Steer Spirit Soars For '82 Homecoming

A rip-roaring pep rally this afternoon (Friday) at 3 p.m. in the gym will take up where the spirit-rousing bonfire left off Thursday night to get the Steers and Steer fans psyched up for the Farwell homecoming game with the Seagraves Eagles tonight at 8 p.m. CDT.

The pep rally, which is to be dedicated to the seniors, will be highlighted by the coronation of the Homecoming Queen and King. All football fans and school supporters, and especially the parents of the seniors, are encouraged to attend today's pep rally.

Activity won't let up until 1:30 a.m. Saturday when the homecoming dance winds down and Homecoming '82 will be officially over.

Starting at 5 p.m. the junior class will be serving an enchilada supper at the school cafeteria. Tickets may be purchased from any junior class member or may be bought at the door.

At halftime of the big game, a tradition started several years ago by the Booster Club will again be highlighted when the Coming Home Queens (Homecoming Queens of 10, 20 and 30 years ago, 1952-53, 1962-63, 1972-73) will be introduced. This will be in addition to the introduction and recognition of this year's queen and the homecoming court.

Coming Home Queens to be honored are Rose Athley Cassady of Gruver, queen in 1952; Bonnie Cochran Clayton of Bovina, queen in 1962; and Caroline Anderson Lewis of Lubbock, queen in 1972. Mrs. Lewis will be unable to attend the game; however Mrs. Cassady and Mrs. Clayton plan to be here for the festivities.

Candidates for this year's king and queen honors are Gary Haseloff and Kelly Davis, seniors and candidates at-large, Jay Anderson and Tamby Obenshain, senior candidates; Raymond Sierra and Shelley Ford, junior candidates; Roger Robertson and Denise Ford, sophomore candidates; and Tyson Carpenter and Kristen Davis, freshman candidates.

Today's pep rally culminates a week of Crazy Days that have helped get the spirit train in motion.

Monday was crazy hair day (forgive us Vidal Sassoon and Mr. Kenneth, or yawn); Tuesday was 50's day; Wednesday was plaid day; Thursday was inside-out day; and today (Friday) is dress up day when everyone dons his best to show his pride in being a part of Farwell High Homecoming 1982.

In addition to the coronation of the Homecoming Royalty, the pep rally will feature a special dance by the varsity and junior high cheerleaders, a Student Council skit, and the singing of the school's alma mater by the senior class.

All area fans, parents, and friends are urged to attend the pep rally, the enchilada supper, and the big game to cheer the Steers on to victory.

Following the game the Booster Club is sponsoring a reception for all Steer boosters and ex-students. The reception will be at the home economics building immediately following the game.

At 10:30 p.m. the homecoming dance will get underway in the old gym. KSEL from Lubbock will provide the disco for the dance which is sponsored by the Senior Class Parents. Admission is $3 per person or $5 per couple. Light refreshments will be served, and the dance will end at 1:30 a.m.

So, all you fans, put on your blue and white duds and attend all the homecoming festivities.

Double Barreled Thanks

Bennie Haney, center, of Capitol Foods received plaques of appreciation from both the Texico and the Farwell chambers of commerce. John Hadley of Texico, left, and Don

Williams of Farwell, right, made the awards to Haney in appreciation for his efforts in promoting the merchants drawing program as part of the Border Town Days celebration. For his initial effort in organizing this event, Haney got 32 area merchants to participate, and he commented that the promotion would be "bigger and better" next year.

Tiebreaker Game Scores Determine Two Winners

Due to the Farwell Steers swatting the Sudan Hornets last week by the lopsided score of 62-0, the point spreads of the tiebreaker game scores were extremely high in the Merchants Football Contest, resulting in much figuring to determine the top two winners.

Chacho Arce of Farwell was one of four contestants to pick 11 games correctly, but he won the first place weekly prize of $7.50 by being (only) 42 points off on the tiebreaker game score. Arce picked Farwell over Sudan by the score of 26-6.

Charles Dannheim of Amarillo was the second place winner, and he received a $5.00 check for his efforts. He also picked 11 of the 12 games correctly but he was 55 points off on the tiebreaker.

Also picking 11 correct games were Lonnie McFarland, 59 points off, and Eileen Dannheim, 62 points off. Leader in the overall contest after three weeks is Charles Dannheim with a total of 28 points. In second place with 27 points total are Chacho Arce, Dianne Dannheim, Linda Fipps, James Harding, Jane Kent, Teresa King, and Emilia Martinez. (See contest standings for the first five places elsewhere in paper.)

The Texico High School computer still leads the Texico Math Class by a good margin, but its programmer Ronnie Warmuth is leading the computer, and one of his students, Emilia Martinez, is leading the group.

For all of the out-of-area readers who play the contest among family members and are unable to get the local scores, winners of last week's contest games were Texico over Eunice, Bovina over Morton, Lockney over Olton, Nazareth over Hart, Petersburg over Kress, Springlake-Earth over Anton, Sundown over Lazbuddie, Southwestern Louisiana over West Texas, Texas Tech over Air Force, Texas over Utah, Oklahoma over Kentucky, and Notre Dame over Michigan.

Everyone has a chance to win one of the weekly contest checks, so get your guessing game in gear and try your hand and get your entry in each week.

Contestants must be 12 years of age or older, and only one entry per person will be accepted. Entries must be returned by 5 p.m. CDT Friday to the Tribune office, of if mailed, must have a Friday postmark.

Tabulation of all entries are kept on record at the Tribune, and are always available for inspection.

First Place Winner

Chacho Arce of Farwell, left, was first place winner in last week's Merchants Football Contest. He accepts a check for $7.50 from Johnnie Rundell of Farwell Insurance Agency, one of the contest sponsors. Arce correctly picked 11 of the 12 games listed and missed the tiebreaker game score by 42 points. The other three contestants who picked 11 right were further from the tiebreaker score due to the Steers' lopsided win last Friday night.

