DOWNTOWN GORMAN
Christmas
In The Park

On Dec 10 the Economic Development Commission will host an evening of fun and festivities for the whole family! Jolly Old Saint Nick will lead a "Light Parade" through the downtown area and end up at the City Park where the main activities will take place. Parade floats will be judged according to theme as well as their display of Christmas lights. This year's theme is "A Homemade Christmas".

After the parade, we will be lighting the city's Christmas Tree, which will be decorated with ornaments made by students at Gorman ISD.

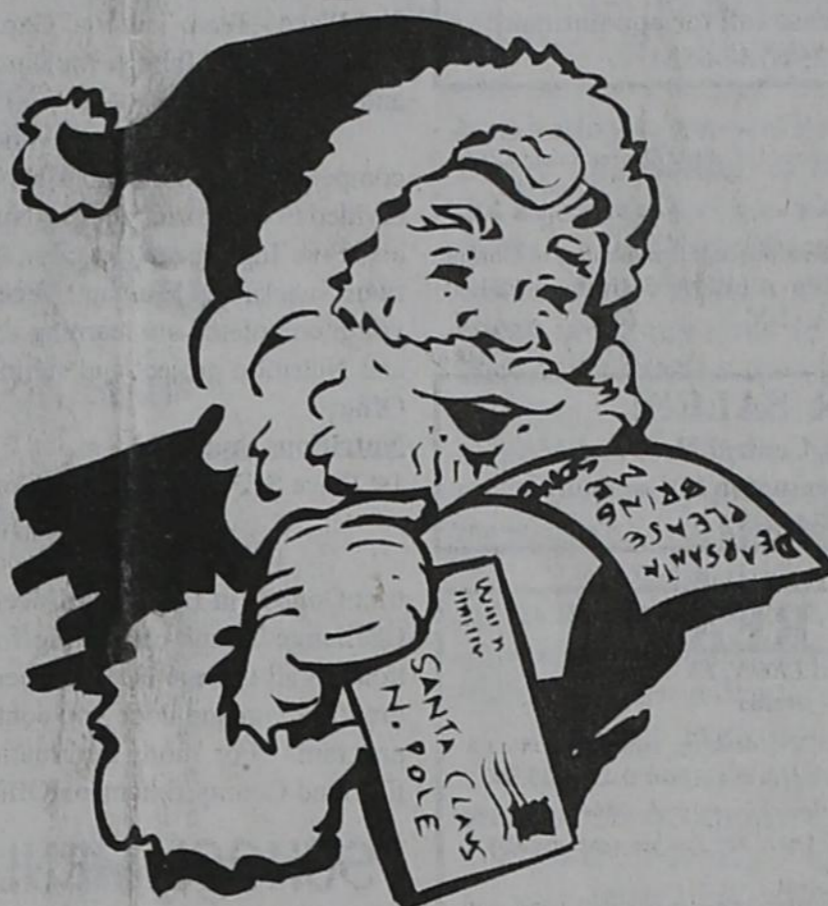

There will be a "Best Homemade Christmas Cookie" contest for all ages. Entrants must include a list of ingredients.

There will also be a coloring contest for the little ones. You may pick up a coloring sheet at the City Office and return them by Dec 9.

All businesses and churches are encouraged to participate with floats as well as providing warm drinks and goodies.

Contact Jason Wilder at (254) 243-0338 for more information.

Santa Coming To Gorman Saturday, December 10th

Santa will be arriving in town on December 10th, 2011 at 5:00 p.m. He will be at the Community Center. Pictures with Santa will be available for $2.00 each. Santa will be there until time for the parade.

CHRISTMAS BOOK COLLECTION At Charlie Garrett Memorial Library

Over 120 Christmas paperback books have been loaned to our library from a private collection. Many of the books were written by top selling authors like Nora Roberts, Fern Michaels, Debbie Macomber, Janet Daily, Jillian Hart, Linda Lael Miller, Mary Higgins Clark, etc. They include mysteries, modern day romances, historical romances, westerns, and books from the heartwarming inspirational "Love Inspired Books" published by Steeple Hills. This spirit lifting collection includes something for everyone. If you have never read a book about Christmas written for adults, find out what you've been missing. We will also have a large selection of children's Christmas books for parents to read to your little ones.

This entire collection will be available until December 31. Coloring sheets for the Christmas in the Park coloring contest are also available at the library this week.

LIFT YOUR SPIRITS THIS CHRISTMAS SEASON with a book from this special offering.

