THANK YOU

In light of the recent fire we had downtown Gorman that engulfed the Z J's building, Tacy and I would like to take this opportunity to say THANK YOU very much to the men and women that came with the various Fire Departments and gave of your time and energy that early, cold morning and throughout the rest of the day.

Thanks to the Gorman, Desdemona, Carbon, Cisco, DeLeon, Eastland, Olden, Proctor, Ranger, Rising Star, Sipe Springs, Promontory Park, Comanche County and Erath County Fire Departments. Most everyone that fought the fire and kept it contained to the one building are Volunteer Firefighters that left here and went to work at their day jobs after little to no sleep. A big thank you also goes out to Oncor for being prompt in their response. Also to Bob and Brenda Hammontree for being on the spot as soon as the power was restored and opening City Grocery so we could get these men and women some sustenance and help them continue working with very little interruption. May God bless you all for what you do in our times of need and again thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Jill Rainey and Tacy Warren

The Best Christmas Present Ever - A Christmas Musical

Celebrating the Christmas season, First Fruits Christian Fellowship is pleased to present a children's Christmas drama, The Best Christmas Present Ever by Celeste Clydesdale. This energetic children's Christmas celebration is overflowing with colorful characters, choreographed dances, dynamic music and dazzling lights. The story in this musical is about a group of children who have only one week to invite people from all over town to a birthday party for Jesus. Each day, they share the responses of the people that were invited. The defining moment of the musical is when the skeptical news anchor Rod Stark encounters the true meaning of Christmas.

Join and support the Children of Gorman in their first musical drama. You are sure to be amazed as they present this simple, yet powerful message of Christmas. Adding this event to your holiday calendar is one your entire family will enjoy. To conclude the festivity, refreshments will be served to celebrate with others and the cast.

Due to our limited seating capacity, this musical drama will be presented two nights, December 17th and December 18th at 6:00 pm. Free tickets are available upon request at 734-3203. Upon your request, please specify the date you wish to attend. RSVP to your invitation to the greatest birthday bash ever!

Kindergarten Visits Their Community

Kindergarten students in Maxfield Elementary have been learning about what a community is and why it's important to know what's in their community for the past few weeks. The students have also been learning about careers and how education plays an important part in their future. In an effort to make them more aware of their surroundings, the students visited some areas to learn more about their community. Students visited Panda's Florist, Clarks Construction and Hardware, and the U.S. Postal Service. With each visit, the students were shown the skill that is needed in this business and what kind of education is required.

To wrap up the lesson, the students received a visit from a special program offered by the Fire Department, arranged by Blake Guthery one of Gorman's volunteer firemen. The program had a special portable truck that is designed to create a simulation of what all happens during a fire. Students learned about what all could happen during a fire and what to expect as well as how important the Fire Dept. is for their community.

We would like to thank everyone for helping us to make our children successful in their education.

The Gorman Youth Sports Council will be hosting the FINAL SIGN-UP for basketball on Nov. 29th at 5PM until 6:30 PM at the High School Gym. This will be the final date to sign up so we know what our numbers are this year. We hope to see all of you there that haven't signed up yet. We will have forms to fill out that night.

MAXFIELD ELEMENTARY IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THAT 100% OF THE STAFF IS HIGHLY QUALIFIED ACCORDING TO THE NO CHILD LEFT BEHIND REGULATIONS!

The City Office will be closed Thursday and Friday, November 25th and 26th for the Thanksgiving Holiday. We hope everyone has a Safe and Happy Thanksgiving.

The Gorman Progress will be closed on Thursday and Friday, November 25th and 26th for a day with our family. If you need anything please call and leave a message.

Thanks, Lonnie and Joe

"On The Wilder Side"

This Thursday, most Americans will "give thanks" by means of Fellowship, Food, and Football. The only problem: Who are they thanking? When you "give thanks", you show appreciation to someone. You acknowledge that you've received a gift and you are grateful to the one who gave it. But WHO is being thanked?