Weldon Smith New Texico Postmaster

Weldon Smith, formerly of Tucumcari, officially assumed duties as postmaster at the Texico Post Office on September 18, replacing Mrs. Louise Engram who retired from that position in April of this year. Mrs. Engram had served as Texico postmaster since 1965.

Smith was born and reared in Melrose and lived there until he joined the Navy in 1956. He served as a radio operator on a ship in the Pacific for four years, and also received his high school equivalency certificate while serving in the Navy.

Following his discharge from the service, Smith moved to Tucumcari where he operated a gas station for about four years. It was during this time that he met and later married his wife, Bertha.

He joined the postal service 18 years ago in Tucumcari where he worked as a distribution clerk. Smith says he received most of his postal education as "on the job" training, once replacing the postal service supervisor for operations for five months last year until a new postmaster could be appointed.

The position of postmaster is a permanent position, and, says Smith, "If I like it, I'll stay." He also says, "I am looking forward to serving the community and maintaining good mail service."

The Smiths have two children, Lisa, 17, who is a senior in Tucumcari and will graduate there; and Lonnie, 15, who will be starting as a sophomore at Texico this week. Smith says they are looking forward to getting settled in Texico. "But we just couldn't talk Lisa into the move until after graduation."

Smith is joining a well seasoned crew at the post office with all other employees having been there for some time. Included in the group are Mrs. Rada Winkles, Mrs. Thelma Venable, Paul Skaggs, and Orville Scott, with John Hadley and Mrs. Sue Harris as substitute mail route carriers.

New Postmaster

Weldon Smith, left, was sworn in as the postmaster of Texico Post Office on Wednesday, Sept. 18, replacing Mrs. Louise Engram who retired from that position in April of this year after serving as postmaster since 1965. Officiating at the swearing-in ceremony was K.P. Primrose of Roswell, right, manager of the sectional center of this postal district.

by John

Chrysler Corporation and the United Auto Workers renewed their work contract last week. Exact terms were not made public, but a good guess is that wages went up, or if wages didn't, then other work benefits did.

About the only thing we know for sure is that there was not any member of the tax-paying public taking part in the negotiations. We are also positive that Chrysler is still working on capital guaranteed by the U.S. Treasury.

If such be the case, it would appear that the public had a stake in the labor settlement contract and deserved some consideration by both labor and management.

It does seem odd to us that both the UAW and Chrysler could think that the Company can sell more cars by raising the price. Of course Tip O'Neill thinks we can buy prosperity by going deeper in debt.

The new morality, the newspeak, and the new economics leaves us older folks bumfuzzled.

As proof that we more seniors are out of communication, here is a bit of verse from one Viola Brooks who is a resident of the Golden Age Rest Home in Clovis. We hope you will enjoy her verse.

COMMUNICATION GAP

REMEMBER when "Hippie" meant big in the hips, And a "Trip" involved travel in cars, planes or ships. When "Pot" was a vessel to cook things in, And "Hooked" was what Grandmother's rug might have been.

When "Fix" was a verb that meant mend or repair. And "Be-In" meant simply existing somewhere. When "Neat" meant well organized, tidy and clean, And "Grass" was a ground cover, normally green.

When "Lights" and not people were switched on and off, And a "Pill" might have been what you took for a cough, When "Groovy" meant furrowed with channels and hollows, And "Birds" were winged creatures like robins and swallows.

When "Fuzz" was a substance, fluffy like lint, And "Bread" came from bakers, not from mints. When "Roll" was a bun, and "Rock" was a stone, And "a Hang-up" was something you did with a phone.

When "Chicken" meant poultry, and "Bag" was a paper sack, When "junk" was trashy cast offs and old bric-a-brac, And "Cat" was a feline, a kitten grown up, And "Tea" was a liquid you drank from a cup.

When "Swinger" was someone who swings in a swing, And a "Pad" was a sort of a cushiony thing, When "Way-out" meant distance, and far, far away, And a man couldn't sue you for calling him "Gay."

Words once so sensible, sober and serious, Are making these freak-sense like psyche-delirious, It's "Groovy" man, groovy; English it's not, Me thinks that the language has gone straight to POT.

The reason some people get lost in thought is because they are in unfamiliar territory.

In the good old days the government lived within its income and without most of ours.

The Bible says that the meek will inherit the earth, but I'm not so sure they want it.

Splashy Intersection

The Twin Cities were treated to a hard afternoon rain late Tuesday afternoon that brought from .3 inch to one-half inch of moisture. Local drivers not being used to water in the gutters made a big splash as they crossed the Third Street and Avenue C intersection in Farwell. The Trib photog got water in the window twice before getting this "wet" shot.

Welcome Rain Falls On Twin Cities Area

Rain fell in varied amounts across sections of Curry and Parmer Counties Monday night, bringing mixed emotions from area farmers, although benefits from the moisture probably outweighed any detriment.

The moisture did slow the corn harvest for those who had early corn; however, some corn in the area was still being irrigated at mid-week.

Area cotton fields and some grain sorghum patches had used up their moisture supplies and were also needing a drink, and early wheat especially welcomed the gentle rain. Some farmers were awaiting rainfall prior to planting their wheat; so the moisture was also particularly fine on the listed wheat ground.

Fred Chandler reported that the rain gauge at Sherley-Anderson-Pitman in Farwell showed .3 inch while the gauge at the Archie Tarter home on First Street measured .55. Only .1 of an inch was reported at the Lariat elevator while it was reported that the Clarence Meeks farm at Pleasant Hill received 1 1/2 inches. Also reportedly receiving 1 inch and one-half inch on two places were the Ralph Franse farms south of town, while only .1 of an inch was called in from Oklahoma Lane. One-half inch fell at the Ted Magness farm southeast of Farwell.

