Harold Lane Resigns As Commissioner

Harold Lane, Hall County commissioner of Precinct No. 4, has submitted his resignation as commissioner to the Hall County Commissioners Court, it was announced by County Judge Lester Campbell following the regular monthly meeting of the court Monday.

The resignation will become effective on or about September 15, 1976, Lane stated. Lane said that he has accepted full-time employment with the Valley Independent School District, and that the work requires him to move out of Hall County to maintain his home. Therefore, he felt that he should resign from the commissioner's post.

County Clerk Ruby Goodnight and Deputy Phyllis Dunn contacted Mark White, Secretary of State whose Austin office is in charge of the various elections and election procedures to find out the procedure to be used in replacing Lane. The commissioner's court would normally appoint a successor, who would serve until the next general election. Since the general election will be held on the first Tuesday in November, it is doubtful that such an appointment will be made.

This means, it was explained, that any person from Precinct No. 4, who desires to run for the office, may do so by filing as an independent candidate. The application for the filing may be obtained at the county clerk's office, and then filed with the county judge. This must be done at least 35 days prior to the election date and the names of all candidates will then be on the ballot. Should either the Democratic or Republican party desire to have a candidate as their nominee, the county committee of the party would have to meet and select such a candidate; whether this procedure will be used is not known.

Young Man Here Charged With Kidnaping-Rape

A 17-year-old white male was arraigned before County Judge Lester Campbell Monday on charges of kidnaping and rape, and bond was set at $25,000.

Memphis Chief of Police Kenny Schull said that Memphis P. D. received a call at 11:20 p.m. Friday, August 6, from Allsup's Store on North 287, from a woman who said she had been abducted from the Car Wash next door at gun point and taken to a residence here and raped earlier that evening.

She gave the identity of her abductor and Memphis Policemen and Highway Patrolmen Jerry Leaverton and Gary Moran went to the residence of the young man and ordered him from the house.

"After several tries to get him to come out, we used one gas pellet. He still did not appear, so Patrolmen Leaverton and Moran went into the house and brought him out," Chief Schull said.

Charges of kidnaping and rape were filed after the young man was identified by the victim, Chief Schull said.

Forty-one Players Work Out Here

Forty-one young men working out Wednesday afternoon in Cyclone Stadium for the 1976 football season finally got underway.

The Varsity and Junior Varsity squads are scheduled to scrimmage Stinnett at 6 and 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 13. Coach Clyde McMurray announced this week.