County Courthouse To Close For 2 Hrs. Thursday

In memory of retired Eastland County Judge Scott Bailey, and in honor of his thirty-six years of service to the county, the Eastland County Courthouse will be closed from 1:00 to 3:30 p.m., Thursday, December 1st. This will allow the many employees who worked with Judge Bailey the opportunity to attend his Memorial Service. We appreciate your patience and understanding during this time.

Gorman EDC Notes

I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving as did the Vaughn family this year. It was wonderful. I have good news, Normand Zevina and Duane McQueen will be starting on the project of rebuilding ZJ's around the first of the year. It is another thing that we can be thankful for, making that big hole, whole again.

On December 10th don't forget the lighting of our Christmas Tree in the park and that there will be a Christmas Parade this year. Call Jason Wilder if you wish to participate in the festivity of the season. The Elementary students are making ornaments for the trees in the park. Be nice if some of you caroling groups would come down and serenade us. I hear there will be hot chocolate and cookies and of course, Santa Clause will be there also; have your picture made with him. Pictures made with Santa will be at 5:00 in the Community Center and the parade will start at 5:30-6:00 PM.

We are moving slowly, but we have made strides in our RECLAIM GORMAN project this year. I recently ask the students from K-12 to write down what they liked about Gorman, what they did not like about Gorman and what they would like to see changed. Naturally, there were some foolish things in their comments, but I was surprised how much thought went into their remarks. The youth of this town care about their town and are very proud of their school. They all had nothing but praise for Gorman schools. One grade school girl thought our motto should be: MAKING A DIFFERENCE ONE STEP AT A TIME. Sounds good to me.

We have a new Pharmacist in town, well sort of, we have all known Chris for several years now as the reserve pharmacist, but be sure to give him a big welcome to Gorman. There are two new businesses in town, Laquisha Rainey's Prissy Panther and Terry Denson's Resale Shop. We welcome them also and be sure to check them out.

The good news is that we are moving ahead.

Citizens of Gorman - Clean-UP Your Property Non-Cleanup Is A Violation of Ord. #302

The citizens of the City of Gorman are proud of their city and ask that everyone cooperate in keeping it clean from grass, brush, weeds and other prohibited accumulations. Prohibited growth and accumulations are a breeding ground for rats, mice, mosquitoes and other disease carrying nuisances. Not only that but they are also a source of fuel for many fires. Cleaning up your property helps promote the City, your neighborhood, potential business growth and many other things.

You are required to maintain your property so as to comply with Gorman City Ordinance #302. Failure to comply with said Ordinance, by any person(s) owning or having control over property within the city limits of Gorman, could result in civil and criminal penalties.

Copies of Ordinance #302 are available at Gorman City Hall, 116 S Kent St, during normal business hours. There is also a list of people that assist (for profit) in mowing, property clean up, building demolition and junk vehicle removal. We would also like to remind you that you are responsible for your curb line, ditches and half of your alleyway. So be sure to include those areas when mowing.

Thank you for doing your part to keep our community a great place to live and raise our children.

We, here at the Desdemona Activity Center, are very excited to start off the Christmas season with our annual Christmas Store! If you have never been to a Christmas Store here at the DAC, think of it as a Christmas garage sale. Except that we have new items as well as gently used items. If you need decorations, we have lots. If you need gift boxes, we have lots. If you need Christmas cards, we have lots. We have a few small items that would be suitable for gifts. And who can forget the bakes goods! There will be lots of wonderful cakes, cookies, candies, etc. Even as I am writing this, I can vision all the great cooks measuring, mixing and baking. I can almost smell the mouth-watering aromas! Lots of folks buy and freeze goodies for Christmas - no need to do your own baking. The store will be held this Thursday, Friday and Saturday and the following Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Mark the dates on your calendars December 1, 2 and 3 and December 8, 9 and 10. The doors will be open from 8:00 until 5:00 each day. 'First Saturday Breakfast' will still be held on Saturday, December 3rd even though the Christmas Store is in progress. You can eat and shop all in one place!

Please remember that we will not have a dance in December. When we resume the dances in January with Johnny Johnson, they will be on the second Saturday of each month. And so, the first dance of the New Year will be Saturday, January 14th.

Happenings At FBC!!

Birthday! Jesus was the birth that changed the world and saved the world! We're just a few weeks away from celebrating another Happy Birthday to Jesus, and Merry Christmas. Glory to God!

Mark your calendars:

Dec. 7th - Nursing Home Christmas Store by Youth Group.

Dec. 10th - 8pm to 4pm - Bro Barry & Sharlene's Open House at Skaggs' Home.

Children's Sermon: It was cold and windy outside so Traci stayed inside. It made her thankful for a warm & cozy home, blankets, and heater. Some people don't have these blessings. In the Bible book of Nahum we learn the Lord is good, strong, and a refuge to His people. The Lord is near to those that trust in Him, and you will find protection from all things in Him.