Golden West Seed in Texico had 1/2 inch in their gauge, and it was reported that Arthur Mitzelfelt reported 1.30 inches at his home on 21st Street in Clovis.

Farwell streets and dips looked like they received more moisture than was measured as cars plowed through the puddles and rivers left by the fall rainstorm.

Auction Nets $3600 For Texico Schools

Saturday's Texico school auction ended on a profitable note as the items auctioned brought a total of $3600. Put up for auction by the school were such items as typewriters, adding machines, chairs, desks, video recorders, two sheds, and a house.

The house was sold to H.B. McIntire of Portales, who started the bidding and then raised his own bid "just to help the school." His final bid was $1,000 and, as stipulated in the sale, he will remove the house from the lots before October 30.

The two sheds that were beside the house went to Frank Dalton. They, too, have to be moved or torn down by October 30.

The school sold almost everything intended for the sale, ending the event with a total of approximately $3600 which will be put back into the school funds.

To State Convention

Five area residents traveled to Austin recently to represent Parmer County as delegates and alternates to the 1982 Republican State Convention. Among those serving as delegates were Martin Kube, Frank Hinkson, Mrs. Frank Hinkson, Garvin Thorn, and Mrs. Garvin Thorn.

More than 6500 delegates and alternates from throughout the state attended the 1982 Convention on September 10 and 11. The event featured addresses by the Secretary of Commerce Malcolm Baldrige, Governor William P. Clements, Jr., Senator John Tower, and all statewide Republican candidates.

Delegates elected a Republican State Chairman and Vice-Chairman, as well as 62 members of the State Republican Executive Committee. They also adopted a Republican State Platform, attended workshops and conferences, and approved changes in the Party Rules.

Republican County Chairman Martin Kube stated that: "We were excited about attending this 1982 convention and representing the growing number of Republican voters in our county. This event was the kickoff for one of the most critical election campaigns in our state's history. I am convinced that we came away with a unified conservative slate of candidates solidly behind a firmly conservative state platform."

The 1982 Republican State Convention was held Sept. 10-11 at the Special Events Center in Austin.

Texico School Changes Credit Requirements

The Texico School Board has voted to change the required credits needed for high school students to graduate. Before the vote was passed, the students needed 20 credits, now the requirement will be 22.

Also changed by the vote will be the number of credits given for athletics and physical education classes. Prior to the change, these classes were each worth 1/2 credit, now they will be worth one full credit.

"We took something away from the students with the 22 credits, but we gave them something with the full credit for physical education and athletics," said James Pierce, Texico school superintendent.

Fire Safety Tips By David Kube

Cool weather is here once again and many people are beginning to light their furnaces and burn their fireplaces. Before you heat your home with either of these methods, make sure your flue and chimney are clean of soot and debris. Filters of furnaces should also be checked and replaced, if necessary. Soot, dust and debris can be very dangerous, but with the proper precautions you can LEARN NOT TO BURN.

Studying Rocks

Farwell Elementary students in grades 3-5 are undertaking an explorer class study program this year, with rock collecting being one of the topics currently being studied. Clarence Kube of Farwell, second from right, an avid rock hound, met with the class last week to discuss differences in rocks, identification of various rocks, and to show some samples from his vast collection. Shown with some of the rocks the class has collected as well as some of Kube's own rocks, are, from left, Brian Johnson, third grade, Doug Davis, fourth grade, and Chasity Autrey, fifth grade.

Students Share In Explorer Program

Students in grades 3-5 at Farwell Elementary School have gotten an explorer program underway this year. In this program, students listed their top ten interests in the order in which they would like to study such topics. Classes were then formed from these lists, including those in genealogy, metric cooking, bicycling, and rock hounding.

The special groups change every three weeks so that the students may explore and learn about as many new subjects as possible. "These are things they wouldn't normally get in school," says Mrs. Billie Carlyle, fourth grade teacher.

Mrs. Carlyle is supervising a group of students who wished to learn about rocks. The group made a small collection of rocks, identifying and labeling them during the class. They also have a rock tumbler in the room to tumble the stones they find and wish to add either to the group collection or to a collection of their own.

Last Friday the class hosted Clarence Kube, local farmer, who is an avid and well known area rock collector, who spoke to the group about rocks, their origins, and types. Kube began his lecture by talking about the difference between igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks, showing each type as he spoke.

He then explained how crystals "grew" inside the air pockets of other rocks. The rocks he displayed from his collection contained several samples of crystals which he identified by shape and color explaining what each was.

Also in this collection were samples of petrified wood. He explained how wood became petrified also identifying the types of wood. Of special interest to the class was a piece of petrified wood inside a larger rock. This specimen brought several questions from the students.

During his lecture, Kube also showed samples of minerals such as gold, lead, and copper, and talked about mineral collecting in other parts of the United States. His lecture included a demonstration of how to identify a rock by its hardness as well as the hardness of several rocks in the collection.

Kube answered questions asked by the students and went over some of their rock collections with them. Before class ended, the students asked Kube to return next week with more of his rock collection to tell them more about this shared special interest.

Jerry Mueller Pastor Of San Jose Church

Father Jerry Mueller has taken over the pastoral duties at San Jose Catholic Church in Texico. He arrived here around the first of August to make preparations to replace Father Juan Montoya who had been at San Jose since 1980.

"Father Jerry" is originally from Cincinnati, Ohio, but received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from Duns Scotus College in Detroit, Mich. He then attended the University of Dayton, in Dayton, Ohio, where he received his master's degree in theology, at the same time attending Saint Leonard's in Dayton and earning his master of divinity degree. After being ordained in 1973, he spent nine years teaching religion, and three years teaching freshman Spanish at Bishop Luers Catholic High School in Fort Wayne, Ind. During the summer breaks there, he studied Spanish in Guadalajara and Satillo, Mexico.