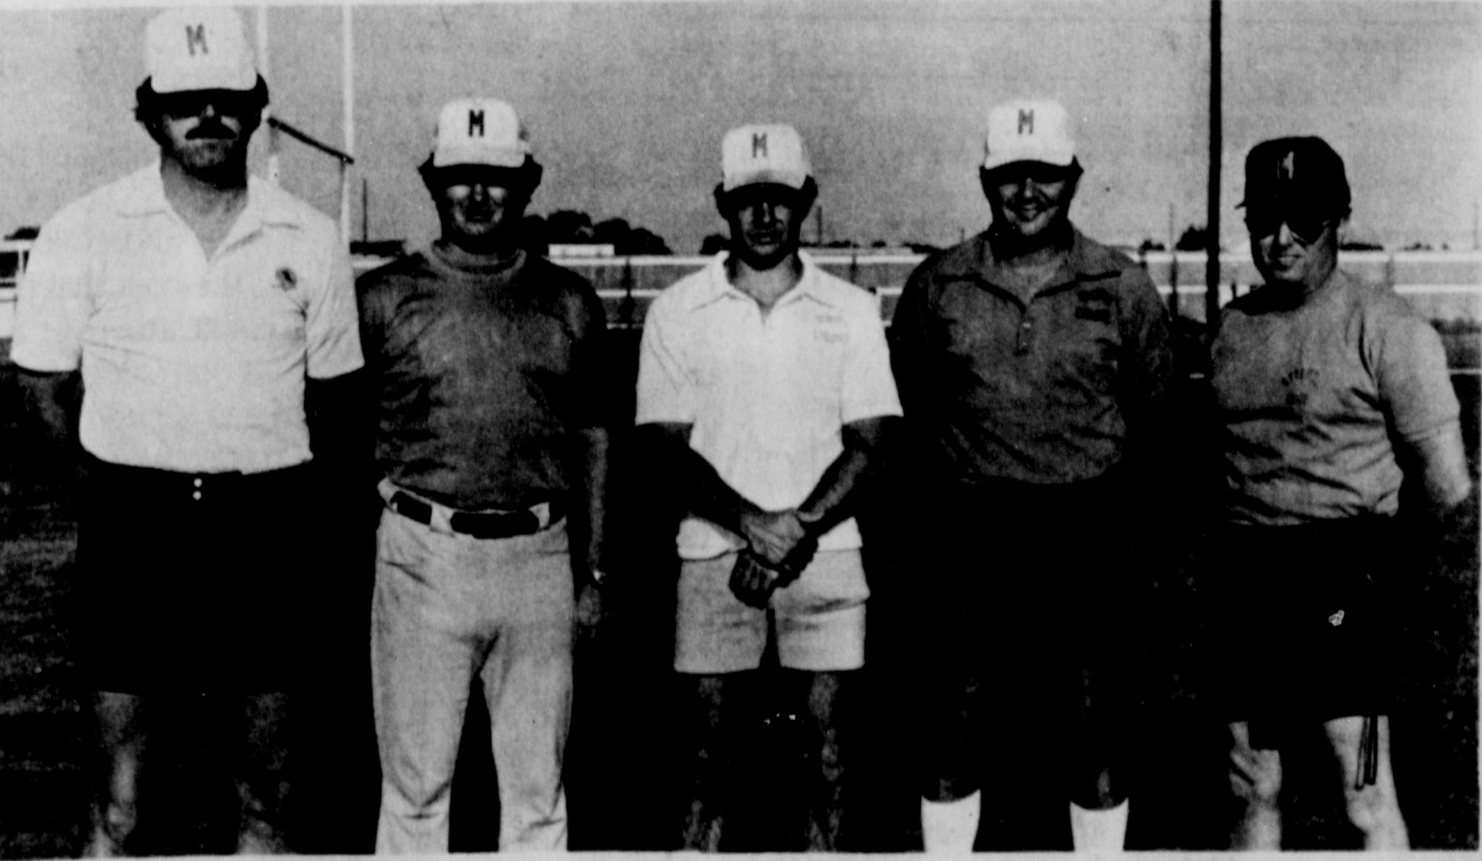

The Varsity will scrimmage at 8 p.m. and the junior varsity will scrimmage at 6 p.m. if both schools agree to have a B scrimmage", Coach McMurray said.

The Cyclone and JV's have been going through two-a-day practice sessions, wearing shorts & T shirts through to shorts. Tomorrow the teams will put on pads & began polishing put on pads in preparation for first scrimmage next Friday.

Coach McMurray announced that varsity pictures will be taken at 5 p.m. Monday in uniform.

Rising Costs

A package of cigarettes costs 40 to 80 cents, depending upon the brand and where it is bought.

But as a study on emphysema released last week showed, the costs of smoking are much higher than the price of cigarettes.

In 1970, Americans spent $1.5 billion on medical bills and lost earnings from emphysema caused by smoking, according to a study by the Blue Cross Association.

Emphysema is not the most expensive disease associated with tobacco. Cancer caused by smoking costs up to $7 billion a year, according to some estimates. And other smoking - caused diseases add to the total.

The high cost of smoking affects the victims and their families first. Some of them are financially ruined by smoking related diseases.

But the cost is too great for private means. Most of the expenses are borne by society in the form of higher taxes and medical insurance bills.

While the financial costs of bad health caused by smoking are immense, they are more bearable than the death and disability wreaked on the victims of the bereavement of their families.

Eighty per cent of the families which have a premature cancer victim of this sort have severe emotional problems, says Dr. Ronald Glasser, the author of a new book on cancer. "The family's finances are ruined. The kids develop psychological problems, obesity, truant behavior, anger and their parents — you name it."

Smoking is increasing in America, especially among women and the young. More smoking will inevitably mean increased disease.

There has been enough medical research and findings by eminent scientists to convince all except the most hard headed that smoking is hard on the health and sometimes leads to fatal disease.

The medical profession has trumpeted time and again that cigarette smoking can be proven as a detrimental to the lungs, to the heart and vascular system and that people who smoke have a much higher death rate than those who do not.

Yet the smokers remain unconvinced. They earnestly believe that lung cancer happens to other people and not them. Only when they get the bad news from their doctor and are told to quit smoking or face death do they think seriously about stopping the habit.

Americans are paying a terrible price for their collective cigarette habit. It may be that historians in the future will look back and wonder what specie of human this was that so flagrantly ignored such a plain warning against ruining one's health.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Afton Richards in The Jayton Chronicle: Carter presents himself to the American people as a new clean face in American politics, and he relates to the common people. And this is to the credit of the Presidential primary system. Perhaps he could not have overcome, had he been required to deal with the big party bosses in the smoke rooms, but he went to the people, and they voted for him.

