Demo Solon Calls for Senate Investigation of Investigations

Two Tax Changes To Be Considered At Polls August 23

Two major tax changes, one in the state and one in county allocations are to be brought before Gray County voters on August 23. The state ballot is for the consideration of an amendment to Article VII of the Constitution. The county ballot concerns a tax raise of twelve cents and an amendment approved two years ago, to the effect that county allocations can be fluctuated with an approving vote. Under the present set up the state ad valorem tax includes a tax of seven cents for Confederate pensions. The demand on this pension fund has so increased that at the present time one or two cents will bring in the required revenue. The proposed amendment if passed will allocate two cents to the Confederate pension and five cents to a fund for the permanent improvements of state universities and colleges.

Six Killed in Palestine Clash

JERUSALEM—(AP)—The toll in continuing Arab-Jewish violence in Palestine rose to six killed and fourteen wounded today. The latest casualty was a Jewish mite seriously wounded by a knife attack on the Jaffa Tel Aviv city line. Police said the mite was unable to identify the attackers, but it presumed they were Arabs. Three Jews were killed last night in the second night of communal strife in the all Jewish city of Tel Aviv. A group of four Arab youths accosted and stabbed a Jewish man and woman near the Jaffa boundary, and a little later another man was beaten and stabbed to death by passersby. Police first believed this victim to be an Arab, but later identified him as a Jew. Another Arab was reported injured in a tussle with a group of young Jews, also near the Jaffa city line. On the Jerusalem road, five miles from Jaffa, a bus carrying Arab youth was attacked by a mob of Jews. The victims said they were Arabs—halted a bus carrying a number of Jews, forced all the men to lie down beside the road and took their watches and money.

'Thank You' List of Association Grows

The following is a list of organizations and firms that the Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show Association has asked to be added to the "thank you" list, for gifts and services rendered to Queen Helen on to the rodeo. The original list was published in yesterday's Pampa News. An electric toaster presented to Queen Helen, the Junior Chamber of Commerce; Panhandle souvenirs, Simmons Children's Wear; a pair of cowboy boots to Joe Jr. of the Old Times Dance; departing corsage for Queen Helen, Parker's Blossom Shop; the Santa Fe Railroad for the miniature train seen in the parade.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The sudden breaking off of the Howard Hughes investigation brought from a Democratic senator today the comment that Republicans got "a political black eye" and from Senator Brewster (R-Maine) the retort, "that's a matter of opinion." Senator Robertson (D-Va.) professed with unfeigned pleasure, to detecting bruises on the GOP political optic. And another Democrat, Senator Murray of Montana, told reporters that what is now needed is an investigation of Senate investigations.

Paraguay Moves Capital to Pilar As Rebels Attack

BUENOS AIRES—(AP)—Argentine sources said today that Paraguay's President Higinio Morino had pulled out of Asuncion yesterday afternoon for Pilar, near the Argentine border 130 miles south of the rebel-threatened Capital. A government message here could not confirm the report, but Argentine informants who have been in frequent contact with the Morino government said they had word of the President's departure directly from Asuncion. An earlier Associated Press dispatch from Asuncion said Morino still was in the Capital yesterday morning, when he made a tour of the city's defenses. Other informants here said air force and ground personnel had revolted in Asuncion during the day and had seized both the city's airports. These informants said, however, that all planes previously had been moved. Morino's departure would be a strong indication that the five months old civil war is rapidly heading for another climax, but dispatches from Paraguay and rival communiques did little to clarify the exact military situation.

Murray said he was serious in suggesting the Senate should investigate its own investigations. "They didn't have anything to go on and were just depending on sensationalism," the Montana Senator declared. "The same thing has been going on before a lot of other committees. The Senate ought to make an investigation of these so-called investigations." Murray declined to predict his party's course, but there were indications that the Democrats will try again next January to kill off the war investigating group, originally headed by President Truman when he was a Senator. The committee's life was continued until Jan. 31, 1948, by a 49 to 43 Senate vote early this year in which Senator O'Daniel (D-Texas) alone crossed party lines.

Man Injured as Truck Overtakes

J. W. Richeson, 31, Brownfield, received scalp lacerations and a possible fracture to the right shoulder, yesterday evening when his truck overtook on U.S. Highway 83, eight miles south of Shsmrock. State Highway Patrolmen who investigated the wreck said the truck and to the road. The original list had evidently gotten out of control while going down a hill and had run into the ditch and overturned. Patrolmen estimated damages to the truck to exceed $600. Richeson, who was taken to the Shsmrock clinic by Jess Digger, Lute, was reported resting comfortably last night.

Resident Reports Theft of '37 Ford

H. C. Huffine, 228 West Craven, reported the theft of his 1937 Ford coach to City Police this morning. Huffine's car, which is green in color has fender skirts and fog lights, was taken sometime last night.

Boy Scout award "Order of the Arrow" at a ceremony in Mexico City during a visit by Boy Scouts from San Antonio. Yuki Ams, U. S. Indian of San Antonio, center, wearing arm band, made the presentation. Miguel, Jr., wears the wreath of cedar branches, part of the ritual of the ceremony.

Jester Fights U. S. Decision On Tidelands

GREAT FALLS, Mont.—(AP)—Governor Beauford Jones of Texas today asked the Interstate Oil Compact Commission, representing 20 of the nation's major petroleum producing states, to vigorously oppose the recent Supreme Court decision in the California Tidelands Case. "I urge that we go on record, by duly adopted resolution, in opposition to the super-Federal powers announced for the first time in the California case and in favor of Congressional action to renounce such powers in favor of the states," Jester said.

Speaking on the second day of the Compact Commission meeting, the Texas Governor declared that the June 23 Supreme Court decision, giving the Federal government the right to resources of submerged lands was a potent weapon for proponents of the nationalization of the entire oil and gas industry as well as other industries. Attending the Commission sessions are about 250 delegates including the Governor, members of the Ford of Montana and Frank Carlson of Kansas.

After reviewing the suit, Jester declared: "The new legal theories of statehood that will haunt every sovereign state in the future if it is not nullified by appropriate Congressional action are entirely new legal theory of a paramount Federal right to take oil and natural resources, without regard to whether the Federal government actually owns the land. This is the greatest of all usurpations of state rights by the Federal government," Jester asserted. "It is in line with the trends that must be stopped if we are going to continue as a union of states instead of a highly centralized Federal state."