When asked about his transfer to New Mexico, Father Mueller explains that this is the providence of Saint John The Baptist, with missions in Santa Fe, Albuquerque, and surrounding areas, as well as missions working with the Pueblo and Navajo Indians.

Father Mueller is head pastor of the San Jose Church which is a mission church out of Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Clovis where he is an assistant pastor.

The services in the Texico church are given bilingually, blending with the Spanish background of the church. Father Mueller says, "I'm not fluent in Spanish, but I get by," when asked about the bilingual services.

Mueller says he's really proud of the church and its members. "I really like the way the church looks," he said. The church has been newly remodeled in the Spanish style with wrought iron and stained glass doors, and several archways both inside and outside the church. Father

Mueller especially praises the statue of Saint Joseph and the Christ child which has been redone to show a hispanic heritage. When showing the statue, he explains how Father Montoya painted and shaped the statue to reflect the Mexican heritage of most of the church's membership.

The Texico church claims about 150 members now, but there is a local census to be held soon to determine the current figure. The congregation is also making plans to attend the Saint Francis Eighth Centenary in Roswell on October 3. The celebration is to commemorate the 800 years since the birth of Saint Francis with mass, parade, and other festivities. The church members, along with Father Mueller, will be preparing floats and banners for the celebration in conjunction with Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Clovis.

Father Mueller also has plans on how to pay for the remodeling already done to the church and to finish the remodeling of the inside of the building.

Ready For The Feast

These fifth graders at Farwell Elementary School were among those who brought watermelons for the two classes to enjoy following their recent classroom study of the watermelon during a science unit on plants. The students

Fifth Graders Enjoy Study Of Watermelons

Students in the two fifth grade classes at Farwell Elementary School are presently studying a science unit about plants. They have performed several investigations, including planting seeds in plastic bags and watching them sprout and grow on the bulletin boards.

They are also watching plant cuttings root in water and have seen a new African Violet plant start from a leaf.

One of the most interesting bits of information was that a fruit is a ripe ovary. The study focused especially on the watermelon, and the students engaged in several activities using watermelons.

A "word search" puzzle was done; they made smaller words from the word watermelon, and they did research to learn facts about the melons. One interesting fact was that watermelons were originally grown in Africa.

In math class they weighed the watermelons in both pounds and kilograms and measured the circumference in inches and centimeters. They averaged weights and circumferences of their melons to see if they fell within the national averages according to an encyclopedia.

One fun activity was drawing a watermelon picture, with each person only drawing for one minute, then passing the picture on to someone else to add their minute's worth of artistic ability.

On Friday, Sept. 3, several students brought watermelons to school, and both classes enjoyed a watermelon feast.

On Tuesday, Sept. 7, the group visited the Farwell mayor's office at the city hall, riding a bus driven by principal James Craig. Mayor Walter Kaltwasser signed a proclamation declaring the Friday preceding Labor Day as the official "Watermelon Day" in Farwell.

While in the mayor's office, the students asked questions about city government and the mayor's job.

Special thanks were expressed to Delbert Lingnau and the parents of fifth graders for providing the watermelons.

Billie Worley and Karolene Inman are the fifth grade teachers.

Watching Them Grow

Watching plants grow from cuttings place in water has been part of a science study on plants for Farwell fifth graders during the past few weeks. Shown with their carefully

Bulletin Board

This bulletin board in the fifth grade room of Karolene Inman at Farwell Elementary seems to be alive, but it is only holding plants which are growing in plastic bags. Planting the seeds in the plastic bags was just one of the many activities the fifth graders participated in while studying a science unit on plants. Shown with their plant project are, from left, back, Eloy Anaya, Ruben Galvan, Sammy Herrera and Frank Gump; and in front, Blanca Burciago and Edith Ausburn. [Karolene Inman Photo]

Father Jerry Mueller has assumed pastoral duties at San Jose Catholic Church in Texico. Mueller takes great pride in the newly-remodeled church building and its members, and has made plans to continue the remodeling project of the church. Father Juan Montoya was the former pastor.

A phone call was made to Williams here at Farwell and things began to unfold when a date was set for a reunion of the pair.

On September 11, Mrs. Wendt and her son Randy flew to Lubbock where they were met by members of the family. They returned to Farwell for a reunion with Williams and other family members and time of getting acquainted.

Steers Take Sting From Hornets For 62-0 Romp

by Mark Cole

At Steer Stadium Friday night the Farwell Steers took the sting out of the Sudan Hornets with a 62-0 win, the first of the season for the Blue and White.

To open the game, the Hornets won the coin toss and chose to receive. After taking the ball on the 33, the Steer defense took its toll. Tackles by Gary Haseloff and a stop four yards behind the line of scrimmage on third down by Raymond Sierra, forced a Sudan punt on 4th and 14.

After a 50-yard Sudan punt and no Farwell return, the Steer offense showed its skill, beginning its first scoring drive on the 15-yard line. With shorts runs from Raymond Sierra, Alan Eubank, and Paul Fulcher, the Steers faced a 3rd down and five, when a 65-yard sprint from Santiago Lucio brought the ball to the 9-yard line. Eubank, on first down, ran the ball to the two, from where he also took the ball across the goal line for six points. Sierra kicked the extra point to give Farwell a 7-0 lead.

Later in the first quarter, Sudan took over the ball on the 22, and again were held to minus yardage by the tackles made behind the line by Steve Schilling, Sierra, Johnny Daniel, Eubank, and Lucio. On 4th and 18 the Hornets punted and Lucio took the return 47 yards for a touchdown which was brought back because of a penalty, ending the first quarter of play.

The Steers began the second quarter on the 37-yard line and went 63 yards behind the running of several members of the Farwell backfield, including a 55-yard run by Paul Fulcher which took the ball to the 5-yard line. Lucio took the ball in for the touchdown to give the Steers a 13-0 lead.

After trading possessions of the ball, the Steers took it once again on the 32-yard line, where Eubank ran 62 yards on second down and five, for the touchdown putting Farwell ahead 19-0.