No one knows what kind of deals he had to make at New York, in order to achieve the degree of unity he came up with, but if those deals, whatever they may be, do not get him in a bind, before the general elections, he is going to go in with a big landslide.

After his speech Thursday night, in which he promised many political reforms, he told a reporter he expected to keep every promise, and have all of his reforms on the road during his first term.

Right now my reflections are that Carter seems almost too good to be true. If he comes through with all he promises, it will be just about the greatest thing that has happened in America since the declaration of independence.

One thing I noticed, in observing the National Democratic convention, and that is socially, things have changed greatly since 1972. The reactionary groups practically controlled the 72 convention, but this was not the case this year. I don't know who to give the credit for it, but just about everyone in the convention center that came before the TV cameras, looked neat and well dressed, with only a few exceptions.

It seems the hippie movement that was so prevalent in 68 and 72 has just about phased out and to me this is something to be happy with.

If you noticed the young people at the convention most of them, their hair well groomed, and not too long. The most of them you could see the tops of their ears. The average young person had hair no longer than Jimmy Carter had. And this too, I am sure is part of the minute planning of Carter. He wore his hair long enough to relate to the young people — but not long enough to be classed as a long hair.

Things have just got to be better in America now than they have been in the past. These are my reflections of the Democratic convention.

AG EXPORTS CLIMB

Agricultural exports continue to increase and should reach $22 billion for 1976, points out an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Texas ranks fourth in the nation in farm export sales. The increase in grain and wheat shipments to the Soviet Union has been a big factor in the rise of farm exports. The volume of agricultural exports for 1976 should exceed 100 million metric tons, a 20 per cent increase over the 1975 volume. Exports of grain, wheat and soybeans make up about 90 per cent of this volume. The value of agricultural imports for 1976 is expected to total about $10 billion, leaving a favorable agricultural trade balance of about $12 billion.

How high will gas bills go, and when will they level off?

There is no sure answer. It depends, to a large extent, on what Lone Star has to pay its natural gas suppliers.

Just a few years ago, Lone Star paid only about 19¢ for a thousand cubic feet of gas.

Today, we have to pay almost $2 for a thousand cubic feet of new gas.

But you are still being charged at a much lower rate than that. You see, we are still buying old gas at lower rates under old contracts. So the average cost for gas, the cost that primarily determines your bill, is still just a little over $1 per thousand cubic feet.*

As our older contracts expire, and new, higher-priced gas is purchased, the average price will continue to rise (even if we don't buy any new gas). We can foresee an average price of around $2 per thousand cubic feet in a few years.

That's quite a big increase. We know because we're almost paying that price right now for new gas. But it should rise much more gradually in the next year or two than it has during the past year.

*Monthly reports on gas purchases filed with the Texas Railroad Commission are public record.

Highway Projects Planned For The Childress Area

CHILDRESS — Highway improvement projects in the Childress District are included in the 1976 State Highway Safety and Betterment and Farm to Market Road Improvement Program, recently approved by the State Highway and Public Transportation Commission.

District Engineer Lewis White of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation said work in this area includes:

- $215,500 to seal coat 19.4 miles of portions of State Highway 86 and State 70 in Briscoe, Dickens and Motley Counties, and a section of Loop 21 in the City of Spur.
- $517,000 to seal coat segments of selected Farm to Market Roads in Cottle and Dickens Counties. Also included is some seal coat work on F. M. roads in Hall, King and Motley Counties — for an overall total of 7.7 miles.

Similar programs had been conducted annually until last year. At that time there was no such program because of the financial crunch facing the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

Funds remain short for highway work in Texas, and most other states in the nation, because of soaring inflation and diminishing growth rates of available revenues. Department officials, however, note that such programs

Great Plains Conservation Act Is 20 Years Old This Month

A federal law that has brought about a more stable agriculture, more dependable income, and an improved quality of the environment in the Great Plains is 20 years old this month.

The Great Plains Conservation Act was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower on August 7, 1956. Under terms of the legislation since that time, more than 50,000 farmers and ranchers in 10 states have entered into long-term conservation contracts with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Under the contracts, producers agree to carry out all needed conservation on every acre of their farm or ranch. This might include improving rangeland, installing minimum tillage farming systems, terracing, establishing windbreaks, strip cropping, or converting erosion-prone cropland to grass.

