MEDICAL LEADER DISCUSSES AIMS OF PROFESSION

Dr. E. H. Cary of Dallas Speaks on Work of Scientific Medicine.

Dr. E. H. Cary, of Dallas, speaking to an attentive audience at the Liberty theatre Ranger, last night in the interest of the Medical Association of Texas spoke on the subject, "The Relation of the Public to Scientific Medicine."

Dr. Cary is one of the prominent men in the medical profession in the United States. He is one of the founders of the Baylor Medical college and is one of the men whose efforts were mainly responsible for the erection of the 16-story Medical Arts building in Dallas which over 300 doctors and allied professions are housed. It is the only building of its kind of construction in the world.

Dr. Cary said, independent of his speech, that if the public would wake up and take an interest in the preventive measures, that the medical profession would take greater interest in research work and put it before the public for their welfare, but that if they do not make any effort to improve the situation as it now exists and permit the quacks and fakirs to operate that the men who had a real knowledge of scientific medicine would lose interest in helping them, although always seeking scientific advancement. There are over 30,000 deaths in Texas each year of preventable diseases and the public is making little effort to remedy the situation, he said.

"Stopping Spread of Disease. The medical profession, through the schools and by sanitary work, has stamped out a great many of the epidemic diseases and the public at large hardly realizes it, but take it for granted," said Dr. Cary. "Typhoid is scarcely heard of any more and when any kind of physician can cure the sanitary work should be watched more carefully. Diphtheria has been reduced to a minimum for deaths."

"The people permit themselves to be fooled by the men who call themselves doctors, but who have no real knowledge of scientific medicine. There are over 2,000 quacks who are selling cures in Texas at the present time. "Scientific medicine means merely a knowledge of the truth as to the nature of the disease, how nature cures and how she can be aided by the doctors. It is the result of discoveries during the last 50 years. The modern physician is one who has studied long enough and broadly enough to have a practical knowledge of all that has been discovered since the dawn of history concerning the nature of diseases and the means to cure them, and who is able to recall to his aid every power of nature found capable of relieving the sick. From no other kind of physician can a patient receive all possible help."

"The medical act of Texas, an exercise of the police powers of the state to protect the public from incompetence, seeks to establish this single, sensible standard of medical efficiency. It requires examinations only on scientific facts concerning the human body and disease. Practitioners of all 'isms,' cuts and schools, have only to show sufficient education and demonstrate the necessary knowledge, to receive licenses from the state. Public apathy and misinformation have allowed over 2,000 uneducated 'cultists' to begin practicing in Texas in violation of the law; with so many violations that the courts cannot handle them. "It is a duty that we owe the sick to see that they are not robbed of their chance to live and when the state steps in to regulate the practice of medicine through its police authority and neglects to make it effective, for therein lies the endorsement of every cult, of every faddist, or every ignorant practitioner of medicine when this authority of the state is recognized by the people to their relief just so much as an individual will feel protected when attended by those practitioners who claim to be acting under the protection of the state."

"We are our neighbors' keeper, and when the people are ignorant it is our duty to see that they are not imposed upon and it is up to the same substantial members of society to protect those who are wilfully incapable of protecting themselves." Dr. Cary entertained. Dr. Cary is one of the several score members of the Medical Association of Texas giving their time and efforts to the uplift of people of Texas in matters of health, right living, medicine and the qualifications of those who would administer to the physical welfare of the people. He is a busy man, but he found time to go out to Abilene, where he made several addresses last Wednesday, and then, returning, stop in Cisco yesterday afternoon and in Ranger

CANDIDATES TO SPEAK TONIGHT IN EASTLAND

Davenport and Jones Expected to Engage in Warm Discussion.

The first political speeches to be made by candidates for county office in Eastland during the present campaign will be delivered here tonight at a meeting to be held on the courthouse lawn. Speaking will begin at 8:30.

Many of the candidates will be present. Judge George L. Davenport, candidate for re-election as judge of the Ninety-first district court, made the speaking date, and has invited his opponent, Judge Joe Jones, as well as all other candidates. Candidates for county attorney may speak.

Judge Joe Jones and Judge Davenport have been having some rather warm discussions at the recent meetings where they have spoken from the same platform and the meeting tonight is expected to be no exception. It is stated that Judge Davenport will speak of some matters not heretofore mentioned in the campaign.

Contributors To Seed Wheat Fund Get Their Reward

DODGE CITY Kan., June 27.—Bread cast on the waters by business men of Kansas City, Chicago and other midwest centers in the form of subscriptions of $500,000 for impoverished farmers of western Kansas to enable them to buy seed wheat a year ago was returned to them in good measure today. The contributors were taken on a 120-mile tour through the Kansas wheat belt and shown the finest crop of grain that has been raised in five years. C. C. Isley Miller of Dodge City is to give a dinner tonight to the contributors. He promised a year ago when the seed contributions were made that if good crops resulted he would stage a party for the donors.