At yesterday's session of the three-day meeting, William J. Murray, chief engineer of the Texas Railroad Commission, was elected chairman of the Compact Research and Coordinating Committee to succeed the late F. R. Frye, of Lansing, Mich. R. R. Spurrier, Santa Fe, was elected chairman, Baumel was not present.

Other Texans present included David G. Gray and R. J. Gonzales, Houston; Humble Oil Co.; John P. Morgan and Martin Roy, Dallas; Shell Oil Co.; Charles E. Simmons, Dallas; Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Co.; Curtis Condra, Fort Worth; Mid-Continent Co.; Wallace Hawkins, Dallas; Magnolia Petroleum Co.; L. D. Ransom, Austin; Secretary to Compact Commission; R. E. Hardwick, Fort Worth; Compact Legal Committee chairman, and Leroy Menzinger, north orth oil editor of the Star Telegram.

State Superintendent Charges Pampa School With Discrimination

AUSTIN—(AP)—State Superintendent of Public Instruction today named 20 Texas schools which do not have their teachers on the same salary schedule for the coming year. In the George H. Bland discriminating and not following the law," Woods told the State Board of Education in session here. He was referring to the new law passed by the 50th Legislature setting up a uniform salary standards for Texas teachers. "The thing that has been hardest to reconcile is the Negro question," Woods said. "Some schools sent in separate Negro and white salary schedules. Obviously, they couldn't do that. I turned them down right on the face of it."

Woods explained that all discrepancies did not exist over the Negro-white question, but that discrepancy in form or another did exist in the salary schedules of the schools of the following towns: Amarillo, Big Spring, Bryan, Eagle Pass, Elysian Fields, Galveston, Goose Creek, Houston, Jacksonville, Lufkin, Marshall, McKinney, Mexia, Midland, Mt. Pleasant, Overton, Palestine, Pampa, Taft and Waskom. Woods told the board that so far 10 schools have been unable to meet the minimum salary standards as prescribed by the newly-enacted law. The state standard now starts at a minimum basic salary of $2,000 annually.

Woods said the salary schedules for the 13 schools have been approved, however, since the schools have contributed to all the revenue they have for salaries and still can't meet the minimum standard. Such exceptions are allowed under the law. The exceptions were granted Bay City, Cleburne, Corsicana, Denison, Ennis, Gilmer (Glenwood Route 1), Fondo, Miami, Pierce (Common School District No. 32), San Marcos, Taylor, Terrell and Waxahatchie. Woods said he expected all 4,000 of the state's school districts to report their salary schedules by Sept. 1.

Legislation Passes After Night of Debate

LONDON—(AP)—The House of Commons voted authorization to the Labor government today to muster the full resources of Britain, including manpower and industry, for the national recovery program. The bill, passed 178 to 63 after an entire night of debate, specifically gave the Attlee Administration extensive powers to direct the management of labor and supplies so "the whole resources of the community are available for use in a manner best calculated to serve the interests of the community." The opposition ballots came from Conservative and Liberal opponents who had attacked the legislation as a "Dictator Bill." The vote, on the third and final reading, followed nearly 18 hours of debate. The Labor Party holds a majority of about two to one in the Commons.

Heat Wave Threatens Corn Crop

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Next year's meat supply hangs in the balance today as the Midwestern heat wave grimmed official forecasts of corn production and threatened to cause still further losses before harvest time. Plagued at planting time by cool weather and floods, corn now has run into hot, dry weather which the Agriculture Department, in its regular monthly crop report, described as a "serious threat" to all crops in the Midwest. Corn is the key to livestock and meat production. A short crop this year would affect next year's output of meats and other livestock products.

However, meat supplies for the last three or four months of this year and the early months of 1948 are expected to be large regardless of how this year's corn turns out. The department forecast the crop as of August 1 at 2,659,959,000 bushels, a decline of about 11,000,000 bushels from its July 15 estimate. The later estimate did not take into account damage caused by the hot weather so far this month. Officials have said that a crop of about 2,850,000,000 bushels would be needed to maintain meat production at this year's rate of 155 pounds per consumer. They said, however, that it is highly improbable that corn prospects would deteriorate enough to drop meat supplies to the pre-war average of 126 pounds.

Hirshberg Court Martial Ended

NEW YORK—(AP)—In a closed session, a navy court martial board today weighed the evidence presented during the three-week trial of Harold E. Hirshberg, 28-year-old chief signaller, accused of maltreating fellow Americans while he was camped in a Japanese prison camp in the Philippines. The final arguments of the defense and prosecution, in which contrasting descriptions of the defendant were given, were completed late yesterday. The board of five Navy captains, a commander and a Marine lieutenant colonel, heard 16 prosecution witnesses and nine for the defense.

Thompson Child Killed Instantly

Robert D. Thompson, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thompson, 425 N. Yeager, was killed instantly this afternoon at 12:25 when he ran in front of an automobile driven by B. Massa, 1110 Christine. The accident occurred in the 400 block of N. Yeager Street near the home of the child. Attending physician's report stated that the child died instantly of a skull fracture. An ambulance from Duenkel-Carmichael made the emergency call, taking the boy to the Pampa Hospital where he died.

Coal Production Talks Are Opened

WASHINGTON—(AP)—British and American negotiators began talks today on ways to increase German coal production and thus provide supplies badly needed by European countries. At the discussions got underway, diplomatic officials said the main aim would be to chart the specific steps needed to boost the lagging output of the Ruhr mines. Delegates from both sides of the Atlantic emphasized that the outcome of their talks will be critically important to the success of the Marshall Plan for European recovery.

Car Stolen Last Saturday Recovered

The recovery of a 1939 Ford coach, that was owned by G. L. Malone, 511 South Russell, was reported by City Police this morning. The car, which was stolen from in front of the Malone home, last Saturday night, was found on the Humble Lease, a short distance off the Lefors highway. Malone had reported that the car was not locked and that he had been forced to leave the keys in the car because of ignition trouble.