USDA's Soil Conservation Service provides technical assistance to producers in planning and installing needed conservation measures. SCS also shares in the cost of installing certain measures.

In 1969, Congress enacted a bill to extend the provision of the program to December 31, 1981. The program is applicable in 123 counties in Texas.

During the first 20 years of the program in Texas, there have been 14,696 Great Plains contracts planned and

Hall Co. Has Highest Percentage Of Unemployment In Panhandle

Hall County had the highest percentage of unemployment of any county in the Panhandle at the end of April, 1976, according to figures released by the Texas Employment Commission and sent to County Judge Campbell.

The rate of unemployment for Hall County at that time was 4.8 percent, the figures revealed. The labor force was shown to be 2,503, with 121 unemployed. Only two other counties in the Panhandle, Deaf Smith with 4.3 percent and Donley with 4.4 percent had in excess of four per cent unemployed.

Campbell said. The county with the lowest per cent of unemployment was Lipscomb County with 1.8 percent.

In comparison, at the end of April in 1975, Hall County had an unemployment percentage of 5 percent; at that time, only Moore County, with 5.1 percent was higher in its ranks of the unemployed.

The Texas Employment Commission made no attempt to explain the higher rate of unemployment in Hall County in the release sent to Campbell.

The entire Panhandle area, with a labor force of 160,105 and unemployed people of 4,775, had a 2.8 percent rate of unemployment at the end

Bentsen Praises Changes In The Estate Tax

Washington, D. C. — Senator Lloyd Bentsen Friday said changes in the estate tax approved by the Senate, which have the effect of increasing the tax exemption to $200,000, are a boon to the widows and children of farmers, ranchers and small business men in Texas.

Bentsen, a member of the Senate Finance Committee, had introduced a bill to increase the inheritance tax exemption from $60,000 to $200,000. The inheritance tax changes written by the Finance Committee and approved by the full Senate late Thursday night include portions of the Bentsen bill and portions of measures proposed by other Senators.

It would replace the existing estate tax exemption with a $30,000 credit against the estate tax which would gradually increase to a $50,000 credit by 1981. This would be the equivalent of a $200,000 exemption.

"Sixty thousand dollars is no longer a typical value for a small farm or ranch or business, as it was when this exemption was set in 1942. We live in a far different world and I am pleased that the Senate has acted to correct this situation," Bentsen said.

"According to best estimates, for example, a farmer earning only about $10,000 a year will leave an estate valued at $320,000. An inheritance exemption of only $60,000 for him means his widow and his sons and daughters would have to sell the family farm just to pay the taxes," the Senator said.

The Senate-approved bill also includes a provision by Bentsen against artificially high land valuations that drive up the estate tax. It prohibits an existing Internal Revenue Service practice of assessing some farm land at its commercial rather than its agricultural value for estate tax purposes.

"From all evidence the federal inheritance tax is helping break up the family farm, ranch and business and I am hopeful that Congress will give final approval to these changes in the tax this year," Senator Bentsen said.

Ag. Producers Pay No Sales Tax On Items Used To Produce Products

COLLEGE STATION — Texas farmers and ranchers no longer have to pay sales taxes on certain purchases to be used in the production of food and fiber.

Effective July 20, the Texas sales tax law will exempt agricultural producers from sales taxes on such items as baling wire, fencing supplies, and machinery and equipment, points out Don Parks, area economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"However, a farmer or rancher does not automatically qualify for exemption from the sales tax," notes Parks. "Producers must file an exemption certificate with each firm or business with which they deal. These certificates are available from the Comptroller of Public Accounts in Austin or from local branch offices of the Comptroller."

"To qualify for an exemption, the item purchased must be used exclusively on a farm or ranch. A farm or ranch is Working for someone without a retirement plan can create a special feeling of insecurity... anytime you start thinking about retirement.

Consider the Individual Retirement Account (IRA), a method you can use to build a tax-sheltered retirement fund. All it takes is 15% of your income or $1,500, whichever is less, in cash. And all contributions, within the limits set by law, serve as a direct reduction of your gross taxable income, too. The amount is taxed only when withdrawals begin.

Say you invest $1,500 annually for 20 years at an interest rate of 5 1/4%. You end up with $54,478 while putting in only $30,000. And in 30 years you get $112,339, putting in only $45,000. Not a bad return on your money.

