

State Capitol NEWS

Austin — The ordeal of the "black beans" has been repeated in the Texas Senate, although without the usual dire consequences.

Texas' Constitution requires "choice by lots" every ten years to determine which members of the Senate shall begin the decennial with two year terms and which shall receive four year terms.

Among those whom the fate of the "black bean" drawing decreed must run again next spring, if they are to remain more than two years in the Senate, were veterans George Mofett, Dorsey Hardeman, Charles F. Herring, Frank Owen III, Bruce A. Reagan and William T. Moore.

Other returning senators with half-term assignments were Galloway Calhoun Jr., Martin Dies Jr., Abraham Kazen Jr., David Ratliff and A. R. Schwartz.

Freshmen senators who got the two-year terms were H. H. Blanchard, Don Kennard, Jack Strong and J. P. Word.

Returning senators who held onto four-year terms were A. M. Alkin Jr., Mrs. Nevelle H. Colson, Tom Creighton, Louis Crump, Grady Hazlewood, Culp Krueger, George Parkhouse, William N. Patman, Andy Rogers and Franklin Spears.

New members drawing full terms were James S. Bates, Criss Cole, Ralph Hall, D. Roy Harrington, Walter Richter and Murray Watson.

However, there is a possibility that a constitutional amendment and new redistricting act may require election of all senators again next year.

COIN TOSS CHOICE
Selection of the president pro tempore of the Texas Senate was determined by the toss of a coin.

Senator Martin Dies Jr. of Lufkin won over Senator Louis Crump of San Saba when the pair decided to flip a coin for the position, rather than to oppose each other.

Customarily, the selection is made on the basis of seniority. In this instance, Dies and Crump had equal seniority.

HOUSE RULES FIGHT

Election of Speaker of the House Byron Tunnell, fourth-term representative from Tyler, took place at the opening of the 58th Legislature with only token opposition — nine votes cast for Rep. John Alaniz of San Antonio.

But the rules fight that followed Tunnell's ascension to the speaker's stand was a different story.

A group led by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston sought to adopt the permanent rules of the 57th Legislature as the temporary rules of the 58th — a custom that has been followed by previous sessions.

The last session operated under temporary rules until its waning days. It then adopted its amended rules as its own permanent rules. Thus if the current session has followed suit, it would have necessarily adopted the changed rules, under which no Legislature has operated as its own.

It decided not to do so, by a vote of 108 to 39.

HOUSE COMMITTEES NAMED

Most members of the House of Representatives felt that House Speaker Byron Tunnell was "very fair" in his committee assignments.

Rep. John Allen of Longview, who made the nominating speech for the new Speaker, will head the committee on state affairs; Rep. Ben Barnes of DeLeon will be in charge of hiring and firing for the House as head of the rules committee.

Other choice chairmanships include: Rep. W. S. Heatly Jr. of Paducah, Appropriations; Rep. Menton J. Murray of Harlingen, Congressional and Legislative Re-districting; Rep. James Cotten of Weatherford, Constitutional Amendments; Rep. Jerry Butler of Kenedy, Labor; and Rep. George Cook of Odessa, Oil, Gas and Mining.

FAMILY TRADITION

When Senator Strong took the oath of office as senator from the second district, it marked the 40th anniversary of the day his father, James G. Strong of Carthage, was first sworn in to represent the same area.

The "elder" statesman in the Strong family and his wife were witnesses to the swearing-in ceremony for their 32-year-old son.

"HOT CHECK" BILL PROPOSED

A bill which would help small-town merchants with the problem of bad checks has been prepared by Sen. Bruce Reagan, who wants an act authorizing justice of the peace courts to try bad check cases up to $25.

Under the present hot-check law, a merchant must travel to a county seat to file charges in a county court for a $10 hot check. If Reagan's bill becomes law, the merchant could file a complaint in his local justice court.

Rep. George Richardson of Fort Worth is preparing a bill which would allow justices of peace to try cases involving hot checks of less than $50. He feels that the peace court justices are closer to the people of their areas and can handle complaints quicker than district attorneys.

INSURANCE LEGISLATION

Sen. A. R. Schwartz hopes to find a solution to a problem made apparent by Hurricane Carla. After the record force struck the Texas coast, many homeowners had difficulty collecting for water damage because they had fled the scene and didn't know exactly how the damage occurred.

Schwartz's bill would require the State Board of Insurance to make insurance firms, instead of the homeowner, carry the burden of proof.

