

Schools of County Elect New Trustees

All school districts of Parmer County will vote on men to fill vacancies in the various school boards on Saturday, April 3rd.

Also to be named in Saturday's voting will be two members to fill vacancies in the county board of education, succeeding F. W. Reeve and Fred Kepley.

It became apparent here this week that J. I. Gober would be named to succeed Kepley. Gober's name appears on the Farwell and Oklahoma Lane ballots. Reeve will likely be named to succeed himself, being unopposed for reelection.

County Judge Lee Thompson said today that three school districts of the county—Midway, Lazbuddy and Black—did not comply with the law in filing petitions for places on the ballots. He predicted that a write-in campaign would be conducted in those districts.

List Is Given

Following is the list of candidates appearing on the ballots in the other school districts:

Friena—Carl C. Maurer and L. R. Baxter. Both named to succeed themselves.

Rhea—Boye Taylor, nominated to succeed Roy Bearden.

Bovina—Five names appear on the ballot, voters will select two new members. Candidates are, Alfred Berggren, Wilbur Charles, H. L. Tidenberg, N. E. Bonds, Amos Steelman. The terms of Berggren and W. V. Cunningham expire.

Lakeview—D. O. Robason has been nominated to succeed himself.

Oklahoma Lane—Five candidates have been nominated in this district from which the voters will choose two officials. Appearing on the ticket are: F. E. Kepley, E. L. Cochran, C. C. Christian, Milton Henson and Alvin Krieger. The two selected will succeed E. A. Berry and Jack Roach.

Farwell—with three vacancies to be filled, E. M. Deaton, W. H. Graham and Olen Schleuter have been nominated to succeed themselves.

Classification Task Faces Local Board

Reconsideration of approximately 300 registrants who are now carried on the rolls of the local draft board in class 3-A will be taken up when the local board meets next Sunday afternoon.

Under a new Selective Service order, announced two months ago, all men of military age who were engaged in non-essential activity were given notice to change over to essential industry or endeavor, or face induction into the armed forces. This ruling applies to all men of military age regardless of their dependency status.

April 1st was set as the deadline when such changes should become effective.

Local Board members this week said that all men who are now classified in 3-A would be reviewed at Sunday's meeting with the view of locating any registrant who may be engaged in a non-deferrable job. Such registrants, if any are found on the rolls, will be placed in class 1-A, in accordance with regulations.

One board member said today that it was his opinion there would be very few if any local registrants found engaged in occupations listed in the non-deferrable list. He went further in asserting the opinion that 3-A men whose occupation is listed neither as deferrable or non-deferrable would be retained in class 3-A. He said that during the past two months a number of men had changed from non-essential work to essential jobs, notably that of farming.

Courthouse Is Kept Under Lock And Key

Pilfering and loafing about the county courthouse came to a sudden end this week when Sheriff Earl Booth, custodian of the building, announced that hereafter entrance to the building, except during office hours, would be made by persons holding keys to the building.

Sheriff Booth said that during recent months several items evidently had been stolen from the building, including garden hose, janitor's supplies and other items of value. Furthermore, he pointed out, loafers and other intruders have been found about the building at night.

All persons having official duties at the courthouse have been provided with keys to the building.

GETS SIX MONTHS

Frank Smith entered a plea of guilty to a charge of aggravated assault before County Judge Lee Thompson in county court Monday morning and was assessed a fine of $25 and costs and a jail sentence of six months, officials announced.

The charges against Smith are said by officials to have grown out of an altercation he had with his wife at the Farwell Cafe on Saturday afternoon.

Saturday, April 3, is positively the last day The State Line Tribune's special subscription offer will be open to the readers of this paper.

During the remaining days of this week new or renewal subscribers may take advantage of the outstanding offer and get The Tribune for one year, The Progressive Farmer for five years, and a lovely crystal 32-piece luncheon set for only $3.98. During the month of March, approximately 100 new and renewal subscriptions have been taken. Some subscribers, after receiving the luncheon sets, have come in and ordered additional subscriptions to their friends in order to get another set of the dishes.

Osborne Takes Over Elevator Management

W. Bart Osborne, local resident for many years, and one of the best informed grain men ever to be engaged in the business here, has taken over the management of the Farwell Elevator, succeeding Mansell Cranfill, who departed Sunday.

