Thoughts OF A COUNTRY EDITOR

BY JOHN C. GREGG

A TRIBUTE TO OUR FOOTBALL FANS

The citizens of the area served by the Santa Anna Public Schools have something to be very proud of. During the time since school started in early September, the Santa Anna schools have been engaged in a series of football games, some at home and some away.

All the games at home have been well attended. In fact, we can boast that no other school has brought more fans here than Santa Anna has turned out. This, in itself, is a good record, because of some of the losses our local team suffered. But the thing that we can really be proud of is the fact that on two occasions the Santa Anna fans have turned out in greater numbers at games away from home than the home fans turned out. At Cross Plains last week, the Santa Anna bleacher was filled to overflowing and a large number could not even find sitting room, while in the Cross Plains stands, had it not been for their band and pep squad, there would have been a very light attendance. The week previous, at Wylie, almost the same thing happened, although it was not quite as bad.

The Mountaineer fans went in droves to Junction to start the season, and then filled the stands at Early on the next game away from home. Four games were then played in a row at home and almost capacity crowds of local fans attended each game. At the DeLeon game both teams had plenty of fans present.

Our hats are off to the supporters of the football boys. Your part in the support of our school system has not been lacking. We are proud of you and so are all the members of the school system, including the coaches and the players. Yours is a spirit that will not be beat, even though some of the scores have not indicated as much. We are proud to be able to boast such a record.

Football Season Ends With Loss

The Santa Anna Mountaineers took a beating from the beginning of the Santa Anna-Cross Plains game until it was over last Friday night. The Buffaloes outplayed the Mountaineers throughout the game. The Buffaloes scored first in the closing minutes of the second period, then scored twice in the final period and made two extra points to round a perfect night for them. One time, midway in the first period, the Mountaineers worked their way down to the Cross Plains 14-yard line, only to lose the ball on a fumble. This was the only time they got within 43-yards of a goal.

We have no excuses to offer for the local boys. The officials were as good as most officials are and to this writer, seemed fair to both teams. The Buffaloes were really fired up for the game, the Mountaineers apparently were not.

THE GAME

Santa Anna kicked to Cross Plains to start the game, Cross Plains took the ball in the end zone and returned to their 25-yard line, but received a 15-yard penalty from their 16-yard line, which set them back to their 1-yard line. The Mountaineers received a 5-yard penalty on the next play and then the Buffaloes worked their way to the Mountaineer 39-yard line where the Mountaineers recovered a fumble. From here the local boys worked their way down to the Cross Plains 14, where they fumbled and the Buffaloes recovered. The Buffaloes worked their way

Fine Rains Fall Over Wide Area

Drought-breaking rains fell over most of Texas Sunday and Monday, with upwards of two inches being reported from most of the state. Santa Anna received three-inches throughout the two days, with 1.25 inches falling on Monday night. A hard hail was reported in the Cleveland community and across to the Stewardson place in the Shield community. However, not much damage was reported, as "there was nothing much to damage" as one man stated it.

All communities in the county reported from three-inches and up.

Bi-District Game At Haskell On Thanksgiving Day

The Dublin Lions, winner of the District 7-A football title, will meet the Haskell Indians, winner of the District 8-A title at Haskell Thanksgiving afternoon. Dublin was undefeated throughout the entire season, winning 10 straight games.

Haskell was undefeated in conference play but was defeated on three occasions by class AA teams. Dublin is rated higher in the state-wide poll than Haskell, and will be the pre-game favorite.

Mrs. S. L. Cannon plans to spend Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Henderson and Mr. Henderson in Abilene.

Mrs. Arrabelle Comer and baby of Mobile, Alabama, visited several days last week with her mother, Mrs. W. Ragsdale.

Montie Ruth, John Henry, Lenora and Buck Mooney of Grand Prairie are here to spend Thanksgiving with their grandmother, Mrs. B. M. McCain and Louie.