Bro. Barry's Message: "Do You Have a Father or a Daddy?" - Romans 8:15 - The saying goes, "Anyone can be a father, but it takes someone special to be a daddy." Are a father and a daddy the same? Bro. Barry was blessed to be raised by a wonderful Daddy. However, for one reason or another, many people in this world are raised without a father in their life. One thing is for sure, our Heavenly Father is real and there is no problem too big for him to handle. Your Heavenly Father loves you like no other child, and one day we shall behold Him face to face. We live in a troubled world; the unstable economy and the assault on family make it difficult to live. What do you do in the darkest moments of your life?

Romans 8:15 - So you have not received a spirit that makes you fearful slaves. Instead, you received God's Spirit when he adopted you as his own children. Now we call him, "Abba, Father."

Don't lay slain from the sins of life, don't choose to remain in bondage for your sins, rather choose life in knowing you are adopted by our Almighty & Heavenly Father.

John 17:6 - "I have revealed you to the ones you gave me from this world. They were always yours. You gave them to me, and they have kept your word."

Your "son-ship" is adoption to the Family of God. The love you feel brings a smile to your face.

John 17:11 - Now I am departing from the world; they are staying in this world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, you have given me your name; now protect them by the power of your name so that they will be united just as we are.

What wonderful things to shout we don't live in the ways of the old-testament; we live in the new-testament world where Jesus is Lord and Savior!

Luke Chapter 15 tells the story we have come to know as the "Prodigal Son". The one known as the prodigal son only thought of oneself. The underlying story is more powerful, and the core of the family. The daddy doesn't lose sight of his children. The daddy had to have been watching to see the son's return. The other brother's questions why they would celebrate his brother's return. Luke 15:31 - "His father said to him, Look, dear son, you have always stayed by me, and everything I have is yours."

Luke 15:20 - "So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him."

Even when the shackles of life are pulling you down your Heavenly Daddy is preparing a place for you. God supplies needs according to His riches and glory! We have everything our Heavenly Father has for eternity in the name of Jesus. Your Heavenly Daddy is hugging you and loves you. You shall behold Him. May God instruct us how to be there for people when they need us, and may all we do bring Glory and Honor to God's name! If you are reading this and you have not accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior please call Bro. Barry, ask Bro. Barry to talk with you about being saved or just ask him to pray with you, just call (254) 734-2420. Our Worship Service begins at 11:00AM on Sunday mornings - please come and join us! Remember: God loves you like no one else! Email us at fbcgorman@hotmail.com

KEEP THE LIGHT ON PUBLIC NOTICES

When government officials make decisions, they must let their citizens know. That's why the state requires them to publish their actions through public notices in newspapers.

But some politicians would prefer to bury public notices on little seen, rarely visited government websites - away from public scrutiny!

If it is not in the newspaper, you won't know about it.

Stock Your Arsenal for Cold and Flu Season

NewsUSA

(NU) - With more than 150 million cold, flu and allergy episodes annually, according to the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Disease, one of the absolute certainties in life is that you or someone you know will have a case of coughs and sniffles this year. Before the sore throat, itchy eyes, runny nose and dry lips set in, take the time to stock up your medicine cabinet with the essentials needed to alleviate cold and flu symptoms through the upcoming season.

Stock your medicine cabinet for cold and flu season.

"The cold and flu season brings on body aches, sore throats, chapped lips, headaches and fevers," says Dr. Charles Zugerman, clinical associate professor of dermatology at the Feinberg School of Medicine, Northwestern University, Chicago. "When suffering from these ailments, it is important to stay home and not risk spreading germs to others. Therefore, it is critical to make sure you have the necessary items on hand to combat your symptoms before the season starts to ensure a restful recovery."

Here are a few medicine cabinet basics:

- Sanitizer. Stave off germs by keeping disinfectant wipes and a hand sanitizer that contains 60 percent ethanol or isopropanol nearby. These will help to kill and prevent transmitting germs.
- Nasal Decongestant. A stuffy nose is one of the most common and irritating symptoms of allergies, a cold and the flu. Decongestants relieve nasal congestion and shrink the tissues and blood vessels in the eyes and nose that swell in response to a cold or contact with an allergen.

• Lip balm. Mouth breathing due to congestion and other side effects of a cold, allergies and the flu create severe dryness and irritation that leave lips susceptible to further infection. By relieving annoying symptoms like lip discomfort, cold and allergy sufferers feel better, which in turn helps them rest and get better.

