OF A COUNTRY EDITOR

BY JOHN C. GREGG

Again we wish to express appreciation to the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association of Texas, with headquarters in Waco, Texas, for furnishing us the picture of James Allen and A. D. Pettit, which appears elsewhere on this page. This association covers all major livestock shows in Texas and makes pictures of winners and sees that local newspapers get engravings of the winners' pictures, thus giving small newspapers an opportunity to give due publicity that otherwise they would be unable to give. We appreciate the opportunity of working with the association.

Wreck Injures Local Preacher Near Lawn Sunday

Rev. Glen Butler, pastor of the North Side Baptist Church, was injured in a three-car smash-up between Lawn and Goldsboro about one a. m. Sunday, March 1. Rev. Butler had been to Abilene on business and was returning home. As he came over a rise in the road, he collided into the rear of a car parked behind another car. All three vehicles were damaged.

Bennett Brooke of Big Spring had stopped to help a Negro couple who were having engine trouble, and was apparently getting ready to push the Negro's car, when the Butler car hit them.

Butler was not believed seriously injured. He and Brooke were admitted to an Abilene hospital.

A Santa Anna couple, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Phillips and a Coleman couple, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Burris, who were also returning from Abilene, were the first at the scene of the accident. They stopped and rendered aid and helped get the victims to the hospital.

All local talent will be used. Proceeds will go into the Legion general fund to assist disabled veterans and to help keep the Ex-Texas Ranger's home in good condition. Lions Den

Five members of the Santa Anna High School were guests of the Lions Club at the regular weekly meeting. The president, Tom Stewardson, was in charge and a fair attendance of Lions were present.

During the business session, the president called in the chairman for the Community Improvement Committee, Ford Barnes and Dick Bass, to make a report on their progress recently. Both made good reports. In the future, the president will pick a committee at random and ask them for a report. The chairman are supposed to be ready to make a report at any time.

The visitors present were: Jimmy Robinett, president of the Student Council; Billy McClellan, president of the Senior Class; Ann Tatum, vice-president of the Junior Class; Bill Lowery, president of the Sophomore Class; and Wess Wise, president of the Freshman Class. They were guests of R. K. Green, and introduced by Cullen N. Perry. Green gave a short talk on the activities of the schools here and some of the highlights of bills pending in the state legislature at the present time. All the program for the day was in honor of Public Schools Week.

Program chairmen for next week are Oscar Cheaney and Harry Crews.

Mrs. McCaughan was with the family when the little one arrived and Mrs. Henderson visited them at the week end.

Goodwill is as fragile as an orchid, but as beautiful, as precious as a gold nugget, but as hard to find, as powerful as a giant turbine, but as difficult to build, as wonderful as youth, and as hard to keep.

Doctor To Answer Question Through Your Newspaper

Today your hospital is eight months old. It opened its doors for business and the care of your ills, tragedies, and sicknesses, July 1, 1952. The first patient was put to bed November 24 with pneumonia, and since that time a steady, sometimes overwhelming stream of men, women and children have come and gone.

Where other hospitals and men have closed down and moved away, your hospital continues to flourish and grow, because of your interest and active support. Young and old, individuals, families, businesses and organizations have devoted time, money, and effort to build the Santa Anna Hospital. Everyone has considered the hospital and its work, their work and responsibility. That is as it should be because men and women come and go but such an institution lives on intimately entwined in the very fabric of a hundred thousand lives. The soul of it is yours.

Each week under this heading you will find medical or hospital items of interest to you or your neighbor. You may write in brief questions which will be answered briefly or if too long will be answered by a personal letter.

Your hospital is now fully approved for any or all kinds of insurance including Blue Cross.

When you go to the doctor for some accident or illness, take your insurance along. Don't suddenly remember your policy that is in the bank or at grandma's when the doctor says, "You'll be all right now, no need to come back." You'll lose up to 1/2 your benefits, sometimes all.

Most policies provide hospital care. You may need to stay overnight to collect on your policy. Sometimes this is wise.

Coleman County Hospitals are the cheapest in room rates in this section of the country, $3.50 per day. And since your biggest bill in any accident, illness or surgery is your hospital bill, be certain that your policy pays at least $8.00 per day for a room. Next biggest item is drugs and medicines and last and usually least is your doctor bill.

"Snowball" Sells For $800 At San Antonio

PICTURED ABOVE IS JAMES RICHARD ALLEN with his Vocational Agriculture Teacher and FFA Sponsor, A. D. Pettit and his lamb "Snowball" which has brought Allen over $110.00 in prize money in four livestock shows and then sold to the Grand Prize Brewers of San Antonio, Texas, for $800 last week. The lamb had been awarded the champion of the Southdown division in the San Antonio Livestock Exposition the week before.

The lamb was bred by Don Smith of Talpa and Allen purchased the lamb about 10-months ago. The lamb took the Grand Champion place in the Santa Anna show in January and then took the Grand Champion of the Coleman County show. In the Fort Worth show Allen took second place in the Southdown division, then went to San Antonio and took the first place again. The San Antonio show does not pick a Grand Champion lamb but awards three first places.

Pettit has acted in an advisory capacity since Allen purchased the lamb.

Mrs. Gene Hensley Receives Word Clothes Delivered

Mrs. Jeanette Hensley received word recently from her husband, Lt. Col. L. Gean Hensley, stationed with the Korean Military Advisory Group in Korea, that he had received and delivered the clothes gathered here for that purpose just before Christmas time. Lt. Col. Hensley expressed his appreciation to the people who donated the money and clothes for this purpose.

