Censure Jury Huddles On McCarthy Verdict

Recommendation Is Expected Soon

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 —UP— The Watkins committee met secretly Tuesday to plan its final report on the McCarthy censure charges as the controversial senator accused committee attorneys of trying "to convict Joe McCarthy."

The six-man "jury" began its private deliberations after ringing down the curtain on its unprecedented public hearings late Monday following nine days of testimony.

It had to decide, among other things, whether its report should merely make findings of fact and law or whether it also should recommend for or against McCarthy's censure by the Senate. Chairman Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah) said the committee could discharge its responsibility without returning a verdict but that recommendations are customary.

May Study Protest The committee may also go into McCarthy's protest against the participation of the committee's two attorneys in writing the final report.

McCarthy told reporters Tuesday that it is "impossible" for chief counsel E. Wallace Chadwick and his assistant, Guy G. DeFuria, to draft an impartial report. He said the two attorneys had "been doing a vigorous job of prosecuting" him.

His attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, requested Monday that the committee call in "impartial" counsel to assist it in preparing the final report.

Williams made the request shortly before Watkins gave the hearing into history at 3:17 p.m. The committee heard pro and con testimony on five general charges against McCarthy who was fighting the greatest battle of his political career.

May Make Report by Oct. 1 There was no indication how swiftly the committee would draft the report which must be submitted to the full Senate. One member said the group might settle on the broad outline of the report this week but that it would not be in final form until about Oct. 1.

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.), a committee member, agreed that the group might return its findings around Oct. 1. But he expressed doubt that the Senate would return here to act on the politically explosive issue before the Nov. 2 elections.

The committee will probably have to decide on a deadline for issuing the report. In setting up the committee, the Senate committed itself to act on the issue before Dec. 25.

Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore), author of seven of the 46 specific charges against McCarthy, told reporters he was "very pleased with the judicial procedure which the committee followed."

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), another who filed charges against McCarthy, said "it seems to me that the facts were brought out in the hearings, and it's up to the Senate to exercise its judgment as to whether it approves of the conduct of this man."

4 Oilers Injured In Wreck

Team Bus Hits Car In Abilene

ABILENE, Sept. 14 —UP— Four Pampa baseball players and an Abilene man were injured late Monday night when the team's "runaway" bus collided with an automobile at an intersection.

The Pampa players were returning to their hotel after a West Texas - New Mexico League playoff game against Abilene.

The injured players were Manager Hershel Martin, who suffered a badly cut arm; catcher I. B. Palmer, driver of the bus, a bruised head; pitcher "Sad" Sam Williams, numbness of the left arm and bruises on the head; and outfielder Lewis Johnson, a bruised leg.

A. D. Coats of Abilene, about 50, driver of the car, sustained back and rib injuries. All but Johnson required hospitalization and league President Hal Sayles said the playoff series would be postponed a day or two if the Pampa team requests it. A decision was expected Tuesday.

Doug Lewis, Pampa infielder, said the bus was 100 or 200 yards from the intersection when Palmer shouted that the brakes were out. The bus passed several cars before crossing the intersection.

It was the second baseball bus accident in the league this year. Early last summer, several Abilene players were hospitalized in Albuquerque, N.M., when they were overcome from carbon monoxide gas enroute to a game there. A defective exhaust pipe caused the mishap.

OILER-BLUE SOX PLAYOFF TILT TONIGHT HAS BEEN POSTPONED

ABILENE, Sept. 14 — (Special) — The fourth game of the Pampa Oiler-Abilene Blue Sox playoff series, scheduled for Blue Sox Stadium here Tuesday night, has been postponed until Wednesday night, Hal Sayles, president of the West Texas-New Mexico League, announced this morning.

The postponement was made necessary to allow members of the Oiler team to recuperate from injuries received in a traffic accident following Monday night's game. (See story at left).

Two of the Oilers remained hospitalized this morning, Manager Hershel Martin and pitcher Sad Sam Williams. Martin is suffering from a deep gash on his left arm and bruised head.

Both Martin and Williams are in Hendrick Memorial Hospital. The other two players injured in the wreck, I. B. Palmer and Slick Johnson, were admitted to St. Ann Hospital but both have been released.

Palmer received cuts and bruises about his head. Johnson suffered an injured leg. Both were released last night after treatment.

None of the other Oilers was injured. The Oilers, although Abilene won Monday's game, lead the playoff series, 2-1. The fourth and fifth games will be played here Wednesday and Thursday with the sixth and seventh games, if necessary, being played in Pampa Friday and Saturday.

Chiang's Counter Thrust Halts Reds

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 —UP— American officials said Tuesday that Nationalist China's hard-hitting defense of battered Quemoy seems to have "deterred" Red China from any immediate attempt to take the outpost.

They doubted, however, that the Reds have abandoned hope of eventually seizing the tiny island a few miles off the Chinese mainland.

State and Defense Department officials, meanwhile, parried all questions on what the United States would be willing to do to help the Nationalist forces hold Quemoy. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles made it clear the United States wants to keep the Chinese Reds guessing.

Officials pointed to declining Communist activity opposite Quemoy as a sign that the Reds have been at least temporarily discouraged from launching an invasion.

These experts said the Red fleet of junks which had been massed in the area has taken a heavy pounding from the Nationalist forces, thus making it more difficult for the Communists to try a water crossing.

Gas Plant Recovered From Blasts

The Cities Service Gas Co. plant, two miles southeast of Pampa, now has full capacity for operation, following two plant-ripping explosions in less than two months.

C. D. Anderson, plant superintendent, late this morning said that full operation of the plant's facilities could be underway when necessary.

All that remains to be done at the plant site is the erection of four buildings: combination bath and warehouse, dehydration house and fuel house. Braden Steel Co., Tulsa, Okla., will do the erection, Anderson said.

An explosion June 23 destroyed a cooling tower, tank of natural gas, three small buildings and 15 automobiles and injured two persons, one of whom subsequently died. A blast Aug. 14 followed the earlier one. Both occurred in a 20-inch high-pressure gas pipeline.

20 Firms Owe Occupation Tax

Twenty delinquent occupation tax accounts were turned over to the police department Monday for notification, according to City Tax Collector Aubrey Jones.

The breakdown shows 10 alcoholic beverage concerns, seven dance halls, skating rink, and second hand dealers. Three skill-machine and juke-box operators failed to meet the Friday deadline set for payment of the licenses. No fines will be levied for late payment, Jones said.

From the beginning, these authorities said, the Communists may only have wanted to test Quemoy's defense. If so, they have found the island well defended and able to take care of itself, they said.

Capital Kids Fool Scoffers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 —UP— The capital's 98,000 school children, Negro and white alike, have passed the year's first test with flying colors.

Monday their broadmindedness and courtesy was measured in a way that would give pause to many an adult. It was the first day of school, but a first day different from any they had experienced before.

For the first time white and colored children did not separate at the school house door. They entered together and sat down in the same classrooms. Some white children had colored teachers and vice versa. Negro and white boys signed up for the same football teams. In a day or two, when full sessions start, they'll all be eating in the same lunch rooms, regardless of race.

Period of Integration Integration is taking place here over a one-year period.

Some people said there were bound to be disturbances when youngsters who have always been racially separated are brought together in the same building, to live and work and play together as a single group. So the authorities dispatched a policeman to each school.

All the police could find to do was direct traffic. Washington school children, from kindergarten through high school, got a straight A in their first course in interracial living.

Gray Budget Airing Friday

There will be a public hearing at 10 a.m. Friday in the County Courtroom on the Gray County budget and tax rate for 1955.

County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr. announced the time and date Monday afternoon during the regular session of the county commissioners' court.

Estimated budget for 1955 is $751,231.66 and the tax rate, which will probably not change, is $1.16 per $100 of evaluation.

County commissioners Monday spent a good part of the afternoon going over the proposed budget, item by item.

Fund Started To Promote Canadian

CANADIAN — (Special) — Canadian residents, including Santa Fe employees, Monday night contributed more than $4,000 to a fund to promote the city, following the announcement Sept. 4 of the transfer of the Santa Fe freight terminal from Canadian to Amarillo.

A seven-man committee, headed by Mayor Malouf Abraham, was named this morning to manage the fund and will hold its first planning session tonight, according to Ben Ezzell, Canadian newspaperman.