STUBBLEFIELD WILL SPEAK IN CISCO TO AID COUNTY KLAN TICKET

It has been announced that Judge J. R. Stubblefield of Eastland will speak at Cisco Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the interest of the Ku Klux Klan ticket in Eastland county. According to reports the Klan is planning to have a large crowd present on this occasion. On last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Klan held a meeting in the Briggs Owen pasture, southwest of Eastland, for the purpose, it is stated, of arranging for the Cisco meeting. According to reports a large crowd was present at the pasture meeting.

It is not known whether the County Constitutional club, which organization is opposing the Klan's activities in politics in the county, will have a speaker at Cisco to follow Mr. Stubblefield.

BRAIN WORKER NEEDS PHYSICAL RECREATION

FORT WORTH, June 27.—Physical labor is the best recreation for the brain worker, thinks C. S. Carter, superintendent of schools at Hanley. Carter has shipped into Oklahoma as a harvest hand where he will get $4 a day and "found."

last night to address the people. Dr. C. O. Terrell and Dr. W. C. Palmer went to Cisco yesterday and brought Dr. Cary back with them to Ranger in their car. He was taken for a drive on the Ranger-Strawn highway by Mrs. Terrell yesterday afternoon and spoke enthusiastically of the beautiful scenery. He was entertained at dinner last night by Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Palmer and after his lecture last night was taken for another automobile drive and view of the country by starlight by Dr. Carl Wilson. He left on the early train this morning for his home in Dallas.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN "LIT UP."

Madison Square Garden, New York City, scene of the Democratic National Convention, was bathed in a glow of searchlights during all the night sessions of the convention.

TO NAME OR NOT TO NAME IS THE ISSUE

Klan and Anti-Klan Fight Grows Intense; League of Nations, Too.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 27.—The Ku Klux Klan as a political issue completely dominated the democratic national convention today as delegates gathered for the fourth session of their resolutions committee was gathering for another attempt to draft planks on the Ku Klux Klan and the League of Nations that might be acceptable to the convention. It was evident that everything was now turning on the question of whether the Klan should be denounced by name.

Would Omit Name. The forces of William G. McAdoo are endeavoring to bring about a situation similar to that which developed in 1904, when Alton B. Parker was nominated. They hope to continue their fight within the resolutions committee against naming the Klan long enough to force balloting in the convention for presidential nominee before the platform was adopted. McAdoo admittedly has the greatest early delegate strength. With a good showing for McAdoo through several early ballots, his forces believe they could persuade the platform framers to eliminate reference to the Klan, or if they can muster the necessary two-thirds majority and nominate McAdoo before the platform is adopted the former secretary of the treasury could then demand that reference to the Klan be eliminated, as Parker demanded that a gold plank be written.

League of Nations. The struggle over the League of Nations plank is almost as bitter as that over the Klan plank. Newton D. Baker of Ohio, former secretary of war, is leading the fight for a strong endorsement of the league and a pledge that the United States will seek entrance into it. Members of the committee have asked Baker if he would accept the vice presidential nomination and carry the league fight to the country. Baker has said he would not accept second place on the ticket. It is understood that, failing to obtain from the committee the plank he is seeking, he proposes to carry the fight to the floor of the convention.

BUCK PASSES BACK AND FORTH IN COMMITTEE

League of Nations and Klan Planks Drafted, Redrafted and Compromised.

UNITED PRESS HEADQUARTERS, WALDORF HOTEL, NEW YORK, June 27.—The resolutions committee of the democratic national convention today swung into its third day of labor in an attempt to draft planks covering the Ku Klux Klan and the League of Nations. So bitter has the Klan situation become that the leaders desire to avert a fight on the issue on the floor of the convention at all costs. Dragging of the Klan debate to the floor might split the party wide open, so heated have the contending factions become. Advocates of a strong endorsement for entrance of the United States into the League of Nations are equally insistent that a league plank be adopted. As a result of the contest over these planks, the full resolutions committee, after long hours of haggling, voted at 3:30 o'clock this morning to turn the task of drafting the two planks back to the drafting subcommittee. This committee worked most of Wednesday and Thursday nights drawing up the platform. Members could not agree on the two questions and submitted alternative planks to the full committee. The full committee could not agree on the alternative planks and turned them back to the drafting subcommittee to endeavor to effect a compromise. It's a nice game with skillful players.

Pursuant to the instructions of the full committee, the drafting committee met at 11 o'clock and held out a hope that it might be able to report to the full committee at 2 o'clock today. If the subcommittee should be able to write compromise planks that are acceptable, it is hoped that final action can be taken by the full committee during the late afternoon and the platform presented to the convention at a session to be held tonight if the delegates can be persuaded to vote for a night session.

TWO NEW YORK BANDITS KILL GUARD FOR PAYROLL

NEW YORK, June 27.—Two men held up two guards carrying the payroll for the Pullman company, shot one of the guards and escaped with $5,000. The guard shot will die.

POLICE CHIEF HAS OFFICIAL HEAD CUT OFF

One Hundred Patrolmen Are Trembling, Being Accused of Wet Zeal.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 27.—The axe wielded by Mrs. Henry Landers, acting mayor of Seattle, on the city police department is expected to fall today on 100 patrolmen.