The clothes were distributed in a small farming village near where his group is located. He said that the officers of his group had furnished money to the orphan's home near them, and that the farming community was in more of a destitute need than the orphans were, so his group gave them the eight boxes of clothes.

The Korean people were very appreciative and the clothes enabled them to better withstand the cold weather through the winter.

Names For City Offices Must Be Filed Soon

Thus far, not one name has been filed for a place on the regular city ballot, for the city election to be held on Tuesday, April 7. Deadline for filing is 7:30 p. m. Friday, March 6. Names will be accepted until that time.

Positions open are: Mayor and five aldermen. Leland Thompson and Charles Wristen, now serving as aldermen, are expected to file for a place on the ballot and some others are considering putting their names on the ballot.

The City Council will hold their regular meeting on Friday night. All who wish to file an application to get their names on the ballot must go to the city hall and get an application blank, fill it out and have it notarized.

New Ward School Building Accepted Last Thursday

The new Elementary School building was accepted last Thursday by members of the Santa Anna Independent School District. Don Smith of Sweetwater was the Architect and Robert L. Kirkbride of Hillsboro was the contractor.

Open house is planned on Sunday, March 15 and regular school classes will begin in the new building on Monday, March 16th.

The building contains 14 class rooms, each 30-foot by 22-foot, a large study hall, library, combination cafeteria and auditorium which will seat approximately 300 persons, a teachers lounge, teachers workroom, health unit with shower and rest room, office and bookroom.

In the primary department, each room has individual rest room and individual lockers. Individual lockers are also in each of the older students rooms.

Plans are being made for an open house program to be held on Sunday, March 15, with the PTA having charge. The entire program will be announced in next weeks paper.

We'd rather have a wart on our nose than a debt on our hands.

Envy is a madness which cannot endure the good of others.

Dick Bass, City Manager, said this week that the city has purchased a number of 20-gallon covered garbage cans that they will sell for the exact cost, which is $2.75 each. They will also deliver them to your residence free of charge. These cans have been purchased and are being sold at cost in order to get as many people to use covered cans as possible.

Mr. Bass stated that the city now has contacts where they can get more cans on short notice. However, everyone who possibly can is urged to get one during the next few days.

The premise survey, being made by the students of the FFA and FHA Chapters of the Santa Anna High School, will begin Wednesday, March 11 and those who have the covered garbage cans on their property by that time will receive credit for using them.

Covered cans are very important in the fight against polio and other dreaded diseases. It is likely that in the near future it will be made mandatory that these cans be used. However, if all the citizens of Santa Anna would use them without being forced, there would be no reason for making it mandatory.

The survey will reveal just how much progress has been made during the year since a similar survey was made a year ago. The results of the survey will be tabulated and compared with last years reports and this years reports, when tabulated, will be published. However, individual reports will not be published.

Final Rites For J. B. Scott Sun.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, March 1st, at 4 p. m., at the First Methodist Church, where he held membership, for John B. Scott.

Rev. Jack Payne, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. E. H. Wylie, First Christian Church pastor, officiated at the services.

Mr. Scott died on Saturday, February 28th at 6:20 a. m. in the Santa Anna Hospital, where he had been taken on Friday night, after a few days illness at his home.

He had not fully recovered from a recent attack of flu and had not enjoyed robust health since receiving injuries in an oil field accident, about 14 years ago.

He was born on July 21, 1893, in Navarro County, and moved to this vicinity as a boy. He continued to make Santa Anna his home, except for short time residences in other places, connected with his work.

Mr. Scott is survived by the widow of Santa Anna; one daughter, Mrs. Floyd Arthur of Ballinger; one sister, Mrs. Vivian Gregory of Dallas; one brother, Leo Scott of Houston; and three grandsons.

Burial was in the Santa Anna Cemetery with Wright's Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Austin — In the Senate is a bill that has turned out to be the most controversial and most costly of the legislative session to date.

It is a wrangle between two factions of optometrists.

The bill occasioned two full days of debate in the House before it finally passed by a vote of 97 to 41.

House Bill 5 is the designation of this measure, whose original purpose was to prevent optometrists from advertising and to break up the optometry chain stores.

The proposition, authored by Representative Stanley Banks Jr. of San Antonio, has the support of the Texas Optometry Association, a statewide organization of independent optometrists.

Opposing the bill are the advertising optometrists, including the chains.

Proponents of the legislation say they want to lift the standards of the profession and increase the authority of the state board of optometry so that it can tighten regulation and thereby eliminate any undesirable practices.

Opponents contend that the bill would invade their private rights, and that the public would have to pay more for glasses if the measure should pass.

Amendments in the House toned down the bill's provisions, but did not remove objections of the opponents, who are redoubling their fight against the measure in the Senate.

The attitudes of three members of the House summed up various viewpoints on the bill:

Representative Banks: "It raises the standards of the profession."

Representative Douglas Bergman of Dallas: "It's just an attempt to stifle free enterprise."

Representative Bill (Jitterbug) Henderson of Houston: "Let the people decide where they want to buy glasses. I say get the government out of business."

Thornton Jr. of the highway commission.

He added that the commission will not undertake to tell the Legislature how to raise the money because "that is a legislative prerogative, and an administrative agency should not interfere in it."

The department has estimated that it will take an additional $100 million per year for the next five years to bring Texas highways up to standard and maintain them.

Another bill that caused a good deal of controversy — one to ban resort lodges from state parks — was killed in the House, 63 to 59.