Look into IRA. It's worth its weight in fishing poles anytime.

received a letter from Lillian Carter of Plains, the mother of Gov. Jimmy Carter, who is the Democratic nominee for president of the state. A quote or two from her — "I appreciated your very kind remarks. I am very proud mother and sure that Jimmy will do best to never disappoint. Thanks again for your warm and interest," signed Lillian G. Carter. This letter was written on Jimmy's stationery headed by Jimmy Carter Presidential Campaign — For America's Century, Why Not the 21st? His picture is on the side of the stationary and the post office box carried number of 1976.

When we were watching the State Convention on TV a few weeks ago, I noticed a lady seating members Kennedy and Johnson in the main auditorium. The young lady who was sitting next to her had a "Texas Twist" about her as she came down the aisle and sure enough, it was a Texas girl, none other than Ann Hightower, daughter of Congressman Jack & Coleen Hightower of Vernon and Washington, D. C. Ann, who is now working in our national capitol, was asked by the National Chairman, Robert Strauss, if she would like to work on the reception committee in New York which she readily accepted. Then met one of her Baylor schoolmates working in a department store, who made arrangements for them to live together while Ann was in New York for the big Democratic Convention.

I read of an interview with Billy Graham by Senator Charles Percy of Illinois. Graham was asked by Sen. Percy if he thought the image of Washington had been greatly tarnished by the conduct of some of our public officials. Graham made the statement that he thought Washington had been tarnished. He also said the clergy must lead the way and public officials must be equal or second in setting an example. He also stated that we forget that a public official is a man or a woman who is like any other man or woman, with the same temptations and the same weaknesses. Mr. Graham stated that he was personally concerned, "I have passion and love and compassion and forgiveness, but it must be tempered with justice." Dr. Graham also stated that the image of America has been tarnished in the eyes of other countries of the world. I heard an interview on television a few days ago with a psychiatrist who had written a book on the percentage of people of the U. S. who were happy. The two reasons he pointed out were sex and money. I think he left out the greatest thing to bring happiness in a person's life, Love. To love and be loved.

In the passing away of Mrs. C. A. Hightower and Mrs. Horace Reed, it brought back memories of four families that I had known for four generations, the Hightowers, the Goldens, Reeds and Rea families who were of the old school and believed the scripture that Paul gave us, "If you eat, you must work."

I have heard the quote for many years, "The show must go on." A few days ago, I read another quote similar which was, "The mail must go through." Maurice Gaskell's legs were paralyzed in 1952, but he still drives a 68 mile route delivery for residents around West Burke, Vermont, every day. Gaskell has been named as the 1976 outstanding handicapped postal employee in Washington. The postal service said Gaskell, age 66, lost the use of both legs through polio. Ten months later, he was back on his route driving a car with hand operated controls. I think Mr. Gaskell read that quote, "Let nothing discourage you never give up."

A quote: "A little man from China attended a meeting in Ft. Worth. He was surrounded by towering Texans & one of them asked the man how he felt among the 6-footers. His reply, 'I feel just like a dime in among nickels.'"

I received a letter a few days ago thanking me for ordering out one of the copies of "As We Remember", published by the Retired Teachers Asso. of Dallas County. There are about 350 contributors to this book of comedy and serious sides of being a school teacher in the early days. I have only read a small part of this edition so far, but it has been very interesting. She stated they had almost sold all of the first 1,000 of the books printed. She stated they had been sold to many libraries, college teachers, bank president, oil company president and other executives, ministers, doctors and other business laymen. She has been asked to give a review of this book for the Richardson Lions Club Aug. 10.

We have several retired school teachers here who could add some good stories to this edition. It made me think back over the years and remember incidents that happened in school. One of the early days of my public school life was when I attended a court for the first time. It was very exciting and I was shaking in my knees when the professor had all the boys in this small East Texas school report to him in one of the school rooms. We soon found out this was Kangaroo Court and the professor was bringing charges against some of the boys in school for turning the girls' privy over in the creek. Lucky no one was in it. I think all of the boys pled "Not Guilty" and for this "Not Guilty", all of the boys were indicted and under the supervision of the professor, all went down to the creek and uprighed the building on the edge of the creek. I have served in J. P., County, District and Federal Courts, but this Kangaroo Court was one of the most exciting cases I had been through!

One of our retired teachers left us the past weekend for Nocona where she will make her home after living in Memphis for 52 years. She was Linda May Peters when she arrived in Memphis in 1924. Like many other young school teachers who heard the cry of "Go West, young lady" and like many more of these young good looking teachers, changed their names here. Linda changed her name to Mrs. Herbert Estes. In her many years of teaching, she has had a lot of influence on her pupils who are good citizens of today who have assumed their problems of the world to carry on. We will miss Miss Linda and she will miss us, but may the Good Lord bless and keep her in her new home. She has contributed a lot to our community.

