COYOTES KEEP PLAYOFF HOPE ALIVE

The Borden County Coyotes still have hope of making it into the state playoff games as they narrowly defeated the Klondike Cougars in an overtime game at Lamesa. The final score was 70-69, thanks to a steal and a six foot jump shot by Chris Kilmer as the overtime period had only 2 more ticks on the clock.

The game was played to see who would have sole possession of second place of the second half of district. The Coyotes' win gave them the position, and they will have to play the Cougars again, because they were second in the first half of district. The winner of that game will advance to the bi-district game.

The Coyotes were plagued by turnovers in the first half, and that led to a 7 point lead for the Cougars at half. After half, the Coyotes began to chip away at the Cougars lead. The Coyotes still trailed by 5 points as the fourth quarter began. The Coyotes finally took the lead near the end of the final period, and then several lead changes occurred. The Coyotes found themselves trailing by 2 points with about 30 seconds on the clock. The Coyotes had the ball and Shannon Bond made a 3 point shot to give the Coyotes a 1 point lead. The Coyotes then kept the Cougars from scoring as Brian Bond rebounded a missed shot and was fouled. Brian's first shot on the 1 and 1 foul shot missed it mark, but Shannon came up with the loose ball. Shannon's shot also missed, but Will Phinizy was fouled as he tried to rebound the shot. Will made the first freethrow of his 1 and 1 foul shots to give the Coyotes a 2 point lead with less than 15 seconds in the game. As the Cougars worked to get off a good shot, Shannon was given a foul as he stepped to intercept a pass inside to the low post. Of course, both of their free throws were good. The Coyotes only had about 4 seconds, but they did get the ball up the floor to Kerry Fryar for about a 10 foot jumpshot that was partially blocked.

So the Coyotes started their fourth overtime game of the year without Shannon who had just fouled out. Brian scored the Coyotes'

In announcing his candidacy, Hansard says that his prior private practice, his years prosecuting criminal cases and his seventeen years as District Judge, trying all types of cases, both civil and criminal, uniquely qualify him for a seat on the Court of Appeals.

JR. HIGH GIRLS WIN DISTRICT CO-CHAMPIONSHIP

With Monday night's win over Sands, the Jr. High girls duplicated what seven of the last eight teams in the past have done, that is, win the mythical Jr. High District Championship! This year it will go down as a Co-Championship, as Borden County and Klondike split games in the district competition. In last night's game against Sands, Borden was forced to play without four of its regular players but still came out on top 37-29. Holding a 14-7 lead at the end of the first quarter, Borden extended the lead to 10, 24-14, by half. The Coyotes stretched their lead by two more entering the last quarter with a 32-20 lead. Leading scorer for Borden was Amanda Anderson with 18 points followed by Kristin Kilmer with 8. Kristin Monger had 6 followed by Shara Dee Woodward with 3 and Kelly Jo Ogden with 2. Also playing were Leslie Fryar, Angela Evans, and M'Lys Lloyd. Borden ends the season with an 8-2 season record and a 7-1 district record. Their only two losses of the season came to Klondike, once in the Sands Tournament and once at Klondike in district. Klondike was dealt only one loss this year, that coming to Borden in district. Borden's high game of the year came December 7 at O'Donnell as they hit 47 points. Their best defensive effort was in the same game, holding O'Donnell to 7 points. The Jr. High averaged 33.7 points per game. While holding their opponents to an average of 18.9 points per game. Leading scorer this year was Amanda Anderson with a 13 point average followed by Shayne Hess with a 7.3 average.

BORDEN TOURNAMENT JR. HIGH COYOTES END SEASON

The Borden County Jr. High Coyotes lost their final game of the season to the Sands Mustangs 57-48. The Coyotes gave the first place some uneasy moments as they refused to quit. The Coyotes finished the season with 5 wins and 4 losses, 3 of which came at the hands of the first place Mustangs. The Coyotes made a lot of progress during the year. They started the year with players who had only limited varsity playing time in previous years.