Barring revival of the bill, which seems unlikely, the state parks board can sell bonds to private investors and build resort lodges at Inks Lake near Burnet, Lake Texoma, and Possum Kingdom Lake.

Each project will cost about $1 million. When the lodges are built they will be leased by the parks board to private operators.

You can look for stout argument next Wednesday, March 11, on whether to repeal or amend the automobile inspection law.

The House voted to postpone further debate on the issue until that time.

Representative Sam Sellar of Waco is author of a bill to wipe the law off the statute books. Representative D. H. Buchanan of Longview has a bill which he says will remove the undesirable features of the present law but retain its major objective — to take mechanically unsafe cars off the roads.

Highway Department top brass is tolling to perfect a presentation of their $300 million road improvement program for a joint session of House and Senate.

"We plan to lay the full facts before the Legislature at one time," says Chairman E. H.

For a long time, there have been rumblings of discontent about the administration of Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer.

Senator J. T. Rutherford of Odessa wants to bring the whole affair out into the open with a full dress investigation of the state health department, which the senator calls a "farce".

The investigation, if held, "will disclose facts that will warrant the removal" of State Health Officer Cox and his top aides, Senator Rutherford thinks.

Dr. Cox had no reply to the senator's remarks. He said it was up to the state board of health to do whatever they chose about it.

The board has met several times without acting on the re-appointment of Dr. Cox, whose present term of office expired January 1.

The board could act on the appointment at its next session, March 9, but Senator Rutherford asked that the board further delay its appointment, pending the results of his proposed investigation.

A Senate subcommittee may report next week on a bill that sets out to establish a uniform plan of taxing gasoline and compensating service stations for shrinkage caused by varying weather.

The original committee hearing on the bill attracted 1,200 service station operators and gasoline wholesalers. Service station operators contended they were suffering losses because they receive less gasoline than they pay for, since weather changes cause gasoline to alter in volume.

Gasoline jobbers countered that it would cause them undue hardship if they were required, as the bill provides, to compute the four-cent sales tax on each gallon of gasoline at a uniform temperature of 60 degrees.

To eliminate duplication of federal and state powers, especially in the field of taxation, will be the aim of a commission whose members will be appointed by President Eisenhower, Congress, and the National Governors' Conference.

Governor Allan Shivers, as president of the conference, conferred with the president about the idea in Washington, and commented that it was the first time a president has ever called in governors to hear their views on how to stop federal-state conflicts.

The trouble with most of us is that our necessities are too luxurious and our luxuries are too necessary.

So the People May Know

At the insistence of Texas Press Association, the 51st Legislature in 1949 passed the "Mandatory Publications Act."

The act was passed because some city, county, and other local government officials had failed to comply with state regulations requiring them to publish in the newspapers facts concerning the financing and operation of their offices.

The mandatory publications act provided that "all public officers of the state, counties, cities and school districts who are required by law to publish legal notices or financial statements and who shall fail, refuse, or neglect to make such publications shall be guilty of malfeasance of office and subject to forfeiture of salary for the month in which such failure occurs. Such officers shall be subject to removal from office upon wilful continuance of such neglect of duty."

The act also provides that "suits to enjoin or recover payments of salary and for removal from office under law shall be instituted in the proper district court by the county or district attorney of the county in which the offending officer resides."

Further provision of the publications act will be told in this series of articles.

The Life Service Band of Howard Payne College will present a program in the Baptist Church March 8th. This program will be of interest to everyone in the community and a cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

We are going to miss three of our young men who have been called into the armed services. They are Otha Vaughn Curry, Eugene Casey and Kenneth Day. We hope for them a safe return to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and Randy went to Eastland last Saturday to the funeral of Mrs. Brown's aunt, Mrs. Jesse Ward. Mrs. Ward was also the sister of Mrs. Lester Freeman.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

While Legislative activities were confined, in the main, to committee hearings last week, the spotlight turned for a moment to flood prevention works when a group of soil conservationists from over the nation came to the Capitol to urge more attention to the long-neglected subject of flood prevention. They were not asking for higher appropriations, but rather for more emphasis being placed on conserving the water near where it falls and thereby preventing the big floods that result from upstream overflows.

The group called on President Eisenhower, the Secretary of Agriculture, and then met with some 20 Congressmen in the House Agriculture Committee's hearing room.

There has been some pioneering in this field in recent years. Our West Texas area has been in the forefront in this regard. The Congress has authorized comprehensive flood-prevention programs in 11 areas over the Nation, including two in Texas. One of those, known as the Middle Colorado River Watershed, authorized in 1945, covers an area in West Texas of 7,189 square miles. It includes watersheds of Pecan Bayou, Brady Creek, San Saba River and the area draining into the Colorado River between its confluence with the Concho River and the mouth of Pecan Bayou.

Although handicapped by shortage of funds, this watershed program has much to show for its activities. Through local assistance, many dams have already been built, and many more are planned. In Coleman County hundreds of such retention dams have been constructed. Deep Creek, an unruly stream with wide valleys, which flows into the Colorado from McCullough and San Saba Counties, will soon be practically free of flood damage by the dams that are being erected at strategic points in its watershed. It is already being looked upon as a sort of model for other similar projects. The idea is to hold back the flood waters, then permit the water to escape gradually rather than all at one time.