A story is told of an Atheist who woke up to a beautiful sunrise with flowers blooming and birds chirping. He was filled with so much appreciation and gratitude that he felt like giving thanks. The problem was that he didn't know who to thank.

On October 14, 1789, President George Washington knew exactly Who to thank as he officially set aside one day in November for the nation to stop and give thanks... to God. Thanksgiving is a day for us to show appreciation to our Creator for the many blessings that He gives His children.

Dennis Jernigan wrote the following words: For all that You've done, I will thank You. For all that You're going to do. For all that You've promised, and all that You are in all that has carried me through. Jesus, I thank You! Thank You for loving and setting me free. Thank You for giving Your live just for me. Jesus, I thank you! Gratefully thank You! Thank You!

As you make your list of what you are thankful for this week, I hope that you put in a good word for the One who gave it all.

PETS & CHARITY

'Tis the Season to Help Hungry Pets and Their Owners

NewsUSA

(NU) - During a tough economic climate, it can be a stressful time for many homebound seniors, if not for their pets. Many seniors, when strapped for resources, choose to feed their pets instead of themselves. This means neither the pet owner nor the pet get the nutrition they need to stay healthy.

Many needy seniors will go without food in order to feed their pets.

To keep both pets and their owners fed, Banfield Pet Hospital and the Banfield Charitable Trust (BCT) partnered with the Meals on Wheels Association of America (MOWAA), which provides home-delivered meals to people in need, to create a pet-feeding program called Season of Suppers, which is now in its fifth year. As part of the program, more than 760 Banfield locations are collecting pet food and monetary donations during November and December to help homebound seniors feed their pets.

Despite the current economy, the BCT hopes to collect 40 tons of pet food and raise $100,000 to fund pet food distribution programs, which is an increase from last year.

Season of Suppers does more than provide meals. The funds it raises each year help sustain and expand pet-feeding programs throughout the country. As a direct result of the Season of Suppers campaign, more than 100 pet-feeding programs have been funded or received much-needed support.

Season of Suppers runs from Nov. 1 until Dec. 31. There are three ways to help feed hungry pets this year:

1. Purchase pet food and place it in the Season of Suppers donation bin in any Banfield Pet Hospital (located inside PetSmart). The BCT suggests items that are easy to transport, such as small bags and cans.
2. Donate money at any Banfield Pet Hospital in the Season of Suppers donation box. To find your nearest Banfield location, visit www.banfield.net
3. Contribute online by visiting www.BCTSOS.org and clicking the "donate now" button. Your donation of $30 will help feed one pet for an entire month.

Happenings At FBC!!

Thank you! "Thanks" can be translated into languages worldwide, yet it's the feelings behind it that make it a beautiful word. Open your heart to express thanks to God from whom all blessings flow. "THANKS" to God by "GIVING" to others. God bless you now and forever.

Mark your calendars:

Nov. 25th – Happy Thanksgiving to All!

Dec. 11th – Save the Date: Bro Barry & Sharlene's Open House Fellowship.

WEDNESDAYS: Learning about Jesus is Fun, join us! – TEAMKIDS at 6:00pm, MISSION FRIENDS at 6:00pm, and YOUTH at 6:30pm.

Children's Sermon: "Thanksgiving" is the Holiday we celebrate this week; we eat turkey, get off work, get out of school, and we say thanks for what we have. Traci's "iPhone" is equipped with a "Bible App" and it reveals "Thanks" in over 200 verses of the Bible. We should thank God every day, not just at Thanksgiving. We should give thanks to God for the moon, the stars, something nice someone has done for you, and all good things all year long. Praise God!

Special Music: Precious voice of Cortney Shirley & touching lyrics - "Lead Me to the Cross".