The Coyotes scored their season's highest total points in their final game. They used a full court man-to-man pressure defense to keep the Mustangs from setting up their offense. Each Coyotes that played put pressure on the Mustangs that eventually resulted in several turnovers that were turned into Coyote

With a 1 point lead and one of the Cougars freethrow shooters on the line with a 1 and 1 situation with 10 seconds on the clock, things just looked too good for the Coyotes. The fouls shot was missed and Jimmy grabbed the loose ball and headed toward the basket. He was fouled with about 4 seconds on the clock. Jimmy missed his foul shot, but Chris was able to take the ball away from the Cougar that had rebounded the ball. He quickly shot the 6 foot jumper to give the Coyotes the 1 point lead with 2 seconds remaining.

Will was the leading scorer in the game with 18 points. He made 6 out of 12 attempted field goals and 6 out of 8 free throws. He also had 1 steal, 5 scores.

John Paul Harris was the Coyotes leading scorer with his season's best of 18 points. Clint Kemper was next with 10 points. Clint Anderson came off the bench to score 9 points. Juve Balaque did a good job of ball handling and passing and scored 6 points. David Buchanan had some trouble with fouls, but he grabbed several big rebounds against the taller Mustangs. He also scored 4 points. Clint Wills came in late in the game and scored 1 point. Shawn Lewis and Rich Holzmann saw a lot of playing time, but they did not score. In the final minute of the game, the reserve got a chance to play, and they also showed that they could play good defense. Heith Gammons, Ross Hataway, and Guy Zant played hard, but they were unable to score.

Brian scored 12 points, had 2 steals, 6 rebounds, and 2 assists. Kerry scored 10 points, had 1 steal, 4 rebounds, and 2 assists. Chris only scored 2 points, but what a big 2 points. He also had the big steal, 1 rebound and 1 assist. Lance scored 1 point.

COYOTES OUT GUN THE MUSTANGS 65-61

The Borden County Coyotes played their last regularly scheduled district game, and they overcame a first half deficit of 8 points to defeat the Sands Mustangs. The Mustangs were the champion of the first half of the district race. In the first meeting between the two teams, the Mustangs won on a last second shot at the buzzer in an overtime.

The Coyotes made some adjustments at half time, and they turned the game around in the second half. They outscored the Mustangs 22-10 in the third quarter behind a balanced scoring attack as all 5 starters scored. In the final quarter, the Mustangs had to press the Coyotes to try to regain the lead. The Coyotes turned the ball over five times, but they repeatedly beat the press and scored easy baskets. Kerry Fryar, the Coyotes leading scorer, scored 10 of his 22 points in the final period. Some good ball handling and passing allowed Kerry to score from close range. Shannon Bond had 6 of his 8 assists in that period to help nail the lid on the victory. The victory was sure sweet for the Coyotes who played a fantastic second half of the game. It was a fitting way to end the regular season play with 3 big wins in a row. The win throws the second half of the district race into a 3-way tie for first place.

Following closely behind Kerry in scoring was Shannon Bond with 21 points. He also had 4 steals, 8 rebounds, and 8 assists. Kerry came up with 2 steals, 4 rebounds, and 1 assist. Will Phinzy had 9 points, 3 steals, 5 rebounds, and 2 assists. Brian Bond had 6 points, 2 steals, 5 rebounds, and 3 assists. Jimmy Rios had 5 points, 4 steals, 1 rebound, and 3 assists. Chris Kilmer scored 2 points.

THREE POINTERS LIFT BORDEN PAST SANDS GIRLS

Basketball's newest air warmed up in the ruling proved to be a game saver Tuesday night as Borden came from behind to win its last district game over the Sands Mustangs 60-48. It was not without the three point shot thought as Borden connected on six of them, five of them by Elvira Balaque. After being blown out by Borden in their first match, Sands decided to make Borden beat them from the outside instead of the inside where Borden dominated before. It almost proved to be a good strategy as Borden was cold from the long distance range early in the game. With the score tied 10-10 at the end of the first quarter, Borden trailed 21-19 at half. Then the her only attempt for 100% as did Shelly in her only attempt for 100%. They were followed by Elana with 67% (6 of 9) and Elvira with 50% (7 of 14). Kristi and Kate both had 100% from the free throw line as Kate hit 2 of 2 and Kristi made 4 of 4. Elvira led in steals with 4 and Kate led in rebounds with 8 followed by Elana with 6. Lisha led in assists with 5 and Elvira had 4.