The Santa Anna Junior Mountaineers, under the direction of A. D. Donham, completed their football season last Thursday night on the local field by handing the Bangs Juniors a 26-6 defeat, to maintain their undefeated, untied standing for the entire 1952 season.

In the six regular scheduled games, the Juniors won over Blanket by a 28-14 score on Sept. 25, then on Oct. 16 they won over the same team by a 27-13 score. On Oct. 23 the younger boys handed Bangs a 25-6 defeat and last week they handed the same team a 26-6 defeat. On Nov. 6 the Juniors beat the Wylie Juniors by a close 20-19 score and on Nov. 14 handed the same team a 19-14 defeat.

West Tex. Utilities Co. First Place Winner In Contest

Abilene — The West Texas Utilities Company, according to an announcement by the National Safety Council in Chicago, has been named as first place winner in the Public Utilities Division of the council's 1951-52 National Fleet Safety Contest.

In acknowledgement of its national standing in the Driving Safety Contest, the utility company was presented with a bronze plaque, mounted on walnut, and bearing the inscription "Winner, Public Utilities Division, National Safety Council's 1951-52 Fleet Safety Contest."

From July 1, 1951 to June 30, 1952, West Texas Utilities employees drove company vehicles a total distance of 3,399,000 miles and achieved the excellent accident rate of .09 accidents per 100,000 miles. This rate was far below that of the nearest competitor. Under the contest the slightest fender dent is considered a reportable accident. Before winners are declared in the contest the accident record of the companies are carefully audited by a representative of the National Safety Council.

"The West Texas Utilities Company," said Price Campbell, President, "is striving in every way to be a good citizen in the community it serves. Certainly safe driving is a vital part of good citizenship."

The company which maintains a continuing safety program for all departments and all drivers has established a national reputation for traffic safety. In 1951 the company was the second place winner in this same contest. A first place winner in the 1946 Bureau of Safety Contest, the company is this year a contender for the 1952 first place title which will be announced shortly after January 1st, 1953.

Baptists Adopt 1953 Budget

Last Sunday morning the First Baptist Church adopted their 1953 Church Budget of $12,942.00. The local congregation cooperates with other Baptist churches in Coleman County, the District, the State and the Southland to do mission work around the world. Of the adopted budget, $3,120.00 will be used to help carry on this vast Mission Program. This amount is in addition to that which is given for Foreign Home, and State Missions, and Buckner Orphans Home, at stated seasons of the year. From September 1951 through August 1952, the local church gave $16,151.59 for all of its activities local and worldwide.

This week the women of the church packed some boxes of clothing, new and used, and quilts, that were gathered together by members of the church to be sent to the Orphans Homes.

The pastor's morning message for this Sunday, November 30th, will be "Silenced by Silver."

Any one wishing to attend is urged to do so and if you do not have season tickets, you may make a contribution to the band as you enter the building.

The group present planned a shower for the hospital, which opened last week after undergoing several months remodeling. The shower will be held on Wednesday, December 10, and the vacant building located the first door west of the Santa Anna News will be used for the downtown place where gifts can be left. Members of the auxiliary will be on hand to accept the gifts from 9:00 a. m. until 6:00 p. m.

Appropriate gifts for hospital use should always be white, as colored materials do not work well in hospitals. Suggestions for gifts are as follows: Huck (face) towels, size 20 x 30; Turkish bath towels, size 22 x 40; Sheets, size 72 x 108; Pillow Cases, finished size 21 x 30; Draw Sheets, unbleached, size 45 x 81; and almost any size wash rags.

All these items are needed for the operation of a hospital. Of course there are thousands of other items that are needed, but most of these can be purchased locally and are what is usually considered as items to present a hospital with.

Members of every church in Santa Anna and surrounding area, and all members of civic organizations in the Santa Anna area are considered as charter members of the Hospital Auxiliary. The executive committee is composed of two or three members from each organization, with the president of each organization automatically becoming a member of the executive committee.