An even more ambitious project is planned to harness the turbulent floods that periodically haunt the valleys and towns on Brady Creek. This project, mapped by Soil Conservation Engineers, is sponsored by land-owners and public-spirited citizens. It calls for 42 retention dams, costing a total of around $4,000,000. It would prevent floods, soil erosion, and cause an increase in the underground water supply. This would add much to the economic value of the area.

To encourage and make such projects possible generally over the country, rather than in the 11 districts already authorized, Rep. Bob Poage of Waco is sponsoring a bill on the subject. The Poage bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Lyndon Johnson.

It looks like more emphasis on prevention and less need for flood control, as the future battles against floods unfold.

Santa Anna Baptist Young Folks Honored With Banquet Friday

"Along Life's Highway" was the theme for the second annual Sweetheart Banquet given February 27th at 7:30 p. m. at the church annex, honoring the young people of the First Baptist Church of Santa Anna. One hundred and two guests were present for the occasion.

A miniature highway, representing Life's Highway, with traffic signs, was placed in the center of the table. Hitch-hikers made from pipe stems with colorful traveling bags were placed at intervals, along the highway. Plate favors were miniature traveling bags filled with nuts and mints.

The program was in booklet form. On its cover was a highway cleverly designed with a lace dollie, a traveler on a bicycle, and a sign, which read, "Life's Highway."

In keeping with the theme, the program was in the form of a journey. Julian Whitley was master of ceremonies and Rev. Harry Wigger gave the invocation.

Immediately after the dinner, Emzy Brown, superintendent of the Young People's Department, extended greetings to the travelers.

A sextet, composed of Shirley Lewellen, Wally Foster, Ann Tatum, Betty Scott, Carolyn Foster and Sandra James, sang "Long, Long, Trail," with group singing on the chorus.

"Sentimental Journey," accompanied by sound effects was acted by Janice Donham and Donnie Simmons.

"Side By Side" was sung by Melvin Pollock and Joan Dunn. "A Bicycle Built For Two" was sung and jested by Billie McClellan and Carolyn Lovelady.

Guest speaker was Rev. Maurice Smith, Howard Payne College student, Brownwood, who brought a very impressive talk on "Signals Along the Way."

The final number on the program was "Highways Are Happy Ways," by the sextet with group singing on the chorus.

Walker Tatum, superintendent of the Intermediate Department, gave the benediction.

Holy Land Pictures Sponsored By Local Home Dem. Club

On Wednesday, February 25th at 2:30 p. m., a group of fifty women and children met in the annex of the First Christian Church to see slides of the Holy Land, shown by Mrs. Henry Stallings of Brownwood. This most worthwhile affair was sponsored by the Santa Anna Home Demonstration Club. The pictures, taken by Mrs. Stallings last year, included views of places in Egypt, Italy and Greece and their connection with the Bible, but most of the slides were of the places made sacred by the "Footprints of Jesus", and his followers. There were also pictures of beloved places mentioned in the Old Testament.

Mrs. Stallings took a special Bible course to understand the places where she traveled and quoted much scripture as the slides were shown. The pictures were extra clear and colorful.

She showed places on a map, where she stopped.

Mrs. Clifford Stephenson, H. D. President, presided for this meeting, which opened with a song, followed by a prayer, by Mrs. J. F. Goen, after which she introduced Mrs. Stallings.

The club presented her a gift, but nothing could adequately express the appreciation of the club, and others who saw the pictures. Mrs. Louis Zachary presented a corsage to Mrs. Stallings. Following the picture presentation, a social period followed during which the club served refreshments of lime punch and home made cookies, from a lace laid table, centered with white hyacinths. There were plenty of refreshments for second servings and even more if desired.

Rheumatic Fever Is Big Killer Among Young People

Austin — Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, commenting on the seriousness of rheumatic fever, today declared that this disease is recognized as one of the greatest killers among young people. Between the ages of 10 and 15, rheumatic fever causes more deaths than any other disease the State Health Officer said, and in persons between the ages of 15 and 24, it is outranked only by tuberculosis.

Dr. Cox stresses the fact that deaths in childhood from rheumatic fever have not decreased in a satisfactory manner during the past decade, and warned the parents of children to pay particular attention to the care and treatment of such predisposing diseases as tonsillitis and other upper respiratory infections.

"The diagnosis in this disease is not always easy," Dr. Cox stated. "Any child with suspicious symptoms should be under the prolonged supervision of a physician since along with a general involvement of the body, the heart is practically always involved. The symptoms consist only of pallor, loss of weight, easy fatigue, unusual sweating, loss of appetite, and sometime fleeting muscular pain, and a little joint stiffness and a rapid beating of the heart. The more severe cases may show repeated nose bleeds, extreme nervousness, stiffness and pain in the joints, swelling of the joints, fever and pain over the heart."

According to Dr. Cox the majority of children who experience rheumatic fever suffer more than one attack and each may last months or even at times one to three years. The final result depends on the amount of heart damage incurred. Closely supervised bed rest throughout the entire period of infection is essential in order to minimize this danger.

Mrs. Sam Lowe of Menard visited a part of last week with an old school friend, Mrs. B. M. McCain. She also visited with her nephew, Lanham Cole and wife.

Living Alert

Lesson for March 8, 1953

WHAT is this parable of the "foolish virgins" all about? Dr. Wehrli of Eden Seminary makes a simple straightforward suggestion. The story has to do with emergency, the unexpected and how to meet it. If everything had gone according to plan, the foolish virgins would not have been in trouble. They had all the oil they thought they would need. When they set out, it was the wise virgins who looked foolish. Why carry those extra flasks of oil? Wasn't it enough to carry a lamp without being bothered with oil besides? But when the hours wore on and on, those extra flasks did not look so foolish. The wise virgins were ready for the unexpected; the foolish were not.

