Borden County Coyotes 2016 1A Division I State Champions!

By Dwight Hines

Courtesy of Lamesa Press Reporter

Whenever people start thinking about football dynasties it does not take long for the likes of the National Football League's Dallas Cowboys or New England Patriots – to name only a few – to soon pop up into their minds.

Both of those NFL traditional powers have won three Super Bowl championships each in the past 23 years.

After winning back-to-back Super Bowl titles in the 1993 and 1994 seasons, the Dallas Cowboys also were crowned as the world champs again in 1996.

The New England Patriots also won back-to-back Super Bowl championships in 2004 and 2005 before being crowned as the champs again in 2015.

The Borden County Coyotes in Gail have been doing their best to build one of the strongest six-man football reputations in the Lone Star State.

"I'm not sure if dynasty is the right word, since to me dynasty means multiple championships, but they've definitely always been very competitive for many years now," O'Donnell Coach Kevin Ray, who currently is the outgoing president for the Texas

Six-Man Coaches Association, said this past week about Borden County.

"Richland Springs has now won something like eight (state) championships, where Coach (Jerry) Burkhart probably has more state championships than he does losses during his career.

"No doubt, Trey (Richey)

runs a great program (at Borden County). A big part of our profession is teaching kids how to be champions. They does that.

"A big part of our business is being in the right place at the right time. Trey Richey's done that, but he's also done a good job of taking advantage of that over the years."

Richey has had the Coyotes in the state six-man football playoffs each of the past nine years.

By capturing this year's Division I state six-man football championship this past Wednesday night at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, the Coyotes now have four state six-man championship trophies in their high school trophy case at Gail.

The Borden County Coyotes won their first state six-man championship back in 1997 when they rolled past Panther Creek, 48-16, back when all of the state's different six-man schools played in one big league.

After being the defensive coordinator on BC's first state six-man championship team in 1997, Trey Richey was that school's head coach on each of their past three state championship teams.

Starting back in 2006, six-man football was broken down into two different divisions based on each school's enrollment figures. That was a move that the Gail Gang apparently took to its liking. The Coyotes won back-to-back Division II state six-man crowns in 2008 and 2009.

"It's pretty exciting. I guarantee it's a feeling which never gets old. Probably this one was as exciting as any of them because of where we were. It's just an amazing place to play a high school football game, which made for an experience none of us will ever forget," Richey said of AT&T Stadium.

If their four state six-man championships are not enough bragging rights for the Coyotes at Gail, throw in the fact that they also have played in two more state title games. They finished as the state six-man runners-up in their 1998 and 2011 seasons.

Adding to Richey's gridiron memories at Gail is the fact that both of his sons played on his past two state championship teams. While Trace is a junior for this year's champs where he played fullback and linebacker, Tanner played on the 2009 state championship team.

"It helps seeing that same guy every day, not only knowing what he wants to do out on the field but also what his expectations are," Richey said of his keys to success.

"It's also a plus when kids can see the guys in front of them being successful. They also want a piece of it.

"Like anywhere else, it always helps having good kids, good participation and great support like we do out here."

As much pride that Trey takes in all four of his children, he once played on back-to-back state six-man championship teams himself at Jayton in 1984 and 1985. Back in December of 2009, Trey was one of the first-team running backs on the UIL's All-Century Six-Man Team.

Christmas is now just a week away and it will be interesting to see just what Santa Claus ends up bringing to Richey and the Coyote faithful.

Not only are Richey's Coyotes celebrating another state six-man championship at Gail, but it was only a couple of months ago when Richey's beloved Chicago Cubs won their first major league baseball championship in some 108 years.

"Right now," Richey said on Friday, "we're looking to having a little more time with my family. My wife and I have got an anniversary this week.

"God's blessed us with more than anything I could ever deserve."