Thanksgiving Day... 1952

Today don't seem to be a day For talk of cars and gas So far as things like that are concerned Just for today, let's let 'em pass.

Let's talk instead about today And what it means to us. No, not just things like turkey And the usual rush and fuss.

Though they're important to Thanksgiving, too Because they show at least a part Of the things that folks like us, Folks like you and me and Bill and Art

Has got to be thankful for; But, too, things like just being free And alive, too, by the way Are blessings easy enough to see.

Why, even when things go wrong They could always be lots worse, An' many a thing's a blessin' that We thought to be a curse.

After all, our fathers weren't on top of the world When they first gave thanks for what they had So let's follow in their footsteps, and Be thankful and be glad.

"Credit Insurance" Latest Method Of Texas Loan Sharks

Dallas — To evade the constitutional limitation on interest, Texas loan sharks resort to devious methods, the most used scheme at present being "credit insurance," declares E. C. Fritz, Dallas attorney, who has made a study of the loan shark evil as a member of the anti-usury committee of the State Junior Bar Association.

Credit insurance is somewhat involved and intricate but the practical result is that the borrower pays approximately 140 per cent interest. Here is the way it works: A man has urgent need for $25. He gives a note to be paid in three months in weekly installments. He is charged 24 cents as interest (10 per cent) plus a "service charge" of $1. But before he gets the $25, he is told:

Something might happen to you in the next three months — an accident, serious illness, even death, so you must take out health, accident and life insurance to protect us against loss."

The premium on the insurance is $7.96, which makes the total cost of the $25 loan $34.20. The insurance company receives 15 per cent of the premium; the loan company, as "agent," is allowed a commission of 85 per cent.

But the shark is not satisfied even with this. So far from desiring to help a borrower work out his financial problems, the company wants to keep him in debt. So if he misses a weekly installment, a day or two later he will receive a phone call. "Come down and renew."

Most of what he has already paid has been applied to the insurance premium, the service charge and the interest but suppose he has paid sufficient to reduce the $34.20 face amount of the note to $20. He signs a new note for the original amount ($34.20) and receives $5 in cash. As a part of the $34.20, he has to pay another $7.96 credit insurance premium, even though the three months for which the first policy was written have not expired. Thus, in effect, he is paying "interest on interest." Then when he again gets behind, he signs a new note, pays the $7.96 premium again — and so the process goes until the borrower is so heavily involved that he is virtually working for the loan company.

With the purpose of driving the loan sharks out of business in Texas through legitimate competition, the Texas Junior Bar Association has approved a small loan bill similar to the legislation which 30 states have adopted.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gregg and children were in San Angelo Saturday, attending to business and visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Belvins.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stephenson and Rilda will go to Dallas Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Pruitt. Mrs. Stephenson will remain for a longer visit.

The Battle of the Bird

Time was when preparing Thanksgiving dinner was a real struggle. And preparing it was nothing compared to the clean-up job that came after!

But today grandmother, or mother, can actually take time to enjoy herself — because so much of the work (including the after-dinner work) will be done for her by electrical kitchen appliances and by her wonderful electric servant, Reddy Kilowatt. He works for mere chicken feed, too!

He will refrigerate the turkey a whole day — for about 2¢.

He'll roast the turkey — for less than 10¢.

He'll run the dishwasher for a full load of dishes — for less than 1¢.

And he will wash and iron the tablecloth and napkins — for about 2¢.

Wonderful, isn't it? As a matter of fact, electric appliances will win the "cooking battle" every time... and remember your electric service is still the biggest bargain in your budget today!

New Main Liners For Santa Fe

During the coming year another milestone in American railroading will be passed with the advent of the most modern in design and comfort in full length dome cars on the Santa Fe Railway's popular trains.

The cars are being built by the Budd Company of Philadelphia in the order for 113 all-stainless steel cars including 45 luxurious chair, 50 baggage and ten Railway Postoffice cars.