Another insurance bill is being drafted by Rep. Don Gladden of Fort Worth who will fight for legislation to protect persons injured in automobile accidents by uninsured motorists.

His bill calls for a special state fund to pay for personal injury costs incurred in accidents with uninsured drivers. Any car owner who couldn't prove ability to pay liability when he registered his car, would have to pay $20 into the fund.

"BIG-COLLEGE" VOTE WANTED

Senator W. T. Moore of Bryan says he will introduce legislation requiring a vote of the people before a four year state-supported college can be created.

70 MPH SPEED LIMIT

Rep. Forrest Harding of San Angelo will introduce a bill to increase the maximum speed limit on Texas' highways to 70 miles per hour.

"OLD FOLKS" MARCH

Texas Legislators have received a petition which says old folks of the state will camp on the Capitol lawn until they get higher pensions.

The printed petition was signed by Russell Jack Ballard. He identified himself as president of the Good Citizens League of Texas, Wichita Falls.

CHILD CONTROL

A House committee seeking economy in state government has recommended stricter regulation over state aid for illegitimate dependent children.

The Committee on Saving Taxes adopted a sub-committee report bearing this recommendation, after argument over whether such aid encourages illegitimacy.

PHONE RATE FIGHT ENDS

A phone rate dispute between the City of Weslaco and General Telephone Company of the Southwest, ended in the Texas Supreme Court. Court upheld the city's right to set local rates and the phone company's right to set rates for long distance calls within Texas.

Controversy began three years ago when General Telephone sought an injunction to keep Weslaco's city commission from setting local rates which the firm considered too low; and to keep the city from establishing interstate call rates on the same basis as that set by the Federal Communications Commission.

It often costs more to call someone in a city within the state than it does to call the same distance, or even farther, to someone in another state.

Supreme Court upheld a decision made by the 4th Court of Civil Appeals.

SECURITIES RECORD

State Securities Board says Texas made significant gains as a source of public investment funds in 1962.

In its annual report to Governor Daniel, the Board said the sharp decline in the stock market was no deterrent to public investment in funds which it regulates.

During the year the board granted 695 permits for the sale in Texas of securities valued at $357,340,707.

On the policing side of the board's activities, it reported that three applications for permits to sell to the public securities valued at a total of $745,000, were denied.

Report also noted that 22 applications representing $22,417,826 were withdrawn.

More than $445,000 in fees were collected during the year.

GOOD NEIGHBOR

Austin attorney J. Manley Head has stepped into the role of Texas' No. 1 "good neighbor."

The former legislator has been named chairman of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission. Head served four years in the House of Representatives and in the Senate from 1936 to 1941. He is a former executive of the Texas Motor Bus Association.

CHIROPRACTIC OFFICERS NAMED

New officers of the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners have been elected.

Dr. G. M. Brassard of Beaumont was chosen as president and Dr. Walter H. Fischer of Temple has been named vice president.

WATER STAFF

Hydraulic engineer Lewis B. Seward has been added to the staff of the Texas Water Commission.

Chief Engineer John J. Vandertulp said that Seward will work with the water resources planning division.

CONVICTION UPHeld

Brady land promoter B. R. Sheffield has lost another round in his battle to shed his land scandal conviction.

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has upheld his conviction on charges relating to the Texas veterans land scandals.

DEFICIT AT $53,300,000

State Treasurer Jesse James reported the State General Revenue Fund at $53,300,000 deficit on December 31, 1962.

This figure was $18,400,000 more than that reported in November, James said.

DRAFT QUOTA 173

Texas' quota for draft boards in February calls for 173 men.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz said the February call of 173 compares with a quota of 163 for January and 235 for December.

The state Selective Service Director also announced that local boards would send 1,450 men for pre-induction physical and mental examinations.

I am sure not very many care about being reminded how cold it was in Coleman County over the past weekend. The grain in our community really looks terrible. Time will tell I am sure if it is dead or not. We are sure hoping our worst winter is now history.

About Your Health

One of the chief contributors to modern American society is the institution known as baby sitting. One noted authority estimated 35 percent of the buying power attributed to teenagers probably comes from baby sitting salaries.

It wasn't too long ago, that unless mother and father had a handy grandma' around, they stayed home or took the children with them. Just as freedom has come to other oppressed groups—grandparents no longer get stuck endlessly, because more often than not, they are also out enjoying themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gill of Brownwood and Mr. Roy England were at Fairfield last Wednesday attending a polled herford sale.

As a result baby sitting has grown into what amounts to a major industry—practiced, all too often, by inexperienced and sometimes unqualified young people.