A quote: "A different world is not created by indifferent people."

I had a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Falconer Hightower of Pecos. Falconer was the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hightower who moved to Hall County near Webster in 1890. There were 5 sons and 4 daughters in this family. The two sons now living are Falconer and C. A. (Arms) of Memphis. Two daughters are now living, Sally (Mrs. J. M. Poole of Dallas) and Fannie (Mrs. J. R. Snider of Grapevine). Falconer left Hall County in 1919 and worked in the oil fields around Wichita Falls about 20 years and from there, he moved to Pecos where he has continued to make his home.

Jack and his wife, Angie Nelson, are new residents of Memphis at 403 N. 12th where they moved a few days ago. I think their pastor must have preached a sermon on "Love thy neighbor as thyself" the Sunday before they moved from Estelline, as they had about 15 trucks, cars and trailers and in one load had them moved in. This really shows love in their heart for their friends. Welcome to them!

The A. W. Rasco family moved from the Nelson address. A. W. and his wife, Edna, moved to El Paso where they had lived several years. They really had the U-Haul trucks loaded. They called back after the long haul and said they were safe and sound in El Paso.

As copied from Baylor University Medical Center, "Pillow Talk" . . . "Hospitals 200 years ago — Pennsylvania was founded by Benjamin Franklin and Dr. Thomas Bond for Rich and the poor. Pennsylvania hospitals established the first surgical amphitheatre in 1776. Because a skylight furnished its only light, an attempt was made to schedule surgeries at noon on bright, clear days. New York hospitals started instruction in nursing in 1779. Beds were 52 inches wide and could accommodate 4 to 6 patients, ranging from the convalescent to the dying.

A quote from Henn Albright—"We know at least one thing about a person who never makes mistakes—he can't be very busy."

Mrs. Edwin Thompson celebrated her 90th birthday August 11. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Franks. She was born Willie Ada Franks at Buda in Hays County near San Marcus. The Franks family moved to Hall

County in 1900 making their home in Newlin where Willie attended school along with Ora Denny (Long), Vera Dickey (Dial), Lee Rushing, Addie Jarrell (Long), Susie Kesterson (Offield), Jesse Hamilton Ewen and Deila Pallmeyer (Offield). If I remember right, this group with others had a reputation of being real good singers, as in their day they had singing teachers work with the different communities. Later Willie attended Goodnight College at Goodnight and she remembers that Col. Goodnight would have the girls come to his ranch house for a cake and ice cream supper. Willie would ride the train to visit friends in Memphis; and on the train, she would write her boyfriend, Edwin, a letter and would have it ready to mail back on the next train to Memphis. These letters worked alright as Willie and Edwin were married in 1909. They had five children, all now living. Maurice Montgomery of Richardson, Edwin, Ruth, Martha Campbell and Billy are all living in Memphis. Their fourth and fifth babies both arrived on the same date so they learned something on addition of two bottles, two diapers and two of everything that a baby needed in place of one. Maurice gave me a few quotes of her mother over the years, one of them was when they were young and her mother watched her leave to go some place she would say, "Act nice as you look" and another quote was "Hold your shoulders up." Later in the kids' lives she would say, "If you make your bed hard, you have to lie in it." It is sad for Mrs. Thompson to spend her 90th birthday in a hospital bed. She had this to be thankful for, all of her children were here to help blow out the 90 candles. I first knew Mrs. Thompson's family in 1907 when T. R. Franks, who was operating his farm S. E. of Memphis and also one of our early day "Motels" that we called "Wagon Yards" where the wagon trains and freighters drove their teams into the yard and they were well taken care of with plenty of food and water. Also, the wagon yard had bunks for the drivers of the teams. The Franks wagon yard was located southeast of the square on the block where Morris San & Gravel is now located. The other two children of Mr. and Mrs. Franks were Ernest and Hugh (who are now deceased).

Rose-Stevenson Nuptials Are Read In Dallas Church Rites

In a pretty candlelight ceremony solemnized Saturday, August 7, in Highland Park Presbyterian Church in Dallas, Miss Cynthia Ann Rose became the bride of Mark Ellis Stevenson. The Rev. John Tolson read the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Lewis Owens, 3628 Colgate, Dallas, and James Anderson Weaver Rose, 5346 Nakoma, Dallas. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Stevenson of Memphis.