The full length dome will provide a top deck view of some of America's favorite scenery. The cars will comfortably seat 103. Six wheel trucks will absorb the 207,000 pounds the car will weigh when fully loaded. Two special rooms will house equipment to facilitate maintenance.

The lower deck contains a nurse's room with complete aids for minor ailments and for the storage and heating of children's food. An attractive cocktail lounge will seat 28.

The car, a double decker, provides 57 chair car seats angled for the best possible dome view. A refreshment lounge will be in the rear portion of the dome. The dome windows will be double-glazed, tinted Solex glass to filter the sun's heat.

A Solar Control, another Budd origination, automatically regulates the volume of conditioned air circulation. They will be constructed entirely of stainless steel, providing great strength and assuring the safest possible travel.

Handy Hints

An ordinary beer-can opener makes about the best putty knife you can find. Use the sharp point (left) to scrape away the old putty and any other foreign matter. Then turn the opener over (right) to shape and smooth the new putty. First, roll the putty into a slender roll... about the size of a lead pencil. Press it in position... and shape it with the back of your opener.

Home Dem. Club Enjoys Turkey Dinner On Friday

At noon on Friday, Nov. 21st, the Santa Anna H. D. Club sat down to a fine turkey dinner in the home of Mrs. John Perry, with many autumn flowers adding a festive note to the occasion. Besides the dressing and gravy that accompanied the Thanksgiving bird, the menu included the usual salads, vegetables, relishes, pies and coffee. In the early afternoon, the regular meeting was held, with Mrs. Clifford Stephenson, the president, in charge. Regular routine business was attended to and features usually observed. Reports showed some of the members have been doing a lot of quilting lately.

The subject for the afternoon was Family Life and Mrs. Perry, in discussing "Special Dates in Your Family" showed a scrap book she has arranged of the four members of her family, with pictures and all important dates included. It also includes a family tree of her people and Mr. Perry's people, back to and including their grandparents. It was voted to have a Christmas party and gift-exchange in connection with the meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Edd Jones on Friday, December 19th. The club is glad that Mrs. Jones has been elected as president of the new hospital auxiliary. She held a like position when the club sponsored an auxiliary and did much work for our hospital.

Woman's Council Met Wednesday

The Woman's Council of the First Christian Church met in the annex on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Meeting opened by singing "Count Your Blessings", Mrs. E. H. Wylie offered prayer and Mrs. J. R. Gipson read appropriate scripture and made comments on Thanksgiving. Mrs. L. O. Garrett read "How Big is Your Bible."

As second in a series of Restoration leaders, the life of Barton W. Stone of Kentucky was read and discussed.

It was voted to have a luncheon at the annex on Wednesday, December 17th, at 12:30, which all the women of the church will be welcome to attend. An exchange of inexpensive gifts will be a feature. Mrs. L. O. Garrett is general chairman of food and other features. The next regular meeting will be December 3rd. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and apple pie, cheese, grapes and coffee or tea were served to eleven.

Liberty Home Dem. Club Observes Achievement Day

The Liberty Home Demonstration Club held their Achievement Day program and regular meeting in the community building on Tuesday of last week.

In combination with the other features, a quilt was finished for the Old Folks Home in Coleman.

Much beautiful handwork and tempting baked goods were displayed on tables.

Those present enjoyed refreshments served by Mrs. W. H. Pittard.

Interfacing In Dressmaking

In dressmaking an interfacing is used to give body and a professional look to a garment. The extra fabric helps the garment to hold shape, prevents loosely woven material from stretching or sagging, and gives crispness to places like collars and cuffs.

Clothing specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service say the kind of interfacing fabric and where you use it depends on the fabric and design of the garment you are sewing. For instance in the jerseys so popular this fall, a permanent finished net or marquisette can be used as interfacing across the shoulders of the dress and down the fronts of the blouse.