We Welcome Justin, Katie, & Jacob Southall ..... Justin comes in View of a Call to Serve as our Youth Director: Justin attends Howard Payne University. Prayer in preparation for this day revealed the word "Satisfaction" to tie his testimony to a sermon. In Matthew 5:6 we are told that we shall be satisfied. Where does our hunger lead us? Hungering for things of the world will always lead us to wanting more. An appetite for the things of God will lead us to true satisfaction. During hardships in life our eyes are opened to find God in our struggles. In this world we face desires of the flesh, desires of the eyes, and pride of possessions. Chase after the plan that God has for you, only then will you taste true satisfaction and restoration.

Bro. Barry's Closing... It is in life that we choose where our pursuits take us, to God or to the world. It's in death that we face God's final judgment for the choices we made. Will you accept the invitation that God extends to each and every one of us?

Thank God for the free gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ!

If you are reading this and you have not accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior please call Bro. Barry, ask Bro. Barry to talk with you about being saved or just ask him to pray with you, just call (254) 734-2420.

Our Worship Service begins at 11:00AM on Sunday mornings, please come and join us! 1X100

Texas Farm Bureau Plans 77th Annual Convention in Waco

(WACO) – Farmers and ranchers will head to the Heart of Texas Dec. 4-6 for Texas Farm Bureau's 77th annual convention. The Waco Convention Center is the site for this grassroots gathering of Texas' largest farm organization.

"We achieved many of our policy goals this year and continue to work on others," said TFB President Kenneth Dierschke. "Thanks to the hard work of our leaders and members, Texas Farm Bureau is a key player in the decisions that will affect the future of this great state."

While the state's largest farm organization prepares to meet the challenges of a new year, Dierschke noted that a long-sought goal for Farm Bureau—true reform of the state's eminent domain laws—looks like it will finally be achieved. Bills supported by Farm Bureau have been pre-filed in the Legislature.

"Governor Perry has indicated his support," he said. "With passage of this meaningful reform, Texans can emphatically say that the Lone Star State is a leader in the protection of private property rights."

Dierschke noted many controversial issues face farmers and ranchers as the Texas Legislature starts a new session in January and Congress convenes in Washington, D.C. with a host of new faces.

The Texas Legislature will likely address the cornerstones of Texas water law—rule of capture, local control and historical use.

"With Texas' growing population, the stage is set for a showdown over water use," Dierschke said. "We will steadfastly defend agriculture's water rights."

TFB will also be on guard as the Legislature addresses a ballooning deficit and redistricting, which will likely result in Texas losing even more rural representation.

Setting the national stage are important issues including trade, immigration reform and the writing of a new farm bill.

"We need to ensure new farm legislation contains measures that keep farmers on the land during lean times," Dierschke said.

"Those safety net provisions are critical—to both farmers and consumers—in maintaining food security in the United States."

Dierschke said members will fine-tune the organization's policies in Waco to meet the challenges of the coming year.

Registration for the state convention, along with TFB Member Services exhibits, begins at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 4, at the Waco Convention Center. Other Saturday events include the Miss TFB and Talent Find contests, as well as the Free Enterprise Speech contest.

Events Sunday, Dec. 5, begin with a 9:30 a.m. devotional, followed by member recognition awards, Pioneer Award presentations and the naming of the 2010 Outstanding Young Farmer & Rancher. Sunday afternoon will also feature Dierschke's annual address to the convention delegates.

The meeting concludes Monday, Dec. 6, with the organization's annual business session, including the election of the president and board of directors. Dierschke is seeking his ninth one-year term as Texas Farm Bureau president.

Be Prepared When the Rubber Meets the Snow

(NU) - Millions of motorists will be taking to the highways and byways for holiday travel, so the experts at the nonprofit National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence (ASE) remind drivers to have their vehicle checked out before heading out. "Breakdowns in winter conditions can be especially dangerous," notes Martin Lawson, ASE's editorial director.

The following tips from ASE will help vehicle owners choose a good repair shop.