Davy Crockett's Rifle 'Betsy' Will Be Returned to the Alamo

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Davy Crockett's "Betsy," the only rifle recovered from the Alamo by the Mexican army, is to be returned to the spot where it fell from its owner's lifeless hands. The rifle will be returned to the Alamo in a formal ceremony Sept. 1, Mrs. Clyde C. Clerk of San Antonio, president of the Alamo Mission Chapter of the Daughters of the Texas Revolution, announced here today. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, himself the commanding general of an equally famed but futile stand of Americans on Bataan, will place the weapon in its last resting place. Identification of the rifle as "Betsy" was made by two great-grandsons of Crockett. They said comparison of pictures of the rifle with that held by Crockett in pictures in their possession made identification certain "beyond reasonable doubt."

Price Investigation Is Ordered by Clark

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Attorney General Clark today ordered an investigation of food, clothing and housing prices. He instructed the Justice Department's anti-trust division to determine whether "conspiracies" exist "to maintain or to increase present prices in the food, clothing and housing fields."

Health Officer Asks Continuance Of City's Clinic

Dr. Malcolm Brown, city health officer, this morning made a plea to the City Commission to continue the services of the venereal disease clinic and give the project more widespread publicity. The health officer told the Commission that he felt the need for the clinic would increase in the next few months even though only 12 cases are currently under regular treatment.

The state last year discontinued the appropriation of funds to cities for maintaining these clinics and since that time the city has undertaken the expense itself. Clinical treatments here are free to any one afflicted with the diseases regardless of race creed or color. Health officials state they know there are more than 12 active cases in the city, but many of them do not come in for treatment even though the services are free. A large portion coming through the clinic have one through private pick ups and checkups.

Health officials argue that treatment of the active cases also is a leading factor in helping to cut down the spread of the diseases by public contact. A revision in the administering methods of the Health Department is to be worked out by the city manager, the health inspector, Ray Salmon, and Dr. Brown.

The Commission heard several other issues on rat proofing and commercial building. C. V. New, granted a permit by the former City Commission and an O.K. by the zoning board to hold a commercial lot and construct a business building near the intersection of Yeager and Duncan Sts., told the Commission he was about ready to erect his building, but had no written permit for the use of the lot as a commercial lot. There was no record of the former Commission's approval, but City Attorney Bob Gordon recalled the request had been authorized but never passed. The new Commission advised New they would have the city attorney look into the matter further and give him a final decision at a later date.

Other matters, including rat proofing, water shortage and sewer line construction as well as paving were being heard by the Commission this afternoon.

Couple Injured as Two Trucks Collide

Roy Errington, 35, Wheeler, and his wife, Lorene, 33, were patients in the Wheeler Hospital yesterday, following an automobile accident seven miles east of Wheeler Sunday night. Neither of the injured were considered to be in serious condition. State Highway Patrolmen, who investigated the accident, reported that Errington's 1936 Ford pickup, headed east was in collision with 1946 Dodge pickup being driven west by Forrest J. Hamilton, 34, Allison.

The Errington's two children were also in the collision, but were not injured. Patrolmen estimated damages to the two pickups to exceed $700.

Brecheen Hurts Redbirds to Victory Over Chicago Cubs

Prize Northern

By the Associated Press
If you can predict when the currently flawless Chicago Cubs will occupy the hole of victims or villains, you might be able to get an idea of which team will win the National League pennant.
Charlie Grimm's second division
Cubs, going nowhere themselves, nevertheless have played an important part in the fortunes of the two top contenders, the front running
Brooklyn Dodgers and runner-up
St. Louis Cardinals.
It was the Cubs' early season ineptness against Brooklyn that was largely responsible for the Dodgers' lefty position. In their 15 clashes, the Brooks emerged the victors 13 times. At the same time, it was the Bruins' early season mastery over the Cards that had a hand in keeping the Redbirds buried in the league cellar for nearly two months.
Nevertheless, the Cubs have played an important part in the fortunes of the two top contenders, the front running
Brooklyn Dodgers and runner-up
St. Louis Cardinals.

Ernest Falkenberg entered the Methodist Girls Massacre Central Baptists 31 to 9

The First Methodist Senior Girls jumped to a 39 run lead last night in the first two innings of play and went on to massacre the Central Baptist Girls 31-9 in a Sunday School Softball League game. Patsy Fierson hurled for the Methodists and kept the Baptists well in hand with 11 strikeouts and 10 hits in 10 plate crossings in the first frame and quickly followed them with 20 more in the second before the Central Baptists could ever begin their offensive. The Baptists settled down after the second inning and in the remaining two innings they allowed the Methodists only one run while setting 5 themselves.
The Central Baptist Junior Boys crossed home plate 9 times in the sixth inning to take a hard earned contest from the scrappy Nazarene Boys 25-17. The Baptists were leading 16-13 going into the top of the sixth, but the Nazarenes talkied 3 runs to tie up the Baptist girls 15-15 in the seventh. The Nazarenes could earn no more than one run in the top of the seventh although they tried hard to stage a rally, and they might have succeeded had it not been for the speedy hurrying of Baptist Pitcher Fugene Bynum.

The undefeated Baptist First Senior Girls continued on their winning ways last night, trouncing
the hapless Calvary Baptist Girls 34-14. Robbie Hawkins received credit for the win as he was never in any kind of trouble since her teammates had a big night at the plate as well as in the field. The winners scored 5 runs in the first inning after the Calvary Girls had scored 3 and they were never lacking in runs throughout the entire game, with the closest point being 9-6.

Oilers Climb to Third With Win Over G. Sox

Pampa's Oilers blasted their way back to third place last night with a decisive 15-5 win over the second place Amarillo Gold Sox behind the eight-hit pitching of southpaw Al Johnston.
Johnston walked five and struck out only five batters, but where Sox hits were concerned, particularly where there was a scoring threat, they weren't to be had.
Johnston gave up his first run in the sixth inning when the Oilers already had five. He allowed three runs in the eighth when the Oilers had nine and he gave up another in the ninth when his teammates had tallied a total of 12.

Boo Bailey led the Oilers' stickwork with a double, a single and one of the four-base wallops. He batted in four runs. Tony Range and Gene Miller also pitched well.
O'Connell and R. C. Oney both got home runs.