Abraham, who chaired the town hall meeting Monday night in the city auditorium, told the more-than-300 persons present that the City of Canadian would give 50 cents to the fund for every dollar contributed. The Canadian City Commission had already approved such a move, Ezzell reported late this morning.

The total — individual and city contributions — should amount to some $7,000 or $8,000, Abraham told Ezzell this morning. There were 93 contributors who gave from $1 to $250. Santa Fe employees who are moving to Amarillo were among them, Ezzell said.

Named to the committee, in addition to Mayor Abraham, are: (See FUND, Page 2)

British To Pull Troops From Korea

LONDON, Sept. 14 —UP— The British Commonwealth nations announced Tuesday they are withdrawing two-thirds of their forces from Korea, following the example set by the United States.

The announcement was made shortly after South Korean Ambassador Myo Mook Lee called at the British foreign office.

Gen. Sir John Harding, chief of the imperial general staff, had hinted at the British withdrawal earlier when it was announced four of the six U.S. divisions now in Korea would be shifted to bases elsewhere.

City Tax Structure Told Women Voters

Aubrey Jones, city tax assessor-collector, and Fred Brook, city manager, were featured speakers at the League of Women Voters meeting Monday noon. The program was on the city tax structure.

Jones began his talk by explaining the city government set-up in relation to the tax structure. The people elect the mayor and city commission who in turn appoint or hire, the city auditor, city attorney, city manager, Tax Advisory Board and the Board of Equalization, he pointed out. To those five individuals or groups, the tax assessor-collector is responsible. Under the assessor-collector are the deputy tax collector and book-keeper; the tax and real estate clerk; the deputy registrar of vital statistics; and the deputy assessor and real estate appraiser.

For the valuations, a "price menu" approved by the board of equalization, is used, Jones explained. Only major changes in a building would change the valuation, he added, and these would show up in building permits. The board of equalization, appointed by the city commission, is not accountable to the mayor, commission or tax office, he pointed out.

Four Tax Periods There are four periods during the year for the tax department, Jones stated. The first, January through March, is the assessment period and April through June is the time the board of equalization meets, when the tax assessor-collector's records are turned over to that group. July through September is "roll making time" and a period of checking for errors. The job of raising or lowering valuations belongs to the board of equalization, Jones advised. It is not done by the tax-assessor. The man in the field, the deputy assessor and real estate appraiser, fill in a worksheet on the details and features of a building, as it is being constructed and before anyone moves in. This is taken to the tax assessor-collector's office where the structure is then classified.

W. P. Stinson Rites Today; Died Monday

Services for Walter Preston Stinson, 85, former Young County commissioner, mayor and school principal, will be at 4 p.m. today in the Duenkel-Carmichael Chapel. He died Monday in Highland General Hospital of a cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Stinson came to Pampa in 1945 and made his home with a son, Jerry, at 1201 Garland. Another son, Reno, is public relations director here for the Cabot Companies.

A native of Columbus, Ga., he came to Texas in 1885 settling at Fort Worth, and five years later moved to Ellaville where for six years he taught and was principal of the public school. After several years of farming he was elected a commissioner of Young County in 1908.

For eight years, beginning in 1912, Mr. Stinson was county judge in Young County, and was elected mayor of Graham in 1920 for two terms. Until his retirement in 1943 he operated and owned a grocery business in Ellaville. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery, beside his wife, Lucy, who died in 1951. Officiating will be Rev. Woodrow Adcock, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

In addition to two sons in Pampa, he is survived by another son, Tom, of Rotan; two grandchildren, Reggie Stinson, Rotan, and Mrs. E. J. Griffin, Jr., Pampa, and two great-grandchildren, Peggy Griffin, and Cathy Griffin, both of Pampa.

Palbearers will be A. L. Wooley, Henry Link, George Adams, Charles Mullican, H. H. Butler and James McCune.

Maine Voters Choose Demo For Governor

By JOHN E. BYRNE

PORTLAND, Maine, Sept. 14 —UP— Maine voters sent the political weathervane spinning dizzily Tuesday by electing their first Democratic governor in 20 years, while returning to office every major Republican candidate.

Edmund S. Muskie, an official under the Truman administration, scored a thumping upset over Republican Gov. Burton M. Cross, defeating him by about 20,000 votes in Monday's first-in-the-nation election.

But while Cross was losing in his bid for a second two-year term, GOP Sen. Margaret Chase Smith and Republican Reps. Robert Hale, Charles P. Nelson and Clifford E. McIntire easily won re-election.

Returns from 606 of the state's 626 precincts showed Muskie leading Cross 135,992 to 133,450. Sen. Smith had 143,135 votes, against 101,220 for Galby College history professor Paul Fullam, the Democratic candidate.

Mrs. Smith's majority was somewhat less than the 159,182 to 64,074 victory she scored six years ago over Portland dermatologist Adrien Scoulen in her first bid for the Senate.

Muskie, in upsetting Cross — the first time a Republican governor has been denied a second term in Maine — attributed his victory to "the need for a change."

"My election was a crystallization of a long-time general feeling that all was not right with state affairs," Muskie said. "It is also possible the national climate affected the voters."

Czechs Fire On US Patrol

HEIDELBERG, Germany, Sept. 14 —UP— Czechoslovak Communist border guards fired on American soldiers patrolling the Iron Curtain frontier near Baernau Monday, the U.S. Army headquarters here said Tuesday.

The Army announcement said the Czechs fired about 35 shots. None of the American patrol was injured, and there was no property damage.

Troop officials said the U.S. Army did not return the Communist fire.

The incident was the second of similar type in four days.

On Sept. 9 an Army patrol from the first U.S. Reconnaissance Company was fired upon by Communist frontier guards near Lichtenberg, which fronts on Red East Germany, 30 miles northwest of Baernau.

CITY TAX
last period, October through December, is the collection period. The city's tax year and fiscal year begins Oct. 1, he said. Brook spoke on the mechanics of preparing a city budget and where and how the tax money is used. The amount of tax is determined by the city tax ordinance and the city budget, he pointed out. The 1953 rate was $1.75 per $100 valuation, he explained. Of this amount, 75 cents was used for bonded indebtedness and $1 for the general fund, the board of city development and the library. Of that $1.87 per cent went into the general fund, 10 per cent went to the Board of City Development and 1 per cent went to the library. The taxpayer whose property has an assessed valuation of $2,360 pays $41.46 per month for city services," Brook explained. The amount to each service, on this basis, is 10 cents to the park; 8 cents for garbage; 6 cents for health inspections; 5 cents to the city shop and warehouse; 6 cents to the library; 20 cents to the board of city development; $1.47 for bonded indebtedness; 4 cents to the contingency fund (emergency reserve); 15 cents for administration; 8 cents to the tax office; 4 cents to operation and maintenance of chamber of commerce; 20 cents to the fire department; 35 cents to the police department; 9 cents for engineering and inspection; and 47 cents to the street department. The city budget is formed by the mayor, the commission and the city manager, Brook stated. The steps include a meeting of the 13 department heads, and library and board of city development representatives, to discuss operating expenses in relation to the city budget. These heads then submit a tentative itemized budget, each of which is reviewed and "pared" individually with the department head. These budgets are then combined. The city manager then gathers figures on the bond and interest payments due during the year and the costs of the library and board of city development. He asks for a tentative tax valuation figure to get an idea of the amount of taxes to be collected. All these items go into making up the city budget, Brook stated. He then files a proposed budget and tax rate with the city commission. It "rests" for 15 days while the commission's study and check it. Then a public hearing is held when the public gets a chance to make recommendations to the city commission. Another 15 days must elapse before the budget is adopted and made into an ordinance. After this is done, the tax rate is set and made into an ordinance. Data Goes To Austin Copies of the budget are filed with the city clerk, city secretary and with the comptroller general in Austin, Brook pointed out. The comptroller generally is to check them and to guard the people against "misappropriation of funds." The speakers were introduced by Mrs. A. D. Hills, chairman of the league's study of the local tax structure. The invocation was presented by Mrs. Frank Cuberson. During the business session, it was announced that a meeting will be held at 10 a.m. Sept. 23, in the home of Mrs. George Hrdlicka, 219 Christmas, to distribute material for the group's finance cam-

UF Advance Drive Gets Big Response
John Campbell, 1954 United Fund co-chairman, late this morning reported a "good response" to the more-than-600 letters that went out last week to those who contributed in the 1953 advance drive. He asked that all such donations to the drive be made by Sept. 23. On the morning of Sept. 23, the date of the 1954 advance drive, the replies will be canvassed and those not contributing will be contacted. The main drive will be held Oct. 5, with about 500 volunteers working Pampa industrial and business concerns. No house-to-house canvases will be made. Fund officials have asked that all contributors use bank drafts for their donations as it makes it easier for all concerned.