Osborne has been connected with the local firm since early last Fall, at which time it was thought that Cranfill would receive his call. Prior to that he spent many years in the grain business, both as an independent buyer and manager for other firms. Few men are better acquainted with the grain business; furthermore, he is well known to all farmers throughout this section. Cranfill left Sunday for McGruder, Va., in response to his call, to begin training for active overseas duty with the Navy.

New Point Values Are Posted On Monday

New point values, released over the weekend by OPA, were posted on a number of foods in the nation's grocery stores on Monday of this week, in some cases higher and in some instances lower than those which had been in effect the first month of point rationing of canned stuffs.

Principally, cuts were made on the values of fruit juices and dried fruits, the latter moving into the exempt class; while dried soups also took a 50 percent cut in points.

On the other hand, requirements were stepped up on such foods as canned peaches and pineapple, fruit cocktail, catsup, chili sauce, tomato paste, applesauce and canned beans. Apple juice, raisins, prunes and other dried fruits will—until further announcement—be purchased without use of the precious points.

Receiving substantial cuts were: grapefruit juice, No. 2 can, formerly 10, now 5; grapefruit juice, 46-oz. can, now set at 9 as compared with 23; pineapple juice, 46-oz., cut from 32 to 22; tomato juice, 46-oz., dropped from 32 to 22; other vegetable juices, points cut from 11 to 8; dried soups, 2 1/2 oz., from 4 to 2 points.

Going up in point values were: applesauce, No. 2 can, now 14, up 4; fruit salad or cocktail, No. 2, up from 14 to 16; peaches, No. 2 1/2, hiked from 21 to 24; pineapple, No. 2 1/2, jumped from 24 to 28; canned fresh lima beans, formerly 16, now 19; canned dry beans, including pork and beans and baked beans, No. 2, raised from 10 to 14; catsup and chili sauce, formerly 8 points, now set at 10.

One new addition to the ration list is canned or frozen corn on the cob, set at 2 points per ear.

Registered Sires for Parmer Co. Herds

One of the most effective steps in the improvement of the dairy industry in Parmer County was taken last week, when farmers of the county imported a number of registered herd sires, County Agent Garlon A. Harper stated today.

Ten men, among them the county agent, made a tour of large stock farms recently, returning last week with six registered Jersey bulls and a number of females to add to their respective herds.

Purchases by the group amounted to $2815, the agent said, adding that one "4-star" bull, the highest rating given by the Jersey Cattle Club, was brought to the county, along with one 3-star animal and several 2-star bulls.

Giles Cobb was the buyer of the 4-star bull and also added one bred Jersey heifer to his herd.

Tom Foster purchased a 3-star bull and two heifer calves; Leon Grissom, one 2-star bull; Wendell Christian, one 2-star bull and 2 heifers; Owen Broyles, one 2-star bull and three heifers; Warney Hurst and Travis Rundell, one 2-star bull and two cows; Harry Payne, two heifers; L. H. Hoffman, one 2-star bull.

The stock came from the Shelton Farm at Brownwood, and the Reed & Butler herd at Trenton, Harper said.

F. R. Ford also recently added to his stock by purchasing a bull from the Hildebrand Farm at San Antonio, and Turner Payne has purchased a bull calf from the Portales college herd.

In addition, several other farmers are considering the purchase of registered herd stock, Harper said.

Scout And Cub Troops Will Be Formed Here

Following meetings held in Texico and Farwell during the past few days, plans have been made to inaugurate a Scout program locally.

J. V. Starkey, Scout organizer from Portales, was in Farwell Saturday, at which time arrangements were made to start a Cub troop. J. D. Thomas was named to act as cub master, and Clyde Magnus is chairman.

In Texico a regular Scout troop is in the making, with Victor Stout as scoutmaster and C. E. Sanders as assistant. Boys interested in the work are being signed up this week, it was announced.

APPLY TO WAR BOARD FOR SLAUGHTER PERMITS

John Armstrong, chairman of the County ration office, today issued a statement urging that all meat dealers and slaughterers apply to the County War Board, not the ration board, for slaughter permits.

The ration board, he pointed out, is separate and distinct from the war board, and permits may be issued for such slaughter only by the latter body.

Point Values Released on Meats, Fats, Cheese

Inauguration of a new rationing program for American housewives came on Monday, the 29th, when meats, fats, fish and cheese went under rigid control of OPA, point charts having been released during the weekend.