- Start shopping for a repair facility before you need one.
- Ask your friends and associates for their recommendations, and consult local consumer groups.
- Arrange for alternate transportation in advance so you will not feel forced to choose a shop based solely on location.
- Look for a neat, well-organized facility, with vehicles in the parking lot equal in value to your own and modern equipment in the service bays.
- Look for a courteous staff, with a service consultant or technicians willing to answer your questions.
- Look for policies regarding estimated repair costs, diagnostic fees, guarantees and acceptable methods of payment.
- Ask if the repair facility specializes or if it usually handles your type of repair work.
- Look for signs of professionalism in the customer service area such as civic, community, or customer service awards.
- Look for evidence of qualified technicians: trade school diplomas, certificates of advanced course work, and certification by ASE indicate the presence of professional, trained technicians.

- Look for the ASE sign. ASE was founded in 1972 to improve the quality of automotive service and repair through the voluntary testing and certification of automotive professionals. ASE-certified technicians wear blue and white ASE shoulder insignia and carry credentials listing their exact area(s) of certification, while their employers display the blue and white ASE sign.

Aging Americans Should Seek Help for Pain and Discomfort

NewsUSA

(NU) - Aging gracefully can be difficult as there are many health-related conditions that must be monitored and treated. There is a wealth of information about high blood pressure, heart disease and osteoporosis. But what about conditions people don't like to talk about, such as pain or constipation?

According to the American Gastroenterological Association, older adults are five times more likely than younger adults to report problems with constipation. And according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, it is estimated that pain affects 53 million Americans. The annual cost of chronic pain in the U.S. is estimated to be $100 billion, including health care expenses, lost income and lost productivity.

"Persistent pain and constipation are concerns for many aging baby boomers," said Daniel Perry, president and CEO of the Alliance for Aging Research. "They can prevent a person from enjoying the routine activities that make life rich and fulfilling, such as driving, shopping or even hugging a child or grandchild."

While pain can affect anyone regardless of gender, race or economic status, some people have difficulty getting adequate pain care. It is important that people who suffer from pain, and their loved ones, speak with their health care provider and take an active role in managing their pain. People who suffer from pain have a right to appropriate assessment and treatment.

In addition to persistent pain, constipation is a condition often associated with aging and is caused by a number of factors, including poor diet, lack of exercise or not drinking enough water. Two effective ways to relieve constipation are to eat foods high in fiber and to drink adequate amounts of water each day. ## A Letter To The Editor

About Meeting the Crisis Of Our Human Mortality

From Henry A. Buchanan

The Obama Health Plan is not yet in effect, and already we have a problem. Not enough doctors! When everybody has health insurance we will all have health problems and have to go to the doctor for relief.

And the medical doctors will be overworked and underpaid. Especially the Primary Care doctors who get people with aches and pains and insurance but not sick enough or rich enough to require specialists. Result: There will be inequality which will call for polls to keep the public informed on how much less the Primary Care doctors make than the specialists are rewarded for their services.

But don't give up. There's a challenge in every problem. The challenge is for more young Americans to go into medical practice instead of military service. Wouldn't it be nobler to save lives than to kill people? We could even have special awards for the Primary Care physicians who save the most lives – even those who relieve the most pain – like we have for military heroes. The President could drape an Asclepius Medal about the Most Distinguished Physician of All.

And so far, gays and lesbians are not excluded from the Medical Profession! Come forward, Young Americans. You can Ask and Tell, and save America. With some partnership with the arts we can fashion a Caduceus gleaming on white coats to match the Stars on a General's shoulder.

Need an Easy, Healthy Lunch?

NewsUSA

(NU) - Those who want to save money and improve their diets can't do better than brown-bagging their lunch.

Look for recipes that use fresh, whole ingredients and that combine protein with healthy carbohydrates. For example, the following recipe for Rio Star Grapefruit & Quinoa Salad combines vegetables and citrus fruit with quinoa, a whole grain that supplies a complete protein.