Louis Cabot To Keynote Meet Here
Management conference of the southwestern division of the Cabot Companies will get underway at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Hughes Building, to be keynoted by Louis Cabot, treasurer of the company, and grandson of Godfrey Lovell Cabot, in an address on, "What and How We are Doing." The twenty-second semi-annual conference, under the chairmanship of E. L. Layne will discuss, "and attempt to solve mutual management problems; to bring together thinking on policies and procedures, and to facilitate communication up and down the supervisory line," according to H. S. Prince, job relations instructor. In addition to Louis Cabot, Ray Rossman, in charge of sales, and Bill Glidden, head of property insurance, will attend the two-day conference from the main offices in Boston. George Cash of the Sarnia Ontario plant will also be in attendance.

The owner-operator of the bus line said it was financially necessary, that it would mean a bus run every hour, instead of every 30 minutes. Howell has been in charge of the city bus line for about a year. The city commission will meet both Sept. 27 and Sept. 28, the former so that persons participating in Pampa's second annual Business-Industry-Education Day can see how a city commission session is handled. Commissioners this morning decided on the extra session. They will meet at 9 a.m. both days. In other action, the commission: (1) passed the third and final reading of an ordinance to close the public hearing on the paving of the 1400-block of Williston. (2) okayed the paving of the 700-block of N. Faulkner. (3) passed a sewer-line contract for Mrs. J. W. Morris in the Young's Second Addition. (4) turned down a request by Waldon Moore for a passenger loading zone. (5) received the final tabulation on bids for valves and fittings. (6) okayed library bills amounting to $147.42 and further approved a $15.45 petty cash fund.

First Gray County Cotton Bale Ginned

McLEAN — (Special) — J. L. Andrews, who lives three miles southwest of McLean, is the first man in Gray County to have a bale of cotton ginned this year.

It was brought to the McLean cotton gin late Saturday and ginned Monday, according to Gin Mgr. B. F. Holland. Andrews brought in 1,750 pounds of seed cotton which amounted to 502 pounds of ginned cotton.

Holland graded the cotton, ginned two days earlier than the first bale in 1953, as strict middling with a loan value of 32 1/2 cents a pound. The bale amounted to 850 pounds of cotton seed, worth $60 per ton.

McLean merchants today were making a purse for Andrews as his prize for delivering the county's first bale of cotton. Holland ginned it free.

Holland late this morning said the county cotton crop this year was all tile above average and he expected some of the farmers to begin harvesting feed the latter part of this week. He expects three or four more bales of cotton this week.

END OF SEGREGATION LINE

A Negro child and a white child face each other in a classroom as racial integration was started in many southern schools for the first time in U. S. history. This classroom is at Ft. Myer, Va., elementary school, operated for children of military personnel. The Defense Department ordered the end of segregation.

Ex-Marine To Spearhead Fight To Preserve White Culture

By EDITH KERMIT ROOSEVELT
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 — UP — A determined ex-marine sergeant from Florida said Saturday he will press his fight for "preservation of white culture" in the face of the Supreme Court's no-school-segregation ruling.

Bryant W. Bowles, 34-year-old president of the National Association for the Advancement of White People, this week chalked up the first tentative legal victory of his outfit's nine months of existence.

Baltimore Superior Court Judge John T. Tucker, in response to a petition from the "NAAWP" and a citizens' committee, gave the Baltimore school board 15 days to show why it should not be required to restore the city's schools to a segregated basis.

Opened to All
Baltimore's schools were opened on a non-segregated basis for the first time last Tuesday. The NAAWP and the Maryland petition committee of Jessup, Md., claim the city's code requires segregated schools.

This temporary advantage was offset in Washington where Federal Judge Henry A. Schweinhart this week denied an injunction sought by the Federation of Citizens Associations to block desegregation of the capital's schools when they reopen next Monday.

Bowles was undismayed by the Washington ruling. He said he plans "to seek a constitutional amendment giving the states full power to deal with segregation regardless of the federal government's attitude."

The youthful veteran, who quit school after high school and joined the Marines at the age of 19, said he is "not afraid" to fight for his "right to free speech" in favor of segregation despite all opposition.

40 More Years
"I figure according to the insurance statistics that I got some 40 more years to live and I'm going to die whooping and hollerin' for the white race," he said in an interview.

"If I go to jail I want to be sure it's in the South. Jails are segregated there."

Bowles chartered his NAAWP, similar in name to the long-established National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), on Dec. 14, 1953.

"Bowles, previously in the contracting business in Tampa and Baltimore, said he sold his auto to obtain capital for his organization."

"In the beginning I skipped meals to buy stamps," he said. "Now we can buy lots of stamps." Memberships cost $5 and with those, plus donation, "we just about break even now," he said.

Just One Goal
NAAWP membership cards state the organization is open to all white U. S. citizens over 18 who "believe in separation of the races of mankind." Bowles is trying to recruit followers by mailing application blanks to newspapers, lodges and other groups across the nation. He said he has sent out a quarter-million pro-white pamphlets since his organization was started.

Bowles declined to give his total membership to date except that he expects it to be around 50,000 by Jan. 1, 1955.

He refuses to publish names of members without their written permission, but claimed several congressmen and senators are "undercover" members.

Employment Peak Is Due By October

Pampa should be reaching a peak either this month or in October in the employment situation.

Bill Ragdale, Pampa Texas Employment commission manager, late this morning said, however, that employment activity is a "little bit under" that of 1953 at the same time of year. Farming and construction, two of the major employment aspects, have produced few employment demands.

The manager, though, has been getting some good jobs to fill, particularly in the secretarial field, and has been doing so. The fall cotton and feeds crops in the near future should be producing some jobs, he feels.

Donkey Ball Teams Named

There will be three teams competing in the donkey softball game, scheduled Sept. 27-28 in Oiler Park.

City Fathers and Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce members will comprise two of the teams in the JayCee-sponsored outing, according to John Jones, tournament promoter. Doug Mills, owner of the Oilers, has donated the use of Oiler Park for the contest.

Among those slated to perform aboard the donkeys are Rufe (Shifty Shortstop) Jordan, Aaron (Slamin' A) Sturgeon, Malcolm (Stinky) Brown, Ed (The Salesman) Myatt, Floyd (Swatkin) Watson, Jim (Stinger) McCine, Joe (Towering) Tooley, Cliff (Fastball) Whitney, Jack (Speedster) Edmondson, Cliff ("I'd rather play basketball") McNeely, Calvin (Crusher) Jones and Tom (Smiley) Perkins.

Current plans call for the JayCees to play both nights, bones and muscles willing. They'll play the City Fathers one night and the third, as yet unidentified team, the second.

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Raging flames destroyed a half-block of the downtown area in the 100-block of E. Kingsmill, and left as total losses Johnson's Cafe, Melody Manor, and Emloe Cleaners, and heavily damaging the Sportsman's Store. Estimated damage ran about $100,000.

The Pampa Park Board recommended construction of the precinct No. 2 county barn, and show arena.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY

The Love and Seeds Additions became a part of Pampa proper. City Attorney Bob Gordon prepared the ordinance bringing the additions inside the city limits.

Word was received that M-Sgt. Davis A. Brown, Army recruiting officer here, was not stricken with polio.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

FBI authorities in Amarillo reported the escape of a German war prisoner, Gunter Arndt, from the McLean prison camp.

Don G. Pumphrey, 316 N. Somerville, received word from his brother, Lt. A. T. Pumphrey, that the war in Europe was on its last legs. The officer was recovering from wounds received in the French theatre of operations.

'Incidents' Few In Schools That Observe Desegregation

ATLANTA, Sept. 14 — UP — Mixed public school classrooms in segregated states, became a week old at scattered points along the South's "border" Monday and there had been no reported "incidents."