Mrs. Landers, who is chief executive of the city of Seattle while Mayor R. J. Brown is attending the democratic convention, removed Chief of Police W. D. Sevrins yesterday and threatened to remove many of the policemen. "Your force has not shown the proper zeal in suppressing the liquor traffic," Mrs. Landers wrote to the chief.

Capt. J. B. Mason is acting chief of police of Seattle today.

Representative Ed C. Little Of Kansas Dies Of Paralysis

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Representative Ed C. Little of Kansas City died here today, following a stroke of paralysis.

Little was a republican, born in Ohio, but settling in Kansas "when there were more buffalo than there were people." He graduated from and afterwards taught in the Kansas State university; under President Harrison was diplomatic agent and consul general to Egypt; later he became secretary to Governor John W. Leedy of Kansas, and then established himself in law practice at Topeka. Being defeated for the United States senate after a hard fight, he afterwards for 17 years declined to become again a candidate for any office. He was an officer in the Twentieth Kansas volunteers and commanded a regiment in the Philippines in 1898, taking part in many engagements. He was elected a member of the sixty-fifth congress and has been elected three times to succeed himself.

Little was also a writer, being author of "The Round Table at Dodge City," "The Battle of Adobe Walls," and "A Son of the Border."

BETTING ODDS BEING OFFERED IN NEW YORK ON THE CANDIDATES

NEW YORK, June 27.—As a result of yesterday's McAdoo and anti-McAdoo fight, the odds in favor of the Californian had lengthened today, Wall street betting brokers reported. McAdoo was quoted as a 1 to 5 chance today. Yesterday he was quoted at 1 to 4 1/2 and when the convention opened 1 to 3. Betting began on Smith at 1 to 2 1/2 today and was still lively at noon while Copeland supporters were laying short bets at 1 to 8 and 1 to 6. Other betting odds were reported as: Ralston 2 to 3 1/2, Glass 1 to 5, Davis 1 to 4, Underwood 1 to 4, Ritchie 1 to 6 and Baker 1 to 6.

FLEWELLEN-PRITCHARD TO DEBATE ISSUES IN RANGER TOMORROW NIGHT

L. H. Flewellen and E. S. Pritchard, rival candidates for the office of county judge, who is also chairman of the county commissioners' court, will be heard in joint debate Saturday night at the corner of Austin and Main streets, in Ranger. It is expected this will be an interesting discussion of county finances, with possible reference to a contract made by the commissioners' court for the collection of delinquent taxes, and having to do also with recent road construction. The address will be in the open air and will start between 8 and 8:30 o'clock after the heat of the day has been dissipated and the cooling breezes begin to blow.

Lions Of Cisco and Lions Of Eastland To Play Ball Today

One of the most hotly contested baseball games of the present season will take place at Connellee park this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when the Eastland Lions' club team meets the Cisco Lions' team.

The Cisco team has played a number of games this season, two of which they lost to the Lions' club team of Breckenridge. The Eastland Lions have played only two games, these with the Eastland Rotary club team. They lost one and won one.

Following is the line-up for the Eastland team: Joe Jones, ss; W. H. Madden, 2b; Reineman, 3b; W. J. Barnes, 1b; Donald Kinnaird, c; Mahon, rf; Freyssenig, cf; Henning, lf; Nunnally, p; Hart, Poe.

ROBINSON OF ARKANSAS MAY BE NOMINEE

New York Editor Regards Him As Likely Choice by Democratic Convention.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Senator Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas has been picked by Arthur Brisbane, one of the country's most astute news and editorial writers, as a likely nominee by the democratic convention as the democratic presidential candidate. He was the second man placed in nomination at the convention.

If the democrats go below the old Mason and Dixon line for a presidential candidate this year, many democrats are asking the convention, "Why not 'Joe' Robinson?" Joe is U. S. senator from Arkansas. And he is faster than the famous Arkansas Traveler. He went to the Arkansas legislature at 21, had a big law practice at 25 and reached congress at 30.

Robinson, now democratic leader of the U. S. senate, probably holds a world's record. In less than two months—55 days exactly—he was a member of the national house, governor of Arkansas and United States senator. Robinson had made a nice record for himself in his 10 years in congress and shortly after his election in December, 1912, he was elected governor of Arkansas. He resigned from the house on Jan. 14, 1913, taking the gubernatorial oath the next day. Two weeks of that was enough. On Jan. 28, he got himself elected United States senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Jeff Davis, with nearly six years to run. On March 10, he abandoned the state executive mansion and from that day has occupied a front seat in "the most powerful legislative body in the world." At the end of another decade of 10 years, he succeeded Senator Oscar Underwood to the senate leadership of the democratic party in 1923.

Robinson was born in the Arkansas capital, Little Rock, on Aug. 26, 1872. He was educated in the common schools and in the University of Arkansas, graduating in law. The five years between 1894 and 1900, were devoted almost entirely to the law. In 1902, he was elected to the Fifty-eighth congress. Every succeeding election thereafter for 10 years he was returned.

Then came the series of events which precipitated him into the senate. Once installed there he resumed the even tenor of his life, working 12 to 15 hours a day. During the Wilson administration he was chairman of the claims committee and held positions on all the other important committees in the senate. In 1918, he was re-elected to the senate. Then came 1920. His burly figure, his powerful voice, his knowledge of parliamentary law and the strategy and tactics of parliamentary warfare were called on to handle the democratic national convention at San Francisco.