After the kickoff, Farwell recovered a Sudan fumble on the 21 which set up a 33-yard field goal by Sierra to make the score 22-0.

Sudan received the ball, and the Hornets were again stopped by tackles from the Steer defense, including a stop by Robby Armstrong for a 4-yard loss to force another punt.

With time running out in the first half quarterback Eubank led the Steers downfield with a 20-yard completion to Frank Cantu and a 10-yard completion to Jimmy Bernal for the TD which closed the first half Farwell 28 - Sudan 0.

The second half began with Farwell receiving the kickoff to open the third quarter. Each team had possession of the ball several times, then with Sudan's ball on the 45, the Steer defense recovered a fumble to open up a drive that included an 18-yard run by Armstrong and an 11-yard run for the TD by Lucio. Sierra kicked the extra point to make the score 35-0.

After each team had possession once more, Sudan went to the passing game. On first and 10 Sudan threw an incomplete pass, and on second and 15, Sudan took to the air again only to find Farwell defensive back Todd Christian waiting to make the interception and take the ball all the way for the touchdown making the score 41-0.

After the Farwell kickoff, Sudan took the ball on the 20. With tackles by Tim Hughes and Jesse Anzaldua, Sudan was forced to punt once again. On the punt, there was another fumble which was recovered by Frank Cantu on the 3-yard line to set up a Eubank 3-yard run for the touchdown. Sierra again kicked the extra point to make the score 48-0.

Sudan received the ball on the 20 where they were held motionless by the Steer defense. On 3rd and 12, Johnny Daniel recovered a fumble in the air and ran it all the way for an apparent touchdown; however, the ball was brought back to the point at which it was caught. The Steer offense took over and Lucio ran 25 yards for the touchdown. Sierra kicked the extra point to make the score 55-0.

Later in the fourth quarter with Sudan's ball on the 30, Sierra picked off a Hornet pass and returned it 24 yards to the 6-yard line where Armstrong carried the ball six yards for the touchdown. Sierra kicked the extra point for the last Farwell score.

Sudan made a final effort to score but the Hornets were stopped by the Steer defense including several tackles by Steve Schilling.

The Steers' first home game of the season thus ended: Steers 62 - Hornets 0.

Coach Bruce Dollar said, "The boys played real well against Sudan, executing the defensive plays well and doing a great job on the offensive blocking. We just couldn't have made those long runs without the blockers doing their jobs so well."

When asked about tonight's game against the Seagraves Eagles, Coach Dollar said, "Seagraves is one of the best teams on the South Plains. They have won 100 games and lost only 16 in the past 10 years, and haven't been scored on this year. They have won with scores of 35, 34, and 35-0 in the last three games, but we hope to change that."

Junior High Teams Split Sudan Games

Farwell 7th and 8th grade football teams played Sudan at Sudan last Thursday, splitting games with the young Hornets.

The 7th grade played a good defensive game, winning by a final score of 12-0. Coach Lupe Valdez said the game "was actually a controlled scrimmage, with neither offense making any headway during the game."

Joe Jaime ran an interception 40 yards for a Steer touchdown, and later in the game, Damon George intercepted another Sudan pass, taking it 35 yards to the goal line for the only scoring of the night.

Following the game, Coach Valdez named Damon George and Joe Jaime as outstanding offensive players. David Moseley, Damon George, Joe Jaime, and Scott Bailey were named as outstanding defensive players by Coach Valdez.

The 8th grade fell to Sudan by a lopsided 40-8 score.

Coach Valdez said, "The boys were really intimidated by the size of the Sudan team." He also said he had to play some of the 7th graders on the 8th grade team, but they still gained no yardage during the first half. The score at the half was 32-0 with Sudan in the lead.

"They started to play ball in the second half," said Coach Valdez. The young Steers held Sudan during the entire half with the exception of an interception which cost Farwell another touchdown, bringing the score to 40-0 after Sudan made their PAT.

With about two minutes left in the game, Joe Jaime ran two yards for a Steer touchdown, and after Jason Schilling ran three yards for the PAT, the final score was 40-8.

After the game Coach Valdez named the following outstanding offensive players in the game: Steve Lara, for catching two passes, and for making runs of 80 and 40 yards; Joe Jaime, who made the touchdown; and Steve Schilling, for his run for the PAT.

Defensive players named were Homer Anzaldua, David Woods, Jerry Cole, and Jason Schilling for their defensive play during the game.

Next game for the junior high Steers will be September 30, when they meet Friona at Steer Stadium with the first game beginning at 5 p.m.

Green Machine Rolls On, Defeats Cardinals 14-2

Although the team has now been scored on, Texico's No Nonsense Defense still has not allowed a point this season as the Wolverines downed the Cardinals 14-2 Friday night at Eunice to bring their season win streak to three. The home team scored the safety when Wolverine quarterback Brad Steward was trapped in the end zone.

Texico received the kickoff to open the District 2-A encounter with Kevin West returning the kick to the 27-yard line. The Wolverines were unable to generate any offense and were forced to punt.

Steward got off a 35-yard boot and the Green Machine got a chance to prove its defensive power. They quickly forced a Cardinal punt and the offense had its second opportunity of the evening.

Texico moved quickly down the field with Earl Bibbs breaking left around blocks by Tommy Boardman and Jeff Holland to go 48 yards for an apparent TD; however, the play was nullified on a clipping penalty. Then the Wolverine offense sputtered and died at the Eunice 22.

The teams exchanged punts on the next two possessions, but early in the second period Texico's defense was again put to the test as the Wolverines lost a fumble on its own 29-yard line. Shutting down the Cardinal offense very effectively were linemen Jeff Holland, Tommy Boardman, and Ronnie Galvan, with able assistance from linebackers Lynn Tubbs and Billy Bibbs. Eunice attempted a field goal on fourth down, but the kick went awry and the Wolverines set up offensive shop once again, this time beginning what turned out to be the first scoring drive of the night.