Music for the wedding was provided by Sam Parker of Dallas, organist, and John R. Griffiths, vocalist, who sang the "Wedding Song."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk organza and Venise lace designed with an Empire waist, A-line skirt, sheer yoke, sweetheart neckline and sweetheart bodice. The bodice was heavily appliqued in Venise lace. Scallops of Venise lace formed a key-hole at the neckline and on the front of the skirt and also on the Chapel length train. The entire hemline of the gown was bordered in the same scalloped Venise lace, which also accented the Empire waist.

To complete her bridal ensemble, the bride wore a headband of matching Venise lace attached to a Chapel length illusion veil.

Miss Betsy McGill served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Blair Pedrick, Kathryn Fry, Jeanne Boskie, Laurie Todd and Jennifer Rose, sister of the bride.

They wore identical green voile floor-length gowns designed with wide shoulder straps, puffed bodices, Empire waists and full skirts. The bodice and ruffle on the matching shawls were of green and white stripes. To complete their ensembles, the bridesmaids wore white straw hats with green satin ribbon to match their dresses.

Matt Allen Thompson of Memphis served as best man and groomsmen were Russell Smith, Don Dyer, Douglas Hale, Mark Underwood, and John Miller. Ushers were Jim Dixon, Jim Rose and John Owens, brothers of the bride.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at Brookhollow County Club. The bride attended Texas Tech University where she was a member of Chi Omega. The bridegroom is a graduate of Texas Tech with a degree in engineering. He was a member of Sigma Nu.

After a wedding trip to South Padre Island, the couple will live in Odessa.

Dr. and Mrs. Stevenson, the bridegroom's parents, hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Petroleum Club, First National Bank Building, in Dallas for members of the wedding party attendants and their dates, and relatives.

Disabled Wives Eligible For SS Benefits

Some working wives who become disabled don't apply for social security disability payments because their husbands are still working and they think that makes them ineligible, according to Jim Talbot, social security district manager in Amarillo.

"Under the law", Talbot said, "a wife and her children can get social security disability payments on her work record regardless of her husband's earnings."

"The children can get payments until they're 18, or 22 if they're full-time students in school and remain unmarried. A working wife facing a long-term disability should get in touch with a social security office without delay to get information about applying for disability benefits," he said.

Social security pays monthly benefits to eligible workers under 65 and their families if the worker is severely disabled and not expected to be able to do any work for a year or more. Payment generally starts with the 6th full month of disability.

To be eligible for social security disability payments, most workers need at least 5 years of work under social security in the 10 years before they became disabled. For workers disabled before 31, the requirement ranges down to as little as 1 1/2 years of work, depending on age.

If you have any questions, please contact the Amarillo social security office located at 317 East Third Street. Phone 376-2241.

Red Read, Emer Res., Died In Austin

Former employee of The Democrat, H. Ted Reed, died Sunday at an Austin hospital after apparently suffering a heart attack early last week. He was 44 years old. The funeral was held at 10 p.m. Tuesday at the Westminster Presbyterian Church. Burial was in the McMillan Hill Park Cemetery in Austin.

Reed, born in Memphis, was the son of the late John and Ethel Reed of Austin. He attended Memphis Public Schools and received his first newspaper experience at the Democrat. He then studied journalism at the University of Texas. He worked on the Austin Dispatch and was city editor of the Kilgore Daily.

In 1939, he returned to Austin to work on the Texas Commission and later as secretary of the commission. Reed then worked in the capital bureau of the Texas Press before joining Emmett Morse, former publisher of the Texas Press, who at that time was director of the Texas Liquor Dealers Association, which later became the Licensed Beverage Association.

In 1958, Mr. Reed became publisher of the trade association. He was a founder of the Press Club in Austin and served on the board of trustees of the club. Mr. Reed was a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include: his wife, Mrs. Don Browning; two sisters, Mrs. Tucker of Austin and Quida Baldwin, also of Austin; and an aunt, Ruth of Mexico City.

AUSTIN — Gov. Dolph Briscoe has recommended an $825 million rescue program for the 71,000-mile Texas highway system. He proposed re-routing road-user taxes and federal aid to make up for declining revenues and the "ravages of inflation" on road-building.

By 1980, he said all available revenue now earmarked for highways may be required for maintenance alone, with nothing left over for new construction or upgrading obsolete roads and bridges.

Over the next 20 years, less than $2 billion in state and federal funds will be available to finance a backlog of $11 billion of construction and right-of-way purchases.