When Oscar Underwood in 1923 decided the job of minority leader was too heavy for him, because of a throat malady that was bothering him, the democrats turned to Joe Robinson. Robinson married Ewilda Gertrude Miller in 1906, when he was embarking on his legal career. They have no children. His main diversions are reading, golfing and camping. He has traveled abroad extensively.

CLEVELAND, June 27.—A call summoning supporters of the old populist party of the 90's to the third party convention here July 4 was issued today by LaFollette supporters. It was the first definite movement in the program for progressive political action to unite all progressive groups in the nation behind LaFollette for his independent race for the presidency.

The call was issued by W. H. Bennington, one of the leaders of the populist movement in Kansas, where the party was born.

DEMOCRATS MAY FIGHT TONIGHT OVER PLATFORM

Favorite Sons Nominated; Tom Taggart Says to Watch Ralston's Race.

UNITED PRESS HEADQUARTERS, WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL, NEW YORK, June 27.—Cordell Hull, chairman of the democratic national executive committee, this afternoon will present to the democratic convention the question of starting balloting tonight for the presidential nomination. Hull conferred with Chairman Cummings of the resolutions committee and W. J. Bryan at 3:30 and asked them as to the chances of the platform being ready for presentation this evening. Cummings said there was little likelihood of its being ready. He suggested to Hull that the convention proceed with the casting of ballots until tonight and he would try and have the platform ready by 9 a. m. tomorrow.

Hull said that he would return to the convention and put the question to it.

NEW YORK, June 27.—A fight on the convention floor over the Klan was made certain this afternoon when the subcommittee voted to submit a plank to the full committee denouncing the principles of the Klan but not naming it.

The quarter will demand a plank naming the Klan and the fight will be on. A minority report on the League of Nations is also certain. Newton D. Baker insists that the league be fully indorsed. The subcommittee is presenting this plank to full committee, and Baker says if it is not accepted he will make a minority report.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, June 27.—A bitter fight on the Klan issue which for two days has been kept in the committee, may be dragged into the open tonight. Leaders have definitely agreed to recess after all nominating speeches have been made this afternoon until 8 p. m.

Roll Calls May Begin. One of the first demands will be for the report from the resolutions committee. If the committee is ready the platform may be presented with such minority reports as are returned. If the Klan and League of Nations are still in the making, roll calls may be started on the nominations. In the meantime the first real test will come for the test of the strength between McAdoo and Smith forces.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Dark horses and favorite sons had their day in the big convention as a runner up in the big show. Former Governor Cox and others were given big demonstrations of various intensity, but none approached the blow-off stag of McAdoo or Smith.

Taggart is smiling and appears confident that Ralston will be the nominee. He has kept out of the tangle thus far, letting the McAdoo and Smith forces spend their energies.

Ralston's Watchful Waiting. "We are swimming in quiet waters just now," he said, "but wait until we get started."

David Rockwell, McAdoo convention manager, said at 1:20 that the leaders of the various factions had agreed to recess after all nominations were made until 8 o'clock tonight. Doubt, however, if the platform committee would be ready in time. If not ready, McAdoo forces may make an effort to suspend the rules so that the balloting shall begin.

If the platform committee is not ready to report the convention may adjourn until tomorrow, according to anti-McAdoo forces.

The chair recognized J. F. T. O'Conner of North Dakota, who made a plea against raising any religious issue and seconded the nomination of William Gibbs McAdoo. Mrs. Carroll Miller of Pennsylvania seconded the nomination of Al Smith. She said her grandfather's family were all Methodists, her mother had been a Presbyterian and she had married an Episcopalian. Some of her best friends were Jews. She said she knew Smith modeled his life on the ten commandments.

Eugene O. Sullivan of Omaha put in nomination Governor Charles Bryan of Nebraska, brother of William Jennings Bryan.

New Jersey next on the roll and John A. Mathews of Newark mounted the platform and nominated Governor Silzer. He was given a big hand. Nevada passed and New Hampshire, being called, the delegation stood and gave itself a cheer. Fred Keefe of New Hampshire then placed Governor Fred H. Brown of New (Continued on page two.)

NURSE'S AUTO FUND APPROACHING CLOSE TO FOUR HUNDRED MARK

Truth of the saying, "Many a nickle makes a muckle," is daily proved in the continued upward creep of the fund for the city nurse's automobile, for while there have been a few large contributions, the long list of subscribers shows what can be accomplished by the addition of numerous small sums. Greater interest in any object is usually brought about, in the opinion of the committee working on this fund, by a larger number of small subscriptions rather than by a few large donations. Therefore, the Child Welfare club gratefully acknowledges the following additions to the sums already announced:

- Westgate Tire and Battery Co. 5.00
- L. E. Dewhirst 5.00
- Leo Hartnett 2.50
- Walker-Smith Gro. Co. 5.00
- Waples-Platt Gro. Co. 5.00

Hampshire in nomination. While speeches were in progress, soldiers and sailors of New York issued a statement boosting Royal S. Copeland of New York as the logical man to break the deadlock. "The sons and daughters of democracy will put him in," the committee declared. Samuel A. King of Utah also seconded McAdoo's nomination. Apparently the McAdoo forces are trying to offset the effect of Smith's demonstration yesterday by turning loose a torrent of seconding speeches from as many states as possible. Occasionally the galleries would show a predilection for Smith by shouting "oil," but these calls were promptly suppressed. King took a lot of punishment from the crowd, but stuck to his manuscript to the end. A cheer went up as the state of Vermont was called and the chairman said, "The state of Vermont is glad to report that it has no seconding speeches to make."