Life's Emergencies

If the future were as plain to us as the past, then (we think) life might be easier. But that is not the way life goes. There is much we can count on; otherwise there would never be any use in making any kind of plans.

But there also will be things ahead we don't count on. Disease or death may enter the home unannounced. Temptation may lift its ugly head among the flowers of our happiness. The person who goes through life prepared only for what he expects, will find himself in the dark. Only by being prepared for what we don't expect, can we rise to life's emergencies.

But how can we prepare for what we don't expect? Of course we can't prepare in detail for the unforeseen. What we can manage to have is a reservoir of strength; for physical emergencies reserves of health; for moral emergencies, reserves of character; for spiritual emergencies, reserves of faith.

The Unexpected Is The Test

When there is a big fire, or some extraordinary disaster like a bombing or an explosion, the police of a great city will send reserves to the stricken area to guard against looters. Now as Dr. Wehrli says, the police aren't specially worried about ordinary criminals.

But the people who do the looting at fires are the ordinary people, who in ordinary situations wouldn't think of stealing. They are honest enough for all routine situations. They would not think of breaking a door down in order to steal. But when a fire or an earthquake opens the door, and the lights go out, then these "honest" people turn into thieves. They don't have the reserves of character to carry them through the moral emergency.

Sometimes again the emergency will be an opportunity. When an important position falls vacant, who is chosen to fill it? The man who is ready for it. But who is ready for the bigger job? The man who worked harder than he needed to on the smaller job; the man who learned more than he had to know to hold down the smaller job. If a man isn't ready for a bigger job than he has, he isn't likely ever to get his chance at it when the bigger one is open.

On The Alert

Three pieces of advice can be given to those who wish to live on the alert. One is: Keep physically fit. That may sound too obvious, but it is not, as any doctor could tell you. If your health breaks down you are stopped in your tracks no matter what your work may be. Whether you aim to be a missionary, a farmer or a governor, you are going to need all the health you can have. Don't cut down your body's efficiency by the use of liquor, drugs, overeating, undersleeping or what not.

The same can be said of the second point: Keep mentally fit. Keep your mind a bit sharper than it needs to be right now, sharp enough for the unlooked-for opportunity or problem or responsibility.

Again it is needless to say that the use of alcohol is one of the commonest enemies of mental fitness.

And finally: keep spiritually fit. The Holy Spirit is no substitute for your own hard and careful thinking; but the closer you live to the God who is Lord of both today and tomorrow, the more ready you are going to be for whatever he may send.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

LEGISLATIVE IMMUNITY TO LIBEL ACTIONS EXPLAINED

Does the law provide redress for persons whose character and reputations are wrongfully assailed? Lawyers say that it does, but with exceptions.

Occasionally the public is agitated by charges brought on the floor of Congress against various individuals — scientists, actors and highly placed government employees. In some cases, where the falsity of those charges has been established, we have become interested in what remedy is available to a person wrongfully accused, either orally or in print. This situation has given new emphasis and importance to the laws governing libel and slander.

What are libel and slander? Generally speaking, libel is a malicious or false publication, in print or in writing, about the character or reputation of a person, made without justification or excuse. This need not be something printed in a newspaper or magazine article — it may be a private letter in which something false and malicious is stated.

Slander is a defamation of a person's character, without legal excuse, made by the spoken word. This need not necessarily be a radio or television address but may be an oral statement which is not mechanically broadcast and which may be heard only by a few rather than by a great number.

Our system of jurisprudence, originating in the common law of England, has always recognized the right of the individual to be safe from an unjust or wrongful attack upon his character and reputation. The relief provided by our laws includes both penal action and civil action for damages. But these remedies do not exist without qualifications and exceptions.

Certain public officials such as members of Congress and members of legislatures, in the course of exercising their duties, have immunity from libel and slander laws.

On the surface this may appear to be somewhat unfair in that a congressman or state legislator may say things which are untrue about a person and that person has no right to bring suit for damages against him. But there is a reason for it.

Although the rights of the individual are very dear and highly respected by our Constitution and laws, there are times when some of those rights must be suspended if other functions of government are to be realized. If a congressman or legislator stands in fear of being sued because of what he says while advocating or opposing legislation, the function of Congress and the legislature would come to a standstill. For that reason the law gives them immunity.

However, recently some congressmen have been accused of abusing this privilege. There has been talk about our law being amended to give injured parties redress against them for false and libelous statements. Would such be desirable? That is a matter of considerable controversy. Although we may sympathize with any person whose personal character and integrity is assailed even by a member of Congress, many feel that the legislative function is so important that we should be cautious in making any changes that might curtail or impede the elected representatives of the people in the execution of their law-making duty.

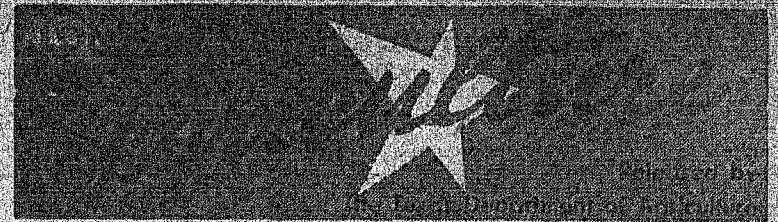

(This column, based on Federal and Texas law, is written to inform — not advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Christian Science Begins New Series Of Programs Saturday

GOOD FARM MANAGEMENT HELPS PROFITS

Low production — increased costs — inefficient management; these factors are among the biggest causes of unsatisfactory profits for the Texas farmer.