Five short plays moved the Wolverines downfield 80 yards with Earl Bibbs going over from the three to cap the drive and put six points on the board. Steward's kick was good and the Wolverines led the match 7-0.

The main play of the drive was a 42-yard pass from Steward to tight end Bob Johnson which took the ball deep into Eunice territory. From there the line play of Lloyd Williams, Boardman, Holland, Jesse Orozco and Ronnie Dunsworth led Bibbs into the end zone. The remainder of the first half was a defensive struggle and the teams went to the locker rooms with Texico leading 7-0.

The Wolverines scored on their second possession of the second half when Billy Bibbs hauled in a Steward aerial for 59 yards and six points. Billy, behind a fierce block from brother Earl, slipped by a would-be Cardinal tackler and raced to paydirt. Lloyd Williams kicked the PAT to put the Wolverines in front 14-0.

The remainder of the second half was dominated by the defensive play of both clubs.

Boardman hopped on a Cardinal fumble late in the third period at the Eunice 29-yard line, but the Eunice defense stiffened and kept the Wolverines from capitalizing on the break.

After a good Eunice punt early in the fourth period, Texico was backed up deep in its own territory when the Cardinal defense trapped Wolverine quarterback Steward in his own end zone, putting the Cardinals on the scoreboard for the first time this season.

The Wolverines hit the road again tonight (Friday) when they go to Mountainair looking for their fourth win to keep their undefeated streak alive.

Coach David Lynn said, "I was real concerned about Eunice, but the Wolverines played a good physical game. We still made some mental mistakes, but that happens sometimes with high school kids."

According to Coach Lynn, the Eunice coach said his team played the best game all year against Texico. Coach Lynn also said that Eunice fumbled the ball near the Texico goal line and should have scored.

When asked about tonight's game at Mountainair, Coach Lynn said, "Mountainair is inconsistent in their plays which makes things real confusing, but we'll be prepared for them." He says his main concern is going on the road again. "We don't have any short trips, they're all long, hard trips."

Sundown Roughs 'Horns For Homecoming Victory

The Sundown Roughnecks scored in the second and fourth quarters Friday night while holding the Lazbuddie Longhorns scoreless to take a 14-0 win and make their homecoming a happy event.

The two teams played fairly evenly during the first period with neither able to get the offensive gears in motion, but in the second quarter the hosts scored on a 25-yard drive that ended with a 10-yard run for the TD by the tailback, and a kick for the PAT. The drive started when an alert Roughneck pounced on a Longhorn fumble to give Sundown possession.

Lazbuddie managed one sustained drive during the second period, but stalled at the 15-yard line, leaving the hosts with a 7-0 advantage going into the locker rooms at halftime.

The third quarter proved to be much like the first with neither team managing a scoring drive. Lazbuddie's attempt at a field goal went wide and the count remained 7-0.

With about five minutes left in the contest a 9-yard pass to the split end resulted in six more points for Sundown. The kick for the PAT was true and that iced the game at 14-0 for the Roughnecks.

Lazbuddie was held to 87 yards while the host team racked up 253.

The defeat leaves the Longhorns of District 2-1A South Zone with a 1-2 record while putting the Roughnecks of District 2-1A North Zone with a 1-1-1 tally.

Coach Terry Campbell of the Longhorns said after the game, "We played good defense, but we just couldn't seem to generate any offense."

Defensive player of the week named by Campbell was Bart Elliott, with Noe Gonzales given the Hit of the Week Award. Campbell did not name an outstanding player on offense.

The Longhorns begin district action tonight (Friday) when they travel to Valley to take on a strong bunch of Patriots who have a 2-1 record on the season.

Coach Campbell says of the Patriots, "They are a real good ball team."

Although losing three of his all-stars to graduation, Coach Ted Giddens says he's had to replace that many almost each of the five years he has been coach at Valley, but he believes that his program is so strong from freshman through seniors that he has capable persons to fill those shoes.

Lazbuddie will find out if the spots have been adequately filled in the opening district game tonight at 8 o'clock.

Two Texico Band Members Are All-American Band Nominees

Two Texico High band students, Jesse Orozco and Audrey Autrey McCauley, are among the seven high school musicians from the Texas Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico who have been nominated to the 1982 McDonald's All American Band, it was announced last week. Jesse plays cornet and Audrey plays alto clarinet. Jesse also played in the New Mexico Lions Band at International Convention this year.

The seven band students were nominated by their band directors in spring of this year and are now being considered along with other Texas and New Mexico students for positions on the All-American Band. Other area nominations include Canyon High School students Scott Sauer and Janie Baird; Booker High School student John Reimund; and Clovis High School students Roy McClintock, and Cathy Wood.

"Once again, a very select and talented group of boys and girls have been nominated from our area to the All-American Band," said Ronald C. McVean, owner/operator of McDonald's Restaurants in the Texas Panhandle and Eastern New Mexico. "We are proud of their accomplishment. This honor is given only to the very best musicians in the country."

The seven nominees are in competition with other Texas and New Mexico high school students who are vying for four positions on the All-American Band. Nominees are judged on the basis of their musical abilities, achievements and experience as well as good citizenship. Two musicians are selected from each state and the District of Columbia, plus one member each from the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico. Those who are selected for the All-American slots will be announced in late September.

The 104-member All-American Band will perform in this year's nationally-televised Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City and in the famed Tournament of Roses Parade on New Year's Day in Pasadena, Calif.

All band members will be eligible for music scholarships to be awarded by the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, and the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Mich.

Yamaha International Corporation will award a new, professional-model instrument to an outstanding player in the All-American Band. All baritone, sousaphones, percussion instruments, electric keyboards and other electric combo products used by the McDonald's All-American High School Band are provided through the courtesy of Yamaha.