Texas League Fans Watching Fight for 3rd

Three Texas League teams are in place of three-cushion bil-iards. Everybody gets a chance at it.

Dallas banked a 6-3 victory over Shreveport into undisputed possession of the third place slot last night, tumbling the Sports into fifth place behind Tulsa, winner over Houston, 5-2.
The three-way race for third still was a hot battle. Only eight percentage points separate Dallas from Shreveport today.

Fort Worth cut a game off Houston's lead by whipping Beaumont, 12-0.
Oklahoma City had its tilt at San Antonio postponed because of wet grounds.

Dallas pushed over three runs in the fourth inning on a triple, two doubles and a single. The Rebels added two more in the eighth on a single and two errors, then tossed in one more for good measure in the ninth.

Shreveport nicked Rufus Gentry for eight hits and runs in the third and eighth innings.
Tulsa batted around in the eighth inning and scored four runs to de-feet Houston.

The 5,288 paid admissions at the game fell just 737 short of breaking the all-time Texas League single club attendance record of 285,103 set last year at San Antonio.
Don Carlson, young Tulsa hurler who has been scheduled to start the game was under a physician's treatment for a respiratory ailment.
Andy Anderson's two-run homer in the sixth inning paced Fort Worth's shutout over Beaumont, 16 runs of seven extra base hits off two Beaumont hurlers.
The same clubs face each other tonight. This puts Dallas at Shreveport; Fort Worth at Beaumont; Oklahoma City at San Antonio in a doubleheader, and Tulsa at Houston.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—Is the working man better off in a period of high prices, such as now? A small business man and a part-time philosopher, thought so. A man's got to have something in his pockets that jingles," he says.

During his lifetime Dad had a store of grocery stores. He always up in business in working class neighborhoods.

Working man will pay his grocery bill because he has to eat to get on working," he explained. "Groceries aren't so important to the rich people. They pay for bills or a new automobile or they think of settling for food."

The last time I helped in Dad's store was fifteen years ago. I had finished college, but it took more than a sheepshead to land a job in the summer of 1932.

He put me to work passing out handbills around the neighborhood. I had a theory you should raise twice as much when business is down. In the afternoon I went back to the store and helped on customers during the late morning rush.

Those depression days we all sold a lot of hamburger. In times the working man buys of round steak and pork chops for his family, no matter what the price. But in 1932 they were buying hamburger and cheap steaks, and in Dad's store at least, they were paying only with paper money.

I had the theory that low prices were meaningless in a period of major unemployment, as people of work couldn't buy much anyway.

I've better off when everything's working even if prices go sky high," he said once. "Things move, but complain a lot, but they keep buying anyway. Everybody has confidence. That's when people get good—when they can hear pocket jingle. You can't do with an empty pocket."

In Hollywood

(While Erskine Johnson is on vacation, outstanding Hollywood personalities are pinch-hitting for him.)

By MARIA MONTEZ
HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—In our childhood, we dream of our adult life—of what we want to be. It's common among children to want to grow up to be firemen, milkmen or airplane pilots, and some even harbor a desire to be President.

At about the time in life when children have such dreams, I was dreaming about being a "lady bull fighter." While basking on the beautiful beach near my native home in Santo Domingo, I could see myself making my debut in Madrid. This was my happiest dream.

Maria Africa Gracia Vidal de Santos Siles, lying on the beach, would dream of Maria Montez taking a red and gold cape and facing the charging bull. Pass after pass, cheer after cheer from the endless sea of faces in the arena until finally, dazed and confused, the bull stood helpless before the victor. Montez would then turn her back on the beast and stride triumphantly from the arena amid deafening applause.

EL HOLLYWOOD TORO
Well, I never got Montez any closer to the bull ring than Hollywood, but now that I think of it, that's pretty close. Hollywood's pretty similar to a bull fight and, for the apprentice toreador, the fight begins along the broad avenue known as Sunset Strip. In upholstered arenas the "bull" is fought, thrown and massacred.

and the town is yours. The oracles see a new star on the horizon. That's what you think! But the fight has only begun. Behind the pearly gates it's like being in a corral at round-up time. You're tramped on, stamped, lost in the shuffle. If you're lucky, you get to a barricade for a breather and look at the people. If they cheer, you have fewer bulls to fight if they don't—on brother!

But in my dream on the beach, the fans cheered and we fought on.

Leo McCarey Puts His Hat in Race For Academy Award

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Academy awards are a year-around consideration here, and now comes word that Leo McCarey, always a strong contender, will be in the race again.

The Irish film maker was out of the running last year after the healthy entries of the two previous races, "Going My Way," and "Bells of St. Mary's." Even though he won't finish the Gary Cooper-Ann Sheridan opus, "Good Sam," until November, he plans to have it in the theatres before the Jan. 1 deadline. Leo edits his pictures as he shoots.

"I could use another Oscar," he laughed, "to complete my book-ends."

Otto Preminger is working on three pictures at once. He is filming "Daisy Kenyon" in the daytime, scoring "Forever Amber" at night and also working on the script of "The Dark Wood." The latter is the Christine Weston novel.

about a war widow and will star Jennifer Jones and Tyrone Power. Bob Hope did only two shots during his South American vacation, which is a record for him. He played two U. S. banquets in Buenos Aires on July 4. During one he encountered a Yankee heckler. Hope squeezed him with "and I thought I got shots for everything."

Lauritz Melchior will play himself for the first time in "Luxury Liner." He has shelled 25 pounds "by being good." There must be an easier way... Warners is reportedly so happy with "Treasure of the Sierra Madre" that the studio rule against films being over two hours long may be lifted... Casey Robinson says his wife, Tounanova, will make the life of Pavlova in England "if she ever stops touring." She returned from a season in Paris and will tour the U. S.

Virginia Bruce is doing her first film role in two years in "The Night Has 1,000 Eyes," but she tells me her movie plans end there. She'll join her husband in Turkey... George Murphy and Walter Pidgeon go to San Francisco Aug. 14 for the Toasters Convention. I presume they'll drive up.