Whether the youngsters are six months old or 10 years old, parents leaving them want to know the sitter is someone they can trust.

It must be someone the parents know is responsible and sufficiently mature, one who will like the child and get along with him. This calls for a study of the sitter's references if he or she is not already well known to the family.

To be in charge of one or more children and the home they live in is a serious business. Careful arrangements need to be made between the parents and the baby sitter.

Both the parents and baby sitter have obligations in preparing and carrying out the agreement.

Parents should make the request well in advance. A thorough briefing should be made to the sitter—preferably written—explaining where the parents will be including phone numbers, and the expected time of return.

The sitter should meet the child while he is awake, especially on the first visit. The layout of the home should be explained and emergency numbers listed.

The sitter should be alerted for expected visitors or deliveries otherwise the doors and windows should remain locked. Finally the parents should have the correct change available to avoid confusion and provide safe transportation home.

The sitter's responsibilities are similar. She should keep awake—even if parents allow napping, follow parents' views on TV, phone, snacks and visitors, and make periodic checks quietly on sleeping children.

Full information on food, habits, rituals and nicknames should be obtained. Sitters should understand basic first aid and learn to suspect illness in a child. Safety should be a sitter's first consideration. (A feature from Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health.)

Natural Duck Blind

For the duck hunter who is lucky enough to have a regular shooting pond of his own, a little summer preparation will pay off handsomely.

If he has the fortthought to stick willow buds in the mud around the pond the spring before duck season opens, the buds will have grown big enough to afford him and his friends excellent natural cover for shooting.

Of Interest To VETERANS

Questions And Answers

Q—Is there a new law changing the disability rating for peacetime veterans to qualify for vocational rehabilitation?

A—One difference between the original vocational rehabilitation law and the new law is that a peacetime veteran with a disability rated less than 30 percent must have "a pronounced employment handicap" in order to qualify for vocational rehabilitation.

Q—When can I expect the regular and special dividend on my GI insurance?

A—The regular and special dividend checks will be mailed in January. VA officials expect that 75 percent of all dividend checks will be in the mail by mid-January.

Q—Understand income questionnaire forms will be mailed out earlier this year to veterans and dependents of deceased veterans receiving pensions. Does this mean they have to be returned earlier?

A—The forms should be returned to the address in the upper right hand corner as soon as possible. However the deadline remains January 31.

TAX-MAN SAM SEZ:

The fact that Internal Revenue collects 97% of our taxes without any enforcement effort on the part of Internal Revenue is one of the finest compliments to the American citizens that could be paid. The tax folks believe that most American taxpayers want to do what is right. They also want IRS to see that other folks do what is right. None of us want to pay any more than we owe but we are willing to do our share if the other fellow is made to do his share.

Tricking A Squirrel

Many squirrel hunters in Texas use dogs to rout out their game. If you hunt this way, here is a trick that will get a treed squirrel to show itself every time.

Carry a number of small dog biscuits with you that have been dipped in beef broth the night before. When a bushytail is treed and sticks to the far side of the tree, let dog smell biscuit then chunk it to other side of tree.

Dog will go after biscuit and squirrel will scamper around tree to where you can shoot it.

Sheep Producers To Meet In Las Vegas Jan. 20-23

Las Vegas, Nev. — The nation's sheep producers, determined to maintain their hard-won hold on improved economic conditions, have booked experts on every phase of the industry for the 98th annual convention of the National Wool Growers Assn., in Las Vegas, Jan. 20 thru 23.

Production, marketing, taxes, research, domestic and international influences are all on the agenda, along with brief fun sessions and Women's Auxiliary events including finals of the Make It Yourself With Wool contest Monday night.

President Penrose B. Metcalfe of San Angelo, Texas, who recently returned from a London Wool and Wool Textile conference will preside at business sessions and report on his two-year stewardship of the national association which has seen sheep producers move into a more favorable position.

Metcalfe said that Congressman Harold D. Cooley will keynote the convention on Jan. 21.

Continuing, Metcalfe said that the address "Selling Wool to the World" by William J. Vines, Managing Director International Wool Secretariat London, Eng., is expected to get top attention from the 1,000 or more wool growers anticipated at the sessions. Factual information given during the 3-day meet may well point the way growers may hang onto present gains, Metcalfe said.

New Guard Rail Now In Use On Texas Highways

Austin — Texas Highway Department design engineers have put an "end" to metal beam guard rails by literally adding a twist and burying the end of the rail in the ground.