With such rationing came the lifting of the ban on sales of fats of all kinds, which was in effect during last week.

All kinds of meat, whether in tin or glass containers, fresh, frozen, dried, cured, boiled, baked or barbecued, are given on the ration list, with dried beef and sliced ham hitting the high marks in point values, at 12 and 11 per lb., respectively.

Any fish in cans will draw 7 points per lb., butter is set at a flat 8 points per pound, and cheese is at the same level.

A total of 16 points per person per week is the allowance under the new program and points are interchangeable, that is, they may be all expended for meat, butter, or cheese as cooking needs demand.

Red stamps in ration book 2 will be used for purchases of items under the new plan. Although they are set up for weekly periods, they will not expire until April 30th.

CLOSES CAFE

Mrs. Frank Smith has announced the closing of the Farwell Cafe, effective Tuesday night. She said that she hoped the suspension would be only temporary, hoping to be able to sell or lease the business.

Building Program Awaits Priorities

"We have the money in hand and are ready to go just as soon as we get priorities on the materials," Rev. W. C. Wright stated today, referring to the building program that was launched by the Baptist church a few weeks ago.

Construction of a Sunday school annex, 25x50 feet, with a full basement underneath, was begun several days ago. The excavation work has already been completed, the sand and gravel is on the grounds and the only hitch now in the progress of the work is the securing of cement.

Rev. Wright expressed hope that the priorities order for the cement would be forthcoming before the close of the present week.

Jeep Campaign Opens With Bang at School

The "Buy A Jeep" campaign, launched at the Farwell school only the past Thursday, brought in purchases of $484 in stamps and bonds on opening day, Supt. J. T. Carter reported today.

Figuring that cost of the jeep will run over $900, Carter was jubilant over the fact that more than half the purchase price was raised in a single day. The campaign will continue through April 21st.

Stamp days will be observed on Thursday of each week, as is customary, the superintendent added.

THDA Meeting To Be Held In Littlefield, 10

The District 2 meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association will be held in Littlefield on April 10, Miss Elsie Cunningham, Parmer county agent, announced today.

Miss Cunningham went on to say that the local council had nominated Mrs. Will Nittler for vice president of the district, and urged that a number of local women go to Littlefield to support Mrs. Nittler's candidacy. Those who wish to go are asked to contact Miss Cunningham in order that transportation arrangements may be worked out.

Promptness and a better class of work is our motto. Dial 2131.

Texico-Farwell dwellers who have ambitions of raising their own vegetables this year but are holding off because of fear that there may be a shortage of water for irrigation purposes were assured this week by R. V. Ham, in charge of the local water facilities, that plenty of water would be available.

"Nothing but a breakdown can cause a shortage of water this summer," Ham stated when contacted, and added, "We aren't expecting the pumps to give us any trouble."

With two wells operating, 20,000 gallons of water can be pumped hourly, Ham said, and this should be sufficient to take care of all irrigation needs in the Twin Cities.

For the past several years local users have enjoyed the lowest irrigation rate in this area, 10c per 1,000 gallons, and it was not expected that the rate would be hiked.

Scarcity of fresh foods and the rigid point rationing allowance will no doubt put all available space into gardens this summer.

Exams Will Be Given At School, April 2nd

Prospective students for the Army Specialized Training Program and the Navy College Training Program will take qualifying examinations at the Farwell school between 9 and 11 a. m. on Friday, April 2, Supt. J. T. Carter reminded today.

In making the announcement, Carter stressed the time, stating that the applicants must be on hand before 9 o'clock, as no one would be permitted to begin the exam later than the specified hour.

"Most boys accepted for either the Army Specialized Training Program or the Navy College Training Program will eventually become commissioned officers in the Navy, Army, Marine Corps or Coast Guard," the superintendent said. "The Army and Navy will pay all college expenses of students selected by the tests. Since there will be no further exams for some months, all high school students or recent graduates interested will have to take the April 2 examinations to qualify."

The purpose of the tests is to aid in the selection of prospective officer material for the various branches of the service. Examinations are designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge of the candidates who will express a choice for the Army or Navy at time of the examinations.

BULLETIN

Proceeds from a pie supper held Tuesday night at the Texico school amounted to approximately $100.00, it was announced this (Wednesday) morning, which pushes the Texico quota well beyond the asking of $400.