There is an answer. It lies in more efficient operations which include cutting costs, producing more crops per acre, more meat per animal and more work per hour. Of course, it is easier said than done but—

What are the highest crop yields in your area on your type of soil? by planting better varieties of certified and tested seed, perhaps you can bring your crop yields up to standard. Or a change in rotation plan, plus making good use of fertilizers might mean the difference. Your county agent has a wealth of material available for study, upon request.

While striving to get more meat or other production per animal, it's a wise practice to keep track of what's new in feeds and feeding practices. Rid your herd of low producers and slow weight gainers. Sires should be used which have proved their ability to produce quick-gaining offspring of the type best suited to your needs. By controlling diseases, parasites, injuries and death losses, you can cut your animal production costs a great deal.

Getting more out of the hour just involves doing some straight thinking. Doing the job "the hard way" gets it done — but the time and labor costs are high. Efficiency studies show that even a simple re-arrangement of chore routes may save you hundreds of miles of walking in a year. There are new profitable and practical ways of using power and improved machinery, of cutting and storing hay and silage — of feeding livestock — of doing practically all types of farm work better.

Labor saving and work simplification bulletins are available from Texas A&M College. Whatever plans you follow, the proof of their value is measured in terms of whether or not you end up with more per acre, per animal and per hour.

Lower production costs, achieved through efficient operation, has the same effect on net profits as an equal rise in price of products sold. There isn't too much the farmer can do about the selling price, but he can do something about lowering his own production costs.

Mrs. Christine Woodward returned to her home at Lubbock on Wednesday of last week after a visit of several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Cecil Curry and Mr. Curry. Another sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bowers and Cora, of Dallas were week end visitors in the Curry home.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Christiansen, who had been spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Bill Williamson and family in Los Angeles, California, visited here recently with Mrs. I. Williamson. From here they went to Florida for a while before returning to their home in Boston, Mass.

K. P. Ewing Gets High Appointment
At Washington

K. P. Ewing, veteran entomologist, whose work with the cotton farmers on insect control has meant the difference between success and failure, has been appointed to a high post with the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington. Ewing has been chosen to head the division of insects affecting cotton and other fiber plants. Ewing has been a research entomologist with the Department for more than 32 years. For the past year he has concentrated his efforts on a study of ways to bring under control the pink boll worm, now considered one of cotton's most dangerous pests.

For several years Ewing has devoted much time to training extension service workers, veteran agricultural teachers and Farmers Home Administration county supervisors. He has been particularly interested in the welfare of the family type farmer.

Becoming associated with the USDA in 1920 Ewing immediately took high rank as an administrator and scientist, and has made many contributions to the yield and quality of cotton through the development of better insect control.

A graduate of Mississippi State College, he took an important part in research that proved sulfur to be an effective control for the destructive cotton flea-hopper, and he was the first to show that arsenicals could be used to control certain insects, the tarnished plant bug, and other insects that feed on plant juices.
From 1939 until his recent elevation to the Washington post, Mr. Ewing was in charge of a cotton research laboratory at Waco. There he and his staff pioneered in discovering the value and proper use of many of the new synthetic insecticides, which are widely used throughout the cotton growing states today. In recognition of his work the USDA in 1949 awarded him the Supervisor Service award.

The Progressive Farmer in 1950, named Mr. Ewing "Man of the Year" for outstanding service to Agriculture; and the Cotton Gin and Oil Mill Press dedicated its 1951 cotton issue to him for his work on early season and community-wide insect control. The editor in dedicating the issue dubbed Ewing "Mr. Insect Control", a sobriquet that those who know him and know of his work, says was well applied.

While Mr. Ewing's outstanding accomplishments included leadership in actual on-the-ground warfare against cotton insects, he is also distinguished as an author of various bulletins in which insect control is given scientific treatment as to use and practices designed to combat effectually cotton insect pests of every kind.

Gary Hosch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hosch, who recently suffered a bad knee injury, is getting along quite well, is back in school and gets about on crutches. The injury, caused by a fall from his bicycle, required surgery by a bone specialist in a Ft. Worth hospital. The injured leg is still in a cast from the foot to well up on the thigh.

Major and Mrs. H. A. Mooney and children of Grand Prairie visited from Friday until Sunday with her mother, Mrs. B. M. McCain and Louie.

Tommie Simpson of Mathis was a week end visitor here with his grandparents, Elder and Mrs. E. H. Wylie. Others spending the week end in the Wylie home were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Petree and daughters of Abilene. Saturday visitors were Mrs. Lonnie Sykes and Virginia of Bangs.

Mrs. John L. Williams, who has not been well of late, was able Sunday to accompany her husband and son, Doyle, and Patty to Clyde, where they visited with old friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kniffen.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kingsberry are in South Texas on business and before returning home will visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kingsberry and Ann at Batesville.

Former County
Couple Leave Large
Sum To Abilene C. C.

Abilene - Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bozeman of Amherst have willed their entire estate, valued at $400,000, to Abilene Christian College.

Announcement of the will was made here by B. Sherrod of Lubbock, president of the ACC Board of Trustees. The Bozeman were in Abilene this week attending the 34th annual Abilene Christian College Bible Lectureship.

The Amherst couple has extensive land holdings in West Texas and New Mexico as well as 526 acres in oil royalty.