KAISER-FRAZER IS PRODUCING A CAR A MINUTE

KAISER

FRAZER

Both cars are serviced with genuine factory parts—wherever you go—by one of the four largest automobile dealer organizations in the world.

Yes, it's being done at Willow Run! The giant ex-bomber plant is now producing better than a car a minute! Every working day provides an average of 700 more automobiles for a car-hungry world. And what wonderful new cars they are!

Letters pour in to the factory every day addressed to Henry J. Kaiser and Joseph W. Frazer—from those among our more than 70,000 owners who feel that they must express their enthusiasm. These owners, who have driven the KAISER and the FRAZER and the luxurious new FRAZER Manhattan hundreds of millions of miles in every part of the world, emphasize one outstanding feature above all others—the extraordinary smooth, gliding ride! They say there never was a ride like this! Read typical owner comments below.

We invite you to come in and inspect these 100% postwar cars and—take a ride. You will want one! And you can have one! For we are getting our share of Willow Run's increased output—and are delivering now!

—THE KAISER • THE FRAZER • THE FRAZER MANHATTAN

HERE IS WHAT KAISER AND FRAZER OWNERS SAY ABOUT THESE GREAT, NEW, POSTWAR CARS—

A Chicago Office Worker Writes—"On a 4-day, 1212-mile trip around Lake Michigan, we averaged 18 1/2 miles to the gallon... our new KAISER is economical to operate and performs beautifully. We thoroughly enjoy it."

A New Britain, Conn. Salesman Writes—"My KAISER's body styling is the finest I have ever seen. And its power, maneuverability and smooth riding never cease to amaze me. Performance is magnificent."

A Detroit Housewife Writes—"Have just returned from a trip to British Columbia. My KAISER is the easiest car to operate that I have ever owned—and the way it took those mountains is really something to rave about."

A Brookville, Pa. Insurance Executive Writes—"My FRAZER is the finest car I could have bought at any price. The easy, comfortable ride—at any speed—is in my opinion the outstanding feature. Economy and performance are unbelievable. I get 19 miles per gallon, with speeds up to 70 m.p.h."

A Phoenix, Ariz. Newspaper Man Writes—"I bought my FRAZER on March 1, 1947 and have driven it 12,365 miles in four months in Arizona and Mexico—often in over 115 heat in the desert. Water temperature never went over 170°. It is the easiest riding and driving car I have ever used. Owning it has been a sequence of pleasant surprises."

A Parkersburg, W. Va. Banker Writes—"The officers of this bank own two FRAZERS and one KAISER. I have driven them all and feel that they are wonderful cars. They are the smartest looking cars on the road and I have never experienced smoother riding qualities. Your dealer gives us excellent service."

Evening Ceremony Read in El Reno Unites Miss Farris and Rev. Lyons

The marriage of Miss Arlene Farris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Farris, 1115 West Wade, El Reno, Okla., and the Reverend Arthur C. Lyons, Twitty, son of Mrs. W. L. Lyons, and the late Mr. Lyons, Grants Pass, Ore., was solemnized Tuesday evening, August 5. The double ring ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church, El Reno, with the Rev. H. A. Powell, associate pastor, officiating in the presence of about 75 relatives and friends.

The altar was decorated with baskets of pink gladioli and Mrs. H. V. Tillinghast, organist, played a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony and accompanied Mrs. Roy Pearce, vocalist, when she sang "Always" and "I Love Thee". Mrs. Tillinghast also played the traditional wedding marches for the professional and recessional.

Attendants of the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farris, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Farris wore a summer print dress with white off-the-face hat and a corsage of pink gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a rose-colored print frock with black accessories and carried an arm bouquet of pink asters tied with a large pink satin ribbon.

Attending were Lester J. Bowling and James A. Keaton, brother-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Farris, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue ensemble with matching accessories and corsage of gardenias.

Immediately following the marriage a reception was given in the church parlors. After the bride couple had cut the first piece of cake Mrs. Ernest O'Nan took charge. Miss Anola Beatty was in charge of the punch bowl and Miss Margie Sue Farris, sister of the bride, kept the guest book.

Mrs. Lyons was graduated from El Reno High School in 1937 where she was a member of the L.L.T. literary society. For the past five years she has been office assistant for Dr. William A. Laughlin, which duties she recently resigned.

Rev. Lyons, after completing three years work at the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Tex., was music and educational director at the First Baptist Church, Boyd, Tex. For the past two months Rev. Lyons has been pastor at Twitty, where the couple will reside after a wedding trip.

WE, THE WOMEN

Vacation Highlights

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Vacation highlights: Getting as far the first day, by late driving and dogged determination, as you'd planned, even though the early start, you take a little break but didn't pan out, as usual.

Running into somebody from home, eager to hear all the gossip when you are far from home.

Finding mail waiting for you when you check into your hotel.

Ordering a meal that almost lives up to the fancy terms used on the menu.

Driving into a town without a reservation and getting a room at the first hotel you try. This will be a real highlight—if it ever happens.

Writing those smug "sleeping under blankets" postcards to your sweltering friends back home.

Seeing, for the first time, some of the country's most magnificent beauty spots and feeling that, ever after, that beauty will belong to you alone.

GOOD STORY MATERIAL

Realizing in the middle of an amusing incident that you'll have a good story to tell when you get back home.

Reaching the outskirts of your own home town and noticing with satisfaction that nothing seems to have changed since you've been gone.

Turning in your own driveway—wary but miraculously refreshed and ready to start another year's long grind—until vacation time next year.

A vacuum cleaner cord should be about 20 feet long for maximum closing efficiency, says one consumer institute. A cord of that length permits you to vacuum all areas of a room without disconnecting the plug, according to the institute.

Only five of the 40 islands in the Scilly group are inhabited.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN

Well, the tourist season is in full swing in California and among those expected to migrate for a while, later on, is governor Dewey of New York. Of course, he won't arrive in California until he has a bested tied on top or a snappy roadster loaded with tennis rackets and telephone numbers. But he will have something in common with our other visitors.

You see, most people who come out here have a sneaking desire to hug Gregory Peck (if they're women) or Dorothy Lamour (if they're men) and the governor is operating along the same lines on a much bigger scale. According to George, he wants to romance the entire state of California.