Dr. Zugerman's two personal lip balm picks: New Blistex Cold & Allergy Lip Soother and Medicated Lip Ointment. They won't cure sniffles or a cold, but both will help soothe and comfort lips that are feeling under the weather. Blistex Cold & Allergy Lip Soother is formulated with soothing ingredients and an advanced analgesic to bring lips relief and prevent further irritation. Blistex Medicated Lip Ointment is clinically proven to heal dry, chapped lips and has four medications to ease pain, itching and discomfort. For more information, visit www.Blistex.com.

Medicine cabinet aside, experts recommend getting a flu shot early to protect yourself as well as those around you.

Stop Counting Sheep, Get Some Sleep!

NewsUSA

(NU) - Americans lead busy lives - and the overscheduled often cut back on sleep. But sleeping five or six hours a night can carry severe health consequences. Studies suggest the adults need at least seven or eight hours of shut-eye - getting less can interfere with job performance, not to mention contribute to obesity, diabetes and heart disease.

Unwinding with a book or relaxing music before bed may help you fall asleep.

But what if you're trying to sleep, but can't fall asleep, or wake up still feeling tired? Stimulants like caffeine or nicotine, large meals or exercise right before bed, and disruptive sleep environments can all contribute to poor sleep. For as many as 12 million Americans, as estimated by the National Institutes of Health, the problem may be a sleep disorder called obstructive sleep apnea.

In obstructive sleep apnea, the soft tissue in the back of the throat collapses into the airway during sleep, cutting off oxygen to the blood. When patients with sleep apnea stop breathing, the brain rouses them, sometimes hundreds of times a night. The result? Fragmented, poor-quality sleep.

Sleep apnea can strike anyone at any age, and most cases go undiagnosed. If you often feel tired, get your Snore Score at the American Sleep Apnea Association's Web site (www.sleepapnea.org). If you answer "yes" to any of its six questions, you should ask your doctor about sleep apnea. Treatments are available and can greatly improve your quality of life.

If you've ruled out an underlying sleep disorder, like sleep apnea, but still find yourself counting sheep, try the following tips:

- Avoid stimulants. The caffeine in that cup of coffee will remain in your body for six to eight hours, so stop drinking coffee after lunch. If you really need a mid-afternoon pick-me-up, try taking a brisk walk outside. Thirty to sixty minutes of sunlight exposure per day can help you sleep more soundly.
- Don't take naps after three p.m. Late-afternoon naps will make it more difficult to sleep later.
- Take a hot bath before bed. The water will lower your body temperature, mimicking what happens during sleep. Keeping your bedroom at a cool temperature may also help.
- Lessen distractions before bed. Give yourself time to wind down with a book or relaxing music. Keep televisions and computers out of the bedroom - they provide too much stimulation. If you find that you can't fall asleep, don't lie awake in bed. Find a quiet activity to do for 20 minutes, then try again.

Solutions for Seniors

Struggling in Today's Economy

NewsUSA

(NU) - Turmoil in the economy. Skyrocketing jobless numbers. Budget cuts putting families at risk. And senior services being cut. And cut. And cut.

Whether it is nutrition, housing, or medical needs, seniors and their caregivers are now looking for new ways to keep themselves clothed, fed and housed. In fact, President Obama's full-year Continuing Resolution for 2011 included a 45 percent national cut-back of Senior Community Service Employment Program funding from the fiscal year 2010 budget.

With federal funding at the top of the chopping block, many of our elderly don't have access to even one hot meal a day. Meals on Wheels, a non-profit agency, had to establish a waiting list at many of its sites across the U.S. this year.

While the world of senior nutrition programs faces trying fiscal times, there are services out there to help. Mom's Meals (www.MomsMeals.com), created by a family to care for their aging grandmothers, delivers fresh-prepared, nutritionally balanced meals right to the doors of those who need them most. At only $5.99 per meal, far less than the cost of a restaurant meal, Mom's Meals are designed by a dietician and chef and contain the proper nourishment for seniors.

While transportation options are also being cut, a little digging will show that certain agencies are working for the benefit of seniors. At the 2005 White House Conference on Aging, transportation was identified as the third most important priority of seniors, right under reauthorization of the Older Americans Act (No. 1) and matters pertaining to long-term care, according to the National Center on Senior Transportation. The NCST has made it their mission to increase transportation options for older adults and enhance their ability to live more independently within their communities throughout the U.S. More about the NCST can be found at www.seniortransportation.net.

With these federal cuts also comes added financial burden on seniors and their families. To help, AARP offers their Money Management Program, a daily service to help low-income older or disabled people who have difficulty budgeting, paying routine bills and keeping track of financial matters. More information about it can be found at www.aarpmp.org.