Parmer County Weather Advisory

Warm temperatures and scattered rainfall again characterized the weather in Parmer County for the past week. At Friona, 0.66 inch fell on 11 September. Maximum temperatures were 4.4-4.7° above normal while minimum temperatures were 0.2-0.6° above normal. Radiation values for the week were quite high and this in conjunction with the warm temperatures continued to result in high evaporative demands.

Dryland sorghum and irrigated corn crops in the county are at or past physiological maturity and the dry conditions will be beneficial for drying grain. Dryland cotton crops are depleted in terms of soil water reserves and consumptive use for the period has been quite low.

At Friona, the heat unit accumulation to date is 1990, while normal for this date is 1738.

Precipitation data at Friona for the next 3 weeks show the probabilities of getting 3, 1, and 0.4 inches or more of precipitation are 9, 47, and 72%, respectively. There is a 10% chance of getting no rainfall in the next 3 weeks and the mean value is 1.22. The maximum amount ever occurring is 5.61.

The Creative Woman

BY SHERYL BORDEN

Helpful hints for budget blues will be the main topic on "The Creative Woman" show on September 28 and October 2. Guest Connie Moyers, consumer service representative for Southwestern Public Service Company in Clovis, will explain how to make every penny count when it comes to cooking, grocery shopping, and menu planning.

Viewers will learn to make homemade sweetened condensed milk, pan coat, and learn to make several basic mixes ahead of time for use in other dishes.

On September 30 "The Creative Woman" will feature topics on decorating with brass, a discussion with counselors concerning women and alcohol, and a demonstration using the Jenn-air grill cartridge.

Kaye Willmon, owner of The Final Touch in Clovis, will discuss decorating ideas featuring brass items. She will demonstrate several different decorating concepts using the brass, baskets, silk flowers and butterflies, and talk about different levels in arrangements.

Recently a Psychology of Women class at ENMU was asked to write the types of questions they were most concerned with in relation to women and alcohol and drug abuse. Some of these questions and many others will be answered by a group of counselors who work in the field of alcohol and drug treatment.

Guests on this segment are Ed Duda, prevention and education specialist-counselor, Alcoholism Treatment Unit for Mental Health Resources, Inc., Clovis; Lt. Ed Boyle, CAFB drug and alcohol abuse control officer, Clovis; and Kennie Hardee, counselor for MHR, Inc., Clovis and Portales.

To conclude the show, Sandy

Elkins, Jenn-Air demonstrator for Fields and Company, Lubbock, will demonstrate the use of the grill cartridge made for the Jenn-Air surface units. She will discuss venting, cleaning, and the flexibility of the cartridges.

"The Creative Woman" is produced and hosted by Sheryl Borden for KENW-TV, and the show is seen on Tuesday and Thursdays at 12:30 p.m. MDT and 2 p.m. on Saturdays.

Guest On Show

Connie Moyers, consumer service representative for Southwestern Public Service Co. in Clovis, will discuss budget saving tips and recipes on the "Creative Woman show September 28 and October 2.

CRIME: IT'S THE VICTIMS WHO ARE LOCKED UP

I want to talk to you this week about an issue that troubles me greatly and which I know is of great concern to Texans. It seems that whenever I have spoken about crime in the past 12 months I have gotten a strong and troubled response. No matter where I am—Jewett, Roma or Dalhart—people tell me they are angry and afraid about crime in our state.

This anger and fear concerns me for two reasons. First, because this kind of anger and fear serves as a sort of "jail" for innocent people. They are the ones locked in their homes at night while criminals go free. The second reason I am concerned is because unless something is done to stop the crime epidemic, people will be ripe for the kind of politician who will play on citizens' fears. The result could be that Texans lose their liberty in return for their "safety." In that sense, the crime problem is like a cancer gnawing at democracy.

The incumbent Lt. Governor's response to the crime issue has been shameful. While he has been in office the crime rate has risen 131%. He has done nothing to attack crime in a substantial way. In fact, he has fought stronger anti-crime measures. He openly opposed the new wiretapping law designed to catch drug dealers. He openly opposed the Governor's anti-crime package by putting it in a legislative committee run by a hostile Senator, who promptly bottled it up. Much of the package passed anyway and now Mr. Hobby has the gall to go around the state taking credit for it!

His sympathies in the fight against crime are evident. Not long ago he allowed the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) to hold a fundraiser in his Houston mansion and he proudly defends it. The ACLU has consistently opposed laws that would make it easier to deal with the crime problem. I think such two-faced maneuvering is disgraceful. It is obvious that if we are going to attack the crime problem, if we are ever going to give law officers, judges and prison guards the tools they need to make us safer, Bill Hobby will have to go.

If you have thoughts about this, I'd like to hear from you. Please write me at 1213 W. 34th, Austin, 78705.

Home Eye Test Can Uncover Vision Problems In Children

An estimated half a million children aged three through five in the United States have eye disorders. Many of these defects can be most effectively treated in the early years. One of the eye problems of greatest concern, amblyopia ("lazy eye"), may lead to permanent vision loss if not discovered and treated before age six.

To help identify children with eye problems, the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness (TSPB) offers the Home Eye Test for Preschoolers. Beamed at the parents of children in the preschool age range, the "test" is a simple do-it-yourself way to check a child's sight at home. It can be presented as a game to play. The kit is self-contained, with an eye chart and directions for giving the test and interpreting the results.

Children usually don't complain about vision problems since they have no way of knowing how well they should see, and lazy eye frequently gives no signals through appearance or obvious symptoms. The Home Eye Test does not substitute for a professional eye examination, but to parents and teachers it's often the first indication of a vision problem and a sign that the child should have an eye exam.

Almost a million copies of the kit are distributed each year, dramatically increasing the number of children whose eyes are being checked in the crucial early years. With some three million more children reaching their third birthday each year, the need to find those with vision problems continues.