But the week was marked by behind-the-scenes conferences and court skirmishes in those states and by new steps in Georgia and Mississippi toward abolishing public schools, if necessary, to prevent racial mingling.

In a George Democratic primary voters chose as next governor Marvin Griffin, a down-the-line supporter of the so-called "private school" plan, of outgoing Gov. Herman Talmadge. Constitutional groundwork for the plan goes before Georgia voters in November.

Talmadge said Sunday night on NBC-TV's "Youth Wants to Know" program that "no force whatever could compel" admission of Negroes and whites in the same schools in Georgia.

He said he saw "nothing whatever to be gained except trouble and perhaps bloodshed" from such a move. Any attempt for the Supreme Court to implement its anti-segregation ruling, he said, would be "the most dreadful thing we have known since the period of reconstruction" of the South following the war between the states.

In a special session of the Mississippi legislature the House adopted a similar constitutional amendment proposal last week and Monday sent it to the Senate, which is expected to have it ready for a popular vote next December.

Meanwhile, a historic classroom integration got its limited start in states along the fringe of the segregation belt — in Missouri, Arizona, West Virginia, Maryland and Delaware — without any reported friction among pupils.

Deeper in the South, groups of Negro parents were turned away when they demanded use of white schools at Hutchins, Tex., Montgomery, Ala., and Baton Rouge, La.

Pampan's Father Dies In Oklahoma

Funeral services were held Saturday in Ada, Okla., for Sam Patton, 78, father of Mrs. O. L. Ray, Box 1643, Pampa.

Mr. Patton, a retired farmer, died Friday of a heart attack in Ada. He had been living at Sulphur, Okla.

Other survivors included a brother, Arthur of Wichita Falls; seven grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Amarillo Lady Lost 25 Pounds With Barcontrate

"I weighed 173 pounds when I commenced taking Barcontrate" writes Mrs. S. Grant Troxell, 3103 Tyler Street, Amarillo, Texas. "I lost 25 pounds. I lost as much as 1 1/2 pounds a day taking Barcontrate."

Buyer Killed In Argument

HOUSTON, Sept. 14 — UP — A San Antonio fruit buyer was fatally shot and a bystander was wounded to climax an argument over sleeping in a truck at the farmers market at midnight Sunday night.

The victim was Benny Guajardo, 25. The bystander was David Cuevas, 39, Westaco.

Market Master L. A. Bratton and witnesses said Guajardo and Andrew Barlanga, 24, also of San Antonio, refused to obey a market rule about sleeping in their produce truck and began to throw apples at Bratton when he asked them to leave.

Bratton said the men finally threatened him with knives and he had to draw his guns. Barlanga ran, he said, but Guajardo advanced on him with a knife and he fired at him.

Police released Bratton on his own recognizance pending further investigation. Justice of the Peace D. F. Thompson withheld a verdict.

Jane Talk

By JANE KADINGO
Pampa News Women's Editor

WHILE WINDOW SHOPPING yesterday, I noticed several styles that appeared again and again in the displays of Pampa dress shops. One of these was the princess-style dress, which I for one, am very glad to see come back. I think it is most flattering to every type of figure except the very tall, very slim silhouette. It's also so youthful, and easy to get into. According to the fashion experts, it's a style that is slated for great popularity this fall and winter.

ANOTHER TREND I noticed was the fullness of the skirts. The days of the straight skirt are gone—for a while, at least. You do find them still in suit modes, but for general skirt-blouse or sweater-skirt combinations, the rule is the fuller the better. Petticoats are also getting fuller and stiffer. I noticed, undoubtedly due to the skirt influence, wonder if the frilly petticoats that are "supposed to show" will ever be in vogue again? The turtle-neck sweater and cardigan combination was another ensemble I noticed frequently. I've always loved the turtle-neck although I can't wear them with my short neck.

AFTER STUDYING the DIOR look in fashion releases I've received and in magazines, I've begun to think his flat look isn't so revolutionary as it first seemed. It might be. Although his suit fashions carry out his flat look, the evening gowns and most of the street dresses don't seem to show it. It might be as one person commented to me recently: "Maybe the model has something to do with it." All in all, I don't think we need worry too much about it. I, for one, think it was all highly overrated. We're in no danger of reverting to the styles of the "roaring 20s."

WHEN THINKING of fashions and shopping, we always seem to think of the women's or children's side of it. We sort of forget about the adult males. This was brought home to me the other day while reading an article from the AMER-ICAN SOCIETY OF DESIGN on the "little things" to look for when shopping for a man's suit. Maybe this will be of interest to the men, too. AB CONWAY told my husband he thought I should put in a few jokes now and then so the column would be of more interest to men. I haven't found any jokes yet, but this article might be of some value to the male population.

"A thorough check of all the little details of construction and tailoring pays off when shopping for a man's suit. Fine buttons, neat and strong buttonholes, closely-woven pocketing, good quality cotton facings, and even the kind of sewing thread used all help a prospective purchaser to judge whether the garment is likely to be serviceable and a good buy, according to the experienced craftsmen who make made-to-measure clothes.

"The best buttons are tip top, which are distinguished by their natural, soft polish. Least expensive, but less likely to withstand the rigors of dry cleaning, are plastic buttons.

"Look for neatly worked, flexible buttonholes, handworked with silk twist or with close, even machine stitches. Examine both sides and make sure a strong bar has been worked at the end to keep them from fraying or tearing with use.

"Pull the pockets inside out to see how good they are. Twilled cotton, called silesia, is the best pocketing. It is soft, lightweight, closely woven, and made to take the rub and pull of regular use. The best material for trousers, jackets is closely woven cotton twill. It may be white, cream-colored or gray.

"Check the quality of thread used for any hand stitching. If matching silk was used, especially in the armholes, shoulder seams and to sew in the lining of the coat, the thread will add to the garment's softness because of its elasticity."

CORPSMAN AND MRS. B. J. FISHER

Joan Beauchamp And Billy Joe Fisher Marry In Shamrock Methodist Church

SHAMROCK—(Special)—Miss Joan Beauchamp, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Beauchamp of Shamrock, became the bride of Corpsman Billy Joe Fisher of Port Huene, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fisher of Denver City, August 27, in the First Methodist Church. Rev. D. D. Denison of Abilene and Rev. Beauchamp officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. D. D. Denison of Abilene, organist, played a prelude of wedding music. She played "Indian Love Call," as candles were lighted by Miss Ann Hamill and Tim Tindall, and accompanied Miss Pat Dunn as she sang "Because," "At Dawning," and "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional wedding marches were played.

Vows were exchanged before an arch entwined with fern and decorated with miniature silver wedding bells and blue satin ribbon bows. Flanking the satin kneeling bench were tall baskets of white asters and candelabra with white tapers.

Miss Cathy Beauchamp, sister of the bride was maid of honor. She wore a dress of pale blue dotted nylon, fashioned with a fitted bodice, a rolled collar which extended into a bow in the back, to form a V neckline, and short sleeves. The full skirt fell in soft pleats. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Miss Sonja Beebe of Norwalk, Calif., cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a dress of pink dotted nylon designed identically to the dress worn by the maid of honor. Her flowers were blue carnations. Their headresses were bands on matching flowers.

Miss Cathy Porter of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was attired in a dress of pale green dotted nylon fashioned along similar lines as the dresses worn by the attendants. She wore a headband of pink carnations and carried a basket of pink petals.

Steve Fisher of Amarillo was ring bearer.

Dennis Bell of Midland, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. The bridegroom's father also served as an attendant to his son. Ushers were Richard Cook and Ted Harrison.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a bridal gown of white lace and tulle. Lace petals finished the neckline of the molded lace bodice and the long lace sleeves ended in points over a deep apron, edged in tulle ruffles, over the extremely full waist-length skirt, worn over white satin.

A pearl embroidered half hat held her waist-length veil of illusion. The bride's bouquet of white carnations on a base of white net showed with streamers of white ribbon tied in love knots, was carried over a white Bible.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of navy blue sheer complemented with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of pink linen accented with white accessories. Both wore corages of white carnations.

The reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents. Forming the receiving line were the bride couple, their parents, and the feminine attendants.