George says a successful love affair with a state the size of ours would help Mr. Dewey get there- publican nomination for president next year. But I don't think he has to indulge in any romancing with the populace. We Americans still remember what he did for us at Manila Bay.

IT'S A BIG JOB THESE DAYS

One of the first things a new telephone operator learns is to be always ready for the next call—your call—anybody's call!

Operators have a lot of calls to handle nowadays. There are more telephones in use than ever before and calling is at an all-time high. The switchboard at times is literally ablaze with lights—each one calling for "Number, please?" and each one getting a "Number, please?" as quickly as skilled and courteous operators can manage. If your call is not answered at once, you'll know that nimble fingers will reach it as soon as they possibly can.

As soon as much-needed new equipment can be obtained and installed, we'll be ready to handle your calls quicker and better than ever before.

THE BALKY BALKAN BLOC

The stubborn effort of the Russian, Polish and Yugoslavian delegates to the Security Council to block formation of a long-term U.N. Balkan commission has only increased the suspicion that the Communist bloc is largely responsible for the intensified fighting in Greece.

The U.N. spokesman for these three governments staged what amounted to a filibuster in the Council sessions. It might be surmised, from the tone of their attack and of the news that coincided with it, that their object was fourfold.

They wanted to keep U.N. investigators away from the present scene of fighting. They wanted to keep U.N. observers permanently out of the Balkans. They apparently hoped the fighting would take a turn in the guerrillas' favor so that they could make good their threat to set up an independent Communist state in northern Greece. And they obviously wanted to get into the record again their charge that the majority of the Balkan investigating group were liars, and that their decision was pre-conceived, false and unjust.

By taking this action the Russian, Polish and Yugoslavian representatives were trying to keep the Security Council from doing precisely what it was set up to do. And despite contrary charges from the three powers, the Council was seeking to do the job according to rules laid down in the Charter.

The Greek government had formally notified the Council through its ambassador in Washington, that Greece had been invaded from Albania by a force of Greek guerrillas and units of an international brigade. Such an act would constitute an act of aggression and a threat to the peace.

The Security Council must determine the existence of such acts, but before it can do so, it must know whether the charges are true. Russia's Gromyko told the Council that it was being asked to set up a commission that would be permitted to make that decision, although the Council has no right to delegate such authority.

That, of course, is nonsense. The Council members obviously could not pack up and go to Greece to see for themselves. And, since the Greek government's charges were not substantiated, it became necessary to delegate the task of investigation to an appointed commission. Such a procedure would probably be necessary in most, if not all, similar complaints.

It is important to the existence of the United Nations and to world peace to get at the root of the Greek trouble. Is it a Greek civil war carried on within the boundaries of Greece? Or is it a war on an international scale, with the attacking forces based and supplied in a foreign country?

To find the truth about this shooting war and, if more than one country is involved, to stop it is the first big test of the U.N.'s primary function. From present indications the Soviet Union will never permit the U.N. to perform that function when Russian interests are in any way concerned in the issue. No wonder the Soviets insisted on the veto!

It seems increasingly clear that the only way the U.N. will ever be able to keep the peace is by changing some of its rules. Even though Russia, armed with a veto, stands ready to resist any change, this difficult solution must somehow be attained.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

news behind the news

WASHINGTON
By ROBERT WARREN

FOURTH—Regardless of what Henry Wallace does, there may be a third and possibly a fourth major party in the field in the coming presidential election.

At least two splinter parties are being formed, not counting the group clustered around the Progressive Citizens of America (PCA), which is backing the former vice president.

The two latest are spear-headed by Sen. William Langer of North Dakota, and Gerald L. K. Smith, respectively. Langer has set up a staff in Washington to organize the Nonpartisan League on a national scale. Smith, after a thinly attended mass meeting at the foot of the Washington Monument, launched a streamlined Nationalist Party.

These new movements may not be able to get their candidates' names on the ballots in all states. But politicians recognize that both have a substance value in a close race. Hence the professional view of the rise of amateurs with irritation.

FEDERAL—The Langer brain-trust has in it elements of danger to both Republicans and Democrats. From his vantage points as Chairman of the Senate Civil Service Committee, he hopes to unite all Federal workers into a nationwide organization.

Already he has conferred with leaders of various AFI government employees' unions. Some labor officials have agreed to mail to members copies of recent Langer speeches and other material outlining a program of action. But most union bosses, even when sympathetic with the idea, are holding off until they are sure that assistance will not violate the Hatch Act, which forbids political activities by Federal employees.

Langer explained to the doubting Thomases that although the Hatch Act curbs persons retally on Uncle Sam's payroll, it does not prevent their relatives from organizing as a bloc. After the Nonpartisan League has decided on a platform and a slate of law-law prevent Federal employees' living outside Washington from supporting the ticket. (District of Columbia residents have no vote.)

CRUSADE—The Gerald L. K. Smith movement is more nebulous. The notorious rebel-roarer has headed so many crusades since the days he was Huey Long's Man Friday that one cannot predict the outcome of his latest.

He was the 1944 America First candidate for the presidency. Now he proposes to be the presidential candidate of his so-called Christian Nationalist Party or, in case he decides to decline the crown, to use his party to support Senator Brickley or General MacArthur.

Smith returned to Washington from a tour of the country where he has been testing sentiment for a new party. At least he learned what the sentiment was concerning Smith.

He says that a Chicago mob smashed the windows of the hall in which he was speaking and that it took 300 policemen to escort him to his car. Red movie stars, according to Smith, paid thousands of pickets to prevent people from attending his rallies in Los Angeles.

"In Minneapolis," insists the glib demagogue, "two thousand Communists invaded the hotel where I was staying before one thousand sincere Christians. In the historic Old South Meeting House in Boston, fifteen hundred Communists rushed into the church, overwhelmed the police and screamed so loud that I could not be heard. Nevertheless we have already the names of three million good people enrolled in our cause."

Smith is a master of mob psychology. He says that a Chicago mob smashed the windows of the hall in which he was speaking and that it took 300 policemen to escort him to his car. Red movie stars, according to Smith, paid thousands of pickets to prevent people from attending his rallies in Los Angeles.