The specialists say firm, lightweight muslin can be used for interfacing down the fronts of a jacket, in the collar and cuffs, hip padding, inside the skirt band, in dressmaker suits and coats of linen, or rayon suitings and lightweight wool.

When you make interfacings check the fabric and if it is not pre-shrunk, shrink before cutting and press carefully. If the pattern does not include a separate piece for interfacing, use the pattern piece and cut on the same grain as the faced piece of the garment. The specialists suggest following the guide sheet of the pattern for general instructions on the use of interfacings.

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 18. DEVOTIONAL READING: Ephesians 5:11-20.

What Makes Right?

Lesson for November 30, 1952

WHAT makes right, right? It cannot be determined by counting votes. The voice of the people is not necessarily the voice of God.

Even if everybody in the world did exactly what is right (which has never happened in this world yet) it still would not be right merely because they all did it. If "right" meant nothing more than what everybody does or what most people do, then right would change as often as popular opinion changed. It would change with the climate, with the calendar. But right is something more enduring than popular opinions, customs or enthusiasms.

Does "Right" Mean "Legal"?

Another notion of what it is that makes right, is Law. If it's legal it's right, if it's illegal it's wrong. But haven't we often heard the expression, "There ought to be a law . . ."? The person who says that means that there is something which is right that isn't legal; he wants a law to match what is right. Or again, laws are sometimes repealed. But no one would ever vote to repeal a law if he didn't think the law was wrong. Good men sometimes repeal laws; but no good man ever wanted to repeal "right."

There is a variety of this idea which has more truth in it: namely, that right is the same thing as the law of God. But God does not make acts right or wrong simply by ordering them to be so.

Could God have said, Thou shalt kill, thou shalt bear false witness? Could he have said, Thou shalt hate thy God and hate thy neighbor? Of course not. He could not have made up such nonsense-laws, such wicked commandments, because he is not that kind of God, for one thing, and for another thing because if he did,

It would have meant the destruction of the human race. Although right, and the will of God, are really the same thing, yet an act is not right because God wills or commands it because it is right.

How Jesus Looked at It

How did Jesus our Lord stand on this question? What made a thing right, for him? He got into trouble with the lawyers of his time, and he got into trouble with what we would call D.D.'s and prominent preachers and professors of theology (the Pharisees); they called him "bad" and had him executed accordingly.

So there was evidently a difference between his way of looking at "right" and their way. It was precisely on this point that they split. Jesus tried to make clear, though the Pharisees were too blind to see it, that the Sabbath law, any law of God or good rule of man, is right and good only in so far as it promotes the welfare of man. This is not setting up man above God, for God is man's Creator. Right is what develops God's children; wrong is what stunts, deforms, defeats and destroys them.

To put it in another way: The test of right and wrong is always this: Will this thing make people better and make better people? If so, it is right. All our laws, institutions and interests must be brought to the test of their effect on human welfare. And of course, in Jesus' view, the welfare of man includes social, spiritual and mental well-being and growth, not physical health and financial wealth alone.

Liquor and Welfare

This being Temperance Sunday, it is a good time to think about the liquor traffic in the light of all this. Think it out for yourself. Remember, alcohol is a habit-forming drug, and all talk about liquor cannot erase that very plain fact.

Now think about the whole business of making it, glamorizing it in advertising, selling it and using it. Look around you in your home community, and in our nation at large, and ask: Does it bring more benefit to people in your community than it brings harm? Is the purpose of the business human welfare?

Ask the welfare agencies in your community—the Red Cross, the hospital, the agencies that look after the poor, the orphanage, and so on—ask these people: Does the liquor business make your work easier? Is the liquor trade the ally of the public school and the church? Does it make better citizens, better Christians? If it does, and only if it does, then as a Christian can you call it right.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

CONSIDER NEIGHBOR'S PROPERTY IN PLANS FOR YOUR OWN

Texas laws do not go so far as the Biblical admonition that you love your neighbor, but they do have something to say about how you may treat him and his property.

of Rio Grande Valley cotton and destroyed upwards of 40 million dollars worth throughout the infested cotton areas. Left unchecked it could spread throughout the entire state and ruin our cotton production.