Decorations featured tall white baskets of white asters and arrangements of blue asters in silver containers. In the dining room the table was centered with a silver epergne of blue pompons, flanked with silver candelabra bearing tall blue tapers. Silver appointments completed the setting.

Mrs. Joe Gilmore of Amherst, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Mrs. Dennis Bell of Midland, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Grady Porter of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, alternated at the punch bowl. Guests were registered by Miss Beverly Stone.

For travel, the bride wore a tailored grey suit with yellow accessories.

Following a wedding trip to points in the Western states the couple will be at home in Oxnard, Calif.

White Deer SS Class Elects New Officers

WHITE DEER—(Special)—The Every Ready Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Albert Matheson.

During the business session, officers for the year were elected. Mrs. C. R. Pickens was elected the new teacher; Mrs. Huelyn Laycock, president; Mrs. Florette Burns, vice-president and Mrs. Loyd Collis, Secretary-treasurer.

Two groups were chosen for the quarterly membership and attendance contest. Captains for the two groups are Mmes. Biggs Horn and Albert Matheson, with Mmes. Ray Roles and Leonard Ballard assisting.

Federal Girls Club Has Initiation Rite

A new member and a leader were initiated at a recent meeting of the Pampa Federal Girls in the IOOF Hall. The member was Miss Mildred Johnson, and the leader was Mrs. Pearl Castka of the Rebekah Lodge.

Following the initiation, Loyd Brummett of the Junior Odd Fellows, talked about a picnic.

Leaders are Mmes. Homer McNeil and Castka.

AROUND THE SPORTS WORLD

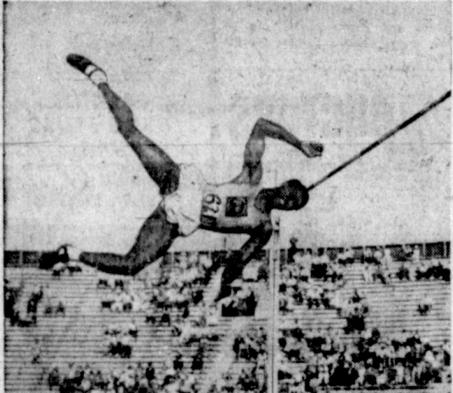

FAIR EXCHANGE—Brooklyn's Preacher Roe autographs a new glove for Jimmy Reed, 8, at Ebbets Field, N. Y. Roe had tossed his glove into the stands during a game, believing it unlucky. Little Jimmy returned the glove to Roe, who gave the boy a new glove and ball.

WILLIE DIDN'T MAKE IT—New York Giants' outfielder Willie Mays raises a dust storm as he slides into second base as Milwaukee shortstop Johnny Logan flips the ball to first in an attempt to double up on the batter. Umpire Lon Warneke calls Willie out in the game at the Polo Grounds. The Giants slid out in this game, too, taking a drubbing from the Braves.

NAUTICAL WINDMILL—This unique sailing craft being rigged by a group of men at Cowes, England, has three pontoons and rotating sails. The mast and booms revolve like a turnstile, catching and spilling the wind. Named the "Trion," the boat was designed by Hugh Barkla, scientist and lecturer at Edinburgh University, Scotland.

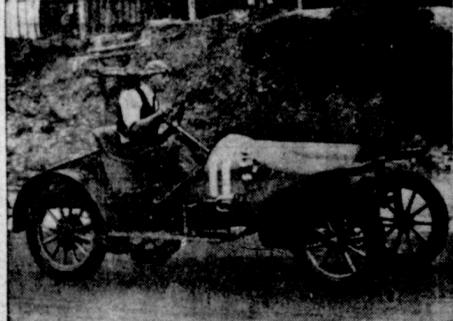

HIGH JUMPER—N. Osagie, of Nigeria, falls earthward after clearing the bar at six feet, six and a quarter inches, during the British Empire Games at Vancouver, B. C.

PRETTY GUARD—Many a husky male will be yelling for help in Traverse City, Mich., with petite Margaret Bonner on the job as life-guard. Although only 17, Margaret has passed a series of rigid tests to qualify for her job.

COUPLE OF SPEEDSTERS—Australia's John Landy, left, and England's Dr. Roger Bannister breathe hard after a workout prior to running the "miracle mile" in the British Empire Games at Vancouver, B. C., Canada. Bannister beat Landy in the mile run. His time was 3:58.8, and Landy was right behind him with a 3:59.6 clocking.

IN THE RUNNING—Sir Francis Samuelson peers ahead as his 1908 Sizaire Naudin eats up mileage in the Edwardian Trophy Race during the International Trophy Meeting at Brands Hatch, Kent, England. Official starter for the race was the Bishop of Rochester. Members of the Half Litre Car Club asked him to do the honors by way of marking the 1350th anniversary of the foundation of the Diocese of Rochester.

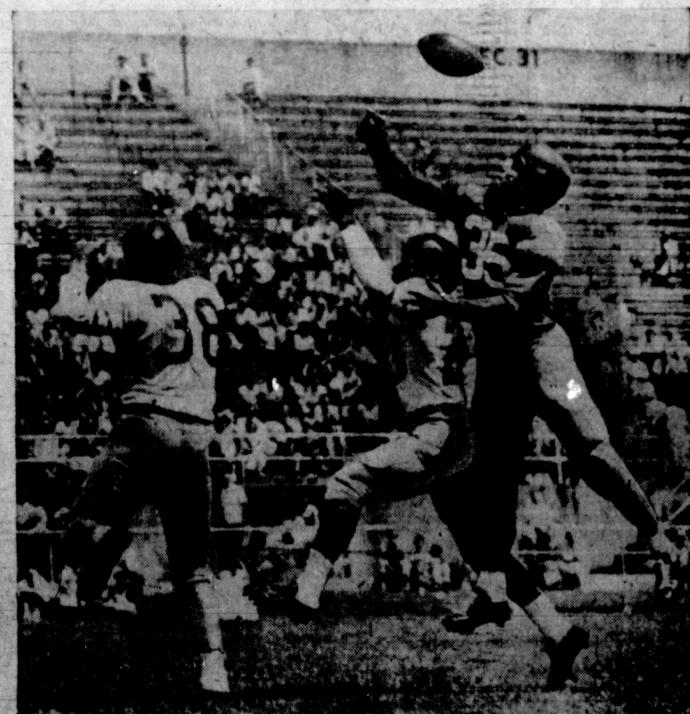

PLASTIC GOES TO SEA—The British have caught up with sea-going plastic with this light-as-a-feather and lightning-fast speedboat being demonstrated at Cowes, England. Piloting the swift craft, with his wife as a passenger, is the boat's designer, John Hutchins.

OUTFIELD TUMBLE—Brooklyn Dodgers' outfielder Jackie Robinson hits the turf as he catches a line drive to left by Cincinnati's Bobby Adams at Ebbets Field. There was lots of hitting in this game before the Dodgers crushed the Redlegs by a score of 20-7.

PRACTICE SESSION—In an inter-squad game at Hershey, Pa., the Philadelphia Eagles' Don Stevens, center, and Bob Hudson (38) knock down a pass intended for Pete Pihos (35). The Eagles held open house at Hershey Stadium and entertained 10,000 guests.

Nine States Hold Primaries Today

By UNITED PRESS
Voters selected nominees in nine state primaries Tuesday, virtually completing the line-up of opponents for the Nov. 2 elections in which Democrats and Republicans will fight it out for control of Congress.

States holding primaries were Colorado, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New York, Utah, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin.

Five Senate seats will be open among the nine states in November, two in New Hampshire and one each in Colorado, Massachusetts and Minnesota.

Of 91 House seats held by the nine states, 61 are now occupied by Republicans and 30 by Democrats.

Tuesday's nominations will virtually complete the ballots for the fall elections.

Here is how Tuesday's primaries shaped up:

NEW YORK STATE
New York will select nominees for 43 House seats. In a strange turn, John D. Young of Painted Post, opposing Rep. W. Sterling Cole for Republican nomination in the 37th District Republican primary, urged supporters to vote for Cole.

The situation developed because Cole has been expecting federal appointment as U.S. comptroller and Young's name was placed on the ballot in case Cole had to withdraw. Most primary contests were among Democrats in New York City.