The result is a new safety design feature which may result in making the guard rails doubly protective. They still will help prevent vehicles from leaving the road at dangerous places, and the buried ends will help eliminate the possibility of a fatal accident which might occur if a car hit the end of the rail.

The new buried-end guard rails were developed by engineers in the Highway Design Division at the main office in Austin. The first highway district to use the new rails was the Lufkin District.

Guard rails originally were designed to prevent vehicles from leaving the highway at any point where it would be dangerous for them to do so, such as along high embankments, by culverts, or on the outside of curves.

The rails are parallel to the roadside, with the end of the rail projecting uncovered. If a fast traveling car should leave the road and crash into the end of a guard rail, the rail might be driven part or all the way through the car with fatal results.

Lufkin District engineers built two guard rails on U. S. Highway 59 over Laurellia Creek two miles south of Corrigan in Polk County, to test the construction methods. This marked the first time the safety guard rails were used on Texas highways.

Soon after this test project the Lufkin engineers incorporated the new design in construction plans for Loop 224 in Nacogdoches County.

Other highway districts throughout the state showed quick interest in the safety guard rails. Already the rails have been included in about half a dozen future construction projects.

Installation of the new rails is relatively simple. Parallel to the roadside, the metal beam rail is laid in place and secured over its supporting posts. The weight of the overlapping beam will almost bend itself half way down. One man pressing with his foot can bend it into position. The end of the rail is attached to a 6-foot anchor post and sunk into a hole, with concrete poured in around it for further stabilization.

This new method provides full impact strength at the end of the guard rail, a shortcoming of the old method.

On April 18, 1949, Erie became the Free Republic of Ireland, cutting last ties with Britain.

Food rationing began on March 1, 1943.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

TIPS FROM THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSN.

Family Health Record

How many times have you needed basic health facts about members of your family — for school records, for insurance forms, for a doctor's medical history?

A family health record is your compilation of these facts. Like vital statistics in the family Bible, notations on family health, kept accurately and up-to-date, can be of permanent value.

The family health record should contain an accurate report of dates and findings of physical examinations, illnesses or injuries that required a doctor's attention, dates of all vaccinations, dates and reasons therefor of all stays in the hospital.

The record should include a checklist of diseases contracted by each family member, particularly the more common infections such as chicken pox, measles, mumps, whooping cough, scarlet fever. Frequently a light case of one of these diseases confers immunity thereafter, and it could be important to know positively whether you have had measles or mumps should you be exposed again.

Full records of any known allergies or drug sensitivities also are important. Some people, for instance, react violently to penicillin, but can safely be given other forms of antibiotics.

A careful study of your family's health insurance coverage also is a part of the health record. Many of us have never bothered to read the fine print in the health insurance policies, and thus we aren't certain whether we are covered in all situations or not. It also helps to make a note of all payments received from claims against health insurance policies.

Record of vaccinations will serve as a reminder to get booster shots at proper intervals. The smallpox shot should be taken every five years, and, if leaving the United States, every three years. Boosters are also recommended for some of the other widely used immunizations. Check with your doctor to see whether your family is fully protected against those contagious diseases for which vaccines are available.

The record may be kept in an old ledger, a small notebook or any other form, so long as it will stand wear and tear of time and usage. It also is advisable to carry an abbreviated version of the health record in purse or wallet. Should a medical emergency arise in your family, the health record may even help to save a life or forestall serious illness.

Reds and Flounder Continue To Grow In Two Reservoirs

San Angelo — Fingerling salt water redfish and flounder stocked in Imperial Reservoir in April, 1961 are growing more rapidly than expected, according to Henry Burkett, Region I director.

Two and one-half year old reds now weigh 12 1/2 pounds. Flounder have grown to 7 1/2 pounds in the last 2 1/2 years. In Red Bluff Reservoir, 2-year-old reds now weigh 7 1/2 pounds.

Larry Campbell, fishery biologist in charge of the project, says rapid growth was hoped for, but so far growth has been well above expectations. According to Campbell, reproduction should occur next year.

Fishermen are urged to cooperate with the Game and Fish Commission by promptly releasing salt water fish caught in Red Bluff or Imperial Reservoir so they may reproduce.

More Duck Decoy Action

Duck decoys often are inclined to be sluggish, especially when the water is calm.

Speed up action by adjusting weight cords so they are about 18 inches longer than water is deep. Decoys will then be livelier, swim faster, and look more natural.