Rain Pours Down At Kansas City and Rivers Are Rioting

KANSAS CITY, June 27.—One man was killed and several injured in the most severe rain, hail and wind storm that has visited Kansas City within the last decade. The rain fell in sheets, flooding streets and basements and causing all streams rapidly to rise to flood levels. The Missouri river rose 20 feet, twice its normal flow, and the Kaw river is rising very fast. All small streams are out of their banks. Currents of water rushed violently down the streets of Kansas City, sweeping up the pavement and tying up traffic. Automobiles trying to go through the blinding rain were stalled when the paving buckled beneath them and was swept away in chunks. The storm is said to have been largely local in its extent.

HOOF AND MOUTH DISEASE DISASTROUS TO LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH, June 27.—Dr. Leon Cloud, state veterinarian, has just returned from California where he put in a month of intense study of the foot and mouth disease which has been raging there. Danger of spread of the disease to Texas caused the commission to send Dr. Cloud to get first hand information as to methods of combatting the malady. Losses to California from this epidemic total more than $10,000,000 according to Dr. Cloud. The government has paid out more than $4,000,000 in indemnities. Fully half of the 100,000 head of cattle slaughtered in the campaign against the disease were pure bred stuff.

The chief weapon against the disease is a 30-30 rifle, Dr. Cloud said. The only safe thing is to get the infected animals under ground as quickly as possible to prevent spread of the disease. It is believed birds are partially responsible for its spread in California. The disease is now under control, according to latest reports from California, Dr. Cloud said. The only infected herd is in Merced county, and there no new infection has been found in more than a week.

A GOOD LAXATIVE

Black-Draught Recommended by an Illinois Lady, Who Says It Helps Her.—"Fine for the Liver."

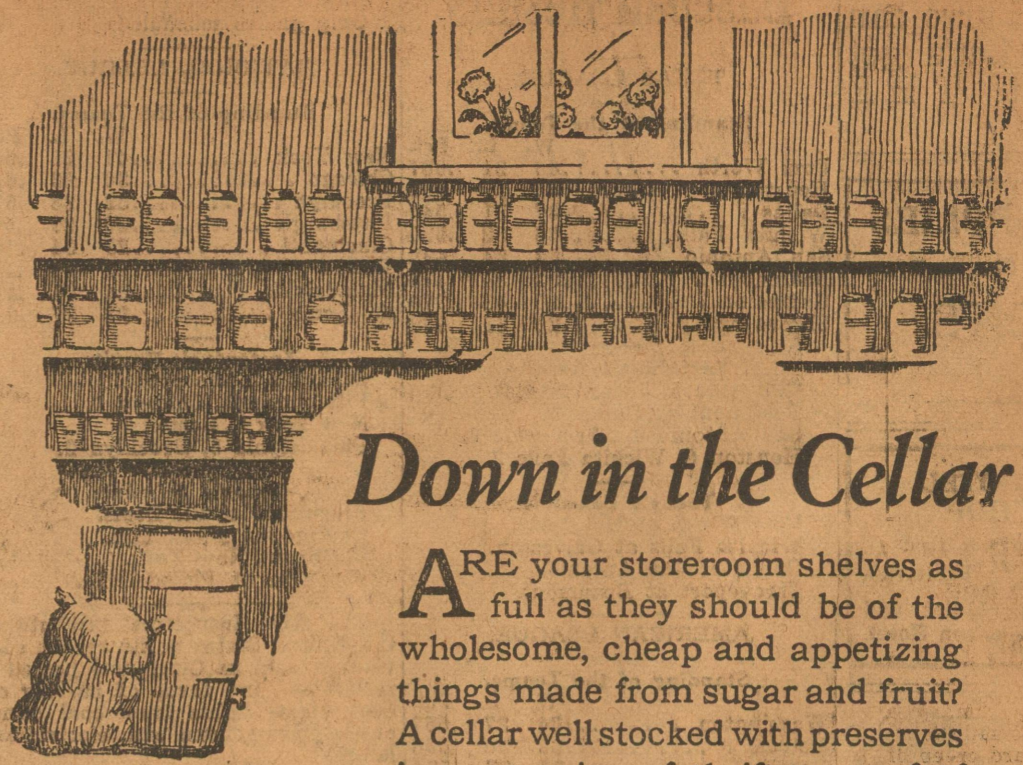

St. Elmo, Ill.—"I have used Black-Draught for three years," says Mrs. J. W. Boyd, a well-known member of this community. "I was visiting a friend who had used it for some time. I was in need of a laxative and I had a burning in my stomach. I was constipated. She gave me a dose of Black-Draught and it helped me, so I used it from then on. It certainly benefited me. I think it is fine for the liver, too. I am glad to recommend it. "One day our pastor was visiting us, and he said his system seemed clogged and asked me to give him something to take. I gave him Black-Draught. He was much pleased with the results and bought a package, himself."