RADICAL—The Wallace third party trial balloons are not taken seriously by most politicians in Washington. They believe that Henry's bluster is aimed to hold President Truman as far left of center as possible. In the end it is expected that Wallace radical following will go along with the Democrats, as usual.

But the former vice president is so closely identified with the Progressive Citizens of America that the antics of his new associates may disgust many independents.

The twin leaders of PCA are Jo Davidson, an excellent sculptor, and the Rev. Frank Kingdon, the former pastor of a small evangelical church in New England who forsook preaching for the more lucrative calling of being a politician and columnist in New York City.

If our relations with the Soviet Union are strained at the time of the presidential campaign, this pair of extremely able propagandists is likely to thrust the Communist issue forcefully into the election. That whatever support PCA and the Wallace crowd bring to the Democratic Party will be countered by a falling away of anti-Communist independents.

A fish has no eyelids.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLES

Taxation Christian?
A reader of Common Ground asks to think that I am opposed to taxation. I am not opposed to taxation. I am opposed to certain kinds of taxation. I am opposed to a taxation that's out of harmony with the Ten Commandments and with the Declaration of Independence.

I know of no one who is opposed to taxation. They are only opposed to certain forms of taxation which do not comply with these three great documents. A tax system which complies with these three great documents would be a taxation with the consent of he taxed and in order to get the consent, it would have to be in proportion to the services received, not progressive nor graduated in proportion. In addition, the tax would have to be used not to subsidize certain groups wealthy at that cost, but to protect their lives and property. This kind of a taxation system should have and undoubtedly would have the consent of everyone who believes in any form of impersonal, eternal law or Commandment that no man, and no man can unmake. This same reader contends that the Bible does not support my contentions. He evidently is confusing taxation with a thing called "progressive taxation" or a tax to take from one to give to another. This is not taxation, it is simply robbery, and the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount do not sanction this kind of exploitation called taxation.

This same critic seems to think that the government can be charitable because it has nothing to give excepting what it takes from someone else and if someone else wants to give it to another individual, let the giver do it directly instead of by way of the state where a lot of bureaucrats where the distributor is invariably made to keep these political bureaucrats in power rather than to promote justice.

Yes, voluntary taxation is in harmony with Christian principles and involuntary taxation is incompatible with Christian principles.

Exports Europe Needs.
Do We Have Them?
We are exporting material worth at the rate of about 10 billion dollars a year more than we are importing in material worth.

Many people think that this exporting material worth more than we are importing is not lowering our standard of living. They even think that it is not raising prices in this country. It is doing both.

Most people think that they want work, but in reality they want the fruits of work. Exporting material worth more than we are importing is reducing the amount of wealth we have left to divide up. Thus workers are not getting the full fruits of their work. Thus their standard of living is not being raised when we are exporting this wealth and not receiving in return wealth that is of at least equal value. They should get wealth back that would have them labor if they are to improve their standard of living.

What Europe needs is moral; that is, impersonal rules of conduct. This is about the only thing that will do Europe any real lasting permanent good. That's one thing we could export, if we had it, without reducing our own standard of living. The pity of it is that we are having less and less and less of moral rules to export and we can't export morals if we do not have them any more than we can export wealth that we do not have. What Europe needs and what we need is a rebirth in moral law. We need to return to the principles set down by the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount and the Declaration of Independence. That's the thing that will help Europe. That's the thing that will help America.

Chology but he has never won any blue ribbons for his ability to count accurately. His strategy is to arouse prejudice against colored people and Jews and to cash in on the widespread fear and hatred of Communism. By unscrupulously twisting Christian religious teachings he appeals to many naive proud people. In a close election his dupes might cause trouble.

SENATORS THREATENED—What the radical left wingers want is to shout down all opposition to socialism or communism. If you will so that there will remain just one party—or two parties clamping the same program.

As I have reported in this column from time to time, they are through numerous well financed organizations, defaming and harassing public officials, ministers—all who threaten to become powerful champions of Americanism.

Senator Jack B. Tenney, fearless chairman of California's Red Finding Committee exposing Communism and another state Senator working with him have reported threats on their lives.

Dr. DuPont, principal leader of the fight of the Los Angeles city council on Communists and Communist influence, has suffered a virulent type of harassment. His life has been threatened and he is filled with rotting vegetables. His wife has received telephone calls abusing her in filthy language.

It is a fact well known to the Red strategists that many a public official will pull his punches after such intimidation. These men deserve widespread public appreciation and support for their courage to carry on.

Just yesterday I received a telephone call from an advertising agency telling me of a case of a slightly different type. This agency conducts a radio forum which brings pro-Communists and pro-American face to face in open—sometimes heated—debate.

MACKENZIE'S Column

By DEWITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The sensational nature of England's economic crisis, involving as it does the great experiment in Socialism, naturally centers attention on her, but we shouldn't allow ourselves to be misled into regarding this as solely a British disaster.

Most certainly it is one of the momentous international developments of the post-war period. Upon Britain's degree of success in dealing with this emergency must depend largely whether the Western Democracies are able to hold their own against the westward sweep of an aggressive, empire building Communism.

England's bad luck is a stroke of rare good fortune for the Red and its world revolution.

An already terribly weakened France would find it difficult, if not impossible, to keep her feet under such circumstances.

Prime Minister Attlee declared yesterday Britain is "certain of victory," and the consensus of observers seems to be that this forecast is warranted. However, none can say at this juncture how long the unfortunate country must struggle along the tortuous trail of harsh depression before it finally comes out upon the broad highway to recovery. Attlee himself minced no words over the seriousness of the position.

"We have to face now," he said, "before we have recovered from the effects of the war, and before our long-term plans have taken effect, the necessity of relying entirely on our own resources. This is a situation as serious as any that has faced us in our long history. We must, therefore, act vigorously and drastically."

The prime minister called on the country for a national effort comparable to that which was developed during the war.

This is a realistic approach to a tough problem, but there are certain impediments to be dealt with. One of them is the strength of Attlee's leadership, which is being questioned by some of his own followers, especially the extreme Left-Wingers. It's quite possible that the economic crisis may be complicated by a political imbroglio.