It's Time For... EYE CARE

Dr. Newton K. Wesley EYE ACCOMMODATION

Eye accommodation means the ability of the eye to maintain focus at various distances. There is a focusing mechanism in the eye itself which acts just like a zoomar lens. At distance, the eye has one focus or power, and at a close point, the eye accommodates or focuses at a different power. This is done so quickly and automatically, we all tend to take it for granted—until it is lost to us.

When this action is lost, the eye condition is called "presbyopia" or farsightedness, and we require glasses, at least for reading.

You will notice that those who wear reading glasses do not have a range. By "range" we mean the ability to maintain sharp focus when the reading material is moved in or out.

You may have seen eye doctors check the "range." They prefer to have the individual able to see closer and further away than the reading distance. The more you can do this, the greater range you have. The older we get, the less range we enjoy.

Accommodation, however, is only one type of vision examination. There are many other tests we must take to learn the true condition of our sight.

The National Eye Research Foundation suggests eye examinations regularly, preferably every six months.

The main topic of conversation this week in our community is the weather. Most everyone complains of the bitter cold we had over the weekend. However, the main concern of the farmers is the grain. The wheat seems to look pretty good, but the oats are brown and have a burnt look. A warm rain and sunshine would change the picture, but for the present no one knows just how much damage has been done.

Rev. Bruce Hornell, preached both services at church Sunday. He and his wife and Melvin Bull of Santa Anna were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grady McIver and Terry.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Boenicke visited with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Looney Monday night. Mr. Frank Shield and Mr. Fitzgerald of Graham visited in the Boenicke home Tuesday, and Rev. John Wrench of Santa Anna was a dinner guest Sunday.

Several couples enjoyed a 42 party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bond Featherston Friday night.

Tractor Tune-ups Increase Efficiency

College Station — Tuning-up your gasoline or liquified petroleum gas tractor can increase its power by 11 percent and fuel efficiency as much as 14 percent, says Henry O'Neal, extension agricultural engineer, Texas A&M College. And this increased power and economy can mean savings in time as well, he continues.

LP gas and gasoline engines usually require a tune-up every 250 hours of operation and if these adjustments are not made when needed the engine cannot deliver the power it was designed to give and fuel will be wasted. Improper timing and carburetor adjustment can seriously harm an engine because of over heating and oil dilution from unburned fuel, O'Neal says.

Some of these simple tune-up procedures can be performed by the farmer with only a little extra equipment and the hand tools he has available in his farm shop. This equipment, a flat feeler gage, a round spark plug gap gage, ignition file, and a timing light cost a total of about eight dollars, the engineer says.

According to O'Neal, the Operators Manual which outlines the procedures and furnishes the proper specifications for the engine, is the best guide to use when performing the engine tune-up.

Drinking Cup For Dog

Quail and coon hunters in Texas often run into long spells of dry, hot weather that make it necessary to take along water for the dogs.

Remember to also carry with you some heavy aluminum foil to quickly shape up a drinking vessel for the pooch when he gets thirsty.

 The assembly was opened with the pledge to the flag. Carol Campbell led the group in singing "God Bless America." Arlene Welch was at the piano. Rev. Barnett, Methodist Minister, spoke to us on the 14th and 18th Amendments. He said these have caused us difficulty. We closed our assembly with the singing of the Alma Mater.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS
 New Year's Resolutions are made and sometimes they are broken, but sometimes they are kept. This writer doesn't make any because it is so hard to keep one. This is just a reminder to all of you who did make resolutions to try hard to keep each one. Linda Horner says she resolved to study her Algebra more and get to bed earlier. She already has broken both of hers. Better luck next time, Linda.

SUPT. AT AUSTIN
 Supt. Cullen N. Perry was in Austin last week to attend the annual Administrator's Advisers' Conference which is sponsored by the Texas Education Agency. At the meeting, proposals are made and new ideas are discussed, which will better the teacher education program.

 We are glad to welcome the new students who have come to our school this month. We welcome Mike Wilson who moved here from Gorman; Kathy Langford and Carol Hamonds, who moved to Santa Anna from Bangs. We hope you will be happy here and we will all become better acquainted.

MID-TERM EXAMINATIONS
 Our Mid-Term Examination schedule has been changed up this time because of the Stock Show in Coleman this week. Part of our tests were held last Friday, January 11. The remaining exams will be given Thursday and Friday of this week. As you burn the mid-night oil preparing for your exams, remember it is a good idea to get that much needed sleep. We are wishing every student good luck on his tests.