Briscoe offered these recommendations, with endorsement of House Speaker Bill Clayton.

—Dedicating three-fourths of auto sales taxes — $203 million in fiscal 1978 — and $45 million a year in car tire, tube, auto parts and accessories sales taxes to highways.

—Switching $50 million a year in road user taxes now going to support the state highway patrol to the highway fund. The Department of Public Safety would, under the proposal, get needed replacement money from general revenue.

—Setting aside $100 million a year in federal revenue-sharing funds during the next biennium for safety and improvement work, including widening of facilities and repair or replacement of unsafe bridges.

The program was assured of opposition. Comptroller Bob Bullock opposed the idea of statutory dedication of more money to highways. Common Cause said the whole idea was "irresponsible."

Saving Recommended
An actuary told the State Insurance Board motorists could save $55 million if required to have deductibles on their collision and comprehensive coverage insurance.

The proposal would still mean rates will go up — but only 5.9 per cent. Companies have asked a 27.9 per cent overall increase. The staff recommended change would send rates up $200 million a year.

Actuary Charles Edwards of Dallas recommended $50 deductibles on comprehensive coverage and $200 deductible collision coverage. He said paying the first $50 or $200 from a driver's own pocket would encourage safe driving.

Rate changes are not expected to go into effect until October 1.

Yarbrough Hit
State Supreme Court nominee Don Yarbrough of Houston has been slapped with 30 allegations by a State Bar grievance committee.

A dozen or more of the charges stem from a lawsuit against Yarbrough brought by former business associates. At the trial, Yarbrough was found to have engaged in civil fraud in law practice involving a 1975 bank transaction.

Yarbrough has been given the opportunity to defend himself against the grievances filed with a Houston Bar committee.

Wayne Paris, assistant general counsel for the State Bar of Texas, said if grievances against Yarbrough are found justified punishment could range from a public reprimand to disbarment.

GOP's Ready
It's the Republicans' turn for the spotlight, and Texas' 100-member GOP delegation (and 100 alternates) will be heading for Kansas City and their national presidential convention August 16.

All delegates and alternates are solidly bound to former California Gov. Ronald Reagan for president.

The delegation is divided in its enthusiasm for U. S. Sen. Richard S. Schweiker of Pennsylvania as Reagan's running mate but apparently prepared to stand behind the nominee's choice.

Speculation that former Gov. John Connally is high on the list of President Ford's prospects for the vice presidential nomination appeals to many Texans, but Connally emphasizes he has no commitments. The Texan faces strong opposition.

Gov. Briscoe acknowledged that Connally, if nominated, would be a "factor" in the Texas campaign, but he predicted the Democratic ticket of Jimmy Carter and U. S. Sen. Walter Mondale of Minnesota would carry the state regardless of who the GOP nominees are.

Tourist Spending Down.
Tourists liked Texas more but spent less during early 1976.

Spending by visitors was down 18 per cent from the same period a year ago, according to a tabulation of more than 10,000 questionnaires.

Increased frugality of the visitors was compensated in part by the fact they stayed an average of 9.9 days longer than the early 1975 crop of tourists.

Tourist industry watchers will be keeping a sharp eye on the summer-quarter reports (which cover the greatest influx of visitors) to see if reduced spending is a continuing factor. That report will be out next month.

Appointments
Don G. Humble of Cameron was named by the governor as 20th district judge succeeding W. C. Wallace of Cameron who resigned.

Briscoe also appointed Victoria Mayor Charles C. Carsner Jr. to the Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations. He replaces Mayor Alfredo Gutierrez Jr. of Del Rio who resigned the position.

Textbook Hearings
Seventeen groups or individuals will protest material submitted for 1976 state textbook adoption at a week of public hearings here August 16-20.

The State Textbook Committee will begin balloting on the books September 14, and the State Board of Education will hold its own textbook hearing November 11-12. Formal adoption of the texts by the board is scheduled November 13.

Short Snorts
September 1 is the deadline for utilities to be certified by the Public Utility Commission.

Value of Texas residential construction authorizations went up 47 per cent in June over the previous year.

And the Texas business activity index, as measured by Texas Business Review, climbed 16 per cent from May to June.

A new "Occupational Outlook Handbook" available for Texas Employment Commission offices projects employment information through 1985.

Ladies To Meet Monday To Make Cancer Bandages

The ladies will again meet at the Legion Hall this Monday, August 16, to make more bandages and anyone who wishes to help may come. Mrs. McCauley expressed thanks
