $18.50 to $19 at Ft. Worth. It was notable that hogs closed at the day's low points here and at other major markets. Sows drew $14 to $17.

The stronger tone to the market at Ft. Worth and at other points around the market circle was partially good news since October's twin gobblins, deteriorating ranges and heavy receipts, plumped calves and sheep to the lowest levels for the current crop and to the lowest point since OPA controls were removed in October, 1946, just a week ago.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings sold for $23 to $31, and common to medium sorts sold for $13 to $21, with cutter grades at $10 to $13. Fat cows sold for $12.50 to $15.50 and some heiferettes topped at $18. Canners and cutters sold for $8 to $13, few under $6. Bulls drew mostly $10 to $17, a few best to $18 and above.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold mostly at $16 to $22 and a few fancy heavies of 500 to 600 pounds drew $22 to $26 and better in the baby beef class. Common and medium slaughter calves drew $12 to $16 and culls sold for $10 to $12. Choice stocker steer calves and steer yearlings sold at $22 down, sparingly, mostly $21 down. A few cows went back to the country at $12 to $16.

Slaughter ewes sold from $3.50 to $5.25 at the close, with old wethers from $7 down. Yearlings cashed at $6.50 to $16.

and fat lambs sold from $23 downward. Feeder and stocker lambs sold from $8 to $17, with cull slaughter lambs from $6.50 to $8. Old bucks sold from $3.50 to $4.50.

James Neal Williams who was recently inducted into the Army at Abilene, and later sent to Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, left from there for Camp Robinson, California on Thursday of last week, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alford Williams, have been informed.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cochran were in Ballinger, Sunday to attend the Golden Wedding anniversary observance of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Cochran. Open house in the afternoon was largely attended.

When a young girl's fancy turns to Cooking

The modern Electric Range is truly automatic. The automatic clock times starts the oven, shuts it off when things are done—while you are doing other work, or just relaxing.

For real convenience and economy the deep-well cooker can't be beat. You can warm rolls, make stews and soups, bake bread, even cook complete meals in this wonderful cooker.

Wonder How Miss Gilbert Is in "History"?

By now I guess you've heard about the spelling errors in the kids' report cards this week. A typical card looked like this:

Arithmetic.....	B
Geography.....	B-
Spelling.....	C
Grammar.....	B

I don't know if Miss Gilbert, the principal, actually wrote those cards, but she took full responsibility. This morning I hear she got up in the Assembly Hall—before all the students—and started writing GRAMMAR with two "a's" on the blackboard 100 times!

From where I sit, I'll bet this makes her even more popular with the students. It's nice to see an expert admit she occasionally makes a mistake. Too many so-called "experts" claim they're never wrong on such subjects as what you or I ought to eat... what we should wear... whether we should enjoy beer or buttermilk. A really wise person never claims to "know all the answers" all the time.

On an Electric Range, cake icing can be prepared in a regular saucepan. No double boiler needed because the heat's so evenly measured and distributed. No scouring the bottom of the pan, either, because there's no flame or soot.

"Yes, Judy, cooking on our Electric Range is exciting! Electric cooking is so clean, so fast and so easy!

"And we certainly make the best use of our Electric Range to cook complete meals... Dad sure loves those delicious roasts, tasty pies and cakes, and he's proud of those economy meals. Our food tastes better, cooks easier, and we save time and energy, too. By the way, dear—those cake layers should be ready by now. That bell you just heard was the automatic reminder. It's saying, 'Cake's done!'

"You might say that our Electric Range is like an automatic cook. It does the work, and you don't have to worry about it.