JOIN THE BAND
 Join the Band! The Band needs you! Our goal for the Santa Anna Band is to have a 65 member all-Senior Band. We now have 2 freshmen, 18 sophomores, 14 juniors, and 5 seniors. We sincerely hope that all the high school students will give this some serious thought, and join the Band.

BOWENS HAVE NEW BABY
 The students were happy that Mr. Bowen became a father for the second time last Wednesday night around 10:30 p. m. Karen Leigh is the name selected by Mr. and Mrs. Bowen for their new daughter. It was reported Monday morning that both mother and daughter are at home and are doing fine. She didn't even cry much Sunday night, Mr. Bowen said. Carla, a first grader, welcomes the new sister, too. Congratulations, Mr. Bowen!

EXCHANGE CLUB MEETING
 Tuesday, January 8, Pete Simmons and Mr. Mathews had breakfast at Coleman as guests of the Coleman Exchange Club. Students from several other schools in the county were there also. Pete is the second outstanding student from SAHS to be honored. Each person honored by the Exchange Club receives a plaque to signify the honor. We are proud that Pete was selected to receive this honor.

TRIG CLASS FIELD TRIP
 In the cold morning air, Saturday, January 12, Mr. Tindol and four of his students went to Brownwood to see a demonstration of the computer at Howard Payne College. While Mr. Tindol attended his classes, these students (Danny Wylie, Clayton Jackson, Lynn Rice and Sherman Stearns) watched the computer go through its paces. The demonstration consisted of an explanation of how the machine works several games that dealt with probability and ratios. Figuratively speaking, the students could have lost four dollars to the machine in certain games of chance. It was an interesting and full morning for the trig class.

CAMPUS CHATTER
 Terry McIver, who was that girl wearing your ring Wednesday? You're turning into a regular Don Juan!

Bill Horne, have you got a girl friend from Snyder? We have been hearing rumors to that effect.

Arlene Welch, would you care to explain about the blouse that you were wearing at the FHA meeting Monday night? It looked a little like a scarf!

Gary Sudderth, did you and Nancy have fun Thursday afternoon?

LaWanda Horner, that is a new ring you are wearing, isn't it?

Since the football boys have gotten their new letter jackets, this reporter has noticed that a lot of girls are modeling different jackets too.

If anyone has a copy of "All I Want For Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth," please mail it to Pete Simmons, care of the Beta Club, even though it is past Christmas. That is Pete's theme song these days. Seriously, Pete, you look real cute!

Clara Wright, have you got a new ring, third finger, left hand? What is his name, Clara?

Since this is Mid-Term week, everyone is pegging away at their books. Good Luck, everybody!

The Beta Club and all of SAHS would like to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. "Cotton" Bowen on the birth of their new daughter, Karen Leigh. If she keeps you awake all night, Mr. B., you can sleep through all of your history classes. We won't mind a bit! Honest!

Linda Brannan, do you have an interest in the Junior class these days? If you do, and he is the one this reporter is thinking about, he nearly electrocuted himself and set fire to the basketball concession stand when he stepped on the popcorn-popper cord!

Cheryl Fitzpatrick, whose lap were you sitting in Monday night at the grade school basketball game?

The Juniors and the Seniors have been writing their autobiographies for Mrs. Gloria C. Find any hidden skeletons, Mrs. C.?

Jimmy Taylor, whose senior ring did you have on Friday morning? Gracious, but these Juniors are getting to be good at the ring business!

Wade Rehm, do you really think that Jello is alive? It isn't you know! It just looks like it.

Karen McCluskey and Terry Moore were babysitting Saturday night. Did Joe Al have fun? Well — from your roving reporter, so long. And — Good night Wilberforce, wherever you are!

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS
 The Santa Anna Future Homemakers of America Chapter met in regular session at the Santa Anna High School Auditorium January 7, 1963. The opening ritual was led by Jo Ann Wallace, president. The minutes were read by Cheryl Fitzpatrick, secretary. Earla Buse gave the treasurers report. It was discussed to have a return meeting for the Future Farmers of America. The Chapter was told that the FHA Chapter would receive a twenty-five dollar bond which has matured. The bond was purchased by a previous chapter. The group decided to re-invest the money in another bond, and buy punch cups for the Chapter with the remaining money. Lawanda Horner, projects chairman, gave a report on the January project. It will be to urge teenagers to stay in school.

Frances Davenport, historian, gave a report on what she sent to the Area IV scrapbook.

The group viewed two films on "Family Relations". Refreshments were served by Kay Haynes, Mary Haynes, Lawanda Horner and Linda Horner.