This past season was "Get Tough With Pink Bollworm Year". And it was time we did. There are 228 Texas counties now infested. Forty-five of these are "heavily infested" and 183 "lightly infested." Sixty-one counties are under planting and plow-up regulations which are enforced by law.

No extensions were granted in areas where stalk destruction deadlines were set. Since we have no poisons which are effective against Pink Bollworm, then our best method of control is to set planting and plow-up deadlines and stick to them unless weather conditions prevent it. These deadlines cut down breeding and build-up periods and help assure few insect carry-overs through the winter.

Cooperation by farmers in the program was excellent. Only about 100 of them in the entire 61-county area affected failed to clean their fields on time. As a result, if we have a cold and comparatively damp winter, we can expect only a minimum infestation next season.

To give you an idea how one insect can spread, Pink Bollworms were found in 39 new counties this year where it had never been seen before. To combat further spread, we will set up about 300 new seed sterilization points in East and North Texas next year to establish a "front" beyond which few "pinkies" can pass.

Continued cooperation and vigilance on the part of cotton farmers will be required to minimize the threat. Seed from infested areas should always be sterilized before planting or storing. Fields should be cleaned of stalks soon after harvest. And a constant watch should be kept for the insects appearance in new areas.

Perhaps a new systemic poison will be developed which will affect the pest. But until that time, we must rely on present controls and the willingness of the farmers to protect Texas' largest industry — cotton.

Adjoining landowners have many mutual rights and obligations, and your rights to the use of your own property may sometimes be limited by the effect of the intended use on your immediate neighbors. Such limitations are in addition to those imposed by municipal zoning ordinances, building codes and other restrictions designed to protect the interests of an entire subdivision or city, or the public generally.

For example, say you have just bought the vacant lot next to Mr. Smith's property out on Main Street. Smith has a fine, big tree on his property but it juts over onto your lot and those overhanging branches will interfere with the plans you have for building your house.

You can't go over to Smith's lot and cut down his tree even though the branches will make your proposed living room as dark as the catacombs at midnight. On the other hand, neither does Smith have a right to let the tree on his land extend over your property, especially when it is going to interfere with your use of that property, so you do have the right to get rid of the offending branches.

However, before you start sawing you had better consider whether the removal of the branches will damage the tree. It is still Smith's tree and you don't want to cause it to die. The best thing to do is have a talk with Smith and see if you can arrange to have the limb cut off by someone who knows how to do so without harming the tree.

Of course, a boundary tree — where the trunk is on both sides of the boundary line — can be cut only by consent of both the owners.

Another possible problem: Let's say you want to cut down the front of your lot below the level of Smith's yard. The soil is pretty loose and you are sure that when you lower the grade, Smith's yard will slide all along the cut. However, you figure that it is up to Smith to do whatever is necessary to keep his land from sliding over on yours. He can put up a retaining wall, or something.

The law says you had better slow up a bit in this instance. The way things stand, Smith's yard is not currently in any danger of sliding. If you change that condition by cutting your land down, then it is your obligation to see that it doesn't cause damage to his property. It is up to you to put up the retaining wall if one is necessary to keep the adjoining land from sliding.

Suppose you and Smith build a driveway together so you can both save the biggest possible space for lawn. You get along fine with Smith, but he later sells his house to a new owner who wants to take up part of the driveway and plant petunias there. He can probably do it if you did not have a definite, written agreement with Smith by which the subsequent owner is bound.