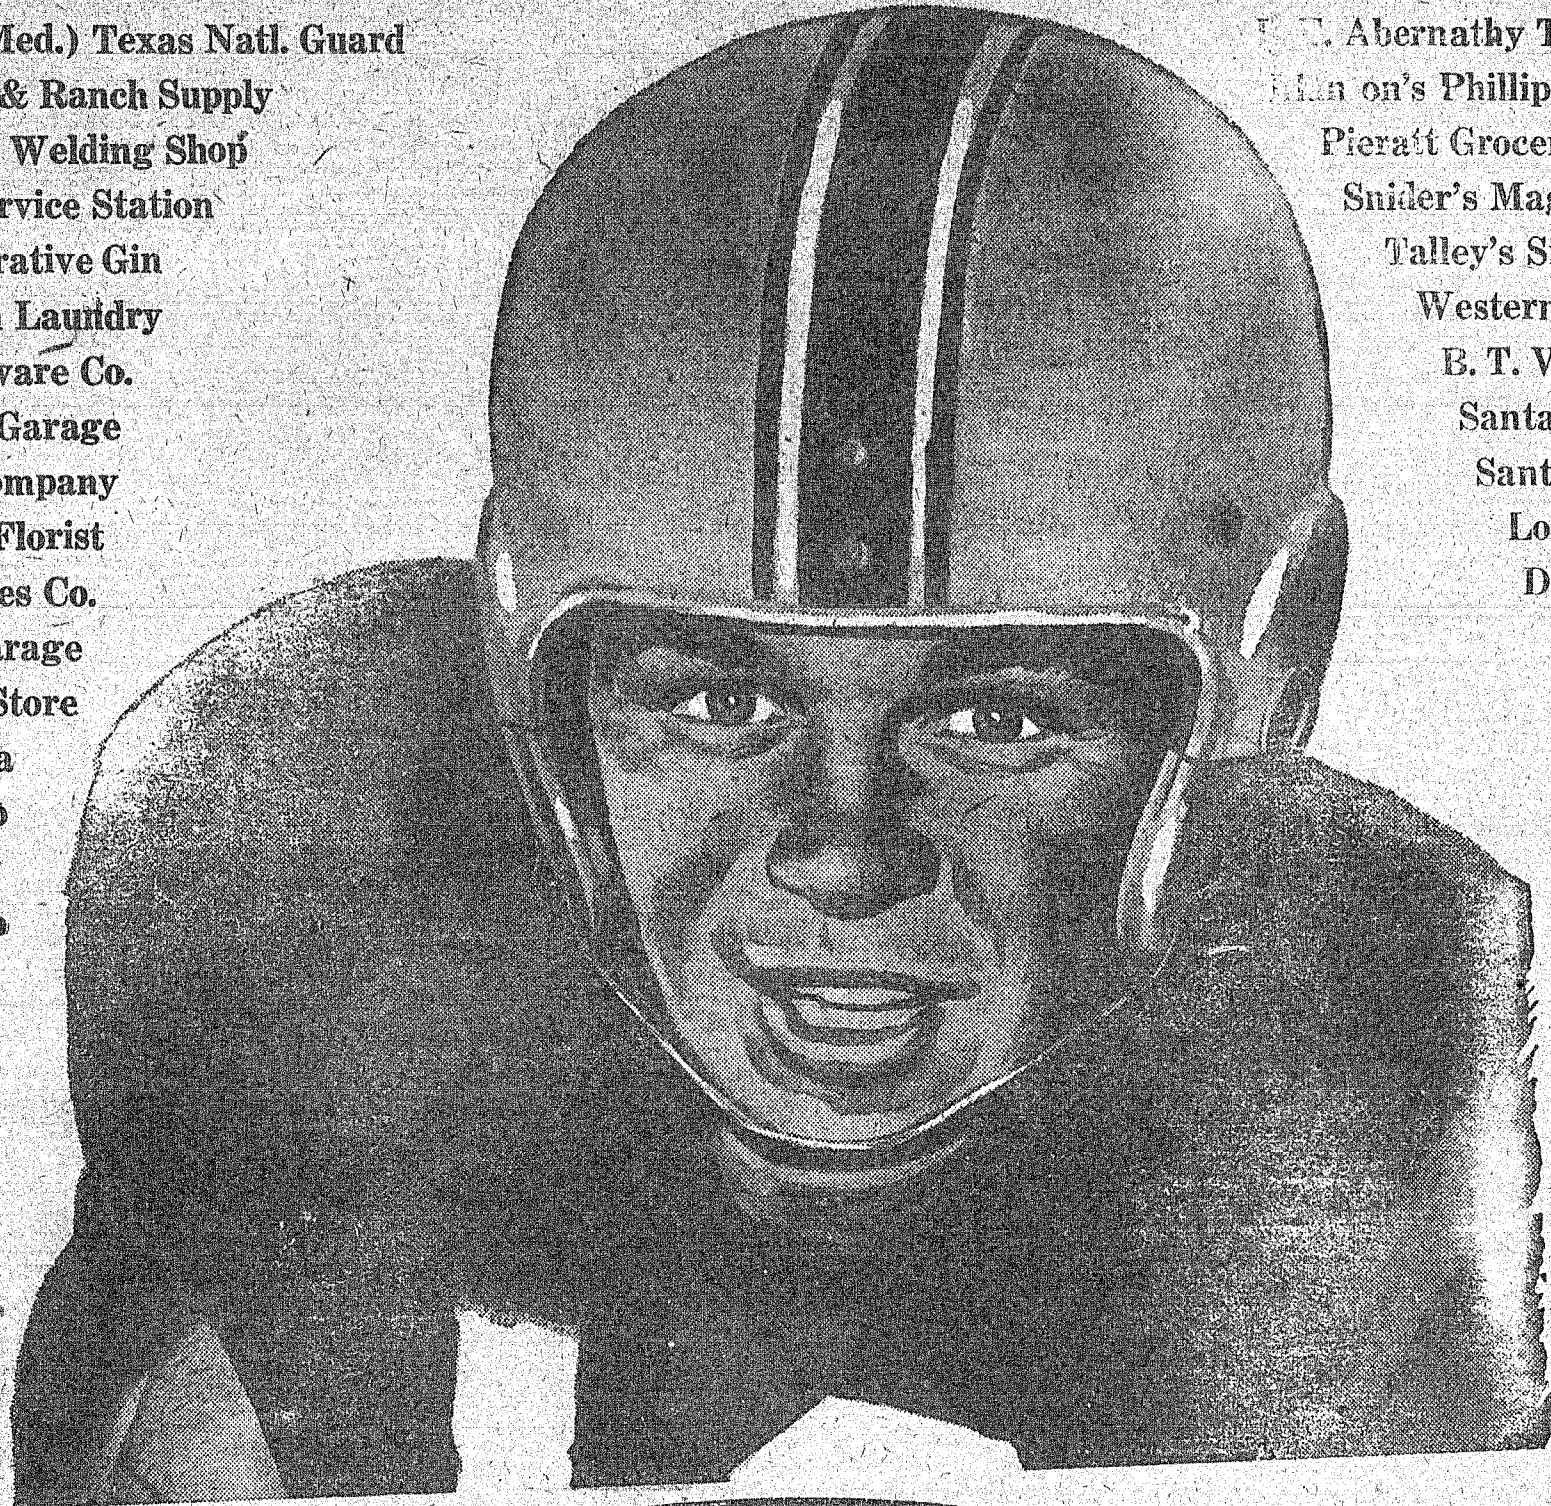

"Another nice thing, you don't have to clean the kitchen so often, because there's no smoke and no soot. The kitchen stays cooler, too, because the heat goes into the food, not the air."

DID YOU KNOW... with an Electric Range you can:

Melt chocolate squares in waxed paper on a surface unit... save natural vitamins and minerals by cooking vegetables with very little water... roast meats perfectly with a minimum of shrinkage... pop corn or sterilize baby's bottles in the deep-well cooker... have delicious "charcoal-type" broiling with no flame? Did you know that housewives everywhere are switching to Electric Cooking, the modern way?

Texas should have their tide lands returned to them and firmly believe that when and if the question is presented in a manner where it involves Texas alone, these tide lands will be returned to Texas.