Borden finishes the regular season with a 20-4 season record and an unblemished 8-0 district record. Klondike finished the season as the district runner-up with their playoff victory over O'Donnell.

Elvira Balaque led in scoring with 21 points followed by Elana Himes with 12 and Lisha Sternadel with 10. Kate Phinizy had 9 points followed by Kristi Adcock with 6 and Shelly Lewis with 2. Kristi led in field goal percentage, hitting

LADY COYOTES CAPTURE BI-DISTRICT TITLE

A complete team effort was the difference in Monday night's bi-district win over Sanderson as Borden took twelve people to the ball game and all twelve got into the scoring column. In the 71-23 lopsided victory, the Lady Coyotes dominated both ends of the floor as the Eaglettes were unable to handle the full court pressure defense and the twelve guns Borden came at them with. A slow start saw Borden open up only a 12-2 first quarter lead but the next two quarters were a nightmare for Sanderson as the Gail girls outscored them 49-10. A 15-8 second quarter was only the bad beginning as Borden then hit them with a 24-2 third quarter to hold a 61-12 lead entering the last quarter. Lisha Sternadel led in scoring with 21 points followed by Elana Himes with 18. Rachel Romero and Amy Lewis each had 6, Kate Phinizy had 5, Elvira Balaque and Randi Woodward each had 3, and Ralynn Key, Kristi Adcock, Shelly Lewis, and Julie Harris each had 2. Felicia Romero rounded out the scoring with a free throw. Lisha led in field goal percentage with an excellent 71% hitting 10 of 14 followed by Rachel with 60% making 3 of 5. Elana hit 54% and Ralynn, Kate, Kristi, and Julie each had 50%. Borden hit 47% from field as a team. From the free throw line, Elana led hitting 4 of 8 for 50%. Lisha led in steals with 7. Elana led in rebounds with 9 followed by Lisha with 7 and Kristi with 4. Lisha also led in assists with 3.

Season record for Borden now stands at 21-4. The next playoff game will be against the Ft. Hancock-Balmerhea winner. The game time and site has not yet been set but it will be played Friday or Saturday.

NATIONAL BEEF COOK-OFF

The increasing popularity of the microwave oven in U.S. households has prompted officials at the National Beef Cook-Off to add a new microwave cooking category for this year's event, which will be held Sept. 22 in Jackson, Miss.

The new microwave category, a bow to contestants who prefer preparing beef dishes in a microwave oven, brings the total number of Beef Cook-Off categories to three--the microwave category, the Cook-Off's traditional indoor category and last year's new addition, the barbecue category. Potential contestants may enter any category as often as they wish.

There are other changes for this year's National Beef Cook-Off, as well. Most significant, perhaps, is a dramatic increase in prize money and other awards. The winning recipe in each of the above categories will be awarded $5,000. In addition to the cash prize, the winner of the microwave category will receive a TAPPAN microwave oven; the winner of the indoor category will receive a TAPPAN gas range; and the winner of the barbecue category will receive a barbecue grill and a one year's supply of premium KINGSFORD charcoal.

From these three winning recipes, a grand prize winner for the entire National Beef Cook-Off will be chosen and accorded the title "Best of Beef." The grand prize carries an additional cash award of $10,000, which makes the Cook-Off's top prize worth over $15,000. Cash prizes will also be awarded to second- and third-place in the indoor category ($3,000 and $2,000, respectively); and to the Cook-Off's best "Under 300 Calorie/Serving" and "Most Convenient" recipes ($1,000 each).

To become a finalist in either the microwave or barbecue categories of the National Beef Cook-Off, contestants must first win one of 7 geographic U.S. regions. All Texas entries in either of these two categories must be post-marked no later than April 1 and sent to: National Beef Cook-Off, 444 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60611.

Contestants wishing to become finalist in the National Beef Cook-Off's traditional indoor category must first win their state beef Cook-off (deadlines for entry vary from state to state). For more information on the Texas Beef Cook-Off (indoor only), contact the Texas Beef Industry Council in Austin, (512) 3345-3531.

The National Beef Cook-Off is sponsored by the American National Cattle-Women in cooperation with the Beef Industry Council of the Meat Board.