Probably the best way to handle such a situation would be to have a written agreement with Smith and record it with the County Clerk before the driveway is built. Anyone buying the property later would thereby have notice of the agreement and be bound by it.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

David J. Hardin Serving In Korea

Practical Gifts Is What Overseas Soldiers Want

WITH THE KOREAN MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP — Practical gifts are what American soldiers in Korea want for Christmas, according to 1st Lt. Perry R. Brooks, whose wife, Mildred, lives at 515 Julian, Altus, Oklahoma.

Dehydrated foods for snacks, including soup, are high on the preferred list, Brooks says, followed by fruit, family photographs, stationery and toilet articles.

Other favorites for Christmas packages include radios, cameras, film, wallets and magazines. Brooks is serving with the Korean Military Advisory Group, which is helping train the Republic of Korea Army.

The lieutenant, who arrived at KMAG in August 1951, entered the Army in 1942.

He is a former student at Howard Payne College in Brownwood, Texas. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brooks, live in Bangs, Texas.

PINK BOLLWORM PROGRESS REPORT

Mention the insect "Pink Bollworm" to farmers in central and northern portions of Texas and you'll get reactions varying from mild alarm to complete disinterest.

But mention it in South Texas. The effect is immediate and explosive.

Some farmers fully realize the dangerousness of the situation and its potential threat to the entire cotton industry. Others concede the seriousness of the insect but are violently opposed to some control measures necessary to fight it.

Yet all agree on one point. The Pink Bollworm has hit them hard in the pocketbook.

This year the insect took about one out of every four bales

Farm Bureau Group To Attend National Convention Soon

Waco — Texas delegates to this year's national convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation will recommend adoption of a national farm program "that permits freedom of action by the farmer on his farm with a minimum of cost to the government," according to C. H. DeVaney, vice-president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

The 34th annual meeting of the powerful national farm organization will be held December 7-11 in Seattle. Resolutions adopted by the representatives of 47 state Farm Bureaus at these annual conventions have a strong influence on the shaping of the government's farm policy for the coming year.

Resolutions which will guide the Texas Farm Bureau during 1953 were adopted at the organization's annual state convention November 10-12 in San Antonio. All resolutions pertaining to national issues will be forwarded to the Seattle meeting.

The Texas Farm Bureau will recommend that acreage controls be imposed to keep production in line with demand, DeVaney said. The resolution on the controls reads: "We feel a more workable control program can be set up on the basis of farm acreage control, percent of the retired acres to be determined by the over-all over-production of all farm commodities."

According to the Texas Plan, unique among long-range farm program proposals, the support prices would have to be flexible to control plantings of the various crops. The support would be 100 per cent of parity when supplies of a given commodity were normal, increased when the crop is short, and decreased when supply is in excess of demand.

Hunting Data Now Required

Austin — The Chief Clerk of the Game and Fish Commission urged persons taking out shooting preserve licenses to maintain and later forward an accurate record of the big game harvest.

Persons or corporations selling hunting leases are required by law to obtain a shooting license which costs $5. More than four thousand of these permits are issued each fall.

The preserve record books, which are supplied by the Commission, provide space for the name and address of the persons hunting, the number of days each spent hunting and the quantity of game each person takes.

These records, by law, are required to be forwarded to the game commission not later than February 10.

The Chief Clerk said the principal deterrent heretofore has been the failure of shooting preserve proprietors to keep their records from the beginning of the season and their ultimate decision not to submit the partial reports.

The Director of Wildlife Restoration (W. C. Glazener) said the importance of the records "cannot be overestimated."

"This information on the annual harvest," he said, "provides the basis for establishing an index to the overall kill and the status of the various species. These records therefore provide a vital source of information for many of our projects. I believe that reserve proprietors would be more cooperative if they fully realized the benefits of accurate records."

New Night Driving Tests Devised

Austin — A new test to stimulate night driving conditions has been devised by safety experts of the American Automobile Association which has developed testing devices for use in driver education classes throughout the country, according to Paul R. Kulp, general manager of the Texas Division of the AAA.