Quinoa, which is like couscous in texture, contains protein, iron, fiber and vitamin B6, while fresh grapefruit contains vitamins A and C. Look for Texas Rio Star Grapefruit, a red variety that's especially sweet. When choosing grapefruit, pick one that feels heavy for its size – that means that it's extra juicy.

Rio Star Grapefruit & Quinoa Salad
Makes Four Servings

Ingredients:

- 1 Texas Rio Star Grapefruit, sectioned and peeled (reserve the peel)
- 1 Texas Orange, sectioned
- 8 thin slices fresh ginger
- 1/4 cup extra-virgin olive oil
- 3/4 cup quinoa
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt, plus additional for seasoning
- 1 tablespoon white wine vinegar
- 2 teaspoons honey
- 1 small serrano or jalapeno chile, minced
- 2 scallions, minced
- 2 carrots, peeled and diced
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh cilantro leaves
- Freshly ground black pepper

Directions:

1. Warm the grapefruit peel, ginger and olive oil in a small saucepan over medium heat. As soon as the oil starts to bubble, remove from heat. Set the oil aside to steep for 30 minutes. Strain and reserve the oil.

Quinoa and grapefruit make for a healthy, tasty combination.

2. Meanwhile, rinse and drain the quinoa, and follow the package directions to cook. Transfer the quinoa to a bowl and fluff with a fork. Cool.

3. Segment the grapefruit over a bowl, reserving the segments and juice separately. Whisk 3 tablespoons of the grapefruit juice with the vinegar, honey and salt to taste in a medium bowl. Gradually whisk in 3 tablespoons of the reserved grapefruit oil, starting with a few drops and then adding the rest in a stream to make a slightly thick dressing. Season with pepper to taste.

4. Toss the quinoa with the dressing, chiles, scallions, carrots and cilantro. Season with salt and pepper, to taste.

5. Toss the grapefruit segment into the salad, divide among four plates. Serve warm or at room temperature.

6. Serving suggestion: This salad makes a great packed lunch. If you want to serve this salad at dinner, try it with grilled salmon.

-- Randy's Roundup --

A Weekly Newsletter from Congressman Randy Neugebauer
November 22, 2010
A Taxing Situation

If you're keeping count, there are only 39 days until the New Year and the LARGEST tax hike in American history. After the first week of the Lame Duck session, Speaker Pelosi's Congress is no closer to preventing these job-killing tax hikes for every taxpayer. Letting the estate tax return to 55 percent, cutting the child tax credit in half and letting several other tax provisions expire at the end of the year is a tax increase our economy cannot handle. What I know and what the American people know is that raising taxes during the worst economy in decades will kill even more jobs and lead to greater uncertainty for small businesses looking to expand. As December 31st approaches along with this massive $3.9 trillion tax hike, I will continue to fight to make the tax cuts permanent for everyone by promoting my bill, the Taxpayer Certainty Act. If this November has made anything clear to the Democrats in Congress, it's that the American people want a trimmed down government that taxes less and significantly reduces spending in Washington.

A Thanksgiving Message

As we gather together over the Thanksgiving holiday, I hope that you will take the time to remember the things you are thankful for and express your gratitude to loved ones. In today's ever changing world, families are the strong support system our children rely on to become responsible and productive members of the community. A strong America relies on strong families.

As families and friends come together this week, we should also remember those who are not able to join their loved ones to celebrate Thanksgiving. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of the men and women in our Armed Forces serving far away from home. We are thankful for the sacrifices both you and your families have made on behalf of our great country and pray for your safe return.

Thanksgiving is also a reminder of the agricultural bounty of this nation. We have been blessed with fertile land and dedicated farmers and producers who bring forth a great harvest each year. It is important to remember those who have brought the food we will enjoy this week to our tables.

It is my sincere honor to represent the people of the 19th District in Congress. I am thankful for this opportunity and pledge to you to continue diligently serving you. May God continue to bless our country and our families this Thanksgiving season.