Constipation forces the system to absorb poisons that should be thrown out, causing pain, discomfort and tending to undermine your health. Black-Draught helps to relieve this condition by acting on the bowels, and by regulating the liver when it is torpid, thus helping to drive out many poisons in an easy, natural way. Don't take chances! At the first indication of constipation, take Black-Draught. Costs only a cent a dose. Your local druggist, or dealer, sells Black-Draught. NC-163

TOM MIX IN "NORTH OF HUDSON BAY" AT CONNELLEE

An unusually popular group of screen players has been assembled for the latest William Fox production starring Tom Mix, "North of Hudson Bay," which comes to the Connellee theatre tomorrow. Kathleen Key, a newcomer to the Fox studio, is leading lady and plays the role of the daughter of a factor of a Canadian trading post. The male characters are exceptionally well cast. Frank Campeau, who plays the part of the governor of the trading post, has played many "heavy" roles during a long screen career. He has played prominent parts in other Mix pictures as well as with William Farnum and Charles Jones. William Walling, who essayed the title role in the Fox special, "The Village Blacksmith," and Eugene Pallette, one of the musketeers in "The Three Musketeers," both have strong character parts in this Mix picture, which was directed by John Ford from a story by Jules Furthman.

Mix is seen in a typical rough and ready heroic part, this time as a husky of the far north country.

U-S-STRONG IN OLYMPIC MEET FIELD EVENTS

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, June 27.—America should pick up about 70 points in the field events at Paris.

This is a modest calculation, well within the team's ability.

In some events, there will scarcely be a flag on the pole save the Stars and Stripes; in some, it must be admitted, our team probably will not win a place.

When we consider the performance of the shot-putters at Cambridge a couple of days before the American contingent sailed for Paris, and realize that Charley Eastman of Harvard and Lieutenant Liversedge, U. S. N., couldn't even qualify with heaves of 47 feet 3 inches, we realize how preponderant is this country's strength in this event. There are few weight men in Europe doing better than 45 feet, and the best of our men—"Bud" Houser and Glen Hartruff from the far coast—will do better than 50 feet next month.

In the javelin throw and the discus, however, anything the United States gets will be welcome. The showing made by our javelin hurlers at the final tryouts at Cambridge was woefully weak. From the press box, it looked as though Welchell, Neufeldt and Priester were handling their javelins rather clumsily, and all had trouble with the line from behind, which they were required to throw.

"Bud" Houser figures in the discus throw, too, but we are weak in this event, and might as well admit it. J. T. Lieb and Augustus Pope, both of the Illinois A. C., are about our best, and they should be badly beaten, unless they produce unlooked-for ability.

In the pole vault, it is just the other way around. We have Spearow of Oregon, Lee Barnes, the high school kid from Hollywood; Jim Brooker of Michigan and George Graham of California Tech, all capable of better than 13 feet. They might well be tied for first place against the world, although if Hoff the great Scandinavian vaulter, is in shape, he has bettered 13 feet six inches. Hoff had the misfortune to tear the ligaments in his leg while training early this month, and was advised not to enter the Olympics.

beat either of them. The United States should account for first and several other places in the high particularly, with Tom Poor likely to jump.

KING TRIED KARNAK AND GAINS 13 POUNDS

"Nearly everybody I see is boosting Karnak and I am boosting it too, for it has put me back on my feet feeling like a new man all over and with a gain of 13 pounds," said Mr. Wm. L. King at 122 Helen ave., San Antonio, popular salesman for a big packing house.

"I am not much of a hand to take medicine," continued Mr. King, "but I got so everything I ate felt like a lump of lead in my stomach and I would suffer from headaches and heartburn for hours after every meal.

I became so weak and run-down all over that it was all I could do to stay on the job, and I knew something had to be done.

"My brother-in-law had taken Karnak with such fine results he insisted on me taking it and the way it has fixed me up is little short of astonishing. I eat and sleep like a trooper, feel fine and full of energy, and am tip-top in every way. Karnak can't be beat."

Karnak is sold in Ranger by the Rexall Drug Store and Texas Drug Store.—Advertisement.

INCOME TAXES EXPLAINED BY INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR; NEW LAW MAKES MANY CHANGES

DALLAS, June 27.—The following statement is issued by George C. Hopkins, collector of internal revenue, second district of Texas.

Work on the administration of the revenue act of 1924 was begun immediately upon the passage of the new act. New regulations relating to the income, estate, excise, stamp and other taxes provided for are being prepared and will be issued at the earliest practicable moment.

Of immediate interest to taxpayers is the provision for a 25 per cent reduction on the income tax of individuals for the year 1923. This 25 per cent reduction is not applicable to corporations. Many individual taxpayers, anticipating the reduction, paid at the time of filing their returns, on or before March 15, 1924, only three-fourths of the amount reported on their returns. These taxpayers have nothing further to pay this year, unless additional tax is disclosed in the audit of their returns.