The next few months are going to be crucial in the battle of England (and other hard hit countries of Western Europe) for economic recovery. That means this period is also going to be crucial in the struggle of the Western nations to keep from being enmeshed in the Red net.

Fort Worth Club Operator Killed

FORT WORTH — (AP) — J. L. (Spec) Montgomery, 49, owner of the Senate Club and other property here, was fatally wounded last night in a shooting near the county courthouse. He died an hour later in a hospital.

Police took a 48-year-old domino hall operator into custody following the shooting.

Montgomery was struck by three charges from a shotgun as he stood talking to two acquaintances. He was struck in the hand, shoulder and side.

Charles Reavis, 34, and Morris Key, 40, told police they heard a command to "get out of the way" while they were talking to Montgomery. One of the blasts from the shotgun barely missed Key.

DEATH of a DOLL

By Hilda Lawrence

DR. KLOPPPEL said, "It's blood all right. Deep in that bronze carving. Want me to soak it out and type it?"

"No use," Mark answered. "We can't do anything with it. We can't get a sample for comparison, if you know what I mean. It's better where it is. Even if it belongs to Harris instead of Miller, it's better. It says more."

"Fingerprints?"

"None."

Dr. Klopppel wrapped the box in a clean handkerchief and placed it in the center of his table. The old-fashioned chandelier shed a cold white light. The box looked like a little coffin, shrouded and lonely.

"Miss Brady's box, stolen from Blackman's, Miss Brady's box," Dr. Klopppel hated his own words. "You can't accuse that lady of theft. You can't even accuse her of murder. It isn't fitting!"

"But her box did murder once, and tried it a second time. Unless Lillian Harris knocked herself out for a red herring."

"No," Dr. Klopppel said. "You didn't see those heads and I did." He reached out and touched the box gingerly. "It hurt, Mr. East. It was cruel and painful and slow, blow after blow." He withdrew his hand and rubbed it. "What do we do now?"

"We act like honest taxpayers and yell help, murder, police. Who was on the case before?"

"Foy, for about five minutes. He's a very busy man. He looked, up at the window, shook his head and said, 'Pity.'"

"I know Foy. Call him up tonight, after I leave. Tell him you're dissatisfied. The Harris development will cover that. Say you've talked to me. Then he'll call me, and I'll tell him how I got on to it and what I've done."

WALL STREET STOCKS
NEW YORK, Aug. 11—(AP)—A fairly good rally in recently weak motion picture stocks, with firmness of assorted industrials, propped the market today although the account was on the decline for numerous leaders.

Slowdowns were frequent after a moderate active opening. Top gains of fractions to around 2 points were reduced in the majority of cases at the close and losses of as much as one point were recorded. Traders for the five hours were in the vicinity of 750,000 shares.

Among forward swingers, aided by word from London that there was some hope of a compromise of the heavy tax on American films, were Paramount, Loew's, Twentieth Century-Fox, Universal and Columbia Pictures.

American Telephone exhibited strength, buoyed by the thought that this stock had been oversold. Resistant were Southeastern Greyhound, Lima Locomotive, Western Union "A," Westinghouse, U. S. Gypsum, Republic Steel and Public Service of N. J.

Leaders included Bethlehem, U. S. Steel, Goodrich (on a strike threat), Montgomery Ward, Woolworth, International Harvester, Kennecott, American Smelting, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, Frisco Railroad preferred, Texas Co. and Standard Oil (N.D.).

Bonds were uneven.

CHICAGO WHEAT
CHICAGO, Aug. 11—(AP)—Wheat closed 2 1/2 to 4 cents lower. September $2.35 1/2; corn was 4 1/2-7 1/2 lower, September $2.32-2.35; and oats were 1 1/2-2 1/2 lower, September $1.03 1/4-1 1/4.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Aug. 11—(AP)—Wide price fluctuations, frequent reversals of trend and a highly nervous market featured trading in grains on the Board of Trade today.

At one time all corn contracts reached new seasonal highs and September corn spurted to $2.42, a record for any corn contract here. At another time all yellow cereal contracts were down 8 cents, the limit permitted in a single session.

Between those extremes the market moved up and down readily, price changes of several cents being recorded within a few minutes. For the most part corn was under the final prices of last Saturday. Wheat and oats also moved below the preceding closing.

Wheat closed 2 1/2 to 4 cents lower. September $2.35 1/2; corn was 4 1/2-7 1/2 lower, September $2.32-2.35; and oats were 1 1/2-2 1/2 lower, September $1.03 1/4-1 1/4.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 11—(AP)—Cotton futures declined nearly $4.00 a bale here today, before trade buying and short selling checked the drop.

for the house, deficits and so on.

And Jewel—"Mrs. Marshall-Gill drew closer to the fire. "Mr. East, I feel uncomfortable even now when I think of it. Venomous, hateful, I can't describe it except to say that she wasn't at all nice."

"I think she was thinking things about me."

He drew closer to the fire himself. "Go on, Mrs. Marshall-Gill."

"A naughty girl," she said firmly. "I suspect she's been drinking or smoking in her room, which is forbidden to employees. She went right up again, put me off at the first floor, and went right up again. No apology for keeping me waiting. That's what happens when you coddle these people. Dressing up like one of the boarders, lolling and slouching and probably making faces at me behind that mask. And a beauty spot, too. Impertinence."

He picked his words carefully after that. He didn't want her to know his neck, screaming.

"Do you know anything about that beauty spot, Mrs. Marshall-Gill?"

"Know about it? Certainly not. What should I know? Showing off."

"Then, 'You got in the car at the fifth floor. Do you remember where it went when she took it up again?'"

"I remember the little wretch. She lives on second, but she went up to the eighth. That's under the roof. She was going to walk up to the roof and smoke and drink."

He gloated silently. "I suppose you talked to Jewel when she took you up to Miss Small's?"

"Why, yes, why, how strange! She talked about things, of course, but she did talk. I care-say she'd quarreled with someone in the meantime. They always quarrel, people like that."

"Was she wearing the beauty spot then?"

"Was she—oh, no, I'd have noticed and commented. No, not then. That's probably one of the things she was doing when I was in Miss Small's. Sewing it on, making herself conspicuous. Upstart."

He reached for his hat.