LETTERS ACCEPTED

This newspaper has always and will continue to accept letters to the Editor, as long as they are short and to the point, but due to the exceedingly high cost of newsprint and production costs, we are unable to print letters ranging from 6, 8 or 10 pages long. Letters of 200 to 400 words long are appreciated as long as they are constructive or that expresses a view other than our own and do not contain any libelous statements. The letters must be signed and sent through the mail and must have the correct amount of postage on the envelope. It is not necessary that we publish the name, but we must have it on file.

A BOUQUET FOR EARL HARDY

We have long thought Earl Hardy, our local County Commissioner, was doing a good job of representing us in the County Commissioners Court. Now we know he is.

Last week your editor attended a special meeting of the Commissioners Court, called in connection with the proposed new roads in Coleman County. Mr. Hardy took a very definite stand for the furtherance of the county farm-to-market road program in the face of considerable opposition. According to what we can learn, the State Highway Department does not recommend the building of farm to market roads in counties where road right-of-ways they ask for are turned down. Mr. Hardy realizing this, took a stand to purchase the requested right-of-ways and thereby assuring the county of their proper amount of these farm roads. After some very lengthy discussions, the Commissioners Court voted unanimously to purchase these right-of-ways, but there were several times that being a little lax on the part of Mr. Hardy would have seen the program almost stopped.

The proposed road will go south of Santa Anna and also south of Coleman. To us it is not a matter of this road going south of the two towns involved, because we do not favor this proposition, but it is a matter of the farm-to-market roads, which we feel is a lot more important to us than having these main arteries through our town. Some benefit is naturally derived from main highways passing through cities or towns, but under these circumstances we feel that more would have been lost than would have been gained had the county court refused the right-of-ways. To us it is more important to see that our rural population has all-weather roads to get to town on than to have main arteries of highways directly through our town.

We do not necessarily appreciate the fact that the Highway Department has this power of authority. We do not think they are entitled to this amount of authority that they can keep a county from receiving their prorated part of rural roads, but they have the authority and at present there is not much that we, as a county, can do about it except to do what they want in order that we might continue to get our prorata amount of farm roads.

We appreciate the stand taken by Mr. Hardy and feel that all the rural citizens of Coleman County appreciate it.

Studebaker Bros. Observe 100 Years Of Operations

The story of "100 Years On The Road" is being told over the country. One part of this story as told by A. K. Blackerby, Studebaker dealer in Coleman, Texas is of how the discovery of gold in California helped in the development of one of America's great businesses. Studebaker is the only automobile company that is twice as old as the Motor Car itself.

When gold was discovered in California, two young brothers, Henry and Glen Studebaker, were blacksmiths in Indiana. They saw their opportunity in the need for wagons to transport the gold seekers to the west and they decided to be the builders of those wagons. A third brother, J. M. Studebaker was one of these who joined the westward trek.

In five years, J. M. had saved $8,000.00 and returned to Indiana to invest in the expansion of his brothers' vehicle business in 1858. This capital assured the early success of the enterprise. This "Saga of Studebaker and California Gold" is only one of the many instances of interest in the success story of the Studebaker Brothers as the company bridged the gap between the horse drawn wagons and the modern automobile — the only one of more than 5,000 such companies that did make the transition, as told in this story.

In the late nineteenth century Studebaker was the worlds leading manufacturer of glamorous carriages, sturdy wagons and high-quality buggies and traps, but as early as 1897, the company was experimenting with power-propelled vehicles. As Mr. Blackerby pointed out, the year that Studebaker made their first "Horseless Carriage" sale, 1902, was the year of the Studebaker Company's Golden Anniversary. That is a record that no other manufacturer can match — one hundred years of experience, and half of that century in the manufacture of motor cars.

Blackerby Motors has represented Studebaker in Coleman County for the past five years and plans to hold open house this fall to celebrate Studebaker's Centennial anniversary.