CANDIDATE FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Cecil G. Gilstrap, democrat, has announced his candidacy for election as State Representative, District 69.

Currently a resident of Big Spring and in the oil business there, Gilstrap was raised through the eight grade in Monahans. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School. He attended San Angelo State and the University of Texas. He served in both the U.S. Army and the Marine Corps. He and his wife, Margaret, have six children.

Gilstrap says he does not believe in state regulations that are being passed in Austin that regulate ever aspect of our business and individual lives. He feels that is plan fascism. He says he is a fighter for individual rights under the U.S. and state constitution, which, he says is his bible and he studies daily. He believes there is no excuse for taking away the rights of some people and giving those rights to others because they are pressure groups.

Gilstrap states that the representatives now in office are only an extension of the power of the state. He says there is no such thing as compromise between a good law passed, or, a bad law passed. It is either good for the people, or, it is bad for the people and he will not compromise.

Gilstrap explained he decided to run for State Representative when they passed the new trucking laws. That law will cause the loss of thousands of jobs for people in Texas and cost the little trucker an unknown amount of money. It is another law that takes away more of your individual freedom. He says that the states are now subject to blackmail from the federal government, over money that is taken away from the taxpayers, to pass irrational laws that restrict the freedom of the

Gilstrap states that if we follow the trend that our legislators are now following, we can soon look for a centralized power from the state controlling all affairs of our life and liberties.

Gilstrap says he is as mean as a junk yard dog when it comes to individual rights.

He said there is no leadership or ideology today in Austin. There is no political philosophy to guide the state of Texas. We are like a ship in the middle of the ocean without a course.

AIDS SCAM TARGETS SOUTH PLAINS CONSUMERS

Not too long ago the BBB gave a prediction that scams involving the AIDS crisis would be a popular item for con-artists. Unfortunately, the prediction is coming true. A new scam praying on the fears of the public hit the south plains this past week. A mailing from EXECU-MED of Tulsa offers consumers a towelette that they claim will protect the consumer from viruses including the AIDS virus. The literature prominently displays a logo that is strikingly similar to the emblem used by medical professionals. The literature is quite intimidating and, according to local health officials, promotes misinformation concerning AIDS. The product is only a simple cotton wipe soaked in alcohol. EXECU-MED wants $4.95 including postage for 25 toweletts. Consumers can find the same product locally for $1.50 PER ONE HUNDRED. The Bureau feels that this scam is worse than most. Not only does it offer a bad deal but it promotes confusion and fear about an issue that all citizens are having problems dealing with.

NEW BANGS VACCINE COULD WIPE OUT BRUCELLOSIS

Brucellosis could disappear if a new vaccine developed at Texas A&M University lives up to early promise, its developers say.

An initial, 18-month test shows the vaccine eliminates most of the drawbacks of today's vaccine, including a side effect that produces false tests for brucellosis.

The vaccine is based on genetically-altered brucellosis bacteria.

We The People

James Madison

Anyone who studies the history of the U.S. Constitution discovers that one individual emerges as the most important force for constitutional government. At times on center stage and on other occasions behind the scenes, James Madison was the prime mover in the drafting of the Constitution in 1787 and in the ratification process that followed. Even then, his work was not completed, for it was Madison who wrote the first 10 amendments to the Constitution, better known as The Bill of Rights, and pushed them through the first Congress in 1789.

Opponents of the Constitution used the absence of a Bill of Rights as their best argument against ratification. Virginia was a critical state, and the debate was intense. In order to bring Virginia into the fold, Madison pledged that immediately following ratification he would push through "the most satisfactory provisions for all essential rights, particularly the rights of Conscience in the fullest latitude, the freedom of the press, trials by jury, security against general warrants etc."

Madison was doing more than fulfilling a political promise, for his later life demonstrates how strongly he believed in fundamental rights. He began the First Amendment with the words "congress shall make no laws" believing they guarded against any encroachment on a free press, free speech, religious freedom and the right to assemble. When as president Madison was vilified by the press, he was urged by supporters to silence his critics through passage of laws or through violence. He refused to violate his own principles. The blunt words of the First Amendment were not lightly chosen as Madison wrote that he wanted "every government disarmed of powers which trench upon those particular rights."