"We thought about giving something so our efforts in life might live on after we have gone. To say the least, we hope and trust that this will be the means of giving a host of boys and girls some good from our efforts," Mr. Bozeman said in signing the will.

Don H. Morris, college president, termed the will "one of the most magnanimous things that has happened to the school."

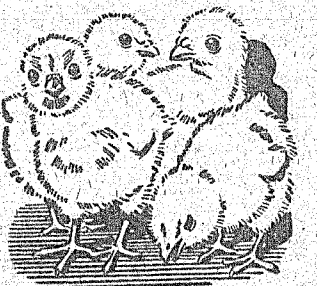

A native of Coleman County, Mr. Bozeman was reared in West Texas and Oklahoma. He farmed throughout Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Oil was struck in 1947 on Levelland property of which Mr. Bozeman controlled the mineral rights. Since that time he and his wife have lived most of the time at Amherst.

T/Sgt. Travis Harris, after a stay of several weeks here with his mother, Mrs. E. A. Harris, left early last week, returning to his headquarters at Paris, France. Mrs. De Vere O'Malley, granddaughter of Mrs. Harris, who has been with her lately, has returned to her home in Ft. Worth. Mrs. Harris, who has not been well since the death of her husband in January, is now being cared for in her home by a woman from Bangs.

Darwin Schrader On Aircraft Carrier USS Bataan Near Japan

Far East (FHTNO) — Serving aboard the small aircraft carrier USS Bataan, is Darwin B. Schrader, aviation ordnance-man third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Schrader of Santa Anna, Texas.

Since her arrival in the Far East, the Bataan has been conducting anti-submarine warfare exercises near Japan prior to her return to the forward area.

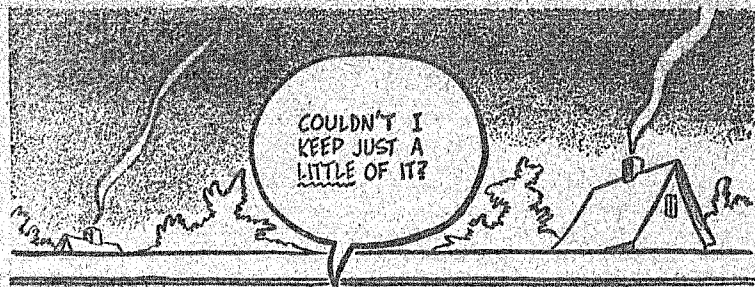

The carrier was originally commissioned in November, 1943. She was recommissioned May 13, 1950, and left six months later for her first tour in the Far East. She returned home in June, 1951, and departed again in January, 1952.

Foe Of Rackets Offer Anti-Loan Shark Amendment

Austin — Rep. Bill Kugle of Galveston, who recently offered bills to strengthen the laws against gambling rackets, has taken in after another group — the loan sharks. He has proposed a constitutional amendment which would place a ceiling on the charges that can be assessed on small borrowers.

Kugle's amendment retains the present 10 per cent maximum on interest in the constitution but permits the legislature to substitute an over-all maximum percentage for all charges, including interest, investigation, fees, credit insurance and the other items which now are used to run up the cost sometimes to 200 per cent or more. Most states have adopted similar legislation, which sets a figure that is fair alike to borrower and lender.

Driven out of other states, the high-raters have made Texas into a "loan sharks' paradise", declare members of the Junior Bar of Texas. President Tom Reavley says that, through the elimination of subterfuges, the cost of a typical loan can be reduced to about one-sixth of the present charge.

Recently, Kugle struck two blows at organized gambling in Texas when he introduced bills to raise the penalty for the possession of punch-boards from a fine to a prison sentence and to include tip books in the punch-board law.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

In the first chapter of Genesis, man is referred to as the "image and likeness" of God — terminology which implies that man, like his Maker, is good. This is the view of Christian Science, as brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" which will be read in this Sunday's church services.

Several selections from the Bible emphasize that love of God and trust in Him bring out in human experience a greater measure of health, happiness, and success. This is the Golden Text from Psalms (84:4,12): "Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee — O Lord of Hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee". Paul said, "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God."

The following will be read from the Christian Science textbook by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man reflects infinite Truth, Life, and Love. The nature of man, thus understood includes all that is implied by the terms 'image' and 'likeness' as used in Scriptures" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 94).

State Approves 4-H Public Speaking Program For 1953

As a means of helping 4-H members acquire the ability to speak convincingly in public, two college scholarships of $300 each and two all-expense trips to the 32nd National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November will be awarded to a 4-H boy and girl selected from the state winners for outstanding achievement in the 1953 4-H Public Speaking program.

In addition, the Pure Oil Company provides gold-filled medals of honor for county winners in each participating county, a set of silverware for the top-ranking 4-H girl, and a 17-jewel wrist watch for the outstanding boy in each of 26 states.

More than 12,000 4-H Club members took part in the 1952 program, 1,271 of whom received merit medals for their proficiency in public speaking. The State Club office in Texas has approved 4-H member participation in this educational program, conducted under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service.

A free booklet, "How to Make a Convincing Speech," is provided by the awards donor, and may be obtained by 4-H Club leaders and members from the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, 59 East Van Buren Street, Chicago 5, Ill. It contains valuable tips on platform presence, how to interest an audience, good delivery, how to open — and of equal importance — how to end a speech.

