Hospital Election Generates Interest

A large number of Muleshoe and Bailey County citizens were out Saturday morning voting in three elections. A record number of voters were expected before the 7 p.m. closing time.

Absentee voting showed that there was a large interest in the elections, especially the Bailey County Hospital District Board Election. Last year in the board election, only 59 people voted absentee. This year over 300 voted absentee for hospital district directors.

Part of the large number could be attributed to the election falling on Easter weekend, but it has been reported that this was not the first time the date had been on a holiday and before never more than 100 had voted absentee in any election.

Ten candidates were in the running for the five places open on the board. They were Charles Lewis, Creston Faver, Doyce Turner, Troy Actkinson, Douglas Bales, James P. Wadel, Lawis Embry, Lois Witherspoon, Marvin Drake and A.J. (Jack) Lendersoa.

Other elections that were held Saturday were the Muleshoe Independent School District Board of Trustees election and the City Council election.

Seven candidates were entered in the School Board election, in which three were elected. Running for a place on the board were Aubrey Heathington, Lewis Wayne Shafer, Ernest Ramm, Cleve Bland, Mrs. Herbert Griffiths and Mrs. Don Bryant.

In the third election, two council places were up for election on the City Council. Entered in that race were Clarence Christian and Max King.

Spring Storm Brings Snow

A cold, pre-Easter snow storm hit Muleshoe Thursday morning bringing low temperatures and blowing snow.

Snow started falling in Muleshoe early Thursday morning and continued until just after noon. Although it snowed heavy and continuously, it never really began sticking to the ground as it melted almost on contact, it did pile up in some of the trees and on the grass in spots.

Other areas of the panhandle recorded as much as eight inches on the ground Thursday. The line of snow reached from Post west to Morton and then south almost to Andrews.

The cold wave also brought with it freezing temperatures that dropped into the mid-20's Friday morning, endangering some of the early-blooming fruit trees in the area.

Farmers Union Has Drive

Bailey County Farmers Union President M.L. Fine reports that a very successful membership drive was conducted in the county the week of March 20-24. Bailey County Farmers Union participated in a membership building effort that involved 20 counties from the Eastern New Mexico border to the Rolling Plains. The local Farmers Union hosted two Midwestern farmer organizers who worked during the week visiting with the area farmers and signing new memberships in the Farmers Union. Texas hosted 40 out-of-state farmers.

Fine stated that the growth potential of the Bailey County Farmers Union appears to be excellent due to the good response the local farmers experienced during the drive.

Fine emphasized that Farmers Union is currently supporting legislation in Congress that will mean "millions of dollars to Texas farmers." The National Agricultural Bargaining and Marketing Acts will give farmers the legal right to bargain for a fair price and will allow them to develop a supply

THIS IS SPRING?...Many panhandle residents were surprised to see this scene Thursday morning when snow fell almost all morning in Muleshoe. Most citizens however were expecting Old Man Winter to make just one more effort before giving up to Spring. Although the snow hardly covered the ground, some much needed moisture was added to the soil.

Couple United In Double Ring Ceremony

MRS. JERRY WAYNE SULLIVAN, Sheryl Ann Mason

Miss Sheryl Ann Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Mason of Muleshoe and Jerry Wayne of Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sullivan of Marshall, Texas, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at the Richland Hills Baptist Church on Sunday, March 26 at 3 p.m. The Rev. Bill Hart read the wedding vows before an altar flanked by three walls of mirrors. The altar was centered by a tall brass candelabra holding seven green votive cups. The candelabra was entwined with greenery. Below and in front of the candelabra was a memory candle in a setting of greenery, centered between two white tapers. A column supporting a Grecian urn filled with peach blossoms and pink snapdragons completed the altar decorations.

The aisle posts were adorned with deep pink candles, purple bows and streamers in the bride's chosen colors of purple, green and pink.

Ferrell Roberts of Clovis, organist, presented musical selections including the processional, "Trumpet Tune in D Major," by Purcell; "When Thou Art Near," Bach; "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," Bach; for silent prayer, "Prelude from Prelude and Fugue in G minor," Bach; and the recessional, "Allegro in D Major," by Franck. Miss Dana Dameron, Muleshoe, accompanied by Roberts, sang "Sheep May Safely Graze," Bach.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Norris Conkin of Alexandria, Louisiana. She was attired in a formal length plaid taffeta dress in royal purple tones. The dress was topped with a sleeveless royal purple velvet reding coat in mid-calf length. Accessorizing the dress was a large brimmed velvet hat with coordinating plaid taffeta lining. Her vertical spring bouquet of white pom poms and cornflowers was suspended on a wide royal purple velvet band fastened at the wrist.