COLORADO
About 90,000 Democrats, slightly more than usual, and 70,000 Republicans, about normal, were expected to participate in primaries held under partly cloudy skies with a threat of showers in mountain areas. Denver Mayor Quigg Newton and former Rep. John A. Carroll closed their bitter fight for the Democratic senatorial nomination with radio appeals. Lt. Gov. Gordon Allott was unopposed for the GOP nomination. None of four incumbent congressmen — two Republicans and two Democrats — was opposed for renomination.

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson and Donald G. Brozman, a state legislator, also were unopposed for their respective Democratic and Republican gubernatorial nominations.

MASSACHUSETTS
Republican Sen. Leverett Saltonstall had no primary opposition and state Treasurer Foster Furcolo had the endorsement of the Democratic state convention over three other candidates for the senatorial nomination. The incumbent GOP governor, Christian A. Herter, also was unopposed for renomination while most of the present congressmen had no opposition, including Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. and Democratic whip John W. McCormack.

MINNESOTA
Democratic Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, picked by Republicans as a major target in their fight for congressional control, faced two opponents. But so did Val Johnson, handpicked by GOP leaders as the most likely to succeed against Humphrey in November. For governor, incumbent C. Elmer Anderson was unopposed while Democrats chose between Paul A. Rasmussen and Orville L. Freeman who had organization backing.

The five present Republican congressmen and four Democrats all sought re-election and only three had opposition. They were Republicans Harold C. Hagen and M. Carl Anderson and Democrat Eugene J. McCarthy.

NEW HAMPSHIRE
Sen. John W. Upton, serving by appointment, had two opponents in a fight for renomination to the two remaining years in the term of the late Sen. Charles W. Tobey. Rep. Norris Cotton gave up an almost certain fifth term in the House to fight Upton and the third opponent was Wesley Powell, a young attorney who almost unseated Tobey in 1950. Four Democrats competed for nomination to run against GOP Sen. Styles Bridges for a full six-year term. Two men were competing in each party for the governor's nomination with incumbent

Red Tape Cut For Mercy Trip

DALLAS, Sept. 14 —UP— Red tape was cut in a weekend mercy flight in an effort to save the sight of an American boy living in Mexico City, the Times Herald said Monday in an exclusive story.

The newspaper sent a staff writer, John Fleming, to Nuevo Laredo Sunday with a tiny vial of medicine known as neo cortex epthalmic, where it was taken on another plane to Mexico City.

The medicine was for Jimmie Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wagner, who live in Mexico City. The boy's face was seriously burned Friday when he fell from a wall into a can of caustic soda.

The boy's mother has relatives here, the newspaper said, and she telephoned them for help. The medicine was here but the problem was to get it to Mexico City quickly.

A snarl of red tape arose when an effort was made to fly the medicine by commercial airlines.

The medicine is contraband and cannot be carried between the United States and Mexico, the newspaper said.

Hal Lewis, news editor of the Times Herald, spent eight hours in cutting through red tape. The acting American consul at Laredo, Anthony Starcevic, was contacted and arrangements made with Mexican officials to fly the medicine from the border city of Nuevo Laredo to Mexico City.

The medicine reached Mexico City and has been administered by his doctor who said it was the only medicine known that could save the boy's eyes.

Houston Child Dies Of Polio

HOUSTON, Sept. 14 —UP— A six-year-old girl died Sunday night and two new polio cases were reported Monday to bring the metropolitan area's polio total to 378 cases so far this year.

The death, the 15th here since Jan. 1, was that of Kathy Marston. She died of bulbar and spinal polio at Hedgecroft hospital where she was admitted Sept. 4.

The two new patients were Mrs. J. Bryant, 25, being treated at home for paralytic polio, and Mrs. Sonya McIntyre, 22, admitted to Hedgecroft as a paralytic case.

The 378 cases, including the 15 deaths, so far this year compares with 149 cases, and three deaths, for the corresponding period last year.

Benson Says Dairy Industry Now Adjusted

EVERETT, Wash., Sept. 14 —UP— Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson said Saturday the dairy industry has "successfully adjusted" to lower price supports he installed last spring.

This, Benson said, is the reason Congress defeated attempts to raise the supports to a higher level. He told a meeting of the State Co-Operative Council he is hopeful the market price will soon rise above support prices.

Benson also disputed claims that the return to flexible supports on other farm products "will bring about sharp reductions in farm prices and income."

He said most of the trouble has resulted from "trying to patch up the agricultural situation of today with the programs and tools of yesterday."

The administration's program, he said, is designed to "cure the real defects" and "help farmers to help themselves."

"These are the accomplishments that emphasize who is the real friend of the farmer," he said. "They are the things that will enable agriculture to enjoy full prosperity in the future."

Benson said the United States has "learned how to create abundance, but we have not yet learned well enough how to live with abundance."

His aim, he said, is "to bring record-breaking surpluses down to 'manageable proportions' so it will no longer be necessary for farmers to 'consult with Washington on the simplest decisions.'"

More than 50,000 prisoners of war in Korea attended classes of religious instruction during their captivity. The classes were conducted by former Missionaries who could speak the prisoners' language.

Family Seeks A Treasure Under House

Hugh Gregg not seeking re-election.

WISCONSIN

Gov. Walter J. Kohler was without opposition for GOP renomination while two Democrats, William Proxmire and James E. Doyle, sought the right to oppose him. The state's eight Republican and two Democratic congressmen sought renomination but only Republican Gardner Withrow was opposed — by two other candidates — in the third district.

UTAH

Fewer than 75,000 ballots, the lightest vote in recent years, were expected because of a lack of contests. Expected possible thunder-showers had no effect on the vote. The only contest resulted from the come-back bid of former Rep. Rev. Beck Bosome against Warwick C. Lamoreaux, a Salt Lake City attorney, for the second district Democratic nomination — and even their fight was a slow one.

VERMONT

The only fight on the ballots was between Lt. Gov. Joseph B. Johnson and state Sen. Henry D. Vail for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Moisture is the main cause of peeling paint. The moisture often comes from inside the house — from the kitchen or the bathroom.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 14 —UP— Julian Garcia and his family have dug a 31-foot hole beneath the kitchen in their home in a search for buried "treasure" and the question Monday was whether the hole would collapse.

Patrolman Enrique Salinas, answering neighbors' complaints of "digging noises" at 3 a. m. Sunday found five of the family busily hauling dirt and water out of the gaping hole under the kitchen was once and neatly piling the dirt in an adjoining room.

Garcia told Salinas he had torn up the kitchen floor two months ago and started digging the hole — 25 feet in circumference — because the Bible told him the "treasure," which he believed was gold, was buried 50 feet deep.

Garcia had the Bible and a lighted candle near the hole. He became angry when Salinas laughed at Garcia's determined announcement he had 20 feet to go in his "secret" project.

Salinas could only instruct Garcia not to excavate at night because the neighbors were bothered by the noises if a pulley used to haul up the dirt and water.

Aiding Salinas are his wife, two daughters and a son-in-law.

THAT WAS A DISAPPOINTING TURNOUT last night for the first Quarterback Club meeting of the 1954 season.

But guess there were several reasons that figured in on the small attendance. Two of the main reasons were (1) football fever hasn't hit full steam yet, and (2) many fans probably stayed home to listen to the play-by-play account of the Oiler-Abilene playoff series.

Then, too, it's true that first meetings of the club every fall are always the smallest during the season. Harvester coach Aubra Nooncaster told the group last night he had hoped that there would be a large crowd at last night's meeting so the club could have at least one good turnout for the year. "You all may not want to come to the meetings after we start playing," Nooncaster added.

Despite the small turnout last night, Nooncaster praised the work of the Quarterback Club. "You fellows have certainly been a big help to us down through the years and it's the kind of help that we could hardly do without," Noon said.

"I, along with the other coaches in our system, wish to express our appreciation to the QB Club for the fine help and cooperation the club has exhibited during the past several years," Nooncaster went on.

Well, the Quarterback Club will be meeting every Monday night during the football season so why not make plans now to attend all these meetings. There will be a movie shown at each meeting of the previous Harvester game plus the usual addresses of the coaches.

WE CAN'T KEEP FROM chuckling every time we get to thinking about the comment Hank Brown of KGNC-TV made several weeks ago when he said the Pampa Oilers didn't have balance.

The Oilers were in second place at the time but Brown said they probably wouldn't stay there because they lacked balance. In fact, he even hinted that the Oilers wouldn't even stay in the first division.