Rev. W. C. Wright, chairman of the Texico Red Cross War Fund, jubilantly announced today that he is confident Texico will go over the top with its quota in the drive, scheduled to conclude today (Wednesday).

Rev. Wright said that the original quota of $600.00, which was set for Texico workers, had been reduced to $400.00 in view of the fact that many Texico contributions had already been made through Clovis channels, and the further fact that active Texico business firms have been seriously reduced in recent months by the war program.

"We already have $370.00 in hand, and I confident that we will raise the remainder of the quota," Rev. Wright stated.

He praised the enthusiasm of the people of the Fairfield community, who contributed $70.40 last Friday evening at a pie supper held in that community. The Texico school raised $20.00 and the local Baptist church added another $25.00 to the fund, the chairman reported.

A pie supper was scheduled to be held at the Texico school on Tuesday night of this week. Receipts from this affair were not taken into account when the above figures were released.

The Curry County quota has been set at $13,000.00 and a determined last-minute effort is being made over the county to reach this goal. It has been suggested that in event overlooked in the Parmer drive they overlooked in the Parmer drive would do well to make their contributions to the Texico workers.

Parmer county, it will be recalled, has already exceeded its quota by several hundred dollars.

Wilkerson Selected To Succeed Temple

Billy Wilkerson, young farmer living 6 miles east of Bovina, has been selected to succeed J. C. Temple as agricultural director of the Capitol Freehold Land Trust, H. Y. Overstreet announced here today.

The position has been vacant since the sudden death of Mr. Temple a few weeks ago. Wilkerson will assume his duties on April 1st.

Present plans call for Wilkerson to retain his residence at his farm home and he will drive back and forth to the local office as necessity demands.

Temple died of a heart attack at the R. L. Hightower farm on the morning of March 8, where he had gone to attend a farm sale. He had been with the Capitol Company for more than 30 years.

New Industry Forecast For South Plains Area

The use of a waxy type grain sorghum as a substitute for tapioca starch and the development of a new industry in the South Plains area of the Texas Panhandle was forecast today by H. M. Bainer, general agricultural agent of the Santa Fe Railway System.

Imports of tapioca starch or flour, from the roots of the tapioca plant or bitter cassava, principally from Java, were cut off at the start of the war. In 1940 these imports amounted to 352 million pounds. In addition to making tapioca and other foods it was used, mainly, in the manufacture of high speed packaging glues, adhesives for stamps and envelopes, and in the sizing of paper and in cloth materials.

With all imports of this product cut off, manufacturers searched for other sources and believe they have found it domestically in the recently developed Waxy Blackhull Kafir. Credit for the development of this sorghum is given by Bainer to R. E. Karper, assistant director of the Texas A. & M. Experiment Station, who resides at Lubbock.

Karper has been working with the kafir for several years and believes the waxy sorghum will replace the cassava or tapioca starch in every way. In the plans for further development of this sorghum it is expected that 20,000 acres will be planted in 1943 in territory embracing Levelland, Lubbock, Littlefield, Dimmitt, Muleshoe, Abertathy and Chillicothe. It is estimated that this acreage should provide a total yield of 32,000,000 lbs. for the 1943 crop and that acreage will be increased as more seed is available.

The expenses of Texas State government have trebled within the past fifteen years.

Nuptials Are Read In Childress Church

Mrs. Lester Vincent of this city this week announces the marriage of her sister, Miss Francis Smith, to Sgt. William Eugene Anderson of Spokane, Wash., which took place March 21 at 2 o'clock in the First Methodist Church at Childress, with Rev. Orion W. Carter officiating.

The couple pledged their vows before an altar covered with white carnations and fern. Tall floor baskets and huge vases of light blue heliotrope and pink roses were arranged at either side of the altar, accented by lighted white tapers in graduated candleabra.

"O Promise Me" and "Indian Love Call" were played by the organist before the ceremony.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, C. L. Smith, to the strains of "Lohengrin". She was dressed in a powder blue costume suit trimmed with red fox fur and accessories were of blue and white, while her corsage was of pink rosebuds. For "something borrowed" she wore a brooch belonging to Mrs. Vincent, and for "something blue" carried a handkerchief belonging to her mother. For "something old", she wore a ruby ring belonging to her sister, Mrs. R. B. Summers.