After a ten days visit in the home of her sister, Mrs. Ira Hudler at Monahan, Mrs. Chester Galloway returned home on Thursday of last week. Mrs. Hudler brought her home. Mr. Hudler came for her and they returned home on Saturday after visiting with her mother, Mrs. M. D. Eubank and Pauline. Elmo Eubank of Temple was also a visitor in the Eubank home Monday night.

NOTICE DOG OWNERS

During the past few weeks numerous complaints have been filed at the City Hall concerning disturbances caused by dogs running loose in the City Limits.

At present very few dogs in the city are licensed. In order for a dog to be allowed to run at large, he is supposed to be vaccinated for rabies and wearing a city dog tag. In order to purchase a dog tag, the owner must present a receipt showing the dog to be vaccinated for rabies.

Our City Ordinances require that all dogs not so licensed must be picked up and disposed of.

If you value your dog, we urgently request that you immediately see that he is vaccinated and licensed.

Dog owners are also requested to keep their dogs at home as much as possible. Even if they are licensed they are not supposed to be allowed to roam and cause disturbances over the city. Should harm befall your dog while he is not on your property, the owner has no recourse.

Further complaints have been filed at the City Hall by farmers of our area, indicating that large groups of dogs have been killing their sheep.

We are going to exert every effort to enforce our dog ordinances and request the cooperation of owners in this matter.

Lois Wallace Talks To Husband In England Recently

Mrs. Lois Wallace of Abilene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haynes of the Trickham Community, talked with her husband, A/2c Frank J. Wallace, at Brize Norton, Ozon, England, Friday morning at 9 a. m. our time and 3 p. m. London time. It took about 15 hours for the call to go through.

The occasion for the call was to wish him "Happy Birthday." Wallace stated that the sun was shining that day for the first time in several months. She could hear him real well and he stated he was doing fine. He also requested her to tell all his friends hello for him. He has been overseas for the past 14 months and is due to be returned to the States in July. Wallace is a member of the United States Air Force and is working in a post office.

Drought Hits Antelope Herd

Austin — The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission said negative reports are being received from far west Texas, about the antelope herd.

He said the status of the fleet, two-toned animals has become so uncertain that the weather during the next six weeks may determine whether there will be an open season next fall.

The Big Bend country was restocked several years ago and the herds thrived to the extent that three successive open seasons were held, the last being in 1951.

Then the following dry weather weakened the herd and cut the reproduction rate. The Game Commission, at its July 1952 meeting, decided that while a limited harvest was possible, it would be wiser to close the season altogether for 1952.

Lately, unfavorable reports have again been received because of the drought, according to the Executive Secretary. The antelope were described as running short of nourishment since the ranges have been blighted by a winter-long dry spell.

The Executive Secretary said that should the drought be broken shortly the natural food for the antelope probably would be restored in time to help the herd through the vital fawning season.

Meanwhile, he added, the small antelope herd in the Panhandle was reported thriving although there is some question as to whether it has attained sufficient size to warrant an open season.

Bill Pritchard, who is working at Trivoli in South Texas, came for a week end visit with his family and to see his mother, Mrs. M. A. Pritchard, who has been quite sick and a patient in the Santa Anna Hospital. Other members of the family here Sunday to see Mrs. Pritchard were: Mr. and Mrs. Marjion Blanton and children of Granbury and Mrs. Johnnie Gilbert and family of San Angelo.

American Legion Want Others To Join In Honoring Veterans

The American Legion through its state community service chairman, Mayor R. C. Gusman of Bay City, is urging Texas Civic, church and school organizations to join the American Legion and its more than 800 posts in observance of "Korean Veterans Appreciation Week," March 15 to 22.

Chambers of Commerce, Junior Chambers of Commerce, Lions, Rotary, Kiwanis, Optimist, Exchange and Civitan Clubs were urged to join in showing the returned veterans of the Korean conflict an old fashioned outburst of Texas appreciation during the designated week. Likewise, schools and churches were urged by Mayor Gusman to do their part in the movement.

"Our Korean veterans have participated in a bloody and costly war but in the state and national consciousness we have taken that fact too much as a matter of course," Gusman declared. "We owe it to these tens of thousands of Texans to say 'thank you', and this will be a great opportunity." Certificates of appreciation will be issued by the American Legion to returned Korean veterans. The certificates will be presented to the families of those who do not return.

Bishop Paul E. Martin of the Arkansas-Louisiana area is also scheduled to speak, along with Bishops Charles C. Selecman and H. A. Boaz, both of Dallas. Partly Cooked Or Raw Pork May Cause Trichinosis

"Trichinosis is a disease caused by eating raw or partly cooked pork which contains the trichina worm. This disease as a rule causes several deaths and an undetermined amount of illness in Texas each year," states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Definite symptoms and signs of illness are associated with trichinosis. In the beginning there are abdominal pains, nausea, vomiting and diarrhea, lasting about a week. Migration of the embryos in the blood stream causes fever and severe muscle soreness, especially in the diaphragm and the muscles of the arms and legs. The third stage, during which cysts surround the larvae in the muscles, is the critical one. If infection is severe, there may be edema, or swelling of the eyelids and elsewhere, marked loss of weight, weakness and delirium.

The prevention of trichinosis depends primarily upon the thorough cooking of all pork. Most cases follow the indigestion of wieners, sausage or other pork products, eaten in raw or partly cooked form. The hazard of this disease is greater in connection with home butchering, unless safeguards are exercised. Rats should be exterminated because they play an important part in the spread of infection among swine. Prolonged refrigeration, as carried out under federal supervision, destroys trichina larvae. Thorough cooking and the use of federal inspection are safeguards against trichinosis.