If one-fourth of the tax was paid on or before March 15, payment of one-half of a similar amount satisfied the June 15 requirement. The tax remaining unpaid after June 15, may be paid in equal installments on or before September 15 and December 15, respectively.

Full Payments Accepted.
Taxpayers paying on the installment plan, desiring, now that the 25 per cent reduction is an accomplished fact, to pay the remainder of the tax in full, may of course do so, the advantage being to the government as well as themselves in the elimination of bookkeeping.

Taxpayers who paid in full the amount of tax shown on their returns will receive a refund of 25 per cent without requirement of filing a claim.

Returns under the 1924 act are required of every single person whose net income for 1924 was $1,000 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more and of every married person whose net income was $2,500 or more or whose gross income was $5,000 or more. Under the 1921 act returns were required of married persons whose net income was $2,000 or more. The 1924 act provides that if a married couple has an aggregate net income of $2,500 or an aggregate gross income of $5,000, each shall make a return, or the income of each shall be included in a single joint return, in which case the tax shall be computed on the aggregate net income. Married persons not living together, such as divorcees or persons separated by mutual consent, are classed as single persons, as are widows and widowers.

There is no change in the exemption for single persons, which is $1,000. Married persons, living together, and heads of families are allowed an exemption of $2,500, regardless of the amount of net income. Under the 1921 act the exemption for married persons and heads of families was $2,500 if the net income was $5,000 or less and $2,000 if the net income exceeded $5,000. No change is made in the provision allowing a taxpayer, in addition to his personal exemption, a credit of $400 for each dependent if such dependent is under 18 years of age or incapable of self support because mentally or physically defective. This $400 credit is not allowed for the husband or wife of a taxpayer, though one may be totally dependent upon the other.

Progressive Status.
Formerly, a taxpayer's status on the last day of the taxable year determined the amount of his exemptions. If the return having been made on a calendar year basis, he was married on December 31, he was allowed the exemption granted a married person for the full year ($2,000 or $2,500, according to the amount of net income), though the ceremony may have been performed on that day. A person who became a widow or widower during the year and was not remarried on December 31, was allowed only a $1,000 exemption granted a single person. If during the year the head of a family ceased the support in his home of relatives, he was entitled only to the $1,000 exemption.

Under the revenue act of 1924, the status of the taxpayer is determined by apportionment in accordance with the number of months the taxpayer was single, married, or the head of a family. For example, a taxpayer who marries on July 1, 1924, will be entitled to an exemption of $1,750. For the first six months of the taxable year he is classed as single, entitling him to an exemption of $500—one-half of the $1,000 exemption allowed a single person—and for the last six months he is classed as married entitling him to an exemption of $1,250—one-half of the exemption allowed a married person. In such computations a fractional part of a month is disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it is considered a full month. These figures are based on the assumption that the return is made on the calendar year basis, as most are.

The normal tax rates are two per cent on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemption and the credits for dependents, etc., four per cent on the next $4,000 and six per cent on the balance. The surtax rates range from one per cent on net incomes between $10,000 and $14,000 to 40 per cent on net incomes in excess of $50,000. Under the 1921 act the normal tax rates were four per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and credits and eight per cent on the remainder of net income, while the surtax rates ranged from one per cent on the amount of net income between $6,000 and $10,000 to 50 per cent of the amount by which the net income exceeded $20,000.

Taxes on "Earned Income."
The revenue act of 1924 contains a special provision for reduced taxes on "earned income," which did not appear in previous laws. All net income up to $5,000 is deemed to be earned income. On this amount the taxpayer is entitled to a credit of 25 per cent of the amount of the tax. For example, a taxpayer, unmarried and with no dependents, whose net income for 1924 is $5,000 would pay, without this reduction a tax of $80. His actual tax is $60. From his net income of $5,000 he is allowed a personal exemption of $1,000; the tax of two per cent on the $4,000 of taxable income is $80, one-fourth of which, or $20, may be deducted.

In no case is the earned net income considered to be in excess of $10,000. A taxpayer who receives a salary of $20,000, for example, can claim only $10,000 as "earned net income."

In the case of a married man with no dependents whose earned net income is $7,000 and who has other income of $1,500, a total of $8,500, the tax, without the benefit of the 25 per cent reduction would amount to $160—$8,500 less a personal exemption of $2,500 equalling $6,000 on which the tax on the first $4,000 at two per cent amounts to $80, and on the next $2,000 at four per cent, to $80. On the earned net income the tax amounts to $100—$7,000 less the exemption of $2,500—equalling $4,500 on which the tax on the first $4,000 at two per cent amounts to $80 and on the remaining $500 at four per cent to $20. One-fourth of the tax on earned net income, or $25, can be deducted from the $160, leaving $135 as the total tax payable.

On a net income of $12,000 derived by a taxpayer, unmarried and with no dependents, entirely from securities, the tax, considering the first $5,000 to be earned, amounts to $420. Computed without the benefit of the deduction, it would amount to $440.