Bridesmaid, Mrs. Jerry Graves, cousin of the bride of Austin, wore a willow green plaid dress styled in the same manner as the matron of honor's. She also wore a green velvet hat with matching plaid lining. The arm bouquet of yellow Margarite daisies, white pom poms and salal leaves was attached to a willow green velvet band.

Miss Renee' Dyer of Lubbock, bridesmaid, wore a hot pink plaid dress styled in the same manner as the other attendants, with a matching hat. The arm bouquet of the same style was fashioned with white pom poms, pink Margarite daisies and salal leaves on a hot pink velvet band.

Robert Sullivan, brother of the groom of Marshall, served as best man. Groomsmen were Mike Emerson and Mark Wiley, both students at Texas Tech University. Candlelighter was Joe Duke, Jr. of Lubbock.

Clarence E. Mason and Roy Dyer of Muleshoe served as ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in an Empire styled satin gown with sweeping chapel train and Camelot sleeves. Pearl and re-embroidered Alencon lace imported from France accented the neckline, yoke, cuffs of sleeves and front of the gown. The elbow length veil of imported nylon illusion was attached to a tiara cap crown trimmed with pearls. The bride carried a cascading bouquet of Stephanotis and salal leaves entwined with cornflowers. The bouquet was centered with two cymbidium orchids.

The bride wore the traditional blue garter and carried a new penny in her shoe. On her right hand, she wore a ring presented to her by her paternal grandmother on her graduation from high school. The bride also wore a wedding band belonging to her mother and a wide wedding band belonging to her maternal great-great-grandmother. The ring is 100 years old.

A reception followed the ceremony in the dining room of the church. The bride's table was covered with a tailored deep orchid cloth trimmed with royal purple braid. The centerpiece was a dove of peace atop a gold candelabra. The bride's bouquet and salal leaves were entwined around the candelabra. The three tiered wedding cake, decorated with deep pink and royal purple roses and miniature doves of peace, was topped with a dove of peace surrounded by roses on a crown top. The cake, bride's wedding punch and mints molded in roses, leaves and hearts of the bride's chosen colors were served from milk glass appointments and gold flatware. Presiding at the table were the bride's cousins, Mrs. Tom Bible of Austin and Miss Linda Mason of Muleshoe.

The groom's table was covered with an ecru hand crocheted cloth and was centered with a bouquet of tulips in a white milk glass compote. German chocolate cake, nuts and coffee were served from a gold coffee service and milk glass appointments. Mrs. Robert Sullivan, sister-in-law of the groom of Marshall, and Miss Pam Turner served at the groom's table.

Miss Lisa Mason of Muleshoe, cousin of the bride, registered guests. The registration table was centered with a gold centerpiece containing a single taper surrounded by Margarite daisies and fern. The centerpiece was a gift to the bride.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Clarence Mason, Mrs. Velma Jo Whitfield, Mrs. Charles Ray Mason and Mrs. Roy Dyer.

For traveling, the bride wore a yellow crepe dress with sleeveless matching coat, navy accessories and a corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet.

Following a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colorado, the couple will be at home at the Indiana Apartments in Lubbock.

Mrs. Sullivan is a graduate of Muleshoe High School, where she was active in speech and drama. She is currently a senior at Texas Tech University, majoring in child development and family relations in the School of Home Economics.

Blessings At Eastertime

EASTER FASHION. . . Dressed and ready to leave for the Immaculate Conception of Mary Catholic Church are Dr. and Mrs. Lucien Armand and Lucien.

THE STORY OF EASTER

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And, behold there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

His countenance was like lightning, and His raiment white as snow.

READY FOR A JOYOUS EASTER...Ready to leave for mass at the Immaculate Conception of Mary Catholic Church are Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Gonzalez and children, Sergio and Selina.

And for fear of Him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, Which was crucified.

He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come see the place where the Lord lay.

And go quickly, and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead; and, behold, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see Him: lo, I have told you.

And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring His disciples word.

And as they went to tell His disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held Him by the feet, and worshipped Him.

St. Matthew 29: 1-9