Important Dates for Military Families

With Christmas fast approaching, the mail rush is already beginning. For those military families considering sending a package to their loved ones overseas, there are several important postal dates you should remember.

For those who have family members serving in Iraq and Afghanistan, holiday packages and mail should be sent no later than December 4th. If a member of your family is serving in another part of the world, holiday mail should be shipped no later than December 18th. For more information on military mail, please visit the USPS website.

Staff Mobile Office Hours Next Week

Next week, members of my staff will be hosting the last mobile office hours of the year to visit with constituents in West Texas and the Big Country. During mobile office hours the 19th District staff will gladly offer assistance with problems regarding federal issues or agencies. If you are experiencing problems with a federal government agency or want to share your opinion on issues in Congress, I invite you to come and visit with a member of my staff while they are visiting a location near you. For more information on the dates and locations of the mobile office hours, please click here.

In the event you are unable to attend one of these upcoming mobile office hours, I encourage you to contact my office any time, toll free, at (888) 763-1611 or visit my website to contact me via email.

"Question of the Week"

In the world of the 24-hour news cycle, how do you receive news that is important to you?

Please visit my website to submit your answer to this week's question.

Senior Citizens News

By Carol Ward

We enjoyed a nice turnout of 30 people for our Thanksgiving meal on November 17. We could not have the Center for the 10th due to the fire at ZJ's. I received many compliments about our dinner, saying it was better than any other they had been to. I want to thank all that made this possible by bringing wonderful dishes. Also enjoyed many guests. Bro. Frank Shirley was gracious to give the blessing for all.

Crystal Conway from Integra Care in Cisco brought us fried chicken from Brookshires. Very kind of her. We always enjoy visiting with her. She will have a baby in a couple of months. We also enjoyed Ham, dressing by Estelle Lindley's daughter Ann, thanks to her for helping out. Also mixed veggies, green beans, corn casserole, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, veg. relishes and cranberry sauce. Betty Frazier's daughter, Virginia brought a pretty vegetable green salad. Betty Regian came with her baby she cares for and brought her delicious rolls. Thanks loads, we had missed them. Our desserts were fruit and Jello, 2 fruit cook whip fluff, 3 cakes and a very good Banana pudding by Estelle. I thought later we had no pies, how strange. Our table was pretty and festive with plenty to enjoy. I forgot Jennifer Overstreet did bring a cheese cake made with crescent rolls. Very tasty. She enjoyed being with her Grandpa Wilburn Overstreet. Also Becky and Linda from Birdsong came, good to see them. Cliffa Vaughn, Lil Brudnak and Ima Brown also with us. Lil feeling improved, always good to visit with them. Where was our Banker James, missed him, had plenty of food.

Deborah Jackson, Ruthie Porter's helper sure was a helper to me. I was just about out on my feet, don't think I could stand 30 people every week. HA! I've felt so terrible lately, then had a tetanus shot, and made me so sick. I guess that's what it was, effected my head and nerves.

We celebrated Jerry Underwood's 90th Birthday. I tried to surprise her, believe it worked. Cecilia Hirst made a very pretty cake with fall colors. The decorations were fall colored chrysanthemums, she could float later. Also had a chocolate turtle cake for Daisy Slaton's 89th birthday which was that day.

On the 20th Daisy's family had a birthday party for her at the Hotel dining room. It was meant to be a CARD party, but a certain person put CAKE. Actually two people brought cakes, took the paper literally. HA! There was a good turnout of family and friends. Cecilia also made her cake, similar to Jerry's but with live Daisys. So pretty in yellow and white. Her other two cakes were red velvet and 22 minute chocolate cake. All delicious with good punch.

We will not meet this week due to Thanksgiving. I hope all of you have a good Holiday with family or friends. Keep well and Happy. Sometimes hard to do at our ages.