Earned income is defined as "wages, salaries, professional fees, and other compensation for personal services actually rendered," but does not include that part of the compensation derived by the taxpayer for personal services rendered by him to a corporation which represents a distribution of earnings or profits rather than a reasonable allowance as compensation for personal services actually rendered. In the case of a taxpayer engaged in a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income producing facts, a reasonable allowance as compensation for personal services actually rendered by the taxpayer, not in excess of 20 per cent of his share of the net profits of such trade or business, shall be considered as earned income, provided that this allowance does not exceed $10,000. It is provided, also, that in no case shall the 25 per cent credit on earned income exceed 25 per cent of the tax computed in the ordinary manner. The limitation is applicable in cases where there is a loss, and the earned net income is greater than the taxable net income.

The period for filing returns of income for the year 1924—based on the calendar year basis—is January 1 to March 15, 1925.

WHAT CAN PIMPLY FACED BOYS AND GIRLS EXPECT

Nobody knows better than the boy or girl who has been slighted time and again by their supposed "best friend," how humiliating it is to have to stand for such "cutting" things when they know they can expect nothing more as long as they don't look attractive on account of a pimply, blotchy or rough skin.

But such heartaches don't have to be put up with. Any boy or girl who is troubled with these skin blemishes can get rid of them if they will just use Black and White Ointment and Soap. The fact that they sell at the tremendous rate of more than two million packages a year shows how popular they are. They are economically priced, in liberal packages. Any dealer can supply you with both the Ointment and the Soap. The 60c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size.—Adv.

NORTH DAKOTA AGAIN FACING FIGHT OVER NON-PARTISANS

FARGO, N. D., June 25.—The industrial program which the Non-Partisan league inaugurated in the legislature of 1919 is the bone of contention in the state primary elections today.

A Non-Partisan league ticket which claims to stand for the identical platform which the league originally announced has been making a very strenuous campaign. This program was stringently curtailed when the Non-Partisaners were removed in a recall election of 1921 and their opponents, the Independents, placed in power.

This platform declared for a state-owned mill and elevator; state-owned mines; a rural credits act; exemption of farm improvements from taxation; state-hail insurance; state grain grading act and dockage laws.

A. G. Sorile of Grand Forks heads this ticket as the candidate for governor.

The Independent ticket, headed by Gov. R. A. Nestos, who seeks re-election, favors giving the state owned mill built at Grand Fork a trial; making the state bank a rural credits bank only; and reduction of taxes.

While declaring himself in favor of limited experimentation as an essential to progress, Governor Nestos declares that the Non-Partisan regime was like a farmer who devotes 150 acres of his 160-acre farm to experimentation and only ten acres to the recognized systems of good agriculture.

The experimentations of the Non-Partisans, Governor Nestos contends, have fastened huge debts on this and coming generations and injured the state financially and industrially. In proof of the latter he points to the inability of his predecessors to sell the state bonds to finance their industrial program. The governor contends that confidence had been destroyed in the state, but has been renewed by the present administration.

Both parties have a complete ticket with indorsees for congress. Non-Partisan candidates for congress are H. A. Aaker, Grand Forks; James Sinclair, incumbent; and E. A. Williams, Bismarck. The Independents indorsed O. B. Burtness, incumbent; Thomas Hall, present secretary of state, to succeed Congressman R. A. Young, resigned, and M. O. Hall, Mohall.

A Campaign Tragedy

A tragic accident marked the progress of the campaign in that F. B. Baker, Non-Partisan candidate for commissioner of agriculture, and in a former campaign their nominee for governor, was killed while out electioneering. A. G. Sorile, accompanying him, was seriously injured, but has recuperated.

While the Non-Partisan league platform is said to be identical with other days, the personnel of the leaders of the organization has changed. Neither A. C. Townley nor William Lemke, former national president and vice president, respectively, is on friendly terms with the present powers that be. Other leaders in the hey-day of the league's life were this spring arraigned against each other across the counsel table in criminal court, more intent on sending each other to the penitentiary than in the outcome of the campaign. The occasion with the dissection in court of the inner workings of the defunct league bank, because the majority of the stock was held by an organization formed to finance the league. The assistant prosecuting attorney was Arthur Leseuer, former prominent Non-Partisan leaguer. Defendants included Messrs. Townley, Lemke, J. J. Hastings, former president of the United Consumers Stores company, and others connected both with the league and the bank. Star witness for the prosecution was J. B. Brington, former confidential secretary of Townley.

The present leaders of the league claim that in shaking off these former leaders they have cleaned house and now come before the voters with their industrial program unhampered by "office seekers and interested parties."

The league fight will enter the republican primaries. The democrats also have a ticket standing.

Only one nominee ran in this party, however, at the primary. He was Martin C. Freerks, Jamestown, candidate for congress from the second district.

Candidates for supreme court and superintendent of public instruction are on a Non-Partisan ballot. Miss Minnie J. Neilson, heretofore invulnerable, once having been the only independent indorsed, successful in an otherwise complete Non-Partisan victory, is opposed for superintendent of public instruction by Miss Bertha R. Palmer, Bismarck, and G. W. Conn, Midon.