Well, the Oilers have never been lower than second place since Brown made his ill-fated statement and, of course, the Pampanians finished better than that—first place.

Getting back to his "balance" statement, though, the figures just don't bear him out. Amarillo had two 20-game winners among their pitching staff (Eddie Locke 24-14 and Len Ruyte 23-13) yet the Gold Soxers finished nine games back of the Oilers who didn't have a 20-game winner. But the Oilers had several consistent winners that paid off more than just having one or two. A glance at the Oiler pitching records show Vibert Clarke with 18-7; Jonas Gaines 16-7; Sam Williams 15-10; and Jose Valesquez 14-8.

Then the Oilers had six regulars who hit .300 or better. If that isn't balance, what is it? UNDERSTAND LITTLE ELMER will get his fourth letter award at Texas Tech, after all. The former Harvester star, as we have already mentioned in previous issues, suffered a concussion in a Texas Tech workout last week and was ordered by the Raider team physician to give up football.

But Elmer will remain with the team although not as a player. He will assist the Tech coaches and "more or less" serve as a "morale builder."

He will make all the trips with the Raiders and guess he just as well could be considered a member of the squad.

Wilson's injury came during a scrimmage season. The Raider first string defense was running against Texas A&M plays by another combination of Tech players.

Elmer was the quarterback on the "A&M" team and was accidentally kicked in the head by one of the Raiders' huge tackles (not Jerry Walker). He was knocked out for a few minutes but was revived shortly and remained on the field until after the workout.

The Tech coaches, though, had Elmer examined Saturday by the team physician at which time the Doc advised against Elmer's continuing his active playing career.

It was the third concussion for Elmer. The first came when he was a freshman at Tech. The second came in an oil field accident during the summer of 1952.

West Texas Hogs AA Grid Spotlight

West Texas teams hog the spotlight this week as Class AA school-boy football teams stage a 129-game program.

Top attraction will send experienced Mineral Wells against Comanche in a game due to be a high-scoring affair. Both clubs came through as expected with top-heavy victories in last week's openers.

But, two other contests will share the spotlight in that area as Colorado City hosts Ballinger and Andrews goes to Monahans.

Graham, another northern bracket powerhouse, tries Fort Worth Paschal in a Thursday night game. Some of the other top attractions scattered around the state include Kermitt at Wink, McCamey at Alpine, Atlanta at Pittsburg, Athens at Terrell, Nederland at Jasper, Mexico at LaVega, Lake View at Hamilton, New Braunfels at Lockhart, Hughes Springs at Dalinger, Crystal City at Eagle Pass, Pearsall at Devine, San Diego at Hebbronville, Weslaco at Harlingen.

Gold Sox Take Series Lead

First round playoff games are scheduled to resume at Abilene and Amarillo Tuesday night with Amarillo holding a 2 to 1 lead in games over Clovis and Pampa leading Abilene by the same margin.

Amarillo drew an ahead in its best-of-seven series against Clovis by beating the Pioneers 9 to 6. Dave Anderson pitched eight innings to get the win for Amarillo, giving up eight hits and six runs. Len Ruyte finished.

Scores by innings: Clovis 00 220 010-6 8 3 0 Amarillo 041 301 006-9 10 1 0 Sadler, Waugh, Job, Phillips, Venable and Warren; Anderson, Ruyte and Goff.

Sauer Claims Bears Greater Than '51 Team

(Editor's Note: This is another in a series devoted to prospects of Southwest Conference football teams.)

WACO, Sept. 14 —UP—Coach George Sauer declares the Baylor Bears this fall are potentially greater than the 1951 Baylor crew which finished second in the Southwest Conference and went to the Orange Bowl.

And, the brash young Baylor mentor may be right—if. Much depends upon how well the finest crop of sophomores in Baylor history fit into varsity shoes.

Sauer seems to think the fledglings will come through. In fact, he says competition is so fierce on his squad that only All-American tackle prospect James Ray Smith among the veterans is assured of keeping his starting berth.

Eleven Lettermen With the opener against Houston less than a week away, 10 of Baylor's 11 lettermen still are running on the first team.

The lone exception is Henry Rutherford, a junior squadman, at right guard. Sauer's hopes got a rude jolt last week when sophomore quarterback Doyle Traylor underwent surgery for a shoulder separation which might put him out of action anywhere from three weeks to the full season. Traylor had been running on even terms with Hooper.

Five Fine Ends There are five fine soph ends who are sure to see plenty of action. George Stinson, Tony DeGrazier, Dave McNair, Porter Smith and Gerald Meyer — plus Henry Grimmering, a squadman. Bill Parsley is the top soph tackle prospect and, along with Dave Lunford, a junior college transfer, is pushing Green for a starting role.

Dugan Pearce, Willie Froebel and Dan Miller are the sophomores contesting for the guard spots and have stood out demonstrably in drills. At center, soph Bill Glass threatens to unseat Taylor with Kirk Kuykendall lurking as the No. 3 man.

Contest for Quarterback In addition to Traylor, Hooper has another sophomore contesting him for the signal-calling job in Bobby Jones, who pitched more scoring passes than Traylor for the freshman team a year ago.

Delbert Shofner, an all-around athlete and one of the best defensive backs on the squad, threatens letterman Allen Jones at left half, where Jones was shifted from fullback.

Ronnie Guess, a rugged sophomore, likewise is pushing L. G. Dupre at the other halfback spot, but unless the veteran Dupre lapses on defense, he probably will stay on the first team.

At fullback, rough Reuben Saage rounds out the top sophomore crop and he bids fair to unseat Holley despite the latter's speed and experience.

If these sophomores come even close to living up to expectations, Baylor will have much more depth than a year ago when the club ran out of steam late in the season after ranking high nationally on an unbeaten record.

Oilers Drop First Playoff Game, 15-13

Four Oiler Home Runs To No Avail

ABILENE, Sept. 14 — The Abilene Blue Sox fought off a late challenge by Pampa Oilers here Monday night to win their first playoff game in three starts from the Pampanians, 15-13.

The Sox, who enjoyed a commanding 13-5 lead after six innings of play, saw the Oilers break loose in the top of the seventh to score eight runs and tie up the contest at 13-13.

However, Jim Matthews, the Sox's slugging third baseman, put the Sox back in the lead to stay in the bottom of the seventh with a two-run homer that wound up the night's scoring for both teams.

The two teams are scheduled to continue their series tonight but the game may be postponed pending the condition of the Oiler players who were injured in a traffic accident after Monday night's game. (See page one for details of the accident).

The Oilers pounded out four home runs in Monday's contest while the Sox hit two. But the second Sox homer was most damaging blow of the night — Matthews' seventh inning blast.

I. B. Palmer hit two of the Oiler home runs on his first two trips to the plate while Slick Johnson and Ben Felder hit the other Pampa round trippers. Felder and Johnson's homer came during the big seventh inning rally.

Another big blow during the big Pampa rally was a three-run double by Dick Hairston. Hairston had already punched out a two-run double earlier to give him five runs-batted-in for the night.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 —UP— Manager Leo Durocher paid Johnny Antonelli the supreme compliment Tuesday when he refused to choose between the hard-throwing lefthander and Willie Mays as the New York Giants' most valuable player.

"That's one I just don't want to get involved in," Durocher said. "Antonelli and Mays — they've both been great. And now Alvin Dark, too."

"I won't say which one should be chosen the most valuable player in the league, but I'll say they ought to rank one-two-three."

Antonelli and Mays had just teamed to give the Giants a 1 to 0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals that increased their first-place margin over the idle Brooklyn Dodgers to 3 1/2 games. It was an especially important game for Durocher, because it marked the first time in a week that he did not have to call on his overworked bullpen.

"That's the mark of a great pitcher — winning a 1 to 0 decision in the September stretch run," Durocher chirped. "He's just the best lefthander in the league and that's all there is to it."

Antonelli yielded only five hits — all in the first four innings — as he scored his sixth shutout, 21st victory, and reduced his earned run average to 2.29. The 24-year-old southpaw is bidding to become one of a handful of National League pitchers who have led the circuit in victories, won-and-lost percentage, and earned run average. His won-and-lost percentage is a gaudy .808.