The Home Eye Test for Preschoolers is available in English or Spanish. For a free copy of the test or other information about children's eye care, write to the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness, P.O. Box 7602, Amarillo, Texas, 79109.

If your company, agency or institution wants to offer free copies to employees, these booklets are available in quantities free of charge. TSPB is an affiliate of the National Society to Prevent Blindness, the nation's oldest voluntary health organization dedicated to sight conservation.

Research indicates nitrogen efficient in oil & gas recovery

COLLEGE STATION — Laboratory studies indicate nitrogen could be used to recover more than 90 percent of the oil and natural gas left in reservoirs, says a Texas A&M University researcher. Encouraging test results show that using nitrogen as a replacement for natural gas injection increases recovery of oil, condensate and gas reservoirs, said Dr. Paul Crawford, professor of petroleum engineering and assistant director of the Texas Petroleum Research Committee headquartered at Texas A&M University. Nitrogen has been tested in the laboratory to displace volatile oils. The oil recovery was about 97 percent with nitrogen injection compared with 99 percent recovery for natural gas and 98 percent with condensate. Nitrogen will both stretch our limited carbon dioxide supplies and reduce costs, Crawford said.

Letter To The Editor

State Line Tribune
Farwell, Texas

Dear Editor and Chief,

I know your first name, everyone does. Being a Yankee by birth, however, perhaps I am pompous, or maybe the girl's school I attended dwelled too long on the social graces.

Whatever, your time being valuable, I won't bend your ear, but get on with it. My beloved Bill will have died two years ago, Sept. 16. As his folks were in business for 30 years in that area and my husband grew up there, I'd like to remind my many friends of his passing.

He was an air force pilot in WWII, shot down over Germany, reported missing, then reported killed in action, and finally found by the Red Cross in a German prison camp, disabled, bad legs, but he survived.

I like to think his great love for me sustained him. I have every letter he ever wrote me. My treasured possessions, priceless, but only to me. My love and thanks to Rosa for giving me Bill, her only child. The enclosed means much to me too. Expect you have read it before, but it never fails to strengthen me so perhaps it might help someone else. Hope to meet you and your lovely wife sometime. I was assistant foreign news editor for the Chicago Herald Examiner and reporter during WWII.

Most sincerely,
Joyce L. Roberts

The Cross In My Pocket

I carry a cross in my pocket A simple reminder to me Of the fact that I am a Christian No matter where I may be.

This little cross is not magic Nor is it a good luck charm It isn't meant to protect me From every physical harm.

It's not for identification For all the world to see It's simply an understanding Between my Savior and me.

When I put my hand in my pocket To bring out a coin or key The cross is there to remind me Of the price He paid for me.

It reminds me, too, 'to be thankful For my blessings day by day And to strive to serve Him better In all that I do and say.

It's also a daily reminder Of the peace and comfort I share With all who know my Master And give themselves to His care.

So, I carry a cross in my pocket Reminding no one but me That Jesus Christ is Lord of my life If only I'll let Him be.

Unusual plants will supply food, experts predict

COLLEGE STATION — Consumers all over the world can expect to see more food products and food ingredients from cottonseed, soybeans and sunflowers, say industry experts at a recent conference at Texas A&M University.

Non-conventional plants also will provide more fuel, rubber, plastics, lubricants and animal feed, the experts predict, as researchers find replacements for products now imported into the United States such as castor oil and tung oil.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS R. STAM, PRES. BEREAN BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60635

"ALWAYS ABOUNDING"

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord" (1 Cor. 15:58).

We should note carefully that the Apostle Paul here addresses only his brethren in Christ, those who have truly been born again—born into the family of God.

Furthermore, he sent this appeal to Christians everywhere: To "all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord" (1 Cor. 1:2). He knew that there is a tendency among all believers to be tempted to abandon the work of the Lord through discouragement or carelessness, so he pleads with us to be "stedfast" and "unmoveable," reminding us that our labor is "not in vain in the Lord."

How we need this exhortation! We do not soon abandon our businesses or homes. We toil on in spite of difficulties and obstacles, and when the outlook is darkest we often work the hardest. Sometimes our bodies suffer for it, but we do not immediately give up.

And how much more urgent is the work of the Lord! Souls for whom Christ died are perishing all about us. It is our plain duty to pray for them and tell them of His love. It is our responsibility to toil and sacrifice that they may hear and believe the good news. What shall we say when some day we stand before our Savior if we have been satisfied merely to know Him ourselves? And what will He say?

Let us then be up and going, "always abounding in the work of the Lord." Life is too short to fritter away the precious moments God has given us to proclaim His saving grace. Let us tell them, then, by lip and by life, by our testimony and by our behavior, that "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners" (1 Tim. 1:15) and that "we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace" (Eph. 1:7).

Nutrient density is an important consideration when choosing foods and planning meals.

Nutrient density is a food's nutrient content — how much nutrition it provides — as compared to the number of calories it contains.

To determine nutrient density of a food, compare its number of calories for one serving with the amount of nutrients, such as vitamins and minerals.

Foods with low nutrient density have many calories and few nutrients. To get enough nutrients from these foods requires large quantities of them — at a high-calorie cost.

On the other hand, foods with high nutrient densities supply significant amounts of several nutrients — and relatively few calories.

Low nutrient-density items include high-sugar and high-fat foods, such as soft drinks and chips.

High nutrient-density items are watery, fibrous foods such as vegetables, which are low in sugar and fat.

To get the most nutrition at the lowest calorie cost, remember these food facts: Instant meals made in a cup or bowl may not contribute much protein or vitamins A and C because they contain only small amounts of meat and vegetables.

Usually, plain foods are less expensive, have fewer calories and contain more nutrients than those with rich sauces. Foods with the highest percentages of U.S. RDA are not always the best selection, because a food with a high percentage of a certain nutrient improves a diet only if the diet is short in that nutrient.