The new device, known as the Night Sight Meter, measures a driver's ability to see in the face of approaching headlights, recover vision after the glaring headlights are past, and see on the open highway when there are no approaching headlights. Weighing only 15 pounds, the testing device is designed for use on ordinary electric light current so it can be easily transported and used anywhere electricity is available.

One feature of the Three-A sight meter is that it incorporates the element of speed, which is not found in other tests of this nature. In the test the targets change at the speed of 45 per minute so the subject must identify them quickly. This is comparable to the situation on the highway where the driver must identify pedestrians and other objects very quickly in order to avoid hitting them.

The Three-A night sight meter will be produced in quantity and made available to schools and police departments to replace the older devices now being used for a similar purpose.

The AAA safety experts point out that night vision is an often-overlooked factor in a driver's ability to operate his car safely under all conditions. Many serious accidents are caused by the driver's inability to see under conditions of darkness. This test, when properly given, is designed to inform drivers of their own limitations and, in some cases, prevent incompetents from driving.

Mrs. Tom Wheatley arrived home Tuesday morning from a two months visit with a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Black and other relatives at Long Beach, California. On the same day of her arrival, she departed for an indefinite stay at Storey, Ark., with a sick daughter, Mrs. Ruby McKay and other relatives.

Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Carrolls Moving Soon

Rev. C. L. Carroll has resigned as pastor of the North Side Baptist Church and has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist Church at Crews, to which place he and Mrs. Carroll will be moving early next week.

During the two years he has been pastor here, the congregation has erected a commodious building, with Sunday School rooms and other facilities adequate for the present and considerable future expansion.

Bro. Carroll had organized the congregation in a mission meeting he held just prior to accepting the pastorate. He had held pastorates at Talpa and Itasca, before coming to Santa Anna.

While living in Santa Anna, the Carrolls have made many friends, who will wish them well in their new location.

Rev. Jack Payne of the Methodist Church announced this week that copies of the recently published "History of The Santa Anna Methodist Church" are on sale at Blue Hardware and the Ladies Shop for fifty cents a copy.

The booklet contains a nine-page history of the church from its founding in 1885 until the present. It contains nine additional sketches of twenty-two early pioneer families who belonged to the church previous to 1910 and who still have descendants active here.

Santa Anna ladies who attended the pilgrimage of homes, showing antiques, in Brownwood on Wednesday of last week, were Mrs. Sam Collier, Mrs. Hardy Blue, Mrs. Kitty Walker, Mrs. R. C. Gay, Mrs. W. E. Wallace, Mrs. Nona Woodruff, Mrs. Joe Matthews and Mrs. C. D. Bruce. The pilgrimage was sponsored by the Brownwood 1940 Study Club.

The Stewardship Campaign is a statewide program led by laymen. More than 1000 Methodist Churches in Texas are cooperating. Highlight of the local campaign will be a five day Stewardship Revival, December 7-11, with a different speaker each evening. Rev. R. J. LaPrade and Rev. H. B. Loyd will lead the services the first two nights. One local layman, Mr. Carl Gilkerson, will be speaking one night during that week to each of these churches: Voss, Gouldbusk, Novice, Crews and First Church, Coleman.

FOOTBALL—
Mountaineers again held for downs on their 10-yard line, took the ball and attempted three long passes but failed to connect and then attempted to run the ball, but only made 4 yards, which gave the Buffaloes the ball on the Santa Anna 14-yard line. On the first play a pass was good for the entire distance, and the extra point was good, making the score 20-0 for the Buffaloes. The Buffaloes recovered another Mountaineer fumble just as the game ended.

DISTRICT BRIEFS
Dublin defeated Eastland by a 45-14 count to take top honors in the district and will go to bidistrict next week; DeLeon really pasted Rising Star to the tune of 72-0, the largest score in any one game in this district this year; and the Santa Anna-Cross Plains game was Cross Plains 20, Santa Anna 0.