Mays, whose two hits lifted his batting average to .341 compared to Duke Snider's league-leading .342 figure, scored the game's only run after dropping a double into right field with two out in the first inning. Dusty Rhodes, subbing for Monte Irvin in left field against right-handed Garbon Jones, followed with a single that sent Mays scampering over the plate.

Mays' double was only a short fly close to the right field foul line, but it set a club record for extra base hits in one season for the young centerfielder. The blow was his 82nd extra base hit — he has 28 homers, 12 triples, and 31 doubles — eclipsing the previous mark set by a Giant player set by Mel Ott in 1938.

In short, the Panthers are rated even with two other teams — Bowie and El Paso high — in District 2-AA with a championship seen as likely if the untired backfielders come through.

Milwaukee, Giants Open Crucial Three-Game Series

By EARL WRIGHT United Press Sports Writer

The Milwaukee Braves, who whipped Philadelphia's Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons in their last two starts, open a last-ditch bid for the National League flag Tuesday night against the front-running New York Giants and San Maglie at the Polo Grounds.

The Braves, who have shown more bounce than the lively ball this year, warmed up for the three-game series by defeating Simmons Monday night 7 to 4. The victory left Milwaukee 4 1/2 games behind the Giants and one behind the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers, Milwaukee has 13 more games, New York 12, and Brooklyn 11.

Johnny Antonelli, the left hander the Giants obtained from the Braves, steadied the weary New York pitching staff for the Milwaukee invasion by posting a five-hit, 1 to 0 afternoon victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Giants gained a half-game on the idle Dodgers.

New Attendance Low In the only other major league game Monday, the Pittsburgh Pirates scored a 6 to 5 night victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs. A crowd of 1,148 — the smallest night attendance in Forbes Field history — saw left hander Dick Littlefield win his own game when he singled to score Jerry Lynch with the decisive run in the eighth inning. Manager Charley Grimm, still trying to get a pennant for Milwaukee fans who set a National League attendance for the second straight year in 1954, promised the Giants a good tussle.

Artesia Reaches Longhorn Finals

By UNITED PRESS Artesia's NuMexers captured the first round playoff against the Midland Indians Monday night 8 to 2 and advanced into the Longhorn League championship round against Carlsbad.

The best-of-seven final series will start at Artesia Tuesday night. The second game will be played at Artesia Wednesday night, then the teams move to Carlsbad for games Thursday and Saturday. They will be idle Friday. Carlsbad ousted Roswell in the first round, four games to two.

The NuMexers, who finished first during the regular season, had to stage a comeback to get past the Indians. They were trailing 3 to 1 in games but won three in a row to eliminate the Texas team.

Score by innings: Midland 200 000-2 8 0 Artesia 400 220-8 12 2 Ramos, Soto (6) and Briner; Chester and Economides, LP — Ramos.

WHY IRISH EYES ARE SMILING

Ex-Harvesters Vie For Spot On NTS Eleven

DENTON, Sept. 14 — Two freshmen from Pampa are vying for backfield positions as the North Texas State College football team prepares for the coming season.

John Darby, halfback, and J. N. Wright, quarterback, have been participating in twice-daily drills conducted by Coach Odus Mitchell since Sept. 1.

The Eagles open the season with rugged Mississippi University on Sept. 17, and go on to play one of the roughest schedules ever faced by the college.

North Texas runs up against such stalwarts as Mississippi Southern, Hardin-Simmons, Chattanooga University, Texas Western, San Jose State, Mississippi State, Arizona State, and Gulf Coast Conference foes Trinity and Midwestern.

This year the Flock will be seeking to regain the conference crown lifted by Trinity in the 1953 race.

Darby, son of Mrs. Gladys Darby, 909 East Fisher, is a 1954 graduate of Pampa High School, where he lettered two years in football and track.

Wright, also a Pampa High School graduate, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Gardner, 1237 North Russell. He lettered two years in football and baseball while in high school. Wright also won district and regional titles as a Golden Gloves boxer.

SUSPECT

By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

Copyright 1954 by Hugh Lawrence Nelson. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Private Detective Jim Dunn has just returned from his honeymoon. He is requested by Mrs. Kit Carson to get something for her mother-in-law, Dunn's secretary, Miss Wister, who has to have anything to do with the case.

Gregory Stoneman was found dead beside the swimming pool of the Carlson place in San Francisco.

IT WAS 1 o'clock when Jim Dunn drove through the fast of the traffic and glare of Westwood and headed toward the mountains on the Morrison road. Jim smiled at his bride. He felt he could spend the rest of his life smiling at her. Built on a miniature scale, standing only five feet in her toast-colored sandals which matched a short fleece coat, she was nevertheless perfectly proportioned. She wore a long, full, high-waisted skirt of Navajo stripes in apple green, yellow and black, a white peasant blouse with short puffed sleeves and yellow ribbons run through the eyelets around the neck. She showed no evidence of the hasty job she had done in uprooting her belongings from an apartment she had only begun to arrange.

"You weren't definite over the phone. Says you, 'Nancy, would you like to go with me on a job in the mountains that may last for a month or so?' What would you have done if I'd said no?" "Missed you a lot," Jim said. "Why, you viper! Is Mrs. Carlson pretty?" "I suppose you might say so. And she's determined."

"Nancy settled herself more comfortably. 'I don't suppose I have to be jealous. But, Jim, are you one of those who thinks the high places bring out the worst in people?'" "Or the best," Jim amended. "And from the location, this might be pretty rugged country. Some people can't take it. Some people just plain don't like the mountains, but do all right in cities."

Nancy filed her husband's opinions away for future reference. "At that," Jim went on, "I guess our client has had her share of trouble. I suppose you've heard of the Denver family, the Carlsons?" "Certainly. You can't live in Colorado and not hear of them. The clan is headed now by old Mrs. J. Oswald Carlson. It wasn't long ago a paper had an article about how much better old-fashioned ways of bringing up children were. It cited the wonderful achievements of the Carlson tribe as an example of the happiness and success which comes from use of a whip and not spoiling the child. There was even a picture of a framed whip that Grandpa Carlson used to use—'The Carlson Conscience.'"

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—UP—The new Miss America pulled the covers up to her chin for a mid-morning nap Monday and said she still doesn't think she looks good in a bathing suit.

Gulf Company To Introduce New Gasoline

A completely new and different gasoline, super-refined to meet the demands of today's high-compression engines, is being introduced by Gulf Oil Corporation. The new product will be available Wednesday, here and throughout Gulf's entire territory.

By refining out the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—more than a cupful to every gallon—Gulf has been able to produce an unusually clean-burning gasoline that provides thousands of extra miles of full engine power.

Final road testing of the new product—called Super-Refined Gulf No-Nox—was made in the Gulf Test Caravans which were in this area recently, according to W. B. Agee of Lubbock, Gulf's District Manager. "Conducting road tests in the areas where the fuel actually will be used is the only way to accurately determine its performance characteristics," Agee added.

Pep Leaders In Action At Lefors

LEFORS — (Special) — Miss Bobbye Warner led the first pep squad cheering for 1954 at the Dalhart-Lefors football game Friday night at Dalhart.

Bobbye, a junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Warner of Lefors. She received her position as number one yell leader last spring when the annual tryouts were held, and has been practicing all summer.

The other leaders along with Bobbye are Marilyn Mullins, senior leader; Judy Martin, junior; Mary Hogan, sophomore; and Sue Chase, freshman.

The girls will continue their activities through the week with pep rallies on Thursday nights, and Friday mornings accompanied by the Pirate Band under the direction of Mr. Joe Stone.

Sponsors of the pep squad are Mr. Ray Luper and Miss Vera Jones.

'Weakness' Reported In Farm Buying

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14—UP—The Agriculture Department reports a "weakness" in the market for farm land.

The department reported Sunday that farm land prices—after dropping an average of 1 per cent from the post-Korean high of July, 1952—held steady during the four months ending July 1.

However, the department noted that the number of sales declined sharply and the spread widened between "asking and offering prices."

This shows that both present owners and prospective buyers have adopted a "wait and see" attitude, producing "some underlying weakness" in the market, the report said.

Other prisoners said Floyd Monroe Adams, 30, and Jay Leon Lubbock, 25, jumped into the truck and it sped away northwest over a field. State highway patrolmen set up roadblocks.

Texas Cons Take Powder