Madison biographer Irving Brant spoke out against reinterpreting the meaning of The Bill of Rights. "The men who placed the guarantee of free speech in the Constitution were not authorizing Congress to choose between its protection and its suppression by a comparison of values," Brant wrote. "Their concern was with the fundamental basis of all self-governing societies—the right of people to think, speak, write, publish and assemble without the menacing shadow of government over them."

Americans owe a debt to James Madison, a debt that can be paid by safeguarding his legacy for future generations. ll

TEENAGERS LIKE TO TAKE THEIR OWN MEDICINE

A STORY ABOUT BRIAN

This is the story of Brian. Mr. Cool he was without tryin'. The hallways he owned. His charms he but loaned. Ah my, how he left the girls sighin'.

Then a virus caught our Mr. C. A bug with a long history. He ached, and he sneezed. He coughed, and he wheezed. It was flu causing this misery.

Feeling so low was this guy. He was set to give aspirin a try. But remember he did A note on the lid That warned of a syndrome called Reye.

Rare is this trouble called Reye. But permanent it might make you lie. Kids with the flu. Chicken pox, too. May suffer when aspirin they try.

How did Brian reprise his cool? Hey, remember this dude was no fool. He just took it slow. That's the best way to go. When they need you so badly at school.

-A message from the Food and Drug Administration

WARNING: Children and teenagers should not use this medicine for chicken pox or flu symptoms before a doctor is consulted about Reye Syndrome, a rare but serious illness.

Teenagers like to take their own medicine. And therein lies a problem.

The problem is Reye syndrome. Reye syndrome is a rare but dangerous condition that usually develops in a child--or teenager--who has been treated with aspirin for flu or chicken pox. It is fatal is about 25 percent of the cases.

Until recently, it was believed that Reye syndrome was limited to pre-teen children. But in recent years the number of cases among children under 12 has dropped dramatically, while the prevalence among teenagers has shot up just as dramatically.

It is believed that the decline among younger children was attributed in no small part to a label warning and public education efforts, such as might have been carried out by cut last two lines forts. The label notice warned of the possible association between aspirin and Reye syndrome. Surveys showed that parents had generally become aware of Reye syndrome and its suspected link with aspirin.

But teenagers, who often don't rely on their parents for medicine, hadn't gotten the word. A survey taken just last summer by a firm that specializes in teen research revealed that there are 2.6 million teenagers ready to use aspirin when they have the flu or chicken pox.

So, the Public Health Service have an important and timely message to get out to a very special audience. The message is timely because the flu season is with us right now and will be through the rest of winter.

NOTES FROM HOME

By Debra Pollard

Catch a cold and you'll get a lot of advice much of it can be taken with a grain of salt. We are in the middle of "Cold Season", so here are a few facts that medical experts tend to agree on.

- Colds are caused by specific viruses that appear primarily in winter.

- The only way to catch a cold is to pick up a virus through contact with another cold sufferer.

- Most people pick up colds from touching surfaces that have been contaminated with cold viruses by someone's sneeze or cough. These viruses can survive up to three days on hard surfaces, some fabrics, and even the skin.

- Children are more likely to catch colds than adults because they have not yet built up immunities.

- To help avoid viruses, wash hands frequently and keep them away from your eyes, nose and mouth.

- Once you get a cold, over-the-counter medications can alleviate cold symptoms, but won't cure the cold.

- According to the National Institutes of Health, there is no hard evidence to verify that vitamin C will help prevent or cure a cold. Medical experts don't know how to prevent the common cold.

- Grandma's advice to drink plenty of liquids and stay in bed is probably still the best remedy.

HIB VACCINE AVAILABLE

Hib vaccine is now available at your local health department clinic or Texas Department of Health clinic. All parents with children in the two year old age group are strongly urged to have them vacinated against the HAEMOPHILUS INFLUENZA type b (Hib). Hib often leads to meningitis, which can cause retardation, blindness, deafness, other neurological disorders as well as death. Tests of the Hib vaccine show that it is safe and effective against the infection of children 24 months through 5 years old. The Texas Department of Health urges all parents of children, ages 24 to 35 months or with chronic conditions, to inquire at your local health department or family physician's office for details as to day and times the vaccine is available.
